§ 214. The board of aldermen shall appoint one of the justices of the peace to be presiding justice, who, as such, shall hold office until his successor shall in the same manner be appointed; and any one of the other justices may attend, preside and act as presiding justice during the temporary absence or disability of the justice so appointed. The board of aldermen, within ten days after its organization as such board, shall appoint a justices' clerk, who shall hold office during the pleasure of the appointing power. The clerk shall take the constitutional oath of office, and give bond, with at least two sufficient sureties, to be approved in the same manner as the official bond of other officers of such city, or city and county, in the sum of not less than fifteen thousand dollars, payable to the city, or city and county, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office, and well and truly to account for and pay into the treasury of such city, or city and county, as required by law, all moneys by him collected or received, and by law designated for that use. A new or additional bond may be required by the municipal council whenever it deems it necessary; and on failure to furnish such new or additional bond within five days after it shall be required, the office shall become vacant. The justices' clerk shall have authority to administer oaths, and take and certify affidavits in any action, suit or proceeding in all courts in such city, or city and county, and to appoint two deputy clerks, for whose acts he shall be responsible on his official bond; the said deputy clerks to hold office during the pleasure of said clerk. Said deputy clerks have the same power as the said clerk, except that of appointment.

Offices for justices, and office hours.

§ 215. The municipal council of such city, or city and county, shall provide, in some convenient locality in the city, or city and county, a suitable office, or suite of offices, for said presiding justice, justices' clerk, deputy clerk, and deputy sheriff, and offices suitable for holding sessions of said court, and separate from one another, for each of said justices of the peace, together with attendants, furniture, fuel, lights and stationery, sufficient for the transaction of business; and if they are not provided, the court may direct the sheriff to provide the same, and the expenses incurred, certified by the justices to be correct, shall be a charge against the city, or city and county, treasury and paid out of the general fund thereof. The said justices, justices' clerk and deputy clerk, shall be in attendance at their respective offices for the dispatch of official business daily, from the hour of 9 o'clock A. M. until 5 o'clock P. M.

Legal process, how issued.

§ 216. All legal process of every kind in actions, suits or proceedings in said justices' court, for the issue of service of which any fee is or may be allowed by law, shall be issued by the said justices' clerk, upon the order of the presiding justice, or upon the order of one of the justices of the peace, acting as presiding justice, as in this chapter provided; and the fees for issuance and service of all such process, and all other fees which are allowed by law for any official services of justices, justices' clerk, or sheriff, shall be exacted and paid in advance into the hands of said clerk, and be by him daily, weekly or monthly, as the municipal council may require, and before his salary shall be allowed, accounted for in detail, under oath, and paid into the treasury of such city, or city and county, as part of the special fee fund thereof; provided, that such payment in advance shall not be exacted from parties who may prove, to the satisfaction of the presiding justice, that they have good cause of action, and that they are not of sufficient pecuniary ability to pay the legal fees; and no judgment shall be rendered in any action before said justices' court, or any of said justices, until the fees allowed therefor, and all fees for previous services therein, which are destined to be paid into the treasury, shall have been paid, except in cases of poor persons, as hereinbefore provided.

Sheriff and deputies for justices' courts.

§ 217. The sheriff of such city and county shall be ex-officio an officer of said court, and it shall be his duty to serve or execute, or cause to be served and executed, each and every process, writ, or order that may be issued by said justices' court; provided, that a summons issued from said court may be served and returned as provided in section 849 of the Code of Civil Procedure; and that subpoenas may be issued by the justices' clerk, and served as provided in sections 1987 and 1988 of the Code of Civil Procedure. The said sheriff may appoint, in addition to the other deputies allowed by law, three deputies, whose duty it shall be to assist said sheriff in serving and executing the process, writs, and orders of the said justices' court. Said deputies shall receive a salary of not to exceed one hundred and twenty-five dollars per month each, payable monthly, out of the city and county treasury, and out of the special fee fund, after being first allowed and audited as other demands are by law required to be audited and allowed. One of said deputies shall remain in attendance during the sessions of said court, and at such other times as the said court or the presiding justice thereof may order and direct, for the purpose of attending to such duties as may be imposed on said sheriff or said deputies, as herein provided or required by law. The said sheriff shall be liable on his official bond for the faithful performance of all duties required of him or any of his said deputies.

§ 218. All actions, suits, and proceedings in such city, or city and county, whereof justices of the peace or justices' courts have jurisdiction, except those cases of concurrent jurisdiction that may be commenced in some other court, shall be entitled: "In the justices' court of the city of— (or the city and county of—)," (inserting the name of the city, or city and county), and commenced and prosecuted in said justices' court, which shall be always open. The original process shall be returnable, and the parties summoned required to appear, before the presiding justice, or before one of the other justices of the peace, to be designated by the presiding justice at his office; but all complaints, answers, and other pleadings and papers required to be filed, shall be filed and a record of all such actions, suits, and proceedings made and kept in the clerk's office aforesaid; and the presiding justice, and each of the other justices, shall have power, jurisdiction, and authority to hear, try, and determine any action, suit, or proceeding so commenced, and which shall have been made returnable before him, or may be assigned or transferred to him, or any motion, application, or issue therein (subject to the constitutional right of trial by jury), and to make any necessary and proper orders therein.

In case of disability of justice, case to be tried before another justice.

§ 219. In case of sickness, or disability, or absence of a justice of the peace (on the return of a summons, or at the time appointed for trial) to whom a cause has been assigned, the presiding justice shall reassign the cause to some other justice, who shall proceed with the trial and disposition of said cause in the same manner as if originally assigned to him; and if, at any time before the trial of a cause or matter returnable or pending before any of said justices, either party shall object to having the cause or matter tried before said justice on the ground that such justice is a material witness for either party, or on the ground of the interest, prejudice, or bias of such justice, and such objection be made to appear in the manner prescribed by section 833 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the said justice shall suspend proceedings, and the presiding justice, on motion and production before him of the affidavit and proofs, shall order the transfer of the cause or matter for trial before some other justice, to be designated by him. The presiding justice may, in like manner, assign or transfer any contested motion, application, or issue in law, arising in any cause, returnable or pending before him or any other justice, to some other justice, and the said justice to whom any cause, matter, motion, application, or issue shall be so as aforesaid assigned or transferred, shall have power, jurisdiction, and authority to hear, try, and determine the same accordingly.

Certain cases to be certified to superior court by presiding justice, and justices' clerk.

§ 220. Cases which, by the provisions of law, are required to be certified to the superior court, by reason of involving the question of title or possession of real property, or the legality of any tax, impost, assessment, toll, or municipal fine, shall be so certified by the presiding justice and justices' clerk; and for that purpose, if such question shall arise on the trial while the case is pending before one of the other justices, such justice shall certify the same to the presiding justice. All abstracts and transcripts of judgments and proceedings in said court, or in any of the dockets or registers of or deposited in said court, shall be given and certified from any of such dockets or registers and signed by the presiding justice and clerk, and shall have the same force and effect as abstracts and transcripts of justices of the peace in other cases. Appeals from judgments rendered in said court shall be taken and perfected in the manner prescribed by law, and the notice of appeal and all papers required to be filed to perfect it shall be filed with the justices' clerk. Statements on appeal shall be settled by the justice who tried the cause. Sureties on appeal, or on any bond or undertaking given in any cause or proceeding in said court, when required to justify, may justify before any one of the justices.

Jurisdiction.

§ 221. The jurisdiction of the justices' court of such city, or city and county, extends to the limits of the city, or city and county, and its process may be served in any part thereof.

Powers of associate justices.

§ 222. The presiding justice, whenever in his judgment the prompt dispatch of business shall demand it, may require the aid of one of the justices of the peace in the discharge either of his own duties or those of the justices' clerk (the collection of fees, accounting for, and paying the same into the treasury excepted), and each of the justices, when so required, shall, for the purpose, have the same power and authority as the presiding justice or clerk in whose aid he shall act; and any one of the justices, when required as aforesaid, may act as a justices' clerk pro tempore during the temporary absence or disability of such clerk, with the same powers, duties, and responsibilities.

"Justices' Docket."

§ 223. In a suitable book, strongly bound, the justices' clerk shall keep a permanent record of all actions, proceedings, and judgments commenced, had, or rendered in said justices' court, which book shall be a public record, and be known as the "Justices' Docket," in which docket the clerk shall make the same entries as are provided for in section 911 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and which said docket and entries therein shall have the same force and effect as is provided by law in reference to dockets of justices of the peace. To enable the clerk to make up such docket, each of the justices shall keep minutes of his proceedings in every cause returnable before, or assigned or transferred to, him for trial or hearing; and upon judgment, or other disposition of a cause, such justice shall immediately certify and return the said minutes, together with all pleadings and papers in said cause, to the clerk's office, who shall immediately thereupon file the same, and make the proper entries under the title of the action in the docket aforesaid.

Procedure.

§ 224. The justices' court and the justices of the peace of every such city and county shall be governed in their proceedings by the provisions of law regulating proceedings before justices of the peace, so far as such provisions are not altered or modified in this chapter, and the same are or can be made applicable in the several cases arising before them. The justices' court of such city, or city and county, shall have power to make rules, not inconsistent with the constitution and laws, for the government of such justices' court and the officers thereof; but such rules shall not be in force until thirty days after their publication; and no rule shall be made imposing any tax or charge on any legal proceeding, or giving any allowance to any justice or officer for services.

New justices' court a continuation of old.

§ 225. All actions and proceedings pending and undetermined before the justices' court of such city, or city and county, if any, at the time of its organization under this act, shall be proceeded in, heard, and determined before the court herein provided for, and execution shall be issued thereon, and other proceedings had therein, whether before or after judgment, whether on appeal or otherwise; and the court provided for under this act shall be deemed to be a continuation of the same court before existing, and not a new court.

Prohibition to practice by justices.

§ 226. It shall not be lawful for any justice of the peace, the justices' clerk, or the sheriff, or any of his deputies, of such city, or city and county, to appear or advocate, or in any manner act as attorney, counsel, or agent for any party or person in any cause, or in relation to any demand, account, or claim, pending, or to be sued or prosecuted before said justices, or any of them, or which may be within their jurisdiction. A violation of the provisions of this section shall be deemed a misdemeanor in office.

Qualifications of attorneys.

§ 227. No person other than an attorney at law, duly admitted and licensed to practice in courts of record, shall be permitted to appear as attorney or agent for any party in any cause or proceeding before said justices, or any of them, unless he produce a sufficient power of attorney to that effect, duly executed and acknowledged before one of said justices, or before some other officer authorized by law to take acknowledgment of deeds; which power of attorney, or a true copy thereof, duly certified by one of the justices aforesaid (who, on inspection of the original, shall attest to its genuineness), shall be filed among the papers in such cause or proceeding.

Appointment of additional justices.

§ 228. If, at the time of the organization of any such city, or city and county, under this act, there shall not be the complement of justices of the peace provided for in this chapter, the municipal council of such city, or city and county shall appoint a suitable person or persons to fill such complement and the person or persons so appointed shall hold office from his or their appointment, and until his or their successor or successors is or are elected or appointed and qualified.

Police court.

§ 229. The judicial power of such city, or city and county, shall be vested in a "police court," to be held therein by the police judges. The police court shall not be a court of record. Said court shall have a seal. The judges of said court may hold as many sessions of said court at the same time as there are judges thereof. There shall be two departments of said court, denominated, respectively, Department One and Department Two. The court may sit in departments, and shall be always open for the transaction of business. There shall be, as far as practicable, an equal distribution of cases between the said departments, which cases shall be alternately set down for trial to each department in the order in which the warrants are issued or proceedings brought before the court. Said judges shall, as soon as may be after the commencement of the terms of their office, classify themselves by lot for assignment to said departments, and shall be thereby assigned accordingly.

Power and jurisdiction of police court.

§ 230. All the power and jurisdiction of said court shall be enjoyed and may be exercised in bank, or in either department thereof. All the powers of said judges may be exercised by either of them.

Same.

§ 231. The police court of such city, or city and county, shall have jurisdiction:

1. Of an action or proceeding for the violation of any ordinance of such city, or city and county;
2. Of proceedings respecting vagrants and disorderly persons.

Same.

§ 232. The police court shall have jurisdiction of the following public offenses committed in such city, or city and county:

1. Petit larceny; receiving stolen property, when the amount involved does not exceed fifty dollars.
2. Assault and battery, not charged to have been committed upon a public officer in the discharge of his duties or with intent to kill;
3. Breaches of the peace, riots, affrays, committing willful injury to property, and of all misdemeanors punishable by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment;

4. Said court or judges shall have jurisdiction of proceedings for security to keep the peace; and also, throughout such city and county, the same powers and jurisdiction, in other criminal actions, cases, prosecutions, and proceedings as are now or hereafter may be conferred by law upon police or justices' courts.

Power to hold examinations.

§ 233. The judges of said court shall have power to hear cases for examination, and may commit and hold the offender to bail for trial in the superior court, and may try, condemn, or acquit, and carry their judgment into execution, as the case may require according to law, and shall have power to issue warrants of arrest, subpoenas, and all other process necessary to the full and proper exercise of their power and jurisdiction.

May commit to home of inebriate.

§ 234. Said court or judges shall also have power to commit to the home for the care of the inebriate, when any such institute may be established, any person who may be convicted before them of habitual intemperance, for a term not exceeding six months, or until sooner released by order of the police judges, or by the board of managers of such institution by a two-thirds vote of all the members of said board.

When may commit to industrial schools.

§ 235. The said court or judges shall have the power to commit all offenders duly convicted, under eighteen years of age, to the industrial school of said city and county, in all cases where such commitment shall by said court or judge be deemed to be more suitable than the punishment otherwise provided by law, not to exceed six months. If, upon any trial, it shall appear that the person on trial is under fourteen years of age, and has done an act which if done by a person of full age would warrant a conviction of the crime of misdemeanor charged, then and in that case said court or judges shall have power to commit such child to the industrial school. In either case said court or judges may sentence such person to be confined in the correctional department of said industrial school for any term not exceeding six months. Upon application of the mayor, or any member of the supervisors, or of any three citizens, charging that any child under eighteen years of age lives an idle, or dissolute life, and that his parents are dead, or, if living, do, from drunkenness or other vices or causes, neglect to provide any suitable employment, or exercise salutary control over such child, the said court or judges shall have power to examine the matter, and upon being satisfied of the truth of such charges, may sentence such child to the industrial school; provided, that no person shall be so sentenced for a longer period than until he arrive at the age of eighteen years.

May sentence to labor on public works, etc.

§ 236. In cases where, for any offense, the said court or judges are authorized to impose a fine, or imprisonment in the county jail, or both, it or they may instead sentence the offender to be employed at labor on the public works, or in the house of correction or workhouse as the supervisors may prescribe, for a period of time equal to the term of imprisonment which might legally be imposed, and may, in case a fine is imposed, embrace as a part of the sentence that in default of payment thereof the offender shall be obliged to labor on said works, at said house of correction or workhouse, or elsewhere, at the rate of one dollar a day, till the fine imposed is satisfied; provided, that no person under the age of twenty-one years, or who is to be sentenced, on conviction for drunkenness or breach of the peace, shall be sentenced to labor upon the public works away from the house of correction or workhouse.

Punishment of contempt.

§ 237. The said court and judges may punish contempts in the same manner and to the same extent as superior courts, and the laws concerning contempts applicable to superior courts shall be applicable to said police court and judges.

Record to be kept by county clerk.

§ 238. The county clerk shall keep a record of the proceedings of the police court, issue all process ordered by said court, and shall render to the auditor, monthly, and before any amount can be paid to him on account of his salary, an exact and detailed account, upon oath, of all fines imposed, and all bail forfeited, and moneys collected, as clerk of said court, since his last account rendered. He shall prepare bonds, justify and accept bail, when the amount has been fixed by the police judges, in cases not exceeding one thousand dollars, and he shall fix, justify, and accept bail after arrest, in the absence of the police judges, in all cases not amounting to a felony, in the same manner and with the like effect as if the same had been fixed by the police judges or police court. The county clerk shall appoint three deputy clerks, who shall act as deputy clerks of said police court. The clerk and the deputy clerks in this section mentioned shall have authority to administer oaths and affirmations, and take and certify affidavits in any proceeding in said police court, in and for said city and county, and to issue subpoenas.

Office hours.

§ 239. The police judges and the deputy clerks shall attend at the courtrooms of said court for the dispatch of business daily, from the hour of 9 o'clock A. M. until 5 o'clock P. M., and during such other reasonable hours as may be necessary for the discharge of their respective duties, except on legal holidays.

Payment of fines by clerk into treasury.

§ 240. The county clerk, as clerk of the police court, shall pay to the treasurer of said city and county, immediately, all fines collected and bail forfeited, accompanied by a verified written statement showing from whom each fine was collected, when collected, in what case, specifying the offense, and in what amount, and in what case and by whom such bail was forfeited. He shall immediately upon the forfeiting of any bail

Employ and dismiss teachers, etc.

4. To employ and pay and to dismiss teachers, janitors, school-census marshals, and such mechanics and laborers, and such other persons as may be necessary to carry into effect the powers and duties of the board, and unless otherwise provided by law, to fix, alter, and allow paid their salaries and compensations, and to withhold, for good and sufficient cause, the whole or any part of the salary or wages of any person or persons employed as aforesaid.

Make and establish rules, etc.

5. Also to make and establish and enforce all necessary and proper rules and regulations for the government and efficiency of the schools, teachers, and pupils, and for the carrying into effect of the school system; and to establish and regulate, and grade the schools, the course of studies and mode of instruction therein; to investigate all charges of misconduct on the part of teachers and other employees of the board; to administer oaths and take testimony; to summon and enforce the attendance of and examine witnesses for such purpose before the board, or a member or committee thereof. Any person summoned and refusing to attend and testify shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor; and any person testifying falsely shall be guilty of perjury, and on conviction punished accordingly.

Provide fuel, stationery, etc.

6. To provide for the school department of such city, or city and county, fuel, lights, blanks, blank-books, books, printing, and stationery, and such other articles, materials, or supplies as may be necessary and appropriate for use in the schools, or in the office of the superintendent.

Provide schoolhouses.

7. To build, alter, repair, rent, and provide schoolhouses, and furnish them with proper school furniture, apparatus, and appliances, and to insure any and all school property, and to use and control such buildings as may be necessary for the uses of the board and its committees.

To purchase school lots.

8. To receive, purchase, lease, and hold in fee, in trust for such city, or city and county, any and all real estate and personal property that may have been or which hereafter may be acquired for the use and benefit of the schools of such city, or city and county.

Grade school lots.

9. To grade, fence, and improve school lots, and in front thereof.

To sue and be sued.

10. To sue for any and all lots, lands, and property belonging to or claimed by the school department of such city, or city and county, and to prosecute and defend all actions at law or in equity necessary to recover the full enjoyment and possession of said lots, lands, and property, and to require the services of the city, or city and county, attorney in all such suits and proceedings.

To superintend disbursement of school moneys.

11. To establish regulations for the just and equal disbursement of all moneys belonging to the school department, or to the public school fund, and to make rules and regulations to secure economy and accountability in the expenditure of school money.

To sell certain personal property.

12. To discharge all legal encumbrances existing upon any school property; to dispose of and sell such personal property used in the schools as shall no longer be required, and all moneys realized by such sales shall be paid into the city treasury to the credit of the public school fund.

To lease lots, etc.

13. To lease, for the benefit of the public school fund, for a term not exceeding five years, any unoccupied property of the school department not required for school purposes; to prohibit any child under six years of age from attending the schools; and generally to do and perform such other acts as may be necessary and proper to carry into force and effect the powers conferred on said board.

Who may administer oaths.

§ 250. The president of the board of education, the superintendent, and the secretary shall have power to administer oaths or affirmations concerning any demands upon the treasury payable out of the public school fund, or other matters relating to their official duties or the school department.

Reports.

§ 251. It shall be the duty of each director to make quarterly reports to the board of the condition of the schools in their respective districts.

Supplies, how furnished.

§ 252. It shall be the duty of the board of education to furnish all necessary supplies for the public schools. All supplies, books, stationery, fuel, printing, goods, material, building, repairs, merchandise, and every other article and thing supplied to or done for the public schools, or any of them, when the expenditure to be incurred is likely to exceed two hundred dollars, shall be done by contract, let to the lowest responsible bidder, after advertisement by the superintendent of schools; and the contract shall be entered into by the superintendent with the party to whom the contract is awarded; and the superintendent shall take care that such contract is carried out in strict accordance with the terms thereof.

Bids and contracts, how made and awarded.

§ 253. All bids or proposals made under the preceding section shall be delivered to the superintendent of schools, and said board shall, in open session, open, examine, and publicly declare the same, and award the contract to the lowest responsible bidder; provided, said board may reject any and all bids, should they deem it for the public good, and also the bid of any party who may be proved delinquent or unfaithful in any former contract with such city and county, or said board, and cause a republication of the notice for proposals as above specified. Any person may bid for any one article.

Not to be interested in contract.

§ 254. Any school director, officer, or other person officially connected with the school department, or drawing a salary from the board of education, who shall, while in office, or so connected, or drawing salary, be interested, either directly or indirectly, in, or who shall gain any benefit or advantage from any contract, payments under which are to be made in whole or in part of the moneys derived from the school fund, or raised by taxation or otherwise for the support of the public schools, shall be deemed guilty of felony, and on conviction, punished accordingly; and this provision shall not be construed to relieve such persons from any other penalty, but shall be deemed cumulative to and with other penalties and disabilities as to such acts and offenses.

Annual report.

§ 255. The board shall make and transmit, between the fifteenth day of January and the first day of February of each year, to the state superintendent of public instruction, and to the mayor and municipal council of such city, or city and county, a report, in writing, stating the whole number of public schools within the jurisdiction, the length of time they have been kept open, the number of pupils taught in each school, the whole amount of money drawn from the treasury by the department during the year, distinguishing the amounts drawn from the general fund of the state from all other, and from what sources, and the manner and purpose in which such money has been expended, with particulars, and such other information as may be required from them by the state superintendent, the municipal council, or the mayor.

Evening school.

§ 256. The board shall provide evening schools, to be held in the public schoolhouses, for the benefit of those unable to attend the day schools. They shall make and enforce regulations requiring the teachers to keep records of the names, ages, and residences of all pupils, and the names and residences of their parents, and the aggregate attendance of each pupil during the year, and to verify and report the same on the thirty-first day of December to the board; and such other rules and regulations for the purpose of ascertaining the attendance and efficiency of the department and progress of education.

Superintendent a member of board.

§ 257. The superintendent of schools shall be ex officio member of the board of education without the right to vote.

Clerk.

§ 258. Said superintendent shall appoint a clerk, subject to the approval of the board of education, who shall act as secretary of said board. His salary shall be two hundred dollars a month. Said clerk may be removed at the pleasure of the superintendent, and shall perform such duties as shall be required of him by the board or the superintendent.

Report of superintendent.

§ 259. The superintendent shall report to the board annually, on or before the first day of August, and at such other time as the board may require, all matters pertaining to the expenditures, income, condition, and progress of the public schools of such city, or city and county, during the preceding fiscal year, with such recommendations as he may deem proper. He shall observe and cause to be observed, such general rules for the regulation, government, and instruction of the schools, not inconsistent with the laws of the state, as may be established by the board. He shall attend the sessions of the board, and inform himself, at each session, of the condition of schools, schoolhouses, school funds, and other matters connected therewith, and to recommend such measures as he may deem necessary for the advancement of education in such city, or city and county. He shall acquaint himself with all the laws, rules, and regulations governing the public schools in such city, or city and county, and the judicial decisions thereon, and give advice on subjects connected with the public schools gratuitously to officers, teachers, pupils, and their parents and guardians.

Shall visit schools.

§ 260. The superintendent of schools shall visit and examine the schools, and see that they are efficiently conducted, and that the laws and regulations of the board are enforced in all things, and that no religious or sectarian books or teachings are allowed in the schools, and to report monthly to the board. He shall also report to the state superintendent at such times as such officer shall require.

Vacancy, how filled.

§ 261. Any vacancy in the office of school director shall be filled for the remainder of the term by a person to be appointed by the board of aldermen.

Vacancy in office of superintendent, how filled.

§ 262. In case of a vacancy in the office of superintendent, the board of aldermen may appoint a person to fill the vacancy until the next regular election, when the office shall be filled by the people.

School fund.

§ 263. The school fund of such city, or city and county, shall consist of all moneys received from the state school fund; of all moneys arising from taxes which shall be levied annually by the municipal council of such city, or city and county, for school purposes; of all moneys arising from sale, rent, or exchange of any school property, and of such other moneys as may, from any source whatever, be paid into said school fund. Said fund shall be kept in the city, or city and county, treasury, separate and distinct from all other moneys, and shall only be used for school purposes under the provisions of this chapter. No fees or commissions shall be allowed or paid for assessing, collecting, keeping, or disbursing any school moneys; and if at the end of any fiscal year any surplus remains in the school fund, such surplus money shall be carried forward to the school fund of the next fiscal year, and shall not be, for any purpose whatever, diverted or drawn from said fund, except under the provisions of this chapter.

School fund, how used.

1. For the payment of the salaries or wages of teachers, janitors, school-census marshals, and other persons who may be employed by said board.

2. For the erection, alteration, repair, rent, and furnishing of school-houses;

3. For the expenses of high, normal, and experimental schools;.

4. For the purchase money or rent of any real or personal property purchased or hired by the board;

5. For the insurance of all school property;

7. For the discharge of all legal encumbrances now or hereafter existing on any school property;

8. For lighting schoolrooms, and the office and rooms of the superintendent and the board of education;

9. For supplying the schools with fuel, water, apparatus, blanks, blank-books, and necessary school appliances, together with books for indigent children;

10. For supplying books, printing, and stationery for the use of the superintendent and board of education, and for the incidental expenses of the board and department;

11. In grading, fencing, and improving school lots.

Claims, how allowed.

§ 265. All claims payable out of the school fund (excepting coupons for interest in school bonds), shall be filed with the secretary of the board, and after they shall have been approved by a majority of all the members elect of the board, upon a call of "yeas" and "nays" (which shall be recorded), they shall be signed by the president of the board and the superintendent of the public schools, and be sent to the city and county auditor. Every demand shall have indorsed upon it a certificate of its approval by the board, showing the date thereof, and the law authorizing it, by title, date, and section. All demands for teachers' salaries shall be payable monthly.

Demands on school funds.

§ 266. Demands on the school fund may be audited and approved in the usual manner, although there shall not, at the time, be money in the treasury for the payment of the same; provided, that no demand on said fund shall be paid out of or become a charge against the school fund of any subsequent fiscal year; and further provided, that the entire expenditures of the said school department, for all purposes, shall not, in any fiscal year, exceed the revenues thereof for the same year.

Auditor to designate fund.

§ 267. The city, or city and county, auditor shall state, by indorsement upon any claim or demand audited in the school fund, the particular money or fund out of which the same is payable, and that it is payable from no other source.

Audited bills receivable for taxes.

§ 268. Audited bills for the current fiscal year for wages or salaries of the teachers in the public schools shall be receivable for school taxes due upon real estate. All demands shall be audited and paid in the usual manner.

§ 269. All lawful demands authorized by this chapter for school purposes shall be audited and approved in the usual manner, and the auditor and treasurer of such city, or city and county, are respectively authorized to audit and pay the same, when so ordered paid and approved by the said board; provided, that the said board shall not have the power to contract any debt or liability, in any form whatsoever, against such city, or city and county, in contravention of this chapter; and provided further, that the allowance or approval by the board of demands not authorized by this chapter shall be no warrant or authority to the auditor or treasurer to audit or pay the same.

Board of education to make estimate.

§ 270. It shall be the duty of the board of education of such city, or city and county, on or before the second Monday of September of each year, to report to the municipal council an estimate of the amount of money which will be required during the year for the purpose of meeting the current annual expenses of public instruction in such city, or city and county, specifying the amount required for supplies furnished pupils, for purchasing and procuring sites, for leasing rooms, or erecting buildings, and for furnishing, fitting up, altering, enlarging, and repairing buildings; for the support of schools organized since the last annual apportionment; for salary of teachers, janitors, clerks, and other employees, and other expenditures authorized by law; but the aggregate amount so reported shall not exceed the sum of thirty-five dollars for each pupil who shall have actually attended and been taught in the preceding year in the schools entitled to participate in the apportionments. The number of pupils who shall be considered as having attended the schools during any one year shall be ascertained by adding together the number of days' attendance of all the pupils in the common schools during the year, and dividing the same by the number of school days in the year. Said municipal council is authorized and empowered to levy and cause to be collected, at the time and in the manner of levying state and other city, or city and county, taxes, the amount of tax, not to exceed thirty-five dollars per pupil, determined and reported by the board of education. The amount so levied and collected shall not include the amount received annually from poll taxes.

No sectarian school shall receive school money.

§ 271. No school shall receive any portion of the school moneys in which the religious doctrines or tenets of any particular Christian or other religious sect are taught, inculcated, or practiced, or in which any book or books containing compositions favorable or prejudicial to the particular doctrines or tenets of any particular Christian or other religious sect is used; nor shall any such books or teachings be permitted in the common schools.

No member of board shall disburse school money, or accept gift.

§ 272. No member of the board of education shall ever become the disbursing agent of such board, or handle or pay out any of its money under or upon any pretense whatever. Any violation of this provision shall be a misdemeanor, and shall subject the offender, besides the punishment, to removal from office. Any member or officer of the board of education who shall, while in office, accept any donation or gratuity in money, or of any valuable thing, either directly or indirectly, from any teacher, or candidate, or applicant for a position as teacher, upon any pretense whatever, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor in office and shall be ousted by the board, or by any court of competent jurisdiction, from his seat, on proof thereof. Any member or officer of the board of education who shall accept any money, or valuable thing, or the promise thereof, with an agreement or understanding, express or implied, that any person shall, in consideration thereof, get the vote or influence of such member or officer for a situation as a teacher or employee of any kind in the school department, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and on conviction, shall be punished accordingly.

Article VII.—Miscellaneous Provisions.Laws which do not conflict with this act are continued in force.

§ 286. All the existing provisions of law defining the duties of county officers, excepting those relating to supervisors and boards of supervisors, so far as the same are not inconsistent with, repealed, or altered by the provisions of this chapter, shall be considered as applicable to officers of any consolidated cities and counties, acting or elected under this chapter. Provisions shall be made from the revenues of any city, or city and county, heretofore existing and reorganized under this act, for the payment of the legal indebtedness of the municipal corporation to which such reorganized city, or city and county, shall succeed, or of which it is a reorganization, as well as for that of such city, or city and county, after its organization, and all funding acts and other laws providing for the payments of principal and interest on any funded debt of such former corporation shall remain in force. The taxes which may be levied and collected in such city, or city and county, shall be uniform throughout the same.

Where provisions of this chapter shall apply.

§ 287. The provisions of this chapter concerning the following named officers, to wit: Sheriff, county clerk, recorder, coroner, and public administrator, shall apply only to consolidated cities and counties. The provisions of this chapter relating to the district attorney shall, except in consolidated cities and counties, be deemed to apply to the city attorney; and no sheriff, county clerk, recorder, district attorney, coroner, or public administrator shall be elected in any municipal corporation under the provisions of this chapter, except in consolidated cities and counties.

Duty of municipal council in the levy of taxes.

§ 288. The municipal council of any such consolidated city and county shall perform such duties in and about the levy and equalization of state and county taxes, and all other matters and things as are or may be prescribed by law for boards of supervisors of counties in like cases, and not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter.

CHAPTER III.

Municipal Corporations of the Second Class.

(A charter for cities having a population of more than 30,000 and not exceeding 100,000.)

Article I.—General Powers.

Powers of municipal corporations of the second class.

§ 300. Every municipal corporation of the second class shall be entitled the city of — (naming it), and by such name shall have perpetual succession, may sue, be sued, in all courts and places, and in all proceedings whatever, shall have and use a common seal, alterable at the pleasure of the city authorities, and may purchase, lease, receive, hold, and enjoy real and personal property, and control and dispose of the same for the common benefit; provided, that it shall purchase without the city no property except such as shall be deemed necessary for establishing hospitals, prisons, cemeteries, and industrial schools.

Article II.—General Provisions Relating to Officers.

Election, when held.

§ 301. The municipal election shall be held on the second Monday of March of each even-numbered year, and such election shall be subject to all the provisions of the law regulating elections for state officers, except as otherwise provided in this chapter. At such election there shall be elected, for the government of the city the following officers: Seven councilmen, who shall constitute a board to be known as the city council; a mayor; a treasurer, who shall be ex-officio clerk of the city council; a city attorney; a school superintendent, and a street superintendent, who shall respectively hold office for the term of two years, and until their successors are elected and qualified. One councilman shall be elected from each ward, by the vote of the city at large, and shall hold office for the term of two years, and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Bonds.

§ 302. The clerk and treasurer, superintendent of public schools, street superintendent, and all other officers when required by the city council by ordinance, shall each, before entering upon his official duties, and within ten days after receipt of his certificate of election or appointment, execute a bond, in such sum as the council may direct, payable to the city; which bond shall be subject to the law concerning the official bonds of officers, and to approval by the mayor. And the council may at any time require an additional amount, or new sureties, upon any bond which it may deem insufficient. If such additional security be not given, the council, upon notification thereof by the mayor, may, by vote of two-thirds of the members, declare the office vacant.

Fees, etc., to be paid into treasury.

§ 303. All fees, percentages, and all other moneys received or collected by any officer of the city, shall be paid by such officer, at the end of each month, into the city treasury, for the use of the city; and no payment shall be made to any officer for salary until he shall have taken, and filed with the clerk, an affidavit that he has paid into the city treasury, all fees, percentages, and all other moneys by him theretofore received or collected.

No city officer shall be surety on bond of any corporate officer.

§ 304. No member of the city council, or of the board of education, nor any officer of the city, shall be surety upon the official bond of any corporate officer, nor shall he be, directly or indirectly, interested with or be surety for any person who may be interested in any franchise, contract, appropriation, work, or business, or in the sale of anything the price of or consideration for which is paid or payable by the city, or by assessments levied under an ordinance of the council; nor shall any contract be awarded or franchise granted to any person who may be surety on the official bond of any officer of the city.

Vacancy, how filled.

§ 305. If any officer of such city, or member of the city council, or board of education, shall remove from the city, or absent himself therefrom for more than thirty days, or shall fail to qualify by taking the oath of office as prescribed by law, or to file his official bond, whenever such bond is required, within ten days from the time his election is duly ascertained and declared, his office shall be thereby absolutely vacated, and the city council shall thereupon fill the vacancy upon nomination by the mayor.

Oath of office.

§ 306. Every officer provided for in this chapter shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take and file with the treasurer the constitutional oath of office; provided, that the oath of office of the treasurer shall be filed with the mayor.

Salaries.

§ 307. The salaries of the officers of such city shall be as follows: Mayor, one thousand dollars per annum; clerk and treasurer, two thousand dollars per annum; assistant to the clerk and treasurer, one thousand two hundred dollars per annum; clerk of the police court, one thousand two hundred dollars per annum; clerk to the police court, nine hundred dollars per annum; city attorney, two thousand dollars per annum; street superintendent, one thousand eight hundred dollars per annum; captain of police, one thousand eight hundred dollars per annum; police detective, one thousand five hundred dollars per annum; school superintendent, two thousand dollars per annum; assistant school superintendent, one thousand two hundred dollars per annum; policemen, nine hundred dollars per annum each. The mayor may appoint a clerk, who shall receive a salary of nine hundred dollars per annum. The salaries of all officers shall be paid in monthly installments, at the end of each and every month of service.

Article III.—Legislative Department.

Time of meeting.

§ 319. The city council shall meet on the first Monday after their election, and at such other times as they may by ordinance appoint. A majority of the council shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. They shall determine the rules of their proceedings, and judge of the qualification and election of all officers; and shall provide, by ordinance, the method of calling special meetings of the council. Their sittings shall be public. A journal of their proceedings shall be kept by the clerk, under their direction; and the ayes and noes shall be taken and entered on the journal at the request of any member. They shall prescribe, by ordinance, the duties of all officers whose duties are not defined in this act. They shall have the power to raise, by tax, not exceeding one per cent for all purposes (except for the redemption of bonds) on the assessed value of the real and personal property within the limits of such city, moneys for the establishment and support of free common schools, and to provide suitable grounds and buildings therefor, and defraying the ordinary expenses of the city, as well as for paving, planking, or otherwise improving the streets of the city. They shall also have power to pass all proper and necessary ordinances for the regulation and sale of city property, and to give deeds therefor. They shall have power to open, alter, establish, grade, or otherwise improve and regulate, streets, alleys, and lanes, and the sidewalks upon the same; to construct and keep in repair bridges, so as not to interfere with navigation, fences, public places, wharves, docks, ferries, piers, slips, sewers, and wells, and to make assessments therefor; to regulate and collect tolls, wharfage, dockage, and cramage, upon all water craft, and all goods landed; to make regulations for securing the health, cleanliness, ornament, peace, and good order of the city; for preventing and extinguishing fires, and appointing and regulating firemen, policemen, and such other officers as may be necessary to appoint; for the care and regulation of prisons and markets; for licensing, taxing, and regulating all such vehicles, business, and employments as the public good may require, and as may not be prohibited by law; to levy a tax license upon all dogs, or otherwise prevent the same from running at large in the streets and public grounds of the city; to regulate and suppress all occupations, houses, places, amusements, and exhibitions which are against good morals, or contrary to the public order and decency; for the regulation and location of slaughter-houses, markets, stables, and gas-works, and houses for the storage of gunpowder and other combustible materials, and limit the quantity of combustible or explosive materials to be stored in any one place; for prohibiting or suppressing the erection of slaughter-houses, or the slaughtering of animals within the limits of the city, and for prohibiting or suppressing the erection or carrying on of any soap or glue factory, tan-yard, powder magazine, or other nuisance within the limits of the city; and to declare what shall constitute a nuisance; and to make and enforce within its limits all such local, police, sanitary, and other regulations as are not in conflict with general laws; and provide suitable buildings for the management, good government, and general welfare of the city. They shall also have power to pass such ordinance or ordinances as may be necessary to prevent animals from running at large within the limits of the city; to establish a pound, and appoint a poundkeeper, and prescribe his duties, and to provide for the public sale, by the poundkeeper, of such animals as may be impounded, in the same way and upon like notice that personal property is sold by execution under the laws of this state; provided, that the owner or owners of such property so impounded may reclaim the same at any time before sale, upon payment of costs and charges of taking up and impounding; and, within thirty days after the sale, upon proof of ownership of the property sold, duly made before the mayor, and upon payment of the costs and expenses of impounding and selling, and upon the payment of the sum of one dollar to the mayor, as a fee for the investigation of the question of ownership, and for his certificate to that effect, such owner or owners may receive the purchase money arising from such sale or sales. Penalties for the violation of any and all ordinances shall be by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, and in case the fine be not paid, then the person or persons may be imprisoned at the rate of one day for every two dollars of the fine imposed, or in lieu of the imprisonment, or any part of it, the person or persons so fined shall labor, under the direction of the city authorities, either upon the streets, public grounds, or buildings, or in such other places as may be deemed advisable for the benefit or revenue of said city. The city council, upon the nomination of the mayor, shall have power to appoint suitable persons to fill vacancies in any elective office, except that of mayor, until the next regular municipal election, when, if the term be unexpired, an election shall be held to fill such vacancy for the unexpired term of said officers. The members of the city council shall receive no salary for their services. They shall have power to provide for all city elections, to designate the place or places of holding the same, giving at least ten days' notice thereof; to appoint inspectors and judges of election, examine the returns, and declare the result, and to determine contested elections. The president pro tempore of the board shall discharge the duties of mayor, whenever there shall be a vacancy in the office of mayor, or when the mayor shall be absent from the city for a period exceeding five days, or be unable, from sickness, to attend to the duties of his office. In the absence of the clerk, the city council shall appoint one of their members to act as clerk pro tempore; they shall also have power to set aside any amount of money belonging to the city which may at any time be in the hands of the treasurer, after deducting the current expenses of the city, and the interest due upon the funded debts of the city, as a sinking-fund whereby the bonds issued by the city may be redeemed, or they may, at any time before said bonds shall become due, with any surplus money which may belong to the city, after paying said expenses and interest, redeem or purchase for the city, and in its name, in the manner most advantageous to the city, any outstanding bonds, which bonds or claims, when so purchased, shall be immediately canceled; provided, this right shall not affect the rights of the holders of said bonds, or in any way prevent them from holding the same until said bonds become due and payable; they shall also have the power to determine the width of sidewalks, and the material and manner of their construction, as well as the grade of the same; they shall also have the power to establish fire districts, and within said districts to prevent the erection of wooden buildings, or any buildings composed of combustible materials, and also to prevent the further repairing of wooden buildings within the fire limits established.

Further powers.

§ 320. Said council shall also have power:

Construction of sinks, etc.

1. To regulate the construction of sinks, gutters, wells, cesspools and privy-vaults, and to compel the cleansing or emptying of the same, and the time and manner in which the work shall be done.

Anchorage of vessels, etc.

2. To regulate the anchorage of vessels within the limits of the city, and to prevent obstructions to the free navigation of all navigable waters within the same.

Pollution of water.

3. To prevent persons from throwing into any stream, creek, bay, or other body of water within the limits of the city, from vessels, wharves, or other places, any dirt, ballast, ashes, garbage, dead animals, or other materials that may obstruct the same or pollute the water thereof.

Open streets.

4. To open streets to the channel of any navigable stream or creek within the limits of the city, and to deep water to any navigable bay or lake within the same, and to construct and maintain public wharves at the ends of such streets.

Regulate location of boilers, etc.

5. To regulate the location of steam boilers, the putting up of signs and awnings, and the construction of entrances to basements or cellars from the sidewalks.

License hacks, etc.

6. To establish hack-stands, and to regulate the rates of charges of hacks and other licensed vehicles, and to require a schedule of such charges, printed in conspicuous type and satisfactory to the council, to be posted in a conspicuous place in each hack or other licensed vehicle; provided, however, that the standing of hacks shall not be permitted on any street upon which railroads operated by steam shall be used.

To compel attendance of absent members.

7. To compel the attendance of absent members of said council at any of the meetings thereof, and to cause the arrest of any person for disorderly conduct at their meetings.

Regulate speed of railway engines.

8. To regulate the speed of railway engines in the city, and to require railroad companies to station flagmen at street crossings; to grant franchises permitting steam railroads upon any of the streets of the city; provided, that the same shall only be granted after two weeks' notice, previously published in some newspaper published in the city, and by ordinance passed by the vote of two-thirds of the members elected to said council, approved by the mayor, and upon the previous petition, in writing, of the owners of two-thirds of the front feet of the lands upon the portion of the street to be so used.

Regulate entrance to and from theaters, etc.

9. To regulate the means of entrance to and exit from theaters, lecture-rooms, public halls, and churches, and to prohibit the placing of chairs, stools, benches, or other obstructions in the aisles of such building.

Railway companies to keep certain streets in repair.

10. To require railroad companies to keep the street in repair between the tracks and along and within the distance of two feet upon each side of the track occupied by the company.

License certain property and business.

§ 321. They shall also have the exclusive right, in the manner prescribed by ordinance, of issuing and granting licenses, and of collecting tax licenses for the benefit of the city, upon the following business and property, to wit: Upon each and every person within the limits of the city who shall vend any goods, wares or merchandise, wines, distilled or fermented liquors, drugs, medicines, jewelry, or wares of precious metals; upon persons who keep horses or carriages for rent or hire; upon persons keeping billiard-tables for hire, bowling-alleys, and shooting-galleries; also upon all taverns, innkeepers, and upon all persons who may sell or dispose of any malt, spirituous or fermented liquors or wines in less quantities than one quart; and the said licenses shall be issued quarterly or yearly. Also upon any person within the limits of the city, who shall keep a stallion, jack, bull, or ram, and who shall permit the same to be used for the purpose of propagation for hire or profit, which license shall be a yearly license; all of which licenses when granted by such city and duly obtained by the person or persons desiring the same, shall entitle them to carry on such business, trade, or profession in such city.

Sales and leases of city property.

§ 322. All sales or leases of property belonging to the city shall be by public auction to the highest bidder, and upon such terms and conditions as the council may by ordinance direct; and all contracts for supplies, of any kind, for more than five hundred dollars, shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder, after ten days' notice given by posting the same in three of the most public places in the city or by publishing the same in any newspaper printed and published in such city.

Licenses.

§ 323. Licenses shall be discriminating and proportionate to the amount of business; and it shall be the duty of the council, by ordinance, to classify all kinds of business licensed in accordance herewith.

Ordinances.

§ 324. The enacting clause of all ordinances shall be as follows: "The mayor and council of the city of — do ordain as follows." Every ordinance passed by the city council shall be presented to the mayor for his approval; if he approve it, he shall sign it; if not, he shall return it at the first meeting of the council held after five days thereafter, or at its next meeting; when the city council shall reconsider such ordinance, and if the same be approved by a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected, and not otherwise, the same shall take effect and stand as an ordinance of such city. All ordinances shall be published for one week in a newspaper printed and published in such city, as often during such period as such newspaper shall be published.

Fixing rate of taxation.

§ 325. The council shall, upon the first Monday of October, in each year, fix the rate of taxation to be levied upon all property, both real and personal, in said municipality necessary to raise sufficient revenue to carry on the various departments of the city government for the then ensuing year, not to exceed one dollar for each one hundred dollars upon the assessment-roll, and to pay the bonded and other indebtedness of said city. The said council must, upon fixing said amount, transmit a statement thereof to the county auditor. The action of the city council in fixing the rate of taxation for city purposes is a valid levy of the rate so fixed upon all property, both real and personal, in the said city, and borne upon the assessment-roll of said county, and has the effect provided in sections 3716, 3717, and 3718 of the Political Code, in regard to state and county taxes. The county auditor shall thereupon compute and enter, in a separate money column in the assessment-book, the respective sums, in dollars and cents, rejecting the fractions of a cent, to be paid as a tax on the property therein enumerated, for the purposes of such city government, and foot up the column, are so laid out and opened, the provisions of this chapter shall be applicable thereto.

License on common carriers.

§ 333. The city council of said city shall have power to issue and collect an annual tax license on draymen, cabmen, omnibus proprietors, expressmen, and other common carriers doing business in the city, the proceeds of said licenses to be devoted to a street department fund for keeping in repair the streets in the city. Said annual license not to be more than twelve dollars nor less than eight dollars for such persons so licensed.

Widening streets.

§ 334. The city council is empowered to open, extend, and widen streets, and to modify the boundaries thereof within its corporate limits, and to determine the property benefited thereby, and to assess the expenses of such improvement upon the property benefited, as hereinafter provided.

Proceedings, how commenced.

§ 335. All proceedings under said power shall be commenced by petition of five or more residents and freeholders within the city, signed by the petitioners, addressed to the city council, and filed with the clerk of said council. Such petition shall contain:

1. The names of the petitioners, and a statement that each of the petitioners is a resident and freeholder within the city;
2. A statement that, in the opinion of the petitioners, the public interests require that the improvement asked for (describing it generally) should be made;
3. A request that the common council proceed to order the improvement made.

Duty of council.

§ 336. At the regular meeting next after the meeting at which the petition is presented to the council, or at any subsequent meeting to which the proceedings may be regularly adjourned, the said council may, by resolution duly passed, determine the lands to be benefited by the improvement asked for in the petition, and to be assessed for the expenses thereof. Said resolution shall contain a description of each lot, piece, or parcel of land necessary to be taken and condemned for such improvement, and shall also specify the exterior boundaries of the district of land benefited thereby, and to be assessed therefor, and shall direct the city engineer to make a survey and map of the lands described in the resolution, a copy of which resolution shall be forthwith transmitted by the clerk of said council to the said city engineer.

Duty of city engineer.

§ 337. It shall be the duty of the city engineer, immediately upon receiving a copy of the resolution mentioned in section 4, to survey the lands described in said resolution and make a map thereof, and to return said map to said council within twenty (20) days from the receipt by him of said copy of the resolution; said map shall show each piece, tract, or parcel of land necessary to be taken and condemned for said improvement, and also the exterior boundaries of the district to be benefited by such improvement and to be assessed on account of the cost and expenses thereof, as declared in the resolution, and the area thereof, exclusive of public streets and alleys. Said city engineer shall have the right to enter upon the lands and make examinations and surveys thereof, and such entry shall constitute no cause of action in favor of the owners of said lands, except for injuries resulting from negligence, wantonness, or malice.

Preliminary resolution.

§ 338. The council, at its regular meeting next after the return of the map by the city engineer, shall pass a preliminary resolution, declaring the intention of the corporation to make the improvement asked for in the petition. Said resolution shall contain a description of each piece, lot, or tract of land necessary and sought to be taken and condemned for the improvement, and also the exterior boundaries of the district of lands to be benefited thereby, and assessed for the expenses thereof; the resolution shall also specify a time, not more than fifteen (15) days from the passage thereof, for the hearing by said council of objections to the proposed improvement, and said resolution shall be published in at least one daily paper printed and circulated in the city, daily (Sundays and nonjudicial days excepted), for at least ten (10) days prior to the time fixed for said hearing.

Objections.

§ 339. If a majority of the owners of the lands in area to be assessed for the expenses of said improvement shall, on or before the day fixed by said resolution for the hearing of objections, appear and protest against said improvement, the proceedings shall be discontinued; provided, however, that such protest must be in writing, and shall contain a description of the land claimed by each protestant; and provided further, that the council may, by a unanimous vote of all its members, approved by the mayor, proceed to cause such improvement to be made, notwithstanding such protest.

Final resolution.

§ 340. If the owners of a majority in area of the property to be assessed for the expenses of said improvement fail to appear and protest as provided in section 7, or if the council, by a unanimous vote, approved by the mayor, order said improvement to be made, said council must immediately pass a final resolution, declaring such determination. Such resolution shall refer to the said preliminary resolution, by its number, for a description of the lands necessary and sought to be taken and condemned for said improvement, and the district to be assessed for the expenses thereof.

Commissioners to assess damages.

§ 341. Immediately after the passage of such final resolution, the council shall apply to the superior court of the county in which such city is situated, either in term time or vacation, by petition, for the appointing of three commissioners to assess the compensation which shall be paid to the owners thereof for the lands sought to be taken for such improvement, and to assess upon the property within the district to be benefited thereby the costs of such improvement. Said petition shall recite all the proceedings had in the premises, and shall specify the exterior boundaries of the lands sought to be taken, and also the exterior boundaries of the district of lands to be benefited thereby, and assessed for the expenses thereof. A copy of the map made by the city engineer shall be annexed to said petition, and may be referred to in the petition for a description of the lands aforesaid.

Duty of court.

§ 342. Upon filing such petition, such court shall pass and take such jurisdiction of such proceeding, and such court, or a judge thereof, shall, by order, fix a day for the hearing of such petition, which shall be not less than ten, nor more than twenty days from the date of such order. Such order shall further direct notice of the time and place of such hearing to be given by the clerk by publication in two daily newspapers published in such city, and designated in such order, for at least a period of ten days in succession.

Requisites of notice.

§ 343. Such notice shall specify the exterior boundaries of the lands sought to be taken for such improvement, and of the lands declared to be profited thereby and to be assessed for the expenses thereof, and shall further state that the damages to which the owner or owners of the land sought to be taken may be entitled for the same will be inquired into and determined, and that such damages, together with the cost of the proceedings for the acquiring title to such lands, and making apportionment thereof, will be apportioned and assessed upon the lands to be benefited thereby, by commissioners to be appointed by such court, on the day fixed by such order for the hearing. Such notice shall be published daily for at least ten days (Sundays and nonjudicial days excepted) before such hearing.

Hearing.

§ 344. At the time fixed for the hearing, or at such other time as the hearing may be adjourned to, the court shall proceed to hear any person interested touching the regularity of the proceedings, and if satisfied that the proceedings have been regular, shall appoint three competent and disinterested commissioners. The court may, at any time, remove any or all such commissioners for cause, upon reasonable notice and hearing, and may fill the vacancies occurring among them from any cause. Any persons interested may object to the appointment of any person as commissioner, on one or more of the grounds specified in section 641 of the Code of Civil Procedure, as grounds for the objection to the appointment of persons as referees.

Duty of commissioners.

§ 345. Commissioners shall be sworn to faithfully perform their duties according to the provisions of this chapter. They shall then proceed to view the lands mentioned and described in such resolution and petition, and may examine witnesses on oath, to be administered by any one of them, and shall keep minutes of the testimony so taken; they shall ascertain and appraise the value of the property sought to be taken for the improvements, and of all improvements thereon partaking of the realty, and of each and every estate therein; if it consist of different parcels, the value of each parcel and each estate, or interest therein, shall be separately appraised; if this property sought to be taken constitutes only a part of a larger parcel, the damages which will accrue to the portion not sought to be condemned or taken, by reason of the severance from the portion sought to be taken, and the construction of the improvement in the manner proposed shall be appraised by said commissioners; they shall also ascertain and determine, as near as may be, the entire costs of the proceedings for the opening, extension, or improvement aforesaid, including the costs of court and of commissioners; they shall then proceed to apportion and assess the whole amount of such costs and expenses, value of property sought to be taken, and damages to property not taken, upon the property within the district declared by the resolution of the council to be benefited by said improvement, and shall assess each tract, lot, piece, or parcel of land within said district in proportion to the benefits received by it from said improvement.

Report.

§ 346. The said commissioners, within a time to be fixed by the court, shall make a report of their proceedings, under their hands, or the hands of a majority of them, to the said court, in which report they shall describe, with common certainty, the several parcels of land sought to be taken for such improvement, and the names of the owners thereof, respectively, so far as they can be ascertained, designating unknown owners, if any such there be, and the sum of money which should be paid to each of said owners, as his or her compensation for the land necessary and sought to be taken and condemned for such improvement, or of his or her estate, therein; and in case only a part of a larger parcel has been taken for such improvement, and the remaining portion is damaged or benefited thereby, they shall describe such remaining portion, and specify the sum to be paid or assessed to the owner thereof, or such damages or benefits as the case may be; they shall also describe, with common certainty, the several parcels of land within the district deemed to be benefited by said improvement, and the names of the owners thereof, so far as they can be ascertained, designating unknown owners, if such there be, and the sum of money which is assessed upon each particular parcel, and which should be paid by the owner thereof.

Objections.

§ 347. Upon the filing of such report, the said court shall, by order, fix a day for hearing objections to the confirmation thereof, and shall direct notice of the time and place of said hearing to be given by the clerk, by publication in a daily newspaper published in said city, for at least ten days (Sundays and nonjudicial days excepted), prior to said day of hearing.

Hearing report.

§ 348. Upon the day fixed for the hearing, the court shall proceed to hear any person interested upon any question touching the regularity of the proceedings, the sufficiency of the compensation awarded, or the justice or equality of the assessment, and may confirm said report or set the same aside, or remand the same for correction or alteration in any particular. If the report be set aside, the matter may in like manner be referred to the same or new commissioners appointed by the court, who shall proceed as hereinbefore provided; if the report be remanded, it shall be corrected, or altered in any particular required by the court.

Compensation of commissioners.

§ 349. The commissioners shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for their services, to be certified to by the court, and taxed as part of the expenses of the proceeding.

Judgment, what to contain.

§ 350. Upon confirmation of the report of the commissioners, judgment shall be rendered by the court thereon, which judgment must describe each parcel of land taken for such improvement, and the amount to which the owner is entitled as compensation or damages for the taking thereof, and the name of such owner or owners, if known; and in case only a portion of a larger parcel is taken, such judgment must describe such remaining portion, and the amount, if anything, to which the owner thereof is entitled as damages; and must also describe each parcel of land assessed for the expenses of such improvement, and the amount so assessed upon each parcel respectively. Such judgment shall direct a sale of each parcel so assessed, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the amount of such assessment and expenses of sale, and the application of the proceeds of such sale to the payment of the expenses of such sale, and the amount of compensation and damages awarded by such judgment. Such judgment shall be a lien upon the property against which such assessment is made, and may be enforced by a sale of the property assessed, as hereinafter provided.

Enforcement of judgment.

§ 351. Within thirty days after the entry of such judgment, the persons liable must pay to the clerk of the court, for the benefit of the parties entitled thereto, the several amounts specified in such judgment, in default of which the respective parcels of land upon which such assessments have not been paid shall be sold by the sheriff of such county under a certified copy of such judgment, and in the manner provided by law for the sale of property upon decree of foreclosure of mortgage.

Money, to whom paid.

§ 352. The moneys realized from such sale shall be paid by the officer making the same, to the clerk of the court, for the benefit of the parties entitled thereto.

Final order.

§ 353. Whenever the aggregate amount of damages or compensation awarded by such judgment shall have been paid to the clerk, either by voluntary payment or as moneys realized from sales under such judgment, the court must make and enter a final order or decree of condemnation of the lands taken for such improvement, which order or decree shall describe the property condemned and the purpose of such condemnation.

When title vests.

§ 354. A copy of such order or decree must be filed in the office of the recorder of such county, and thereupon, the property described therein shall vest in such city for the uses and purposes therein specified; and such city shall be entitled to and may take immediate possession thereof.

Payment of awards.

§ 355. Whenever the aggregate amount of damages or compensation awarded by such judgment shall have come to the hands of the clerk, he shall, upon the demand of any person entitled thereto, pay to said party the amount awarded to him or her by said judgment.

Where more than one claimant.

§ 356. If there is more than one claimant to any parcel of land taken for such improvement, or if the owner of any parcel is unknown, the amount awarded as damages or compensation for the taking thereof shall remain in court to be awarded to the true owner by due process of law.

Appeal.

§ 357. Any party feeling aggrieved by any proceedings, orders, or judgments of such court herein provided for may appeal to the supreme court, as in other cases.

Appointment of police.

§ 358. The city council shall not have power to appoint a greater number of policemen than shall be equal to one for every one thousand of the population of such city. No policeman or member of the fire department shall be removed from office except upon the order and direction of the mayor, and after charges in writing have been made against him, and evidence upon the same shall have been heard in public in the mode and manner to be prescribed by ordinance.

Commissioners to assess damages.

§ 341. Immediately after the passage of such final resolution, the council shall apply to the superior court of the county in which such city is situated, either in term time or vacation, by petition, for the appointing of three commissioners to assess the compensation which shall be paid to the owners thereof for the lands sought to be taken for such improvement, and to assess upon the property within the district to be benefited thereby the costs of such improvement. Said petition shall recite all the proceedings had in the premises, and shall specify the exterior boundaries of the lands sought to be taken, and also the exterior boundaries of the district of lands to be benefited thereby, and assessed for the expenses thereof. A copy of the map made by the city engineer shall be annexed to said petition, and may be referred to in the petition for a description of the lands aforesaid.

Duty of court.

§ 342. Upon filing such petition, such court shall pass and take such jurisdiction of such proceeding, and such court, or a judge thereof, shall, by order, fix a day for the hearing of such petition, which shall be not less than ten, nor more than twenty days from the date of such order. Such order shall further direct notice of the time and place of such hearing to be given by the clerk by publication in two daily newspapers published in such city, and designated in such order, for at least a period of ten days in succession.

Requisites of notice.

§ 343. Such notice shall specify the exterior boundaries of the lands sought to be taken for such improvement, and of the lands declared to be profited thereby and to be assessed for the expenses thereof, and shall further state that the damages to which the owner or owners of the land sought to be taken may be entitled for the same will be inquired into and determined, and that such damages, together with the cost of the proceedings for the acquiring title to such lands, and making apportionment thereof, will be apportioned and assessed upon the lands to be benefited thereby, by commissioners to be appointed by such court, on the day fixed by such order for the hearing. Such notice shall be published daily for at least ten days (Sundays and nonjudicial days excepted) before such hearing.

Hearing.

§ 344. At the time fixed for the hearing, or at such other time as the hearing may be adjourned to, the court shall proceed to hear any person interested touching the regularity of the proceedings, and if satisfied that the proceedings have been regular, shall appoint three competent and disinterested commissioners. The court may, at any time, remove any or all such commissioners for cause, upon reasonable notice and hearing, and may fill the vacancies occurring among them from any cause. Any persons interested may object to the appointment of any person as commissioner, on one or more of the grounds specified in section 641 of the Code of Civil Procedure, as grounds for the objection to the appointment of persons as referees.

Duty of commissioners.

§ 345. Commissioners shall be sworn to faithfully perform their duties according to the provisions of this chapter. They shall then proceed to view the lands mentioned and described in such resolution and petition, and may examine witnesses on oath, to be administered by any one of them, and shall keep minutes of the testimony so taken; they shall ascertain and appraise the value of the property sought to be taken for the improvements, and of all improvements thereon partaking of the realty, and of each and every estate therein; if it consist of different parcels, the value of each parcel and each estate, or interest therein, shall be separately appraised; if this property sought to be taken constitutes only a part of a larger parcel, the damages which will accrue to the portion not sought to be condemned or taken, by reason of the severance from the portion sought to be taken, and the construction of the improvement in the manner proposed shall be appraised by said commissioners; they shall also ascertain and determine, as near as may be, the entire costs of the proceedings for the opening, extension, or improvement aforesaid, including the costs of court and of commissioners; they shall then proceed to apportion and assess the whole amount of such costs and expenses, value of property sought to be taken, and damages to property not taken, upon the property within the district declared by the resolution of the council to be benefited by said improvement, and shall assess each tract, lot, piece, or parcel of land within said district in proportion to the benefits received by it from said improvement.

Report.

§ 346. The said commissioners, within a time to be fixed by the court, shall make a report of their proceedings, under their hands, or the hands of a majority of them, to the said court, in which report they shall describe, with common certainty, the several parcels of land sought to be taken for such improvement, and the names of the owners thereof, respectively, so far as they can be ascertained, designating unknown owners, if any such there be, and the sum of money which should be paid to each of said owners, as his or her compensation for the land necessary and sought to be taken and condemned for such improvement, or of his or her estate, therein; and in case only a part of a larger parcel has been taken for such improvement, and the remaining portion is damaged or benefited thereby, they shall describe such remaining portion, and specify the sum to be paid or assessed to the owner thereof, or such damages or benefits as the case may be; they shall also describe, with common certainty, the several parcels of land within the district deemed to be benefited by said improvement, and the names of the owners thereof, so far as they can be ascertained, designating unknown owners, if such there be, and the sum of money which is assessed upon each particular parcel, and which should be paid by the owner thereof.

Objections.

§ 347. Upon the filing of such report, the said court shall, by order, fix a day for hearing objections to the confirmation thereof, and shall direct notice of the time and place of said hearing to be given by the clerk, by publication in a daily newspaper published in said city, for at least ten days (Sundays and nonjudicial days excepted), prior to said day of hearing.

Hearing report.

§ 348. Upon the day fixed for the hearing, the court shall proceed to hear any person interested upon any question touching the regularity of the proceedings, the sufficiency of the compensation awarded, or the justice or equality of the assessment, and may confirm said report or set the same aside, or remand the same for correction or alteration in any particular. If the report be set aside, the matter may in like manner be referred to the same or new commissioners appointed by the court, who shall proceed as hereinbefore provided; if the report be remanded, it shall be corrected, or altered in any particular required by the court.

Compensation of commissioners.

§ 349. The commissioners shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for their services, to be certified to by the court, and taxed as part of the expenses of the proceeding.

Judgment, what to contain.

§ 350. Upon confirmation of the report of the commissioners, judgment shall be rendered by the court thereon, which judgment must describe each parcel of land taken for such improvement, and the amount to which the owner is entitled as compensation or damages for the taking thereof, and the name of such owner or owners, if known; and in case only a portion of a larger parcel is taken, such judgment must describe such remaining portion, and the amount, if anything, to which the owner thereof is entitled as damages; and must also describe each parcel of land assessed for the expenses of such improvement, and the amount so assessed upon each parcel respectively. Such judgment shall direct a sale of each parcel so assessed, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the amount of such assessment and expenses of sale, and the application of the proceeds of such sale to the payment of the expenses of such sale, and the amount of compensation and damages awarded by such judgment. Such judgment shall be a lien upon the property against which such assessment is made, and may be enforced by a sale of the property assessed, as hereinafter provided.

Enforcement of judgment.

§ 351. Within thirty days after the entry of such judgment, the persons liable must pay to the clerk of the court, for the benefit of the parties entitled thereto, the several amounts specified in such judgment, in default of which the respective parcels of land upon which such assessments have not been paid shall be sold by the sheriff of such county under a certified copy of such judgment, and in the manner provided by law for the sale of property upon decree of foreclosure of mortgage.

Money, to whom paid.

§ 352. The moneys realized from such sale shall be paid by the officer making the same, to the clerk of the court, for the benefit of the parties entitled thereto.

Final order.

§ 353. Whenever the aggregate amount of damages or compensation awarded by such judgment shall have been paid to the clerk, either by voluntary payment or as moneys realized from sales under such judgment, the court must make and enter a final order or decree of condemnation of the lands taken for such improvement, which order or decree shall describe the property condemned and the purpose of such condemnation.

When title vests.

§ 354. A copy of such order or decree must be filed in the office of the recorder of such county, and thereupon, the property described therein shall vest in such city for the uses and purposes therein specified; and such city shall be entitled to and may take immediate possession thereof.

Payment of awards.

§ 355. Whenever the aggregate amount of damages or compensation awarded by such judgment shall have come to the hands of the clerk, he shall, upon the demand of any person entitled thereto, pay to said party the amount awarded to him or her by said judgment.

Where more than one claimant.

§ 356. If there is more than one claimant to any parcel of land taken for such improvement, or if the owner of any parcel is unknown, the amount awarded as damages or compensation for the taking thereof shall remain in court to be awarded to the true owner by due process of law.

Appeal.

§ 357. Any party feeling aggrieved by any proceedings, orders, or judgments of such court herein provided for may appeal to the supreme court, as in other cases.

Appointment of police.

§ 358. The city council shall not have power to appoint a greater number of policemen than shall be equal to one for every one thousand of the population of such city. No policeman or member of the fire department shall be removed from office except upon the order and direction of the mayor, and after charges in writing have been made against him, and evidence upon the same shall have been heard in public in the mode and manner to be prescribed by ordinance.

Supply of gas and water.

§ 359. All gas and water pipes laid in any paved, macadamized, or graded street must be of sufficient capacity to afford a free supply of gas or water for the estimated necessities of such street, and the district to be supplied by such pipes, for a period of not less than five years from the time of laying the same; which estimate of necessity and capacity shall be made by the city engineer, and approved by the council. It shall be the duty of the council, by ordinance, to prescribe regulations for the laying of gas and water pipes in the public streets.

Article IV.—Executive Department.Duty of mayor.

§ 370. The mayor shall preside at all meetings of the city council, but the council shall elect a president pro tempore to preside during his absence. He shall communicate to the council semi-annually, or oftener if necessary a general statement of the situation and condition of the city, together with such recommendations relative thereto as he may deem expedient. He shall be vigilant and active in causing the ordinances of the city to be executed and enforced. He shall be the head of police, and shall exercise a supervision and control over the conduct of all subordinate officers, and receive and examine into all complaints preferred against any of them for violation or neglect of duty, and certify the same to the council. He shall sign all ordinances and contracts made on behalf of the city, and countersign all licenses and warrants on the treasury. He shall keep accounts current with every officer charged with the receipt or disbursement of money, and perform all the duties of an auditor. He shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by law or ordinance.

§ 371. Every demand upon the treasury, except for the salary of the mayor, must, before it can be paid, be presented to the mayor, to be allowed, who shall satisfy himself whether the money is legally due and remains unpaid, and whether the payment thereof from the treasury of the city is authorized by law, and out of what fund. If he allow it, he shall indorse upon it the word "Allowed," with the name of the fund out of which it is payable, with the date of such allowance, and sign his name thereto; but the allowance or approval of the mayor, or of the city council, or of any other board or officer, of any demand which upon the face of it appears not to have been expressly made by law payable out of the treasury or fund to be charged therewith, shall afford no warrant to the treasurer or other disbursing officer for paying the same. The demand of the mayor for his salary shall be audited and allowed by the president pro tempore of the city council.

Duty of chief of police.

§ 372. The chief of police shall execute, within the city, and return all process issued and directed to him by the city justices, or either of them, arrest all persons guilty of a breach of the peace, or of a violation of any ordinance of the council, and take them before the proper magistrate within the city; and do and perform such other duties as may be prescribed by ordinance or may be required by the mayor.

Effect of records of street superintendent.

§ 373. The records kept by the street superintendent of the city, and signed by him, shall have the same force and effect as other public records, and copies therefrom, duly certified, may be used in evidence with the same effect as the originals. The said records shall, during all office hours, be open to the inspection of any citizen wishing to examine them, free of charge.

Office of street superintendent.

§ 374. The street superintendent shall keep a public office in some convenient place to be designated by the city council, and such records as may be required by law. He shall superintend and direct the cleaning of all the sewers in the public streets, and the expense of the same shall be paid out of the street department fund, and perform all duties required by law or ordinance of such city.

Duty of street superintendent.

§ 375. It shall be the duty of the street superintendent to see that the laws, orders, and regulations relating to the public streets and highways are fully carried into execution, and that the penalties therefor are regularly enforced. He shall keep himself informed of the condition of all public streets and highways, and also of all public buildings, parks, lots, and ground of the city, as may be prescribed by the council; and should he fail to see the laws, orders, and regulations relative to the public streets and highways carried into execution, after notice from any citizen of a violation thereof, he and his sureties shall be liable upon his official bond to any person injured in person or property in consequence of such neglect.

No recourse on city for certain damages.

§ 376. If, in consequence of any graded street or public highway, improved under the provisions of this chapter, being out of repair, and in a condition to endanger persons or animals passing therein, any person while carefully using such street or public highway, and exercising ordinary care to avoid such danger, suffer damage to his person, or if any animals or other property, being lawfully ridden, driven, or conveyed through such street or public highway, be injured, lost, or destroyed through any such defect therein, no recourse for damages thus suffered shall be had against the city; but if such defect in such street or public highway shall have existed for a period of twenty-four hours or more after notice to the street superintendent, then the street superintendent, and also all other officers through whose official negligence such defect shall have remained unrepaired, shall jointly and severally be liable to the party injured for the damages so sustained.

City engineer, appointment of, and duties.

§ 377. The city council shall have power to appoint a city engineer, and by ordinance to prescribe his duties and fix his compensation, not to exceed eighteen hundred dollars per annum. It shall be the duty of the city engineer to do the surveying and other work necessary to be done by law or any ordinance of said city, and to survey, measure, and estimate the work done and to be done under contracts for grading streets; and every certificate of work done by him, signed in his official capacity, shall be prima facie evidence in all the courts of this state of the truth of its contents; he shall also keep a record of all surveys made by him.

Duties of treasurer.

§ 378. The treasurer shall receive and pay out all moneys belonging to the city, and keep an account of all receipts and expenditures, under such regulations as may be prescribed by ordinance; he shall make a monthly statement to the council of the receipts and expenditures of the preceding month, and in his capacity as city clerk he shall keep all the papers and documents belonging to the city, attend the meetings of the council, and keep a journal of their proceedings, and a record of all their ordinances, and shall do all other things required of him by ordinances.

Reports of officers.

§ 379. It shall be the duty of the several elected and appointed officers of said city, whenever required by the city council, to make reports, to the said council, and in the manner required of them, and in their reports to embody all the matters and information required pertaining to the duties of their respective offices.

Other necessary affairs.

§ 380. The city council may provide by ordinance for the election or appointment of any other officer or officers necessary for the good government of the city, and the proper administration of the public interest, and shall prescribe their duties and terms of office, and fix their compensation.

Article V.—Judicial Department.Police court.

§ 390. The judicial power of the city shall be vested in a police court, to be held therein by the city justices, or one of them, to be designated by the mayor, but either of said city justices may hold such court without such designation, and it is hereby made the duty of such city justices, in addition to the duties now required of them by law, to hold said police court.

Jurisdiction.

§ 391. The police court shall have exclusive jurisdiction of the following public offenses committed in the city:

1. Petit larceny;

2. Assault or battery, not charged to have been committed upon a public officer in the discharge of official duty, or with intent to kill;

3. Breaches of the peace, riots, affrays, committing willful injury to property, and all misdemeanors punishable by fine or by imprisonment, or by both such fine and imprisonment;

4. Of proceedings respecting vagrants, lewd or disorderly persons.

Jurisdiction.

§ 392. Said court shall also have exclusive jurisdiction of all proceedings for violation of any ordinance of said city, both civil and criminal, and of an action for the collection of any license required by any ordinance of said city.

Justices inhibited in certain cases.

§ 393. Neither of said justices shall sit in cases in which he is a party, or in which he is interested, or where he is related to either party by consanguinity or affinity within the third degree, and in case of the sickness or inability of the city justices, either of them may call in a justice of the peace residing in the county to act in his place and stead.

Powers of justices.

§ 394. Each of the city justices, while acting as judge of said court, shall also have power to hear cases for examination, and may commit and hold the offender to bail for trial in the proper court, and may try, condemn, or acquit, and carry his judgment into execution as the case may require, according to law, and punish persons guilty of contempt of court; and shall have power to issue warrants of arrests in case of a criminal prosecution for a violation of a city ordinance, as well as in case of the violation of the criminal law of the state; also all subpoenas, and all other processes necessary to the full and proper exercise of his powers and jurisdiction; and in such of the cases enumerated in this section in which trial by jury is not secured by the constitution of the state, he may proceed to judgment in the first instance without a jury, but on appeal the defendant shall be entitled to trial by jury in the superior court.

Clerk of court.

§ 395. The police court shall have a clerk, to be appointed by the city council, upon the nomination of the mayor, who shall hold office during the pleasure of the council. The clerk shall keep a record of the proceedings of and issue all process ordered by the city justices, or either of them, or by said police court, and receive and pay weekly into the city treasury all fines imposed by said court. He shall also each month render to the mayor (as auditor) an exact and detailed account, upon oath, of all fines imposed and collected, and all fines imposed and uncollected, since his last report. He shall prepare bonds, justify bail, when the amount has been fixed by either of the city justices or said court, in cases not exceeding one hundred dollars, and may administer oaths. The clerk shall remain at the courtroom of said court during business hours, and during such reasonable times thereafter as may be necessary for discharging his duty. Before receiving his salary, each or any month, he shall make and file with the auditor an affidavit that he has deposited with the city treasurer all moneys that have come to his hands belonging to the city. Any violation of this provision shall be a misdemeanor. He shall give a bond in the sum of five thousand dollars, with at least two sureties to be approved by the mayor, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office.

§ 396. All fines and other moneys collected on behalf of the city in the police court shall be paid into the city treasury on the first Tuesday of each month; and all bills for fees and costs due the officers of said court shall be reported to the city council each month.

Dockets.

§ 397. The city council shall furnish a suitable room for the holding of said court, and shall also furnish the necessary dockets and blanks. One docket shall be styled "The City Criminal Docket," in which all the criminal business shall be recorded, and each case shall be alphabetically indexed; another docket shall be styled "The City Civil Docket," and it shall contain each and every civil case in which the city is a party, or which is prosecuted or defended for her interest, and each case shall be properly indexed. A third docket shall contain all the other business appertaining to the office of said city justice, and in all cases the docket shall contain all such entries as are required by law to be made in justices' dockets; and in any case tried before the court, the docket must show what duties were performed by any officer of the court, and the amount of the fees due to the officer for such services, and what amount of money, if any, collected.

Court, when open.

§ 398. The police court shall be always open, except upon nonjudicial days, and then for such purposes only as by law permitted or required of other courts of this state.

Appeals.

§ 399. Appeals may be taken from any judgment of said police court, to the superior court of the county in which such city may be situated, in the same manner in which appeals are taken from justices' courts in like cases.

Place of imprisonment.

§ 400. In all cases of imprisonment of persons convicted in said police court of any offense committed in the city, the persons so to be imprisoned, or by ordinance required to labor, shall be imprisoned in the city jail, or if required to labor, shall labor in the city.

Seal.

§ 401. Said court shall have a seal, to be furnished by the city.

Monthly report.

§ 402. The city justices shall, on the first Tuesday of each month, make to the city council a full and complete report of all the cases, civil and criminal, in which the city has an interest, or which are required to be entered in the city civil docket, or the city criminal docket; such report to be made upon blanks to be furnished by the city council, and in such form as they may require.

Transcripts and Warrants.

§ 403. Certified transcripts of the dockets, made by the clerk of said court, under the seal of said court, shall be evidence in any court of this state of the contents of said docket; and all warrants and other process issued out of said court, and all acts done by said court, and certified under its seal, shall have the same force and validity in any part of this state as though issued or done by any court of record of this state.

Article VI.—Educational Department.Board of education.

§ 410. The government of the school department of the city shall be vested in a board of education, to consist of seven members, to be called school directors. One school director shall be elected from each ward at the regular municipal election, by the vote of the city at large, and shall hold office for the term of four years, and until his successor is elected and qualified; provided, that the first board of education elected under the provisions of this chapter shall, at their first meeting, so classify themselves by lot as that three of their number shall go out of office at the expiration of two years, and four at the expiration of four years.

Organization.

§ 411. The board of education shall meet on the first Monday after their election, and elect one of their number president, and shall hold meetings at least once in each month thereafter at such times as shall be determined by a rule of said board. A majority of all the members elected shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but a smaller number may adjourn from time to time. The board may determine the rules of its proceedings. Its sessions shall be public, and its records shall be open to public inspection. The board shall also have power to fill all vacancies occurring in the board until the next regular municipal election.

§ 412. The board of education shall have sole power:

1. To establish and maintain public schools, and to establish school districts, and to fix and alter the boundaries thereof.

Employees.

2. To employ and dismiss teachers, janitors, and school-census marshals, and to fix, alter, allow and order paid their salaries or compenafter due public notice published for not less than ten days in one daily paper of the city.

No director or superintendent to be a party.

§415. No school director or superintendent shall be interested in any contract pertaining in any manner to the school department of said city. All contracts in violation of this section are declared void, and any director or superintendent violating or aiding in violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor, and shall be punished by fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars.

City board of examiners.

§416. No teacher shall be employed in any of the public schools without having a certificate issued under the provisions of this chapter. For the purpose of granting the certificates required, the board of education shall appoint a city board of examination. The city board of examination shall consist of the school superintendent and four other persons, residents of such city, at least two of whom shall be experienced teachers. The members of the city board of examination shall receive for their services such compensation as may be fixed by the board of education. Such city board of examination shall have power:

Rules.

First. To adopt rules and regulations not inconsistent with the laws of this state for its own government, and for the examination of teachers.

Examination.

Second. To examine applicants, and to prescribe a standard of proficiency which will entitle the person examined to a certificate.

Certificates.

Third. To grant city certificates of three grades:

1. High school certificates, valid for six years, and authorizing the holder to teach any primary, grammar, or high school in such city;
2. City certificates, first grade, valid for four years, and authorizing the holder to teach any primary or grammar school in such city;
3. City certificates, second grade, valid for two years, and authorizing the holder to teach any primary school in such city;

Fourth. Without examination, to grant city certificates and fix the grade thereof to the holders of state life diplomas, state educational diplomas, state normal school diplomas, state university diplomas (when recommended by the faculty of the university), state certificates, city certificates granted in other cities of this state, and life diplomas, and state normal school diplomas of other states;

Fifth. To revoke or suspend for immoral or unprofessional conduct, profanity, intemperance, or evident unfitness for teaching, any certificate granted by them.

Secretary.

§ 417. The school superintendent shall act as secretary and book-keeper of the board of education, and perform all clerical duties required by such board. In the absence of the superintendent, the board of education may appoint one of their own number to act as secretary. The school superintendent may appoint an assistant at a salary of one hundred dollars per month. The superintendent may, for a good and sufficient cause, provisionally suspend any teacher employed in the schools of such city until the next meeting of the board of education.

Superintendent's reports.

§ 418. The superintendent shall report to the board of education annually, and at such other times as they may require, all matters pertaining to the expenditures, income and condition and progress of the public schools of said city during the preceding year, with such recommendations as he may deem proper.

Duty of superintendent.

§ 419. It shall be the duty of the superintendent to visit and examine each school at least once a month, to observe, and cause to be observed, such general rules for the regulation and government and instruction of the schools, not inconsistent with the laws of the state, as may be established by the board of education; to attend the sessions of the board, and inform them at each session of the condition of the public schools, schoolhouses, school fund, and other matters connected therewith, and to recommend such measures as he may deem necessary for the advancement of education in the city. He shall acquaint himself with all the laws, rules, and regulations governing the public schools in said city, and the judicial decisions thereon, and give advice on subjects connected with the public schools, gratuitously, to officers, teachers, pupils, and their parents and guardians.

Vacancy.

§ 420. In case of vacancy in the office of superintendent, the board of education shall have power to fill the vacancy until the next ensuing municipal election.

School fund.

§ 421. The school fund of the city shall consist of all moneys received from the state school fund; of all moneys arising from taxes which shall be levied annually by the city council of the city for school purposes; of all moneys arising from the sale, rent, or exchange of any school property, and of such other moneys as may, from any source whatever, be paid into said school fund; which fund shall be kept separate and distinct from all other moneys, and shall only be used for school purposes under the provisions of this chapter. If, at the end of any fiscal year, any surplus remains in the school fund, such surplus money shall be carried forward to the school fund of the next fiscal year, and shall not be, for any purpose whatever, diverted or withdrawn from said fund, except under the provisions of this chapter.

School fund, how expended.

1. For the payment of the salaries or wages of teachers, janitors, school-census marshals, and other persons who may be employed by said board;

2. For the erection, alteration, repairs, rent, and furnishing of school-houses;

3. For the purchase money or rent of any real or personal property purchased or leased by said board;

4. For the insurance of all property;

5. For the discharge of all legal encumbrances on any school property;

6. For lighting schoolrooms, and the offices and rooms of the superintendent and board of education;

7. For supplying the schools with fuel, water, apparatus, blanks, blank-books, and necessary school appliances, together with books for indigent children;

8. For supplying books, printing and stationery for the use of the superintendent and board of education, and for the incidental expenses of the board and department;

9. For the payment of the salary of the superintendent and assistant superintendent;

10. For grading and improving all school lots, and for grading, sewer-ing, planking, or paving and repairing streets, and constructing and repairing sidewalks in front thereof.

Claims.

§ 423. All claims payable out of the school fund shall be filed with the secretary of the board, and after they shall have been approved by a majority of all the members elect of said board, upon a call of the ayes and noes, which shall be recorded, they shall be signed by the president of the board and by the superintendent, and be sent to the city treasurer. Every demand shall have indorsed upon it a certificate of its approval. All demands for salaries shall be paid monthly.

Debt not to be in excess of income.

§ 424. All demands authorized by this article shall be paid by the city treasurer from the school fund, when the same shall be presented to him, ordered paid, and approved by the board; provided, that the said board shall not have power to contract any debt or liabilities, in any form whatsoever, against the said city, in contravention of this article, or exceeding in any year the income and revenue provided for the school fund for such year.

Auditor to certify.

§ 425. It shall be the duty of the auditor of the county in which any such city may be situated, upon the first Monday in each month, and at such other times as he may deem proper, to certify in duplicate to the superintendent of schools of such county, the amount of school moneys at that time in the county treasury, and the amount received during the previous month. The county superintendent shall, upon receipt of such certificates, indorse upon one of them the amount of such moneys to which the common schools in such city are entitled. The certificate so indorsed shall at once be returned to said auditor, who shall direct upon the same the county treasurer to pay the sum designated upon such certificate to the treasury of such city for the use of the school fund thereof.

Treasurer to pay.

§ 426. The treasurer of such county shall thereupon pay to the treasurer of such city the sum directed by the auditor as above provided; and when said moneys are placed in such city school fund, they shall be used in precisely the same manner as moneys raised by city school taxes in such city; provided, that the entire revenue derived by such city from the state school fund, and the state school tax, shall be applied by said board of education exclusively to the support of primary and grammar schools.

CHAPTER IV.Municipal Corporations of the Third Class.

(A charter for cities having a population of more than 15,000 and not exceeding 30,000.)

Article I.—General Powers.Third class.

§ 500. Every municipal corporation of the third class shall be entitled the city of — (naming it), and by such name shall have perpetual succession, may sue and be sued in all courts and places, and all proceedings whatever; shall have and use a common seal, alterable at the pleasure of the city authorities, and may purchase, lease, receive, hold, and enjoy real and personal property, and control and dispose of the same for the common benefit.

Article II.—General Provisions Relating to Officers.City officers.

§ 501. The government of such city shall be vested in a mayor; a common council, to consist of seven aldermen; a board of education, to consist of seven school directors; a police judge; an assessor; a clerk, who shall be ex-officio auditor; a treasurer; a superintendent of streets; a tax and license collector; a water-rate collector; a city attorney, and such other and inferior officers as the common council may appoint.

Election and tenure.

§ 502. The aldermen, mayor, police judge, city attorney, and assessor shall be elected by the qualified electors of such city, at a general municipal election to be held therein on the second Tuesday in March, in each even-numbered year. The mayor, police judge, city attorney, and assessor shall hold office for the period of two years from and after the Monday next succeeding the day of such election, and until their successors are elected and qualified. The members of the common council and board of education shall hold office for the period of four years from and after the Monday next succeeding the day of such election, and until their successors are elected and qualified; provided, that the first common council elected under the provisions of this chapter shall, at their first meeting, so classify themselves by lot as that three of their number shall go out of office at the expiration of two years, and four at the expiration of four years; and provided further, that the first board of education elected under the provisions of this chapter shall, at their first meeting so classify themselves by lots as that three of their number shall go out of office at the expiration of two years, and four at the expiration of four years.

Other officers appointed.

§ 503. All other officers, except as otherwise in this chapter provided, shall be appointed by the common council, upon the nomination of the mayor, and shall hold office for the period of two years from and after the date of such appointment, and until their successors are appointed, elected, and qualified.

Bonds.

§ 504. The common council shall, by ordinance, determine what officers shall give bonds for the faithful performance of their duties, and fix the amount of such bond; and each of such officers shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, execute a bond to such city in such penal sum as the common council by ordinance may determine, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties, including in the same bond the duties of all offices of which he is made by this chapter ex-officio incumbent. Such bonds shall be approved by the common council. All bonds, when approved, shall be filed with the clerk, except the bond of the clerk, if any, which shall be filed with the mayor. All the provisions of any law of this state relating to the official bonds of officers shall apply to such bonds except as herein otherwise provided. Every officer of such city, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall take and file with the clerk the constitutional oath of office.

Vacancies.

§ 505. Any vacancy occurring in any of the offices provided for in this chapter, except in the office of school director, shall be filled by appointment by the common council upon the nomination of the mayor, but if such office be elective, such appointee shall hold office only until the next regular election, at which time a person shall be elected to serve for the remainder of such unexpired term.

Compensation.

§ 506. The aldermen and school directors shall receive no compensation whatever. The annual salaries of other officers shall be as follows: Mayor, one thousand two hundred dollars; police judge, one thousand eight hundred dollars; assessor, one thousand eight hundred dollars; city attorney, one thousand five hundred dollars; street superintendent, one thousand two hundred dollars; clerk and auditor, one thousand five hundred dollars; tax and license collector, one thousand two hundred dollars; treasurer, one thousand dollars; water-rate collector, one thousand two hundred dollars; school superintendent, one thousand five hundred dollars; all of which salaries shall be paid monthly.

Elections.

§ 507. All elections in such city shall be held in accordance with the general election law of the state, so far as the same may be made applicable; and no person shall be entitled to vote at such election unless he shall be a qualified elector of the county, enrolled upon the great register thereof, and shall have resided in such city for at least thirty days next preceding such election. The common council shall give such notice of each election as may be prescribed by ordinance, shall appoint boards of election, and fix their compensation, and establish and change election precincts and polling places; provided, that no part of any ward less than the whole thereof shall be attached to any other ward, or part thereof, in forming election precincts. At any municipal election the last printed great register of the county shall be used, and any elector whose name is not upon such printed register shall be entitled to vote upon producing and filing with the board of election a certificate, under the hand and official seal of the county clerk, showing that his name is registered and uncanceled upon the great register of such county, provided that he is otherwise entitled to vote.

§ 508. No person shall be eligible to or hold any office in such city, whether filled by election or appointment, unless he be a resident and elector therein, and shall have resided in such city for one year next preceding the date of such election or appointment; provided, however, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to school superintendents or school teachers. One alderman and one school director shall be elected from each ward, and the person so elected must be a resident of the ward from which he is so elected, and continue to be such resident during his term of office, and if he shall fail to so continue a resident of such ward, his office shall, by reason thereof, immediately become vacant.

Free library.

§ 509. The trustees of any free public library created or existing in such city under the provisions of an act entitled "An act to establish free public libraries and reading-rooms," approved April twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred and eighty, shall be appointed by the council in the same manner as other officers are appointed under the provisions of this chapter, anything in the provisions of said act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Article III.—Legislative Department.

Common council—Meetings.

§ 520. The common council shall meet on the Monday next succeeding the date of said general municipal election, and shall hold regular meetings at least once in each month, at such times as they shall fix by ordinance. Special meetings may be called at any time by the mayor, or by three aldermen, by written notice delivered to each member at least three hours before the time specified for the proposed meeting. All meetings of the common council shall be held within the corporate limits of the city, at such place as may be designated by ordinance, and shall be public.

§ 521. At any meeting of the common council, a majority of the aldermen shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but a less number may adjourn from time to time, and may compel the attendance of absent members in such manner and under such penalties as may be prescribed by ordinance. The mayor shall preside at all meetings of the council, and in case of his absence, the council may appoint a president pro tem.; and in case of the absence of the clerk, the mayor or president pro tem. shall appoint one of the members of the council clerk pro tem.

Rules.

§ 522. The common council shall judge of the qualifications of its members, and of all election returns, and determine contested elections of all city officers. They may establish rules for the conduct of their proceedings, and punish any member or other person for disorderly behavior at any meeting. They shall cause the clerk to keep a correct journal of all their proceedings, and, at the desire of any member, shall cause the ayes and noes to be taken on any question, and entered on the journal.

Light and water ordinances.

§ 523. No ordinance, and no resolution or order for the payment of money, for granting any franchise, for lighting or watering streets, or for supplying water for municipal purposes, shall be passed by the common council on the day of its introduction, nor within five days thereafter, nor at any other than a regular meeting; and no ordinance, and no such resolution or order, shall have any validity or effect unless passed by the votes of at least four aldermen and approved by the mayor; provided, that if the mayor shall neglect or refuse to approve the same within five days, then the same may be passed by the votes of five aldermen, and shall then take effect as if approved by the mayor.

Powers of council.

§ 524. The common council of such city shall have power:

1. To pass ordinances not in conflict with the constitution and laws of this state, or of the United States.

Real estate.

2. To purchase, lease, or receive such real estate and personal property as may be necessary or proper for municipal purposes, and to control, dispose of, and convey the same for the benefit of the city; provided, that they shall not have power to sell or convey any portion of any waterfront.

Water supply.

3. To acquire, construct, repair, and manage pumps, aqueducts, reservoirs, and other works necessary or proper for supplying the city with water.

Streets.

4. To establish, lay out, alter, open, keep open, improve, and repair streets, sidewalks, alleys, bridges, squares, and other public highways and places within the city and to drain, sprinkle, and light the same; to remove all obstructions therefrom; to establish the grades thereof; to grade, pave, macadamize, gravel, and curb the same in whole or in part, and to construct gutters, culverts, sidewalks and cross-walks therein or upon any part thereof; to cause to be planted, set out, and cultivated, shade trees therein; and generally manage and control all such highways and places.

Sewers.

5. To construct and maintain drains and sewers.

Extinguishment of fires.

6. To provide fire-engines and all other necessary or proper apparatus for the prevention and extinguishment of fire, and to construct and maintain telegraph and telephone lines for fire and police purposes.

Poll-tax.

7. To impose on and collect from every male inhabitant between the ages of twenty-one and sixty years an annual street poll-tax not exceeding two dollars; and no other road poll-tax shall be collected within the limits of such city.

Dog tax.

8. To impose and collect an annual tax, not exceeding two dollars, on every dog owned or harbored within the limits of the city; and no other dog tax shall be collected within the limits of such city.

Property tax.

9. To levy and collect annually a property tax, not exceeding one dollar on each one hundred dollars of the assessed value of all real and personal property within such city, which said tax shall be apportioned as follows: For the general fund, not exceeding fifty cents on each one hundred dollars; for the road fund, not exceeding twenty-five cents on each one hundred dollars; and for the school fund, not exceeding twenty-five cents on each one hundred dollars; each of which funds shall be kept separate from all others.

Licenses.

10. To license, for purposes of regulation and revenue, all and every kind of business authorized by law, and transacted or carried on in such city, and all shows, exhibitions, and lawful games carried on therein; to fix the rates of license tax upon the same, and to provide for the collection of the same by suit or otherwise.

Rivers.

11. To improve the rivers and streams flowing through such city, or adjoining the same; to widen, straighten, and deepen the channels thereof, and remove obstructions therefrom; to improve the waterfront of the city; to construct and maintain embankments and other works to protect such city from overflow; and to bridge any creek or river so as not to interfere with navigation.

Public buildings.

12. To erect and maintain buildings for municipal purposes.

Tracks and pipes.

13. To permit, under restrictions as they may deem proper, the laying of railroad tracks and the running of cars drawn by horses, steam, or other motive power thereon, and the laying of gas and water pipes in the public streets, and the construction and maintenance of telegraph and telephone lines therein.

Ward division.

14. To divide the city, by ordinance, into seven wards as nearly equal in population as may be, to fix the boundaries thereof, and to change the same from time to time; provided, that no change in the boundaries of any ward shall be made within sixty days next before the date of said general municipal election, nor within twenty months after the same shall have been established or altered.

Fire department.

15. To establish and regulate a fire department and a police department, to appoint and remove the officers and employees thereof, and to prescribe their duties and fix and order paid their salaries and compensation.

Subordinate officers.

16. To appoint and remove such subordinate officers as they may deem proper, and to fix their duties and compensation.

Imposition of penalties.

17. To impose fines, penalties, and forfeitures for any and all violations of ordinances; and for any breach or violation of any ordinance, to fix the penalty by fine or imprisonment, or both; but no such fine shall exceed five hundred dollars, nor the term of such imprisonment exceed six months.

Prison labor.

18. To cause all persons imprisoned for violation of any ordinance to labor on the streets or other public property or works within the city.

Other acts.

19. To do and perform any and all other acts and things necessary or proper to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

Enacting clause.

§ 525. The enacting clause of all ordinances shall be as follows: "The mayor and common council of the city of — do ordain as follows." Every ordinance shall be signed by the mayor, attested by the clerk, and published at least five times in a newspaper published in such city.

Common council to audit.

§ 526. All demands against such city, except for school purposes, shall be presented to and audited by the common council, in accordance with such regulations as they may by ordinance prescribe; and upon the allowance of any such demand, the mayor shall draw a warrant upon the treasurer for the same, which warrant shall be countersigned by the clerk, and shall specify for what purpose the same is drawn, and out of what fund it is to be paid.

No debt in excess of available money.

§ 527. The common council shall not create, audit, allow, or permit to accrue any debt or liability in excess of the available money in the treasury that may be legally apportioned and appropriated for such purposes; provided, that any city, during the first year of its existence under this act, may incur such indebtedness or liability as may be necessary, not exceeding in all the income and revenue provided for it for such year; nor shall any warrant be drawn, or evidence of indebtedness be issued, unless there be at the time sufficient money in the treasury legally applicable to the payment of the same, except as hereinafter provided.

Indebtedness in excess to be decided by election.

§ 528. If, at any time, the common council shall deem it necessary to incur any indebtedness in excess of the money in the treasury applicable to the purpose for which such indebtedness is to be incurred, they shall give notice of a special election by the qualified electors of the city, to be held to determine whether such indebtedness shall be incurred. Such notice shall specify the amount of indebtedness proposed to be incurred, the purpose or purposes of the same, and the amount of money necessary to be raised annually by taxation for an interest and sinking fund, as hereinafter provided. Such notice shall be published for at least three weeks in some newspaper published in such city; and no other question or matter shall be submitted to the electors at such election. If, upon a canvass of the votes cast at such election, it appear that not less than two-thirds of all the qualified electors voting at such election shall have voted in favor of incurring such indebtedness, it shall be the duty of the common council to pass an ordinance providing for the mode of creating such indebtedness, and of paying the same; and in each ordinance provision shall be made for the levy and collection of an annual tax upon all the real and personal property, subject to taxation within such city sufficient to pay the interest on such indebtedness as it falls due; and also to constitute a sinking fund for the payment of the principal thereof, within a period of not more than twenty years from the time of contracting the same. It shall be the duty of the common council in each year thereafter, at the time at which other taxes are levied, to levy a tax sufficient for such purpose, in addition to the taxes by this chapter authorized to be levied. Such tax, when collected, shall be kept in the treasury as a separate fund, to be inviolably appropriated to the payment of the principal and interest of such indebtedness.

§ 529. The violation of any ordinance of such city shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and may be prosecuted by the authorities of such city in the name of the people of the state of California, or may be redressed by civil action, at the option of said authorities. Any person sentenced to imprisonment for the violation of an ordinance may be imprisoned in the city jail; or, if the common council by ordinance shall so prescribe, in the county jail of the county in which such city may be situated, in which case the expense of such imprisonment shall be a charge in favor of such county and against such city.

Nuisances.

§ 530. Every act or thing done or being within the limits of such city, which is or may be declared by law or by any ordinance of such city to be a nuisance shall be and is hereby declared to be a nuisance, and shall be considered and treated as such in all actions and proceedings whatever; and all remedies which are or may be given by law for the prevention and abatement of nuisances shall apply thereto.

System of street work.

§ 531. The common council are authorized and empowered to provide, by ordinance, a system for doing any or all work in or upon the streets, highways, and public places of such city, and for making therein street improvements and repairs, and for doing any or all work authorized by subdivisions 4 and 5 of section 524 of this act, and for the payment of the cost and expenses thereof, either by the levy and collection of special assessments therefor, in proportion to benefits, upon the property to be benefited thereby, or by payments made out of the road fund of such city, or by both; provided, that in all cases where more than one-half of the expense of any such improvement, except the construction of a sewer or drain, exceeding in amount the sum of one thousand dollars, is to be defrayed by special assessment, the common council shall first adopt a resolution, which shall be entered upon their journal, declaring their intention to make such improvement, and fixing a time at which objections to the making of such improvement will be considered. Such resolution shall also designate the boundaries of the district to be affected or benefited by such improvement. Upon adopting such resolution, the common council shall give notice of such intention, which notice shall be published for twenty days in a newspaper printed and published in such city. Such notice shall describe the improvement so proposed to be made, and state the estimated cost thereof, and designate the time set for such hearing, and shall refer to such resolution so entered upon the journal for such description of boundaries. If, at or before the time so fixed, written objections to such improvement, signed by the owners of two-thirds in value of the property so to be affected or benefited, as shown by the last preceding city assessment-roll, be not filed with the clerk, the common council shall be deemed to have acquired jurisdiction to order the making of such improvement. Any such special assessment made and levied to defray the cost and expenses of any such work, together with any percentage imposed for delinquency and the costs of collection, shall constitute a lien upon and against the property upon which such assessment is made and levied, from and after the date of the order for such assessment; which lien may be enforced by a summary sale of such property, and the execution and delivery of all necessary certificates and deeds therefor, under such regulations as may be prescribed by ordinance, or by an action in any court of competent jurisdiction to foreclose such lien; provided, that any property sold to satisfy any such lien shall be subject to redemption within the time and in the manner provided, or that may hereafter be provided by law for the redemption of property sold for taxes.

§ 532. The common council are authorized and empowered to provide by ordinance for the establishing, laying out, extending, and widening streets and other public highways and places within the city, and for taking private property therefor, and for taking private property for the purpose of rights of way for drains, sewers, and aqueducts, and for the purpose of widening and straightening the channels of streams, and the improvement of water fronts; but no private property or right of way over or through the same shall be taken without the consent of the owner thereof until a just compensation for the same shall be ascertained and paid to such owner, or into court for his use. If the owner of any parcel of land proposed to be taken for any such improvement shall be dissatisfied with the amount of compensation awarded by said council for the taking of such parcel, he may, within twenty days after the date of such award, commence an action against such city in any court of competent jurisdiction within the city, township, or county, to recover such amount of compensation as he may consider himself entitled to. The amount of compensation ascertained and awarded in such action shall be deemed and taken to be the amount of compensation to which such person will be entitled if such improvement be made. If such person fail to recover in such action a greater amount of compensation than was so awarded by said council, he shall not recover costs but shall pay costs to such city. Any owner of or person interested in any such parcel of land, who shall fail to commence such action within the time herein limited, shall be deemed to have waived his right in that behalf, and to have assented to and ratified the award of said council. The common council shall not acquire jurisdiction to exercise any of the powers hereinbefore in this section enumerated, until a petition in writing therefor is first presented to said council, signed by at least twenty inhabitants of said city, taxable therein for municipal purposes. Such petition must describe generally the street, highway, or public place proposed to be laid out or established, or the proposed alteration by widening or extending the same, or by widening or straightening the channels of streams, or by the improvement of waterfronts; or if a right of way is sought for drains, sewers, or aqueducts, such petition shall describe the proposed route for the same. Such petition shall be heard at a regular meeting of the council, notice of such hearing being given by the clerk by publication in a newspaper published in such city, for a period of three weeks before such hearing. Such notice shall be deemed to give said council full jurisdiction over the subject matter, and over the person of every owner of or person interested in any parcel of land to be taken or assessed for any such improvement; and every person interested, from and after the expiration of such publication, shall be deemed to have notice of all subsequent proceedings; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent such council from giving such other or further notice as they may deem proper. At the time fixed in such notice, or at such time to which such hearing may be postponed, the council shall proceed to hear and determine the prayer of such petition pursuant to such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by such ordinance. Such system, so established by ordinance, may provide for the payment of such compensation, either by the levy and collection of special assessments therefor, in proportion to benefits upon the property to be affected or benefited by any such improvement, or by payments made out of the street fund, or river and waterfront improvement fund of such city, or by both. Any such special assessment made and levied to provide means for the payment of any such compensation and the cost of ascertaining the same, together with any percentage imposed for delinquency and the costs of collection, shall constitute a lien upon and against the property upon which such assessment is made and levied, from and after the date of the order for such assessment; which lien may be enforced by a summary sale of such property, and the execution and delivery of all necessary certificates and deeds therefor, under such regulations as may be prescribed by ordinance, or by an action in any court of competent jurisdiction to foreclose such lien; provided, that any property sold to satisfy any such lien shall be subject to redemption within the time and in the manner provided or that may hereafter be provided by law for the redemption of property sold for taxes.

Taxes and tax sales.

§ 533. The common council shall have power, and it shall be their duty, to provide by ordinance for the assessment, levy, and collection of all city taxes, which shall conform, as nearly as the circumstances of the case may permit, to the provisions of the laws of this state in reference to the assessment, levy, and collection of state and county taxes, except as to the times for such assessment, levy, and collection, and except as to the officers by whom such duties are to be performed. All taxes assessed, together with any percentage imposed for delinquency and the costs of collection, shall constitute liens on the property assessed from and after the first Monday in March in each year; which liens may be enforced by a summary sale of such property, and the execution and delivery of all necessary certificates and deeds therefor, under such regulations as may be prescribed by ordinance, or by actions in any court of competent jurisdiction to foreclose such liens; provided, that any property sold for such taxes shall be subject to redemption within the time and in the manner provided or that may hereafter be provided by law for the redemption of property sold for state or county taxes. All deeds made upon any sale of property for taxes or special assessments under the provisions of this chapter shall have the same force and effect in evidence as is or may hereafter be provided by law for deeds for property sold for nonpayment of state or county taxes.

Laws concerning indebtedness to continue in force.

§ 534. No money shall be expended or drawn out of the street fund for any but street and sewer purposes, and no money shall be expended or drawn out of the school fund for any but school purposes. Whenever any city organizing under this act has a bonded indebtedness contracted or issued under any law of this state, all the provisions of such laws in regard to the levying, collection, and disposition of taxes and revenues for the payment of such indebtedness and the interest thereon, shall continue in force, and the taxes levied and revenues raised for the payment of the interest and principal of such indebtedness shall be in addition to the taxes provided by section 524 of this act, and the common council of said city, organizing under this act, is hereby authorized and empowered to levy and collect such taxes and apportion such revenues for the payment of such indebtedness and interest, in addition to the limit of taxation hereinbefore prescribed in this act; and nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prevent any city from levying and collecting the tax authorized by the act entitled, "An act to establish free public libraries and reading-rooms," approved April twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred and eighty, in addition to the taxes herein authorized to be levied and collected. All moneys received from licenses, and from fines, penalties and forfeitures, shall be paid into the general fund.

§ 561. The police judge shall be judge of the police court, and shall have the powers and perform the duties of a magistrate. He may administer and certify oaths and affirmations, and take and certify acknowledgments.

When disqualified.

§ 562. In all cases in which the police judge is a party, or in which he is interested, or when he is related to either party by consanguinity or affinity within the third degree, or is otherwise disqualified, or in case of his sickness or inability to act, the mayor may call in a justice of the peace residing in the city to act in the place and stead of the police judge; or if there be no justice of the peace residing in the city, or if all those so residing are likewise disqualified, then he may call in any justice of the peace residing in the county in which such city may be situated.

Clerk of court.

§ 563. The common council shall appoint, upon the nomination of the mayor, a clerk for said police court. Said clerk shall keep the records of said court and the seal thereof, and perform such other duties as may be required of him by law or ordinance. He shall receive a salary of one hundred dollars per month. The council shall also provide a seal for said police court.

Article VI.—School Department.Board of education.

§ 570. From and after the organization of each of such cities, the same shall constitute a separate school district, which shall be governed by the board of education of such city.

Vacancies.

§ 571. In case a vacancy shall occur in the office of school director, the board of education shall choose a person to fill such vacancy, who shall serve until the next election, when, if the term does not then expire, a person shall be elected to serve for the remainder of such unexpired term.

Meetings.

§ 572. The board of education shall meet on the second Tuesday after such general municipal election, and choose one of its members as president, and another as vice-president. Its regular meetings shall thereafter be held as often as twice in each month, and the time and place for holding such meetings shall be fixed by a rule of said board. Special meetings of said board may be held when called by written notice, signed by its president, or three of its members, and delivered personally to each of its members who shall not have signed the same. Four members shall constitute a quorum, and no business shall be transacted by said board of education without the concurrence of four of its members; but a majority of the members present at any meeting may adjourn from time to time. All meetings of said board of education shall be public, and full records of its proceedings shall be kept by the school superintendent, who shall be ex-officio clerk of said board of education.

Powers of board.

§ 573. The board of education shall have power:

To maintain schools.

1. To establish and maintain public schools, and to subdivide the school districts, and to fix and alter the boundaries of such subdivisions.

Superintendent.

2. To appoint a school superintendent, who shall hold office during their pleasure, and to prescribe his duties, and fix his compensation.

Employees.

3. To employ and dismiss teachers, janitors, truant-officers, and school-census marshals, and to fix, alter, allow, and order paid their salaries or compensation; and to employ and pay such mechanics and laborers as may be necessary to carry into effect the powers hereby conferred.

Regulation of schools.

4. To make, establish, and enforce all necessary or proper rules and regulations, not in conflict with the laws of this state, for the government and management of public schools within such city, the teachers thereof, and the pupils therein, and for carrying into effect the laws relating to education.

Supplies.

5. To provide for the school department of such city fuel and lights, water, printing, and stationery, and to incur such other incidental expenses as may be deemed necessary by said board.

Building and repairs.

6. To build, alter, repair, rent, and provide schoolhouses, and to furnish the same with proper school furniture, apparatus, and appliances, and to insure any and all school property.

Real estate.

7. To purchase, receive, lease, and hold in fee, in trust for such city, any and all real estate and personal property that may have been acquired, or may hereafter be acquired, for the use and benefit of the schools of such city; provided, that no real estate shall be bought, sold, or exchanged, nor any expenditure incurred for the construction of new schoolhouses, without the approval of the common council; and provided further, that the proceeds of any such sale or exchange of real estate shall be exclusively applied to school purposes.

Improvement.

8. To grade, fence, and improve all school lots.

To determine moneys needed.

9. To determine annually the amount of money required for the support of the public schools, and for carrying into effect all the provisions of law in reference thereto; and in pursuance of this provision, the board of education shall, at least ten days before the meeting of the common council at which the annual city taxes are levied, submit in writing to the common council a careful estimate of the whole amount of money to be received from the state and county, and of the amount to be required from such city for the above-mentioned purpose; and the amount so found to be required from the city shall, by the common council, be added to the other amounts to be assessed and collected for city purposes, and when collected, the proceeds thereof shall be immediately paid into the school fund of such city, to be drawn out only upon the order of the board of education; provided, that such annual tax shall not exceed twenty-five cents on each one hundred dollars of the assessed valuation of the real and personal property within such city.

Disbursement regulations.

10. To establish regulations for the just and equal disbursement of all moneys belonging to the school fund.

Encumbrances.

11. To discharge all legal encumbrances existing at the time of the incorporation of such city, or thereafter, on any school property within such city.

Admission of nonresidents.

12. To admit nonresident children, and persons over twenty-one years of age, to any of the departments of the schools of such city, upon the payment, monthly, in advance, to the treasurer of such city, for the school fund, of such tuition fee as said board may establish.

Age limit.

13. To prohibit any children under six years of age from attending the public schools.

Grades and text-books.

14. To establish and regulate the grades of schools in such city, and the course of study, and the mode of instruction to be pursued therein, and to determine what text-books shall be used.

Other acts.

15. To do and perform, in addition to the foregoing powers, such other acts as may be necessary or proper to carry into effect the powers hereby conferred.

Board may sue.

§ 574. The board of education may sue and be sued by their name of office. In any action or judicial proceeding against said board, service of process upon the president, or upon a majority of the members of the board, shall be sufficient to give the court jurisdiction to hear and determine the same.

County treasurer to pay over.

or the school district consisting of the same, and all sums received into the county treasury, which may be apportioned to said city or district, shall be paid to the treasurer of such city by the treasurer of such county, as soon as received, or as soon as the apportionment shall be made, when apportionment is necessary.

Powers of president.

§ 576. The president of the board of education shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations concerning any demand upon the treasury, payable out of the school fund, and in all other matters relating to the duties of the board of education, and to witnesses examined in any investigation, had by such board of education, or by a committee thereof, duly appointed by it for that purpose.

Same.

§ 577. Said president may issue subpoenas under his hand and the seal of such city, attested by the city clerk, to compel the attendance of witnesses before such board of education, or committee thereof, who shall be entitled to the same fees as witnesses in civil cases, and who may be punished for contempt for nonattendance, or refusal to be sworn, or to answer, by the superior court of the county in which such city may be situated.

Claims.

§ 578. Every claim payable out of the school fund shall be filed with the clerk of the board of education, and after it shall have been approved by the board, a certificate of such approval shall be indorsed thereon, signed by the president and clerk; and a warrant upon the school fund shall be issued thereon for the payment of such claim, which warrant shall be signed by the president of such board, and countersigned by the clerk, and shall specify for what purpose the same is drawn.

Entire revenue for schools.

§ 579. The entire revenue derived by such city from the state school fund and the state school tax shall be applied by said board of education exclusively to the support of primary and grammar schools.

Article VII.—Miscellaneous Provisions.

Moneys collected.

§ 590. Every officer collecting or receiving any moneys belonging to or for the use of such city shall settle for the same with the clerk on the first Monday in each month, and immediately pay the same into the treasury, on the order of the clerk, for the benefit of the funds to which such moneys respectively belong.

No officer to be interested in contracts.

§ 591. No officer of such city shall be interested, directly or indirectly, in any contract with such city, or with any of the officers thereof, in their official capacity, or in doing any work or furnishing any supplies for the use of such city or its officers in their official capacity; and any claim for compensation for work done, or supplies or materials furnished, in which any such officer is interested, shall be void, and if audited and allowed shall not be paid by the treasurer. Any willful violation of the provisions of this section shall be a ground for removal from office, and shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and punished as such.

CHAPTER V.

Municipal Corporations of the Fourth Class.

(Charter for cities having a population of more than 10,000 and not exceeding 15,000.)

Article I.—General Powers.

Fourth class.

§ 600. Every municipal corporation of the fourth class shall be entitled the city of — (naming it), and by such name shall have perpetual succession, may sue and be sued in all courts and places, and in all proceedings whatever, and shall have and use a common seal, and the same alter at pleasure; may purchase, receive, have, take, hold, lease, use, and enjoy property of every name or description, and control and dispose of the same for the common benefit.

Article II.—General Provisions Relating to Officers.

Officers.

§ 601. The officers of such city shall consist of a mayor, twelve councilmen, a collector, who shall also be street commissioner, an assessor, treasurer, city clerk, police judge, city attorney, chief of police, superintendent of public schools, and two school trustees for each ward; and whenever a free public library and reading-room is established therein, five trustees thereof; and the council may also provide for the election, by the voters of said city, or by said council, of a superintendent of irrigation. The city council may also elect a city surveyor, harbor-master, poundkeeper, and city jailer, and whenever a paid fire department shall be established in such city, a chief engineer, and one or more assistant engineers, and any other officer necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter, and for whose election or appointment no provision is made, and may by ordinance prescribe the duties of all city officers, and fix their compensation, subject to the limitations herein contained.

Election under this act.

§ 602. On the first Tuesday after the first Monday of November of each odd-numbered year a municipal election shall be held, at which the qualified voters of such city shall elect one school trustee for each ward, and six councilmen, to be voted for by the wards they may respectively represent, and each to hold office for the term of four years, and until the qualification of his successor; and also a mayor, an assessor, a collector and street commissioner, city attorney, police judge, chief of police, and superintendent of public schools, who shall each hold office for two years, and until the qualification of a successor; provided, that at the first election held after the organization of such city under this act such city shall elect two school trustees for each ward, and twelve councilmen, who shall, at the first meeting of the city council and board of education, respectively, decide by lot their terms of office; six of said councilmen and one-half of the number of school trustees to hold for the term of four years, and the others for the term of two years, and in each case until the qualification of their successors.

§ 603. The city council shall call all city elections, designate the time and place of holding the same, giving at least ten days' notice thereof, and shall appoint one inspector or clerk, and two judges of election, for each ward or election precinct in such city, who shall appoint two clerks, and all shall take the oath of office prescribed by law for inspectors, judges, and clerks of state and county elections. All provisions of law regulating elections for state and county officers, not conflicting herewith, shall apply to elections under this chapter. The polls for all city elections shall be open at 8 o'clock A. M., and continue open until 5 o'clock P. M., the same day. If any officer so appointed shall fail to attend, those attending, with the electors assembled shall fill their places by others from the qualified electors present. All returns of city elections shall be made out and signed by the officers of such election in the usual form, and deposited with the city clerk within two days after the election. The persons having the plurality of the votes cast for each of the respective offices voted for shall be declared elected. No person shall vote at any city election unless he shall be an elector for state and county officers, and shall have actually resided within such city, and in the precinct where he may offer to vote, thirty days preceding such election; provided, that any elector who may remove from one precinct to another within thirty days prior to such election may, if a qualified voter therein at the time of removal, vote in the precinct from which he may have moved. If any person not having the legal qualifications of an elector at any city election shall fraudulently vote, or attempt to vote, or knowingly hand in two or more ballots folded together, or shall vote, or attempt to vote, more than once at the same election, such person or persons, on conviction thereof, shall be fined in any sum not less than twenty nor more than five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail for any period not more than three months, or may be punished by both such fine and imprisonment.

City council to canvass vote.

§ 604. On the Monday following the election, the city council shall convene and publicly canvass the result, and shall issue certificates of election to each person elected by a plurality of votes. When two or more persons have received an equal and highest number of votes for any one of the offices voted for, the city council shall thereafter, at its first regular meeting, decide by vote between the parties which shall be elected. If the city council from any cause fail to meet on the day named, the mayor shall call a special meeting of said council within five days thereafter, and in addition to the notice provided for calling special meetings, shall publish the same on two successive days in some newspaper published in such city. If the mayor fail to call said meeting within said five days, any four councilmen may call it. At such special meeting all elections, appointments, or other business may be transacted that could have been on the day first herein named.

Office, when vacant.

§ 605. Each officer of such city shall take the oath of office, and such as may be required to give bond, file the same, duly approved, within ten days after receiving notice of his election or appointment, or if no notice be received, then on or before the date fixed for the assumption by him of the duties of the office to which he may have been elected or appointed; but if anyone, either elected or appointed to office, fail for ten days to qualify as required by law or to enter upon his duties at the time fixed by law or the orders of the city council, then such office shall become vacant; or, if any such officer shall absent himself from such city continuously for ten days without the consent of the city council, or shall openly neglect or refuse to discharge his duties, such office may be by the city council declared vacant; provided, that the penalty for absence from the city shall not apply to such officers as serve without salary or other compensation. Such officers as are elected by the voters of the city shall enter upon their duties on the first Monday of January next succeeding the date of their election; such officers as are appointed or elected by the city council shall enter upon their duties within ten days after receiving notice of their appointment or election.

§ 606. When any vacancy occurs in any elective office, except the mayor, the city council may fill the same for the unexpired term, except in case of city councilmen, or school trustees, which shall be filled until the next city election, and until the qualification of a successor. The city council may, upon written charges to be entered upon their journal, after notice to the party, and after trial, by a vote of two-thirds of all the members elect, remove any officer.

Official bonds.

§ 607. It shall be the duty of the city council to provide for the accountability of the city assessor, treasurer, clerk, police judge, collector, and street commissioner, city attorney, and all other officers herein provided for, by requiring from them sufficient security for the faithful performance of their duties or trusts, which security shall be given by them before entering on their respective duties. If such security should be or become insufficient, additional security may be required, and if not given within ten days, the council, by a vote of two-thirds of the members, may declare the office vacant, and may thereafter fill the same.

Compensation.

§ 608. The mayor, councilmen, and school trustees shall not receive any salary or compensation for their services; provided, that members of the city council, or a committee thereof for that purpose appointed, may receive for their services, while acting as a board of equalization, a sum to be determined by the council, not to exceed for each one five dollars per day, for each day while actually so engaged, for two weeks in each year, and no longer.

Street commissioner.

§ 609. The collector and street commissioner shall receive a salary, to be fixed by the city council, which shall not exceed the sum of fifteen hundred dollars per annum.

No additional compensation.

§ 610. The city council shall have no power to allow any extra or additional compensation to that in this chapter expressly authorized to any officer for the rendition of services that the city council have power to require the officer to perform by virtue of his office.

Ward division.

§ 611. In case any such city shall, at the time of its organization under this act, be divided into wards, such divisions shall continue, but the city council may, at any time not within three months previous to an annual city election, change the boundaries of such wards, or divide it into others, not exceeding six in number; provided, that such change shall not affect the term of office of any councilman or school trustee, but they shall serve out their term for the ward in which their residence may be; but if more reside within any one ward than the proportion to which it is entitled, those of the shortest unexpired term shall, by the council, be assigned for such unexpired term to a ward where there is a vacancy. The representation of each ward in the city council shall be as near as may be in proportion to its population, but each ward shall have two school trustees.

Article III.—Legislative Department.

City council.

§ 620. The mayor and councilmen of the several wards shall constitute the city council, and at its first meeting in January next after a city election shall elect a city clerk, city treasurer, and one of their own body as president of the city council, and at any time when the mayor and president are both absent, may elect a president pro tem., who shall act during such absence. They shall also, at such time, designate the number of policemen for such city, to be elected as hereinafter provided.

Meetings.

§ 621. A majority of the councilmen elect shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. A less number may adjourn from time to time, and they may compel the attendance of absent members. The council may punish their members for disorderly conduct, and upon written charges to be entered on their journal, for such conduct, after trial, may expel a member by a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected. The mayor shall have a vote only in case of a tie in the votes of the other members. They shall determine their rules of proceeding and the qualification of members. The sittings of the council shall be open to the public, except where the interests of the city shall require secrecy. A journal of all their proceedings shall be kept by the clerk under their direction. At any time, at the request of any two members, the ayes and noes on any question shall be taken and entered upon the journal.

§ 622. The city council shall have power and authority to make and pass all by-laws, ordinances, orders, and resolutions not repugnant to the constitution of the United States or of the state of California, or the provisions of this charter, necessary for the municipal government and the management of the affairs of the city, for the execution of the powers vested in said body corporate, and for carrying into effect the provisions of this chapter; to fix and collect a license tax on and to regulate theaters, melodeons, balls, concerts, dances, and all theatrical, melodeon, circus, or other performances, and all performances where an admission fee is charged, or which may be held in any house or place where wines or liquors are sold to the participants; also all shows, billiard-tables, bowling-alleys, exhibitions or amusements; to fix and collect a license tax on and to regulate all taverns, hotels, restaurants, saloons, bar-rooms, banks, brokers, manufactories, livery-stable keepers, express companies, and persons engaged in transmitting letters or packages, railroad, stage, and steamboat companies or owners, whose principal place of business is in such city, or who shall have an agency therein; to license and regulate auctioneers; to license, regulate, tax, prohibit, or suppress all tippling-houses, dram-shops, saloons, bars, bar-rooms, raffles, hawkers, peddlers, pawnbrokers, refreshment or coffee stands, booths, or sheds; to prohibit or suppress, or to license and regulate, all dance-houses, fandango-houses, cock-fights, dog-fights, or any exhibition or show of any animal or animals; to license and tax hackney-coaches, cabs, omnibuses, drays, market-wagons, and all other vehicles used for hire, and to regulate their stands, and to fix the rates to be charged for the transportation of persons, baggage, and property; and to license or suppress runners for steamboats, railroads, taverns, or hotels; and to fix and collect a license tax upon all occupations and trades, and all and every kind of business authorized by law, not heretofore specified, and provided, that in the business of selling intoxicating drinks, wines, ales, and beers, in less quantities than one quart, or to be drank on the premises where sold, and on any other business, trade, or calling not provided by law to be licensed for state and county purposes, the amount of license shall be fixed at the discretion of the city council, as they may deem the interests and good order of the city may require; also to prevent and restrain any riot or riotous assemblage, disturbance of the peace, or disorderly conduct, in any place, house, or street in the city; to prevent, remove, and abate nuisances at the expense of the parties creating, causing, or committing, or maintaining the same; to establish, maintain, and regulate a common pound for estrays, and to appoint a poundkeeper, who shall be paid out of the fines and fees imposed and collected of the owners of any animals impounded, and from no other source; to prevent and regulate the running at large of any and all domestic animals within the city limits, or any parts thereof; and to regulate or prevent the keeping of such animals within any part of the city; to control and regulate slaughter-houses, washhouses, laundries, tanneries, forges, and offensive trades, and to provide for their exclusion or removal from the city limits, or from any part thereof; to provide, by regulation, for the prevention and summary removal of all filth and garbage in the streets, sloughs, alleys, backyards, or public grounds of such city, or elsewhere therein; to establish, alter, and repair city prisons, and to provide for the regulation of the same, and for the safekeeping of persons committed thereto; to provide for the care, feeding, and clothing of the city prisoners; to provide for the formation of a chain-gang for persons convicted of crimes or misdemeanors, and their proper employment and compulsory working for the benefit of the city; and also to provide for the arrest and compulsory working of vagrants; to prohibit and suppress all gaming, and all gambling or disorderly houses, and houses of ill-fame, and all immoral and indecent amusements, exhibitions, and shows; to establish and regulate markets and market-places; to fix and regulate the speed at which railroad cars may run within the city limits, or any portion thereof; to provide for and regulate the commons of the city; to regulate and prohibit fast driving or riding in any portion of the city; to regulate or prohibit the loading or storage of gunpowder and combustible or explosive materials in the city, or transporting the same through its streets or over its waters; to have, purchase, hold, use, and enjoy property of every name or kind whatsoever, and the same to sell, lease, transfer, mortgage, convey, control, or improve; to build, erect, or construct houses, buildings, or structures of any kind needful for the use or purposes of such city; to establish, continue, regulate, and maintain a fire department for such city, to change or reorganize the same, and to disband any company or companies of the said department; also to discontinue and disband said fire department, and to create, organize, establish, and maintain a paid fire department for such city; provided, that nothing in this chapter shall be construed to authorize the said city council to disband or discontinue the fire department of any city having, at the time of its organization under this act, a volunteer fire department organized and existing, or to create, establish, and maintain a paid fire department therein, without first submitting the proposition of establishing a paid fire department for such city to the legal voters thereof, at a general city election, for decision, and not after such election, unless thereat a majority of all the votes cast at such election are in favor thereof; and in the event that any time hereafter the volunteer fire department of such city shall be disorganized or disbanded, and a paid fire department established in its stead, then every person who shall have been an active fireman for the space of two years next before the date of such disbanding and establishing shall be entitled to and shall receive an exempt fireman's certificate, and such certificate shall entitle the person to whom it is issued to all benefits and immunities accorded by the laws of this state in regard to exempt firemen; to institute and perfect any and all measures and means for the prevention or extinguishment of fires; to establish fire limits, and the same to alter at pleasure; to regulate or prevent the erection of wooden or other buildings or structures of combustible materials; to regulate the construction of buildings, sheds, awnings, signs, or any structures of a dangerous or unsafe character; to adopt, enter into, and carry out means for securing a supply of water for the use of such city or its inhabitants, or for irrigating purposes therein; to prevent the overflow of the city, or to secure its drainage; to provide for the numbering of houses; to establish a board of health; to prevent the introduction and spread of disease; to establish a city infirmary, and provide for the indigent sick; and to provide and enforce regulations for the protection of health, cleanliness, peace, and good order of the city; to establish and maintain hospitals within or without the city limits; to control and regulate interments, and prohibit them within the city limits; to build, alter, improve, keep in repair, and control the waterfront; to erect, regulate, and repair wharves and to fix the rate of wharfage and transit wharf, and levy dues upon vessels and commodities; and to provide for the regulation of berths, landing, stationing, and removing of steamboats, sail vessels, rafts, barges, and all other water craft; to fix the rate of speed at which steamboats and other steam water craft may run along the waterfront of the city; to build bridges so as not to interfere with navigation; to provide for the removal of obstructions to the navigation of any channel or watercourse; to clear out and excavate sloughs and other watercourses or channels; to license steamers, boats, and vessels used in any watercourse in the city, and to fix and collect a license tax thereon; to license ferries and bridges under the law regulating the granting of such license; to determine and impose fines for forfeitures and penalties that shall be incurred for the breach or violation of any city ordinance, and also for a violation of the provisions of this chapter, when no penalty is affixed thereto or provided by law, and to appropriate all such fines, penalties, and forfeitures for the benefit of the city; but no penalty to be enforced shall exceed, for any offense, the amount of five hundred dollars, or three months' imprisonment, or both; and every violation of any lawful order, regulation, or ordinance of the city council of such city is hereby declared a misdemeanor or public offense, and all prosecutions for the same may be in the name of the people of the state of California; to create and establish a city police; to prescribe their duties and their compensation, and to provide for the regulation and government of the same; to provide for conducting elections and establishing election precincts, when necessary; to examine, either in open session or by committee, the accounts or doings of all officers or other persons having the care, management, or disposition of moneys, property, or business of the city; to make all appropriations, contracts, or agreements for the use or benefit of the city, and in the city's name; to provide by ordinance for the opening, laying out, altering, constructing, extending, repairing, grading, paving, graveling, macadamizing, or otherwise improving of public streets, avenues, and other public ways, or any portion of either thereof, and for the construction, regulation and repair of sidewalks, and other street improvements, all at the expense of the property to be benefited thereby, without any recourse, in any event, upon the city for any portion of the expense of such work, or any delinquency of the property holders or owners, and to provide for the forced sale thereof for such purposes; to establish a uniform grade for streets, avenues, sidewalks, and squares, and to enforce the observance thereof; to clear, cleanse, alter, straighten, widen, fill up, or close any water-way, drain, or sewer, or any watercourse in such city, when so declared by law to be navigable; to adopt, provide for, establish, and maintain a general system of sewerage, or drainage, or both, and the regulation thereof, the expense thereof to be borne by general taxation upon the taxable property and inhabitants of and in such city; to provide funds for the purpose aforesaid, and to determine manner, terms, and places of connection with main or central lines of pipes, sewers, or drains established with funds derived from general tax, and compel compliance with and conformity to such general system of sewerage, or drainage, or both, and the regulations of said council thereto relating, by the infliction of suitable penalties and forfeitures against person and property, or either, for non-conformity to or failure to comply with the provisions of such system and regulations, or either; to provide for all public buildings, public parks, or squares, necessary or proper for the use of the city; to permit the use of the streets for railroad purposes; to order paid any final judgment against such city; but none of its lands, or property of any kind or nature, taxes, revenue, franchise, or rights, or interest, shall be attached, levied upon, or sold in or under any process whatsoever; to regulate the sale of coal and wood in such city, and may appoint a measurer of wood and weigher of coal for the city, and define his duties, and prescribe his term of office, and the fees he shall receive for his services; provided, that such fees shall, in all cases, be paid by the parties requiring such service.

Indebtedness not to exceed means in the treasury.

§ 623. The city council shall not create, audit, allow, nor permit to accrue any debts or liabilities above the actual revenue and available means in the treasury that may be legally apportioned for such purpose, nor shall any warrant be drawn, or evidence of indebtedness be issued, unless there shall be sufficient money in the treasury justly applicable to meet the same.

Council to audit demands.

§ 624. All accounts and demands that shall lawfully arise against the city shall be submitted to the city council, and if found correct shall be allowed, and an order be made that the demand be paid; upon which (if there be funds in the treasury as in the preceding section provided) the clerk shall draw a warrant, which shall be countersigned by the president of the city council, upon the treasurer, in favor of the owner or owners of the demand, specifying for what purpose and by what authority it is issued, and out of what fund it is to be paid, and the treasurer shall pay the same out of the proper fund. All accounts and demands against such city, other than such as are chargeable to or payable out of the school fund, must be presented to the city council duly itemized and accompanied with an affidavit of the party, or his agent, stating the same to be a true and legitimate claim against such city for the full amount for which the same is presented, and that the same accrued as set forth, and with all necessary and proper vouchers, within one year from the date the same accrued; and any claim or demand not so presented within the time aforesaid shall be forever barred, and said council shall have no authority to allow any account or demand not so presented in manner and time as aforesaid, nor shall any action be maintained against such city for or on account of any demands or claim against the same until such demand or claim shall have first been presented to the city council for action thereon.

§ 625. The annual expenses of such city shall not exceed the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, except in cities where one per cent on the valuation of the property therein raises more than the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, and in such cities the annual expenses shall not exceed the sum of one per cent of the valuation of the property therein; provided, however, that moneys authorized to be raised and expended for the payment of the funded or bonded indebtedness of such city, and for school purposes in such city, as provided to be raised by the provisions of this chapter, shall not be considered a portion of said annual expense. If, at any time after the said sum shall have been expended in any year, it shall appear that the interests of such city demand an expenditure of an additional sum, the city council shall make a report of the same, which shall be published for at least three weeks in some newspaper printed and published in such city, particularly specifying the object or objects for which said expenditure is required, and the amount of money necessary to be raised to complete the same. At any time within ten days after the expiration of said publication, the city council shall order an election, giving ten days' notice thereof, at which time those persons who are legal voters of such city may vote for or against a tax to raise such additional sum. The election shall be conducted and returns made and canvassed in all respects as the general elections of such city, and a majority shall determine if such tax be levied or not. If the vote is in favor of such tax, the city council shall forthwith, by an order to be entered on the journal of their proceedings, order the tax to be levied and collected upon the basis of the last municipal assessment, and shall make the proposed expenditure; provided, that the special tax thus to be levied shall, for no one year, be more than one per cent of the valuation of real and personal property in the city, as shown by the last assessment-roll. All special taxes to be levied and collected under the provisions of this section shall be levied and collected in the manner, form, and ways prescribed for the levying and collecting of the general taxes of such city; and as a security for their payment, a lien shall attach to and against each lot of land for the amount assessed against it from the date of the order; and every person, firm, or corporation against whom a tax be thus assessed shall be personally liable to pay the amount to such city. Said lien shall continue until such taxes are paid, or the property become vested in a purchaser under a sale thereof. [Amendment approved March 19, 1889. Stats. 1889, p. 371. In effect immediately.]

Excessive expenditure void.

§ 626. Every appropriation or payment of money made or ordered by the city council in excess of said sum stated in section 625, unless it shall be authorized by a vote of the electors of such city, as provided for in the preceding section, shall be invalid, illegal, and void, and shall be recoverable by the city from the party or parties to whom the same is made, if knowingly taken or received by such party or parties; and the members of the city council who shall have voted for the same shall be individually, jointly, and severally liable for such excess, and it may be recovered from them in any court of competent jurisdiction by the party or parties with whom they have contracted, or by the city, if payment has been actually made. [Amendment approved March 19, 1889. Stats. 1889, p. 371. In effect immediately.]

Public streets.

§ 627. All the streets in such city that have been or shall hereafter be laid out and dedicated by the party or parties owning the land fronting upon the same, or by the authority of such city, and declared to be public streets, and that have been or shall hereafter be used as such, shall be and are hereby declared public streets to the extent that the same may have been or shall hereafter be used, laid out, or dedicated.

Contracts for work and materials.

§ 628. All contracts for work to be performed, or materials to be used, ordered by or for such city, or in which it is interested, may be, and when the cost exceeds five hundred dollars shall be, let to the lowest bidder. A notice, signed by the clerk, soliciting sealed proposals, shall be published a reasonable time, in no case less than ten days, prior to the time fixed for opening such bids. Such notice shall designate the work to be done, and the place and the time in which it may be performed, with such other specifications as may tend to give the bidders a knowledge of the object to be accomplished, and with a reference to the diagram or specifications on file in the clerk's office. On the day limited in said notice for the opening of said bids the council, or a committee therefor appointed, shall, in open meeting, open and declare said bids and award the contract to the lowest responsible bidder; provided, however, that the city council, or its committee, may reject all bids when considered too high or uncertain from any circumstances. The council or committee may, before considering any offer, require security that the party will enter into a contract if awarded to him; and all contracts shall be in writing, and accompanied with a bond satisfactory to the mayor. No officer of such city shall be interested in any contract to which the city is a party, and any contract contrary to the provisions hereof shall be void.

Improvement of public highways.

§ 629. The city council is authorized and empowered to establish, lay out, alter, open, improve, and repair streets, avenues, sidewalks, alleys, bridges, squares, and other public highways and places within the city, and to drain, sprinkle, and light the same; to remove all obstructions therefrom; to establish the grades thereof; to grade, pave, macadamize, gravel, and curb the same, in whole or in part, and to construct gutters, culverts, sidewalks, and cross-walks therein, or upon any part thereof; to cause to be planted, set out, and cultivated, shade trees along the lines thereof or therein, and generally to manage and control all such highways and places.

§ 630. The city council shall have the power to provide by ordinance for doing any or all work in or upon the streets, avenues, highways, and public places of such city, and for making therein street improvements and repairs, or for the preservation thereof, and for doing any or all work thereupon or therein authorized by this chapter; and for the payment of the cost and expenses thereof by the levy and collection of special assessments therefor upon the property to be affected or benefited thereby. That is to say, the expense or cost of any work or improvement upon the streets, avenues, or public ways of such city shall be assessed upon the lots and lands fronting thereon, each lot or portion of a lot being separately assessed for the full debt thereof in proportion to the benefits upon the property to be benefited sufficient to cover the total expense of the work to the center of the street on which it fronts. The expense of all improvements in the space formed by the junction of two or more streets, or where one main street terminates in or crosses another main street, and also all necessary street-crossings or cross-ways, shall be paid by such city. In all the streets constituting the waterfront of such city, or bounded on the one side by the property thereof, the expense of work done on that portion of said streets from the center line thereof to the said waterfront, or to such property of the city bounded thereon, shall be provided for by such city, but no contract for any such work shall be given, except to the lowest responsible bidder, and in the manner hereinbefore provided. When any work or improvement mentioned in this section is done or made on one side of the center line of said streets, avenues, or public ways, the lots or portions of lots fronting on that side only shall be assessed to cover the expenses of said work, according to the provisions of this chapter.

Enacting clause.

§ 631. The style of the city ordinances shall be as follows: "The mayor and city council of the city of — do ordain as follows"; and all ordinances shall be published in one or more of the newspapers published in the city.

Publication of ordinances.

§ 632. By-laws and ordinances shall be passed by the city council and approved by the mayor, or the president of the city council acting in his stead. But before any by-law or ordinance shall have any binding validity, it shall be published in one or more newspapers published in the city, and recorded in the record-book to be kept by the clerk. The clerk shall certify on the record the fact of publication, and so certified, the record shall be prima facie evidence of the passage thereof, and may be read as evidence of the by-law or ordinance, and its publication. A printed copy of any ordinance or by-law, or a compilation thereof, printed by authority of the city council, and attested by the clerk, shall be evidence thereof in same manner and with like effect.

§ 633. All orders of the city council, to have force and legal validity, shall be entered on the journal of their proceedings, which journal shall be signed by the officer who may preside at such meeting.

Ayes and noes.

§ 634. Upon the passage of all ordinances appropriating money, imposing taxes, abolishing licenses, increasing or lessening the amount to be paid for licenses, the ayes and noes shall be entered upon the journal.

Majority necessary.

§ 635. A majority of all the members elected shall be necessary to pass any ordinance appropriating for any purpose the sum of five hundred dollars or upwards, or any ordinance imposing any assessment, tax or license, or in any wise increasing or diminishing the city revenue.

Free library.

§ 636. The trustees of any free public library, created or existing in such city under the provisions of an act entitled "An act to establish the public libraries and reading-rooms," approved April twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred and eighty, shall be appointed by the city council in the same manner as other officers are appointed under the provisions of this chapter, anything in the provisions of said act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Article IV.—Taxation.

Tax levy.

§ 640. The city council shall have full power and authority to assess, levy, and collect annually taxes upon all the property within the city, taxable for state purposes, not exceeding one per cent upon the assessed value thereof, which shall be paid into the general fund for current expenses. They shall provide for the payment of the principal and interest of the bonded indebtedness, if any, of such city, and for the payment of the other indebtedness of such city not funded; and they shall each year levy, assess, and collect an additional tax upon the taxable property as aforesaid, not exceeding two per cent in any one year, which, when collected, shall be paid into a fund to be disbursed as follows:

1. To pay the interest on said bonds;
2. To a fund for the payment of the principal thereof; and,

3. To meet any indebtedness, as aforesaid, not funded.

And the city council, in making said levy, shall estimate the proportion requisite for each fund, and the same shall be expended, under the direction of the city council, for the purpose aforesaid, and for no other purpose. Said tax shall be levied, assessed, and collected upon all property liable to taxation within such portion and such limits, and so much of the territory of such city as shall be liable therefor under the laws and charters in existence at the time of the organization of such city under this act; and if, by reason of extension of territory, or from any cause, a portion only, or a certain district, of such city be liable, under such laws and charters, for the payment of the bonded and other indebtedness above named, or any portion of either thereof, the city council in levying such tax shall make such levy upon and against the property which is situated and persons who may reside in the territory of such city, liable in each case for the payment of such indebtedness, or any particular class or portion thereof, according to such existing laws and charters. The city council shall also have power to raise annually, by tax upon all the property within the city taxable for state purposes, whatever amount of money may be requisite for the support of free public schools therein, including high schools, and providing and furnishing houses therefor; but the tax provided for in this section shall not exceed thirty-five cents on each one hundred dollars valuation upon the assessment-roll in any one year, and may, in like manner, raise by tax a fund for the establishment and maintenance of a free public library and reading-room; such tax not to exceed, in any one year, the rate of ten cents on each one hundred dollars valuation.

§ 641. It shall be the duty of the city assessor to prepare, between the first day of January and the first Monday in April in each year, and present to the city clerk, with his certificate of its correctness, a list of all the real and personal property within the city on the first day of January taxable for state and county purposes, with a true valuation thereof on the first day of January, which said assessment-list shall conform as near as practicable, when not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, to the assessment list required by law to be made by the county assessor for state and county purposes; also, to make all assessments for the improvements of streets as herein or by ordinance provided; to be present at the sessions of all boards of equalization mentioned in this chapter, and to furnish to said board such information as may be required, and to perform such other services in reference to the assessments of property in the city or otherwise appertaining to his office as the city council by ordinance or resolution may require. During the session of the board of equalization the city assessor shall enter upon the assessment list all the changes and corrections made by the board, and may assess and add to such list any property in such city not previously assessed. In the assessment and listing of property for taxation, and in the collection of tax upon personal property not secured by lien upon real estate, he shall have and may exercise the same powers as are conferred by law upon county assessors, and shall receive therefor the same fees and compensation. He shall receive a salary to be fixed by the city council, which shall not exceed five hundred dollars per annum. [Amendment approved March 19, 1889. Stats. 1889, p. 371. In effect immediately.]

Equalization.

§ 642. The city council, or a committee of their number selected for that purpose by the city council, at a meeting thereof to be held on the first Monday of April of each year, shall constitute a board of equalization, and shall, after the assessor shall have completed and handed in his assessment list to the city clerk, and after five days' notice published in some newspaper in such city, hold meetings to hear and determine all complaints respecting the valuation of property as fixed by the assessor in such list, and shall have power, on their own motion, with or without complaint made, to modify and change such valuation in any way they shall deem just and proper; provided, however, that before making any change in any assessment, the board shall notify the person interested by letter, deposited in the postoffice or express, postpaid, and addressed to such person, at least three days before action taken, of the day fixed when the matter will be investigated; provided, further, that no reduction must be made in the valuation of property, unless the party affected thereby, or his agent, makes and files with the board a written application therefor verified by his oath, showing the facts upon which it is claimed such reduction should be made. Any member of said board shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations in the matters before said board, and the sessions of said board shall be held from time to time, as in its notice specified, for the period of two weeks, and no longer.

Clerk to complete.

§ 643. After the board of equalization shall have completed their duties, the city clerk shall add up the columns of valuation, and enter the total valuation of each description of property in the list, and the total value of all property assessed and listed thereon; and thus equalized and added up, the clerk shall, on the first Monday of May thereafter, deliver it to the city council.

Levy of the tax.

§ 644. On the first Monday in May in every year the city council, by an ordinance, shall levy upon all the property in the city taxable by law for state purposes a tax for school purposes, and for the current and general expenses of the city, and, in conformity to the provisions of this chapter, shall levy any and all other taxes by law directed then to be levied or assessed; and, in conformity with the provisions of this chapter, shall levy a tax for the payment of the funded debt upon the property liable therefor. Every tax so levied is made a lien, which shall attach on said day in each year to and against all real property assessed for the amount assessed against it; and if said property be assessed to a wrong person, or by a wrong name, said lien shall in no wise be affected or invalidated, and it shall not be satisfied or removed until the taxes are paid, or the property has absolutely vested in a purchaser under and by reason of a sale for such taxes. Every tax assessed upon personal property is a lien upon the real property of the owner thereof from and after the time of the levy of such tax. The fiscal year shall begin on the first day of January; and the terms "real and personal property" shall have the same meaning as the same terms used in the revenue laws of the state.

List to be delivered to collector.

§ 645. As soon as the city council have declared and levied the taxes in any year, as in the preceding section provided, the city clerk shall carry out, in a separate money column in the list, the amount of taxes assessed against each individual, firm, company, corporation, or unknown owner, and add and put down the aggregate of all taxes as shown by the list; and as thus carried out, the city clerk shall certify to its correctness, and on or before the third Monday of May thereafter deliver it to the city collector, and shall charge him with the amount of taxes as footed up, and take his receipt therefor.

Collection.

§ 646. The collector, on receiving the assessment list certified by the clerk, shall proceed to collect the taxes specified therein, and pay over the same into the treasury, taking a receipt thereof. For the purpose of collecting the taxes authorized by this chapter, the city collector shall have such powers as are given by the revenue laws of this state to collectors of state and county taxes, so far as the same are applicable. All taxes unpaid at the close of official business on the third Monday of June shall be deemed delinquent, after which time the collector shall receive no money for taxes; and he shall, on said day, enter upon assessment-roll a levy upon all property therein assessed the taxes upon which remain unpaid, and shall immediately ascertain the total amount of taxes unpaid, and file in the office of the city clerk a list of all persons and property then owing taxes, verified by his oath, which list shall be known as the delinquent list.

Delinquencies.

§ 647. On the third Monday in June of each year, at 6 o'clock P. M., all unpaid taxes are delinquent, and thereafter the collector must collect thereon, for the use of the city, an addition of five per cent.

Delinquent list.

§ 648. On the first Monday in July of each year, the city collector must deliver to the city clerk a complete delinquent list of all persons and property then owing taxes; and in the list so delivered must be set down in numerical or alphabetical order all matters and things contained in the assessment-roll and relating to delinquent persons or property.

Verification.

§ 649. The city clerk must carefully compare such delinquent list with the assessment-roll, and if satisfied that it contains a full and true statement of all taxes due and unpaid, he must foot up the total amount of taxes so remaining unpaid, credit the city collector therewith, and make a final settlement with him of all taxes charged against him on the assessment-roll; and must require from him the treasurer's receipt for the full amount of taxes collected.

Certification.

§ 650. After the settlement with the city collector, as prescribed in the preceding section, the city clerk must charge the city collector with the amount of taxes due on the delinquent tax list, with the five per cent added thereto, and within three days thereafter deliver the list, duly certified to such city collector.

Publication.

§ 651. On or before the third Monday in July of each year, the city collector must publish the delinquent list, which must contain the names of the persons and a description of property delinquent, and the amount of taxes and costs due, opposite each name and description, with the taxes due on personal property, added to taxes on real estate where the real estate is liable therefor, or the several taxes are due from the same person. To said list must be appended and with it published a notice that unless the taxes delinquent, together with the costs and percentage, are paid, the real property upon which such taxes are a lien will be sold at public auction, and designating therein the time and place of such sale, which must take place in or in front of the city collector's office, and not less than fourteen nor more than twenty-one days from the first publication.

Collector to certify.

§ 652. Said list must be published three times a week for two successive weeks in some newspaper or supplement thereto published in such city, and when such publication is completed, and before commencing the sale, the city collector must file with the city clerk a copy of the publication, with his affidavit attached thereto, that it is a true copy of the same, that the publication was made in a newspaper or a supplement thereto, stating the name and place of publication; such affidavit shall be prima facie evidence of all the facts therein stated. The expense of the publication of the delinquent list to be paid by the city.

§ 653. The city collector must collect, in addition to the taxes due on the delinquent list, and five per centum added thereto, fifty cents on each lot, piece, or tract of land separately assessed, and on each assessment of personal property, one-half of which must go to the city, and the other to the city collector, in full for preparing the list.

Sale.

§ 654. On the day fixed for the sale, or on some subsequent day to which he may have postponed it, of which he must give notice, the city collector, between the hours of 10 o'clock A. M. and 3 P. M., must commence the sale of the property advertised, commencing at the head of the list, and continuing alphabetically, or in the numerical order of lots and blocks, until completed.

Postponement.

§ 655. He may postpone the day of commencing the sale, or the sale, from day to day; but the sale must be completed within two weeks from the day first fixed.

Owner may designate portion.

§ 656. The owner or person in possession of any real estate offered for sale for taxes due thereon may designate, in writing, to the city collector, prior to the sale, what portion of the property he wishes sold, if less than the whole; but if the owner or the possessor does not, then the collector may designate it, and the person who will take the least quantity of the land, or in case an undivided interest is assessed, then the smallest portion of the interest, and pay the taxes and costs due, including fifty cents to the city collector for the duplicate certificate of sale, is the purchaser.

§ 657. After receiving the amount of the taxes and costs, the city collector must make out in duplicate a certificate, dated on the day of sale, stating (when known) the name of the person assessed, a description of the land sold, the amount paid therefor, that it was sold for taxes, giving the amount and year of the assessment, and specifying the time when the purchaser will be entitled to a deed.

Delivery.

§ 658. The certificates must be signed by the collector, and one copy delivered to the purchaser, and the other filed in the office of the county recorder.

Record of sales.

§ 659. The city collector, before delivering any certificate, must in a book enter a description of the land sold, corresponding with the description in the certificate, the date of sale, purchaser's name, and amount paid, regularly number the descriptions on the margin of the book, and put a corresponding number on each certificate. Such book must be open to public inspection, without fee, during office hours, when not in actual use.

Lien vested in purchaser.

§ 660. On filing the certificate with the county recorder, the lien of the city vests in the purchaser, and is only divested by the payment to him, or to the city treasurer for his use, of the purchase money, and fifty per cent thereon.

Redemption.

§ 661. A redemption of the property sold may be made by the owner, or any party in interest within twelve months from the date of the purchase.

Records of redemption.

§ 662. On receiving the certificate of sale, the recorder must file it, and make an entry in a book similar to that required of the collector. On the presentation of the receipt of the person named in the certificate or of the city treasurer for his use, of the total amount of redemption money, the recorder must mark the word "Redeemed," the date, and by whom redeemed, on the certificate, and in the margin of the book where the entry of the certificate is made.

Purchaser's deed.

§ 663. If the property is not redeemed within the time allowed by law for its redemption, the city collector, or his successor in office, must make to the purchaser, or assignee, a deed of the property, reciting in the deed substantially the matters contained in the certificate, and that no person has redeemed the property during the time allowed for its redemption. The collector shall be entitled to receive from the purchaser three dollars for making such deed.

What the deed proves.

§ 664. The matters recited in the certificate of sale must be recited in the deed, and such deed duly acknowledged or proved is prima facie evidence that:

1. The property was assessed, as required by law;
2. The property was equalized, as required by law;
3. The taxes were levied in accordance with law;
4. The taxes were not paid;
5. At a proper time and place the property was sold, as prescribed by law, and by the proper officer;
6. The property was not redeemed;
7. The person who executed the deed was the proper officer;
8. Where the real estate was sold to pay taxes on personal property, that the real estate belonged to the person liable to pay the tax.

Deed is evidence of regularity.

§ 665. Such deed, duly acknowledged or proved, is (except as against actual fraud), conclusive evidence of the regularity of all other proceedings, from the assessment by the assessor, inclusive, up to the execution of the deed, and conveys to the grantee the absolute title to the lands described therein, free from all encumbrances.

Assessment-roll a guarantee of regularity.

§ 666. The assessment-roll or delinquent list, or a copy thereof, certified by the city clerk, showing unpaid taxes against any person or property, is prima facie evidence of the assessment, the property assessed, the delinquency, the amount due and unpaid, and that all the forms of law in relation to the assessment and levy of such taxes have been complied with.

Article V.—Executive Department.Duties and powers of mayor.

§ 670. The mayor shall be the chief executive officer of the city. He shall have a general supervision over the several departments of the city government, and over all its interests, shall preside over the city council when present, once in three months submit a general statement of the condition of its various departments, and recommend to the city council such measures as he may deem expedient for the public good, or improvement of the city, its finances, or government. He shall sign all ordinances passed by the city council, if he approves them; if he does not approve, he shall, within eight days after its submission to him, return the same to the city clerk's office, with his objections in writing, and at the first meeting of the city council thereafter the same shall be entered upon their journal, and they shall then reconsider such ordinance, and unless two-thirds of the councilmen elect, vote for its passage, it shall not become a law. If the mayor shall not so return any ordinance within eight days, it shall become a law as if he had signed it. He may call special meetings of the city council at any time; he shall do so at the written request of four councilmen, by notifying each member personally, or by a written notice left at his last and usual place of abode, or at his place of business during business hours, stating the purpose of such meeting.

§ 671. The president of the city council shall preside at all its meetings when the mayor is not present; and whenever there is a vacancy in the office of mayor, or he is absent from the city, or unable, from any cause, to discharge the duties of his office, the president shall act as mayor and exercise all his authority and be subject to his duties. He shall countersign all warrants and licenses issued under and by authority of the city, but in his absence or inability to perform said duty, the mayor, or, if he is absent or unable to perform said duty the president pro tem., or if none has been elected the chairman of the finance committee, may sign the same.

Deputies.

§ 672. The chief of police, city attorney, city assessor, city clerk, and city collector, and street commissioner may each, with the approval of the city council, only appoint such deputies as may be necessary, by writing, to be filed with the clerk. Each deputy so appointed shall receive for his services a compensation to be fixed by the city council, not exceeding one hundred dollars per month, and shall perform such duties under the direction of his principal as may by said council be prescribed. The principals shall be each responsible for his deputy, and may revoke the appointment at pleasure.

Chief of police.

§ 673. The chief of police shall receive a salary which shall not exceed the sum of fifteen hundred dollars per annum, to be determined by the city council.

Treasurer.

§ 674. The city treasurer shall receive a salary which shall not exceed the sum of three hundred dollars per annum, to be determined by the city council.

Duties of treasurer.

§ 675. It shall be the duty of the city treasurer to receive and safely keep all moneys belonging to such city, from whatever source derived, to place the same to the credit of the different funds to which they properly belong, in a book kept for that purpose; to disburse said moneys by the direction of the city council, and in accordance with the provisions made by them, and the school fund, by the direction of the board of education, under the provisions of this chapter, and to make a report monthly to the city council of the condition of the treasury.

Clerk.

§ 676. It shall be the duty of the clerk of the city to keep the corporate seal and all papers and documents belonging to the city; to file them in his office, under appropriate heads; to attend the sittings of the city council and to keep a journal of their proceedings and records of all their by-laws, resolutions, and ordinances; to sign all warrants and licenses issued in pursuance of the orders and ordinances of the city council, and to affix the corporate seal on such licenses; to keep an accurate account in a suitable book, under the appropriate heads, of expenditures, of all orders drawn upon the city treasurer, and all warrants issued in pursuance thereof; also, to keep an account in an appropriate book of all licenses issued, with the names of the persons to whom issued, the date of issue, the time for which the same was granted, and the sums paid therefor, and to perform such other duties as he may be required to perform by the provisions of this act, or by ordinance. He shall receive for his services a salary to be fixed by the city council, not exceeding the sum of one hundred dollars per month.

Assessor.

§ 677. It shall be the duty of the city assessor to prepare the assessment-rolls, lists, and books, and to make the assessment of persons and property in said city as required by this chapter; also to make and present all assessments for improvement of streets, or other work of like character. He shall receive a salary, to be fixed by the city council, not exceeding five hundred dollars per annum.

Collector and commissioner.

§ 678. The city collector and street commissioner shall collect all taxes, assessments, licenses, wharfage rates, and all other moneys or dues owing, accruing, belonging, or coming to said city, and the same shall pay over monthly to the city treasurer, unless otherwise ordered by the city council. He shall regulate the landing and stationing of all steamers, vessels, boats, or other water craft, and shall make report to the city council each month. As street commissioner, he shall have the general supervision of all streets, public squares, levees, wharves, sloughs, drains, water-ways, bridges, sidewalks, cross-walks, and public buildings, and shall superintend all work, repairs, or improvement thereof or thereon. At the request of the street committee of the city council, he shall make report to them of any of his doings, and shall do and perform all such other duties as may be required of him by ordinance of

§ 692. The judge of said court shall also have power to hear cases for examination, and may commit and hold the offender to bail for trial in the proper court, and may try, condemn, or acquit, and carry his judgment into execution, as the case may require, according to law; and to punish persons guilty of contempt of court, and shall have power to issue warrants of arrest in cases of a criminal prosecution for the violation of a city ordinance, as well as in case of the violation of the criminal law of the state; also, all subpoenas and all other processes necessary to the full and proper exercise of his powers and jurisdiction in all criminal trials before the police judge for the violation of a city ordinance, as well as in cases of a violation of the criminal law of the state, made triable before such court; the defendant shall be entitled, if demanded by him, to a jury trial but a trial by jury may be waived by the defendant in all such cases, and upon such waiver the court shall proceed and try the case.

Dockets.

§ 693. The city council shall furnish, for the use of the police court, two dockets; one shall be styled The city criminal docket, in which all the criminal cases shall be recorded, and each case shall be alphabetically indexed; the other shall be styled The city civil docket, and it shall contain a record of every civil case which is prosecuted before said court, and each case shall be properly indexed, and in all cases the dockets shall contain all such entries as are required by law to be made in the justice's docket; and in any case commenced or tried before the court the docket must show what duties were performed by each officer, and the amount of fees due to the officer for such services, and the amount of money, if any, collected.

Appeals.

§ 694. Appeals from the police court may be taken to the superior court of the county in all cases cognizable by the said police court, and such appeals shall be taken as in case of appeal from a justice's court.

City and district attorney.

§ 695. The city attorney of such city shall prosecute all cases for the violation of any lawful order, regulation, or ordinance of the city council, and shall prosecute, conduct, and control all proceedings in cases mentioned in section 622 of this act, both in the police court and on appeal therefrom to the superior court, but the district attorney shall attend and conduct all proceedings of the nature of a preliminary examination before said police court.

Incarceration.

§ 696. In all cases when the police court is authorized to impose a fine or imprisonment, or both, upon persons convicted in said court of any offense triable therein, the said court may sentence the offender to be imprisoned in the city jail, if there be one established by the city council, if not, then until said council shall designate and establish a city jail or prison, may sentence offenders to be imprisoned in the county jail, and in addition to imprisonment, may sentence offenders to be employed to labor in the city, under the direction of the chief of police, and in the manner prescribed by ordinance, for the benefit of the city, during such time of imprisonment, and may, in case of imposing a fine, embrace as a part of the sentence that, in default of the payment of such fine, the defendants shall be imprisoned and required to labor for the benefit of the city as before provided, at the rate of two dollars a day, till such fine is satisfied. Offenders required to labor under the direction of the chief of police shall, until the establishment of a city jail, be returned to the county jail at the end of each day's labor during their term of imprisonment, until a city jail shall be by the city council established. It is hereby made the duty of the officer having the control or charge of the county jail of the county wherein such city is situated, to receive and safely keep all persons imprisoned by any judgment or order of the police court, in accordance with the order of commitment, and to allow those to be removed from the jail under the charge of the chief of police, who are required to labor for the benefit of the city, or whom the police judge may order brought forth for trial, and the keeper of the jail shall in no way be responsible for the safe-keeping of such prisoners while so under the charge of the chief of police.

Seal.

§ 697. The court shall have a seal, to be provided by the city, and certified transcripts of the police judge's docket and the seal of his court shall be evidence in any court of the state of the contents of the docket; and all warrants, and other processes issued out of said court, and all acts done by said police judge under its seal, shall have the same force and validity, in any part of this state, as though issued or done by any court of record of this state.

Judge's report.

§ 698. The police judge shall, on the last Saturday of each month, make to the city council a full report of all the cases tried in his court for that month, in which the city may be interested, and at the same time shall pay into the city treasury all fines and other moneys collected on behalf of the city for such month.

Salaries.

§ 699. The city council of such city shall allow to the police judge an annual salary which shall not exceed the sum of fifteen hundred dollars, and to the chief of police and the several policemen of such city each a salary which shall be fixed by said council. The salaries of the police judge, and chief of police and policemen shall be paid from time to time as other city officers and as the council may determine. The chief of police, or any policeman of such city, is hereby authorized and empowered to serve, execute, and return any and all warrants of arrest, and all processes directed to him by the police judge of said city, and to arrest all persons accused or guilty of the violation of any city ordinance, or of any public offense, and to do and perform all acts and duties which, in criminal cases, any constable of the county may lawfully do, and receive like fees for such services; provided, the city council may, in their discretion, deduct the amount so received, for fees from the monthly salary of such officers, or order the same paid into the city treasury for the use and benefit of the city, as received by said officers respectively; provided, that nothing in this charter shall be construed as authorizing or entitling such officers to charge or receive from such city, or the county wherein situated, any fees or costs in any case whatever, nor shall such city or county be liable to pay any fees, or costs to such officers for any service they may render in any action or proceeding, either civil or criminal. The chief of police shall attend the session of the police court when required, supervise and direct the police force of the city, and perform such other duties as may be required by the city council appertaining to the government of the city or the management of its affairs, not especially devolved upon some other officer named in this chapter; and the chief of police, or any policeman, at his discretion, shall serve all notices by this chapter provided to be served, in which the city is in any way interested, and the return of the officer serving shall be evidence of the facts in such return stated, but none of such officers shall serve or execute any civil process, except as provided in this chapter.

Powers of justices.

§ 700. The justices of the peace in and for the township embracing such city shall have the same powers as the same officers in any justice's court of the county, and shall have and may exercise like powers and authority; provided, however, that no justice of the peace in such city shall have power to conduct or try and decide any proceedings or cases of the classes mentioned in section 622 of this act; but nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent any of the justices in said city from acting as police judge.

Interested party not disqualified.

§ 701. The interest which any inhabitant of such city may have in a penalty for the breach of a by-law or ordinance of such city shall not disqualify said inhabitant to act as judge, juror, or witness in any prosecution to recover the penalty.

Article VII.—School Department.

Board.

§ 710. The board of education of such city shall be elected as in this chapter provided, and shall consist of one superintendent and two trustees from each ward in the city.

Superintendent.

§ 711. The superintendent shall be ex-officio secretary of the board of education, and shall receive for his services a salary which shall not exceed eighteen hundred dollars per annum. He shall report to the city council, annually, on or before the first Monday in January, and at such other times as they may require, all matters pertaining to the expenditures, income, condition, and progress of the public schools of the city during the preceding year, together with such accommodations [recommendations], as he may deem proper, and shall, at the regular meeting of the board of education in June of each year, submit to the board a detailed statement of the amount, as near as may be ascertained, of fuel, blanks, blank-books, apparatus, stationery, and such other articles, materials, or supplies, including books for indigent children, as may be necessary for the use of the city schools and the board for one year following. He shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations concerning any demand upon the treasury payable out of the school fund, or other matters relating to his official duties. [Amendment approved March 14, 1885. Stats. 1885, p. 134. In force from and after its passage.]

§ 712. The board of education shall, upon the receipt of the statement from the superintendent, as in the preceding section provided, advertise for the space of five successive days in some newspaper published in such city, for sealed proposals for furnishing the articles in said statement specified. Said advertisement shall designate a day after the expiration of the publication aforesaid when said proposals will be considered, at which time the board or a committee thereof by the board for such purpose designated, shall meet and publicly open and declare the proposals received and shall thereupon award the contract therefor to the lowest responsible bidder or bidders, in each case; provided, that all bids may be rejected if deemed too high. Said board may, in their discretion, require a good and sufficient bond with two or more sureties, to be filed by each bidder, in the sum of two hundred dollars, conditioned for the fulfillment of his proposal in case of the acceptance thereof.

Powers of board.

§ 713. Subject to and in accordance with the directions and provisions of this chapter, the board of education shall have full power:

Establish schools.

1. To establish and maintain public schools, including high school, and fix and alter the boundaries of the district thereof.

Employees.

2. To employ and dismiss teachers, janitors, and other necessary help, and to fix, alter, allow, and order paid their salaries or compensation, and to employ and pay such mechanics and laborers as may be necessary to carry into effect the powers and duties of the board, and to withhold, for good and sufficient cause, the whole or any part of the salary or wages of any person or persons employed as aforesaid.

Regulation of schools.

3. To make, establish, and enforce all necessary and proper rules and regulations not contrary to law, for the government and progress of the public schools within the city, the pupils therein and the teachers thereof, and for carrying into effect the laws relating to education; also, to establish and regulate the grade of schools, and determine what course of study and mode of instruction shall be used in said schools.

Building and repairs.

4. To build, alter, repair, rent, and provide schoolhouses, and the same furnish with lights, water, proper school furniture, apparatus, and school appliances, and to insure any and all school property.

Real estate.

5. To receive, purchase, lease, and hold in fee, in trust for such city, any and all real estate; and to hold in trust any personal property that may have been or may hereafter be acquired for the use and benefit of the public schools of such city.

Improvements.

6. To grade, fence, and improve school lots, and in front thereof to grade, sewer, plank, or pave and repave, and to construct and repair sidewalks.

Legal privileges.

7. To sue for any and all lots, lands, and property belonging to or claimed by the said school department; and to prosecute and defend all actions at law or in equity necessary to recover and maintain the full enjoyment and possession of said lots, lands, and property, and to employ and pay counsel in such cases.

To determine amount of money needed.

8. To determine annually the amount of taxation, not exceeding thirty-five cents on each one hundred dollars valuation on the assessment-roll, to be raised upon the real and personal property within the city not exempt from taxation, for the establishment and support of free public schools therein; and for carrying into effect all the provisions of law regarding public schools, and the amount so determined by said board of education shall be reported in writing to the city council on or before the first Monday of April of each year; and the said city council are hereby authorized and required to levy and cause to be collected, at the time and in the manner of levying other city taxes, the amount of taxation so determined and reported to them by the said board of education, as school tax, upon all taxable property in the city; and said tax shall be in addition to all other amounts levied for city purposes.

Disbursements.

9. To establish regulations for the just and equal disbursement of all moneys belonging to the "public-school fund."

Demands.

10. To examine and allow, in whole or in part, every demand payable out of the school fund, or to reject any such demand for good cause, of which the board shall be sole judge.

Encumbrances.

11. To discharge all legal encumbrances now existing, or which may hereafter exist, upon any school property.

Age limit.

12. To prohibit any child under six years of age from attending the public schools.

Other acts.

13. And generally to do and perform such other acts as may be necessary and proper to carry into force and effect the powers conferred on said board.

Fund to be diverted.

14. To use and apply the school fund of the city for the purposes in this section heretofore named, and for no other purpose whatever.

Nonresidents.

15. To admit nonresident children to any of the departments of the schools of such city upon the payment, at such time as said board may direct, of tuition fee, to be fixed by said board.

Board of examination.

§714. No teacher shall be employed in any of the public schools of such city without having a certificate of the proper grade, issued under the provisions of this chapter. For the purpose of granting certificates required, the board of education, either as a body or by a board of examination appointed by said board of education, and of which the superintendent shall be president, shall hold examinations of teachers. No certificate shall be issued except to a person who shall have passed a satisfactory examination in such branches as the board may require, and shall have given evidence of good moral character, ability, and fitness to teach. Examinations of teachers must be held semi-annually, at such times as the board may determine.

Revocation and renewal.

§715. The board may, in its discretion, renew without re-examination the certificate of any person so employed. It shall have power to revoke the certificate of any teacher upon evidence of immoral or unprofessional conduct or incompetency, and shall always have the power to dismiss any and all teachers, and to alter the amount of salary or compensation paid to either or any of them. The board of education may also, without examination, grant certificates and fix the grade thereof to the holders of life diplomas, state educational diplomas, normal school diplomas, state university diplomas, and to the holders of such state and county certificates as were in full force and effect on the first day of January, eighteen hundred and eighty.

Board must visit.

§ 716. It shall be the duty of the board of education to visit and examine each school at least once each and every month; to observe, and cause to be observed, such general rules for the regulation and government and instruction of the schools, not inconsistent with the laws of the state, as may be established by the board.

School fund, how constituted and applied.

§ 717. The public school fund of such city shall consist of all moneys received from the state and county school fund; of all moneys arising from taxes which shall be levied by the city council for school purposes; of all moneys arising from the sale, rent, or exchange of school property, and of such other moneys as may from any source whatever be paid into said school fund; which fund shall be kept separate and distinct from all other moneys, and shall only be used for school purposes under the provisions of this chapter. No fees or commission shall be allowed or paid for assessing, collecting, keeping, or disbursing of school moneys; and if at the end of the fiscal year any surplus remains in the school fund, such surplus money shall be carried forward to the school fund of the next fiscal year, and no part of the school fund shall be for any purpose or in any manner whatever diverted or withdrawn from said fund, except as in this chapter provided.

Approval of claims.

§ 718. All claims payable out of the school fund shall be filed with the secretary of the board, and shall be approved by a majority of all the members of the board, and certificate of such approval shall be indorsed thereon; whereupon the secretary of said board shall draw a warrant upon the city treasurer for the payment thereof, which warrant shall be countersigned by the superintendent. All demands for salaries of teachers and compensation of janitors shall be payable monthly in the same manner without presentation of claims therefor.

Payment of demands.

§ 719. All demands authorized by this article, and by the board approved as aforesaid, shall be paid by the city treasurer from the school fund upon the presentation of the warrants therefor; provided, that the board of education shall not, without the consent of the city council first had, have power to create any debts or liability in any one year to exceed the actual revenue or available means in the city treasury under the control of the board, and justly applicable for school purposes for such year.

CHAPTER VI.

Municipal Corporations of the Fifth Class.

(A charter for cities having a population of more than 3,000 and not exceeding 10,000.)

Article I.—General Powers.

Fifth class.

§ 750. Every municipal corporation of the fifth class shall be entitled the city of — (naming it), and by such name shall have perpetual succession, may sue and be sued in all courts and places, and in all proceedings whatever; shall have and use a common seal, alterable at the pleasure of the city authorities, and may purchase, lease, receive, hold, and enjoy real and personal property, and control and dispose of the same for the common benefit.

Article II.—General Provisions Relating to Officers..

Officers.

§ 751. The government of said city shall be vested in a board of trustees, to consist of five members; a board of education, to consist of five members; and whenever a free public library and reading-room is established therein, five trustees thereof; a recorder; a treasurer; a clerk; an attorney; a marshal; an assessor, and such subordinate officers as are hereinafter provided for; provided, that the board of trustees may, in its discretion, by an ordinance adopted, published and recorded as required for general ordinances, at least thirty days before a general city election, at which city officers are to be elected, unite and consolidate certain offices, by declaring:

1. The city marshal elected shall be ex-officio superintendent of streets, and health officer;
2. The city clerk elected shall be ex-officio recorder and assessor;
3. The city treasurer elected shall be ex-officio city tax collector and license tax collector;
4. The city attorney elected shall be ex-officio city clerk. [Amendment approved February 28, 1901. Stats. 1901, p. 70. In effect immediately.]

Election and terms of office.

§ 752. The members of the board of trustees, and of the board of education, and the city clerk, city attorney, assessor, marshal, treasurer, and recorder shall be elected by the qualified electors of said city at a general municipal election, to be held therein on the second Monday in April, nineteen hundred and three, and on the second Monday in April of each fourth year thereafter and shall hold office for the period of four years from and after the Monday next succeeding the day of such election, and until their successors are elected and qualified; provided, that a general municipal election shall be held in said city on the second Monday in April, nineteen hundred and five, for the election of successors to the members of the board of trustees and of the board of education whose terms of office expire during said year, and said successors shall hold office for the period of two years from and after the Monday next succeeding the day of such election, and until their successors are elected and qualified. The board of trustees may in their discretion appoint a poundmaster, also a superintendent of streets, and a city engineer, all of whom shall hold office during the pleasure of the board. [Amendment approved February 26, 1903. Stats. 1903, p. 40. In effect immediately.]

Official bonds.

§ 753. The clerk, treasurer, city attorney, and marshal shall, respectively, before entering upon the duties of their respective offices, each execute a bond to such city in such penal sum as the board of trustees by ordinance may determine, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties, including in the same bond the duties of all offices of which he is made by this chapter ex-officio incumbent. Such bonds shall be approved by the board of trustees. All bonds, when approved, shall be filed with the clerk, except the bond of the clerk, which shall be filed with the president of the board of trustees. All the provisions of any law of this state relating to the official bonds of officers shall apply to such bonds except as herein otherwise provided. Every officer of such city, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall take and file with the clerk the constitutional oath of office.

Vacancies.

§ 754. Any vacancy occurring in any of the offices provided for in this act shall be filled by appointment by the board of trustees; but if such office be elective, such appointee shall hold office only until the next regular election, at which time a person shall be elected to serve for the remainder of such unexpired term. In case a member of the board of trustees is absent from the city for the period of ninety days, unless by permission of the board of trustees, his office shall by the board be declared vacant, and the same filled as in case of other vacancies.

Compensation.

§ 755. The members of the board of trustees shall receive no compensation whatever, except while acting as a board of equalization. The treasurer, assessor, marshal, clerk, and recorder shall severally receive at stated times, a compensation to be fixed by ordinance, by the board of trustees, which compensation shall not be increased or diminished after their election, or during their several terms of office. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the board of trustees from fixing such several amounts of compensation, in the first instance, during the term of office of any such officer, or after his election. The compensation of all other officers shall be fixed from time to time by the board of trustees. [Amendment approved March 19, 1889. Stats. 1889, p. 389. In effect immediately.]

Election regulations.

§ 756. All elections in such city shall be held in accordance with the general election laws of the state, so far as the same may be made applicable, and no person shall be entitled to vote at such election unless he shall be a qualified elector of the county, enrolled upon the great register thereof, and shall have resided in such city for at least thirty days next preceding such election. The board of trustees shall give such notice of each election as may be prescribed by ordinance, shall appoint boards of election, and fix their compensation, and establish election precincts and polling-places, and may change the same; provided, that no part of any ward less than the whole thereof shall be attached to any other ward, or part thereof, in forming election precincts. At any municipal election the last printed great register of the county shall be used, and any elector whose name is not upon such printed register shall be entitled to vote, upon producing and filing with the board of election a certificate, under the hand and official seal of the county clerk, showing that his name is registered and uncanceled upon the great register of such county, provided that he is otherwise entitled to vote.

Eligibility to office.

§ 757. No person shall be eligible to or hold any office in such city, whether filled by election, or appointment, unless he be a resident and elector therein, and shall have resided in such city for one year next preceding the date of such election or appointment.

Free library.

§ 758. The trustees of any free public library created or existing in such city under the provisions of an act entitled "An act to establish free public libraries and reading-rooms," approved April twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred and eighty, shall be elected by the qualified electors of said city, at a general municipal election to be held therein on the second Monday in April next succeeding the passage and approval of this act, and shall hold office for the period of four years from and after the Monday next succeeding the day of such election, and until their successors are elected and qualified. In case a vacancy shall occur in the office of trustee of such free public library and reading-room, the board of trustees of said free public library and reading-room shall choose a person to fill such vacancy, who shall serve until the next general municipal election, when, if the term does not then expire, a person shall be elected to serve for the remainder of such unexpired term. [Amendment approved April 1, 1897. Stats. 1897, p. 403. In effect immediately.]

Article III.—Legislative Department.

Board of trustees.

§ 760. The board of trustees shall meet on the Monday next succeeding the date of said general municipal election, shall take the oath of office, shall choose one of their number president, and shall hold regular meetings at least once in each month, at such times as they shall fix by ordinance. Special meetings may be called at any time by the president of the board or by three trustees, by written notice delivered to each member at least three hours before the time specified for the proposed meeting. All meetings of the board of trustees shall be held within the corporate limits of the city, at such place as may be designated by ordinance, and shall be public.

Meetings.

§ 761. At any meeting of the board of trustees, a majority of the trustees shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but a less number may adjourn from time to time, and may compel the attendance of absent members in such manner and under such penalties as may be prescribed by ordinance. The president of the board shall preside at all meetings of the board, and in case of his absence, the board may appoint a president pro tem.; and in case of the absence of the clerk, the president or president pro tem. shall appoint one of the members of the board clerk pro tem.

Rules.

§ 762. The board of trustees shall judge of the qualifications of its members and of all election returns, and determine contested elections of all city officers. They may establish rules for the conduct of their proceedings, and punish any member, or other person, for disorderly behavior at any meeting. They shall cause the clerk to keep a correct journal of all their proceedings, and, at the desire of any member, shall cause the ayes and noes to be taken on any question, and entered on the journal.

Limitation on passage of ordinances.

§ 763. No resolution granting any franchise, and no ordinance for any purpose, shall be passed by the board of trustees on the day of its introduction, nor within five days thereafter, nor at any other than a regular meeting, or an adjourned regular meeting, and no such resolution and no ordinance granting any franchise shall be passed without being first submitted to the city attorney. No resolution or order for the payment of money shall be passed at any other than a regular meeting, or an adjourned regular meeting, and no resolution or order for the payment of money, no resolution granting a franchise, and no ordinance for any purpose, shall have any validity or effect unless passed by the affirmative vote of at least three trustees. [Amendment approved March 19, 1889. Stats. 1889, p. 389. In effect immediately.]

Powers of board.

§ 764. The board of trustees of such city shall have power:

1. To pass ordinances not in conflict with the constitution and laws of this state, or of the United States.
2. To purchase, lease, or receive such real estate and personal property as may be necessary or proper for municipal purposes, and to control, dispose of, and convey the same for the benefit of the city; provided, that they shall not have any power to sell or convey any portion of any waterfront; but may rent such waterfront for a term not exceeding ten years for the purpose of erecting bathhouses thereon.

3. To contract for supplying the said city with water, and gas, and electric lights or other lights for municipal purposes; to purchase, lease, construct or otherwise acquire waterworks, electric plants, and gas-works or plants or any of same, and all machinery, conductors, lands, appliances and all other things needed therefor, and to supply said city with, and to sell to the inhabitants of said city, gas, electric light or other light, and heat, and power; provided that no such purchase or lease shall be made unless the question of acquiring such property is submitted to the voters of such city in the same manner as other propositions, at a general or special municipal election, and a majority of the electors, voting at such election shall vote in favor of such proposition.

4. To establish, build and repair bridges; to establish, lay out, alter, keep open, open, improve and repair streets, sidewalks, alleys, squares, and other public highways and places within the city, and to drain, sprinkle, oil, and light the same; to remove all obstructions therefrom; to establish the grades thereof; to grade, pave, macadamize, gravel and curb the same in whole or in part, and to construct gutters, culverts, sidewalks, and cross-walks therein, or upon any part thereof; to cause to be planted, set out, and cultivated, shade trees therein; and generally to manage and control all such highways and places.

5. To establish, construct and maintain drains and sewers, and to provide by ordinance for a general system of sewers, and the expense of building and maintaining the same.

6. To provide fire-engines and all other necessary or proper apparatus for the prevention and extinguishment of fires.

7. To impose and collect from every male inhabitant between the ages of twenty-one and sixty years, an annual street poll-tax, not exceeding two dollars, and no other road poll-tax shall be collected within the limits of such city; provided, that any member of a volunteer fire company in such city shall be exempt from such tax.

8. To impose and collect an annual license, not exceeding two dollars on every dog owned or harbored within the limits of the city.

9. To levy and collect annually a property tax, which shall be apportioned as follows: For the general fund, not exceeding sixty cents on each one hundred dollars; for street fund, not exceeding thirty cents on each one hundred dollars; for school fund, not exceeding twenty-five cents on each one hundred dollars; for sewer fund, not exceeding ten cents on each one hundred dollars. The levy for all purposes for any one year for all purposes to which such funds are applicable shall not exceed one dollar on each one hundred dollars of the assessed value of all real and personal property within such city.

10. To license, for purposes of regulation and revenue, all and every kind of business, including the sale of intoxicating liquors, authorized by law and transacted or carried on in such city, and all shows, exhibitions, and lawful games carried on therein; to fix the rates of licenses upon the same, and to provide for the collection of the same by suit or otherwise.

11. To improve the rivers and streams flowing through such city, or adjoining the same; to widen, straighten, and deepen the channels thereof, and to remove obstructions therefrom; to improve the waterfront of the city, and to construct and maintain embankments and other works to protect such city from overflow.

12. To erect and maintain buildings for municipal purposes.

13. To permit, under such restrictions as they may deem proper, the laying of railroad tracks and the running of cars drawn by horses, steam, electricity, or other power thereon, and the laying of gas or water pipes in the public streets, and to construct and maintain, and to permit the construction and maintenance of telephone, telegraph and electric light lines therein.

14. In its discretion to divide the city, by ordinance, into a convenient number of wards, not exceeding five, to fix the boundaries thereof, and to change the same from time to time; provided, that no change in the boundaries of any ward shall be made within sixty days next before the date of said general municipal election, or within twenty months after the same shall have been established or altered. Whenever such city shall be divided into wards, the boards of trustees shall designate by ordinance the number of trustees to be elected from each ward, apportioning the same in proportion to the population of such ward; and thereafter the trustees so designated shall be elected by the qualified electors resident in such ward, or by the general vote of the whole city, as may be designated in such ordinance.

15. To appoint and remove such policemen and such other subordinate officers as they may deem proper, and to fix their duties and compensation.

16. To impose fines, penalties, and forfeitures for any and all violations of ordinances, and for any breach or violation of any ordinance to fix the penalty by fine or imprisonment, or both, but no such fine shall exceed three hundred dollars, nor the term of such imprisonment exceed three months.

17. To cause all persons imprisoned for violation of any ordinance to labor on the streets, or other property or works within the city.

18. To establish fire limits, and the same to alter at pleasure; to regulate or prevent the erection of wooden or other buildings or structures of combustible materials; to regulate the construction of all buildings, shades, awnings, signs, or any structure of a dangerous or unsafe character; to provide, by regulation, for the prevention and summary removal of all filth and garbage in the streets, sloughs, alleys, backyards or public grounds of such city, or elsewhere therein; to regulate or prohibit the storage of gunpowder and combustible or explosive materials of every kind and nature within the city limits, and to prescribe the limits in which the same may be kept or stored.

19. To do and perform any and all other acts and things necessary and proper to carry out the provisions of this chapter, and to exact and enforce within the limits of such city all other local, police, sanitary, and other regulations as do not conflict with general laws. [Amendment approved April 16, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 937. In effect immediately.]

Enacting clause of ordinances.

§ 765. The enacting clause of all ordinances shall be as follows: "The board of trustees of the city of — do ordain as follows." Every ordinance shall be signed by the president of the board of trustees, attested by the clerk, and published at least once in a newspaper published in such city, or printed and posted in at least three public places therein. It shall not be necessary in any action, civil or criminal, to plead or prove the organization or existence of such corporation, nor the passage, existence, or validity of any ordinance thereof; and courts shall take judicial cognizance thereof without proof. [Amendment approved March 19, 1889. Stats. 1889, p. 389. In effect immediately.]

Board to audit demands.

§ 766. All demands against such city, except as otherwise by law provided, shall be presented to and audited by the board of trustees, in accordance with such regulations as they may by ordinance prescribe; and upon the allowance of any such demand, the president of the board shall draw a warrant upon the treasurer for the same, which warrant will be countersigned by the clerk, and shall specify for what purpose the same is drawn, and out of what fund it is to be paid. [Amendment approved March 19, 1889. Stats. 1889, p. 389. In effect immediately.]

Indebtedness not to exceed moneys provided.

§ 767. The board of trustees shall not create, audit, allow, or permit to accrue any debt or liability in excess of the available money in the treasury that may be legally apportioned and appropriated for such purposes, except in the manner provided by law for incurring indebtedness; provided, that any city during the first year of its existence under this act may incur such indebtedness or liability as may be necessary, not exceeding in all the income and revenue provided for it for such year; nor shall any warrant be drawn, or evidence of indebtedness be issued, unless there be at the time sufficient money in the treasury legally applicable to the payment of the same, except as hereinbefore provided. [Amendment approved March 19, 1889. Stats. 1889, p. 389. In effect immediately.]

Incurring of excess decided at an election.

§ 768. If at any time the board of trustees shall deem it necessary to incur any indebtedness in excess of the money in the treasury applicable to the purposes for which such indebtedness is to be incurred, they shall give notice of a special election by the qualified electors of the city, to be held to determine whether such indebtedness shall be incurred. Such notice shall specify the amount of indebtedness proposed to be incurred; the purpose or purposes if the question of indebtedness for more than one purpose be proposed of the same, and the amount of money necessary to be raised annually by taxation for an interest and sinking fund as hereinafter provided; provided, that such interest shall not be in excess of seven per cent per annum. Such notice shall be published for at least two weeks in some newspaper published in such city, and no other question or matter shall be submitted to the electors at such election. If, upon the canvass of the votes cast at such election, it appears that not less than two-thirds of all the qualified electors voting at such election shall have voted in favor of incurring such indebtedness, it shall be the duty of the board of trustees to pass an ordinance providing for the mode of creating such indebtedness and of paying the same; and in such ordinance provision shall be made for the levy and collection of an annual tax upon all the real and personal property subject to taxation within such city, sufficient to pay the interest on such indebtedness as it falls due; and also, to constitute a sinking fund for the payment of the principal thereof within a period of not more than twenty years from the time of contracting of the same. It shall be the duty of the board of trustees, in each year thereafter, at the time at which taxes are levied, to levy a tax sufficient for such purposes in addition to the taxes by this chapter authorized to be levied. Such tax when collected shall be kept in the treasury as a separate fund, or funds, in case indebtedness be incurred for different purposes, to be inviolably appropriated to the payment of the principal and interest of such indebtedness. [Amendment approved March 19, 1889. Stats. 1889, p. 371. In effect immediately.]

At the same session there was another amendment of section 768, as follows:

Incurring of indebtedness to be decided at an election.

§ 768. If at any time the board of trustees shall deem it necessary to incur any indebtedness in excess of the money in the treasury applicable to the purposes for which such indebtedness is to be incurred, they shall give notice of a special election by the qualified electors of the city, to be held to determine whether such indebtedness shall be incurred. Such notice shall specify the amount of indebtedness proposed to be incurred, the purpose or purposes (if the question of indebtedness for more than one purpose be proposed) of the same, and the amount of money necessary to be raised annually by taxation for an interest and sinking fund for each purpose, as hereinafter provided. Such notice shall be published for at least two weeks in some newspaper published and circulated in such city; and no other question or matter shall be submitted to the electors at such election. If, upon a canvass of the votes cast at such election, it appears that not less than two-thirds of all the qualified electors voting at such election, or if more than one proposition is submitted, voting on such proposition, shall have voted in favor of incurring such indebtedness, it shall be the duty of the board of trustees to pass an ordinance providing for the work of creating such indebtedness and of paying the same; and in such ordinance provision shall be made for the levy and collection of an annual tax upon all the real and personal property subject to taxation within such city, sufficient to pay the interest on such indebtedness as it falls due; and also to constitute a sinking fund for the payment of the principal thereof within a period of not more than twenty years from the time of contracting the same. It shall be the duty of the board of trustees in each year thereafter, at the time at which other taxes are levied, to levy a tax sufficient for such purposes in addition to the taxes by this chapter authorized to be levied. Such tax, when collected, shall be kept in the treasury as a separate fund, or funded if indebtedness be incurred for different purposes, to be inviolably appropriated to the payment of the principal and interest of such indebtedness. [Amendment approved March 19, 1889. Stats. 1889, p. 397. In effect immediately.]

Imprisonment.

§ 769. The violation of any ordinance of such city shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and may be prosecuted by the authorities of such city in the name of the people of the state of California, or may be redressed by civil action, at the option of said authorities. Any person sentenced to imprisonment for the violation of an ordinance may be imprisoned in the city jail, or, if the board of trustees shall by ordinance so prescribe, in the county jail of the county in which such city may be situated; in which case the expense of such imprisonment shall be a charge in favor of such county against such city. [Amendment approved March 7, 1905. Stats. 1905, p. 72. In effect in sixty days.]

Nuisances.

§ 770. Every act or thing done or being within the limits of such city, which is or may be declared by law or by any ordinance of such city to be a nuisance, shall be and is hereby declared to be a nuisance, and shall be considered and treated as such in all actions and proceedings whatever; and all remedies which are or may be given by law for the prevention and abatement of nuisances shall apply thereto.

Repairs assessed on fronting property.

§ 771. The board of trustees are hereby authorized and empowered to order any work authorized by this chapter to be done upon the streets, avenues, highways, and public places of such city. The cost and expense incurred therefor shall be paid as follows, to wit: The expense or cost of improving and repairing streets, sidewalks, alleys, squares, and other public highways and places within the city, removing obstructions therefrom; grading, paving, macadamizing, graveling and curbing the same, and constructing gutters, culverts and sidewalks therein, shall be assessed upon the lots and lands fronting thereon, each lot or portion of a lot being separately assessed for the full debt thereof in proportion to the benefits upon the property to be benefited, sufficient to cover the total expense of the work to the center of the street on which it fronts, provided that the board of trustees may expend from the general fund for said purposes a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars on any one street in any one year. The expense of all improvements in the space formed by the junction of two or more streets, or where one main street terminates in or crosses another main street, and also all necessary street crossings, or crossways at corners or intersection of streets, and the expense of establishing, building and repairing bridges in such city, shall be paid by such city. The expense incurred in making and repairing sewers in any street shall be paid, one-fourth by the owner of the lands on one side of said street, one-fourth by the owner of the land on the other side of said street, and one-half by the city out of the sewer fund. In all the streets constituting the waterfront of such city, or bounded on the one side by the property thereof, the expense of work done on that portion of said streets, from the center line thereof to the said waterfront, or to such property of the city bounded thereon, shall be paid for by such city; but no contract for any such work shall be given, except to the lowest responsible bidder, and in the manner hereinafter provided. When any work or improvements mentioned in this section is done or made on one side of the center line of said streets, avenues, or public highways, the lots or portions of lots fronting on that side only shall be assessed to cover the expenses of said work, according to the provisions of this chapter. Whenever any expenses or cost of work shall have been assessed on any lands, the amount of said expenses shall become a lien upon said lands, which shall take precedence of all other liens, and which may be foreclosed in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure. Said suit shall be in the name of the city of (naming it), as plaintiff. Upon the filing of a complaint in the superior court to enforce a lien of any kind hereon, the plaintiff shall be entitled, if a recovery is had or the money is paid, to include as costs the sum of twenty-five dollars as attorney's fees.

Right of way.

§ 772. Whenever it shall become necessary for the city to take or damage private property for the purpose of establishing, laying out, extending and widening streets and other public highways and places within the city, or for the purpose of rights of way for drains, sewers and aqueducts, and for the purpose of widening, straightening, or diverting the channels of streams, and the improvement of waterfronts, and the board of trustees cannot agree with the owner thereof as to the price to be paid, the trustees may direct proceedings to be taken under section 1237, and following sections, to and including section 1263 of the Code of Civil Procedure, to procure the same.

City tax levy.

§ 773. The board of trustees shall have the power, and it shall be their duty, to provide by ordinance a system for the assessment, levy and collection of all city taxes not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter. All taxes shall be collected by the marshal or treasurer, as may be determined by the board of trustees by ordinance. All taxes assessed, together with any percentage imposed for delinquency and the costs of collection, shall constitute liens on the property assessed; every tax upon the personal property shall be a lien upon the real property of the owner thereof. The liens provided for in this section shall attach as of the first Monday in March of each year, and may be enforced by a sale of the real property affected, and the execution and delivery of all necessary certificates and deeds therefor, under such regulations as may be prescribed by ordinance, or by action in any court of competent jurisdiction to foreclose such liens; provided, that any property sold for such taxes shall be subject to redemption within five years and upon the terms provided or that may hereafter be provided for the redemption of property sold for state taxes. All deeds made upon any sale of property for taxes or special assessments under the provisions of this chapter shall have the same force and effect in evidence as is or may hereafter be provided by law for deeds for property sold for nonpayment of state taxes. [Amendment approved March 8, 1905. Stats. 1905, p. 88. In effect in sixty days.]

See note to § 871, post.

Equalization.

§ 774. The board of trustees shall meet at their usual place of holding meetings on the second Monday of August of each year, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, and sit as a board of equalization, and shall continue in session from day to day until all the returns of the assessor have been rectified. They shall have power to hear complaints, and to correct, modify or strike out any assessment made by the assessor, and may, of their own motion, raise any assessment, upon notice to the party whose assessment is to be raised. The corrected list for each tax shall be the assessment-roll for said tax for said year. It shall be certified by the city clerk, who shall act as clerk of the board of equalization, as being the assessment-roll for said tax, and shall be the assessment-roll upon which such tax is to be levied in said year.

Construction of act.

§ 775. Nothing in this chapter contained shall be construed to prevent any city having a bonded indebtedness, contracted under laws heretofore passed, from levying and collecting such taxes for the payment of such indebtedness, and the interest thereon, as are provided for in such laws, in addition to the taxes herein authorized to be levied and collected; nor to prevent any city from levying and collecting the tax authorized by the act entitled "An act to establish free public libraries and reading-rooms," approved April twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred and eighty, in addition to the taxes herein authorized to be levied and collected. All moneys received from licenses, street poll tax, and from fines, penalties and forfeitures, shall be paid into the general fund.

Waterfront fund.

§ 776. The board of trustees may also levy, and cause to be collected in each year, in addition to the taxes herein authorized to be levied and collected, a tax, not exceeding ten cents on each one hundred dollars of the assessed value of all real and personal property within such city subject to taxation, the proceeds of which tax shall be known as the "River and Waterfront Improvement Fund," and shall be applied to the improvement of streams, bays and waterfronts, and the erection of embankments and other works to protect the city from overflow, and for no other purposes whatever.

Public work to be contracted for.

§ 777. In the erection, improvement and repair of all public buildings and works, in all street and sewer work, and in all work in or about streams, bays, or waterfronts, or in or about embankments, or other works for protection against overflow, and in furnishing any supplies or materials for the same, when the expenditure required for the same exceeds the sum of one hundred dollars, the same shall be done by contract, and shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder, after notice by publication in a newspaper of general circulation printed and published in such city, for at least two weeks, or if there be no newspaper printed or published therein, by printing and posting the same in at least four public places therein for the same period. Such notice shall distinctly and specifically state the work contemplated to be done; provided, that the board of trustees may reject any and all bids presented, and re-advertise, in their discretion. The board of trustees shall annually, at a stated time, contract for doing all city printing and advertising, which contract shall be let to the lowest bidder, after notice, as provided in this section, and the contract therefor shall be awarded separately from all other printing. [Amendment approved March 10, 1891. Stats. 1891, p. 54.]

Powers of president.

§ 778. The president of the board of trustees shall preside over all meetings of the board at which he is present. In his absence a president pro tem. may be chosen. The president, and in his absence the president pro tem., shall sign all warrants drawn on the city treasurer, and, unless otherwise provided by said board, shall sign all written contracts entered into by said city, as such president or president pro tem. The authority and power of the president pro tem. shall continue only during the day on which he is chosen. The president and president pro tem. shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations, and take affidavits and certify the same under their hands. The president or president pro tem. shall sign all conveyances made by said city, and all instruments which shall require the seal of the city. The president is authorized to acknowledge the execution of all instruments executed by said city that require to be acknowledged. He shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations concerning any demand upon the treasury, and in all matters relating to the duties of the board of trustees, and to witnesses examined in any investigation had by said board, or by any committee thereof duly authorized to make such investigation. Said president may issue subpoenas under his hand and the seal of such city, attested by the city clerk to compel the attendance of witnesses before such board of trustees or committee thereof. [Amendment approved March 19, 1889. Stats. 1889, p. 389. In effect immediately.]

Article IV.—Executive Department.Treasurer.

§ 786. It shall be the duty of the treasurer to receive and safely keep all moneys which shall come into his hands as city treasurer, for all of which he shall give duplicate receipts, one of which shall be filed with the city clerk. He shall pay out said money on warrants signed by the proper officers, and not otherwise, except interest coupons on bonds. He shall make quarterly settlements with the city clerk. He shall collect all taxes levied by the board of trustees, if so required by ordinance. [Amendment approved March 19, 1889. Stats. 1889, p. 389. In effect immediately.]

Assessor.

§ 787. It shall be the duty of the assessor, between the first day of May and the first day of August in each year, to make out a true list of all the taxable property within the city. The mode of making out of said list, and proceedings relating thereto, shall be in conformity with laws now in force regulating county assessors, except as the same may be otherwise provided in this act, or by ordinance. Said list shall describe the property assessed and the value thereof, and shall contain all other matters required to be stated in such lists by county assessors. Said assessor shall verify said list by his oath, and shall deposit the same with the city clerk on or before the first Monday of August in each year. The assessor shall, during said time, also make a list of all male persons residing within the limits of such city over the age of twenty-one years, and shall verify said list by his oath, and shall, on or before the first Monday of August in each year, deposit the same with the city clerk. Said assessor and his deputy shall have power to administer all oaths and affirmations necessary in the performance of his duties.

§ 788. It shall be the duty of the city clerk to keep a full and true record of all the proceedings of the board of trustees and of the board of equalization. The proceedings of the board of trustees shall be kept in a book, marked "Records of the Board of Trustees." The proceedings of the board of equalization shall be kept in a separate book, marked "Records of the Board of Equalization." He shall keep a book, which shall be marked "City Accounts," in which shall be entered as a credit all moneys received by the city for licenses, the amount of any tax when levied, and all other moneys received; and in which shall be entered upon the debtor side all commissions deducted, and all warrants drawn on the treasury. He shall also keep a book, marked "Marshal's Account," in which he shall charge the city marshal with all the tax lists, if any, delivered to him, and all licenses delivered to him. He shall credit the marshal with the delinquent lists returned by him. He shall also keep a book, marked "Treasurer's Account," in which he shall keep a full account of the transactions of the city with the treasurer. He shall also keep a book, marked "City Licenses," in which he shall enter all licenses delivered by him to the marshal, and the amount thereof. He shall also keep a book, marked "City Ordinances," into which he shall copy all city ordinances, with his certificate annexed to said copy, stating the foregoing ordinance is a true and correct copy of an ordinance of such city, and giving the number and title of said ordinance, and stating that the same has been published or posted according to law. Said record copy, with said certificate, or the original ordinance, shall be prima facie evidence of the contents of the ordinance and of the due passage and publication of the same, and shall be admissible as such evidence in any court or proceeding. Said records shall not be filed in any case, but shall be returned to the custody of the city clerk. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the proof of the passage and publication of ordinances in the usual way. Each of the foregoing books, except the records of the board of trustees and the board of equalization, shall have a general index, sufficiently comprehensive to enable a person readily to ascertain matters contained therein. The city clerk shall also keep a book, marked "Demands and Warrants," in which he shall note every demand against the city, and file the same. He shall state therein, under the note of the demands, the final disposition made of the same; and if the same is allowed and a warrant is drawn, he shall also state the number of the warrant, with sufficient dates. This book shall contain an index, in which reference shall be made to each demand. Upon the completion of the assessment-roll for any of the taxes of the city, and levying of the tax thereon, the city clerk shall apportion the taxes upon such assessment-roll, and shall deliver it to the officer charged with the duty of collecting taxes. It shall not be necessary to make a duplicate assessment-roll. He may appoint a deputy, for whose acts he and his bondsmen shall be responsible; and he and his deputy shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations, to take affidavits and depositions to be used in any court or proceeding in the state, and to certify the same. He and his deputies shall take all necessary affidavits to demands against the city, and certify the same without charge. He shall be the custodian of the seal of such city. He shall make a quarterly statement, in writing, showing the receipts and expenditures of the city for the preceding quarter, and the amount remaining in the treasury. He shall, at the end of every fiscal year, make a full and detailed statement of the receipts and expenditures of the preceding year, and a full statement of the financial condition of the affairs of the city, which shall be published. He shall perform such other services as this act and the ordinances of the board of trustees shall require. [Amendment approved March 19, 1889. Stats. 1889, p. 389. In effect immediately.]

§ 789. It shall be the duty of the city attorney to advise the city authorities and officers in all legal matters pertaining to the business of said city, and to render such other services in the line of his profession as may be required of him by the board of trustees. [Amendment approved March 19, 1889. Stats. 1889, p. 389. In effect immediately.]

Police department under control of city marshal.

§ 790. The department of police of said city shall be under the direction and control of the city marshal; and for the suppression of any riot, public tumult, disturbance of the peace, or resistance against the laws or public authorities in the lawful exercise of their functions, he shall have the powers that are now or may hereafter be conferred upon sheriffs by the laws of the state, and shall, in all respects, be entitled to the same protection; and his lawful orders shall be promptly executed by deputies, police officers and watchmen in said city, and every citizen shall also lend him aid, when required, for the arrest of offenders and maintenance of public order. He shall and is hereby authorized to execute and return all process issued and directed to him by any legal authority. It shall be his duty to prosecute before the recorder all breaches or violations of or noncompliance with the city ordinance which shall come to his knowledge. He shall collect all taxes levied by the board of trustees, except as is herein provided. He shall, at the expiration of any month, pay to the city treasurer all taxes and other funds of said city collected by him during said month. He shall, upon payment of the money, file with the treasurer an affidavit, stating that the money so paid is all the taxes or funds that he has collected or received during the preceding month. He shall, upon the receipt of any tax list, give his receipt for the same to the city clerk, and shall, upon depositing with the city clerk the delinquent tax list, take his receipt therefor. He shall receive from the clerk all city licenses and collect the same. He shall have charge of the city prison and prisoners, and of any chain-gang which may be established by the board of trustees. He shall, for service of any process, receive the same fees as constables. He may appoint, subject to the approval of the board of trustees, one or more deputies, for whose acts he and his bondsmen shall be responsible, whose only compensation shall be fees for the service of process, which shall be the same as those allowed to the city marshal. He may also, with the concurrence of the president of the board of trustees, when the same may be by them deemed necessary for the preservation of public order, appoint additional policemen, who shall discharge the duties assigned them for one day only. He shall perform such other services as this act and the ordinances of the board of trustees shall require, and shall receive such compensation from the city as shall be fixed by ordinance, in addition to such mileage and fees as he shall receive in the service of process of the courts of this state, other than the recorder's court of such city, which mileage and fees shall be the same as is allowed by law to constables in the county in which such city is situated. [Amendment approved March 23, 1893. Stats. 1893, p. 299.]

Board to fix compensation.

§ 791. The board of trustees shall, by ordinances not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, prescribe the additional duties of all officers, and fix their compensation.

Article V.—School Department.School district.

§ 795. From and after the organization of each of such cities, the same shall constitute a separate school district, which shall be governed by the board of education of such city; provided the board of supervisors may include more territory in such school district than that included in such city, and in that case such outside territory shall be deemed a part of such city for the purpose of holding the general municipal election, and shall be an election precinct by itself and its qualified electors shall vote only for the board of education, and said outside territory shall be deemed to be a part of said city for all matters connected with the school department, and the annual levying and collecting of the property tax for the school fund. [Amendment approved March 10, 1891. Stats. 1891, p. 28.]

Vacancy in board.

§ 796. In case a vacancy shall occur in the office of school director, the board of education shall choose a person to fill such vacancy, who shall serve until the next election, when, if the term does not then expire, a person shall be elected to serve for the remainder of such unexpired term.

Meetings.

§ 797. The board of education shall meet on the second Tuesday after such general municipal election, and choose one of its members as president, and shall appoint a secretary, who shall hold at the pleasure of said board. The regular meetings of said board shall thereafter be held as often as once in each month, in the place provided for the board of trustees, and the time for holding such meetings shall be fixed by the board of education. Special meetings of said board may be held when called by written notice, signed by its president, or three of its members, and delivered personally to each of its members who shall not have signed the same. Three members shall constitute a quorum, and no business shall be transacted by said board of education without the concurrence of three of its members; but a majority of the members present at any meeting may adjourn from time to time. All the meetings of said board of education shall be public, and full records of its proceedings shall be kept by the secretary of said board. The members of the board of education shall receive no compensation for their services as school directors. [Amendment approved March 7, 1891. Stats. 1894, p. 114.]

 Powers of board.

§ 798. The board of education shall have power:

1. To establish and maintain public, primary, kindergarten, grammar, and evening schools, and to subdivide the school districts, and to fix and alter the boundaries of such divisions.
2. To employ and dismiss a superintendent of schools, teachers, janitors, truant officers, and school-census marshals, and to fix, alter, allow and order paid their salaries or compensations; and to employ and pay such mechanics and laborers as may be necessary to carry into effect the powers hereby conferred.

3. To make, establish, and enforce all necessary or proper rules and regulations, not in conflict with the laws of this state, for the government and management of public schools within such city, the teachers thereof, and the pupils therein, and for carrying into effect the laws relating to education.

4. To provide for the school department of such city, fuel and lights, water, printing, and stationery, and to incur such other incidental expenses as may be deemed necessary by said board.

5. To build, alter, repair, rent and provide schoolhouses, and to furnish the same with proper school furniture, apparatus, and appliances, and to insure any and all school property.

6. To purchase, receive, lease, and hold in fee, in trust for such city, any and all real estate and personal property that may have been acquired, or may hereafter be acquired, for the use and benefit of the schools of such city; provided, that no real estate shall be bought, sold, or exchanged, nor any expenditure incurred for the construction of new schoolhouses, without the approval of the board of trustees; and provided further, that the proceeds of any such sale or exchange of real estate shall be exclusively applied to the purchase of other lots for the erection of schoolhouses.

7. To grade, fence, and improve all school lots.

8. To determine annually the amount of money required for the support of the public schools, and for carrying into effect all the provisions of law in reference thereto; and in pursuance of this provision, the board of education shall, at least ten days before the meeting of the board of trustees at which the annual city taxes are levied, submit in writing to the board of trustees a careful estimate of the whole amount of money to be received from the state and county, and of the amount to be required from such city for the above-mentioned purposes; and the amount so found to be required from the city shall, by the board of trustees, be added to the above amounts to be assessed and collected for city purposes, and when collected, the proceeds thereof shall be immediately paid into the school fund of such city, to be drawn out only upon the order of the board of education; provided, that such annual tax shall not exceed twenty-five cents on each one hundred dollars of the assessed valuation of the real and personal property within such city.

9. To establish regulations for the just and equal disbursement of all moneys belonging to the school fund.

10. To discharge all legal encumbrances existing at the time of the incorporation of such city, or thereafter, on any school property within such city.

11. To admit nonresident children, and persons over twenty-one years of age, to any of the departments of the schools of such city, upon the payment monthly, in advance, of such tuition fee as said board may establish.

12. To prohibit any children under six years of age from attending the public schools.

13. To establish and regulate the grades of schools in such city, and the course of study, and the mode of instruction to be pursued therein, and determine what text-books shall be used.

14. To do and perform, in addition to the foregoing powers, such other acts as may be necessary or proper to carry into effect the powers hereby conferred. [Amendment adopted March 14, 1899. Stats. 1899, p. 98.]

Board may sue and be sued.

§ 799. The board of education may sue and be sued by their name of office. In any action or judicial proceeding against said board, service of process upon the president, or upon a majority of the members of the board shall be sufficient to give the court jurisdiction to hear and determine the same.

Treasurer custodian of moneys.

§ 800. All moneys received by the treasurer of the county wherein such city may be situated, on account of the school fund of such city, or the school district consisting of the same, and all sums received into the county treasury, which may be apportioned to said city or district, shall be paid to the treasurer of such city, by the treasurer of such county, as soon as received, or as soon as the apportionment shall be made, when apportionment is necessary, upon the order of the board of education.

Demands.

§ 801. The president of the board of education shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations concerning any demand upon the treasury, payable out of the school fund, and in all other matters relating to the duties of the board of education, and to witnesses examined in any investigation had by such board of education, or by a committee thereof, duly appointed by it, for that purpose.

President may compel witnesses.

§ 802. Said president may issue subpoenas under his hand and the seal of such city, attested by the city clerk, to compel the attendance of witnesses before such board of education, or committee thereof, who shall be entitled to the same fees as witnesses in civil cases, and who may be punished for contempt for nonattendance, or refusal to be sworn, or to answer, by the superior court of the county in which such city may be situated.

Warrants.

§ 803. Every claim payable out of the school fund shall be filed with the secretary of the board of education, and after it shall have been approved by the board a certificate of such approval shall be indorsed thereon, signed by the president and secretary, and a warrant upon the school fund shall be issued thereon for the payment of such claim, which warrant shall be signed by the president of such board, and countersigned by the secretary and shall specify for what purpose the same is drawn.

Duties of secretary.

§ 804. The secretary shall report to the board annually, and at such other times as they may require, all matters pertaining to the expense, income, condition, and progress of the public schools of said city during the preceding year, with such recommendations as he may deem proper. He shall observe, and cause to be observed, such general rules and regulations for the government of and instruction in the schools, not inconsistent with the laws of the state, as may be established by the board of education. He shall attend the sessions of the board, and inform them at each session of the condition of the public schools, schoolhouses, school funds, and other matters connected therewith, and recommend such measures as he may deem necessary for the advancement of education in the city, and shall perform such other duties as may be required of him by the board. He shall receive as compensation for his services, payable out of the school fund, such sum as the board of education from time to time may allow.

Fund shall not be diverted.

§ 805. The entire revenue derived by such city from the state school fund and the state school tax shall be applied by said board of education exclusively to the support of primary and grammar schools.

Article VI.—Judicial Department.Recorder's court.

§ 806. A recorder's court is hereby established in such city, to be held by the recorder of such city; provided, that the provisions of this section as to the establishment of the recorder's courts and recorders in such city shall not apply to any such city in which a city justice's court or a city justice of the peace is now or may hereafter be established, and any recorder's court now existing in any such last-mentioned city is hereby abolished. The justice of the peace of any city wherein said recorder's court shall have been abolished or which may hereafter be abolished is the successor of the recorder of such city whose court has been abolished as aforesaid; and all records, registers, dockets, books, papers, causes, actions, and proceedings lodged, deposited, or pending before said recorder's court or before the recorder of said city, are transferred to the justice's court of said city, which shall have the same power and jurisdiction over them as if they had been in the first instance lodged, deposited, filed, or commenced therein. Said recorder's court shall have jurisdiction, concurrently with the justice's court, of all actions and proceedings, civil and criminal, arising within the corporate limits of such city, and which might be tried in such justice's court; and shall have exclusive jurisdiction of all actions for the recovery of any fine, penalty, or forfeiture prescribed for the breach of any ordinance of such city, of all actions founded upon any obligation or liability created by any ordinance, and of all prosecutions for any violation of any ordinance. In all civil actions for the recovery of any fine, penalty, or forfeiture prescribed for the breach of any ordinance of such city, where the fine, penalty or forfeiture imposed by the ordinance is not more than fifty dollars, the trial must be by the court, in civil actions where the fine, penalty or forfeiture prescribed for the breach of any ordinance of such city is over fifty dollars, the defendant is entitled to a jury. Except as in this section otherwise provided, the rules of practice and mode of proceeding in said recorder's court shall be the same as are or may be prescribed by law for justices' courts in like cases, and appeals may be taken to the superior court of the county in which such city may be situated, from all judgments of said recorder's court in like manner and with a like effect as in cases of appeals from justices' courts. [Amendment approved March 15, 1907. Stata. 1907, p. 272. In effect immediately.]

Powers of recorder as judge.

§ 807. The recorder shall be judge of the recorder's court, and shall have the powers and perform the duties of a magistrate. He may administer and certify oaths and affirmations, and take and certify acknowledgments. He shall be entitled to charge and receive for his services such fees as are or may be allowed by law to justices of the peace for like services, except that for his services in criminal prosecution for violation of ordinances he shall be entitled to receive only such monthly salary as the board of trustees shall by ordinance prescribe; which compensation, when once fixed, shall not be altered within two years.

Recorder, when disqualified as judge.

§ 808. In all cases in which the recorder is a party, or in which he is interested, or when he is related to either party by consanguinity or affinity within the third degree, or is otherwise disqualified, or in case of sickness or inability to act, the recorder may call in a justice of the peace residing in the city, to act in his place and stead; or if there be no justice of the peace residing in the city, or if all those so residing are likewise disqualified, then he may call in any justice of the peace residing in the county in which such city may be situated.

Article VII.—Miscellaneous Provisions.

Collection of moneys.

§ 810. Every officer collecting or receiving any moneys belonging to or for the use of such city shall settle for the same with the clerk on the first Monday in each month, and immediately pay the same into the treasury, on the order of the clerk, for the benefit of the funds to which such moneys respectively belong.

No officer to be interested in contract.

§ 811. No officer of such city shall be interested, directly or indirectly, in any contract with such city, or with any of the officers thereof, in their official capacity, or in doing any work or furnishing any supplies for the use of such city or its officers in their official capacity; and any claim for compensation for work done, or supplies or materials furnished, in which any such officer is interested, shall be void, and if audited and allowed shall not be paid by the treasurer. Any willful violation of the provisions of this section shall be a ground for removal from office, and shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and punished as such.

Nuisances.

§ 812. Every act or thing done or being within the limits of such city, which is or may be declared by law or by any ordinance of such city to be a nuisance, shall be and is hereby declared to be a nuisance, and shall be considered and treated as such in all actions and proceedings whatever; and all remedies which are or may be given by law for the prevention and abatement of nuisances shall apply thereto.

Fire departments.

§ 813. The fire department of a city of the fifth class shall consist of companies of volunteer or paid firemen, as the board of trustees may determine, organized into engine, hose, or hook-and-ladder companies. Such fire department, except where the same comprises one or more companies of paid firemen, and such companies of volunteer firemen, shall elect their own officers: but the board of trustees shall appoint the chief and other officers of such department, where the same comprises one or more companies of paid firemen. The election of any person as chief of any such volunteer fire department shall be forthwith certified by the secretary of said department to the board of trustees of such city, and by them, at their next regular meeting, confirmed. The chief of the fire department shall give a bond to the chairman of the board of trustees of such city, in the sum of one thousand dollars; the chief of every fire department shall inquire into the cause of every fire occurring in the city, and keep a record thereof. He shall have exclusive control of the working of the fire department in time of conflagration or fire. He must aid in the enforcement of all fire ordinances duly enacted, examine buildings in process of erection, report violation of ordinances relating to the prevention and extinguishment of fires when directed by the proper authorities, and institute proceedings therefor, and shall have general control, management, and direction of the fire companies, hose, hook-and-ladder companies, and engine, and fire departments of such city, and shall perform such other duties as may be by the ordinances of said city, or by law, imposed upon him. His compensation, which shall not be less than ten dollars per month, must be fixed and paid by the board of city trustees. [Amendment approved February 20, 1905. Stats. 1905, p. 16. In effect immediately.]

CHAPTER VII.

Municipal Corporations of the Sixth Class.

(A charter for cities and towns having a population of not exceeding 3,000.)

For an act to enable municipal corporations of the sixth class to elect officers, see Act 2850, post.

Article I.—General Powers.

Sixth Class.

§ 850. Every municipal corporation of the sixth class shall be entitled the city (or town) of — (naming it), and by such name shall have perpetual succession, may sue and be sued in all courts and places, and in all proceedings whatever; shall have and use a common seal, alterable at the pleasure of the city or town authorities, and may purchase, lease, receive, hold, and enjoy real and personal property, and control and dispose of the same for the common benefit.

Article II.—General Provisions Relating to Officers.

Officers.

§ 851. The government of such city or town shall be vested in a board of trustees, to consist of five members; a clerk, who shall be ex-officio assessor; a treasurer; a marshal, who shall be ex-officio tax and license collector; a recorder to be appointed by the board of trustees; and such subordinate officers as are hereinafter provided for. [Amendment approved March 27, 1895. Stats. 1895, p. 266.]

Election and tenure of office.

§ 852. The members of the board of trustees and the clerk, treasurer, and marshal shall be elected by the qualified electors of said city or town at a general municipal election to be held therein on the second Monday in April in each even-numbered year. The clerk, treasurer, and marshal shall hold office for the period of two years from and after the Monday next succeeding the day of such election, and until their successors are elected and qualified. Members of the board of trustees shall hold office for the period of four years from and after the Monday next succeeding the day of such election, and until their successors are elected and qualified; provided, that the first board of trustees elected under the provisions of this act shall, at their first meeting, so classify themselves by lot as that three of their number shall go out of office at the expiration of two years and two at the expiration of four years. The board of trustees may, in their discretion, appoint an attorney, a poundmaster, a superintendent of streets, a civil engineer, and such police and other subordinate officers as in their judgment may be deemed necessary, and fix their compensation, which said officers shall hold office during the pleasure of said board.

Official bonds.

§ 853. The clerk, treasurer, and marshal shall, respectively, before entering upon the duties of their respective offices, each execute a bond to such city or town in such penal sum as the board of trustees by ordinance may determine, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties, including in the same bond the duties of all offices of which he is made by this chapter ex-officio incumbent; such bonds shall be approved by the board of trustees. All bonds, when approved, shall be filed with the clerk, except the bond of the clerk, which shall be filed with the president of the board of trustees. All the provisions of any law of this state relating to the official bonds of officers shall apply to such bonds, except as herein otherwise provided. Every officer of such city, before entering upon the duties of the office, shall take and file with the clerk the constitutional oath of office.

Vacancies, how filled.

§ 854. Any vacancy occurring in any of the offices provided for in this act shall be filled by appointment by the board of trustees; but if such office be elective, such appointee shall hold office only until the next regular election, at which time a person shall be elected to serve for the remainder of such unexpired term. In case a member of the board of trustees is absent from the city for the period of ninety days, unless by permission of the board of trustees, his office shall by the board be declared vacant, and the same filled as in case of other vacancies.

Trustees, compensation may be granted by electors.

§ 855. The members of the board of trustees shall receive no compensation whatever; provided, that in all such cities, the question of whether the members of such board or any of them shall receive any compensation for his services as such member and the amounts thereof, may be submitted to the qualified electors of such cities at any general election, and if a majority of such electors voting at such election shall vote in favor thereof, then such trustee or trustees shall receive the compensation specified in the call submitting such question at such election; such compensation to begin on the first day of the month next succeeding the canvass of the return of such election and the amount so fixed shall, from such date, be a regular charge against such city, payable the same as other fixed salaries are paid. Such compensation may be increased or diminished at any general election thereafter, by submission of such question in the same manner and by the same vote as herein provided for the original creation of such compensation.

The clerk, treasurer, marshal, and recorder shall severally receive, at stated times, a compensation, to be fixed by ordinance by the board of trustees, which compensation shall not be increased or diminished after their election, or during their several terms of office. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the board of trustees from fixing such several amounts of compensation in the first instance, during the term of office of any such officer, or after his election. The compensation of all other officers shall be fixed from time to time by the board of trustees. [Amendment approved March 6, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 148. In effect immediately.]

Election provisions.

§ 856. All elections in such city or town shall be held in accordance with the general election laws of the state, so far as the same may be made applicable; and no person shall be entitled to vote at such election unless he shall be a qualified elector of the county, enrolled upon the great register thereof, and shall have resided in such city for at least thirty days next preceding such election. The board of trustees shall give such notice of each election as may be prescribed by ordinance, shall appoint boards of election, and fix their compensation, and establish election precincts and polling-places, and may change the same. At any municipal election the last printed great register of the county shall be used, and any elector whose name is not upon such printed register shall be entitled to vote upon producing and filing with the board of election a certificate, under the hand and official seal of the county clerk, showing that his name is registered and uncanceled upon the great register of such county; provided, that he is otherwise entitled to vote.

Eligibility to office.

§ 857. No person shall be eligible to or hold any elective office in such city, unless he be a resident and elector therein, and shall have resided in such city for one year next preceding the date of such election. [Amendment, became a law under constitutional provision without governor's approval, March 14, 1901. Stats. 1901, p. 293. In effect immediately.]

Article III.—Legislative Department.

Board of trustees.

§ 858. The board of trustees shall meet on the Monday next succeeding the date of said general municipal election, shall take the oath of office, shall choose one of their number president, and shall hold regular meetings at least once in each month, at such times as they shall fix by ordinance. Special meetings may be called at any time by the president of the board, or by three trustees, by written notice delivered to each member, at least three hours before the time specified for the proposed meeting. All meetings of the board of trustees shall be held within the corporate limits of the city, at such place as may be designated by ordinance, and shall be public.

Meetings.

§ 859. At any meeting of the board of trustees a majority of the trustees shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but a less number may adjourn from time to time, and may compel the attendance of absent members in such manner and under such penalties as may be prescribed by ordinance. The president of the board shall preside at all meetings of the board, and in case of his absence the board may appoint a president pro tem.; and in case of the absence of the clerk, the president or president pro tem. shall appoint one of the members of the board clerk pro tem.

Rules.

§ 860. The board of trustees shall judge of the qualifications of its members and of all election returns, and determine contested elections of all city officers. They may establish rules for the conduct of their proceedings, and punish any member or other person for disorderly behavior at any meeting. They shall cause the clerk to keep a correct journal of all their proceedings, and at the desire of any member shall cause the ayes and noes to be taken on any question, and entered on the journal.

Franchises and resolutions to pay money.

§ 861. No ordinance, and no resolution granting any franchise for any purpose, shall be passed by the board of trustees on the day of its introduction, nor within five days thereafter nor at any other than a regular meeting. No resolution or order for the payment of money shall be passed at any other time than at a regular meeting. And no such ordinance, resolution, or order shall have any validity or effect unless passed by the votes of at least three trustees.

Powers.

§ 862. The board of trustees of said city shall have power:

Ordinances.

1. To pass ordinances not in conflict with the constitution and laws of this state or of the United States.

Real estate.

2. To purchase, lease, or receive such real estate situated inside or outside of the city limits and personal property as may be necessary or proper for municipal purposes and to control, dispose of, and convey the same for the benefit of the city or town; provided, they shall not have power to sell or convey any portion of any waterfront.

Water.

3. To contract for supplying the city or town with water for municipal purposes, or to acquire, construct, repair, and manage pumps, aqueducts, reservoirs, or other works necessary or proper for supplying water for the use of such city or the inhabitants, or for irrigating purposes therein.

Highways.

4. To establish, build and repair bridges; to establish, lay out, alter, keep open, improve, and repair streets, sidewalks, alleys, and other public highways, squares and parks, and places within the city or town, and to drain, sprinkle, oil, and light the same; to remove all obstructions therefrom; to establish the grades thereof; to grade, pave, macadamize, gravel, and curb the same, in whole or in part, and to construct gutters, culverts, sidewalks, and cross-walks therein, or on any part thereof; to cause to be planted, set out, and cultivated, shade trees therein; and generally to manage and control all such highways and places; and in the exercise of the powers herein granted to expend, in their discretion, the ordinary annual income and revenue of the municipality in payment of the costs and expenses of the whole or any part of such work or improvement.

Sewers.

5. To construct, establish, and maintain drains and sewers.

Fire extinguishers.

6. To provide fire-engines and all other necessary and proper apparatus for the prevention and extinguishment of fires.

Poll tax.

7. To impose on and collect from every male inhabitant between the ages of twenty-one and sixty years, an annual street poll tax, not exceeding two dollars; and no other road poll tax shall be collected within the limits of the city.

Dog tax.

8. To impose and collect an annual license not exceeding two dollars on every male dog, and four dollars on every female dog owned or harbored within the limits of the city.

Property tax.

9. To levy and collect annually a property tax, which shall not exceed one dollar on each one hundred dollars.

Licenses.

10. To license, for the purpose of revenue and regulation, all and every kind of business authorized by law and transacted and carried on in such city or town, and all shows, exhibitions, and lawful games carried on therein; to fix the rates of license tax upon the same, and to provide for the collection of the same by suit or otherwise.

Waterfront improvement.

11. To improve the rivers and streams flowing through such city or adjoining the same; to widen, straighten, and deepen the channels thereof, and remove obstructions therefrom; to improve the waterfront of the city; to construct and maintain embankments and other works, to protect such city from overflow; and to acquire, own, construct, maintain, and operate on any lands bordering on any navigable bay, lake, inlet, river, creek, slough, or arm of the sea within the corporate limits of such city or contiguous thereto, wharves, chutes, piers, breakwaters, bath-houses, and life-saving stations.

Public buildings.

12. To erect and maintain buildings for municipal purposes, and to acquire and maintain cemeteries, situated inside or outside of said city.

Tracks and pipes.

13. To acquire, own, construct, maintain, and operate street railways, telephone and telegraph lines, gas and other works for light, power, and heat; public libraries, museums, gymnasiums, parks, and baths, and to permit under such restrictions as they may deem proper, the laying of railroad tracks and the running of cars drawn by horses, steam, or other power thereon, and the laying of gas and water pipes in the public streets, and to permit the construction and maintenance of telegraph and telephone lines therein.

Violation of ordinances.

14. To impose fines, penalties, and forfeitures for any and all violations of ordinances; and for any breach or violation of any ordinance; to fix the penalty by fine or imprisonment, or both; but no such fine shall exceed three hundred dollars, nor the term of imprisonment exceed three months.

Prison labor.

15. To cause all persons imprisoned for violation of any ordinance to labor on the streets, or other public property, or works within the city.

Fire limits.

16. To establish and maintain fire limits, and regulate building and construction and removal of buildings within the municipality.

Issuance of subpoenas.

17. To issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses, or the production of books or other documents, for the purpose of producing evidence or testimony in any action or proceeding pending before the board of trustees, which subpoenas must be signed by the president of the board of trustees and attested by the city clerk and may be served in the same manner as subpoenas are served in civil actions. Whenever any person duly subpoenaed to appear and give evidence, or to produce any books or any documents as herein provided, shall neglect or refuse to appear, or to produce such books or documents, as required by such subpoena, or shall refuse to testify before such board, or to answer any questions which a majority thereof shall decide to be proper and pertinent, it shall be the duty of the president of the board to report the fact to the judge of the superior court of the county, who shall thereupon issue an attachment in the form usual in the court of which he shall be judge, directed to the sheriff of the county where such witness was required to appear and testify, commanding the said sheriff to attach such person, and forthwith bring him before the judge by whose order such attachment was issued. On the return of the attachment and the production of the body of the defendant, the said judge shall have jurisdiction of the matter, and the person charged may purge himself of the contempt in the same way, and the same proceedings shall be had, and the same penalties may be imposed, and the same punishment inflicted as in the case of a witness subpoenaed to appear and give evidence on the trial of a civil cause before a superior court.

Expenditure.

18. To expend such sum as the board of trustees shall deem proper, not to exceed five per cent of the property tax levy in any one fiscal year, for music and promotion.

Other acts.

19. To do and perform any and all other acts and things necessary or proper to carry out the provisions of this act. [Amendment approved March 19, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 420. In effect immediately.]

Enacting clause.

§ 863. The enacting clause of all ordinances shall be as follows: "The board of trustees of the city (or town) of —, do ordain as follows." Every ordinance shall be signed by the president of the board of trustees, attested by the clerk, and published at least once in a newspaper published in such city or town, or printed and posted in at least three public places therein.

Demands.

§ 864. All demands against such city or town shall be presented to and audited by the board of trustees, in accordance with such regulations as they may by ordinance prescribe; and upon the allowance of any such demand, the president of the board shall draw a warrant upon the treasurer for the same, which warrant shall be countersigned by the clerk, and shall specify for what purpose the same is drawn, and out of what fund it is to be paid.

Indebtedness not to exceed available funds.

§ 865. The board of trustees shall not create, audit, allow, or permit to accrue, any debt or liability in excess of the available money in the treasury that may be legally apportioned and appropriated for such purposes; provided, that any city or town during the first year of its existence under this act may incur such indebtedness or liability as may be necessary, not exceeding in all the income and revenue provided for it in such year; nor shall any warrant be drawn, or evidence of indebtedness be issued, unless there be at the time sufficient money in the treasury legally applicable to the payment of the same, except as hereinafter provided.

Incurring excess decided by vote.

§ 866. If at any time the board of trustees shall deem it necessary to incur any indebtedness in excess of the money in the treasury applicable to the purpose for which such indebtedness is to be incurred, they shall give notice of a special election by the qualified electors of the city or town, to be held to determine whether such indebtedness shall be incurred. Such notice shall specify the amount of indebtedness proposed to be incurred, the purpose or purposes of the same, and the amount of money necessary to be raised annually, by taxation, for an interest and sinking fund as hereinafter provided. Such notice shall be published for at least two weeks in some newspaper published in such city or town; and no other question or matter shall be submitted to the electors at such election. If upon a canvass of the votes cast at such election it appears that not less than two-thirds of all the qualified electors voting at such election shall have voted in favor of incurring such indebtedness, it shall be the duty of the board of trustees to pass an ordinance providing for the mode of creating such indebtedness, and of paying the same; and in such ordinance provision shall be made for the levy and collection of an annual tax upon all the real and personal property subject to taxation within such city or town, sufficient to pay the interest on such indebtedness as it falls due; and also to constitute a sinking fund for the payment of the principal thereof, within a period of not more than twenty years from the time of contracting the same. It shall be the duty of the board of trustees, in each year thereafter, at the time at which other taxes are levied, to levy a tax sufficient for such purpose, in addition to the taxes by this chapter authorized to be levied. Such tax, when collected, shall be kept in the treasury as a separate fund, to be inviolably appropriated to the payment of the principal and interest of such indebtedness.

Incarceration.

§ 867. The violation of any ordinance of such city or town shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and may be prosecuted by the authorities of such city or town in the name of the people of the state of California, or may be redressed by civil action, at the option of said authorities. Any person sentenced to imprisonment for the violation of an ordinance may be imprisoned in the jail for such city or town; or if the board of trustees by ordinance shall so prescribe, in the county jail of the county in which such city or town may be situated, in which case the expense of such imprisonment shall be a charge in favor of such county and against such city or town.

Nuisances.

§ 868. Every act or thing done or being within the limits of such city or town, which is or may be declared by law or by any ordinance of such city or town to be a nuisance, shall be and is hereby declared to be a nuisance, and shall be considered and treated as such in all actions and proceedings whatever; and all remedies which are or may be given by law for the prevention and abatement of nuisances shall apply thereto.

Cost of street work assessed on fronting property.

§ 869. The board of trustees are hereby authorized and empowered to order any work authorized by this chapter to be done upon the streets, avenues, highways, and public places of such city or town. The cost and expense incurred therefor shall be paid as follows, to wit: The expense or cost of improving and repairing streets, sidewalks, alleys, squares, and other public highways and places within the city or town, removing obstructions therefrom; grading, paving, macadamizing, graveling, and curbing the same, and constructing gutters, culverts, and sidewalks therein, shall be assessed upon the lots and lands fronting thereon, each lot or portion of a lot being separately assessed for the full depth thereof in proportion to the benefits upon the property to be benefited, sufficient to cover the total expense of the work to the center of the street on which it fronts; provided, that the board of trustees may expend from the general fund for said purposes a sum which in their judgment may be necessary. The expense of all improvements in the space formed by the junction of two or more streets, or where one main street terminates in or crosses another main street, and also all necessary street crossings, or crossways at corners or intersection of streets, and the expense of establishing, building, and repairing bridges in such city or town, shall be paid by such city or town. The expense incurred in making and repairing sewers in any street shall be paid, one-fourth by the owner of the lands on one side of said street, one-fourth by the owner of the land on the other side of said street, and one-half by the city or town out of the sewer fund. In all the streets constituting the waterfront of such city or town, or bounded on the one side by the property thereof, the expense of work done on that portion of said streets, from the center line thereof to the said waterfront, or to such property of the city or town bounded thereon, shall be paid for by such city or town, but no contract for any such work shall be given except to the lowest responsible bidder, and in the manner hereinafter provided. When any work or improvements mentioned in this section is done or made on one side of the center line of said streets, avenues, or public highways, the lots or portions of lots fronting on that side only shall be assessed to cover the expenses of said work according to the provisions of this chapter. Whenever any expenses or costs of work shall have been assessed on any lands, the amount of said expenses shall become a lien upon said lands, which shall take precedence of all other liens, and which may be foreclosed in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure. Such suit shall be in the name of such city or town as plaintiff. Upon the filing of a complaint in the superior court to enforce a lien of any kind hereon, the plaintiff shall be entitled, if a recovery is had or the money is paid, to include as costs the sum of twenty-five dollars as attorney's fees.

Right of way.

§ 870. Whenever it shall become necessary for the city or town to take or damage private property for the purpose of establishing, laying out, extending and widening streets and other public highways and places within the city or town, or for the purpose of rights of way for drains, sewers and aqueducts, and for the purpose of widening, straightening or diverting the channels of streams, or the improvement of waterfronts, or the acquisition or maintenance of public harbors, the trustees may direct proceedings to be taken under section 1237 and following sections, to and including section 1263 of the Code of Civil Procedure, to procure the same. [Amendment approved February 20, 1901. Stats. 1901, p. 12. In effect immediately.]

Levy of taxes.

§ 871. The board of trustees shall have the power, and it shall be their duty, to provide by ordinance a system for the assessment, levy, and collection of all city or town taxes not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter. All taxes shall be collected by the marshal or treasurer, as may be determined by the board of trustees by ordinance. All taxes assessed, together with any percentage imposed for delinquency and the costs of collection, shall constitute liens on the property assessed; every tax upon personal property shall be a lien upon the real property of the owner thereof. The liens provided for in this section shall attach as of the first Monday in March of each year, and may be enforced by a sale of the real property affected, and the execution and delivery of all necessary certificates and deeds therefor, under such regulations as may be prescribed by ordinance, or by action in any court of competent jurisdiction to foreclose such liens; provided, that any property sold for such taxes shall be subject to redemption within five years and upon the terms provided or that may hereafter be provided for the redemption of property sold for state taxes. All deeds made upon any sale of property for taxes or special assessments under the provisions of this chapter shall have the same force and effect in evidence as is or may hereafter be provided by law for deeds for property sold for nonpayment of state taxes. [Amendment approved March 8, 1905. Stats. 1905, p. 89.]

Section 3 of the act amending this section and section 773 is as follows:

§ 3. This act shall not repeal, or in any manner affect, modify, or interfere with the provisions of an act entitled "An act to provide for the levy and collection of taxes by and for the use of municipal corporations and cities incorporated under the laws of the state of California, except municipal corporations of the first class, and to provide for the consolidation and abolition of certain municipal offices, and to provide that their duties may be performed by certain officers of the county, and fixing the compensation to be allowed for such county officers for the services so rendered to such municipal corporations," approved March 27, 1895; or any of the provisions of an act entitled "An act to provide for the levy and collection of taxes by and for the use of municipal corporations and cities incorporated under the laws of the state, except municipal corporations of the first, second, third and fourth classes, and cities operating under a charter framed under section 8, article 11, of Constitution," approved March 2, 1891.

Equalization.

§ 872. The board of trustees shall meet at their usual place of holding meetings on the second Monday of August of each year, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, and sit as a board of equalization, and shall continue in session from day to day until all the returns of the assessor have been rectified. They shall have power to hear complaints, and to correct, modify, or strike out any assessment made by the assessor, and may, of their own motion, raise any assessment, upon notice to the party whose assessment is to be raised. The corrected list for each tax shall be the assessment-roll for said tax for said year. It shall be certified by the clerk, who shall act as clerk of the board of equalization, as being the assessment-roll for said tax, and shall be the assessment-roll upon which such tax is to be levied in said year.

Construction of act.

§ 873. Nothing in this chapter contained shall be construed to prevent any city or town having a bonded indebtedness, contracted under laws heretofore passed, from levying and collecting such taxes for the payment of such indebtedness, and the interest thereon, as are provided for in such laws, in addition to the taxes herein authorized to be levied and collected. All moneys received from licenses, street poll tax, and from fines, penalties, and forfeitures, shall be paid into the general fund.

Public work to be done by contract.

§ 874. In the erection, improvement, and repair of all public buildings and works, in all street and sewer work, and in all work in or about streams, bays, or waterfronts, or in or about embankments, or other works for protection against overflow, and in furnishing any supplies or materials for the same, when the expenditure required for the same exceeds the sum of one hundred dollars, the same shall be done by contract, and shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder, after notice by publication in a newspaper of general circulation, printed and published in such city or town, for at least two weeks, or if there be no newspaper printed or published therein, by printing and posting the same in at least four public places therein for the same period; such notice shall distinctly and specifically state the work contemplated to be done; provided, that the board of trustees may reject any and all bids presented and re-advertise, in their discretion. The board of trustees shall annually, at a stated time, contract for doing all city printing and advertising, which contract shall be let to the lowest bidder, after notice, as provided in this section. [Amendment approved March 9, 1897. Stats. 1897, p. 89.]

Signature of warrant and contracts.

§ 875. The president of the board of trustees shall preside over all meetings of the board at which he is present. In his absence a president pro tem. may be chosen. The president, and in his absence the president pro tem., shall sign all warrants drawn on the treasurer, and shall sign all written contracts entered into by said city or town, as such president or president pro tem. The authority and power of the president pro tem. shall continue only during the day on which he is chosen. The president and president pro tem. shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations, and take affidavits and testify the same under their hands. The president or president pro tem. shall sign all conveyances made by said city or town, and all instruments which shall require the seal of the city or town. The president is authorized to acknowledge the execution of all instruments executed by said city or town, that require to be acknowledged.

Article IV.—Executive Department.

Treasurer.

§ 876. It shall be the duty of the treasurer to receive and safely keep all moneys which shall come into his hands as treasurer, for all of which he shall give duplicate receipts, one of which shall be filed with the clerk.

He shall pay out said money or warrants signed by the president and countersigned by the clerk, and not otherwise. He shall make quarterly settlements with the clerk. When no compensation has been allowed to him by the board of trustees, he shall be allowed one per cent on all moneys received and paid by him as such treasurer. He may credit himself with such per cent in his settlements with the clerk. Upon each quarterly settlement he shall file a statement of his account with the clerk. [Amendment approved March 30, 1903. Stats. 1903, p. 336.]

Assessor.

§ 877. It shall be the duty of the assessor, between the first day of May and the first day of August in each year, to make out a true list of all the taxable property within the city or town. The mode of making out of said list, and proceedings relating thereto, shall be in conformity with laws now in force regulating county assessors, except as the same may be otherwise provided in this act, or by ordinance. Said list shall describe the property assessed, and the value thereof, and shall contain all other matters required to be stated in such lists by county assessors. Said assessor shall verify said list by his oath, and shall deposit the same with the clerk on or before the first Monday of August of each year. The assessor shall, during said time, also make a list of all male persons residing within the limits of the city or town, over the age of twenty-one years, and shall verify said list by his oath, and shall, on or before the first Monday of August in each year, deposit the same with the clerk. Said assessor and his deputy shall have power to administer all oaths and affirmations necessary in the performance of his duty.

Clerk.

§ 878. It shall be the duty of the clerk to keep a full, true record of all the proceedings of the board of trustees and of the board of equalization. The proceedings of the board of trustees shall be kept in a book, marked "Records of the Board of Trustees." The proceedings of the board of equalization shall be kept in a separate book, marked "Records of the Board of Equalization." He shall keep a book, which shall be marked "City or Town Accounts," in which shall be entered as a credit all moneys received by the city or town for licenses, the amount of any tax when levied, and all other moneys when received, and in which shall be entered upon the debtor side all commissions deducted and all warrants drawn on the treasury. He shall also keep a book, marked "Marshal's Account," in which he shall charge the marshal with all the tax lists delivered to him, and all licenses delivered to him. He shall credit the marshal with the delinquent lists returned by him, and with his commission for collecting. He shall also keep a book, marked "Treasurer's Account," in which he shall keep a full account of the transactions of the city or town with the treasurer. He shall also keep a book, marked "Licenses," in which he shall enter all licenses issued by him, the date thereof, to whom issued, for what, the time when it expires, and the amount paid. He shall also keep a book marked "Attorney's Account," and shall therein charge said attorney with all delinquent tax lists delivered to him, and shall credit him with money paid and delinquent tax lists returned. He shall keep a book, marked "Ordinances," into which he shall copy all city or town ordinances, with his certificate annexed to said copy stating the foregoing ordinance is a true and correct copy of an ordinance of the city or town, and giving the number and title of said ordinance, and stating that the same has been published or posted according to law. Said record copy, with said certificate, shall be prima facie evidence of the contents of the ordinance and of the passage and publication of the same, and shall be admissible as such evidence in any court or proceeding. Such records shall not be filed in any case, but shall be returned to the custody of the clerk. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the proof of the passage and publication of ordinances in the usual way. Each of the foregoing books, except the records of the board of trustees and the board of equalization, shall have a general index, sufficiently comprehensive to enable a person readily to ascertain matters contained therein. The clerk shall also keep a book, marked "Demands and Warrants," in which he shall note every demand against the city or town, and file the same. He shall state therein; under the note of the demands, the final disposition made of the same; and if the same is allowed, and a warrant drawn, he shall also state the number of the warrant, with sufficient dates. This book shall contain an index, in which reference shall be made to each demand. Upon the completion of the assessment-roll of any of the taxes of the city or town, and the levying of the tax thereon, the clerk shall apportion the taxes upon such assessment-roll, and make out and deliver to the marshal a tax list in the usual form, taking his receipt therefor. He may appoint a deputy, for whose acts he and his bondsmen shall be responsible; and he and his deputy shall have power to administer oaths or affirmations, to take affidavits and depositions to be used in any court or proceeding in the state, and to certify the same. He and his deputy shall take all necessary affidavits to demands against the city or town, and certify the same without charge. He shall be the custodian of the seal of the city or town. He shall make a quarterly statement in writing, showing the receipts and expenditures of the city or town for the preceding quarter, and the amount remaining in the treasury. He shall at the end of every fiscal year make a full and detailed statement of the receipts and expenditures of the preceding year, and a full statement of the financial condition of the affairs of the city or town, which shall be published. He shall perform such other services as this act and the ordinances of the board of trustees shall require.

Attorney.

§ 879. It shall be the duty of the attorney to advise the city or town authorities and officers in all legal matters pertaining to the business of said city or town. He shall receive the delinquent list and receipt therefor; he is authorized to bring suit in the name of the city or town, in the proper court, for the collection of any tax; he shall receive for collecting taxes such per cent on the amount collected as may be provided by ordinance, which said per cent shall be collected of the delinquent taxpayers as provided by ordinance. In case a suit shall be brought in the superior court upon a tax upon real estate to sell such real estate for the purpose of paying such tax and costs, he shall be allowed, in addition to the said per cent, twenty-five dollars for each suit brought, to be taxed as costs in such suit, and not to be paid to said attorney unless collected of the defendant in such suit. Said attorney shall receive such other compensation as may be allowed by the board of trustees.

Marshal.

§ 880. The department of police of said city or town shall be under the direction and control of the marshal; and for the suppression of any riot, public tumult, disturbance of the peace, or resistance against the laws or public authorities in the lawful exercise of their functions, he shall have the powers that are now or may hereafter be conferred upon sheriffs by laws of the state, and shall in all respects be entitled to the same protection; and his lawful orders shall be promptly executed by deputies, police officers, and watchmen in said city or town, and every citizen shall also lend his aid, when required, for the arrest of offenders and maintenance of public order. He shall, and is hereby authorized to, execute and return all process issued and directed to him by any legal authority. It shall be his duty to prosecute before the recorder all breaches or violations of or noncompliance with any ordinance which shall come to his knowledge. He shall collect all taxes levied by the board of trustees, except as is herein provided. He shall, at the expiration of any month, pay to the treasurer all taxes and other funds of said city or town collected by him during said month. He shall, upon payment of the money, file with the treasurer an affidavit, stating that the money so paid is all the taxes or funds that he has collected or received during the preceding month. He shall, upon the receipt of any tax list, give his receipt for the same to the clerk, and shall, upon depositing with the clerk the delinquent tax list, take his receipt therefor. He shall receive from the clerk all licenses, and collect the same. He shall have charge of the prison and prisoners, and of any chain-gang which may be established by the board of trustees. He shall for service of any process receive the same fees as constables, but his fees for services in any criminal action or proceeding upon process issued from the recorder's court shall not be a charge against the county. He may appoint, subject to the approval of the board of trustees, one or more deputies, for whose acts he and his bondsmen shall be responsible, whose only compensation shall be fees for the service of process, which shall be the same as those allowed to the marshal. He may also, with the concurrence of the president of the board of trustees, when the same may be by them deemed necessary for the preservation of public order, appoint additional policemen, who shall discharge the duties assigned them for one day only. He shall perform such other services as this act and the ordinances of the board of trustees shall require, and shall receive such compensation as shall be fixed by ordinance. [Amendment approved March 13, 1903. Stats. 1903, p. 135. In effect immediately.]

Compensation fixed by board.

§ 881. The board of trustees shall, by ordinances not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, prescribe the additional duties of all officers, and fix their compensation.

Article V.—Judicial Department.

Recorder's court.

§ 882. A recorder's court is hereby established in such city or town, to be held by the recorder of such city or town. Said recorder's court shall have jurisdiction, concurrently with the justice's courts, of all actions and proceedings, civil and criminal, arising within the corporate limits of such city or town, and which might be tried in such justice's court; and shall have exclusive jurisdiction of all actions for the recovery of any fine, penalty, or forfeiture prescribed for the breach of any ordinance of such city or town, of all actions founded upon any obligation created by any ordinance, and of all prosecutions for any violation of any ordinance. In all civil actions for the recovery of any fine, penalty, or forfeiture prescribed for the breach of any ordinance of such city or town, where the fine, penalty or forfeiture imposed by the ordinance is not more than fifty dollars, the trial must be by the court, in civil actions where the fine, penalty or forfeiture prescribed for the breach of any ordinance of such city or town is over fifty dollars, the defendant is entitled to a jury. Except as in this section otherwise provided, the rules of practice and mode of proceeding in said recorder's court shall be the same as are or may be prescribed by law for justices' courts in like cases; and appeals may be taken to the superior court of the county in which such city or town may be situated, from all judgments of said recorder's court, in like manner and with like effect as in cases of appeals from justices' courts. [Amendment approved March 7, 1905. Stats. 1905, p. 73. In effect in sixty days.]

Powers of recorder as judge.

§ 883. The recorder shall be judge of the recorder's court, and shall have the powers and perform the duties of a magistrate. He may administer and certify oaths and affirmations, and take and certify acknowledgments. He shall be entitled to charge and receive for his services such fees as are or may be allowed by law for justices of the peace for like services, except that for his services in criminal prosecutions for violation of ordinances he shall be entitled to receive only such fees as the board of trustees shall by ordinance prescribe; but his fees for ser-VICES in any criminal case shall not be a charge against the county. [Amendment became a law under constitutional provision without governor's approval March 12, 1901. Stats. 1901, p. 269. In effect immediately.]

Recorder disqualified as judge in certain cases.

§ 884. In all cases in which the recorder is a party, or in which he is interested, or when he is related to either party by consanguinity or affinity within the third degree, or is otherwise disqualified, or in case of sickness or inability to act, the recorder may call in a justice of the peace, residing in the city or town to act in his place and stead; or if there be no justice of the peace residing in the city or town, or if all those so residing are likewise disqualified, then he may call in any justice of the peace residing in the county in which such city or town may be situated.

Article VI.—Miscellaneous Provisions.

Collection of moneys.

§ 885. Every officer collecting or receiving any moneys belonging to or for the use of such city or town shall settle for the same with the clerk on the first Monday in each month, and immediately pay the same into the treasury, on the order of the clerk, for the benefit of the funds to which such moneys respectively belong.

No officer to be interested in any public contract.

§ 886. No officer of such city or town shall be interested, directly or indirectly, in any contract with such city or town, or with any of the officers thereof in their official capacity, or in doing any work or furnishing any supplies for the use of such city or town, or its officers in their official capacity; and any claim for compensation for work done, or supplies or materials furnished, in which any such officer is interested, shall be void, and if audited and allowed shall not be paid by the treasurer. Any willful violation of the provisions of this section shall be a ground for removal from office, and shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and punished as such.

An act to validate the organization and incorporation of municipal corporations of the sixth class.

§ 1. All municipal corporations of the sixth class, the organization and incorporation of which have been authenticated by an order of a board of supervisors in this state, declaring the same incorporated as municipal corporations of the sixth class, and a certified copy of which order has been filed by such board of supervisors in the office of the secretary of state, showing such copy of said order to have been filed in said office, and which corporations thereafter have acted in the form and manner of municipal corporations under the provisions of "An act to provide for the organization, incorporation, and government of municipal corporations," approved March thirteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-three, and the amendments thereto, are hereby declared to be and to have been municipal corporations of the sixth class from the date of filing the certified copy of said order of the board of supervisors with the secretary of state; and all the acts of the said municipal corporations heretofore exercised according to the act aforesaid, are hereby validated and declared as legal.

§ 2. This act shall take effect from and after its passage and approval.

ACT 2350.

An act entitled "An act to enable municipal corporations of the sixth class to elect officers."

[Approved March 14, 1885. Stats. 1885, p. 136.]

Cited and construed 149 Cal. 516.

Petition for appointment of commissioners of election.

§ 1. Whenever a corporation of the sixth class shall have failed, from any cause, to elect officers in accordance with its charter, and there are no officers to carry on the city government, or call an election for officers, in any such case citizens of such corporation may present a petition to the governor for the appointment of three commissioners of election. Such petition shall set forth: 1. The name of the corporation, and when, and how organized; 2. When the last election for officers took place, and whether any of such officers are performing their duties, and if not, how long since they ceased to perform their duties; 3. The provision of the charter as to the qualifications of voters; 4. That the persons signing the petition possess the qualifications provided by the charter for voters, and that each of said signers is a householder and freeholder in said corporation. The petition shall be signed by not less than seventy-five persons possessing all the qualifications mentioned in the body of the petition, and shall be verified by at least two of the signers, that, of their own knowledge, the petition is true, and that all the signers possess all the qualifications set forth in the petition. Upon the presentation of the petition to the governor, he may either act upon the petition or require additional evidence of the matters set forth in the petition. Upon being satisfied of the truth of the matters set forth in the petition, the governor is authorized and empowered to appoint three persons as commissioners of election for such corporation. Such commission shall be known and styled "Board of election commissioners for" (here give name of corporation).

Appointment of commissioners.

§ 2. The governor shall cause a commission to be issued to the commissioners, and the issuance of such commission shall be conclusive evidence of the regularity of all the proceedings to and including the appointment of such commissioner. Within ten days after their appointment, the commissioners shall take the oath of office before some judge or clerk, which oath shall be indorsed upon the commission, and a copy filed in the office of the secretary of state, and shall organize by the election of a president and secretary from their own members. The board shall cause to be kept minutes of all their proceedings, which minutes shall be signed at the close of each meeting by the president and secretary.

Powers of commissioners.

§ 3. The board of election commissioners shall have power: First, by an order entered in their minutes, to call an election for such officers as are declared in the charter of such corporation to be elected only by the voters in said corporation. Such orders shall specify the names of the offices to be filled, and, when any office is to be filled by an election in any ward or subdivision of said corporation, the order shall so state, and the date fixed for the election. Previous to the election, the board shall appoint officers of election, and fix the places of holding the election, as required in the charter of such corporation. The board shall cause notice of such election to be published in one or more newspapers published in said corporation; or if none be published therein, then by posting notices, for at least twenty days before such election. Such election shall be conducted as required by the charter of said corporation for election of officers, except that it shall not be necessary to use printed registers, but should any voter be challenged on the ground that his name does not appear on the great register of the county, it shall be sufficient for him to state, under oath, that he believes his name is upon the great register, and if no other evidence is offered, the board of election shall accept his statement as true.

Election returns.

§ 4. The boards of election shall make return of the election as required in the charter, except that the returns shall be returned and delivered to the board of election commissioners, of all officers voted for at such election, without reference to whether any of such officers were voted for in the whole, or only a ward or subdivision of the corporation, and no officer of election shall issue a certificate of election.

Canvassing returns.

§ 5. Within five days after the election the board of election commissioners shall proceed to canvass said returns and declare what persons were elected. Said board shall thereupon issue certificates of election to the persons so declared to be elected; such certificate shall be signed by all the commissioners, and shall be conclusive evidence of the regularity of all the proceedings taken in said election and by said board, except as against any suit or proceeding that may be commenced to oust from office any of said persons holding a certificate.

Officer qualifying.

§ 6. Within ten days after issuance of the certificates, the officers shall be qualified and enter upon the discharge of their duties, in accordance with the charter. If any person chosen at said election shall fail to take the oath of office and enter upon the discharge of the duties within the time above specified, then the office to which he shall have been elected shall be deemed and held to be vacant, the same as if he had never been elected. At the first meeting of the legislative department of the corporation after the election, the board of election commissioners shall deliver to said legislative department all books and papers in their possession, relating to their office of election commissioners, and said legislative department shall cause the same to be filed by their clerk, and shall cause the commission issued by the governor to said commissioners, and the minutes of said commissioners, and notice of the election, to be entered in the book of minutes of said legislative department, and such entries, when so made, shall be evidence of all the matters therein stated, and as conclusive evidence as the original.

Effect of elections.

§ 7. Whenever the officers elected at said election, and the officers authorized by the charter to be elected or appointed by the legislative or executive department of said corporation, shall have qualified and entered upon the discharge of their duties, then said corporation shall be deemed and held to be fully organized and in operation, as if said election had been held at the time and in all respects in the manner required by the charter.

Resolution as to organization.

§ 8. Whenever the government of the corporation is in full operation, as set forth in section seven, the legislative department shall cause a resolution to be entered in their minutes declaring the same; and such resolution shall be conclusive evidence of the same, except as against a direct action or proceeding to set aside or annul said government.

§ 9. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

ACT 2351.

An act to provide for the disincorporation of municipal corporations of the sixth class.

Citations. Cal. 117/862; 118/892.

§ 1. A municipal corporation of the sixth class may disincorporate after proceedings had as required in this act. The council, board of trustees, or other legislative body of such corporation shall, upon receiving a petition therefor, signed by not less than half of the qualified electors thereof, as shown by the vote cast at the last municipal election held therein, submit to the electors of such corporation the question whether such municipal corporation shall disincorporate. Such question shall be submitted at a special election to be held for that purpose, and such legislative body shall give notice thereof by publication in a newspaper printed or published in such corporation, or if there is no newspaper published in said corporation, then in some newspaper published in the county in which said corporation is situated, for a period of thirty days prior to such election. Said notice shall state that the question of disincorporating said corporation will be submitted to the legal voters of the same at the time appointed for such election, and the electors shall be invited thereby to vote upon such proposition by placing upon their ballots the cross, as provided by law, after the words "For disincorporation," or "Against disincorporation." Such legislative body shall also designate in said notice the place or places at which the polls will be open in said municipal corporation; and shall also appoint and designate in such notice the names of the officers of election. The vote at said election shall be taken, canvassed, and returned in the same manner as in other municipal elections. Such legislative body shall meet on the Monday next succeeding the day of such election, and proceed to canvass the votes cast thereat. If it be found by the canvass of said votes that less than two-thirds of the votes cast were in favor of disincorporation, such legislative body shall declare the petition for disincorporation denied, in which case no new election shall be held on the question of disincorporating the corporation involved in said petition and vote until after the expiration of two years from date of the election so held. In case it shall appear from said canvass that two-thirds of all the votes cast were in favor of disincorporation, said legislative body shall, under their hands, make and file in their office, and cause to be entered upon their record of proceedings, an order that the petition for such disincorporation be granted, and declaring that such corporation be disincorporated; said order to take effect at the time hereinafter provided.

Said legislative body shall, in case said corporation is so disincorporated, forthwith cause their clerk, or other officer performing the duties of clerk, by an order entered in their minutes, to make and transmit to the secretary of state and board of supervisors of the county in which said corporation is situated, a certified copy and abstract of the notice of election hereinbefore provided for, the whole number of electors voting for said disincorporation, and the number of electors voting against said disincorporation. Thirty days from and after the holding of the election, in case two-thirds of the said votes were cast in favor of said disincorporation, said municipal corporation shall be forever disincorporated. Said legislative body shall forthwith, after ascertaining by said canvass that said disincorporation has been carried, determine the amount of the indebtedness of said municipal corporation, the amount of money in the treasury thereof, and the amount of any tax levy made by said corporation unpaid or not due, and all other indebtedness due or coming due to said corporation, and within thirty days from the date of said election shall transmit a certified statement of said amount to the board of supervisors of the county in which said municipal corporation is situated; and the treasurer of said corporation shall before the expiration of said thirty days, turn over to the treasurer of said county all moneys of said municipal corporation in his possession, and said county treasurer shall place said moneys in a special fund, to be drawn upon as hereinafter provided for. Upon the disincorporation of said municipal corporation, every public officer of said corporation shall immediately turn over to the board of supervisors of the county in which said corporation is situated, all public property of every nature and description in their possession; provided, however, that all court records of the recorder's court of the said municipal corporation shall be retained by said recorder as justice of the peace of the township, and as such justice of the peace he shall have authority to execute and complete all unfinished business standing on the same. Nothing contained in this act shall be held to relieve said municipal corporation, or the territory included within it, from any liability for any debt contracted by such municipal corporation prior to its disincorporation. All warrants for said indebtedness shall be drawn by the board of supervisors of the county in which said municipal corporation is situated, on the fund hereinabove provided for in the county treasury. If, at the time of said disincorporation, a tax shall have been levied by said municipal corporation, and remains uncollected, it shall be the duty of the tax collector of the county in which said municipal corporation was situated to collect said tax when due, and pay the same into the county treasury. All property upon which any municipal tax has been levied and the same has become delinquent, either before or after the date of such disincorporation, and all property sold for any tax levied by said municipal corporation, may be redeemed by any party interested, by the payment to the county treasurer, upon the estimates of the auditor, of the money that would have been necessary to redeem such property, had said city not disincorporated. All moneys paid into the county treasury under the provisions of this act shall be placed to the credit of the special fund hereinbefore provided for. If, at any time after the disincorporation of such municipal corporation, it should be found that there is not sufficient money in the treasury to the credit of the fund hereinabove provided for, with which to pay any indebtedness of said municipal corporation, the board of supervisors of said county shall have the power, and it shall be their duty to levy, and there shall be collected from the territory formerly included within said municipal corporation, a tax or taxes sufficient in amount to pay the said indebtedness, of said municipal corporation, as the same shall become due; such tax or taxes, assessments, and collections shall be made in the same manner and at the same time that other taxes of said county are levied and collected, and shall be an additional tax upon the property included within said territory for the payment of said debts. If, after payment of the debts of said municipal corporation, there shall remain any surplus in the hands of said county treasurer to the credit of the fund hereinbefore mentioned, the money so remaining shall be transferred to the school fund of the districts or district covered by said municipal corporation. [Amendment approved February 17, 1899. Stats. 1899, p. 13.]

§ 2. The board of supervisors of the county in which any such municipal corporation has been disincorporated, shall have the power, and it shall be their duty, if the board of trustees or other legislative body of such corporation shall fail or refuse to return to said board of supervisors the statement of said amounts as hereinbefore in this act provided, to ascertain the indebtedness of said municipal corporation at the time of its disincorporation, and the amount of money in its treasury and the amount due to it at the said time. Said board of supervisors shall make provision for the collection of the amounts due to said municipal corporation, and for the closing up of its affairs, and any act or acts necessary for such purpose and not otherwise herein provided for, shall, upon the order of said board of supervisors directing the same, be as fully done and performed by the officer or officers performing similar duties for the said county, and with as full effect as if the same had been performed by the proper officer of said municipal corporation, before disincorporation, and said county shall succeed to and possess all the rights of said municipal corporation in and to said indebtedness, and shall have power to sue for or otherwise collect any such debts, in the name of the county. All costs and expenses of ascertaining the facts hereinbefore mentioned, and all other costs and expenses incurred by the board of supervisors in the execution of the powers and duties of said board of supervisors, provided for in this act, shall be paid out of the special fund in said county treasury hereinbefore in this act provided for. All provisions of this act relating to the settlement of a municipal corporation after disincorporation shall be applicable to the winding up of the affairs of any disincorporated municipality whether disincorporated before or after the passage of this act. [Amendment approved February 17, 1899. Stats. 1899, p. 13.]

§3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

ACT 2352.

To provide for the reorganization of municipal corporations and for determining the population thereof. [Stats. 1899, p. 75.]

This act related to cities of the sixth class.

ACT 2353.

To provide for the ownership of property and the winding up of the affairs of municipal corporations disincorporated under the provisions of an act of the legislature of the state of California, entitled "An act to provide for the disincorporation of municipal corporations of the sixth class," approved March 26, 1895, when two-thirds or more in value of assessable property within the former limits thereof shall be included within the boundaries of any subsequently incorporated city or town. [Approved February 17, 1899. Stats. 1899, p. 17.]

ACT 2354.

An act concerning municipal corporations.

Validating acts of municipal corporations.

§1. All municipal corporations, whose incorporation has been or may hereafter be authenticated by an order of any board of supervisors in this state, declaring the same incorporated as a municipal corporation, and a certified copy of which order has been or may hereafter be filed by such board of supervisors in the office of the secretary of state, and which have heretofore been or may hereafter be organized under a certificate from the secretary of state, showing such order to have been filed in his office, and which thereafter have acted, or hereafter may act, in the form and manner of a municipal corporation, under the provisions of an act entitled "An act to provide for the organization, incorporation, and government of municipal corporations," approved March thirteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-three, are hereby declared to be and to have been municipal corporations from the date of filing the certified copy of said order of the board of supervisors with the secretary of state; and all the acts of said municipal corporations heretofore exercised, or which may be hereafter exercised, according to the act aforesaid, are hereby validated and declared to be legal.

§1. All cities or towns, reorganized, or claiming to have been reorganized, since the passage of the acts the titles of which are recited in the title hereof, or which have attempted since said dates to reorganize or incorporate under the provisions of said acts, or either of them, and have acted as municipal corporations since such reorganization, are hereby declared to be and to have been from the date of such reorganization, or attempted reorganization, duly and legally incorporated and reorganized cities, and all proceedings for the reorganization of such municipal corporations are hereby validated and declared legal; provided, that this act shall not affect any municipal corporation where an action is pending to test the validity of such municipal corporation.

§2. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

ACT 2359.

An act to enable cities incorporated and operating under a charter framed under section 8, article 11, of the constitution, to abandon and annul such charter, and organize under general laws.

§1. The common council, or other legislative body of any city in this state, operating under a charter framed under section 8, article 11, of the constitution, shall have power, and it shall be their duty, whenever a petition is presented to them, signed by one-half of the qualified electors of such city, by ordinance, to submit to the qualified electors of such city at any general election, the question whether such city shall abandon such charter and reorganize under the general laws of the state providing for the organization, incorporation, and government of municipal corporations. Such election shall be called and held in accordance with the provisions of such charter for calling and holding elections, and if two-thirds of such qualified electors voting at such election shall vote to abandon such charter and reorganize under the general laws of the state providing for the organization, incorporation, and government of municipal corporations, such city shall, from and after the thirtieth day after such election, cease to be organized under such charter, and such charter shall be superseded by said general laws, and organized thereunder. In case such proposition shall fail to receive the vote of two-thirds of such electors, then the proposition for the abandonment of such charter and reorganization under the general laws shall not be again submitted for two years.

§ 2. All officers of such city shall continue in office, and their powers under said charter shall not cease until officers shall have been elected and qualified under said general laws.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

ACT 2362.

An act to authorize cities to acquire and operate a joint system or systems of water supply.

§ 1. Any two or more cities incorporated under the constitution and laws of this state are hereby empowered to jointly acquire and develop a source or sources of water supply for municipal and domestic purposes, and to construct the works necessary for their joint and several purposes and needs.

§ 2. Whenever the legislative body of a city deems it advisable to investigate the desirability of joint action with any other city, or cities, for acquiring and maintaining a water supply, such legislative body shall pass a resolution to that effect, and thereupon the mayor of said city shall, with the consent and advice of said legislative body, appoint three commissioners to confer with like commissioners from any other city. Said commissioners from the respective cities shall meet and consider the question of the desirability of their respective cities taking joint action to acquire and develop water supply for their respective cities, and the plans, terms and conditions they deem feasible, just and equitable, and if they agree upon such plans, terms and conditions they shall report the same to the legislative bodies of their respective cities.

§ 3. If the legislative bodies of two or more cities approve the plans, terms and conditions of the joint action reported by the commissioners they shall, by resolution, declare such approval, and shall submit the same to the qualified voters of their respective cities for their approval or rejection at the next city election, or at a special election called for that purpose. If the terms, conditions and plans are approved by a majority of the voters voting thereon at such election the said cities may enter upon the work of developing or acquiring water supply for the said cities in accordance with such plans, terms and conditions. And any city may, in the manner required by law, issue bonds for the purpose of prosecuting and completing the work of acquiring a water supply jointly with other cities. All proceedings relating to the issue of such bonds shall be taken as now required by law for the issue of bonds to acquire a water supply.

§4. Joint ownership and costs shall be restricted to those portions of the sources and works which shall be common to all the municipalities served, and each municipality shall exclusively own, construct and operate those sources and works which are for its exclusive use.

§5. The apportionment of all costs of acquisition, construction, operation and maintenance of the joint properties shall be made upon the basis of the amount of water proposed to be apportioned to the several municipalities, unless a different apportionment of costs shall be agreed upon.

§6. The total costs of works which shall exclusively serve any municipality shall be borne by such municipality exclusively.

§7. The plans, terms, conditions, or other agreement for acquiring said water supply, may be modified from time to time by agreement between the respective cities, which agreement shall be declared by the action of their respective legislative bodies.

§8. The term "city" and the term "municipality," as used in this act shall include a consolidated city and county, and the same rights and privileges by this act given to an incorporated city shall pertain to a consolidated city and county.

§9. Before any resolution or ordinance relating to the joint acquisition of a water supply becomes binding upon any city or municipality it shall be approved by the mayor of such city, or passed over his veto, in the manner provided by law or the charter of such city for the passage of ordinances.

§10. This act shall be in force from and after its passage.

ACT 2363.

An act to provide for the sale of an excess of water when owned by a municipality.

Citations. Cal. 152/598.

§1. Whenever the water supply owned by any city, incorporated town, county, or city and county, is in excess of the amount required to supply the water required by the inhabitants thereof, it may be declared by ordinance that such excess exists, and such excess of water may be sold outside of the limits of the corporation; but in no case shall a contract be made for a supply of any excess of water sold by a city, incorporated town, county, or city and county, outside the corporate limits for a period longer than one year; and in no case shall such a contract be made, unless the legislative authority of a city, incorporated town, county, or city and county, declare by ordinance that there exists an excess of water not required to supply the inhabitants of the city, incorporated town, county, or city and county, within the term of the contract, but water not required to supply the inhabitants of a city, incorporated town, county, or city and county, may be sold by the authorities thereof outside the corporate limits from month to month during the existence of such excess, and shall be sold only at the rates fixed for consumers inside the corporate limits.

ACT 2364.

An act conferring power upon the common council, board of supervisors, or other governing body of cities, or cities and counties, of over one hundred thousand inhabitants, to acquire or condemn land for a suitable site, and erect thereon a suitable building or buildings for municipal purposes.

§ 1. Power and authority is hereby conferred upon the common council, board of supervisors, or other governing body of every city, or city and county, in this state having a population of over one hundred thousand inhabitants, to provide for the erection and construction in such city, or city and county, and at the expense of the same, such additional or other municipal building or buildings as the common council, board of supervisors, or other governing body of such city, or city and county, may determine upon for the accommodation of the criminal department of the superior court, police courts, police stations, prisons, morgues, or coroner's offices of such city, or city and county, and for such other municipal uses as may be deemed necessary.

§ 2. In the event that the common council, board of supervisors, or other governing body of such city, or city and county, shall deem it expedient, and in their judgment that the public good requires the construction of such building or buildings, for the construction of which power is conferred upon them by section 1 of this act, in the manner and mode prescribed by this act, they are hereby authorized and empowered to express such judgment by resolution or order, in such manner as they may deem proper. And for the purpose of raising the money necessary to complete said building or buildings, the said common council, board of supervisors, or other governing body of such city, or city and county, is hereby authorized and empowered to levy and collect, in the same manner and at the same time as other taxes are levied and collected in such city, or city and county, for municipal purposes, an ad valorem property tax on real and personal property, which shall not in the aggregate exceed the sum of three hundred thousand dollars, which sum shall cover all the expense of the said building or buildings.

§ 3. As a site for the erection and construction of said building or buildings, power is hereby conferred upon the common council, board of supervisors, or other governing body of such city, or city and county, to acquire by purchase, or to condemn and acquire under the laws of eminent domain, such land as may be necessary therefor.

§ 4. The money arising from the tax hereby authorized to be levied and collected shall be kept by the city, city and county treasury of such city, or city and county in a fund to be known as the "Public Building Fund," and out of which said fund all claims for work, labor, and materials used in the construction of said building, and all other expenses authorized to be incurred under the provisions of this act, shall be paid. All claims against the said fund shall be allowed by the common council, board of supervisors, or other governing body of such city, or city and county, by resolution entered upon the minutes in the same manner and form as other expenditures are authorized, before the auditor shall be authorized to audit the same; and in no case shall any portion of said fund be used or expended for any other purpose than those herein indicated, nor shall any part of the cost of the construction of said building be paid out of any other or different fund; nor shall any lien for work, labor, or material at any time attach to the said building or buildings, nor the land upon which the same is located in any manner whatever.

§ 5. When work is to be done upon said building or buildings, or materials to be furnished, it shall be the duty of the common council, board of supervisors, or other governing body of such city, or city and county, to advertise for at least ten days in a daily newspaper published and circulated in such city, or city and county, for sealed proposals for doing both said work and furnishing said material. The said work and material shall be of the best quality. The advertisement shall contain a general description of the work to be done and the materials to be furnished, the time within which the same is to be done or furnished, and may refer to plans and specifications for such other details as may be necessary to give a correct understanding regarding the work or materials. The advertisement shall also state the day and an hour of said day within which bids will be received. At the hour and day stated in the advertisement, the said board or body shall proceed to open the bids in the presence of the bidders, and an abstract of each shall be recorded in the minutes by the clerk. A day and hour shall then be fixed for considering the bids and awarding the contract. An abstract of said bids, showing the name of each bidder, the price at which work, labor, and materials are offered to be done or furnished by each, and such other things as may be necessary to show or explain the offer, shall be made by the clerk and published for five days in a daily newspaper of general circulation published in such city, or city and county. At the expiration of five days after the first publication of the abstract, on the day and at the hour fixed by said board or body, said board or body shall proceed to consider the several bids and award the contract for doing the work and supplying the material for which proposals are invited, and for none other, to the lowest bidder who shall furnish sufficient sureties to guarantee the performance of the contract; provided, the advertisement hereinbefore provided for, shall invite proposals and bids, in one total sum or amount, for the performance of all the work and the furnishing of all the materials called for in the said advertisement for the erection of the entire building or buildings. Said board or body shall have the right to reject any or all bids, when in their judgment the public interests may be thereby promoted. Such contract shall be executed on behalf of such city, or city and county, by the mayor, or president of the common council, board of supervisors, or other governing body of such city, or city and county. No change in the plans or specifications shall be made after proposals for doing work and furnishing materials have been called for, nor shall any contractor be allowed a claim for work done or materials furnished in excess of his contract, except on the approval of said common council, board of supervisors, or other governing body of cities, or cities and counties; provided, that the aggregate cost of any change, or changes, shall not exceed the sum of three thousand dollars. All contracts shall be in writing, and shall be carefully drawn by the city attorney, city and county attorney, or other law officer of such city, or city and county, and shall contain detailed specifications of the work to be done, the manner in which the same shall be executed, the quality of the material, and the time within which the same shall be completed; and such penalty for the nonperformance of such contract as said board or body may deem just and reasonable. All contracts shall be signed in triplicate—one copy of which, with the plans and specifications of the work to be done, shall be filed with the clerk or secretary of said board or body, and shall at all times, in office hours, be open to the inspection of the public; one, with the plans and specifications, shall be kept in the office of said board or body, and the other copy, with plans and specifications, shall be delivered to the contractor. [Amendment approved March 2, 1897. Stats. 1897, p. 50. In effect immediately.]

§ 6. The common council, board of supervisors, or other governing body of such city, or city and county, may make payments on such contract from time to time, as work progresses or materials are furnished; but until the contract is completed, at no time shall the payments exceed seventy-five per centum of the value of the labor or materials furnished.

§ 7. The plans and specifications herein referred to shall be secured by said board or body after the publication for ten days in a daily newspaper of general circulation in such city, or city and county, of a resolution inviting the submission of competitive plans and specifications for said building or buildings. Said resolution shall contain a general statement of the purposes for which said building or buildings are to be used, the cost thereof, and the character of the design required. Said plans and specifications may be submitted to such board or body under such requirements and conditions, and at such time as said board or body may prescribe.

§8. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

ACT 2365.

An act authorizing municipal corporations to lease, purchase, own, and operate gravel-beds and quarries, and to transport gravel and rock therefrom to such municipal corporations, for the purpose of making, improving, and repairing roads.

Municipal corporations may acquire gravel beds and quarries.

§1. Any incorporated city or town in this state may acquire, lease, purchase, and operate any gravel-bed or quarry within the county where such city or town is situated, and may equip and operate a plant at such gravel-bed or quarry, or within such town or city, for the purpose of breaking, crushing, or otherwise preparing gravel or rock to be used in making, paving, improving, or repairing its streets. Any such city or town may acquire, lease, or purchase and maintain all necessary roads, rights of way and tramways over which to transport gravel or rock from such gravel-bed or quarry to such city or town, and all necessary appliances for that purpose.

Two-thirds vote necessary.

§2. No money shall be expended or expense incurred for any of the purposes set forth in section 1, unless the same is authorized at a regular meeting of the legislative body of such city or town, and by a vote of two-thirds of the members thereof.

§3. This act shall not extend or enlarge any limitation upon municipal taxation or the expenditure of municipal funds, now existing by reason of state laws or city charters in any of the cities or towns of this state.

ACT 2366.

An act to promote the protection of cities, towns, and municipal corporations from overflow by water and the drainage of the same, and for such purposes authorizing the incurring of indebtedness and the issuance of bonds therefor by the same, and providing for the disposition of the proceeds of such bonds, and for the supervision of the protective and other works.

§1. Any city, town, or municipal corporation incorporated under the laws of this state may, by procedure hereinafter prescribed, incur indebtedness and liability, although in excess of the income and revenue by it provided for the current fiscal year, but not so that the aggregate funded indebtedness thereof shall exceed six per cent of the assessed value of all the real and personal property in the municipality, for the purpose of protecting such city, town, or municipal corporation from overflow by water, and for the purpose of draining such city, town, or municipal corporation, and for the purpose of securing an outlet for such overflow water and drainage, or for any part of said purposes, whether by means of canals, ditches, levees, dikes, embankments, dams, and machinery and other like appropriate or ancillary means or works or any of the same, whether situated within or without the territorial limits of such city, town, or municipal corporation.

§ 2. The procedure mentioned in section 1 aforesaid shall be as follows, to wit: The city council or legislative body of such city, town, or municipal corporation shall, first, have made by some competent person general plans and estimates of the cost of such canals, ditches, levees, dikes, embankments, dams, machinery, and other means or works as may be contemplated, which general plans and estimates shall, after adoption, be filed in the office of the clerk of such municipality, and which general plans shall be substantially adhered to thereafter in proceedings under this act. Said city council or legislative body shall, secondly, after the filing of such general plans and estimates, and by resolution or ordinance passed at a regular meeting by a vote of two-thirds of all its members and approved by the executive of the municipality, determine, if so advised, that the public good demands the construction, acquisition, and completion, or either, of canals, ditches, levees, dikes, embankments, dams, machinery, and other like appropriate or ancillary means, or works, or any of the same, for any or all of the purposes mentioned in section 1 aforesaid; and shall further, by the same resolution or ordinance, determine, if so advised, that the cost of the same will be too great to be paid out of the ordinary income or revenue of the municipality; and such resolution or ordinance, shall, after its passage and approval, be published as hereinafter prescribed. Said city council or legislative body shall, within one month after the publication aforesaid, and by resolution or ordinance passed at a regular meeting by a vote of two-thirds of all its members, and approved by the executive of the municipality, call a special election, and submit to the qualified voters of such city, town, or municipal corporation the proposition to incur a debt for any or all of the purposes mentioned in section 1 aforesaid, and which have been as aforesaid determined to be demanded for the public good. The resolution or ordinance calling such special election shall specify the purpose for which the indebtedness is proposed to be incurred, the estimated cost of the things proposed, that bonds of the municipality will issue in the amount of such estimated cost, the number and character of such bonds, the rate of interest to be paid, and the amount of the tax levy for each year during the outstanding of such bonds to be made for their payment. Such last-named resolution or ordinance shall be published as hereinafter prescribed. Such city council or legislative body shall cause to be published, after the publication last named and prior to the day of holding such special election, a notice of the same, which notice shall set forth substantially all the matters contained in the aforesaid resolution or ordinance calling such special election.

§ 3. Every publication hereinbefore mentioned or required shall be in some newspaper published in such city, town, or municipal corporation; if in a daily paper in at least ten issues thereof, and if in a weekly paper at least two issues thereof; and no publication shall be deemed to have begun until any one required preceding the same shall have been completed.

§ 5. It shall require the votes of two-thirds of all the voters voting at such special election to authorize the incurring of any indebtedness or the issuance of any bonds under this act. If two-thirds of all the votes cast at such special election be in favor of the proposition submitted, the city council or legislative body may, by ordinance reciting the result of said election, provide for the issuance of the proposed bonds and any matter incidental thereto.

§ 6. All municipal bonds issued under this act shall be of the kind known as serials, and of such denominations as the city council or legislative body may determine; provided, that no bond shall be for less than one hundred dollars nor for more than one thousand dollars, and that not less than one-fortieth part of the whole indebtedness evidenced by the whole of the issue of such bonds shall be, by the terms of such bonds, made payable each and every year. Each bond shall be made payable either in gold coin or other lawful money of the United States as may be expressed in such bond, on a day and at a place designated therein, with interest at the rate specified therein, which rate shall not exceed seven per cent per annum, to be fixed by such city council or legislative body. Said place of payment shall be either at the office of the treasurer of the municipality, or at some designated bank in San Francisco, Chicago, or New York. Said bonds shall be executed on the part of such municipality by the mayor or other executive thereof, and by the treasurer thereof, and countersigned by the clerk of the municipality. The interest coupons shall be numbered consecutively and signed by the treasurer.

§ 7. Any of such bonds may be issued by the city council or legislative body of such city, town, or municipal corporation, and by the same sold, at not less than their face value; and the proceeds of such sale shall be deposited in the municipal treasury to the credit of a designated fund and be applied exclusively to the purposes and objects for which, as aforesaid, the electors have voted to incur indebtedness or liability, until such purposes and objects shall have been accomplished, after which, the surplus, if any, may be transferred to the general fund of the municipality.

§ 8. Such city council or legislative body shall, at the time of fixing the general tax levy, and in the manner for such general tax levy provided, levy and collect annually, each year, for the term of forty years, a tax sufficient to pay the annual interest on such bonds and also one-fortieth part of the aggregate amount of such indebtedness so incurred. The taxes herein required to be levied and collected shall be in addition to all other taxes levied for municipal purposes, and shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner as other municipal taxes are collected.

§ 9. The city council or legislative body of every city, town, or municipal corporation wherein or for which any public works or improvements are being had or constructed for the purposes hereinbefore specified, and for which indebtedness has been incurred under the provisions of this act, shall have power to make all needful rules and regulations for acquisition, construction, and completion of such works and improvements; to appoint all needful agents, superintendents, and engineers to supervise and construct the same, and shall have power in all lawful ways to protect and preserve the rights and interests of the municipality in respect thereof.

§ 10. All contracts as to said works and improvements shall be let, in such parcels as the city council or legislative body may determine, to the lowest responsible bidder, after notice given for at least ten days by publication in one or more newspapers published in the municipality, inviting sealed proposals. Security or bonds may be required in order to guarantee good faith in bidding and in the performance of contracts, or either, in such amount as such council or legislative body may determine, and such council or legislative body may reject any or all bids.

§ 11. The city council or legislative body of the municipality may, by resolution, if it deem the same necessary, require the treasurer of the municipality to give additional bonds for the safe custody and care of public funds derived under this act.

§ 12. The provisions of this act are intended to be paramount and controlling as to all matters provided for therein and as to all questions arising in or out of procedure thereunder.

§ 13. This act shall take effect from and after the time of its passage.

§ 2. Whenever the legislative branch of any city, town or municipal corporation shall, by resolution passed by vote of two-thirds of all its members and approved by the executive of said municipality, determine that the public interest or necessity demands the acquisition, construction or completion of any municipal improvement, including bridges, waterworks, water rights, sewers, light or power works or plants, buildings for municipal uses, wharves, schoolhouses, fire apparatus, and street work, or other works, property or structures necessary or convenient to carry out the objects, purposes and powers of the municipality, the cost of which will be too great to be paid out of the ordinary annual income and revenue of the municipality, it may at any subsequent meeting of such board, by a vote of two-thirds of all its members, and also approved by the said executive, call a special election and submit to the qualified voters of said city, town or municipal corporation the proposition of incurring a debt for the purpose set forth in said resolution, and no question other than the incurring of the indebtedness for said purpose shall be submitted; provided, that propositions of incurring indebtedness for more than one object or purpose may be submitted at the same election. The ordinance calling such special election shall recite the objects and purposes for which the indebtedness is proposed to be incurred, the estimated cost of the proposed public improvements, the amount of the principal of the indebtedness to be incurred therefor, and the rate of interest to be paid on said indebtedness, and shall fix the date on which such special election will be held, the manner of holding such election and the voting for or against incurring such indebtedness, and in all particulars not recited in such ordinance, such election shall be held as provided by law for holding municipal elections in such municipality; provided, however, that if the rate of interest to be paid on such indebtedness shall not exceed four and one-half per centum per annum, payable semi-annually, the rate of interest need not be recited in such ordinance, but in its discretion, the said legislative branch may recite in such ordinance a maximum rate of interest to be paid on such indebtedness, not exceeding six per centum per annum payable semi-annually, which rate when so recited, shall not be exceeded in the issuance of bonds for such indebtedness. [Amendment approved March 19, 1907. Stats. 1907, p. 609. In effect immediately.]

§ 3. Such ordinance shall be published once a day for at least seven days in some newspaper published at least six days a week in such municipality, or once a week for two weeks in some newspaper published less than six days a week in such municipality, and one insertion each week for two succeeding weeks shall be a sufficient publication in such newspaper published less than six days per week. In municipalities where no such newspaper is published, such ordinance shall be posted in three public places therein for two succeeding weeks. No other notice of such election need be given. It shall require the votes of two-thirds of all the voters voting at such special election to authorize the issuance of the bonds herein provided; provided, however, should the proposition so submitted at such election fail to receive the requisite number of votes of the qualified voters, voting at such election to incur the indebtedness for the purpose specified, the legislative branch of such municipality shall have no power or authority within one year after such election to call or order another election for incurring any indebtedness for improvements, substantially the same as voted upon at such prior election, unless a petition, signed by a majority of the taxpayers on the latest assessment-roll of such municipality, be filed with such municipality, requesting that such proposition or a proposition substantially the same be submitted at an election to be called for the submission of such proposition and to be held in accordance with the provisions of this act.

§ 4. No city, town or municipal corporation shall incur an indebtedness for public improvements which shall in the aggregate exceed fifteen per cent of the assessed value of all the real and personal property of such city, town or municipal corporation.

§ 5. All municipal bonds issued under the provisions of this act shall be payable substantially in the following manner: A part to be determined by the legislative body of the municipality, which shall be not less than one-fortieth part of the whole amount of such indebtedness, shall be paid each and every year on a day and date, and at a place within the United States, to be fixed by the legislative branch of the municipality issuing the bonds and designated in such bonds, together with the interest on all sums unpaid at such date; provided, however, that, in case of bonds issued for the acquisition, construction or completion of waterworks or light or power works or plants, or any other authorized revenue-producing public works, plant, utility or property, the legislative body of the municipality may, in its discretion determine and fix a date for the earliest maturity of the principal of such bonds not more than ten years from the date of the issue of such bonds, but, in this event, the whole amount of such indebtedness must be made payable in equal annual parts in not to exceed forty years from the time of contracting the same. The bonds shall be issued in such denominations as the legislative branch of the municipality may determine, except that no bonds shall be of a less denomination than one hundred dollars, nor of a greater denomination than one thousand dollars, and shall be payable on the day and at the place fixed in such bonds, and with interest at the rate specified in the bonds, which rate shall not be in excess of six per cent per annum, and shall be payable semi-annually, and said bonds shall be signed by the executive of the municipality, or by such other officer thereof, as the council, board of trustees, or other legislative body of the municipality shall, by resolution adopted by a two-thirds vote of all its members, authorize and designate for that purpose; and also signed by the treasurer thereof, and shall be countersigned by the clerk. The coupons of said bonds shall be numbered consecutively and signed by the treasurer.

In case of any of such officers whose signatures or countersignatures appear on the bonds or coupons shall cease to be such officer before the delivery of such bonds to the purchaser, such signatures or countersignatures shall nevertheless be valid and sufficient for all purposes the same as if they had remained in office until the delivery of the bonds. [Amendment approved March 25, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 720. In effect immediately.]

Also amended in 1907, Stats. 1907, p. 610.

§ 6. Such bonds may be issued and sold by the legislative branch of the city, town or municipal corporation as they may determine, but for not less than their par value, and the proceeds of such bonds shall be placed in the municipal treasury to the credit of the proper improvement fund, and shall be applied exclusively to the purposes and objects mentioned in the ordinance.

§ 7. The legislative branch of said city, town or municipality shall at the time of fixing the general tax levy, and in the manner for such general tax levy provided, levy and collect annually each year until said bonds are paid, or until there shall be a sum in the treasury of said city, town or municipality set apart for that purpose to meet all sums coming due for principal and interest on such bonds, a tax sufficient to pay the annual interest on such bonds, and also such part of the principal thereof as shall become due before the time for fixing the next general tax levy. Provided, however, that if the maturity of the indebtedness created by the issue of bonds be made to begin more than one year after the date of the issuance of such bonds, such tax shall be levied and collected at the time and in the manner aforesaid annually each year, sufficient to pay the interest on such indebtedness as it falls due, and also to constitute a sinking fund for the payment of the principal thereof on or before maturity. The taxes herein required to be levied and collected shall be in addition to all other taxes levied for municipal purposes, and shall be collected at the time and in the same manner as other municipal taxes are collected, and be used for no other purpose than the payment of said bonds and accruing interest. [Amendment approved March 19, 1907. Stats. 1907, p. 611. In effect immediately.]

§ 8. It shall be the duty of the legislative branch of every city, town or municipal corporation, wherein public improvements are being made under the provisions of this act, to make all needful rules and regulations for carrying out and maintaining such improvements, to appoint all needful agents, superintendents and engineers to properly look after the construction and operation of such public works, and in all lawful ways to protect and preserve the rights and interests of the municipality; provided, however, that in cities, towns, or municipalities operating under a charter heretofore or hereafter framed under section 8 of article 11 of the constitution, and having a board of public works, all the matters and things required in this section to be done and performed by the legislative branch of the municipality shall be done and performed by the board of public works of such city, town or municipality.

§ 9. All contracts for the construction or completion of any public work or improvement or for furnishing labor or materials therefor, as herein provided, shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder. The legislative branch of the municipality shall advertise for at least ten days in one or more newspapers published in the municipality, inviting sealed proposals for furnishing the labor and materials for the proposed work or improvement before any contract shall be made therefor. The said legislative branch shall have the right to require such bonds as they may deem best from the successful bidder to insure the faithful performance of the contract work, and shall also have the right to reject any and all bids; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as prohibiting the municipality itself from constructing or completing such works or improvements, and employing the labor necessary therefor; and provided further, that, in cities, towns or municipalities operating under a charter, heretofore or hereafter framed under section 8 of article 11 of the constitution and providing for a board of public works all the matters and things required in this section to be done and performed by the legislative branch of the municipality shall be done and performed by the board of public works of such city, town or municipality, and, in case such charter also prescribes the manner of letting and entering into contracts for the furnishing of labor, materials or supplies for the constructing or completion of public works or improvements, the contracts therefor shall be let and entered into in conformity with such charter. [Amendment approved March 19, 1907. Stats. 1907, p. 611. In effect immediately.]

§ 9½. Whenever the legislative branch of any municipality shall by resolution deem the expenditure of money raised by the sale of bonds under the terms of this act for the purpose for which said bonds were voted impracticable or unwise, said legislative branch of said city, town, or municipal corporation may call a special election to obtain the consent of the people of said city, town, or municipal corporation to use said money for some other specified municipal purpose. The ordinance calling such special election shall recite the new object or purpose for which the said money is proposed to be expended, and shall fix the date on which such special election will be held, the manner of holding such election and the voting for or against the expenditure of said money for said purpose, and in all particulars not recited in said ordinance such election shall be held as provided by law for holding of such municipal elections in such municipality. Such ordinance shall be published once a day for at least seven days in some newspaper published at least six days a week in such municipality, or once a week for two weeks in some newspaper published less than six days a week in such municipality, and one insertion each week for two succeeding weeks shall be a sufficient publication in such newspaper published less than six days per week. In municipalities where no such newspaper is published, such ordinance shall be posted in three public places therein for two succeeding weeks. No other notice of such election need be given. It shall require the votes of two-thirds of all the voters at such special election to authorize the expenditure of the money for the purpose mentioned in the ordinance calling said special election. [New section approved March 19, 1907. Stats. 1907, p. 634. In effect immediately.]

§ 10. Whenever the legislative branch of any municipality shall by resolution deem it necessary, they may require the treasurer of such municipality to give additional bonds for the safe custody and care of the public funds.

§ 11. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

§ 12½. All proceedings which may have been prior to the passage of this act, taken by any city, town or municipal corporation, incorporated under the laws of this state, in the manner prescribed by the said act of which this act is amendatory, for the incurring of indebtedness for the purpose of acquiring, constructing, completing or repairing any wharf or wharves, shall be and the same are hereby declared to be valid as fully as though the incurring of indebtedness for such purpose had been expressly authorized by said act, and any and all indebtedness incurred, or which may hereafter be incurred, by any such city, town or municipal corporation, or any bonds which may have been or may hereafter be issued pursuant to any such proceedings so taken or had shall be and the same are hereby declared to be valid, as fully as though the creation of said indebtedness or the issuance of said bonds had been expressly authorized by said act. [New section added March 18, 1907. Stats. 1907, p. 570. In effect immediately.]

The amendatory act of March 19, 1907. Stats. 1907, p. 609, contained the following section "§ 5. That nothing in this act contained shall be construed as affecting the issue or sale of bonds in pursuance of proceedings begun prior to the taking effect of this act and under the provisions of the act amended hereby."

ACT 2372.

An act authorizing cities, towns, and municipal corporations to establish and maintain public assembly or convention halls, and to incur indebtedness for such improvements.

§ 1. Any city, town, or municipal corporation in this state may acquire, by purchase, condemnation, or otherwise, all necessary land whereon to construct, and may construct and maintain thereon, a public assembly or convention hall, and may incur indebtedness, as hereinafter provided, to pay the cost of such improvement.

§ 2. Whenever the legislative body of any city, town or municipal corporation, shall, by resolution passed by a vote of a majority of its members, determine that the public interest or necessity demands the acquisition of the necessary land whereon to construct, and the construction or completion thereon, of a public assembly or convention hall, the cost of which will be too great to be paid out of the ordinary annual income and revenue of the municipality it may at any subsequent meeting of such body, by an ordinance, passed by a vote of two-thirds of all its members, call a special election, and submit to the qualified voters of said municipality, the proposition of incurring a debt for the purpose set forth in said resolution. The ordinance calling such special election shall recite the object and purpose for which the indebtedness is proposed to be incurred, the estimated cost of the proposed improvement, the amount of the principal of the indebtedness to be incurred therefor, and the rate of interest to be paid on said indebtedness; and shall fix the date on which such special election will be held, the manner of holding such election, and of voting for or against such proposition; and in all other particulars not recited in said ordinance, such election shall be held as provided by law for holding municipal elections in such municipality. Such ordinance shall be published once a day for a period of five days in a daily newspaper published in said municipality, or once a week for three successive weeks in a weekly newspaper published in said municipality. No other notice of such election need be given.

§ 3. It shall require the votes of two-thirds of all the voters voting at such special election to authorize the issuance of the bonds herein provided for.

§ 4. No city, town, or municipal corporation shall incur an indebtedness under the provisions of this act, which together with all other indebtedness of said city, town, or municipal corporation, shall, in the aggregate, exceed fifteen per cent of the assessed value of all the real and personal property in said city, town or municipal corporation.

§ 5. All bonds issued under the provisions of this act shall be issued, sold, and made payable, in the manner and form prescribed for the issue, sale, and payment of municipal bonds, by an act entitled, "An act authorizing the incurring of indebtedness by cities, towns, and municipal corporations for municipal improvements, and regulating the acquisition, construction, or completion thereof," which became a law, under the provisions of the constitution, without the governor's approval, February 25, 1901.

§ 6. The proceeds of the sale of bonds issued under the provisions of this act shall be placed in the municipal treasury to the credit of a fund to be known as the public hall fund, and shall be applied, exclusively, to the purpose and object mentioned in the ordinance.

§ 7. The legislative body of said municipality shall, at the time of fixing the general tax levy, and in the manner for such general tax levy provided, levy and collect, annually, each year until said bonds are paid, a tax sufficient to pay the annual interest and the part of the principal of such bonds, that shall become due before the time for fixing the next general tax levy. and is not at the time of fixing such annual tax levy, otherwise provided for by funds then in the treasury and set apart for that purpose. The taxes herein required to be levied and collected shall be in addition to all other taxes levied for municipal purposes, and shall be collected at the same time, and in the same manner as other municipal taxes are collected, and be used for no other purpose than the payment of said bonds and accruing interest.

§ 8. All moneys derived from the use or hire of such assembly or convention hall shall be deposited in the treasury of the municipality to the credit of said public hall fund, and shall be applied, exclusively, to the following purposes, to wit:

First—For the necessary expenses of conducting, maintaining, and insuring such hall, and of making all improvements and repairs thereof.

Second—For the payment of installments of interest or principal becoming due on said bonds until the whole of said bonded indebtedness shall have been paid.

Third—Any surplus remaining after providing for the purposes, first and second above specified, may be appropriated and used for general municipal purposes.

§ 9. The legislative body of any city, town, or municipal corporation wherein bonds have been issued for the construction or completion of a public assembly or convention hall, under the provisions of this act, shall have the power to appoint and employ all needful architects, engineers, superintendents, and agents, to prepare plans for the construction or completion of such public assembly or convention hall, and to superintend such work. All contracts for the construction or completion of such public assembly or convention hall, or for the furnishing of labor or materials therefor, shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder. The legislative body of the municipality shall advertise for at least ten days in one or more newspapers published in such municipality, inviting sealed proposals for the construction or completion of said improvement, or for the furnishing of labor and materials therefor before any contracts shall be made. The said legislative body shall have the right to require from the successful bidder, such bonds as they may deem best to insure the faithful performance of his contract. They shall also have the right to reject any and all bids. Said legislative body shall have power to appoint such officers, or agents, and to make and enforce such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the management, control, letting, and use of such public assembly or convention hall; provided, however, that in cities, towns, or municipal corporations, operating under a charter, heretofore or hereafter framed under section 8 of article 11 of the constitution, and providing for a board of public works, all matters and things required in this section to be done and performed by the legislative body of the municipality, shall be done and performed by said board of public works; provided, further, that in cities, towns, or municipal corporations not having such board of public works, the legislative body may, by ordinance, appoint a commission to select the site for said hall, to have charge and supervision of its construction, and to manage and control the letting and use thereof, and may, by ordinance, prescribe and regulate the powers and duties of said commission.

Alteration of boundaries of incorporated towns or cities.

§ 1. The boundaries of any incorporated town or city, whether heretofore or hereafter formed, incorporated, reincorporated, organized, or reorganized, may be altered, and new territory annexed thereto, incorporated and included therein, and made a part thereof, upon proceedings being had and taken as in this act provided. The council, board of trustees, or other legislative body of any such municipal corporation, upon receiving a written petition therefor containing a description of the new territory asked to be annexed to such corporation, and signed by not less than one-fifth in number of the qualified electors of such municipal corporation, computed upon the number of votes cast at the last general municipal election held therein, must, without delay, submit to the electors of such municipal corporation, and to the electors residing in the territory proposed by such petition to be annexed to such corporation, the question whether such new territory shall be annexed to, incorporated in, and made a part of said municipal corporation. Such question shall be submitted at a special election to be held for that purpose, and no other; and such legislative body is hereby empowered to, and it shall be its duty to cause notice to be given of such election by the publication of a notice thereof in a newspaper printed and published in such municipal corporation, and also in a newspaper, if any such there be, printed and published outside of such corporation, but in the county in which the territory so proposed to be annexed is situated, in each case at least once a week for a period of four successive weeks next preceding the date of such election. Such notice shall distinctly state the proposition to be submitted, i. e., that it is proposed to annex to, incorporate in, and make a part of such municipal corporation the territory sought to be annexed, specifically describing the boundaries thereof; and in said notice the qualified electors of said municipal corporation, and the qualified electors residing in said territory so proposed to be annexed, shall be invited to vote upon such proposition by placing upon their ballots the words "For annexation" or "Against annexation," or words equivalent thereto. Such legislative body is hereby empowered, and it shall be its duty, to establish, and in such notice of election designate the voting precinct or precincts, and the place or places at which the polls will be opened in such territory so proposed to be annexed, and also in such municipal corporation. And such place or places shall be that or those commonly used as voting places within such municipal corporation, and also that or those commonly used within such new territory, if any such there be. Such legislative body is empowered to, and it shall, appoint the officers of such election, who shall be, for each voting place in such municipal corporation, and for such voting place in said new territory, two judges and one inspector, each of whom shall be a qualified elector of the voting precinct in which he is appointed to act as an officer of such election. The ballots used at such election, the opening and closing of the polls, and the holding and conducting of such election, shall be in conformity, as far as may be, with the general laws of this state concerning elections; and the judges and inspectors of such election shall immediately on the closing of the polls, count the ballots, make up and certify the tally-sheets of the ballots cast at their respective polling-places, seal, and then immediately return the same as below provided, doing so, as nearly as practicable, in the manner provided in the election laws of this state; but the ballots, tally-sheets, and returns shall be so returned to and deposited with the clerk of such legislative body. Such legislative body shall, at the time provided for its regular meeting next after the expiration of three days from and after the date of said election, meet and proceed to open and canvass said ballots, tally-sheets, and returns; and such canvass shall be completed at such meeting, if practicable, and in any event, as soon as practicable, avoiding adjournment or adjournments, if possible, until said canvass is completed. Such canvass by such legislative body shall be conducted and completed as follows: The ballots cast in such outside territory so proposed to be annexed, together with the tally-sheets and returns belonging therewith, shall be canvassed separately; and the ballots cast inside of said municipal corporations, together with their tally-sheets and returns, shall be canvassed separately. Immediately upon the completion of such canvass said legislative body shall cause a record thereof to be made and entered upon its minutes, showing the whole number of ballots cast in such outside territory, the whole number of ballots cast in such municipal corporation, the number thereof cast in each in favor of annexation, and the number thereof cast in each against annexation; and if it shall appear from such canvass that a majority of all the ballots cast in such outside territory, and a majority of all the ballots cast inside of said municipal corporation, are in favor of annexation, the clerk, or other officer performing the duties of clerk, of such legislative body, shall promptly make and certify, under the seal of said municipal corporation, and transmit to the secretary of state, a copy of said record so entered upon said minutes, together with a statement showing the date of said election and the time and result of said canvass, which document shall be filed by the secretary of state immediately upon the receipt thereof. From and after the date of the filing of said document in the office of the secretary of state, the annexation of such territory so proposed to be annexed shall be deemed and shall be complete, and thenceforth such annexed territory shall be, to all intents and purposes, a part of such municipal corporation, except only that no property within such annexed territory shall ever be taxed to pay any portion of any indebtedness or liability of such municipal corporation contracted prior to or existing at the time of such annexation. No territory which, at the time such petition for such proposed annexation is presented to such legislative body, forms any part of any incorporated town or city, shall be annexed under the provisions of this act.

Altering boundaries of wards.

§ 2. The legislative body of any incorporated town or city which is or shall be divided into wards, and to which territory has been heretofore or shall be hereafter annexed, must by ordinance either so alter the boundaries of the wards of such municipal corporation as to include such annexed territory in one or more wards adjoining such annexed territory, or make of such annexed territory one or more additional wards; provided, that the number of wards shall not be so increased as to exceed the number which such municipal corporation may according to law have. In altering the boundaries of wards, or creating new wards, regard must be had to the number of inhabitants, so that each ward shall contain, as near as may be, an equal number of inhabitants, exclusive of persons incapable of citizenship in this state.

§ 3. Nothing in this act provided for shall alter or affect the boundaries of any senatorial or assembly district.

Expenses, how paid.

§ 4. All proper expenses of proceedings for annexation of territory under this act, whether such annexation shall be made and completed or not, shall be paid by the municipal corporation so annexing or attempting to annex such territory. In the event that a tax for road purposes has been levied by the board of supervisors of any county against property situate in territory which, subsequent to such levy, is annexed by any town or city under the provisions of this act, but which, at the time of such annexation has not been collected, then all such taxes so uncollected shall be and become the property of the town or city to which such territory is annexed, and same shall, with other county taxes, be collected by the county tax collector, and by him paid into the county treasury of said county, after which the same shall, by the county treasurer, be paid to such town or city, upon proper warrant therefor. The town or city clerk, or other officer performing the duties of clerk of such town or city, shall, at any regular meeting of the board of supervisors of said county, present, and file a verified claim for any money thus due such town or city, setting forth the fact, and the date of such annexation, and the amount in the hands of said county treasurer so due such town or city. Said claim shall be audited by the board of supervisors in the manner in which other claims against the county are audited, and if the amount thereof is correct, the same shall be allowed, and the county auditor instructed to draw his warrant for said amount against the road fund of the district in which such annexed territory is situated. This law shall apply to all such taxes not paid into the county treasury prior to the passage of this act. [Amended 1905, p. 551; took effect immediately.]

§ 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its approval.

There was also passed at the same session the following act:

ACT 2375.

An act to provide for changing the boundaries of cities and municipal corporations, and to exclude territory therefrom.

Exclusion of territory and changing boundaries of municipal corporations.

§ 1. The boundaries of any city or municipal corporation may be altered, and territory excluded therefrom after proceeding had, as required in this section. The council, board of trustees, or other legislative body of such corporation, shall, upon receiving a petition therefor, signed by not less than a majority of the qualified electors thereof, as shown by the vote cast at the last municipal election held therein, submit to the electors of such corporation the question whether such territory as is proposed by such petition shall be excluded from such municipal corporation and cease to be a part thereof. Such question shall be submitted at a special election to be held for that purpose, and such legislative body shall give notice thereof by publication in a newspaper printed and published in such corporation for a period of four weeks prior to such election. Such notice shall distinctly state the proposition to be so submitted, and shall designate specifically the boundaries of the territory so proposed to be excluded. And the electors shall be invited thereby to vote upon such proposition by placing upon their ballots the words "For exclusion" or "Against exclusion," or words equivalent thereto; such legislative body shall also designate the place or places at which the polls will be opened in such territory so proposed to be excluded, which place or places shall be that or those usually used for that purpose within such territory, if any such there be, and for the purposes of this act, the qualified electors residing in the territory proposed to be excluded shall be entitled to vote at the polls in such territory, and not elsewhere. Such legislative body shall also appoint and designate in such notice the names of the officers of election. Such legislative body shall meet on the Monday next succeeding the day of such election, and proceed to canvass the votes cast thereat. The votes cast in such territory so proposed to be excluded shall be canvassed separately, and if it shall appear on such canvass that a majority of all the votes cast in such territory, and a majority of all the votes in such corporation, shall be for exclusion, such legislative body shall, by an order entered upon their minutes, cause their clerk, or other officer performing the duties of clerk, to make and transmit to the secretary of state a certified abstract of such vote, which abstract shall show the whole number of electors voting in such territory, the whole number of electors voting in such corporation, exclusive of such territory, the number of votes cast in each for exclusion, and the whole number of votes cast in each against exclusion. From and after the date of filing such abstract, such exclusion of territory from such municipal corporation shall be deemed complete, and thereafter such territory shall cease to be a part of such municipal corporation; provided, that nothing contained in this act shall be held to relieve in any manner whatsoever any part of such territory from any liability for any debt contracted by such municipal corporation prior to such exclusion; and provided further, that such municipal corporation is hereby authorized to levy and collect from any territory so excluded, from time to time, such sums of money as shall be found due from it on account of its just proportion of liability for any payment on the principal or interest of such debts. Such assessment and collection shall be made in the same manner and at the same time that such assessment and collection is levied and made upon the property of such municipal corporation for any payment on account of such debts; and provided further, that any such territory so excluded from any municipal corporation may at any time tender to the legislative body of such municipal corporation the amount for which such territory is liable on account of such debts, and after such tender is made, such authority as is herein given such municipal corporation to levy and assess taxes on such excluded territory shall cease; provided, however, that after an election shall have been held for the exclusion of any portion of a municipal corporation, if the vote shall be against exclusion, no election for the exclusion of the same territory shall again be held within three years from the date of such former election. [Amended 1905, p. 715.]

Confirming conveyance of property for charitable or educational purposes.

§1. Wherever the city council or trustees of any city of less than fifty thousand inhabitants, or of any incorporated town, has by deed of trust conveyed property, or any portion thereof, that has been set apart for a public park, to trustees, for charitable or educational uses, such conveyance is hereby ratified and confirmed; provided, that no institution now existing or to be established on such property shall be private in its benefits, or sectarian in its work or teachings, or be to any extent under the management or control of or in any way tributary to any religious creed or order, church, or sectarian denomination whatsoever; provided further, that land so conveyed shall be kept open as public grounds by the trustees of such institutions as are or may be placed thereon, and that the public visitation of such grounds shall not be restricted, excepting by such reasonable regulations as park property and the proper maintenance of such institutions may require; provided, further, that property so conveyed shall revert to the grantors, whenever and so far as the grantees do not use the same in accordance with the stipulations of the deed of trust and with the requirements of this statute.

§2. This act shall take effect immediately.

ACT 2383.

An act to provide for the consolidation of municipal corporations.

Consolidation of municipalities, proceedings for.

§1. Two or more municipal corporations, each one of which is contiguous to the other, or to one of the others of said municipal corporations, either one or more of which shall be incorporated under general laws, or operating under a freeholders' charter, may become consolidated into one municipal corporation, to be thereafter governed in the name and under the general municipal incorporation law, or freeholders' charter, as the case may be, under which the greater or greatest in population of such municipal corporations, as shown by the last federal census, may be governed, pursuant to proceedings had and taken in accordance with the provisions of this act. If any one or more of said municipal corporations shall have been incorporated subsequent to the taking of the last federal census, the greater or greatest in population of such municipal corporations shall, for the purposes of this act, be deemed to be the municipal corporation in which the larger or largest vote was cast at the last preceding general state election.

Submission of question to electors. Special election.

§ 2. The council, board of trustees, or other legislative body of the one of said municipal corporations having the greater or greatest population, ascertained as hereinbefore provided, shall, upon receiving a petition therefor, signed by not less than one-fifth of the qualified voters of each of said municipal corporations designated in said petition and proposed to be consolidated, as shown by the total number of votes cast at the last preceding general state election in each of said municipal corporations respectively, forthwith submit to the qualified electors of each of such corporations the question whether such municipal corporations shall become consolidated into one municipal corporation, to be governed in the name, and under the freeholders' charter, or as a city of the class under the general municipal incorporation law, as the case may be, under which the greater or greatest in population of such municipal corporations, ascertained as hereinbefore provided, may be governed at the time such petition is so received. Such legislative body shall designate a day upon which a special election shall be held in each of such municipal corporations so proposed to be consolidated for the purpose of submitting to the qualified electors of each of said municipal corporations the question whether such consolidation shall be effected, and shall cause written notice that such petition has been received, and of the date of such election, to be given by the clerk thereof to the council, board of trustees, or other legislative body of each of the other of such municipal corporations.

It shall thereupon be the duty of the legislative body of each of the municipal corporations so proposed to be consolidated to forthwith give notice of such election by publication in a newspaper printed, published and circulated in such municipal corporation, and designated for that purpose, by such legislative body, if any such newspaper be printed and published therein, at least once a week for four successive weeks prior to such election. If there be no newspaper printed, published and circulated in any one or more of such municipal corporations, the legislative body thereof shall cause such notice to be posted in three of the most public places in such municipal corporation in which there is no such newspaper for at least four weeks prior to such election. Such notice shall distinctly state the proposition so to be submitted, the names of the municipal corporations so proposed to be consolidated, the date of such election, which date shall be within twenty days after the expiration of the publication or posting of such notice, and shall be the same for all such municipal corporations so proposed to be consolidated. The legislative body of each such municipal corporation shall establish, and in such notice of election shall designate the election precinct or precincts for said special election and the place or places at which the polls therefor will be opened in each municipal corporation proposed to be consolidated respectively; and in establishing such election precincts, such legislative body may consolidate the precincts which existed in such municipal corporation for the holding of the last preceding general state election, into special election precincts and to a number not exceeding three for each such special election precinct, and shall number such special election precincts so established consecutively, and each such special election precinct so established shall, for the purpose of such election, be known by the number so designated. Such notice shall direct the electors of each municipal corporation so proposed to be consolidated to vote upon the proposition of such proposed consolidation in the manner hereinafter provided. The legislative body of each such municipal corporation shall appoint officers of election from the registered electors of each precinct, or special election precinct, so established, as aforesaid, whose names appear upon the last assessment-roll of such municipal corporation, to serve as election officers only in the election precinct in which they are registered and actually reside, to constitute the election board for such precinct, which shall consist of two judges and one inspector. Upon the ballots to be used at such election there shall be printed the words "for consolidation," and "against consolidation," in separate lines, and there shall be a voting square at the right of and opposite to each such proposition. If an elector shall stamp a cross (X), in the voting square after and opposite to the printed words "for consolidation," his vote shall be counted in favor of consolidation; if he shall stamp a cross (X) in the voting square after and opposite to the printed words against consolidation, his vote shall be counted against consolidation. The ballots used at such election, the opening and closing of the polls, and the holding and conducting of such election shall be in conformity, as near as may be, with the general laws of this state concerning general elections, except as herein provided.

The judges and inspectors of each such election precinct shall immediately on the closing of the polls canvass the ballots, make up and certify the tally-sheets of the ballots cast at their respective polling-places, seal up, and immediately return the ballots and tally-sheets as hereinafter provided. As soon as all the ballots are counted and sealed up, a statement must be attached to the tally-sheets showing the total number of votes cast, the number of votes cast in favor of consolidation, the number of votes cast against consolidation in each such election precincts and such statement must be signed by the members of the election board. The ballots and tally-sheets and returns shall be delivered to and deposited with the clerk of the legislative body of the municipal corporation, which received the petition hereinbefore mentioned, and submitted the question of such consolidation. In all particulars except as hereinbefore provided said canvass shall be conducted and said ballots and tally-sheets shall be returned as provided by law for general elections. The legislative bodies of each of such municipal corporations so proposed to be consolidated shall meet in joint convention at the regular place of meeting of the legislative body of the one of such municipal corporations that received the petition hereinbefore mentioned and submitted such question of consolidation as hereinbefore provided, on the Monday next succeeding the day of such election at the hour of ten o'clock A. M. of said day, for the purpose of canvassing the returns of said election and certifying the result thereof; provided however, that the presence of a majority of the members of each of such legislative bodies at such joint convention shall constitute a quorum thereof, and shall be sufficient to enable such joint convention to perform the duties herein prescribed. The president of the council, board of trustees, or other legislative body of the municipal corporation in which such joint convention is held, shall be ex-officio president of such joint convention, and the city clerk of such municipal corporation shall be ex-officio the clerk thereof. Such joint convention shall at the time hereinbefore appointed, meet and proceed to canvass said returns, and such canvass shall be completed at such meeting if practicable, and in any event, within three days thereafter. Such canvass by such joint convention shall be conducted and completed as follows: The returns of the votes cast in each such municipal corporations shall be canvassed separately, and in such order as said joint convention, by a majority vote, shall direct. Immediately upon the completion of such canvass said joint convention shall cause a record thereof to be made and entered upon its minutes, showing the total number of votes cast in each such municipal corporation, the number thereof cast in each in favor of consolidation, and the number thereof cast in each against consolidation. If it shall appear from such canvass that a majority of the votes cast in each such municipal corporation shall be in favor of such consolidation, such joint convention, by an order entered upon its minutes shall declare the result and cause the clerk thereof to make an original abstract of the result of such election in each such municipal corporation, which abstract shall show the total number of votes cast at such election in each such municipal corporation, the number of votes cast in each for consolidation, and the number of votes cast in each against consolidation. Said abstract shall be signed by the president of such joint convention, and attested by the clerk thereof, under the seal of the municipal corporation in which such joint convention shall be held. Said clerk shall also make certified copies of such abstract equal in number to the number of municipal corporations in which such election was held; one of which he shall file in his office, as city clerk of the municipal corporation in which such joint convention was held, and the other certified copies of such abstract shall be delivered one to each of the clerks of the other municipal corporations in which such election was held, within three days after the completion of such canvass by such joint convention; and the same shall be presented to the legislative body of each such municipal corporations by the clerk thereof at its next regular meeting after the delivery thereof to him, as aforesaid, and recorded upon the minutes of such legislative body. The clerk of such joint convention shall keep a record of its proceedings, and upon the completion of such canvass shall file such record in his office, as clerk of the municipal corporation in which such joint convention shall be held. Upon the recording of such abstracts in the minutes of the legislative body of each municipal corporation, the clerk thereof shall certify that fact to the city clerk of the municipal corporation in which such joint convention was held, who shall transmit to the secretary of state the said original abstract of the result of said election, made and signed as hereinbefore provided, and said original abstract shall be filed by the secretary of state in his office immediately upon receiving the same, and a certificate of the filing of such original abstract in his office shall be by the secretary of state transmitted forthwith to the clerk of the municipal corporation in which such joint convention was held.

In the event that the one of such municipal corporations so proposed to be consolidated, having the greater or greatest population ascertained as hereinbefore provided, shall be operating under a freeholders' charter, such consolidation shall be deemed to be completed, and such municipal corporations shall be deemed to be consolidated into a new municipal corporation upon the filing of such original abstract in the office of the secretary of state, as aforesaid; and thereupon, said freeholders' charter shall ipso facto be and become the charter of such consolidated municipal corporation, which shall operate and be governed as a new municipal corporation in the name of and under such freeholders' charter of the one of such municipal corporations so consolidated having the greater or greatest population, and the other or others of the municipal corporations so consolidated shall be ipso facto dissolved, and discontinued, and any freeholders' charter thereof shall be deemed to be surrendered and annulled. And upon the completion of such consolidation, such other or others of the municipal corporations so consolidated shall be deemed to be annexed to and joined to and merged into the one of said municipal corporation so operating under a freeholders' charter and having the greater or greatest population, as aforesaid.

In the event that the one of such municipal corporations so proposed to be consolidated, having the greater or greatest population, ascertained as hereinbefore provided, shall not be operating under a freeholders' charter, and the electors of all such municipal corporations proposed to be consolidated shall vote in favor of consolidation, and all other acts and proceedings for the consolidation of such municipal corporations into one municipal corporation shall have been severally, duly and regularly done and performed as hereinbefore provided, and the original abstract mentioned in this section of this act shall have been filed in the office of the secretary of state as aforesaid, thereupon the legislative body of the one of such municipal corporations so proposed to be consolidated having the greater or greatest population, shall proceed to call a special election to be held in all the municipal corporations so proposed to be consolidated, for the election of the officers required by law to be elected in corporations of the class to which the consolidated municipal corporation shall belong when such consolidation is completed. Such election shall be held within ninety days after the filing of such original abstract in the office of the secretary of state, as hereinbefore provided, and shall be called and conducted in all respects in the manner prescribed, or that may hereafter be prescribed by law for municipal elections in municipal corporations of such class.

The returns of such election shall be canvassed by the legislative body calling the same at its next regular meeting after such election, in the manner provided by law, and upon the completion of such canvass shall declare the result thereof, and cause the same to be entered upon its minutes. From and after the date of such entry, such consolidation shall be deemed to be completed, and such municipal corporation shall be deemed to be consolidated into a new municipal corporation; and thereupon such new corporation shall be governed in the name of and under the general law applicable to municipal corporations of the class to which such new corporation shall belong, with the powers conferred, or that may be hereafter conferred upon municipal corporations of such class. The officers elected at such election shall be entitled immediately to enter upon the duties of their respective offices, upon qualifying in accordance with law, and shall hold said offices respectively only until the next general municipal election to be held in such municipal corporation, and until their successors are elected and qualified.

Titles to municipal property. Vested rights. Officers. Debts. Ordinances.

§ 3. Any municipal corporation created by the consolidation of municipal corporations under the provisions of this act, shall for all purposes be deemed and taken to be the successor of the several municipal corporations so consolidated therein; and the title to any property owned or held by any such municipal corporations or in trust therefor, or by any officer or board of any such municipal corporations, in trust or otherwise for public use, shall, upon such consolidation being completed, as hereinbefore provided, ipso facto be vested in such new municipal corporation, or any officer or board thereof which has the power to hold, or control such property under the freeholders' charter, or other law under which the greater or greatest in population of the municipal corporations so consolidated was theretofore governed.

That upon the completion of such consolidation, if the greater or greatest population of such municipal corporations so consolidated be operated under a freeholders' charter, all persons then in possession or occupancy of the several offices in each of the other municipal corporations so consolidated, shall immediately quit and surrender the possession of such offices, which shall thereupon cease and determine, and they shall forthwith deliver all moneys, funds, books, papers, archives, and records in their official custody, and all other property of such municipal corporations in their hands, or under their control to the proper officers under the freeholders' charter of such greater or greatest municipal corporation; and if the greater or greatest in population of such municipal corporations so consolidated be theretofore organized and existing under the general municipal incorporation laws of this state, all persons then in possession or occupancy of the several offices and in each of the municipal corporations so consolidated, shall, upon the completion of such consolidation, immediately upon the entry of the officers of the new municipal corporation created by such consolidation, upon the duties of their respective offices as hereinbefore provided, deliver all moneys, funds, books, papers, archives, and records in their official custody, and all other property of such municipal corporations in their hands, or under their control, to the proper officers of such new municipal corporation.

That any consolidation of municipal corporations effected under the provisions of this act shall not affect any debts, demands, liabilities or obligations of any kind existing in favor of or against any such municipal corporations so consolidated, at the time of such consolidation or any action or proceeding then pending in any court in which any such debt, demand, liability or obligation of any kind may be involved, or any action or proceeding brought by or against any such municipal corporation prior to such consolidation; but all such proceedings shall be continued and concluded, by final judgment or otherwise, in all respects the same as if such consolidation had not been effected. All ordinances of any municipal corporations consolidated under the provisions of this act, except those of the one having the greater or greatest population shall immediately, upon such consolidation being effected, be deemed to be repealed and of no further force and effect; provided, however, that such repeal shall not operate to discharge any person, from any liability, civil or criminal, then existing, nor to affect any prosecution then pending for any violation of any such ordinances; and all cases then pending in any justices' court, police court or court of any recorder, or other judicial municipal magistrate or officer of any of the municipal corporations so consolidated, except of the one having the greater or greatest population shall, upon such consolidation being effected be deemed ipso facto to be transferred to justices' court, police court or court of any recorder, or other judicial municipal magistrate or officer of the one of such municipal corporations of the greater or greatest population having jurisdiction of proceedings or misdemeanors or of other actions civil or criminal of the character so transferred; provided further, that such repeal shall not apply to ordinances under which vested rights have accrued, or to ordinances relating to proceedings for street or other public improvements, or to proceedings for opening, extending, widening or straightening streets or other public places, or to proceedings for changing the grade thereof, all of which proceedings shall be continued and conducted by and under the authority of the new consolidated municipal corporation, with the same force and effect as if continued and conducted by and under the authority of the municipal corporation by which they were commenced. And all ordinances of the one of the municipal corporations consolidated under the provisions of this act having the greater or greatest population, shall, upon the completion of such consolidation, ipso facto have full force and effect in and throughout the new consolidated municipal corporation.

Provision for payment of debts.

§ 4. That no property in either of the municipal corporations consolidated under the provisions of this act shall ever be taxed to pay any portion of any indebtedness or liability of any of the other such municipal corporations, contracted or incurred prior to or existing at the time of such consolidation. The legislative body of any consolidated municipal corporation, consolidated under the provisions of this act, shall provide for the payment of the indebtedness or liability of each of the municipal corporations consolidated therein and shall levy and collect the necessary taxes therefor, and for that purpose, and for all other purposes, such consolidated municipal corporation and its officers shall be deemed the successor and successors of such municipal corporations so consolidated and their respective officers.

Boroughs, right to establish.

§ 5. In the event that the greater or greatest in population of any municipal corporations, consolidated under the provisions of this act, shall be operating under a freeholders' charter, which charter shall at any time provide that a borough or boroughs may be established in any territory, or incorporated city or town, annexed to or joined to such municipal corporation, such borough or boroughs to be governed as in such charter provided; nothing in this act contained shall prevent or be construed to prevent any other municipal corporation, or any portion thereof so consolidated with the municipal corporation so operating under such freeholders' charter, from becoming a borough under such freeholders' charter, to be established and governed as therein provided.

Expenses of consolidation.

§ 6. All proper expenses of proceedings for the consolidation of municipal corporations under this act, shall, if such consolidation be made and completed, be paid by the consolidated municipal corporation; and if such consolidation be not completed, each municipal corporation shall pay the expenses of calling and holding said election within such corporation.

§ 7. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

ACT 2384.

An act authorizing municipal corporations, other than freeholder charter cities, to change their names, and providing the procedure therefor.

[Approved March 3, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 138.]

§ 1. The name of any city or municipal corporation within this state, except a freeholder charter city, may be changed upon proceedings taken as in this act provided. The council board of trustees or other legislative body of such corporation, shall, upon receiving a petition asking that the name of the city be changed, and stating the name to which it is proposed to change it, signed by not less than fifty per cent of the qualified electors thereof, as shown by the vote cast at the last municipal election held therein, submit to the electors of such corporation the question whether the name shall be changed as proposed in such petition. Such questions shall be submitted at a special election to be held for that purpose, and such legislative body shall give notice thereof by publication at least once a week for a period of four weeks, prior to such election, in a newspaper printed and published in such corporation.

Such notice shall distinctly state the proposed name, and the electors shall be invited thereby to vote for or against such proposed change of name. If upon canvassing the votes cast at such election it is found that two-thirds of the total number of votes so cast are in favor of the proposed change of name, the board of trustees shall file a statement of the holding of such election and the result thereof, with the secretary of state, and also the board of supervisors of the county in which the city or municipal corporation is situated, and from thenceforth and thereon the name shall be changed to that proposed at the said election.

§ 2. If upon canvassing the votes cast at such election it is found that two-thirds of the total number of votes so cast are not in favor of such change of name, no further proceedings shall be had for a term of ten years thereafter.

§ 3. In all other respects not recited herein, the election herein mentioned, shall be held as provided by law for holding municipal elections in such municipality.

§ 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

ACT 2385.

An act approving leases heretofore made by counties or municipalities of certain lands belonging to the state.

§ 1. In all cases in which any county or municipality in the state of California has, prior to the first day of January, 1907, and subsequent to the first day of January, 1901, leased to any person or persons any tide or submerged lands belonging to the state, within the municipal boundaries of such county or municipality, or within boundaries over which it was at the time of any such lease, acting in the exercise of de facto authority, the exclusive right to the use and possession of such lands from the date of such lease, for the full term thereof, not exceeding fifty (50) years in any case, is hereby confirmed in the lessee or lessees thereof and their successors in interest; and priority in date of any such leases shall give priority in right; provided, that nothing in this act contained shall be deemed or taken to confirm any such leases, unless the property therein described shall at all times during the continuance of such leases be applied by the lessees, or their successors in interest, to public or quasi-public uses; and provided further, that within one (1) year from the date this act shall take effect said lessee or lessees, or their successors in interest, shall commence in good faith the improvement of said premises for the purposes aforesaid and shall prosecute the same to completion with reasonable diligence; and provided, further, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to extend or revive any lease which by its terms has expired, nor to apply to any interest or claim of interest other than under a lease.

§ 2. This act shall take effect and be in force upon its passage.

ACT 2386.

An act authorizing any incorporated town, city or municipal corporation to permit the construction and maintenance of any state or county highway or boulevard over highways or streets in its incorporated limits, or any portion thereof, by the supervisors or highway commissioners of the county.

[Approved March 19, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 429.]

§ 1. Any incorporated city, town or municipal corporation in this state, is hereby authorized and empowered to permit by ordinance the use of its streets and highways by the board of supervisors or highway commissioners of the county, for the purpose of constructing and maintaining thereon any highway or boulevard as part of a state or county system of roads through its incorporated limits, or any portion thereof.

ACT 2387.

An act authorizing municipal corporations, counties, and cities and counties to acquire and hold lands by purchase or otherwise, or by lease for a term of years, for the purpose of developing and encouraging agricultural, horticultural, or botanical products and exhibiting the same, or for the purpose of erecting, rebuilding or furnishing historical museums or art galleries thereon.

§ 1. Any municipal corporation, county, or city and county in this state is hereby authorized and empowered to acquire and hold by purchase or otherwise, or by lease, lands situated within the limits thereof, for a term not exceeding fifty years, for the purpose of developing and encouraging agricultural, horticultural, or botanical products and for exhibiting the same, or for the purpose of erecting, rebuilding or furnishing historical museums or art galleries thereon under such terms and conditions as may be approved by the city council, board of trustees, or other legislative body of such municipal corporation, or by the board of supervisors of such county or city and county.

§ 2. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act, are hereby repealed.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

ACT 2388.

An act granting to municipal corporations of the state of California, rights of way over public lands of the state for the location, construction and maintenance of waterworks and power plants; and the right to take material from such lands for the construction of such works and to take any waters belonging to the state for the purpose of supplying any such municipality and its inhabitants with water.

Grant of rights of way over state lands. Right to take waters.

§ 1. That there is granted to every municipal corporation of the state of California, the right of way for the location, construction and maintenance of waterworks and works for the generation and distribution of electrical power, and for every necessary adjunct thereto, over any swamp, overflowed, or other public lands of the state, not otherwise disposed of or in use, not in any case exceeding in length or width that which is necessary for the construction of such works or adjuncts, or for the protection thereof, and not, in any case, exceeding one hundred feet in width along each side of the marginal limits of such works or adjuncts; also the right to take from any of the lands belonging to the state adjacent to the works of such corporation, all materials, such as wood, stone and earth, naturally appurtenant thereto, which may be necessary and convenient for the original construction of such works and adjuncts; and also the right to take any waters belonging to the state, not otherwise disposed of, now or hereafter flowing or existing in any stream or lake intersected, crossed, or tapped by said waterworks, so far as may be necessary to give such municipality and its inhabitants an ample supply of water for all municipal, domestic, irrigation and manufacturing purposes. Whenever any municipal corporation shall desire to take any of the said waters so belonging to the state, for the purposes mentioned in this act, the legislative authority thereof shall cause a notice that said municipal corporation intends to take such waters, to be posted and recorded in the manner provided in section 1415 of the Civil Code of California. Said notice shall be signed in the corporate name of such municipal corporation by its mayor, or other officer, authorized so to do by the legislative authority thereof. In taking any of said waters, under this act, such municipal corporation shall comply with and be subject to all the provisions of title VIII, sections 1410 to 1422, inclusive, of said Civil Code; provided however, that for the purpose of the taking of any of said waters by such municipal corporation, under the provisions of this act, the words "waterworks," as used herein, shall be construed to be the works by which such municipal corporation proposes to convey said waters, so taken from such stream or lake, to the place of intended use and store the same; and provided further, that the construction of said waterworks shall be deemed to be included in, and to be a part of, the construction of the works in which said municipal corporation intends to divert said waters, within the meaning of section 1416 of the said Civil Code.

Change of route, reversion of lands.

§ 2. If the route or location of any such works or adjuncts is changed so as not to cover or cross the lands selected, or the use of the land selected is abandoned, such selected lands revert, and the title thereto is reinvested in the state or its grantees free from all such uses.

Plat of lands to be furnished certain officers.

§ 3. When any selection of the right of way or land for such water-works or adjuncts thereto is made by any municipal corporation, the legislative authority thereof must transmit to the surveyor general, controller of state and recorder of the county, in which the selected lands are situated, a plat of the lands so selected, giving the extent thereof and the uses for which the same is claimed or desired, duly verified to be correct, and if approved, the surveyor general must so indorse the plat and issue to the corporation a permit to use such right of way and lands, unless on petition properly presented to a court of competent jurisdiction, a review is had and such use prohibited.

§ 4. This act shall take effect immediately.

ACT 2389.

An act authorizing municipal corporations to permit other municipal corporations to construct and maintain sewers, water-mains, and other conduits therein, also to construct and maintain sewers, water mains, and other conduits for their joint benefit, and at their joint expense, and to make and enter into contracts for said purposes.

§ 1. That any municipal corporation, under such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by the city council, or other legislative body thereof, is hereby authorized and empowered to permit any other municipal corporation to construct and maintain sewers, water mains or other conduits in, across, or along the streets and other public places of such municipal corporation, and to use the same for such purposes, under the provisions of this act, and not otherwise.

§ 2. Whenever the city council, or other legislative body of any municipal corporation, shall find, and by resolution shall declare, that the location of such municipal corporation, or any portion of the territory included therein, is such that the same cannot be adequately or conveniently provided with sewers, water mains or other conduits, without the construction and maintenance by such municipal corporations, of certain sewers, water mains, or other conduits connecting therewith, in, across, or along certain streets, or other public places of any other municipal corporation, or corporations, such city council, or other legislative body, may cause a copy of such resolution to be submitted to the council, or other legislative body of such other municipal corporation or corporations in which such streets or other public places are situated. Said resolution shall contain a description of the sewers, water mains, or other conduits proposed to be constructed and maintained in such other municipal corporation or corporations, and shall designate the streets, or other public places thereof, in, across or along which such sewers, water mains, or other conduits are so proposed to be constructed and maintained. Said resolution shall be accompanied by a request in writing, that the municipal corporation on behalf of which the same is made, signed by the clerk thereof, be granted permission to construct and maintain the sewers, water mains or other conduits described in said resolution. The city council, or other legislative body of any municipal corporation receiving such request and a copy of such resolution may by ordinance grant such permission at its discretion, and under such terms and conditions as it shall therein prescribe. If the permission granted under the provisions of this section shall be for the construction and maintenance of sewers, the city council, or other legislative body of any municipal corporation granting the same may, as a condition to the exercise of such permission, require that said municipal corporation shall have the right to connect its sewers with the sewers to be constructed under such permission, and to use the same in connection with its sewer system, upon the payment by it of such proportionate part of the cost of construction and maintenance of such sewers to the municipal corporation by which the same shall be constructed, as may be determined by resolutions of the city councils, or other legislative bodies, of both municipal corporations; such payment to be so made at such times and in such amounts as may be so determined.

§ 3. All contracts for the construction or completion of any sewers, water mains or other conduits, or for furnishing labor or materials therefor, to be constructed by any municipal corporation in, across or along the streets of any other municipal corporation or corporations, as herein provided, shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder. The city council or other legislative body of the municipal corporation so constructing such sewers, water mains or other conduits, under permission granted as in this act provided, shall advertise for at least ten days in one or more newspapers published in such municipal corporation, inviting sealed proposals for furnishing the labor and materials for the proposed work before any contract shall be made therefor. The said city council, or other legislative body, shall require such bonds as it may deem best from the successful bidder to insure the faithful performance of the contract work, and shall also have the right to reject any and all bids; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as prohibiting such municipal corporation itself from constructing or completing such works, and employing the labor necessary therefor, without such advertisement for proposals or letting of a contract; and provided, further, that in any municipal corporation operating under a freeholders' charter, heretofore or hereafter framed under section 8 of Article XI of the constitution, and providing for a board of public works, all the matters and things required in this section to be done and performed by the city council, or other legislative body of such municipal corporation, shall be done and performed by the board of public works thereof; and provided, further, that in case such charter or general law under which such municipal corporation is operating or existing, prescribes the manner of letting and entering into contracts for the furnishing of labor, materials or supplies, for the construction or completion of public works or improvements, the contracts for such sewers, water mains, or other conduits shall be let and entered into in conformity with such charter or general law.

§ 4. Whenever the councils, or other legislative bodies of two or more municipal corporations shall find, and by resolutions adopted by them shall declare, that it will be for the interest or advantage of such municipal corporations so to do, such municipal corporations, by their respective city councils, or other legislative bodies, may enter into a joint agreement authorizing the construction and maintenance of sewers, water mains, or other conduits situated in the streets or other public places of either or any of such municipal corporations, or in part outside of the limits thereof, at the joint cost and expense of, and for the joint use and benefit of such municipal corporations, upon such terms and conditions, and under such regulations, as may be approved by the city councils or other legislative bodies of all such municipal corporations; and the city council or other legislative body of each such municipal corporation may bind and obligate such municipal corporation to pay such proportionate part of the cost of the construction and maintenance of such sewers, water mains, or other conduits at such times and in such installments as may be so approved. All contracts for the construction of sewers, water mains or other conduits, under the provisions of this section shall be made and entered into by the one of such municipal corporation designated by the city councils or other legislative bodies of all such municipal corporations, and in the manner provided in section 3 of this act. Two or more municipal corporations may also, by their city councils, or other legislative bodies, enter into an agreement or agreements with each other for the joint use by such municipal corporations of any sewers, water mains, or other conduits theretofore, in whole or in part, constructed in the streets or other public places of either or any such municipal corporations, upon such terms and conditions as they may, by mutual agreement made by their respective city councils, or other legislative bodies, determine to be proper.

TITLE 334.

MUNICIPAL WATER DISTRICTS.

ACT 2390.

An act to provide for the incorporation, organization and management of municipal water districts.

[Approved April 26, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 1097.]

Municipal water district.

§ 1. A municipal water district may be organized, and incorporated and managed as herein provided and may exercise the powers herein expressly granted or necessarily implied.

Ordinance, what must recite.

§ 2. When any municipality in the state of California desires to organize such a municipal water district, as herein provided for, the legislative body of any municipal corporation, at any regular meeting of such body, may pass an ordinance reciting:

1. The name of the city adopting the ordinance;
2. That the public interest requires the incorporation of a municipal water district;
3. The names of the municipalities which it is desired to include within the district;
4. The name of the district which shall include the words "municipal water district."

Copy to other municipalities.

§ 3. Within ten days after such ordinance becomes a law the clerk of the said legislative body adopting the same shall transmit by registered mail a certified copy thereof to the legislative body, or bodies, of the other municipalities named therein, addressed to the clerk thereof.

Approval by other municipalities.

§ 4. Within forty days after the receipt of such certified copy of such ordinance by any municipality named therein the legislative body thereof shall by ordinance either approve or disapprove the said ordinance without alteration or amendment; a failure on the part of any municipality to act as herein provided shall be deemed a refusal to approve of such ordinance.

Copy to initiating municipality.

§ 5. After the passage of said ordinance required to be passed by section 4 hereof the clerk of the municipality acting thereon shall forthwith forward a certified copy of such ordinance to the municipality initiating the proceedings.

Fixing time for election.

§ 6. Within thirty days after the receipt of all the ordinances passed by the municipalities named in the initiatory ordinance, if it shall appear that said initiatory ordinance has been approved by all of the municipalities named therein, the legislative body of the municipality initiating the proceeding shall fix a day for holding a special election in each of the municipalities that have approved of said ordinance at which shall be submitted to the electors thereof the proposition of organizing such municipal water district, and shall also provide for holding a similar election within its own municipality; in case the initiatory ordinance has not been approved by all of the municipalities named therein no further proceedings shall be had, but new proceedings may be taken as provided in section 2.

Conduct of election. Ballots. Returns.

§ 7. The date fixed for such special election shall be certified to all of the municipalities which may have adopted the ordinance herein provided for and the legislative body, or bodies, of such municipalities which shall have approved said ordinance shall call and provide for the holding of a special election in their respective municipalities on the day so fixed, and such election shall be held and conducted in manner and form as required by law for the holding of special elections within such municipalities, and the cost in each municipality of holding such election shall be paid by the municipality within which it is held. The ballots used at such election shall contain the words: "Proposition to organize a municipal water district (stating the name)," and the words "Yes" and "No," so placed that a voter may indicate his wish in this connection as either in favor of, or against said proposition; such ballots shall be counted and returns thereof made by the boards selected to conduct such election in time, form and manner as required by law for the holding of special elections within municipalities and shall be canvassed and the result thereof declared and determined by the board or officers charged with such duties within the municipality holding the election.

Certificate of result.

§ 8. Within ten days after the canvass of the votes cast at such election, the board or officers canvassing the same shall certify the result thereof to the legislative body of the municipality initiating the proceedings.

Certificate to secretary of state.

§ 9. Within thirty days after the receipt of the certificates showing the result of the election held in the several municipalities, if it appears therefrom that the proposition submitted has been approved by a majority of the votes cast on said proposition in each municipality wherein such election is held, the legislative body of the municipality receiving such certificates shall certify to the secretary of state the passage of the ordinance provided for in section 2, its subsequent approval by the several municipalities approving the same in manner aforesaid and the result of the elections held as herein provided.

Certificate by secretary of state.

§ 10. Upon the receipt of the certificate mentioned in the foregoing section, the secretary of state shall, within ten days, issue his certificate reciting that the municipal water district (naming it) has been duly incorporated according to the laws of the state of California and that such district is composed of the municipalities of _____ (naming all the municipalities which have approved at the election such organization). A copy of such certificate shall be transmitted to each of the municipalities comprising such district. From and after the date of such certificate the district named therein shall be deemed incorporated as a municipal water district with all the rights, privileges and powers set forth in this act and necessarily incident thereto.

Informality of proceedings.

§ 11. No informality in any proceeding or informality in the conduct of any election, not substantially affecting adversely the legal rights of any citizen, shall be held to invalidate the incorporation of any municipal water district, and any proceeding wherein the validity of such incorporation is denied shall be commenced within three months from the date of the certificate of incorporation, otherwise said incorporation and the legal existence of said municipal water district and all proceedings in respect thereto shall be held to be valid and in every respect legal and incontestable.

Power of water district.

§ 12. Any municipal water district incorporated as herein provided shall have power:

1. To have perpetual succession;
2. To sue and be sued, except as otherwise provided herein or by law, in all actions and proceedings in all courts and tribunals of competent jurisdiction;
3. To adopt a seal and alter it at pleasure;
4. To take by grant, purchase, gift, devise or lease, hold, use, enjoy, and to lease or dispose of real and personal property of every kind within or without the district, necessary to the full exercise of its powers;
5. To acquire, or contract to acquire, lands, rights and privileges, and construct, maintain and operate conduits, pipe lines, reservoirs, works, machinery and other property useful or necessary to store, convey, supply or otherwise make use of water for the benefit of the district;
6. To sell water under the control of the district to the municipalities comprising the same without preference to such municipalities; and it may, whenever there is a surplus above that which may be required by such municipalities, sell, or otherwise dispose of such surplus outside of the district to persons, firms, public or private corporations;
7. To have and exercise the right of eminent domain and in the manner provided by law for the condemnation of private property for public use, to take any property necessary to supply the district or any portion thereof with water, whether such property be already devoted to the same use or otherwise, and may condemn any existing waterworks or system, or any portion thereof owned by any person or corporation. In proceedings relative to the exercise of such right, the district shall have the same rights, powers and privileges as a municipal corporation;
8. To borrow money and incur indebtedness and to issue bonds or other evidences of such indebtedness; also to refund or retire any indebtedness or lien that may exist against the district or property thereof;
9. To cause taxes to be levied for the purpose of paying any obligation of the district;
10. To make contracts, to employ labor and do all acts necessary for the full exercise of the foregoing powers.

Board of directors.

§ 13. The powers herein enumerated shall, except as herein otherwise provided, be exercised by a board to be known as the board of directors of the named municipal water district. Such board shall be composed as follows:

1. The mayor, or president of the board of trustees of each municipality comprising the district shall be, ex-officio, a member of said board.

2. Each municipality having five thousand legal and registered voters shall choose by and from the members of its legislative body one additional director and each municipality for each and every ten thousand legal and registered voters over five thousand shall choose by and from the members of its legislative body one additional director, all of whom shall serve during the pleasure of the body making the appointment; provided, that if such members do not desire to serve as such directors, said legislative body may choose any other person who is an elector and resident of such municipality. The number of legal and registered voters in each municipality on the first day of November, 1908, and every four years thereafter shall be taken as the basis for determining the representation of such municipality in the board of directors.

Meeting of board of directors.

§ 14. The legislative body of the municipality initiating the proceedings for incorporating the district shall fix a time and place for the first meeting of the board of directors, which shall be within thirty days from the date of the incorporation of the district.

Commissioners.

§ 15. At such meeting of the directors or at such time to which the proceedings may be continued, the board of directors shall choose three commissioners who shall constitute the commissioners of the named water district, but no director shall be eligible to appointment to such commission. The said commissioners shall have the power to make and enter into all contracts, appoint a secretary, who may be a member of the commission, and such other assistants and employees as may be necessary for the exercise of the powers of the district, to fix their compensation, prescribe their duties and remove any appointee at pleasure, and to generally manage its affairs, subject to such restrictions as the board of directors may impose. The commissioners shall receive such compensation as the board of directors shall determine and shall serve during its pleasure.

Directors, organization and per diem.

§ 16. The board of directors shall elect one of its number president, adopt rules of procedure and fix a time and place for holding regular meetings. The secretary of the commission shall act as secretary of the board of directors. The directors shall receive for each day's attendance at the meetings of the board their necessary expenses of attending the meeting and shall receive no other compensation.

Commissioners, organization. Funds of district.

§ 17. The commissioners shall elect one of its members president, who shall sign all contracts on behalf of the district and perform such other duties as may be imposed by the commissioners or the board of directors. They shall appoint an auditor, who shall not be a member of the board of directors, and who shall be charged with the duty of installing and maintaining a system of auditing and accounting that shall completely and at all times show the financial condition of the district. He shall draw warrants to pay demands made against the district when such demands have been first approved by at least two of the commissioners. The commissioners shall also designate a depository or depositaries to have the custody of the funds of the district, all of which depositaries shall give security sufficient to secure the district against possible loss, and who shall pay the warrants drawn by the auditor for demands against the district under such rules as the directors may prescribe.

Bonded indebtedness.

§ 18. Whenever the board of directors deem it necessary for the district to incur a bonded indebtedness it shall, by resolution, so declare and state the purpose for which the proposed debt is to be incurred and the amount thereof, and shall direct the commissioners to take, or cause to be taken, such proceedings as may be necessary to incur such debt and in the manner herein provided.

Duty of commissioners Fix date of election. Notice of.

§ 19. The commissioners shall adopt a resolution reciting the adoption of the resolution mentioned in the foregoing section, state the proposition to be submitted to the electors, the amount of debt proposed to be incurred, the maximum term the bonds proposed to be issued shall run before maturity, which shall not exceed forty years, and the maximum rate of interest to be paid, which shall not exceed five per cent per annum.

They shall fix a date upon which an election shall be held for the purpose of authorizing said bonded indebtedness to be incurred, and shall transmit a certified copy of the resolution fixing such date to the officers or board having charge of the conduct of elections of each municipality comprising the district. It shall be the duty of such board or officers in each municipality to provide for holding such special election on the day so fixed and in the manner and form as special elections are held and conducted within the municipality.

Such board or officers shall give notice of the holding of such election, which notice shall contain the resolution adopted by the commissioners of the water district, the location of polling places and the names of the officers selected to conduct the election, which shall consist of one judge, one inspector and two clerks. Such notice shall be published for two weeks in a newspaper published in each municipality, which paper shall be designated by the commissioners of the water district, or if there is no newspaper printed in any municipality, then by posting such notice in three public places therein. All the expenses of holding such election shall be borne by the district and shall be paid or credited to each city upon the filing of a verified claim therefor with the secretary of the commission. The returns of such election shall be made, the votes canvassed and the results thereof ascertained and declared as in case of other special elections within such municipalities. The board, or officers, declaring the results of such election shall certify such result to the commissioners of the water district. No irregularities or informalities in conducting such election shall invalidate the same, if the election shall have otherwise been fairly conducted. In all respects not otherwise provided for herein said election shall be called, managed and directed as is by law provided for special elections in the municipality in which such election is to be held.

Form of bonds.

§ 20. If from such returns it appears that more than two-thirds of the votes cast at such election were in favor of and assented to the incurring of such indebtedness, then the commissioners may, by resolution, at such time or times as they may deem proper, provide for the form of such bonds and for the issuance of any part thereof, as may sell or dispose of the bonds so issued at such times or in such manner as they may deem to be to the public interest.

Status of bonds.

§ 21. Any bonds issued by any district are hereby given the same force, value and use as bonds issued by any municipality and shall be exempt from all taxation within the state of California.

Power to construct works.

§ 22. The commissioners shall have power to construct works across any stream of water, watercourse, street, avenue, highway, railway, canal, ditch, or flume which the route of said works may intersect or cross, provided such works are constructed in such manner as to afford security for life and property, and said commissioners shall restore the crossings and intersections to their former state as near as may be, or in a manner not to have impaired unnecessarily their usefulness. Every company whose right of way shall be intersected or crossed by said works shall unite with said commissioners in forming said intersections and crossings and grant the rights therefor. The right of way is hereby given, dedicated and set apart to locate, construct and maintain said works over and through any of the lands which are now or may be the property of this state and to have the same rights and privileges appertaining thereto as have been or may be granted to the municipalities within the state.

Control of distributing systems.

§ 23. The commissioners shall have no supervision or control of any of the distributing systems of the several municipalities, but the distribution of water in said municipalities, the fixing of rates and collecting of charges therefor shall be under the exclusive supervision and control of each such municipality, and the control of the district shall end with the delivery of water to the several municipalities at the point of delivery by said district; provided, that until a municipality shall acquire a distributing system the district may own and lease the same to the municipality upon such terms as may be mutually agreed upon.

Estimate of cost of organization.

§ 24. Immediately after the organization of the board an estimate may be prepared of the probable amount of water that will be used by the several municipalities comprising said district which estimate shall be based upon the population of said municipalities, and thereafter the board may, in lieu of the other methods of procuring funds herein provided, notify the several municipalities of the estimated probable cost of the organization and conduct of such district, exclusive of the purchase of lands and the construction of works, canals and reservoirs, and the proportionate amount payable from each of such cities, whereupon each of such municipalities shall be required to contribute to said district its proportionate amount of the cost of organization of said district; provided that the sums so paid by each of such municipalities shall be credited to the municipality making the payment and the same deducted from the charge for water first delivered to said municipality as herein provided.

Water rates.

§ 25. The commissioners, in the furnishing of water to any municipality, shall fix such rate as will pay the operating expenses of the district, provide for repairs and depreciation of works owned or operated by it, pay the interest on any bonded debt, and, so far as possible, provide a sinking or other fund for the payment of the principal of such debt as it may become due; it being the intention of this section to require the district to pay the interest and principal of its bonded debt from the revenues of the district.

Tax to cover bonded debt.

§ 26. If, from any cause, the revenues of the district shall be inadequate to pay the principal or interest on any bonded debt as it becomes due, then the board of directors may cause a tax to be levied for that purpose as herein provided.

Tax rate to be levied.

§ 27. That board of directors shall require a report from the several municipalities forming the district, showing the amount of the assessment-roll of each such municipality for the current fiscal year. The board of directors shall determine the amount necessary to be raised by taxation, and shall apportion such amount among the several municipalities constituting the district according to the ratio which the value of all property assessed in each municipality bears to the total value of all property assessed in all such municipalities and shall fix a rate of tax to be levied which will raise the amount of money required by the district. The commissioners shall thereupon, and within a reasonable time previous to the time when such municipality is required by law governing such municipality to fix its tax rate, certify to the taxing body of each municipality the rate so fixed with a direction that at the time and in the manner required by law for the levying of taxes for municipal purposes, such municipality shall levy and collect a tax, in addition to such other tax as may be levied by such municipality, at the rate so fixed and determined, and it is made the duty of the officer or body having authority to levy taxes within such municipalities to levy the tax so required. And it shall be the duty of all municipal officers charged with the duty of collecting taxes, to collect such tax in time, form and manner as municipal taxes are collected and when collected, to pay the same to the district ordering its levy and collection. Such tax shall be a lien on all property within the municipalities comprising the district and of the same force and effect as other liens for taxes, and its collection may be enforced by the same means as provided for the enforcement of liens for state and municipal taxes.

Exclusion of municipality.

§ 28. Any municipality which may have become a part of said water district, as hereinbefore provided, may be excluded therefrom upon request of a majority of the electors of said municipality expressed in a special election called for that purpose by the legislative body of said municipality in accordance with the provisions herein, so far as the same are applicable for the holding of special elections; provided, that if any objection is made to said exclusion by an ordinance of the legislative body of any of the other municipalities comprising said district, which said ordinance if it is passed must be passed within ten days after receiving from the legislative body of the municipality proposing to withdraw from the water district a certified copy of resolution or ordinance of intention to withdraw, then the commissioners of said district shall call a special election, as hereinbefore provided, for the purpose of submitting to the electors of the various municipalities the question whether said municipality may be excluded from said district. The commissioners shall ascertain the result of said election as certified by the proper officer or body of each of the municipalities comprising said district and voting thereat, and if a majority of all votes cast in the district shall be in favor of the exclusion of said municipality they shall certify the same and enter the result upon the minutes of the commissioners and from and after the date of such entry such municipality shall be excluded from the district, but such exclusion shall not operate to release it from any liability for the payment of any bonded debt incurred while it was a part of such district.

Inclusion of municipality.

§ 29. Whenever a petition is presented to the commissioners from any municipality asking that said municipality be made a part of said district and become subject to the privileges and provisions of this act, said commissioners may, in their discretion, pass a resolution authorizing the inclusion of said municipality, notice of which shall be mailed to the proper officer of each of the municipalities included in the district and if no objection is made thereto by the legislative body of any municipality then comprising said district within thirty days after the receipt of such notice then the legislative body of said municipality so petitioning to be included in said district shall call a special election as provided herein for the purpose of submitting to the electors of said municipality the question whether or not said municipality shall join and become a part of said district. If a majority of the votes cast at the election shall be in favor of the municipality joining and becoming a part of said district the same shall be certified to the commissioners of the district, who in turn shall certify the same to the secretary of state and thereafter said municipality shall be a part of said district and entitled to all the privileges and subject to all the obligations of this act.

Meaning of certain words.

§ 30. Nothing in this act shall be construed as repealing or in any wise modifying the provisions of any other act relating to water or the supply of water to, or the acquisition thereof by municipalities within this state. The term "municipality" as used in this act shall include a consolidated city and county, city or town, and the word "district" shall apply, unless otherwise expressed or used, to a water district formed under the provisions of this act, and the word "board" and the words "board of directors" shall apply to the board of directors of such district, and the word "commissioners" shall apply to the commissioners of such water district, and the commissioners shall be regarded as a board of commissioners.

§ 31. This act shall take effect from and after its passage and approval.

TITLE 354.NUISANCES.*ACT 2506a.

An act declaring property infested with certain rodents to be a public nuisance; requiring owners, occupants, and persons having possession of or dominion over such property to endeavor to exterminate and destroy such rodents; providing for the inspection of property by boards of health and health officers; authorizing boards of supervisors and other governing bodies to purchase materials and employ inspectors to prosecute such work of extermination; authorizing state and local health authorities to prosecute such work in certain cases; providing for the payment of the expense thereof; making the amount of such expense a lien on the property; providing for the collection of such amount by foreclosure of such lien; and declaring any violation of the provisions thereof to be a misdemeanor.

Duty of persons to exterminate rodents.

§ 1. It shall be and is hereby declared to be the duty of every person, firm, copartnership, company and corporation, owning, leasing, occupying, possessing or having charge of or dominion over, any land, place, building, structure, wharf, pier, dock, vessel or water craft, which is infested with rats, mice, gophers or ground squirrels, or as soon as the presence of the same shall come to his, their, or its knowledge, at once to proceed and to continue in good faith to endeavor to exterminate and destroy such rodents, by poisoning, trapping, and other appropriate means.

State board of health, authority of.

§ 2. The state board of health and inspectors appointed by such board, and local health officers and inspectors appointed for the purpose, as hereinafter provided, shall have authority and shall be permitted to enter into and upon any and all lands, places, buildings, structures, wharves, piers, docks, vessels and water craft, for the purpose of ascertaining whether the same are infested with such rodents and whether the requirements of this act as to the extermination and destruction thereof are being complied with; provided, however, that no building occupied as a dwelling, hotel or rooming-house, shall be entered for such purpose except between the hours of 9 o'clock in the forenoon and 5 o'clock in the afternoon of any day.

Supervisors may appropriate moneys.

§ 3. The board of supervisors of each county and the city council or other governing body of each city and county, city and town, whenever it may by resolution determine that it is necessary for the preservation of the public health or to prevent the spread of contagious or infectious disease, communicable to mankind, or when such board shall so determine that it is necessary to prevent great and irreparable damage to crops or other property, may appropriate money for the purchase of, and may purchase, poison, traps and other materials for the purpose of exterminating and destroying such rodents, in such county, city and county, city or town, and may employ and pay inspectors, who shall have authority to and shall prosecute such work of extermination and destruction, under the direction of such board, or of the local health officer, or board of health, on both private and public property, in such county, city and county, city or town.

Refusal to exterminate. Expense of extermination. Sale of Property.

§ 4. Whenever any person, firm, copartnership, company or corporation, owning, leasing, occupying, possessing or having charge of or dominion over, any land, place, building, structure, wharf, pier, dock, vessel or water craft, which is infested with such rodents, shall fail, neglect or refuse to proceed and to continue to endeavor to exterminate and destroy such rodents, as herein required, it shall be the duty of the state board of health, its inspectors and the local board of health and health officer, at once to cause such nuisance to be abated by exterminating and destroying such rodents. The expense thereof shall be a charge against the county, city and county, city or town, wherein the work is done, and the board of supervisors or other governing body shall allow and pay the same. Thereupon, the clerk of such board shall file in the office of the county recorder a notice of such payment, claiming a lien on such property for the amount of such payment. Any and all sums so paid by such county, city and county, city or town, shall be a lien on the property on which said nuisance shall have been abated, and may be recovered in an action against such property, which action to foreclose such lien shall be brought, within ninety days after such payment, and be prosecuted by the district, city or town attorney, in the name of such county, city and county, city or town, and for its benefit. When the property is sold, enough of the proceeds shall be paid into the treasury of such county, city and county, city or town, to satisfy such lien and the costs, and the overplus, if any there be, shall be paid to the owner of the property, if known, and if not known shall be paid into court for the use of such owner when ascertained. When it appears from the complaint in such action that the property on which such lien is to be foreclosed is likely to be removed from the jurisdiction of the court, the court may appoint a receiver to take possession of the property and hold the same while the action may be pending or until the defendant shall execute and file a bond, with sufficient sureties, conditioned for the payment of any judgment that may be recovered against him in the action and all costs.

Penalty.

§ 5. Any violation of the provisions of this act shall be deemed a misdemeanor and shall be punishable as such.

TITLE 355.

NURSING.

ACT 2508a.

An act to promote the better education of practitioners of nursing the sick in the state of California, to provide for the issuance of certificates of registration as a registered nurse to qualified applicants by the board of regents of the University of California, and to provide penalties for violation hereof.

§ 1. Commencing in the month of July, 1905, and at least semi-annually thereafter, the board of regents of the University of California shall hold, or cause to be held, such examination or examinations as they may deem proper to test the qualifications and fitness of applicants for certification and registration as registered nurses within the state of California. Such examinations shall be practical in character, and a reasonable notice designating the time and place thereof must be given by publication in at least two daily papers published within the state of California.

§ 2. All applicants for examination must furnish satisfactory evidence of good moral character and of having complied with the provisions of this act relative to qualifications; and any examiner may inquire of any applicant for examination concerning his or her character, qualifications or experience, and may take testimony in regard thereto, under oath, which he is hereby empowered to administer.

§ 3. All persons satisfactorily passing such examinations shall be granted by the board of regents of the University of California, a certificate stating that he or she is a registered nurse within the state of California, and shall thereafter be known and styled as a registered nurse. The secretary of the said board of regents shall keep in his office a book showing the names of all persons to whom certificates as registered nurses have been granted. Graduates of all training schools for nurses which shall have been approved by the said board of regents may be certified as registered nurses, without examination, at any time within three years after the passage of this act, upon payment of the fee prescribed in section four hereof.

§ 4. Every person applying for examination, or for registration as a registered nurse, shall pay to the secretary of the said board of regents a fee of five dollars, which shall in no case be refunded. A certificate of registration shall be void three years after the date thereof, but a new certificate may be issued to the holder upon the payment of a fee of one dollar. All expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of this act shall be paid from the fees and fines collected hereunder, and the surplus receipts, if any, shall be used to provide for education in nursing.

§ 5. (I) No person shall be eligible for examination or for registration as a registered nurse who shall not furnish satisfactory evidence of having graduated, from a nurses' training school: (a) that is attached to a reputable hospital; (b) that gives a general training and a systematic, theoretical and practical course of study covering a period of at least two years; (c) and that has been approved by the board of regents of the University of California.

(II) After January 1, 1908, no person shall be eligible for examination or for registration as a registered nurse, unless:

(a) He or she is at least twenty-one years of age;

(b) He or she is a graduate of a training school approved by the board of regents of the University of California, and after said date no school shall be approved or remain on the list of schools approved by said board of regents, unless it is attached to a general hospital, and its course requires a three years' training in that hospital; provided, that a training school approved as aforesaid may graduate students who have spent a year therein subsequent to completing a two years' course in the training school attached to a special hospital.

(III) After January 1, 1910, no person shall be eligible for examination or for registration unless he or she furnishes satisfactory evidence of having substantially completed the course of studies pursued in the grammar schools of the state of California, or an equivalent course.

§ 6. The board of regents of the University of California shall have power to revoke any certificate of registration for incompetency, dishonesty, intemperance, immorality or unprofessional conduct, after a full and fair investigation of the charges preferred against the accused. Prior to such hearing a written copy of such charges shall be furnished to the accused, who shall have at least twenty days' notice in writing of the time and place where such charge will be heard and determined.

§ 7. Any person procuring registration under this act, by false representation or who shall refuse to surrender a certificate of registration which has been revoked as set out in this act, or who shall use the title of "registered nurse," or append the letters "R. N." or any other words, letters or figures to indicate that the person using the same is a registered nurse, unless such person shall be lawfully entitled so to do, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than five days nor more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment; provided, however, that nothing in this act contained shall be construed to prohibit or affect that gratuitous nursing of the sick, nor to nursing the sick for hire by a person who does not in any way assume to be a registered nurse.

TITLE 359.

OIL.

ACT 2556.

An act to prevent injury to oil or petroleum-bearing strata or formations by the infiltration or intrusion of water therein. [Approved March 24, 1903. Stats. 1903, p. 399.]

Repealed 1909, p. 586.

ACT 2557.

An act to prevent injury to oil, gas or petroleum-bearing strata or formations by the penetration or infiltration of water therein.

§ 1. It shall be the duty of the owner of any well now drilled or that may be drilled in the state of California on lands producing or containing oil, gas or petroleum, to properly case such well or wells, with metal casing in accordance with most approved methods, and to effectually shut off all water overlying or underlying the oil-bearing strata and to effectually prevent any water from penetrating such oil-bearing strata.

§ 2. It shall be the duty of the owner of any well referred to in section 1 of this act, before abandoning the same to withdraw the casing therefrom, and to securely fill such well with clay, earth or cement mortar, or other good and sufficient materials, used alone or in suitable combination, and thoroughly pack and tamp the same into such well to a point as far above the upper oil-bearing strata as the commissioner hereinafter provided for may decide shall be necessary, and while withdrawing the casing therefrom to effectually and permanently shut off and exclude all water underlying and overlying said oil-bearing strata, and to the satisfaction of the commissioner, whether any oil-bearing strata has been encountered or not.

§ 3. It shall be the duty of the owner of any well referred to in section 1 of this act, to keep a careful and accurate log of the drilling of such well, such log to show the character and depth of the formations passed through or encountered in the drilling of such well, and particularly to show the location and depth of the water-bearing strata, together with the character of the water encountered from time to time, and to show at what point such water was shut off, if at all, and if not to so state in such log, and show the depth at which oil-bearing strata is encountered, the depth and character of the same, and whether all water overlying and underlying such oil-bearing strata was successfully and permanently shut off so as to prevent the percolation or penetration into such oil-bearing strata; said record of well to be kept on file and subject to the inspection of hereinafter mentioned commissioner at any time during business hours.

§ 4. The term "owner" as herein used shall mean and include each and every person, persons, partnership, copartnership, association or corporation owning, leasing, managing, operating, drilling or possessing any well mentioned in sections 1 and 2 of this act, either as principal or principals, lessee or lessees of such principal or principals, contractor or contractors, and their and each of their employees. The term "oil-bearing strata" as herein used shall mean and include any bed, seam or stratum of rock or sand or other material which contains, includes, or yields earth oil, rock oil, or petroleum oil or natural gas or either of them.

In order to carry out the provision of sections 1 and 2 of this act, upon petition of three or more operating oil companies, within the county, it shall be the duty of the board of supervisors of said county to appoint a commissioner who shall be a practical oil man, whose term of office shall be until December 31st of the year following time of appointment or until his successor is appointed.

The duties of said commissioner shall be to see that the provisions of this act shall be enforced.

The compensation of said commissioner shall be fixed by the board of supervisors and shall be paid out of the general county fund.

Upon the filing of a complaint with said commissioner alleging the violation of any of the provisions of sections 1 or 2 of this act, it shall be the duty of the hereinbefore mentioned commissioner of the county, if so requested by the complainants, to make or cause to be made, a thorough investigation of the well in question, to determine whether or not any of the provisions of this act have been violated and for such purpose he is hereby empowered to appoint all necessary agents and assistants to conduct such examination and such agents and assistants may enter upon the premises where such well is situated and may take charge of such well for the purpose of making such investigations. If the defendant in the action shall be convicted of a violation of any of the provisions of sections 1 or 2 of this act, he shall, in addition to the penalties hereafter set forth, pay all reasonable and proper costs incident to the making of such investigations.

Any well drilled and abandoned, in violation of sections 1 or 2 of this act is hereby declared a public nuisance.

If any well, under the provision of sections 1 or 2 of this act be declared a public nuisance, it shall be the duty of commissioner of the county in which such well is situated to enter upon the premises, take possession of such well and to abate said nuisance and to take all necessary steps to prevent the percolation or penetration of water into the oil-bearing strata. He shall keep an accurate account of the expense of such work and all expenses so incurred shall be a charge against the owner of such well and a lien upon the same.

Any person violating the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Any owner of any well referred to in sections 1 or 2 of this act, who refuses to permit the commissioner to inspect the same or who willfully hinders or delays the commissioner in the performance of his duty is guilty of a misdemeanor.

An "act" to prevent injury to oil, or petroleum-bearing strata, or formations by infiltration or intrusion of water therein approved March 24, 1903, is hereby appealed.

§2. It shall be unlawful for any person to engage in the practice of optometry in the state of California unless such person shall have obtained a certificate of registration from the California state board of examiners in optometry, as hereinafter provided. [Amendment approved March 25, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 775.]

§ 3. There is hereby created a board, whose duty it shall be to carry out the purposes and enforce the provisions of this act, and shall be styled the California State Board of Examiners in Optometry. Said board shall be appointed by the governor as soon as practicable after the passage of this act, and shall consist of three persons actually engaged in the practice of optometry and residing in the state of California. Each member of said board shall hold office for a term of six years, one member of the board to retire every two years, but members shall hold office until their successors are appointed and qualified. Appointments to fill vacancies caused by death, resignation or removal, shall be made for the residue of such term by the governor. The members of said board, before entering upon their duties, shall respectively take and subscribe to the oath required to be taken by other state officers, and filed with the clerk of the county in which said member resides and said board shall have a common seal. [Amendment approved February 28, 1907, Stats. 1907, p. 64.]

§ 4. Said board shall choose at its first regular meeting, and annually thereafter, one of its members president, and one secretary thereof, who severally shall have the power during their term of office to administer oaths and take affidavits, certifying thereto under their hand and the seal of the board. Said board shall meet at least once in each year at the state capitol, and in addition thereto, whenever and wherever the president and secretary thereof shall call a meeting; a majority of said board shall at all times constitute a quorum. The secretary of said board shall keep a full record of the proceedings of said board, which records shall at all reasonable times be open to public inspection.

§ 5. Every person, before beginning to practice optometry in this state after the passage of this act, shall pass an examination before said board of examiners. Such examination shall be confined to such knowledge as said board deems essential to the practice of optometry. Examinations shall be given by the board at least four times in each year, the first examination to begin on the second Monday in March, and to be held in San Francisco, California; the second to begin on the second Monday in June, and to be held in Los Angeles, California; the third examination to begin on the second Monday in September, and to be held in San Francisco, California, and the fourth examination to begin on the second Monday in December, and to be held in Los Angeles, California. Any person desiring to be examined by said board must fill out and swear to an application furnished by the board, and must file the same with the secretary of said board at least two weeks prior to the holding of an examination which the applicant is desirous of taking. Each applicant on making application shall pay to the secretary of the board a fee of twenty dollars, which shall be for the use of said board. All persons successfully passing such examinations shall be registered in the board register, which shall be kept by said secretary, as licensed to practice optometry, and shall receive a certificate of such registration, to be signed by the president and secretary of said board, upon the payment to the secretary of said board of the sum of five dollars, which said sum shall be for the use of said board. [Amendment approved March 25, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 775.]

Also amended in 1907, Stats. 1907, p. 64.

§ 6. Every person who is actually engaged in the practice of optometry in the state of California, at the time of the passage of this act, shall, within six months thereafter, file an affidavit in proof thereof with said board, who shall make and keep record of such person, and shall, in the consideration of the sum of five dollars, issue to him a certificate of registration.

§ 7. All persons entitled to a certificate of registration under the full provisions of section 6, shall be exempt from the provisions of section 5 of this act.

§ 8. All recipients of said certificate of registration shall present the same for filing to the clerk of the county in which they reside, and shall pay a fee of fifty cents to the clerk for recording the same. Said clerk shall record said certificate in a book to be provided by him for that purpose. Any person so licensed removing his residence from one county to another in this state, shall, before engaging in the practice of optometry in such other county, obtain from the clerk of the county in which said certificate of registration is recorded a certified copy of such certificate of registration, and shall, before commencing practice in such county, file the same for record with the clerk of the county to which he removes, and pay the clerk of said county for recording the same a fee of fifty cents. Any failure, neglect, or refusal on the part of any person holding such certificate of registration, or certified copy of such certificate of registration, to record the same, as hereinbefore provided, for six months after the issuance of said certificate of registration, or from the date of removal of residence shall ipso facto work the forfeiture of his certificate of registration, and it shall not be restored except upon the payment of twenty-five dollars to the California state board of examiners in optometry. [Amendment approved March 25, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 776.]

§ 9. Any person entitled to a certificate, as provided for in section 6 of this act, who shall not within six months after the passage thereof make written application to the board of examiners for a certificate of registration, accompanied by a written statement, signed by him, and duly verified before an officer authorized to administer oaths within this state, fully setting forth the grounds upon which he claims such certificate, shall be deemed to have waived his right to a certificate under the provisions or refusal on the part of any person holding such certificate under the provisions of such section. Any failure, neglect or refusal on the part of any person holding such certificate to file the same for record, as hereinbefore provided, for six months after the issuance thereof, shall forfeit the same.

§ 10. Every person to whom a certificate of examination or registration is granted shall display the same in a conspicuous part of his office wherein the practice of optometry is conducted.

§ 11. Out of the funds coming into the possession of said board, each member thereof may receive as compensation, the sum of ten dollars for each day actually engaged in the duties of his office, and mileage at five cents per mile for all distances necessarily traveled in going to and coming from the meetings of the board. Said expense shall be paid from the fees and assessments received by the board under the provisions of this act, and no part of the salary or other expense of the board shall ever be paid out of the state treasury. All moneys received in excess of said per diem allowance and mileage as above provided for, shall be held by the secretary as a special fund for meeting the expense of said board and carrying out the provisions of this act, and he shall give such bonds as the board shall from time to time direct, and the said board shall make an annual report of its proceedings to the governor on the first Monday in January of each year, which report shall contain an account of all moneys received and disbursed by them pursuant to this act. [Amendment approved March 25, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 776.]

§ 12. Every registered optometrist who desires to continue the practice of optometry in this state, shall annually, on or before the first day of August of each year, pay to the secretary of said board a registration fee to be fixed by the board, and which shall in no case exceed the sum of five dollars per annum, for which he shall receive a renewal of such registration, and in case of the default of such payment by any person, his certificate shall be revoked by the board of examiners, on twenty days' notice in writing by the secretary of the time and place of considering such revocation, and the deposit of said notice in the United States postoffice, addressed to the person at his last known place of residence or business, and the postage prepaid thereon, shall be due and legal service of such notice, but no certificate shall be revoked for such nonpayment if the person so notified shall pay before or at the time of consideration of said revocation his fee and such penalty as may be imposed by said board; provided that said board may impose a penalty not exceeding ten dollars upon persons so notified as a condition for allowing certificates to stand valid. Any person whose certificate of registration has been revoked for failure to pay his renewal fee, as herein provided, may apply to have the same regranted, and the same shall be regranted to him upon his paying to the board all renewal fees that should have been paid had the certificate of registration not been revoked, together with a penalty of twenty-five dollars. [Amendment approved March 25, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 777.]

Also amended in 1907, Stats. 1907, p. 65.

§ 13. Any person registered as provided for in this act may have his certificate of registration revoked or suspended by the California State Board of Examiners in Optometry for any of the following clauses:

1. His conviction of a felony or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, in which case the record of conviction, or a certified copy thereof certified by the clerk of the court, or by the judge in whose court the conviction is had, shall be conclusive evidence.

2. When his certificate of registration has been secured by fraud or deceit practiced upon the board.

3. For unprofessional conduct, or for gross ignorance or inefficiency in his profession. Unprofessional conduct shall mean employing what are known as "cappers" or "steerers" to obtain business; the obtaining of any fee by fraud or misrepresentation; employing, directly or indirectly, any suspended or unlicensed optician or optometrist to perform any work covered by this act; the advertising of optical business or treatment or advice in which untruthful, improbable, or impossible statements are made; or habitual intemperance, or gross immorality.

4. When the holder is suffering from a contagious or infectious disease.

Provided, however, that before any certificate shall be so revoked or suspended the holder thereof shall have notice in writing of the charge or charges against him, and at a date specified in said notice at least five days after the service thereof, be given a public hearing, and have an opportunity to produce testimony in his favor, and to confront the witnesses against him. Any person whose certificate has been suspended may, after the expiration of ninety days, apply to have the same re-granted, and the same shall be re-granted him upon a satisfactory showing that the disqualification has ceased. [Amendment approved March 25, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 777.]

§ 14. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction, shall be fined not less than fifty dollars, nor more than two hundred dollars, or shall be confined not less than one month, nor more than three months in the county jail; or fined not less than fifty dollars, nor more than two hundred dollars, and imprisoned not less than one month, nor more than three months in the county jail, and in default of payment of said fine, shall be imprisoned in the county jail at the rate of one day for every two dollars of the fine so imposed, and all fines thus received, shall be paid to the secretary of the board for the purposes of the enforcement of this act. [Amendment approved February 28, 1907. Stats. 1907, p. 65.]

§ 15. All justices of the peace and the respective municipal courts shall have jurisdiction of violations of this act. It shall be the duty of the respective district attorneys to prosecute all violations of this act, and it shall be the duty of police officers, sheriffs, constables and marshals to report any violations of this act to the secretary of the California State Board of Examiners in Optometry, and render such assistance to the board, or an officer thereof, as they may be called upon to perform. [Amendment approved March 25, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 778.]

§ 16. Nothing in this act shall be construed to apply to physicians or surgeons authorized to practice under the laws of the state of California, nor to persons who sell spectacles or eye-glasses, or lenses as merchandise. [Amendment approved March 25, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 778.]

Also amended in 1907, Stats. 1907, p. 65.

§ 17. It shall be unlawful for the board of examiners in optometry to grant a certificate to any one in the state of California under legal age. [Amendment approved February 28, 1907. Stats. 1907, p. 65.]

TITLE 363.

ORANGE COUNTY.

ACT 2578.

To create the county of Orange, to define the boundaries thereof, to determine the county seat by an election, and to provide for its organization and election of officers, and to classify said county. [Approved March 11, 1889. Stats. 1889, p. 123.]

Unconstitutional as to cities having charters: Morton v. Broderick, 118 Cal. 486.

§ 1. Every ordinance and every resolution of the city council of any municipality providing for any specific improvement, or the granting of any franchise, or other privilege, or affecting real property interests, or the expenditure of more than one hundred dollars of the public moneys, or levying tax or assessment, or establishing rates for artificial light, and every ordinance or resolution imposing a duty or penalty, which shall have passed the city council, shall, before it takes effect, be presented to the mayor for his approval. The mayor shall return such ordinance or resolution to the city council within ten days after receiving it. If he approve it he shall sign it, and it shall then take effect. If he disapprove it he shall specify his objections thereto in writing. If he do not return it with such disapproval within the time above specified, it shall take effect as if he had approved it. The objections of the mayor shall be entered at large on the journal of the city council, and the city council shall cause the same to be immediately published. The city council shall, after five, and within thirty days after such ordinance or resolution shall have been returned with the mayor's disapproval, reconsider and vote upon the same; and if the same shall, upon reconsideration, be again passed by the affirmative vote of not less than three-fourths of all the members, the presiding officer shall certify that fact on the ordinance or resolution, and when so certified, it shall take effect as if it had received the approval of the mayor; but if the ordinance or resolution shall fail to receive upon the first vote thereon after its return with the mayor's disapproval, the affirmative votes of three-fourths of all the members, it shall be deemed finally lost. The vote on such reconsideration shall be taken by ayes and noes, and the names of the members voting for or against the same shall be entered in the journal; provided, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to cities in which the mayor is a member of the city council, or other governing body.

§ 2. The word "municipality," and the word "city," as used in this act, shall be understood and so construed as to include, and is hereby declared to include, all corporations heretofore organized and now existing, and those hereafter organized, for municipal purposes.

§ 4. In municipalities in which there is no mayor, then the duties imposed upon said officer by the provisions of this act shall be performed by the president of the board of trustees, or other chief executive officer of the municipality.

§ 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and all acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

TITLE 369.PARIS GREEN.*ACT 2614.

An act to prevent fraud in the sale of paris green used as an insecticide, [Became a law under constitutional provision without governor's approval, February 28, 1901. Stats. 1901, p. 69.]

§1. It shall be the duty of each and every manufacturer of paris green (commercial aceto-arsenite of copper) to be used as an insecticide within this state, and of every dealer in original packages of said paris green manufactured outside of this state, before the said paris green is offered or exposed for sale, or sold within this state as an insecticide, to submit to the director of the California agricultural experiment station at Berkeley, samples of said paris green, and a written or printed statement setting forth: First, the brands of said paris green to be sold, the number of pounds contained in each package in which it is put on the market for sale, the name or names of the manufacturers and the place of manufacturing the same; second, the statement shall set forth the amount of combined arsenic which the said paris green contains, and the statement so furnished shall be considered as constituting a guarantee to the purchaser that every package of such paris green contains not less than the amount of combined arsenic set forth in the statement.

§2. Every purchaser of said paris green in original packages, which is manufactured outside of this state, who intends to sell or expose the same for sale, and every manufacturer of said paris green within this state, shall, after filing the statement above provided for, with the director of the California agricultural experiment station at Berkeley, receive from the said director a certificate stating that he has complied with the foregoing statement, which certificate shall be furnished without charge therefor; said certificate when furnished shall authorize the party when receiving the same to deal in this state in the said paris green. Any person who fails to comply with the terms of section 1 of this act shall not be entitled to such certificate and shall not be entitled to deal in said paris green within this state. Nothing in this section shall be construed as applying to retail dealers selling said paris green which has already been labeled and guaranteed.

§3. Paris green, when sold, offered or exposed for sale, as an insecticide, in this state, shall contain at least fifty per centum of arsenious oxide and shall not contain more than four per centum of the same in the uncombined state.

§4. The director of the California state agricultural station at Berkeley shall examine or cause to be examined different brands of paris green sold, offered or exposed for sale within the state, and cause samples of the same to be analyzed, and shall report results of analyses forthwith to the secretary of the state board of horticulture and to the party or parties submitting said samples, and such report shall be final as regards its quality.

§ 5. Any person or persons, firm, association, company or corporation violating any of the provisions of this act, and any person who shall sell any package of paris green or any part thereof which has not been labeled as herein provided, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than two hundred dollars, together with the costs of the suit in an action caused to be brought by the state board of horticulture through its secretary in the name of the people of the state of California.

§ 6. The attorney general of the state of California is charged with the prosecution of all such suits.

§ 7. This act shall take effect immediately.

ACT 2620.

An act to provide for the creation of a board of parole commissioners for each county in this state, for the paroling of prisoners confined in county jails, and authorizing and empowering such boards to make rules and regulations in relation thereto.

[Approved March 25, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 783.]

§ 1. A board of parole commissioners consisting of the sheriff and district attorney is hereby created for each county in this state, who shall establish rules and regulations under which any prisoner who is now or hereafter may be imprisoned in the county jail of said county after judgment of conviction for the commission of a misdemeanor, may be allowed to go upon parole outside of the said jail, but to remain while on parole in the legal custody and under the control of the board establishing said rules and regulations, and subject at any time to be taken back within the enclosure of said jail; and full power to make and enforce such rules and regulations and retake and imprison any prisoner so upon parole is hereby conferred upon the said board hereinbefore mentioned, whose written order shall be a sufficient warrant for all officers named therein to authorize such officer to return to actual custody any conditionally released or paroled prisoner, and it is hereby made the duty of all chiefs of police, marshals of cities and villages, and sheriffs of counties, and all police and peace officers and constables to execute any such order in like manner as ordinary criminal process. If any prisoner so paroled shall leave the county in which he was so imprisoned without permission from the board granting his parole, he shall be held as an escaped prisoner and arrested as such.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately from and after its passage.

ACT 2631.

An act to provide for the maintenance and support, in certain cases, of indigent, incompetent, and incapacitated persons (other than persons adjudged insane and confined within state hospitals), becoming a public charge upon the counties or cities and counties within the state of California, and for the payment thereof into a fund for the maintenance and support of such persons.

Citations. Cal. 148/70.

§1. Every county and every city and county shall relieve and support all pauper, incompetent, poor, indigent persons and those incapacitated by age, disease, or accident, lawfully resident therein, when such persons are not supported and relieved by their relatives or friends, or by their own means, or by state hospitals or other state or private institutions.

§ 2. The term "residence" as used in this act shall be taken to mean and shall be considered to mean the actual residence of each of such persons, or the place where such person was employed, or in case such person was in no employment, then it shall be considered and held to be the place where such person made his or her home, or his or her headquarters.

§ 3. Every person, firm or corporation, or the officers, agents, servants, or employees of any person, firm or corporation, bringing into or leaving within, or procuring the bringing into or the leaving within, or aiding in the bringing into or the leaving within, of any pauper or poor or indigent or incapacitated or incompetent person as hereinbefore mentioned, in any county or city and county in the state of California, wherein such person is not lawfully settled or not lawfully residing as herein defined, knowing him to be such pauper, poor, indigent, or incapacitated or incompetent person, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 4. If any person shall become chargeable as a pauper, or poor, or indigent, or incapacitated, or incompetent person as herein designated, in any county, or city and county, who did not reside therein (as herein specified) at the commencement of three months immediately preceding his becoming so chargeable, but did at that time reside (as herein specified) in some other county, or city and county in this state, it shall be the duty of the county clerk of said first-mentioned county or city and county to send written notice by mail or otherwise to the county clerk of the county or city and county in which such person so resided, requesting the proper authorities of such county or city and county to remove such person forthwith, and to pay the expenses accruing or to accrue, in taking care of such person; and such county or city and county, wherein such person resided at the commencement of the three months immediately preceding such person's becoming chargeable as a poor, indigent, or incapacitated, or incompetent person as herein designated, shall pay to the county or city and county so taking care of such person all reasonable charges for the same, and such amount may be recovered by suit in any court of competent jurisdiction by such county or city and county.

§ 5. It shall be the duty of the superintendent of any county hospital or almshouse in any county or city and county in this state, or his subordinates, immediately upon receiving any person into such hospital or almshouse as a public charge, such person being poor, indigent, or incapacitated, or incompetent as herein defined, or any registrar of charities or of any charity supported by public funds or aided in part by public funds, aiding such person, to make diligent inquiry into the ability of such person or of his relatives as hereinafter mentioned to bear the actual charges and expenses of the maintenance and support of such person, and to forthwith notify the district attorney of such county or city and county, or the city and county attorney thereof, and the board of supervisors of such county or city and county, of the result of such inquiry.

§ 6. In case such person shall be or shall thereafter become the owner of property, real, personal, or mixed, it shall be the duty of the district attorney of the county, or city and county, or the city and county attorney thereof, in which such person shall become a public charge, in whole or in part, to cause the entire or partial support as hereinafter provided to be fixed, of such person to be made out of such property, and to that end shall procure by suit or otherwise the assignment and payment for such purpose of all annuities and pensions; and in case such person shall be incompetent or a minor, within the provisions of the codes relating to the guardianship of the persons and estates of incompetent persons and minors, it shall be the duty of the district attorney of such county, or city and county, or the city and county attorney thereof, to apply to the proper court for the appointment of a general guardian of the person and estate, or either, of such person or minor. Such application and appointment shall be made in the manner as provided by the codes of this state for the application for the appointment of guardians of infants and incompetent persons, and all proceedings thereunder, except as herein expressly declared otherwise, shall be in accordance with such provisions of said codes, and the public support of such minor or such incompetent shall be deemed one of the grounds for which an application may be made on behalf of such person for the sale of his property, as in the Code of Civil Procedure provided. From the proceeds of the property of said person or from such other funds as such guardian may obtain, or from such funds as the district attorney of the county, or the city and county, or the city and county attorney thereof, may be able to collect, there shall be paid into the county treasury of the county, the sum per month fixed by the board of supervisors of such county or city and county, quarterly in advance, for the maintenance and support of any such person or pauper; and there shall also be paid out of the proceeds of such sale or such other funds, such clothing and other supplies as may have been furnished to such person or pauper.

If any pauper, indigent, poor, incompetent, or incapacitated person has kindred of the degree of husband, wife, children (other than minors), father or mother, brother or sister, grand-children, or grand-parents living within this state, of sufficient pecuniary ability, such kindred in the order above named shall support such person by paying into the county treasury of such county, the sum per month fixed on by the board of supervisors, quarterly in advance, for the maintenance and support of such pauper, indigent, poor, incompetent or incapacitated person, and shall in the order above named, also pay for the clothing and other supplies, if any, furnished to such person. And if it shall be that the relatives liable as aforesaid are not of sufficient ability wholly to maintain such poor person or pauper, but are able to contribute something, they shall be required to pay a sum in proportion to their ability.

§ 7. Upon the failure on the part of said kindred to perform such duty, an action shall be brought by the district attorney of the county or the city and county, or the city and county attorney thereof, in the name of the county or city and county, against said kindred in the order above named. And such action shall be prosecuted as are all other actions for the recovery of money in this state.

§ 8. If there be in the hands of any guardian of any such person or in the hands of any officer of said county upon the discharge or death of said person, any funds, the same shall be refunded after the payment of all the claims of the said county or city and county thereon and of the funeral expenses, in case of death of such person.

§ 9. All moneys derived in accordance with the provisions of this act shall be paid into such fund of the county or city and county as is used for the support and furtherance of the care of the persons herein referred to.

§ 10. This act shall take effect immediately.

To define the duties and liabilities of pawnbrokers and pledgees. [Stats. 1861, p. 184.]

Amended 1869-70, p. 820; 1871-72, p. 102. Superseded by Penal Code, §§ 338-348.

ACT 2637.

An act to define personal property brokers and regulate their charge and business.

[Approved April 16, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 969.]

Personal property broker defined.

§ 1. That every person or corporation engaged in the business of loaning or advancing money or other thing and taking in whole or in part as security for such loan or advance any chattel mortgage, bill of sale or other obligation or contract involving the forfeiture of rights in or to personal property, the use or possession of which is retained by other than the mortgagee or lender, or engaged in the business of loaning or advancing money or other thing, and taking either in whole or in part as security therefor any lien on, assignment of or power of attorney relative to wages, salary, earnings, income or commissions, shall be held, and, for the uses and purposes of this act, is hereby declared and defined to be a personal property broker.

Percentage that may be charged.

§ 2. Such personal property broker may charge, receive and collect a benefit or percentage upon money or other thing advanced, or for the use and forbearance thereof, of five per centum per month where such loan or advance is made upon security properly falling within the scope of business as set forth in section 1 hereof.

Further charges forbidden. Exception.

§ 3. No further or other charges either for recording, insuring or examining the security or property, or for the drawing, executing or filing of papers, or for any services or upon any pretext whatsoever beyond the aforesaid charge for interest or discount shall be asked, charged, or in any way received, where the same would thereby make a greater charge for the money or thing advanced than the aforesaid rate of five per centum per month, and where made, all such charges shall be considered and be of the same effect as so much added interest; provided, however, that with the consent of the borrower he may be required to pay the fees or charges actually expended where the same are made necessary by law to give full legal effect to any instrument given hereunder.

Excess of legal rate forbidden.

§ 4. No contract of any kind or nature made by any personal property broker which comes within the scope of business as set forth in section 1 hereof, or which in any way involves any security given to secure the performance of such contract, shall be valid or of any force, virtue or effect, either at law or in equity, if there is therein or thereon directly or indirectly charged, accepted or contracted to be received or paid, either in money, goods, discount, or thing in action, or in any other way, a greater benefit, rate of discount, or interest than the rate of five per centum per month; and if a greater benefit, rate of discount or interest than five per centum per month is directly or indirectly advanced or paid upon any such contract as is in this section designated, the excess above the said rate of five per centum per month so advanced or paid may be demanded and recovered by the person or his legal representatives or assigns who advanced or paid the same from the person or corporation either to whom or for whose use or benefit such payment or advance or any part thereof was made.

Loan tickets.

§ 5. Whenever a loan or advance shall be made, renewed or extended, hereunder there shall be given to the borrower a ticket or memorandum plainly inscribed with the name of the person or corporation making the loan, and members or general partners of the same if it be a firm, partnership or association, and further designating the number and nature of the instruments taken as security, the number of notes and amount of each, and the name of the party or parties in whose favor each of the aforesaid papers are executed, when the same are payable, the amount actually advanced thereon, the amount including all interest and expenses charged or to be paid for such loan or advance, and copies of sections 2, 3 and 4 of this act.

Violation of act, penalty for.

§ 6. The failure of any person or corporation, or any employee, employees, agent, agents, representative or representatives making, renewing or extending a loan or advance properly falling within the scope of business as set forth in section 1 of this act to comply with any or any part of the provisions of section 5 hereof, shall be punishable by a fine of not to exceed fifty dollars for the first offense, and by a fine of not to exceed two hundred dollars for each subsequent offense.

ACT 2664.

An act to regulate the practice of pharmacy in the state of California.

The title of this act was amended March 21, 1907, Stats. 1907, p. 766, to read as follows: "An act to regulate the practice of pharmacy in the state of California, and to provide a penalty for the violation thereof; and for the appointment of a board to be known as the California state board of pharmacy."

§ 1. From and after the passage of this act it shall be unlawful for any person to manufacture, compound, sell, or dispense any drug, poison, medicine or chemical, or to dispense or compound any prescription of a medical practitioner, unless such person be a registered pharmacist or a registered assistant pharmacist within the meaning of this act, except as hereinafter provided. Every store, dispensary, pharmacy, laboratory or office for the sale, dispensing or compounding of drugs, medicines or chemicals, or for the dispensing of prescriptions of medical practitioners, shall be in charge of a registered pharmacist. A registered assistant pharmacist may be left in charge of a store, dispensary, pharmacy, laboratory or office for the sale, dispensing, or compounding of drugs, medicines or chemicals or for the dispensing of prescriptions of medical practitioners only during the temporary absence of the registered pharmacist. Temporary absence within the meaning of this act shall be held to be only those unavoidable absences which may occur during a day's work, and when the registered pharmacist in charge shall be within immediate call, ready and able to assume the direct supervision of said pharmacy. No registered assistant shall conduct a pharmacy. Every store or shop where drugs, medicines or chemicals are dispensed or sold at retail, or displayed for sale at retail, or where prescriptions are compounded, which has upon it or in it as a sign, the words "pharmacist," "pharmaceutical chemist," "apothecary," "druggist," "pharmacy," "drug-store," "drugs," or any of these words, or the characteristic show-bottles or globes, either colored or filled with colored liquids, shall be deemed a "pharmacy" within the meaning of this act.

§ 2. Any person in order to be a registered pharmacist must be a licentiate in pharmacy, or a practicing pharmacist.

§ 3. Licentiates in pharmacy are persons who have had five years' experience in stores where the prescriptions of medical practitioners are compounded, and shall have passed an examination before the state board of pharmacy, or who shall present satisfactory evidence to the said board that they have had twenty years' actual experience in the practice of pharmacy, and have also been registered as a licentiate, or assistant pharmacist in good standing in any state or territory for a period of at least ten years prior to the date of their application; provided, that graduates from a reputable college of pharmacy may be registered after eighteen years of like experience. Practicing pharmacists are persons who, at the passage of this act, are registered as such, and who shall have on or before the first day of January next succeeding the passage of this act, paid to the board of pharmacy of this state all moneys due for renewal of registration as required by the acts of the legislature regulating the practice of pharmacy in the state of California, approved March 11, 1891, and March 15, 1901. [Amendment approved April 21, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 1013.]

§ 4. Registered assistant pharmacists are persons who at the time of the passage of this act are already registered as such, and who shall have on or before the first day of January next succeeding the passage of this act paid to the board of pharmacy of this state all moneys due for renewal of registration as required by the acts of the legislature regulating the practice of pharmacy in the state of California, approved March 11, 1891, and March 15, 1901; provided, that no person shall be examined or registered as a licentiate, unless such person has had five years' pharmaceutical experience in a pharmacy under the supervision of a registered pharmacist; and provided further, that no person shall be examined or registered as an assistant pharmacist from and after the passage of this act; unless such person shall be not less than eighteen years of age and has had not less than three years' instruction and experience in a pharmacy, under a registered pharmacist; or has been registered as an apprentice as provided in section 15 of this act for not less than three years; and, provided further, that an applicant for registration as an assistant pharmacist must first pass a satisfactory examination before the board of pharmacy.

§ 5. The governor shall appoint seven competent registered pharmacists, residing in different parts of the state, to serve as a board of pharmacy. The members of the board shall, within thirty (30) days after their appointment, individually take and subscribe before the county clerk, in the county in which they individually reside, an oath faithfully and impartially to discharge the duties prescribed by this act. They shall hold office for the term of four (4) years, and until their successors are appointed and have qualified. In case of vacancy in the board of pharmacy, the governor shall fill the same by appointing a member to serve for the remainder of the term only. The office of the board shall be located in San Francisco. The board shall organize by electing a president, a secretary, and a treasurer. The secretary may or may not be a member of the board as the board in its sound discretion shall determine. The secretary and treasurer shall each give a satisfactory bond running to the board of pharmacy in a sum of not less than two thousand dollars, and such greater sum as the board may from time to time, require for the faithful discharge of their respective duties.

§ 6. It shall be the duty of the secretary to keep a book of registration open at the city of San Francisco, in which shall be entered under the supervision of the board, the names, titles, qualifications, and places of business of all persons coming under the provisions of this act. The secretary shall give receipts for all moneys received by him and pay the same to the treasurer of the board, taking his receipt for the same. The treasurer shall disburse the same by order of the board for necessary expenses, taking proper vouchers therefor. The balance of said money, after paying the expenses of the board, he shall pay to the state treasurer, who shall keep it in a special fund to be used in carrying out the provisions of this act. It shall be the duty of the secretary of the board to erase from the register the name of any registered pharmacist or assistant pharmacist who has died, or who in the opinion of the board has forfeited his right under the law to do business in this state. Beside the duties required by this act, it shall be the duty of the secretary to perform such other reasonable duties appertaining to his office, as may be required of him by the board of pharmacy. The secretary shall receive such compensation as may be fixed by the board of pharmacy, if he be a member of the board, then such compensation shall be in addition to his per diem as a member of said board.

§ 7. Four members of the board shall constitute a quorum. They shall hold a meeting at least once in every four months.

Powers and Duties of the Board.

Subdivision 1. The state board of pharmacy shall have power:

(a) To make such by-laws and regulations, not inconsistent with the laws of this state, as may be necessary for the protection of the public, appertaining to the practice of pharmacy and the lawful performance of its duties.

(b) To regulate the practice of pharmacy.

(c) To regulate the sale of poisons.

(d) To regulate the quality of all pharmaceutical preparations and medicines dispensed or sold in this state, using the United States Pharmacopœia or National Formulary, as the standard.

(e) To investigate all complaints as to the quality and strength of all pharmaceutical preparations and medicines, and to take such action as may be necessary to prevent the sale of such as do not conform to the standard and tests prescribed in the latest edition of the United States Pharmacopœia or National Formulary.

(f) To employ inspectors of pharmacy and to inspect during business hours all pharmacies, dispensaries, stores, or places in which drugs, medicines and poisons are compounded, dispensed or retailed, and to cause the prosecution of all persons whenever there appears to the board to be reasonable ground for such action.

(g) To examine and register as pharmacists and assistant pharmacists all applicants whom it shall deem qualified to be such. All persons applying for registration, under this act, shall pay the following fees therefor to the secretary of the board of pharmacy: Every applicant for registration, other than that of an apprentice, shall pay a fee of ten dollars on filing his or her application, which shall be compensation to the board of pharmacy for investigation or examination of the applicant; and if the board finds that any applicant for registration on experience and credentials is entitled to be registered, then he or she shall pay an additional fee of fifteen dollars upon the issuance of certificate of such registration; and any licentiate found by the board on examination to be entitled to a certificate shall pay the additional sum of five dollars upon the issuance of certificate; all applicants for examination as assistant, if found satisfactory by the board, shall be entitled to their certificate without further fee; and provided further, that an applicant for registration on experience and credentials may at his or her option be examined as a licentiate without further fee for application.

(h) In the event any person having registered shall have lost his or her certificate, or the same has been destroyed, or if he or she desires the renewal of the same, a new certificate may be issued by said board upon the applicant paying therefor the sum of three dollars; provided further, that where the original certificate is not lost or destroyed, then the certificate shall be surrendered before a renewal of same shall be issued; and provided further, that the board shall have power to require satisfactory evidence from the applicant of the loss or destruction of the certificate; and provided further, that where the applicant is delinquent for the annual dues required by this act then he or she shall be required to pay to said board sufficient fees to cover his delinquency in that behalf before he or she shall be entitled to a reissue of the certificate in this subdivision provided for.

(i) To provide by proper rules and regulations for the revocation by said board of licenses issued under the provisions of this act, whenever the holder of such license shall be guilty of habitual intemperance or addicted to the use of narcotic drugs, or shall have been convicted of a felony. [Amendment approved April 21, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 1013.]

Also amended in 1907, Stats. 1907, p. 766.

§8. No member of the board shall teach pharmacy in any of its branches, unless it be as a teacher in a public capacity and in a college of pharmacy. The members of the board of pharmacy shall each be paid the sum of eight dollars per diem for every meeting of the board which they attend, together with their necessary expenses, and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled. All compensation of members and all other expenses of the board, shall be paid out of the examination and registration fees and fines.

§9. Every person holding a certificate from said board shall renew annually their registration with said board; and every registered pharmacist, and every assistant registered pharmacist who desires to retain his registration on the books of the board of pharmacy in this state shall annually, after the expiration of the first year's registration and on or before the first day of July of each succeeding year, pay to the secretary of the board of pharmacy a renewal fee, to be fixed by the board, which shall not exceed two dollars for registered pharmacist and one dollar for assistant registered pharmacist, in return for which fee a renewal certificate of registration shall be issued. In case any person defaults in payment of said fee his or her registration may be revoked by the board of pharmacy on sixty days' notice, in writing from the secretary, unless within said time the fee is paid, together with such penalty not exceeding ten dollars, as the board may impose. Upon payment of said fee and penalty the board must reinstate the delinquent's registration. No person having received, or who may hereafter receive a certificate of registration as a pharmacist or assistant pharmacist, shall engage in business as pharmacist or assistant pharmacist, in any county of this state in which he or she shall locate, or into which he or she shall afterwards remove, until he or she shall have had such certificate recorded in the office of the county clerk of such county, and it is hereby made the duty of the county clerk to record such certificate in a book to be provided and kept for that purpose, and the county clerk is authorized to charge a fee of fifty cents for the recording of such certificate—to be paid by the person offering such certificate for record. Each pharmacist or assistant pharmacist holding a certificate of registration as a pharmacist, or assistant pharmacist, and being engaged in business as a pharmacist or assistant pharmacist, shall have such certificate recorded, as is in this section provided, within thirty days after the taking effect of this act. The record of the certificate required by this section, or a certified copy thereof, shall be evidence in all courts that the person holding it was registered as evidenced by said certificate on the date of the same. Any registered pharmacist or assistant registered pharmacist failing to comply with any of the foregoing provisions shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than five dollars nor more than twenty-five dollars. Upon the certificate being recorded as herein provided, it shall be the duty of the county clerk to notify the secretary of the board of pharmacy of the name of the party and the date of such record. [Amendment approved March 21, 1907. Stats. 1907, p. 767. In effect in sixty days.]

§ 10. Every person upon receiving a certificate of registration under this act, or who has heretofore received a certificate of registration in this state, shall keep his last receipt for re-registration, conspicuously exposed in his place of business. Every registered pharmacist, and assistant pharmacist, shall within thirty days after the changing of his place of business as designated on the books of the board of pharmacy, notify the secretary of the board of his new place of business, and upon receipt of said notification, the secretary shall make the necessary change in his register.

§ 11. Every proprietor or manager of a pharmacy or drugstore shall be held responsible for the quality of all drugs, chemicals and medicines sold or dispensed by him, except those sold in the original packages of the manufacturer and except those articles or preparations known as patent or proprietary medicines. Any persons who shall knowingly, willfully, or fraudulently falsify or adulterate, or cause to be falsified or adulterated, any drug or medicinal substance, or any preparation authorized or recognized by the pharmacopœia of the United States or used, or intended to be used, in medical practice, or shall mix, or cause to be mixed, with any such drug or medicinal substance any foreign or inert substance whatever, for the purpose of destroying or weakening its medicinal power or effect, or of lessening its cost, and shall willfully, knowingly, or fraudulently sell the same, or cause it to be sold, for medicinal purposes, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars and not more than two hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for not less than fifty days and not more than two hundred days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Every registered pharmacist shall file or cause to be filed, all physician's prescriptions, or a copy thereof, compounded or dispensed in his pharmacy or store, and any person who shall willfully fail so to do shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty dollars; and for such subsequent offense shall be liable to a fine of not less than fifty dollars, and not more than one hundred dollars. The state board of pharmacy may at any time, when in their judgment it appears advisable, depute one of their members, or any other competent person, to investigate any suspected violation of any of the provisions of this act, and if the result of such investigation seems to the board to justify such action the board shall cause the prosecution of any person violating any of the provisions of this act. [Amendment approved April 21, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 1015.]

§ 12. Any person who shall attempt to secure, or secures registration for himself or any other person under this act by making or causing to be made any false representations, or who shall fraudulently represent himself to be registered, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be liable to punishment by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding fifty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Any person who shall permit the compounding of prescriptions of medical practitioners, or the selling of drugs and medicines, in his or her store or pharmacy, except under the direct, immediate and personal supervision of a registered pharmacist, or any person not registered who shall retail medicine, poisons or chemicals, except in a pharmacy under the direct, immediate and personal supervision of a registered pharmacist, or any person violating any of the provisions of this act, when no other penalty is provided, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be liable to punishment by a fine of not less than twenty dollars, and not more than one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment of not exceeding fifty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. All fines recoverable under this act shall be paid by the magistrate receiving the same to the state board of pharmacy. Any person convicted of violating the provisions of this act the third time shall in addition to the penalties hereinbefore mentioned have his or her registration as a pharmacist canceled. Nothing in this act shall apply to or interfere with any practitioner of medicine who is duly registered as such by the state board of medical examiners of this state with supplying his own patients, as their physician, and by them employed as such, with such remedies as he may desire and who does not keep a pharmacy, open shop, or drug-store, advertised or otherwise for the retailing of medicines or poisons, nor does this act apply to the exclusively wholesale business of any dealer. Nor does this apply to registered, trademarked or copyrighted proprietary medicines, registered in the United States patent office nor to the sale of proprietary medicines, when manufactured under the supervision of a registered pharmacist in the state of California for which trademarks may have been filed with the secretary of state of California, by merchants possessing a license issued by the board of pharmacy as described in section 16 of this act. [Amendment approved March 21, 1907. Stats. 1907, p. 768. In effect in sixty days.]

§ 13. Any proprietor of a pharmacy, who shall fail, or neglect to place in charge of such pharmacy a registered pharmacist, or any proprietor, who shall by himself, or any other person, permit the compounding of prescriptions, or the vending of drugs, medicines, or poisons, in his or her store, or place of business, except by or in the presence and under the direct, immediate and personal supervision of a registered pharmacist, or any person, not being a registered pharmacist, who shall take charge of, or act as manager of any pharmacy, or store, or who, not being a registered pharmacist, retails, compounds, or dispenses drugs, medicines, or poisons, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be liable to a fine of not less than twenty ($20) dollars and not more than one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for a term of not exceeding fifty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. [Amendment approved April 21, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 1015.]

Also amended in 1907, Stats. 1907, p. 769.

§ 14. Any member of the board of pharmacy, or inspector duly authorized by said board may examine applicants orally, or in writing, and issue a temporary certificate to practice pharmacy, which shall authorize such practice for a period not to exceed four months from its date. The issuance of such temporary certificate shall not entitle the holder thereof to a permanent certificate, and no permanent certificate shall be issued to such holder until he passes a satisfactory examination by the board. Only one temporary certificate shall ever be issued to the same applicant, and no temporary certificate shall be granted to any person whose application has been denied by the board. The member or authorized inspector conducting the examination as herein set forth shall be entitled to charge and receive the sum of three dollars for such certificate, said moneys to be paid to the board of pharmacy. [Amendment approved April 21, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 1016.]

Also amended in 1907, Stats. 1907, p. 769.

§ 15. It shall be the duty of all registered pharmacists who take into their employ an apprentice, whose purpose it is to become a pharmacist, to report to the board of pharmacy such facts regarding his schooling and preliminary qualifications as the board of pharmacy may require for the purpose of registration as an apprentice. The board of pharmacy shall adopt a standard of qualifications regarding schooling and preliminary qualifications for all persons desiring to be registered as apprentices, as provided for in this section. The pharmaceutical experience of every apprentice shall, after the passage of this act, be deemed to begin on the date on which he began the study of pharmacy, and such date shall be inserted in the certificate of registration of said apprentice, provided the preliminary qualifications have been found satisfactory by the board. Sworn testimony shall be furnished the board upon which they shall determine the date as aforesaid. The date so determined and entered as aforesaid shall be deemed to be the beginning of the applicant's pharmaceutical experience for the purpose of this act; provided, that the students matriculating and attending any reputable college of pharmacy shall be registered as apprentices upon such fact being shown. The board shall keep a register for the registration of apprentices and furnish upon application proper blanks for this purpose. No apprentice shall be permitted to sell drugs, medicines, or poisons, or compound prescriptions except under the direct, immediate and personal supervision of a registered pharmacist. No registered apprentice shall ever be left in charge of a pharmacy. No applicant for registration as an apprentice shall be registered as such if such applicant has had more than three years' experience in a pharmacy, but must apply for registration as assistant pharmacist. [Amendment approved March 21, 1907. Stats. 1907, p. 770. In effect in sixty days.]

§ 16. The board of pharmacy shall issue a permit to general dealers in rural districts in which the conditions, in their judgment, do not justify the employment of a registered pharmacist, and where the store of such general dealer is not less than three miles distant from the store of a registered pharmacist; which said permit shall authorize the persons or firm named therein to sell in such locality, but not elsewhere, and under such restrictions and regulations as said board may from time to time adopt, the following simple household remedies and drugs, and no other, in such manner and form as may be hereafter authorized by said board, as follows, to wit:

Tincture of arnica, spirits of camphor, almond oil, distilled extract witch-hazel, paregoric, syrup of ipecac, syrup of rhubarb, hive syrup, sweet spirits of nitre, tincture of iron, epsom salts, rochelle salts, senna leaves, carbonate of magnesia, seidlitz powders, quinine, cathartic pills, chamomile flowers, caraway seed, chlorate of potash, moth balls, plasters, salves, ointments, peroxide of hydrogen, copperas, gum camphor, blue ointment, asafoetida, saffron, anise seed, saltpetre.

The board shall charge an annual fee of eight dollars in advance for such permit, and it shall be unlawful for any dealer to sell any drugs or ordinary household remedies without complying with the requirements of this section. Whenever a registered pharmacist shall establish a pharmacy within three miles by the shortest road from the place of business of such general dealer, no further license shall be granted, and the license already issued shall be void, provided that, the following drugs, medicines and chemicals may be sold by grocers and dealers generally without restriction, viz.:

Glauber salts, vaseline, turpentine, condition powders, cream of tar, carbonate of soda, bay rum, essence of Jamaica ginger, essence of peppermint, ammonia, alum, castor oil, bicarbonate of soda, chloride of lime, glycerine, witch-hazel, sheep dip, borax, sulphur, blue-stone, flaxseed, insect powder, fly paper, ant poison, squirrel poison, and gopher poison, and arsenical poisons used for orchard spraying, when prepared and sold only in original and unbroken packages and labeled with the official poison labels. [Amendment approved April 21, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 1016.]

Also amended in 1907, Stats. 1907, p. 770.

§ 17. It shall be the duty of the board of pharmacy, by resolution, at least annually to request of the chief of police, marshal or constable of every city, town or township in this state, to furnish a list of all drug-stores, together with the names of the owners, managers, and all employees in said stores, and a brief statement of the capacity in which said persons are employed in said stores, and also the firm name of all stores retailing drugs, medicines or poisons. Upon such request in writing, it shall be the duty of the chief of police, marshal, or constable of said city, town or township to require the patrolmen or deputies under their command, upon their respective beats, to obtain such lists as are in this section specified, and deliver the same to the board of pharmacy. It shall be the duty of the owner or manager of any drugstore or other store retailing drugs, medicines or poisons when called upon by an officer as above set forth, or by a member of the board of pharmacy, or a duly authorized inspector, to furnish said officer, member of the board of pharmacy or duly authorized inspector with the information required. Any person refusing to furnish the information, or willfully furnishing information that is false or untrue shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty dollars nor more than fifty dollars, or by imprisonment for not less than ten days and not more than thirty-five days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. [Amendment approved March 21, 1907. Stats. 1907, p. 770. In effect in sixty days.]

§ 18. The several penalties prescribed in this act may be recovered in any court having jurisdiction, by a civil action instituted by the board of pharmacy, in the name of the state of California, or by criminal prosecution upon complaint being made; and it shall be the duty of the district attorney of the county wherein violations of the provisions of this act occur, to conduct all such actions and prosecutions at the request of the board.

§ 19. All persons registered under this act shall be exempt and free from jury duty.

§ 20. This act shall take effect July 1, 1905, and all laws in conflict with this act, in and so far as they conflict), are hereby repealed.

The title of the amendatory act of April 21, 1909, stated that it also amended §§ 4, 5, and 6, but the body of the act did not contain such amendments. Act regulating sale of poisons: See Stats. 1907, p. 124.

ACT 2665.

An act to regulate the work and hours of employees engaged in selling, at retail, drugs and medicines, and compounding physicians' prescriptions, and providing a penalty for the violation thereof.

§ 1. The judicial power of every city of the first and one-half class shall be vested in a police court to be held therein by the city justices of such city, or one of them. Either one of said justices may hold such court, and there may be as many sessions of said court at the same time as there are city justices in such city, and it is hereby made the duty of said city justices, in addition to the duties now required of them by law, to hold said police court, as judges thereof.

§ 2. Said police court shall have exclusive jurisdiction of all misdemeanors punishable by fine or by imprisonment, or by both such fine and imprisonment, committed in the city where such police court is held; and in all such cases to try and determine the same, convict or acquit, pass and enter judgment and carry such judgment into execution as the case may require, according to law.

§ 3. The said court shall also have exclusive jurisdiction of all proceedings for violation of any ordinance of said city, both civil and criminal, and of all actions for the collection of any licenses required by the ordinances of said city.

§ 4. Neither of said justices shall sit in cases in which he is a party, or in which he is interested, or where he is related to either party by consanguinity or affinity within the third degree; and in case of the sickness or inability of said justices, or either of them, either of said justices may call in any justice of the peace of the county to act in his place or stead.

§ 5. Each of the city justices, while acting as judge of said police court, shall have jurisdiction to issue warrants of arrest, search-warrants, subpoenas, and all other processes necessary to the full and proper exercise of the powers and jurisdiction of said court; to punish persons guilty of contempt of said court; to try all charges of misdemeanor offenses committed within its jurisdiction, as well as all charges for violation of city ordinances, and render judgment therein, with full power to carry such judgment into execution.

§ 6. Said police court shall have a clerk for each of the judges of said court, who shall be appointed by the judge of the said court residing in the department thereof in which the said clerk is to act, which said clerk shall hold office for the term of four years from the date of appointment. Each of said clerks shall give a bond in the sum of five thousand dollars, with at least two sureties, to be approved by the mayor, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office. Each of said clerks shall receive an annual salary of twenty-one hundred dollars a year, payable in equal monthly installments out of the treasury of said city, which salary shall be full compensation for all services rendered by him. Each of the said clerks shall keep a record of the proceedings of, and issue all processes ordered by, the city justices, or either of them, or by said police court, and receive and pay into the city treasury all fines imposed by said court. They shall also render each month to the city council an exact and detailed account under oath of all fines imposed and collected, and of all fines imposed and uncollected since their last reports. They shall prepare bonds, justify bail when the amount has been fixed by either of said justices or by said police court, and may administer and certify oaths. Said clerks shall remain at the courtrooms of said court during the business hours and during such reasonable times thereafter as may be necessary for a proper performance of their duties. Before receiving any monthly payment of salary each of said clerks shall make and file with the city auditor an affidavit that he has deposited with the city treasurer all moneys that have come into his hands, belonging to the city. Any violation of this provision shall be a misdemeanor. [Amendment approved March 31, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 797. In effect immediately.]

Also amended in 1907, Stats. 1907, p. 186.

§ 7. Said police court shall have a prosecuting attorney and three assistant prosecuting attorneys and one stenographer, all of whom shall be appointed by the district attorney of the county in which said city is situated. Said prosecuting attorney shall receive an annual salary of twenty-seven hundred and fifty dollars, which shall be paid in equal monthly installments out of the treasury of said city, which salary shall be in full compensation for all services rendered by him; and said three assistant prosecuting attorneys shall receive an annual salary of twenty-four hundred dollars each, which shall be paid in equal monthly installments out of the treasury of said city, which salaries shall be in full compensation for all services rendered by them; and said stenographer shall receive an annual salary of twelve hundred dollars, which shall be paid in equal monthly installments out of the treasury of said city, which salary shall be in full compensation for all services rendered by him. It shall be the duty of said prosecuting attorney and said assistant prosecuting attorneys to attend the sessions of said police court and conduct on behalf of the people, all prosecutions for public offenses, both misdemeanors and felonies, of which said court has jurisdiction; except criminal cases arising upon violation of the provisions of the city charter or ordinances, which shall be prosecuted by said prosecuting attorney and assistants when requested by the city attorney of said city, who may deputize said prosecutors for such purposes. [Amendment approved March 22, 1907. Stats. 1907, p. 850.]

§ 8. All fines and other moneys collected on behalf of the city in the police court shall be paid into the city treasury on the first Tuesday of each month.

§ 9. The city council shall furnish suitable rooms for the holding of said police court and shall also furnish the necessary dockets, blanks, stationery, and supplies for the carrying on of the business of said courts. One docket shall be styled "The City Criminal Docket," in which all the criminal business of said court shall be recorded, and each case shall be alphabetically indexed. Another docket shall be styled "The City Civil Docket," and it shall contain each and every civil case in which the city is a party, or which is prosecuted or defended for her interest; and each case shall be properly indexed.

§ 12. In all cases of the conviction in said police court of any person charged with any offense committed in the city, and the imprisonment of any person so convicted, the person so to be imprisoned or by ordinance required to labor, shall be imprisoned in the city jail, or in a branch thereof, or, if required to labor shall labor in the city, and the imprisonment in any branch city jail shall be deemed an imprisonment in the city jail. [Amendment approved March 19, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 436. In effect immediately.]

§ 13. Said courts shall have a seal, to be furnished by the city.

§ 14. The city justices shall, on the first Tuesday of each month, make to the city council a full and complete report of all the cases, civil and criminal, in which the city has an interest, or which are required to be entered in the city civil docket or the city criminal docket; such report to be made upon blanks furnished by the city council and in such form as they may require.

§ 15. Certified transcripts of the dockets or files of said court, certified by the clerk of said court under the seal of said court, shall be evidence in any court of this state of the contents of said docket or of said files, as the case may be; and all warrants and other process issued out of said court and all acts done by said court and certified under its seal, shall have the same force and validity in any part of this state as though issued or done by any court of record of this state.

§ 16. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

ACT 2742.

An act to establish police courts in cities of the second class, to fix their jurisdiction, and provide for officers of said courts, and fix the compensation of certain officers thereof. [Approved March 23, 1901. Stats. 1901, p. 576.]

Amended 1905, p. 684; 1907, p. 748; 1909, p. 975.

§ 1. The judicial power of every city of the second class shall be vested in a police court to be held therein by the city justices of such city, or one of them. Either one of said justices may hold such court, and there may be as many sessions of said court at the same time as there are city justices in such city, and it is hereby made the duty of said city justices, in addition to the duties now required of them by law, to hold said police court, as judges thereof.

§ 2. Said police court shall have exclusive jurisdiction of all misdemeanors punishable by fine or by imprisonment, or by both such fine and imprisonment, committed in the city where such police court is held; and in all such cases, to try and determine the same, convict or acquit, pass and enter judgment and carry such judgment into execution as the case may require, according to law.

§ 3. The said court shall also have exclusive jurisdiction of all proceedings for violation of any ordinance of said city, both civil and criminal, and of all actions for the collection of any licenses required by the ordinances of said city.

siding in the department thereof in which the said clerk is to act, which said clerks shall hold office for the term of two years from the date of appointment. Each of said clerks shall give a bond in the sum of five thousand dollars, with at least two sureties, to be approved by the mayor of said city, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office. Each of said clerks shall receive an annual salary of one thousand eight hundred dollars a year, payable in equal monthly installments out of the treasury of said city, which salary shall be the full compensation for all services rendered by him. Each of the said clerks shall keep a record of the proceedings of, and issue all processes ordered by, the city justices, or either of them, or by said police court, and receive and pay into the city treasury all fines imposed by said court. They shall also render each month to the city council an exact and detailed account under oath of all fines imposed and collected, and of all fines imposed and uncollected since their last reports. They shall prepare bonds, justify bail when the amount has been fixed by either of said justices or by said police court, in cases not exceeding one hundred dollars, and may administer and certify oaths. Said clerks shall remain at the courtrooms of said court during the business hours and during such reasonable times thereafter as may be necessary for a proper performance of their duties. Before receiving any monthly payment of salary each of said clerks shall make and file with the city auditor an affidavit that he has deposited with the city treasurer all moneys that have come into his hands, belonging to the city. Any violation of this provision shall be a misdemeanor.

§ 8. All fines and other moneys collected on behalf of the city in the police court shall be paid into the city treasury on the first Tuesday of each month.

§ 9. The city council shall furnish suitable rooms for the holding of said police court and shall also furnish the necessary dockets, blanks, stationery, and supplies for the carrying on of the business of said courts. One docket shall be styled "The City Criminal Docket," in which all the criminal business of said court shall be recorded, and each case shall be alphabetically indexed. Another docket shall be styled "The City Civil Docket," and it shall contain each and every civil case in which the city is a party, or which is prosecuted or defended for her interest; and each case shall be properly indexed.

§ 11. Appeals may be taken from any judgment of said police court to the superior court of the county in which such city may be located, in the same manner in which appeals are taken from the justices' courts in like cases.

§ 12. In all cases of imprisonment of persons convicted in said police court of any offense committed in the city, the person so to be imprisoned, or by ordinance required to labor, shall be imprisoned in the city jail, or, if required to labor, shall labor in the city.

§ 14. The city justices shall, on the first Tuesday of each month, make to the city council a full and complete report of all the cases, civil and criminal, in which the city has an interest, or which are required to be entered in the city civil docket or the city criminal docket, such report to be made upon blanks furnished by the city council and in such form as they may require.

§ 15. Certified transcripts of the dockets or files of said court, certified by the clerk of said court under the seal of said court, shall be evidence in any court of this state of the contents of said docket or of said files, as the case may be; and all warrants and other process issued out of said court and all acts done by said court and certified under its seal, shall have the same force and validity in any part of this state as though issued or done by any court of record of this state.

§ 16. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the thirtieth day of March, A. D. nineteen hundred and one.

ACT 2743.

An act to provide for prosecuting attorneys of police courts in cities of the second class, and regulating the compensation of such officers.

[Approved March 23, 1901. Stats. 1901, p. 664.]

§ 1. The police court in all cities of the second class shall have a prosecuting attorney, to be appointed by the district attorney of the county in which said city is situated, who shall hold office for the period of four years from the date of his appointment. He shall receive an annual salary of two thousand (2,000) dollars, payable in equal monthly installments, out of the treasury of said city, which salary shall be in full compensation for all services rendered by him. It shall be the duty of said prosecuting attorney to attend the sessions of said court, and conduct on behalf of the people all prosecutions for public offenses of which said court has jurisdiction.

§ 2. All other acts or parts of acts in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

§ 3. This act shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage.

ACT 2744.

An act providing for the appointment of police judges in municipalities having a freeholders' charter, wherein provision is made for a police court judge, but no provision is made for the appointment or election of such police judge.

[Approved February 23, 1907. Stats. 1907, p. 54.]

§ 1. That in all municipalities having a freeholders' charter, which provides for a police court to be presided over by a police judge but makes no provision for the election or appointment of a police judge, the board of trustees or council of such municipalities shall have authority to make an appointment to fill such office.

§ 2. The person so appointed must be an elector of the municipality and shall hold office during the existence of the board of trustees or council appointing him and until his successor in office shall have been appointed and qualified.

§ 3. All acts or portions of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

§ 4. This act shall take effect immediately.

TITLE 389.

POULTRY.

ACT 2748.

An act to establish a poultry experiment station in the county of Sonoma, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved March 13, 1903. Stats. 1903, p. 143.]

§ 1. There is hereby established in the county of Sonoma, at or near the city of Petaluma, a poultry experiment station, to be known as the "California Poultry Experiment Station."

§ 2. The purposes of said station shall be the study of the diseases of poultry to ascertain the causes of such diseases, and to recommend treatment for the prevention and cure of the same; to ascertain the relative value of poultry foods for the production of flesh, fat, eggs, and feathers; to recommend methods of sanitation, and to conduct investigations for the purpose of securing results conducive to the promotion of the poultry interests of the state. This act shall be liberally construed to the end that the station hereby established may at all times contribute to the technical and general knowledge of the public upon the subject of poultry husbandry.

§ 3. The said station shall be under the supervision of the director of the agricultural experiment stations of the state of California, who shall, from time to time, cause to be issued bulletins of information regarding the care of poultry.

§ 4. Within thirty days after the passage of this act the governor shall appoint three persons, two of whom shall be from the staff or professors in the agricultural department of the University of California, and one a practical poultry-raiser, which said persons shall constitute a board or commission to select and secure a site of not less than five acres for such poultry experiment station. Such board shall have full power to secure such site, by lease, purchase, or donation thereof, and shall proceed to the performance of the duties herein imposed within thirty days after receiving notice of their appointment.

§ 5. All moneys appropriated for the use of the station hereby established shall be under the control of the regents of the University of California.

§ 6. The sum of five thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury, not otherwise appropriated, for securing the necessary site, and for equipping and maintaining said California poultry experiment station as provided by this act. Of the amount herein appropriated, the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars shall be available during the fiscal year nineteen hundred three and nineteen hundred four, and two thousand five hundred dollars shall be available during the fiscal year nineteen hundred four and nineteen hundred five.

§ 7. The state controller is hereby authorized to draw his warrants for the sum herein appropriated in favor of the treasurer of the regents of the University of California, and the state treasurer is hereby directed to pay the same.

§ 8. This act shall take effect immediately.

ACT 2775.

An act creating the office of matron of the jail or prison in and for cities and towns of the first, first and one-half, second, and third classes, wherein official matrons or their duties are not now provided for by law, defining the duties and powers and fixing the term of office and compensation of, and providing for the appointment of, and the giving of official bond by, such matron.

§ 1. Public welfare and present necessity in the several cities and towns in this state of the first, first and one-half, second, and third classes, requiring that in such cities and towns there should be an official matron of the city or town jail or prison therein, the office of matron of the city or town jail or prison is hereby created in and for those several cities and towns in this state of the first, first and one-half, second, and third classes, and concerning which there is now no provision of law for the office of, or prescribing the duties of, matron of the jail or prison of such city or town; and the duties and powers of such matron in such cases shall be as follows: She shall have free access at all reasonable times to the immediate presence of all female prisoners in the jail or prison of which she is the official matron, including the right of personal visitation and conversation with them; and, in all cases of searching the person of female prisoners therein, such matron exclusively shall make such search; and the matron shall, by example, advice and admonition employ her best abilities at all times to secure and promote the health, welfare and reformation of all such prisoners. The term of office of such matron shall be two years from her appointment and qualification and until her successor is appointed and qualified.

§ 2. The legislative board or body of each such city or town, referred to in section 1 of this act, is hereby authorized and empowered to appoint, and to provide for the payment of the compensation of, a matron of the jail or prison in and for the city or town of which such board or body is the governing board or body, and to specify the conditions and fix the amount of the matron's official bond, to be approved by such board or body.

§ 3. The compensation of such matrons, hereby regulated in proportion to the duties to be discharged, shall be as follows, payable monthly: In and for such cities of the first class, seventy-five dollars per month; in and for such cities of the first and one-half class and of the second class, sixty-five dollars per month; in and for such cities of the third class, fifty dollars per month.

§ 4. To further the carrying into effect of the authority herein conferred and in furtherance of the discharge of the duties of such matrons, it is hereby enacted that no officer, deputy, policeman, constable, jailer, keeper, guard or person having charge or control of the jail or prison of any such city or town, referred to in section 1 of this act, shall refuse the matron, duly appointed and qualified hereunder, free access at all reasonable times to the immediate presence of all female prisoners therein, including the right of visitation and conversation with them, or in such jail or prison allow the searching of the person, in the case of a female prisoner, to be made except by such matron of such jail or prison, or obstruct the performance by such matron of her official duties in such jail or prison as those duties may be specified under the authority of this act or of law.

§ 5. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed.

§ 6. This act shall take effect immediately.

extending by, through, or over such communities or neighborhoods, and to provide for the acquisition of lands, rights of way, and other property by purchase, gift, or condemnation, and for extending, straightening, locating, improving, and maintaining the channels of such streams, watercourses, canyons, or washes, and confining said waters in such channels and preventing the overflow thereof, and for the construction by such districts of the necessary works for said purposes.

Amended 1907, p. 850.

Protection districts, organization.

§ 1. Whenever fifty, or a majority of the owners who are also the owners of a majority of the lands of any farming or other community or neighborhood within this state, which lands lie in one body and are liable to overflow or damage from the waters of any innavigable stream, watercourse, canyon, or wash extending by, through, or over such community or neighborhood, and may be protected by the same system of works, desire to provide for the protection of such lands from said damage, they may propose the organization of a protection district under the provisions of this act, and when so organized, such district shall have the powers, rights, and duties conferred, or which may be conferred by law upon such protection districts. The equalized county assessment-roll next preceding the presentation of a petition for the organization of a protection district under the provisions of this act, shall be prima facie evidence of ownership for the purposes of this act; provided, that no person who has received or acquired ownership of land within such proposed district for the purpose of enabling him or her to join in such petition or to become an elector of said district, shall be competent to sign such petition or vote at any election held for the purpose of its organization. Such illegal signing, however, shall not invalidate such petition when there shall be found a sufficient number of other legal petitioners.

Petition for formation of district. Bond. Publication.

§ 2. In order to propose the organization of a protection district, a petition shall be presented to the board of supervisors of the county in which the lands of the community or neighborhood and within the proposed district, or the greater portion thereof, are situated, signed by the required number of owners of lands within such proposed district, as above provided, which petition shall set forth and particularly describe the proposed boundaries of such district and the purposes of such organization, and shall pray that the same be organized under the provisions of this act. The petitioners must accompany the petition with a good and sufficient bond, to be approved by the said board of supervisors, in double the amount of the probable cost of organizing such district, conditioned that the obligors will pay all the cost in case such an organization will not be effected. The petition shall be presented at a regular meeting of said board of supervisors, and shall have been published for at least two weeks before such presentation, in some newspaper of general circulation in said community or neighborhood and printed and published in the county where the petition is presented, together with a notice stating the date of the meeting of said board at which the petition will be presented; and if any portion of the proposed district lies within another county, or counties, then said petition and notice shall be likewise published in such a newspaper printed and published in each of such counties.

Board of supervisors, hearing on petition. Boundaries.

§ 3. When such petition is presented, the board of supervisors shall hear the same, together with any objections in writing which may have been made and filed with said board by any owner of land within such proposed district, and also may adjourn such hearing from time to time, not exceeding four weeks in all, and on the final hearing said board shall make such changes in the proposed boundaries as may be deemed advisable by them in carrying out the purposes of this act, and shall define and establish such boundaries; but said board shall not modify said boundaries so as to exclude from such proposed district any land liable to damage from the overflow of such waters, as hereinbefore stated; nor shall said board modify said boundaries so as to include within such proposed district lands not liable to be damaged by such overflow; nor shall said board modify said boundaries so as to include any lands not included within the boundaries proposed in said petition. Any owner of lands adjacent to the borders of said district may, by his written application therefor filed with said board on or before the time of the hearing of said petition, in the discretion of said board have such lands included within said proposed district. Upon such hearing of said petition, the board of supervisors shall determine whether or not said petition complies with the requirements and purposes of this act, and must hear all competent and relevant testimony offered in support or in opposition thereto. Such determination shall be entered upon the minutes of said board of supervisors.

Election precincts. Directors.

§ 4. When under the provisions of the preceding sections the boundaries of the proposed district shall be defined and established by said board, they shall make an order dividing said district into three or five divisions, as nearly equal in size as practicable, which divisions shall be numbered consecutively and constitute election precincts for said district, and one director, who shall be an elector and resident of the precinct for which he is elected, shall be elected as hereinafter provided, by each precinct; provided that when requested in the petition, three directors, who shall be residents, and electors, of the district, shall be elected at large by the qualified electors of the district.

Notice of election. Publication. Ballots.

§ 5. Said board of supervisors shall then give notice of an election to be held in such proposed district, for the purpose of determining whether or not the same shall be organized under the provisions of this act. Such notice shall designate a name for such proposed district and describe the boundaries of the precincts established therein, when more than one, together with a designation of the polling-place and board of election for each precinct; and said notice shall be published for at least three weeks previous to such election, in a newspaper of general circulation within the boundaries of said proposed district and published within the county in which the petition for the organization of such district was presented; and if any portion of such proposed district is within another county, or counties, then such notice shall be published for the same length of time in such a newspaper published in each of said counties. Such notice shall require the electors to cast ballots which shall contain the words "Protection District—Yes," or, "Protection District—No," or words equivalent thereto, and also the names of one or more persons (according to the division of the proposed district as prayed for in the petition and ordered by the board), to be voted for to fill the office of director. Such election shall be conducted, as nearly as practicable, in accordance with the general laws of the state, but no particular form of ballot shall be required.

Who entitled to vote at elections held under act.

§ 6. No person shall be entitled to vote at any election held under the provisions of this act unless he possesses all the qualifications required of electors under the general election laws of the state, provided however that any person who is an actual and bona fide owner of one or more acres of land located and situated in said district shall have the right to vote at any election held hereunder, whether he be a resident of said district or not. [Amendment approved March 21, 1907. Stats. 1907, p. 850.]

Canvass of vote. Declaration of result.

§ 7. Said election shall then be held, and the said board of supervisors shall, on the first Monday succeeding such election, if then in session, or at its next succeeding general or special session, proceed to canvass the votes cast thereat, and if upon such canvass it appear that at least two-thirds of all the votes cast are "Protection District—Yes," the board shall, by an order entered in its minutes, declare such territory duly organized as a protection district, under the name theretofore designated, and shall declare the persons receiving, respectively, the highest number of votes for directors, to be duly elected to such offices.

Copy of order to be recorded.

§ 8. Said board shall then cause a copy of such order, duly certified by the clerk of said board, to be immediately filed for record in the office of the county recorder of any county in which any portion of the lands embraced in such district is situated, and must also immediately forward a copy thereof to the clerk of the board of supervisors of each of said last mentioned counties; and no board of supervisors of any county in which any portion of the lands embraced in such districts are situated, shall, after the date of the organization thereof, allow another district to be formed including any portion of said lands, without the consent of the board of directors of the district in which they are situated. From and after such filing, the organization of the district shall be complete.

Contest.

§ 9. Such election or organization may be contested by any person owning property within the proposed district liable to assessment. The directors elected at such election shall be made parties defendant. Such contest shall be brought in the superior court of the county where the petition for organization is filed; provided, that if more than one contest be pending, they shall be consolidated and tried together. The court having jurisdiction shall speedily try such contest, and determine upon the hearing whether the election was fairly conducted and in substantial compliance with the requirements of this act, and enter its judgment accordingly. Such contest may be brought within twenty days after the canvass of the vote and declaration of the result by the board of supervisors, but not later. The right of appeal is hereby given to either party to the record.

Directors, term of office.

§ 10. The directors elected at the election hereinbefore provided for, shall immediately enter upon their duties as such, upon qualifying in the manner herein provided. Said directors shall hold office, respectively, until their successors are elected and qualified.

Classification of directors. Organization. Secretary.

§ 11. Such directors shall, on the first Tuesday after their election after they shall have qualified, meet and classify themselves by lot into two classes, as nearly equal in number as possible, and the term of office of the class having the greatest number shall expire at the next general February election in this act provided for; and the term of office of the class having the lesser number shall terminate at the next general February election thereafter. After such classification said directors shall organize as a board, shall elect a president from their number and appoint a secretary, who shall each hold office during the pleasure of the board. The salary of the secretary and the amount of the bond to be given by him for the faithful performance of his duties shall be fixed by the board of directors.

Meetings. Minutes of proceedings. Financial statement.

§ 12. The board of directors shall hold regular meetings in their office, on the first Tuesday in March, June, September, and December, and such special meetings as may be required for the proper transaction of business; provided, that all special meetings must be ordered by a majority of the board, by an order entered in the minutes specifying the business to be transacted. Three days' notice to any member not joining in the order must be given by the secretary, and only the business specified in the order must be transacted at such special meeting.

All meetings of the board must be public, and a majority of the members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. A minute of all proceedings of the board shall be kept by the secretary, and all records of the board shall be open to public inspection during business hours. The board of directors shall, on the first Tuesday in March of each and every year, render, and immediately thereafter cause to be published, a verified statement of the financial condition of the district, showing particularly the receipts and disbursements of the last preceding year, together with the source of such receipts and purpose of such disbursements. Said publication shall be made at least once a week; for two weeks, in some paper of general circulation within said district and published in the county where the office of the board of directors of such district is situated.

Conduct of affairs of district. Acquisition of land.

§ 13. The board of directors shall have the power, and it shall be their duty, to manage and conduct the business and affairs of the district; to make and execute, in the name of the district, all necessary contracts; to adopt a seal for the district, to be used in the attestation of proper documents; to provide for the payment from the proper fund of all the debts and just claims against the district; to employ and appoint engineers to survey, plan, locate, and supervise the construction of works necessary for the protection of the lands within said district from damage by overflow from the waters of said stream, watercourse, canyon, or wash, as hereinbefore stated, and to estimate the cost of such works and the land needed for right of way, also to construct, maintain, and keep in repair all works necessary for the purpose of such protection. The board and its agents and employees shall have the right to enter upon any land to make surveys, and may locate the necessary protection works for the purpose of protecting the lands of said district from damage by the overflow of the waters of said stream, watercourse, canyon or wash. Said board shall also have the right to acquire, hold, and possess, either by donation, purchase, or condemnation, in the name and on behalf of said district, any land or other property necessary for the construction, use, maintenance, repair, and improvement of any works for the purpose of protection, as herein provided. The board may establish equitable by-laws, rules, and regulations necessary or proper for carrying on the business herein provided for.

Change of boundaries.

§ 14. The board of directors, when they deem it advisable, for the best interests of the district, and the convenience of the electors thereof, may at any time, but not less than sixty days before an election to be held in the district, change the boundaries of the election precincts of the district; provided, such changes shall be made to keep all the precincts as nearly equal in area and population as may be practicable. Such changes of boundaries of the precincts must be shown on the minutes of the board.

Condemnation proceedings.

§ 15. In case of condemnation proceedings, the board shall proceed, in the name of the district, under the provisions of Title VII, Part III, of the Code of Civil Procedure, which said provisions are hereby made applicable for that purpose; and it is hereby declared that the use of the property which may be condemned, taken, or appropriated under the provisions of this act, is a public use, subject to the regulation and control of the state, in the manner prescribed by law.

Elections. Official bonds. Vacancies.

§ 16. In each district organized as herein provided, an election shall be held on the first Wednesday in February of each odd-numbered year, at which directors for the district shall be elected to fill the places of those whose terms then expire. The person receiving the highest number of votes for the office to be filled at such election is elected thereto. Within ten days after receiving their respective certificates of election, each of said persons shall qualify as such director by taking and subscribing the official oath and filing a bond, as herein provided. Each director shall execute an official bond in the sum of five thousand dollars, which shall be approved by the judge of the superior court of the county where the organization of the district was effected, and shall be recorded in the office of the county recorder of such county, and then, together with his official oath, filed with the secretary of the board of directors. All official bonds herein provided shall be in the form prescribed by law for the official bonds of county officers. If a vacancy shall occur in the office of director, the same shall be filled by appointment by the remaining members of said board of directors. A director so appointed shall qualify within ten days after receiving notice of his appointment, as in said act provided, as if he were elected to such office, as hereinbefore provided; and he shall hold such office only until the next regular election for such district, and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Organization of board. Office, place of.

§ 17. On the first Tuesday in March next following the election, the directors who shall have been elected at the general February election, and those whose terms have not expired shall meet and organize as a board, elect a president and appoint a secretary, who shall each hold office during the pleasure of the board. The full term of office of directors is hereby fixed at four years. The office of the board of directors of any such district may be established by said board of directors at the county seat, of the county where the same was organized, or at some proper and convenient place within the district, but after the office is once established it shall not be changed without giving notice thereof by posting in three public places in the district and by publishing a similar notice for thirty days in some newspaper of general circulation throughout said district and published in the county where the same is organized.

Notice of election. Election officers, appointment.

§ 18. Fifteen days before any election held under this act, subsequent to the organization of any district, the secretary of the board of directors shall cause notices to be posted in three public places in each election precinct, of the time and place of holding the election, and shall also post a similar notice of the same in a conspicuous place in the office of said board, specifying the polling-places of each precinct, and the names of the members of the boards of election, for each precinct. Prior to the time for posting such notices, the board must appoint for each precinct, from the electors thereof, one inspector and one judge and one clerk, who shall constitute a board of election for such precinct. If the board fail to appoint a board of election, or the members appointed, or any of them, do not attend at the opening of the polls on the morning of election, the electors of the precinct present at that hour, may appoint the board, or supply the place of an absent member thereof. The board of directors must in its order appointing the board of election, designate the place within each precinct where the election must be held.

Organization of election board. Polls, when opened and when closed.

§ 19. The inspector is chairman of the election board, and may administer all oaths required in the progress of an election; and appoint judges and clerks, if, during the progress of the election, any judge or clerk cease to act. Any member of the board of election, or any clerk thereof, may administer and certify oaths required to be administered during the progress of an election. The board of election for each precinct must, before opening the polls, appoint two persons to act as clerks of the election. Before opening the polls, each member of the board and each clerk must take and subscribe an oath to faithfully perform the duties imposed upon them by law. Any elector of the precinct may administer any certify such oath. The polls must be open at 9 o'clock A. M., and be kept open until 4 o'clock P. M., when the same must be closed. The provisions of the general election laws concerning the form of ballots to be used shall not apply to elections held under this act.

Voting.

§ 20. Voting may commence as soon as the polls are opened, and may be continued during all the time the polls remain opened, and shall be conducted, as nearly as practicable, in accordance with the provisions of the general election laws in this state.

Election returns.

§ 21. As soon as all the votes are read off and counted, a certificate shall be drawn up on each of the papers containing the poll-list and tallies, or attached thereto, stating the number of votes each one voted for has received, and designating the office to fill which he was voted for, which number shall be written in figures and in words at full length. Each certificate shall be signed by the clerk, judge and the inspector. One of said certificates with the poll-list and the tally paper to which it is attached, shall be retained by the inspector, and preserved by him at least six months. The ballots shall be strung upon a cord or thread by the inspector, during the counting thereof, in the order in which they are entered upon the tally-list by the clerks; and said ballots together with the other of said certificates, with the poll-list and tally paper to which it is attached, shall be sealed by the inspector in the presence of the judges and clerks and indorsed "election returns of (naming the precinct) precinct" and be directed to the secretary of the board of directors and shall be immediately delivered by the inspector, or by some other safe and responsible carrier designated by said inspector, to said secretary, and the ballots shall be kept unopened for at least six months, and if any person be of the opinion that the vote of any precinct has not been correctly counted, he may appear on the day appointed for the board of directors to open and canvass the returns and demand a recount of the vote of the precinct that is so claimed to have been incorrectly counted.

Canvass of returns.

§ 22. No list, tally paper, or certificate, from any election, shall be set aside or rejected for want of form if it can be satisfactorily understood. The board of directors must meet at its usual place of meeting on the first Monday after each election to canvass the returns. If, at the time of meeting, the returns from each precinct in the district in which the polls were opened have been received, the board of directors must then and there proceed to canvass the returns; but if all the returns have not been received, the canvass must be postponed from day to day until the returns have been received, or until six postponements have been had. The canvass must be made in public and by opening the returns and computing the vote of the district for each person voted for and declaring the result thereof.

Declaration of result.

§ 23. The secretary of the board of directors must, as soon as the result is declared, enter in the records of such board a statement of such result, which statement must show: (a) the whole number of votes cast in the district and in each precinct thereof if there be more than one precinct; (b) the names of the persons voted for; (c) the office to fill which each person was voted for; (d) the number of votes given in each precinct to each of such persons; (e) the number of votes given in each division for the office of director. The board of directors must declare the persons having the highest number of votes given for each office. The secretary must immediately make out and deliver to such person a certificate of election, signed by him, and authenticated with the seal of the board.

Number of directors.

§ 24. In any district the board of directors thereof may, upon the presentation of a petition therefor, by a majority of the land owners of said district, order that on and after the next ensuing general election for the district, there shall be either three or five directors, as said board may order, and they shall be elected, by the district at large, or by divisions, as so petitioned and ordered; and after such order such directors shall be so elected.

Titles to district property, where vested.

§ 25. The legal title to all property acquired under the provisions of this act shall immediately and by operation of law vest in such protection district, and shall be held by such district in trust for and is hereby dedicated and set apart to the uses and purposes set forth in this act. And said board is hereby authorized and empowered to hold, use, acquire, manage, occupy, and possess said property as herein provided. The said board is hereby authorized and empowered to take conveyances or other assurances for all property acquired by it under the provisions of this act, in the name of such protection district, to and for the uses and purposes herein expressed, and to institute and maintain or defend any and all actions and proceedings, suits at law or in equity, necessary or proper in order to fully carry out the provisions of this act, or to enforce, maintain, protect, or preserve any and all rights, privileges, and immunities created by this act, or acquired in pursuance thereof. And in all courts, actions, suits, or proceedings, the said board may sue, appear, and defend in person or by attorneys, and in the name of such protection district.

Employment of engineer. Plans for work. Bond election. Additional money.

§ 26. Upon the completion of the organization of such district and of its board of directors, as hereinbefore provided for, said board of directors shall employ a civil engineer, or engineers, to make a plan, or plans, for the construction of works necessary for the protection of the land of such district from overflow and damage as hereinbefore specified; and also an estimate of the cost of said works and of the lands and property necessary to be taken or injured by such construction; which engineer, or engineers, shall report in writing to said board such plans and estimates, when completed; and said board of directors, after securing such plans and estimates, shall determine therefrom and such other information and evidence as they may deem proper to secure, the probable cost of the construction of said works and the lands and property necessary to be taken and injured by such construction. Said board shall thereupon call a special election, at which shall be submitted to the electors of such district the question whether or not the bonds of said district shall be issued in the amount so determined. Notice of such election must be given by posting notices in three public places in each election precinct in said district for at least twenty days, and also by publication of such notice in some newspaper of general circulation within said district and published in the county where the office of the board of directors of such district is required to be kept, once a week for at least three successive weeks. Such notices must specify the time of holding the election, the amount of bonds proposed to be issued; and said election must be held and the result thereof determined and declared in all respects as nearly as practicable in conformity with the provisions of this act governing the election of officers; provided, that no informalities in conducting such an election shall invalidate the same, if the election shall have been otherwise fairly conducted. At such election the ballots shall contain the words "Bonds—Yes" or "Bonds—No," or words equivalent thereto. If a majority of the votes cast are "Bonds—Yes," the board of directors shall cause bonds in said amount to be issued; if a majority of the votes cast at any bond election are "Bonds—No," the result of such election shall be so declared and entered of record. Whenever, also, the construction fund in this act provided for has been exhausted by expenditures therefrom as in this act authorized, and it is necessary to raise additional money for said purpose, the board of directors may estimate and determine the amount of the money necessary to be raised and thereupon submit to said electors the question of raising the same by the issuance of bonds in the same manner and with like effect as at such previous election hereinbefore provided for.

Bonds, when payable. Interest rate.

§ 27. All bonds issued under the provisions of this act shall be payable in gold coin of the United States, in ten series as follows, to wit: On the first day of January after the expiration of eleven years, five per cent of the whole number of said bonds; on the first day of January, after the expiration of twelve years, six per cent; on the first day of January after the expiration of thirteen years, seven per cent; on the first day of January after the expiration of fourteen years, eight per cent; on the first day of January after the expiration of fifteen years, nine per cent; on the first day of January after the expiration of sixteen years, ten per cent; on the first day of January after the expiration of seventeen years, eleven per cent; on the first day of January after the expiration of eighteen years, thirteen per cent; on the first day of January after the expiration of nineteen years, fifteen per cent; on the first day of January after the expiration of twenty years, sixteen per cent; that the several enumerated percentages being of the entire amount of the bond issue, but each bond must be made payable at a given time for its entire amount and not for a percentage. Said bonds shall bear interest at a rate to be determined by said board of directors and specified in said notice of election not to exceed six per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, on the first day of January and July of each year. The principal and interest shall be payable at the place designated therein. Said bonds shall be each of the denomination of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars; shall be negotiable in form, signed by the president and secretary, and the seal of the board of directors shall be affixed and the bonds of each issue shall be numbered consecutively, and bear date at the time of their issue. Coupons for the interest shall be attached to each bond, signed by the secretary. Said bonds shall express on their face that they were signed by authority of this act, stating its title and date of approval, and shall also so state the number of the issue of which such bonds are a part. The secretary shall keep a record of the bonds sold, their number, the date of sale, the price received, and the name of the purchaser.

Sale of bonds. Publication. Proposals.

§ 28. The board may sell said bonds from time to time, in such quantities as may be necessary and most advantageous to raise money for the construction of said works, the acquisition of said property and rights, and otherwise to fully carry out the objects and purposes of this act. Before making any sale the board shall, at a meeting, by resolution, declare its intention to sell a specified amount of the bonds, and the day and hour and place of such sale, and shall cause such resolution to be entered in the minutes, and notice of the sale to be given, by publication thereof at least three weeks in some newspaper of general circulation in said district and published in the county where the office of the said board is located, and in any other newspaper, at its discretion. The notice shall state that sealed proposals will be received by the board at their office, for the purchase of bonds, till the day and hour named in the resolution. At the time appointed the board shall open the proposals, and award the purchase of the bonds to the highest responsible bidder; provided, however, that they may reject all bids. Said board shall in no event sell any of said bonds for less than the par value thereof.

Bonds a lien against property.

§ 29. Any bonds issued under the provisions of this act shall be a lien upon the property of the district and the lien for the bonds of any issue shall be a preferred lien to that for any subsequent issue. Said bonds, and the interest thereon, shall be paid by revenue derived from an annual assessment upon the real property of the district; and all the real property in the district shall be and remain liable to be assessed for such payments as hereinafter provided.

Assessments. To be submitted to electors.

§ 30. In case the money raised by the sale of bonds issued be insufficient or in case the bonds be unavailable for the completion of the works, and additional bonds be not voted, the board of directors shall provide for the completion of said works by levying assessments therefor; provided, however, that such levy of assessment shall not be made except first an estimate of the amount required for the purpose thereof has been made by said board, and the question as to the making of said levy submitted to a vote of the electors of the district. Before such question is submitted, the order of submission shall be entered in the minutes of the board, stating the amount to be levied and the purpose therefor, and if submitted at a special election said order shall, in addition, fix the day of election. Notice of such election must be given by posting notices in three public places in each election precinct in said district for at least twenty days, and also by publication of such notice in some newspaper of general circulation in said district and published in the county where the office of the board of directors of such district is required to be kept, once a week for at least three successive weeks. Such notices must specify the time of holding the election, and the amount of assessment proposed to be levied. Said election must be held and the result thereof determined and declared in all respects as nearly as practicable in conformity with the provisions of this act governing the election of officers; provided, that no informalities in conducting such an election shall invalidate the same, if the election shall have been otherwise fairly conducted. At such election the ballots shall contain the words, "Assessment—Yes," or "Assessment—No," or words equivalent thereto. If a majority of the votes cast are "Assessment—Yes," the board of directors shall proceed in the manner prescribed in the sections herein provided for raising funds for the annual requirements; if a majority of the votes cast are "Assessment—No," the result of such election shall be so declared and entered of record.

New bonds.

§ 31. Whenever a district organized under the provisions of this act, has outstanding bonds, coupons, or other evidences of indebtedness, the payment thereof may be provided for by the issuance of new bonds, in the manner hereinafter prescribed.

Funding of bonds.

§ 32. In order to propose the funding of such bonds, coupons, or other evidences of indebtedness a petition shall be presented to the board of directors of such protection district, signed by a majority of the owners of the land situated therein, which petition shall set forth the amount of bonds, coupons, or other evidences of indebtedness proposed to be funded, together with a general description of same, also the total amount of the bonds sought to be issued (provided, that said amount shall in no case be greater than the total amount of bonds, coupons, and other evidences of indebtedness then outstanding and sought to be funded), together with a full and complete statement of the purposes for which such bonds are to be used. On presentation of such petition, the same shall be entered in full on the minutes of the board.

Special election.

§ 33. Immediately after the recording of said petition the board shall call a special election, at which shall be submitted to the electors of such district the question whether or not the bonds of such district in the amount set forth in said petition shall be issued. Notice of such election must be given by posting notices in three public places in each election precinct in said district for at least twenty days, and also by publication of such notice in some newspaper of general circulation in said district and published in the county where the office of the board of directors of such district is required to be kept, once a week for at least three successive weeks before such election. Such notice must specify the time of holding the election, the amount of bonds proposed to be issued, the amount of bonds, coupons or other evidences of indebtedness proposed to be funded, together with a general description of the same. Said election shall be held and the result thereof determined and declared in all respects as nearly as practicable in conformity with the provisions governing the election of officers; provided, that no informalities in conducting such an election shall invalidate the same, if the election shall have been otherwise fairly conducted. At such election, the ballots shall contain the words "Bonds—Yes" or "Bonds—No" or words equivalent thereto. If two-thirds of the votes cast are "Bonds—Yes" the board of directors shall cause bonds in said amount to be issued. If more than one-third of the votes cast at such election are "Bonds—No," the result of such election shall be so declared. The result in either case shall be duly entered of record.

Refunding bonds, how payable.

§ 34. If said bonds are directed to be issued as herein provided for the board of directors shall cause the same to be issued. Said bonds shall be made payable in gold coin of the United States, in twenty series, as follows, to wit: On the first day of January after the expiration of twenty years, five per cent of the whole amount of said bonds, and on the first day of January of each year thereafter, an equal amount of such bonds until all shall have been finally paid; that is, five per cent of the whole issue of bonds—not five per cent of each bond, each being wholly payable when due. Said bonds shall bear interest at a rate to be determined by the board of directors and specified in the notice of election not to exceed six per cent per annum, payable semi-annually on the first day of January and July of each year. They shall be negotiable in form, and shall be of denominations of not less than $100 nor more than $500. Said bonds shall in all respects conform to the form of bonds prescribed hereinbefore.

Must sell at par.

§ 35. It shall be unlawful to sell or exchange any of the bonds as herein provided for less than their par value.

County treasurer to be custodian.

§ 36. When bonds issued under section 34 of this act shall be duly executed, they shall be deposited with the treasurer of the county wherein the district was organized, who is hereby authorized and charged with the duty of receiving the same, and his receipt shall be taken therefor, and he shall be charged with the same on his official bond, and shall have no power to deliver the same in exchange for any bonds or indebtedness proposed to be funded until the bonds or evidence of indebtedness proposed to be funded shall have been surrendered to him, and he shall have been ordered by the board of directors of the district, by an order duly entered on their records to make such delivery. When such bonds have been exchanged for other bonds, coupons, or other evidences of indebtedness, the treasurer shall at once cancel such other bonds, coupons, or other evidences of indebtedness by writing across the face thereof "canceled" and the date of cancellation, and report the same with his next regular report hereinafter provided for to the board of directors of the district designating the bond, coupon, or other evidence of indebtedness, so that it can be identified, the date of cancellation, and the person from whom it was received, together with the amount paid therefor, or the terms of exchange, in case there is an exchange.

Bonds may be sold from time to time.

§ 37. When said bonds are issued for the purpose of sale to the highest bidder, the board may sell said bonds from time to time, in such quantities as may be necessary and most advantageous, to raise money to pay bonds, coupons, or other evidences of indebtedness of the district which were outstanding at the time of the filing of said petition, and generally described therein. Resolution of intention must be declared, and notice given, and the sale conducted in the manner prescribed in this act for the sale of original bonds. Said bonds shall in no event be sold for less than their par value including accrued interest. All moneys realized from the sale of bonds, issued under the provisions of this section, shall be paid into the hands of the said treasurer, and by him kept in a separate fund, known as the funding fund, and shall be applied exclusively to the payment of bonds, coupons, or other evidences of indebtedness of the district outstanding at the time of the filing of the said petition, and described therein.

Exchange of bonds.

§ 38. The bonds issued as herein provided for may be exchanged, at not less than their par value, including accrued interest, for any of the indebtedness set out and described in the notice of the election authorizing the issuance of said refunding bond. A contract for such exchange may be made by the board of directors upon such terms as said board may deem advisable; provided, that they must receive not less than par value for the bonds so exchanged.

Estimate of amount needed.

§ 39. The board of directors must, on or before the first meeting of the board of supervisors in September of each year, furnish the supervisors and the auditor of the county wherein the district is situated, or if such district is not entirely within one county, then as hereinafter provided, to the supervisors and auditors of each county in which any portion of the district is situated, an estimate in writing of the amount of money needed for the purposes of the district for the ensuing fiscal year. The amount must be sufficient to raise the annual interest on the outstanding bonds, to pay the estimated cost of repairs, the incidental expenses of the district, and in any year in which any bonds shall fall due, an amount sufficient to pay the principal of the outstanding bonds as they mature; and in any year when an assessment or installment thereof is payable, sufficient to pay the same.

Division of estimate.

§ 40. If such district is in more than one county the total estimate as provided for in the preceding section shall be divided by the board of directors in proportion to value of the real property of the district in each county. This value must be determined from the equalized values of the last assessment-rolls of such counties. When such division of the estimate has been made, the board shall furnish the supervisors and auditors of the respective counties a written statement of that part of the estimate apportioned to that county.

Protection district tax levy.

§ 41. The board of supervisors of each county wherein is situated a district or any part thereof organized under the provisions of this act, must, annually, at the time of levying county taxes, levy a tax to be known as the "— (name of district) protection district tax," sufficient to raise an amount reported to them as herein provided, by the board of directors. The supervisors must determine the rate of such tax by deducting fifteen per cent for anticipated delinquencies from the total assessed value of the real property of the district within the county as it appears on the assessment-roll of the county, and then dividing the sum reported by the board of directors as required to be raised by the remainder of such total assessed value.

Duty of county auditor.

§ 42. The tax so levied shall be computed and entered on the assessment-roll by the county auditor, and if the supervisors fail to levy the tax as provided in the preceding section, then the auditor must do so. Such tax shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner as state and county taxes, and when collected shall be paid into the county treasury for the use of said district.

Levying and collecting tax.

§ 43. The provisions of the Political Code of this state prescribing the manner of levying and collecting taxes and the duties of the several county officers with respect thereto, are, so far as they are applicable and not in conflict with the specific provisions of this act, hereby adopted and made a part hereof. Such officers shall be liable upon their several official bonds for the faithful discharge of the duties imposed upon them by this act.

Repository of funds.

§ 44. If the district is in more than one county, the treasury of the county wherein the district was organized shall be the repository of all the funds of the district. For this purpose the treasurers of any other counties wherein is situated a portion of said district, must, at any time, not oftener than twice each year, upon the order of the board of directors, settle with said board and pay over to the treasurer of the county where the district was organized, all moneys in their possession belonging to the district. Said last-named treasurer is authorized and required to receive and receipt for the same, and to place the same to the credit of the district. He shall be responsible upon his official bond for the safekeeping and disbursement, in the manner herein provided, of these and all other moneys of the district held by him.

Apportionment of funds.

§ 45. The following funds are hereby created and established, to which the moneys properly belonging shall be apportioned by the treasurer, to wit: Bond fund, construction fund, general fund, funding fund.

Duty of county treasurer.

§ 46. The treasurer shall pay out of the same only upon warrants of the board of directors, signed by the president and attested by the secretary. The treasurer shall report in writing to the board of directors whenever requested by them or the secretary, the amount of money in the fund, the amount of receipts since his last report, and the amounts paid out.

Redemption of bonds.

§ 47. Upon the presentation of the coupons due, to the treasurer, he shall pay the same from the bond fund. Whenever said fund shall amount to the sum of ten thousand dollars in excess of an amount sufficient to meet the interest coupons due, the board of directors may direct the treasurer to pay such an amount of said bonds not due as the money in said fund will redeem, at the lowest value at which they may be offered for liquidation, after advertising in the manner hereinbefore provided for the sale of bonds, for sealed proposals for the redemption of said bonds. Said proposals shall be opened by the board in open meeting, at a time to be named in the notice, and the lowest bid for said bonds must be accepted; provided, that no bond shall be redeemed at a rate above par. In case the bids are equal, the lowest numbered bond shall have the preference. In case none of the holders of said bonds shall desire to have the same redeemed, as herein provided for, said money shall be invested by the treasurer, under the direction of the board, in United States bonds, or the bonds of the state, which shall be kept in said "bond fund" and may be used to redeem said district bonds whenever the holders thereof may desire.

Bids for construction of works.

§ 48. After the adoption of a plan of works and providing funds for the construction of the same, and securing the necessary rights of way as in this act provided, the board of directors shall give notice by publication thereof not less than twenty days in one newspaper published in each of the counties composing the district (provided, a newspaper is published therein) and in such other newspapers as they may deem advisable, calling for bids for the construction of such work, or of any portion thereof; if less than the whole work is advertised, then the portion so advertised must be particularly described in such notice. Said notice shall set forth that plans and specifications can be seen at the office of the board, and that the board will receive sealed proposals therefor, and that the contract will be let to the lowest responsible bidder, stating the time and place for opening said proposals, which, at the time and place appointed shall be opened in public; and as soon as convenient thereafter the board shall let said work, whether in portions or as a whole, to the lowest responsible bidder; or they may reject any and all bids and readvertise for proposals, or may proceed to construct the work under their own superintendence. Contracts for the purchase of material shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder. Any person or persons to whom a contract may be awarded shall enter into a bond, with good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the board, payable to said district for its use for fifty per cent of the amount of the contract price, conditioned for the faithful performance of said contract. The work shall be done under the direction and to the satisfaction of the engineer, and be approved by the board.

Warrants.

§ 49. No claim shall be paid by the treasurer until allowed by the board, and only upon a warrant signed by the president, and countersigned by the secretary.

Construction fund.

§ 50. The cost and expense of purchasing and acquiring property and constructing the works and improvements herein provided for, shall be wholly paid out of the construction fund.

Pay of directors.

§ 51. Each member of the board of directors shall receive three dollars per day and actual and necessary expenses for each day's attendance at the meetings of the board, and while engaged in official business under the order of the board.

Officers must be interested in contracts.

§ 52. No director or any other officer named in this act shall in any manner be interested, directly or indirectly in any contract awarded or to be awarded by the board, or in the profits to be derived therefrom; and for any violation of this provision, such officer shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and such conviction shall work a forfeiture of his office, and he shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Special assessments, elections for.

determined and declared in all respects in conformity with the provisions of section 26 of this act. The notice must specify the amount of money proposed to be raised and the purpose for which it is intended to be used. At such election the ballots shall contain the words "Assessment—Yes" or "Assessment—No." If two-thirds or more of the votes cast are "Assessment—Yes," the board shall proceed in the manner hereinbefore prescribed for raising the annual funds by taxation. When collected, the money shall be paid into the district treasury for the purposes specified in the notice of such special election.

Limit of debt.

§ 54. The board of directors shall have no power to incur any debt or liability whatever either by issuing bonds or otherwise, in excess of the express provisions of this act; and any debt or liability incurred in excess of such express provisions shall be and remain absolutely void; except for the purposes of organization, or for any of the purposes of this act, the board of directors may, before the collection of the first assessment, incur an indebtedness not exceeding in the aggregate the sum of five thousand dollars, and may cause warrants of the district to issue therefor, bearing interest at the rate of not to exceed seven per cent per annum.

Tax exemption.

§ 55. The rights of way and works belonging to any protection district organized under this act shall not be taxed for state and county or municipal purposes.

Suit to determine validity of bonds.

§ 56. The board of directors shall within thirty days after the issue of any bonds in this act provided for bring an action in the superior court of the county wherein is located the office of such board, to determine the validity of any such bonds. Such action shall be in the nature of a proceeding in rem, and jurisdiction of all parties interested may be had by publication of summons for at least once a week for three weeks in some newspaper of general circulation in said district and published in the county where the action is pending, such paper to be designated by the court having jurisdiction of the proceedings. Jurisdiction shall be complete within thirty days after the full publication of such summons in the manner herein provided. Anyone interested may, at any time before the expiration of said thirty days, appear, and by proper proceedings contest the validity of such bonds, and may in the same action or proceeding contest the validity of any bonds, coupons, or other evidences of indebtedness referred to in the petition for funding and proposed to be funded, and if any such bonds, coupons, or evidences of indebtedness be shown to be invalid, then the same shall only be funded for the amount of such proportion thereof as equals the fair and reasonable value of whatever the district may have received in consideration therefor, together with the unpaid interest thereon, and the amount of such proportion shall be determined and adjudicated by the court in said action or proceeding. Said action shall be speedily tried and judgment rendered declaring such bonds so contested either valid or invalid. Either party shall have the right to appeal from such judgment.

Same.

§ 57. If no such proceeding shall have been taken by the board of directors, then at any time after thirty days and within ninety days after the issue of any bonds under the provisions of this act, any district assessment payer may bring an action in the superior court of the county wherein the office of the board of directors is located, to determine the validity of any such bonds. The board of directors shall be made parties defendant and service of summons shall be made on the members of the board personally, if they can be found within the state; if not, then by publication for three weeks in some newspaper of general circulation in said district and published in the county wherein the office of the board of directors is located, such newspaper to be designated by the court having jurisdiction. Before such publication can be had, an affidavit, in the usual form shall be made, showing such facts. Said board shall have the right to appear and contest such action. Notice of said action shall be given by publication of summons therein in the same manner and for the same time as required in the preceding section hereof in actions brought by the publication of such summons in the manner herein provided. Any district assessment payer or anyone interested may appear and defend said action, and thereafter the same proceedings shall be had in such action as are hereinbefore provided for in the preceding section hereof in actions brought by the board of directors, and the same matters determined and adjudicated by the court therein. Such action shall be speedily tried, with the right of appeal to either party.

Proceedings.

§ 58. At the hearing of such proceedings the court shall hear and determine the sufficiency of all proceedings.

Actions consolidated.

§ 59. If more than one action shall be pending at the same time concerning similar contests in this act provided for, they shall be consolidated and tried together.

Rules of pleadings.

§ 60. The court hearing any of the contests herein provided for, in inquiring into the regularity, legality, or correctness of such proceedings, must disregard any error, irregularity or omission which does not affect the substantial rights of the parties to said action or proceeding. The rules of pleading and practice provided by the Code of Civil Procedure, which are not inconsistent with the provisions of this act, are applicable to all actions or proceedings herein provided for. The costs of any hearing or contest herein provided for may be allowed and apportioned between the parties or attached to the losing party, in the discretion of the court.

Contest.

§ 61. No contest of any matter or thing herein provided for shall be made other than within the time and manner herein specified.

Boundaries may be changed.

§ 62. The boundaries of any protection district now organized or hereafter organized under the provisions of this act, may be changed, and tracts of land which were included within the boundaries of such district at or after its organization under the provisions of this act, may be excluded therefrom, in the manner herein prescribed; but neither such change of the boundaries of the districts nor such exclusion of lands from the district shall impair or affect its organization, or its right in or to property, or any of its rights or privileges of whatever kind or nature; nor shall it affect, impair, or discharge any contract, obligation, lien, or charge for or upon which said district was or may become liable or chargeable, had said change of its boundaries not been made, or had not such land been excluded from the district.

Petition for exclusion from district.

§ 63. The owner or owners in fee of one or more tracts of land which constitute a portion of a protection district, may, jointly or severally, file with the board of directors of the district a petition, praying that such tract or tracts, and any other tracts contiguous thereto, may be excluded and taken from said district. The petition shall state the grounds and reasons upon which it is claimed that such lands should be excluded, and shall describe the boundaries thereof, and also the lands of such petitioner, or petitioners which are included within such boundaries; but the description of such lands need not be more particular or certain than is required when the lands are entered in the assessment-book by the county assessor. Such petition must be acknowledged in the same manner and form as is required in the case of a conveyance of land, and the acknowledgment shall have the same force and effect as evidence as the acknowledgment of such a conveyance.

Notice of petition. What notice shall state.

§ 64. The secretary of the board of directors shall cause a notice of the filing of such petition to be published for at least two weeks in some newspaper of general circulation in the district and published in the county where the office of the board of directors is situated, and if any portion of such territory to be excluded lie within another county or counties, then said notice shall be so published in a newspaper published within each of said counties; or, if no newspaper be published therein, then by posting such notice for the same time in at least three public places in said district, and in case of the posting of said notices, one of said notices must be so posted on the lands proposed to be excluded. The notice shall state the filing of such petition, the names of the petitioners, a description of the lands mentioned in said petition, and the prayer of said petition; and it shall notify all persons interested in, or who may be affected by such change of the boundaries of the district, to appear at the office of said board at a time named in said notice, and show cause, in writing, if any they have, why the change of the boundaries of said district, as proposed in said petition, should not be made. The time to be specified in the notice at which they shall be required to show cause shall be at the regular meeting of the board next after the expiration of the time for the publication of the notice.

Hearing of petition. Expenses of hearing.

§ 65. The board of directors, at the time and place mentioned in the notice, or at the time or times to which the hearing of said petition may be adjourned, shall proceed to hear the petition, and all evidence of proofs that may or shall be introduced by or on behalf of the petitioner or petitioners, and all objections to such petition that may or shall be presented in writing by any person showing cause as aforesaid, and all evidence and proofs that may be introduced in support of such objections. Such evidence shall be taken down, in shorthand, and a record made thereof and filed with the board. The failure of any person interested in said district, other than the holders of bonds thereof outstanding at the time of the filing of said petition with said board, to show cause, in writing, why the tract or tracts of land mentioned in said petition should not be excluded from said district, shall be deemed and taken as an assent by him to the exclusion of such tract or tracts of land, or any part thereof, from said district; and the filing of such petition with said board, as aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken as an assent by each and all of such petitioners to the exclusion from such district of the lands mentioned in the petition, or any part thereof. The expenses of giving said notice and of the aforesaid proceedings shall be paid by the person or persons filing such petition.

Board may grant or deny petition to exclude.

§ 66. If upon the hearing of any such petition, no evidence or proofs in support thereof be introduced, or, if the evidence fail to sustain said petition, or if the board deem it not for the best interests of the district, that the lands, or some portion thereof, mentioned in the petition, should be excluded from the district, the board shall order that said petition be denied as to such lands; but if the said board deem it for the best interests of the district that the lands mentioned in the petition, or some portion thereof, be excluded from the district, and if no person interested in the district show cause in writing why the said lands, or some portion thereof, should not be excluded from the district, or if, having shown cause, withdraws the same, or upon the hearing fails to establish such objections as he may have made, then it shall be the duty of the board to, and it shall forthwith, make an order that the lands mentioned and described in the petition, or some defined portion thereof, be excluded from said district.

Holders of bonds may consent to exclusion. Assent, how given.

§ 67. If there be outstanding bonds of the district at the time of the filing of said petition, the holders of such outstanding bonds may give their assent, in writing, to the effect that they severally consent that the lands mentioned in the petition, or such portion thereof as may be excluded from said district by order of said board, may be excluded from the district; and if said lands, or any portion thereof, be thereafter excluded from the district, the lands so excluded shall be released from the lien of such outstanding bonds. The assent must be acknowledged by the several holders of such bonds in the same manner and form as is required in case of a conveyance of land, and the acknowledgment shall have the same force and effect as evidence as the acknowledgment of such conveyance. The assent shall be filed with the board, and must be recorded in the minutes of the board; and said minutes, or a copy thereof, certified by the secretary of said board, shall be admissible in evidence, with the same effect as the said assent, and such certified copy thereof may be recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county wherein said lands are situated.

Minutes of board to be recorded.

§ 68. In the event the said board of directors shall exclude any lands from said district upon petition therefor, it shall be the duty of the board of directors to make an entry in the minutes of the board, describing the boundaries of the district, should the exclusion of said lands from said district change the boundaries of said district, and for that purpose the board may cause a survey to be made of such portions of the district as the board may deem necessary; and a certified copy of the entry in the minutes of the board excluding any land, certified by the president and secretary of the board, shall be filed for record in the recorder's office of each county within which are situated any of the lands of the district; but said district, notwithstanding such exclusion, shall be and remain a protection district as fully to every intent and purpose as it would be had no change been made in the boundaries of the district, or had the lands excluded therefrom never constituted a portion of the district.

Office of director becomes vacant, when.

§ 69. If the lands excluded from any district under this act shall embrace the greater portion of any division or divisions of such district, then the office of director for such division or divisions shall become and be vacant at the expiration of ten days from the final order of the board excluding said lands; and such vacancy or vacancies shall be filled by appointment by the remainder of the board from the district at large. A director appointed as above provided, shall hold his office until the next regular election for said district, and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Election of directors. Election precincts.

§ 70. At least thirty days before the next general election of such district, the board of directors thereof shall make an order dividing said district into three or five divisions, as the case may require, as nearly equal in size as may be practicable, which shall be numbered first, second, third and so on, and one director shall be elected by each division.

For the purposes of elections in such district, the said board of directors must establish a convenient number of election precincts, and define the boundaries thereof, which said precincts may be changed from time to time, as the board of directors may deem necessary.

Guardians and executors may sign petitions.

§ 71. A guardian, an executor, or an administrator of an estate, who is appointed as such under the laws of this state, and who as such guardian, executor, or administrator, is entitled to the possession of the lands belonging to the estate which he represents, may on behalf of his ward, or the estate which he represents, upon being thereto properly authorized by the proper court, sign and acknowledge the petition in section 63 of this act mentioned, and may show cause, as herein provided, why the boundaries of the district should not be changed.

Excluded lands not released from bonded debt, when.

§ 72. Nothing herein provided shall, in any manner, operate to release any of the lands so excluded from the district from any obligation to pay, or any lien thereon, of any valid outstanding bonds or other indebtedness of said district at the time of the filing of said petition for the exclusion of said lands, but upon the contrary, said lands shall be held subject to said lien, and answerable and chargeable for and with the payment and discharge of all of said outstanding obligations at the time of the filing of the petition for the exclusion of said land, as fully as though said petition for such exclusion were never filed and said order of exclusion never made; and for the purpose of discharging such outstanding indebtedness, said lands so excluded shall be deemed and considered as part of said protection district the same as though said petition for its exclusion had never been filed or said order of exclusion never made; and all provisions which may have been resorted to to compel the payment by said land of its quota or portion of said outstanding obligations, had said exclusion never been accomplished, may, notwithstanding said exclusion, be resorted to to compel and enforce the payment on the part of said land of its quota and portion of said outstanding obligations of said protection district for which it is liable, as herein provided. But said land so excluded shall not be held answerable or chargeable for any obligation of any nature or kind whatever, incurred after the filing with the board of directors of said district of the petition for the exclusion of said lands from the said district; provided, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to any outstanding bonds, the holders of which have assented to the exclusion of such lands from said district, as hereinbefore provided.

Change of boundaries does not impair contracts.

§ 73. The boundaries of any protection district now organized or hereafter organized under the provisions of this act may be changed in the manner herein prescribed, but such change of the boundaries of the district shall not impair or affect its organization, or its rights in or to property, or any of its rights or privileges of whatsoever kind or nature; nor shall it affect, impair, or discharge any contract, obligation, lien or charge for or upon which it was or might become liable or chargeable, had such change of its boundaries not been made.

Petition to include other lands.

§ 74. The owners of one-half or more of any body of lands adjacent to the boundary of a protection district, which are contiguous and which taken together, constitute one tract of land, may file with the board of directors of said district a petition, in writing, praying that the boundaries of said district may be so changed as to include therein said lands. The petition shall describe the boundaries of said parcel or tract of land, and shall also describe the boundaries of the several parcels owned by the petitioners, if the petitioners be the owners, respectively, of distinct parcels, but such descriptions need not be more particular than they are required to be when such lands are entered by the county assessor in the assessment-book. Such petition must contain the assent of the petitioners to the inclusion within said district of the parcels or tracts of land described in the petition, and of which said petition alleges they are, respectively, the owners; and it must be acknowledged in the same manner that conveyances of land are required to be acknowledged.

Notice of filing of petition.

§ 75. The secretary of the board of directors shall cause a notice of the filing of such petition to be given and published in the same manner and for the same time that notices of special elections for the issue of bonds are required by this act to be published. The notice shall state the filing of such petition and the names of the petitioners, a description of the lands mentioned in said petition, and the prayer of said petition; and it shall notify all persons interested in, or that may be affected by such change of the boundaries of the district, to appear, at the office of said board, at a time named in said notice, and show cause in writing, if any they have, why the change in the boundaries of said district, as proposed in the said petition, should not be made. The time to be specified in the notice at which they shall be required to show cause shall be the regular meeting of the board next after the expiration of the time for the publication of the notice. The petitioners shall advance to the secretary sufficient money to pay the estimated costs of all proceedings arising from such petition.

Hearing of petition. Failure to show cause.

§ 76. The board of directors, at the time and place mentioned in the said notice, or at such other time or times to which the hearing of said petition may be adjourned, shall proceed to hear the petition and all the objections thereto, presented in writing by any person showing cause as aforesaid why said proposed change of the boundaries of the district should not be made. The failure by any person interested in said district, or in the matter of the proposed change of its boundaries, to show cause, in writing, as aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken as an assent on his part to a change of the boundaries of the district as prayed for in said petition, or to such a change thereof as will include a part of said lands. And the filing of such petition with said board, as aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken as an assent on the part of each and all of such petitioners to such a change of the boundaries that they may include the whole or any portion of the lands described in said petition.

Condition precedent to granting petition.

§ 77. The board of directors to whom such petition is presented, may require, as a condition precedent to the granting of the same, that the petitioners shall severally pay to such district such respective sums, as nearly as the same can be estimated (the several amounts to be determined by the board), as such petitioners or their grantors would have been required to pay to such district as assessments, had such lands been included in such district at the time the same was originally formed.

Board may accept or reject petition.

§ 78. The board of directors, if they deem it not for the best interests of the district that a change of its boundaries be so made as to include therein the lands mentioned in the petition, shall order that the petition be rejected. But if they deem it for the best interests of the district that the boundaries of said district be changed and if no person interested in said district or the proposed change of its boundaries shows cause, in writing, why the proposed change should not be made, or if, having shown cause, withdraws the same, the board may order that the boundaries of the district be so changed as to include therein the lands mentioned in said petition or some part thereof. The order shall describe the boundaries as changed, and shall also describe the entire boundaries of the district as they will be after the change thereof as aforesaid is made; and for that purpose the board may cause a survey to be made of such portions of such boundary as is deemed necessary.

Resolution of change.

§ 79. If any person interested in said district of the proposed change of its boundaries, shall show cause as aforesaid why such boundaries should not be changed, and shall not withdraw the same, and if the board of directors deem it for the best interests of the district that the boundaries thereof be so changed as to include therein the lands mentioned in the petition, or some part thereof, the board shall adopt a resolution to that effect. The resolution shall describe the exterior boundaries of the lands which the board are of the opinion should be included within the boundaries of the district when changed.

Election. Ballots.

§ 80. Upon the adoption of the resolution mentioned in the last preceding section, the board shall order that an election be held within said district, to determine whether the boundaries of the district shall be changed as mentioned in said resolution; and shall fix the time at which such election shall be held, and cause notice thereof to be given and published. Such notice shall be given and published, and such election shall be held and conducted, the returns thereof shall be made and canvassed, and the result of the election ascertained and declared, and all things pertaining thereto conducted in the manner prescribed by this act in case of a special election to determine whether bonds of a protection district shall be issued. The ballots cast at said election shall contain the words "For change of boundary" or "Against change of boundary," or words equivalent thereto. The notice of election shall describe the proposed change of the boundaries in such manner and terms that it can readily be traced.

Result of election.

§ 81. If at such election a majority of all the votes cast at said election shall be against such change of the boundaries of the district, the board shall order that said petition be denied, and shall proceed no further in that matter. But if a majority of such votes be in favor of such change of the boundaries of the district, the board shall thereupon order that the boundaries be changed in accordance with said resolution adopted by the board. The said order shall describe the entire boundaries of said district, and for that purpose the board may cause a survey of such portions thereof to be made as the board may deem necessary.

Order of change to be recorded.

§ 82. Upon a change of the boundaries of a district being made, a copy of the order of the board of directors ordering such change, certified by the president and secretary of the board, shall be filed for record in the recorder's office of each county within which are situated any of the lands of the district, and thereupon the district shall be and remain a protection district, as fully, and to every intent and purpose, as if the lands which are included in the district by the change of the boundaries, as aforesaid, had been included therein at the original organization of the district.

Petition to be recorded in minutes.

§ 83. Upon the filing of the copies of the order, as in the last preceding section mentioned, the secretary shall record in the minutes of the board the petition aforesaid; and the said minutes, or a certified copy thereof, shall be admissible in evidence with the same effect as the petition.

Guardians and executors may sign.

§ 84. A guardian, an executor or an administrator of an estate, who is appointed as such under the laws of this state, and who, as such guardian, executor or administrator, is entitled to the possession of the lands belonging to the estate which he represents, may, on behalf of his ward, or the estate which he represents, upon being thereunto authorized by the proper court, sign and acknowledge the petition in section 74 of this act mentioned, and may show cause why the boundaries of the district should not be changed.

Precinct redivision.

§ 85. In case of the inclusion of any land within any district by proceedings under this act, the board of directors must, at least thirty days prior to the next succeeding general election, make an order redividing such district, into three or five precincts, as the case may require, as nearly equal in size as may be practicable, which shall be numbered first, second, third and so on, and one director shall thereafter be elected by each precinct.

Reduction of bonded indebtedness.

§ 86. Whenever the board of directors of a protection district heretofore organized, or hereafter organized under the provisions of this act, shall determine the authorized bonded indebtedness of such protection district is greater than such district is liable to need to complete its system as planned, and there be no outstanding bonds, the board of directors may call a special election for the purpose of voting upon a proposition to reduce such bonded indebtedness to such sum as the board may determine to be sufficient for such purpose.

Notice of election therefor. Ballots.

§ 87. Notice of the said election shall be given in the same manner as provided in this act, in relation to calling special elections for issuance of bonds. The notice of election must state the amount of the authorized bonded indebtedness of such district, and the amount to which it is proposed to reduce the same; also, the date on which said election will be held, and the polling-places, as established by said board of directors. The ballots cast at said election shall contain the words, "For reducing bonds—Yes," or "For reducing bonds—No." When the vote is canvassed by the board of directors and entered of record, if a majority of the votes cast shall be "For reducing bonds—Yes," then in that event the board of directors shall only be empowered to issue or sell the amount of bonds as was stipulated in the said notice of such special election; but if a majority of said votes are not "For reducing bonds—Yes," then the authority to issue bonds shall remain the same as before said special election was held.

Assent to reduction of debt, manner of.

§ 88. In case there be outstanding bonds of any district desiring to take advantage of the provisions of sections 86 and 87 of this act concerning reduction of bonded indebtedness, the assent of such bondholders may be obtained to such reduction of the bonded indebtedness, in the same manner as provided in section 67 of this act. If such assent is obtained in the manner therein provided, then, and in that event, such district shall be empowered to take advantage of all the provisions of said sections of this act, but not otherwise. No reduction of the bonded indebtedness, as in this act provided, shall in any manner affect any order of court that may have been made, adjudicating and confirming the validity of said bonds.

Unsold bonds.

§ 89. Whenever there remains in the hands of the board of directors of any protection district organized under the provisions of this act, after the completion of its protection system, and the payment of all demands against such district, any bonds voted to be issued by said district, but not sold, and not necessary to be sold for the raising of funds, for the use of such district, said board of directors may call a special election for the purpose of voting upon a proposition to destroy said unsold bonds, or so many of them as may be deemed best, or may submit such proposition at a general election.

Notice of election for destruction of unsold bonds.

§ 90. Such election shall be held in the same manner as other elections held under the provisions of this act. A notice of such election shall be given in the same manner as provided in section 26 of this act in relation to calling special elections for the issuance of bonds. The notice of election must state the amount of the bonded indebtedness of such district authorized by the vote of the district, the amount of the bonds remaining unsold, and the amount proposed to be destroyed, and the date on which such election is proposed to be held, and the polling-places as fixed by the board of directors. The ballots to be cast at such election shall contain the words "For destroying bonds—Yes" and "For destroying bonds—No," and the voter must erase the word "No" in case he favors the destruction of bonds, otherwise the word "Yes."

Destruction of bonds.

§ 91. When the vote is canvassed by the board of directors and entered of record, if a two-thirds majority of the votes cast should be found to be in favor of the destruction of said bonds, then the president of the board, in the presence of a majority of the members of the board, must destroy the bonds so voted to be destroyed, and the total amount of bonds so destroyed and canceled shall be deducted from the sum authorized to be issued by the electors of said district, and no part thereof shall thereafter be reprinted or reissued.

Act not to repeal other acts.

§ 92. This act is not intended to supersede or repeal any other act for the organization of reclamation or protection districts, or for protection purposes, but is intended as an independent and alternative means of effecting the protection herein provided for where the provisions of this act are most applicable or desirable to the parties interested.

§ 93. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

ACT 2806.

An act to provide for the formation, organization and government of storm-water districts, for the purpose of protecting the land therein from damage from storm water and from the waters of any navigable stream, watercourse, canyon or wash, for the construction of the necessary works of protection by said district, and for the levying of taxes and assessments to pay for the cost of constructing, repairing and maintaining such improvements.

[Approved March 13, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 339.]

Storm-water districts, how formed. Resolution of intention. Notice of intention.

§1. Storm-water districts may be formed under the provisions of this act for the purpose of protecting the lands in such districts from damage from storm water, and from the waters of any innavigable stream, watercourse, canyon or wash. When ten or more owners of land whose names appear as such upon the last assessment-roll, in any district of land which lies in one body and is liable to damage from storm water or from the waters of any innavigable stream, watercourse, canyon or wash, shall present a petition to the board of supervisors of the county in which said land lies, or if the same lies in more than one county, then to the board of supervisors of the county in which the greater area of such land lies, setting forth the exterior boundaries of said district and asking that the district so described be formed into a storm-water district under the provisions of this act, the said board of supervisors shall pass a resolution declaring their intention to form and organize said portion of said county or counties into a storm-water district for the purpose of protecting the land therein from damage from storm water, and from the waters of any innavigable stream, watercourse, canyon or wash, and describing the exterior boundaries of the district. Said resolution shall fix a time and place for the hearing of the matter, not less than thirty days after the passage thereof, and direct the clerk of said board to publish a notice of the intention of the board of supervisors to form such storm-water district, and of the time and place fixed for the hearing, and shall designate some newspaper of general circulation, published and circulated in said proposed storm-water district, or if there is no newspaper so published and circulated, then some newspaper of general circulation published and circulated in each county in which any part of said proposed district is situated in which such notice is to be published.

Publication of notice.

§2. Thereupon said clerk shall cause to be published in the newspaper or newspapers so designated, for a period of twenty days before the date fixed for the hearing, a notice, which shall be headed "Notice of intention of the board of supervisors to form a storm-water district." Said notice shall set forth the fact of the passage of such resolution with the date thereof, the boundaries of the proposed district, and the time and place for the hearing, and shall state that it is proposed to assess all property embraced in said proposed storm-water district, for the purpose of paying the damages, costs and expenses of constructing and repairing such dikes, levees, ditches, canals and other improvements as may be necessary to protect the land in said district from damage from storm water and from the waters of any innavigable stream, watercourse, canyon or wash, and the necessary expense of maintaining the said district, and shall refer to the resolution for further particulars. Said clerk shall send a copy of said notice by registered mail, postage prepaid, to each owner of land in the proposed district whose name appears as such on the last completed assessment-roll of the county or counties in which said proposed district lies, addressed to such owner at his address given on such assessment-roll, or if no address is so given, then to his last known address, or if it be not known then at the county seat of the county in which his land lies. Said clerk shall make and file in his office an affidavit of such mailing, showing the names and addresses of the persons to whom such notices were sent, which shall be prima facie evidence that said notices were mailed as herein required.

Objections to formation of district.

§ 3. Any person interested objecting to the formation of such proposed district, or to the extent thereof, may, at or before the time fixed for the hearing of the matter, file a written objection thereto, stating briefly his ground of objection, with the clerk of said board of supervisors, who shall indorse thereon the date of its reception by him, and shall at the time fixed for the hearing, place all such objections filed with him before said board of supervisors.

Hearing. Declaration of supervisors.

§ 4. At the time fixed for the hearing, or to which the hearing may be adjourned, the board of supervisors shall hear the objections filed, if any, and pass upon the same. Said board may, in its discretion, sustain, in whole or in part, any or all of the objections filed, and may change or alter the boundaries of such proposed district to conform to the needs of the district, except that they shall not include therein any territory not included in the boundaries mentioned in the petition, and may, in their discretion, declare such storm-water district formed with the boundaries designated by them, and shall designate such district by name as the — storm-water district of — county (or counties); provided that no such district shall be formed wherein a majority of the owners of property in said district, according to the last previous assessment-roll, object in writing to such action.

Control of district.

§ 5. Each storm-water district shall be under the control of three trustees, to be elected as hereinafter provided, who shall constitute the governing board thereof. Each trustee shall be a freeholder of the district and shall have resided therein at least one year next preceding his election, and shall give bond in such sum as the board of supervisors who formed the district shall fix, which bond shall be approved by a superior judge of said county and filed with the county clerk thereof. Said trustees, except those first elected, shall take office on the first day of July next succeeding their election, and shall hold office for the term of two years, and until their successors are elected and qualified.

Election of trustees. Conduct of election. Organization of board of trustees.

§ 6. Upon the formation of such storm-water district the said board of supervisors must call an election therein for the election of three trustees of such district. Notice of said election stating the time, place or places and purpose thereof, and the names of the election officers shall be given by the board by publication in some newspaper of general circulation, designated by the board and published in their county, for two weeks before said election. Such election shall, except as herein otherwise provided, be held in conformity to the law for holding special elections, as to matters provided for thereby, and as to other matters in conformity to the general election law, so far as applicable; but no sample ballots shall be sent out. The election board shall count the votes as soon as the polls are closed, and forward the returns of the election to said board of supervisors. Said board of supervisors at their next regular meeting thereafter shall canvass said returns, and issue certificates of election to the persons elected. The board of trustees so elected shall meet and organize on the next Monday after their certificates of election are issued to them, and shall hold office until the first day of July next succeeding the first regular election of trustees herein-after provided for after the formation of said district, and until their successors are elected and qualified. On the first Friday of June of each even-numbered year there shall be held an election in said storm-water district for the purpose of electing three trustees of said district. Such regular election must be called by the board of trustees of such district in the manner herein provided for calling the first election, and the election shall be held in the same manner as the said first election, and certificates of election shall be issued by the trustees.

Trustees, compensation. Meetings, etc.

§ 7. The trustees shall receive no compensation for their services. They shall elect one of their own number president. They shall appoint a clerk, who shall hold office at their pleasure, and receive such compensation as they may fix. They must establish and keep an office in or near the district for the transaction of the business thereof, at which all books, records, and papers of the district must be kept and be open to public inspection at all reasonable times. They shall hold regular meetings at such office, at such times as they shall by order prescribe. Special meetings may be held on written order of any two trustees and two days written notice to any trustee not joining in the order. The order must specify the business for which the special meeting is called and no other business shall be transacted thereat.

Powers of districts. Contracts. Emergency work.

§ 8. Each storm-water district shall have power to sue and be sued. The trustees thereof shall have power in the name and in behalf of the district to purchase, receive by donation, or acquire by condemnation any rights of way or other real or personal property necessary to carry out the purposes for which the district was formed, and for that purpose all the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure relating to eminent domain are hereby made applicable to proceedings by such district to condemn property. The said board of trustees shall also have power to employ such engineers, surveyors and others as may be necessary to survey, plan, or locate, or supervise the construction or repair of, the improvements necessary to carry out the purposes for which the district was formed; to construct, maintain and keep in repair any and all improvements, requisite or necessary to carry out the purposes of the district; and to do any and all other acts and things necessary or required for the protection of the lands in said district from damage from storm waters and from waters of any innavigable stream, watercourse, canyon or wash; and to employ the services of any person legal or otherwise, which in the judgment of said board of trustees may be necessary to carry out said purposes. All work of construction, repair, or maintenance, the cost whereof exceeds $500 shall be done by contract; and all contracts shall be let by the board to the lowest responsible bidder, who will give bond for the faithful performance thereof satisfactory to the board, after advertisement for bids published by their clerk for not less than ten days in some newspaper of general circulation, designated by the board and published in the county in which the district or some part thereof is situated, specifying the time and place for the opening of bids, and the particular work to be bid for; provided however, that the board may reject all bids and re-advertise, and may by unanimous action in cases of great emergency, the nature of which shall be entered on their minutes, proceed at once to replace or repair any of the works or improvements of the district without advertisement.

Improvements, survey for determining what.

§ 9. As soon as said district is organized, the board of trustees thereof shall cause a survey to be made to determine what improvements shall be made to carry out the purposes of the district, and shall also cause a map of such survey, and plans and specifications showing such improvements in detail, to be prepared, and they shall adopt such map, plans and specifications, and thereafter all such improvements shall be made in accordance with the map, plans and specifications so adopted; provided, that at any time after the adoption of said map, plans and specifications, and before the commissioner's report of assessment of benefits and award of damages has been finally adopted and confirmed by the board of trustees, said board may rescind their action in adopting said map, plans and specifications, and may modify the same or adopt others in place thereof.

Commissioners, appointment and duties of. Compensation.

§ 10. After adopting said map, plans and specifications, the board of trustees shall appoint three commissioners, one of whom shall be a civil engineer, to assess benefits and damages and to estimate the total cost of making the proposed improvements, which estimate shall include all expenses of every kind incurred or to be incurred, either directly or indirectly, in carrying out said improvements. Before entering upon the discharge of their duties, the commissioners shall each take and subscribe an oath to perform the duties of such commission to the best of their ability, and shall each file with the clerk of said trustees a bond to the state of California in the penal sum of one thousand dollars, to faithfully perform the duties of the office of said commissioner, which bond must be approved by said board of trustees. The board of trustees may at any time remove any or all of said commissioners for cause upon reasonable notice and hearing, and may fill any vacancies occurring among them from any cause. Said commissioners shall receive for their services such compensation as the trustees may determine from time to time, provided that such compensation shall not exceed ten dollars per day for such civil engineer, nor five dollars per day for the other commissioners, nor continue for more than three months unless the board of trustees shall extend the time. The compensation of the commissioners shall be considered as an expense of the improvements, and shall be chargeable and payable as other expenses thereof.

Assessments of costs.

§ 11. Said commissioners shall proceed to view the land embraced within the boundaries of said storm-water district and the improvements to be made, and may examine witnesses under oath, to be administered by any one of them. Having viewed the land to be taken and the improvements to be made, and considered the testimony presented, they shall proceed with all diligence to determine the value of the land to be taken for rights of way or construction of improvements, and the damage to property affected thereby, and also to estimate the cost of constructing the proposed improvements and the expenses incident thereto, and having determined the same, shall proceed to assess the said value of land taken, damage to property affected and cost and expenses of the proposed improvements to the county or counties and upon the lands embraced within the exterior boundaries of said storm-water district. Said assessment shall be made in the following manner. The board of supervisors of each county in which any part of the district is situated, may, if they consider that the proposed improvements will be of benefit to the county roads, by order entered upon their minutes, provide that such county shall pay a portion of the total cost of the improvements, such payment to be made out of the road fund of the district where the improvements are to be made, or out of the general road fund, as the board of supervisors may determine. The total amount to be paid by all counties contributing shall not exceed one-half of the total cost of the improvements. The commissioners shall assess to the county or counties aforesaid such part of the total cost of the improvement as the board of supervisors thereof have agreed to pay as aforesaid, and the remainder of such assessment shall be made upon the lands in said district in proportion to the benefits to be derived by such lands from said improvements, including in said assessment the property of any railroad company within said district, if such there be.

Report to trustees. Rights of way.

§ 12. Said commissioners, after making their assessment of benefits and damages, shall with all diligence make a written report thereof to the board of trustees of the district and shall accompany their report with a plat of the district, showing the land taken or to be taken for rights of way or the construction of the improvements, or to be damaged thereby, and the land assessed, showing the relative location of each lot or parcel of land and its dimensions and area, so far as the commissioners can reasonably ascertain the same. Each lot or parcel of land to be taken, damaged or assessed shall be designated in said plat by an appropriate number, and a reference to it by such number in the report shall be a sufficient description of it in all respects. Said report of the commissioners shall specify each lot or parcel of land taken or to be taken for rights of way or the construction of such improvements, or to be damaged thereby, with the names of the owners thereof or persons interested therein, and the particulars of their interest, so far as the same can be ascertained; the names of the land owners who consent to give the right of way, or to waive damages to their land not taken, and their written consent thereto; the names of land owners who do not consent and the amount of damage claimed by each; and the amount awarded to each land owner by the commissioners for the value of land to be taken or damages to land not taken. Said report shall also specify each lot, or parcel of land to be assessed, together with the names of the owners or claimants thereof or persons interested therein, so far as the same are known to the commissioners, and the particulars of their interest, so far as the same can be ascertained, and the amount assessed against each such piece or parcel of land.

Conflicting claims.

§ 13. If in any case the commissioners find that conflicting claims of title exist, or they are in doubt as to the ownership of any lot or parcel of land or any improvement thereon, or of any interest in such land or improvement, it shall be set down as belonging to unknown owners. Errors in the designation of the owner or owners of, or persons interested in, any land or improvements or of the particulars of their interest, shall not affect the validity of the assessment or of any condemnation of the property to be taken.

Hearing of report.

§ 14. The report of such commissioners and the plat accompanying it shall be filed with the trustees of the district, and said board of trustees shall thereupon fix a time for the hearing thereof, which shall not be less than four weeks after the filing thereof, and thereupon the clerk of said board of trustees shall give notice of such hearing by publication for at least two weeks in a newspaper of general circulation published and circulated in said district, if such there be, or if there is no such newspaper, then in some newspaper of general circulation published in one of the counties in which said district is situated, said newspaper to be designated by the board. Such notice shall be substantially in the following form:

Notice of the filing of the commissioner's report of — storm-water district of the county of —.

Notice is hereby given that the commissioners of the — storm-water district of the county of —, did on the — day of —, 19—, file their report of the assessment of benefits and award of damages with the board of trustees of said district, which said report is now on file in the office of said trustees, at —, and that said report will be heard by said trustees at their office on the — day of —, 190—, at the hour of — M. Said report and the map, plans and specifications of the improvements mentioned therein are hereby referred to for further particulars. All persons interested are hereby required to show cause, if any they have, at the time fixed for said hearing, why such report should not be adopted and confirmed by said board of trustees, and the improvements therein referred to constructed by said district. All objections shall be in writing, signed by the person objecting, and filed with the board of trustees at or before the time above mentioned.

(Signed) —

Clerk of the board of trustees of — storm-water district, of — county.

Objections to report, hearing of.

§ 15. Any person interested may file with the said board of trustees, at or before the time fixed for the hearing, a written objection to said report or any part thereof, or to the map, plans, or specifications for the proposed improvements, or to the making of such proposed improvements. At the time fixed for such hearing or at any other time to which the hearing may be adjourned, the board of trustees shall hear all objections so filed, if any, and pass upon the same, and shall proceed to pass upon such report, and may confirm, correct or modify the same, or may take such action in regard to the map, plans, and specifications as is authorized by section 9 of this act, or may order the commissioners to make a new assessment, report and plat, which shall be filed, heard, and acted upon in the same manner and on like notice, as in the case of an original report. The action of the board upon the report and objections thereto, and upon the map, plans and specifications, shall be final and conclusive as to all matters which they might have remedied or avoided; and no assessment shall be set aside, except upon such hearing, for any error, defect, or informality therein or in the proceedings prior thereto, where the district has been legally formed and notice of the hearing of the report has been given as herein prescribed. When such report has been adopted and confirmed, said board may by order entered upon its minutes discharge said commissioners, and their authority shall thereupon cease.

Installment assessments. Duty of tax collector. Payment of assessments.

§ 16. After said report has been adopted, the board of trustees, if they consider the total sum to be raised for the payment of the cost of such improvements too great to be properly expended in one year, or too great to be raised in one year by assessment against the property in such storm-water district, may by order entered upon their minutes, provide that the total sum assessed shall be raised in any number of equal annual installments, not exceeding ten. When the board has adopted the report and determined the number of equal annual installments in which such assessment shall be raised, they shall cause their clerk to forward to the tax collector of the county in which such district is situated, who shall file the same in his office, a certified copy of the report, assessment and plat as adopted and confirmed by said board of trustees, together with a certified copy of the order of said board, fixing the number of equal annual installments in which such assessment is to be raised, which documents shall constitute the assessment-roll. From and after the filing of such certified copy of the report and order of the board in the tax collector's office, the first year's installment of the amount assessed thereon against each parcel of land shall become due and payable immediately, and the total amount assessed against each parcel of land shall constitute a lien thereon; and thereafter installments of the assessment for the succeeding years shall become due and payable on the first Monday of October of each year; provided, that any or all subsequent installments of the assessment on any parcel of land may, at the option of any person desiring to pay the same, be paid at any time after the first installment becomes due and payable. If the district is situated in two or more counties, a certified copy of said report, assessment, plat and order of the board of trustees shall be filed with the tax collector of each county in which any part of said district is situated, and thereafter each tax collector shall proceed as to the property in said district within his own county in the manner hereinafter directed, and the assessment on the property in said county shall be collected in the manner hereinafter directed.

Publication by tax collector. Annual notice.

§ 17. Within one month after the filing of such certified copy of said report, assessment, plat and order with the tax collector, said tax collector shall give notice by ten days' publication in a newspaper of general circulation published in said district, or if there is none, in a newspaper of general circulation published in his county, that the assessment-roll of — storm-water district of — county, has been filed in his office, with the date of said filing; that the amounts entered thereon are due and payable; that if not paid on or before the first Monday in January next ensuing, the same will become delinquent and will be collected in the same manner as delinquent taxes. If the first Monday in January next ensuing is less than three months from the date of filing the assessment-roll with the tax collector, the date, to be stated in the notice, shall be three months after the filing of such assessment-roll. The tax collector shall note on said assessment-roll all assessments paid, with the dates of payment, giving receipts as in the case of payments of taxes, and shall pay all money collected into the county treasury at the same time and in the same manner as money collected for taxes paid into such treasury. All collections of subsequent installments of the assessment shall be made in the same manner as above set forth, and the tax collector shall annually (after the first year), immediately after the first Monday of October give notice as above directed that the (giving the number) annual installment of the assessments of said district is now due and payable, and that if not paid on or before the first Monday of January next ensuing, the same will become delinquent and will be collected in the same manner as delinquent taxes; and the same proceedings shall be had thereon as upon the collection of the first assessment. If said district is situated in two or more different counties, all moneys collected on account of such assessment shall be paid into the treasury of the county in which said district was organized.

Delinquent installments, penalty added. Duty of county treasurer.

§ 18. When any installment of said assessments has become delinquent, as stated in said notice of the tax collector, the tax collector shall proceed to collect such delinquent installments of assessments, with five per cent added thereon, and pay the same, including the said five per cent so collected, over to the county treasurer as aforesaid, in the same manner as state and county taxes are collected and paid over; and all of the provisions of chapter 7, Title IX, Part III, and of section 3897 of the Political Code not in conflict with any of the provisions of this act, are hereby made applicable to the collection of assessments and delinquent installments of assessments in such storm-water district. Before any installment of said assessment becomes delinquent, the board of supervisors of each county against which any part of the cost of the improvement has been assessed, as hereinbefore provided, shall direct the county treasurer to transfer the amount of such installment of such assessment from any money then in the fund of such county from which the same is to be paid, to the special fund to be raised by such assessments; or if such district is in two or more counties, and was organized in some other county, to pay such amount to the treasurer of such other county, who shall place the same in the special fund raised by said assessment.

Disposition of fund. Payments from fund.

§ 19. All moneys paid upon such assessments, either by property owners or by the county or counties affected, shall be placed in the county treasury of the county in which such storm-water district was organized, to the credit of a special fund to be known as the — storm-water district improvement fund; and shall be used only to pay the expense and cost of constructing the improvements described in the map, plans and specifications adopted by the board of trustees. Any surplus remaining after the construction thereof shall be paid into the current expense fund. All payments from said fund shall be made upon claims prepared in the manner required by law for the preparation of claims against a county, and first presented to the board of trustees of said district and by them approved, and thereafter presented and filed as claims against the county and approved by the board of supervisors of said county, and upon a warrant drawn by the auditor of said county upon the order of said board of supervisors, in the same manner as other claims upon the county treasury.

Payments for property taken. Notice of payment.

§ 20. When sufficient money is in such storm-water district improvement fund to pay for the property to be taken and damaged according to the award made in the report of the commissioners, the clerk of said board of trustees shall notify the owner, possessor or occupant of any land or improvement thereon to whom an award shall have been made for property to be taken or damaged, that such award has been made, stating the amount thereof and the property affected thereby, and that upon such person filing a claim and tendering a conveyance of the property to be taken or a release of the damages to property not taken, such claim will be allowed and the amount awarded paid to him. Such notice shall be given by depositing such notice in the postoffice at the county seat of such county, postage prepaid addressed to such owner, possessor or occupant, if his name be known, at his last known postoffice address. If the name of the owner of such property is not given in the report of the commissioners, or his postoffice address cannot be ascertained, said notice shall be given by said clerk by posting a copy thereof in a conspicuous place upon the property described in said notice. He shall thereupon indorse a certificate of such posting upon the original notice and file the same in his office.

Awards not accepted, proceedings when.

§ 21. If any award of damages for land or right of way to be taken or damaged is not accepted within fifteen days after the mailing or posting of this notice, it shall be deemed rejected by the property owner, and thereupon the board of trustees of the district may cause proceedings to secure the land or right of way desired to be instituted in the name of the district, by some attorney to be employed by them for that purpose, against all nonaccepting property owners; and when thereunder the right of way or land is secured, the improvement must be commenced as hereinafter provided. In such suit no informality in the proceedings of the board of supervisors or of the commissioners or of the board of trustees shall vitiate such suit; but the order of the board of trustees directing the suit to be brought shall be conclusive proof of the regularity of such prior proceedings; and the suit shall be determined by the court or jury in accordance with the rights of the respective parties as shown in court, independent of said proceedings before said board of supervisors or before said commissioners or before said trustees.

Defective rights of way.

§ 22. If any right of way attempted to be acquired by virtue of this act shall be found to be defective from any cause, the board of trustees may again institute proceedings to acquire the right of way as in this act provided, or otherwise, or may purchase the same, and include the cost thereof in the expenses of such improvement.

Improvements to begin, when.

§ 23. As soon as there is sufficient money in the improvement fund to pay for the construction of the improvements, or any separate part thereof, and the necessary land and rights of way therefor have been secured, the trustees must proceed with the construction of said improvement. The board of trustees shall determine the amount of work to be done in each year and the place where such work is to be done, and may let a contract for any portion of such improvement that they may deem proper, and none of such work shall be done without their order. The work shall be done under the direction and to the satisfaction of the board of trustees.

Improvements to include what.

§ 24. The improvements made under this act may include the widening, deepening and straightening of the channels of innavigable streams, watercourses or washes, the construction of new channels therefor, and the construction of levees, banks, dikes, conduits, ditches and canals for the conveyance of storm water, and the waters of such streams, watercourses or washes, or for confining such streams, watercourses or washes to their channels; and said work may be done either within or without the boundaries of the district, as may be necessary in order to properly protect the land in said district from damage and secure a free outlet for such streams, watercourses, washes, and storm water.

Estimate for tax levy.

§ 25. The board of trustees of each storm-water district shall annually during the month of August estimate the amount of money which will be needed for the current year for maintaining and repairing the works and improvements of said district, and defraying the other ordinary expenses of said district, and shall upon the first Monday of September of each year certify to the board of supervisors of the county or counties in which said district lies, the amount of money which is needed for said purposes. Such board or boards of supervisors shall at the time of making the levy of taxes for county purposes for that year, levy a tax upon the property in their county in said district sufficient in amount to raise the sum estimated by the board of trustees to be necessary. When the district is in two or more counties, the amount to be raised upon the part of the district in each county shall be in proportion to the assessed valuation of the several portions of the district in the respective counties. Said tax when levied shall be entered upon the assessment-roll and collected in the same manner as state and county taxes. When the same is collected, it shall be placed in the treasury of the county in which said district was organized, to the credit of the current expense fund of said district, and shall be used only for the purpose for which it was raised. Payments shall be made from said fund in the same manner as from the improvement fund of the district.

Additional improvements.

§ 26. Whenever the board of trustees of any storm-water district shall deem it necessary to construct new or additional improvements other than those which have been constructed under the first proceedings had for that purpose, they may cause plans, specifications, and a map of said improvements to be prepared and may thereupon proceed in the same manner as in the case of the construction of the first improvements of said district, by the appointment of commissioners and the levy of an assessment to pay the cost thereof.

Disincorporation, proceedings for.

§ 27. Any storm-water district may be disincorporated at any time before the adoption of the first commissioner's report by proceedings had in the following manner: Whenever a petition praying for such disincorporation shall be presented to the trustees of said district signed by a majority of the electors therein, they shall call an election in the same manner as elections for members of the board of trustees are called, and submit to the electors of said district the question of disincorporation. Said election shall be held in all respects in the same manner as regular elections of trustees of the district. If it appears that two-thirds of the electors voting at said election have voted in favor of disincorporation; the trustees shall cause such fact to be entered upon their minutes, and shall forward a copy of such entry to the board of supervisors by whom the district was organized, who shall file the same with their clerk, and from the date of such filing, said district shall be deemed disincorporated.

Property may be added to or excluded.

§ 28. Property may be added to or excluded from any storm-water district by action of the board of supervisors by whom said district was organized, upon a petition presented to them signed by a majority of the owners of land within said territory to be annexed or excluded, as shown by the last previous assessment-roll. Before making the order of annexation or exclusion, the board of supervisors shall give notice in like manner as upon the original formation of the district, and protests may be presented and shall be considered at the same time and in the same manner as in the case of the formation of the district. Upon the final hearing of said petition, the board of supervisors shall make such order as shall seem best to them; provided, however that property in any territory so excluded shall not be released from the lien of any assessment which has been made upon said property.

Intent of act.

§ 29. This act is not intended to supersede or repeal any other act for the construction and maintenance of ditches, levees, dikes, or works for protection, drainage or reclamation, but is intended as an independent and alternative method of constructing the improvements herein provided for.

Construction of act.

§ 30. The provisions of this act shall be liberally construed to promote the objects thereof. This act may be designated and referred to as the "Storm-water district act of 1909," and shall take effect and be in force upon its passage and approval.

ACT 2830.

An act for the preservation of the public health of the people of the state of California, and empowering the state board of health to enforce its provisions, and providing penalties for the violation thereof.

[Approved March 23, 1907. Stats. 1907, p. 893.]

Public health act. How to be construed.

§ 1. This act shall be known as the Public Health Act and its provisions are to be liberally construed, with a view to effect its purpose of preventing by uniform measures, the spread of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases and to preserve and promote the health of the people of the state. Its provisions are not intended to repeal or supersede any statutes of the state now in force, which are promotive of the general health and not in conflict with or repugnant to its provisions, but they shall be deemed supplemental to such statutes; and where the provisions of this act are not in conflict with and repugnant to such statutes, they shall be construed consistently therewith, and as continuations thereof.

Pollution of waters.

§ 2. It shall be unlawful to discharge or deposit, or cause or suffer to be discharged or deposited, any sewage, garbage, feculent matter, offal, refuse, filth, or any animal, mineral, or vegetable matter or substance, offensive, injurious, or dangerous to health, in any springs, streams, rivers, lakes, wells or other waters used or intended to be used for human or animal consumption; or to discharge or deposit, or cause or suffer to be discharged or deposited, any such offensive, injurious or dangerous matter or substance upon the land or place adjoining such waters so as to cause or suffer such matter or substance to flow or be emptied or drained into such waters.

Cesspools, sewer pipes, etc.

§ 3. It shall be unlawful to erect, construct, excavate, or maintain, or cause to be erected, constructed, excavated, or maintained, any privy, vault, cesspool, sewer-pipes or conduits, or other pipes or conduits, for the discharge of impure waters, gas, vapors, oils, acids, tar, or other matter or substance offensive, injurious, or dangerous to health, whereby any part of such matter or substance shall empty, flow, seep, drain, condense or otherwise pollute or affect any of such waters so intended for human or animal use or consumption; or to erect or maintain any permanent or temporary house, camp, or tent, so near to such springs, streams, rivers, lakes, or other sources of water supply, as to cause or suffer the drainage, seepage, or flow of impure waters, or any other liquids, or the discharge or deposit therefrom, of any animal, mineral, or vegetable matter, to corrupt or pollute such waters.

Pollution of waters by livestock.

§ 4. It shall be unlawful to cause or permit any horses, cattle, sheep, swine, poultry or any kind of livestock or domestic animals, to pollute the waters, or tributaries of such waters, used or intended for drinking purposes by any portion of the inhabitants of this state.

By bathing.

§ 5. No person shall bathe or wash clothes in any spring, stream, river, lake, reservoir, well or other waters which are used or intended for drinking purposes by the inhabitants of the vicinage or of any city, city and county, or town, of this state.

Ice must be stored in clean places.

§ 6. Ice offered or intended for public use or consumption shall be kept or stored in clean places free from all filth, offal, refuse, and pol luted waters, and separate and removed from contact with animal or vegetable matter, and not in proximity to any cesspool, privy-vault, or sewer, nor in places where such ice may be subject to contamination from, or the action of, acids, oils, noxious, offensive, or injurious gases, smoke or vapors, and all ice kept or stored in violation of this section shall be deemed polluted ice and not fit for human consumption; and it shall be unlawful to sell, offer for sale, or store for sale such polluted ice.

Ice, certain not to be sold.

§ 7. It shall be unlawful to sell, offer, or keep for sale for public use or consumption, ice which shall have been used for the cooling of malt, vinous or spirituous liquors, or for the refrigeration of butter, milk, meat or any animal or vegetable matter or substances, or which shall have been taken from any asylum, hospital, sanitarium, sick-room, slaughterhouse, or any place where human or animal remains have been kept or deposited.

Transportation of ice.

§ 8. In the transportation or carriage of ice intended for public use or consumption, care shall be taken to prevent contact with filth, offal, and other refuse, and contamination from animal and vegetable matter, and from offensive and noxious oils, acids and other substances injurious, dangerous or offensive to health.

Ice from impure waters.

§ 9. No person, firm, company, or corporation shall make or permit to be made, or offer or permit to be offered for sale for public use or consumption, any ice manufactured from impure or polluted water, or natural ice cut or taken from any corrupt or impure waters or water source; nor taken or manufactured from any waters or source of water supply after notice from the state board of health, or its secretary, that such waters are impure or polluted.

Inspection of places where ice is stored.

§ 10. In the interest of the public health, every health officer or health inspector, upon proper demand and notice of his authority, shall be permitted, during office hours, to enter and inspect the works, premises, sources of supply, and places of storage of any person, firm, company, or corporation, maintaining, selling or offering for sale, water or ice for human use or consumption, and it shall be unlawful for any person, firm, company, or corporation to refuse to permit a reasonable inspection or investigation of such works and premises or the ice and water kept or stored therein, or to impede or obstruct such officer during such investigation.

Duty of local health officers. Report to state board of health.

§ 11. It shall be the duty of every county, city and county, municipal, town, or other health officer or inspector to enforce diligently within the county, city and county, municipality, town or district of which he is such health officer, all state laws pertaining to health and sanitary matters, and all orders, rules and regulations concerning health, quarantine, and disinfection prescribed or directed by the state board of health, and all local ordinances, resolutions, orders, and regulations concerning health, of the board of supervisors, which shall not be in conflict with the general laws or the orders, rules and regulations of the state board of health.

Said health officers shall report to the state board of health all violations of the state health laws and all violations of the state laws relating to registration of births, marriages, and deaths, which shall come to their knowledge.

Every county health officer, and every city and county, city, or town board of health, or chief executive health officer thereof, shall report in writing to the state board of health regularly on or before the fifth day of each month, and also whenever requested by the state board of health, or its secretary, all infectious, contagious and communicable diseases in man or beast which shall come to his knowledge, upon blanks furnished by the state board of health; and he shall, in cases of local epidemic of disease, report at such times as shall be requested by the state board of health, or its secretary, all facts concerning the disease, and the measures taken to abate and prevent its spread.

It shall also be the duty of every such county health officer, and every city, city and county, and town board of health or chief executive health officer thereof, in cases of epidemic, whenever quarantine is established, promptly to transmit to the secretary of the state board of health a true copy of all quarantine rules, orders and regulations adopted by the local health board or health officer, and of all subsequent changes or modifications in the matter of such quarantine and in such local rules, orders, and regulations; and every such board of health or chief executive health officer thereof, shall promptly report, in writing, to the secretary of the state board of health any changes that may occur in their offices, and the names and residences of all newly appointed or elected officers.

Quarantine, state board of health may order.

§ 12. Whenever in the judgment of the state board of health, or when said board is not in session, whenever in the judgment of the secretary of said board, such action shall be deemed necessary to protect or preserve the public health, every county health officer, and every city and county, city or town board of health, or chief executive health officer thereof, shall, when so directed by said state board of health or its secretary, quarantine and disinfect, as required by the general and special instructions of said state board or secretary within the jurisdiction of such local board of health or health officer, persons, animals and things of whatever nature, and houses, rooms, and places, and destroy, or cause to be destroyed, bedding, carpets, household goods, furnishings and materials, clothing or animals, when such property is, by said state board of health or its secretary, deemed an imminent menace to the public health, and when ordinary means of disinfection are deemed unsafe, and the board of supervisors, council or other governing body, where such destruction of property occurs, shall have power to make adequate provision and compensation in proper cases for those injured by such necessary destruction.

Quarantine rules.

§ 18. The following rules and requirements shall be strictly observed in all cases of quarantine, subject, however, to such changes and modifications as the state board of health, or its secretary may otherwise require and direct.

Rule 1. Every county, city and county, city, or town board of health, or chief executive health officer thereof, upon receiving information of the existence of such diseases within its or his jurisdiction, must immediately quarantine each and every case of Asiatic cholera, yellow fever, typhus fever, plague, smallpox, scarlet fever, diphtheria, membranous croup, measles, leprosy, and every case of anthrax and glanders affecting human beings, and such other contagious or infectious diseases which may from time to time be declared quarantinable, and in addition to their local rules and regulations shall follow all general and special rules, regulations, and orders of the state board of health, or its secretary.

Said health boards or officers must, within twenty-four hours after quarantine, report fully, in writing, to the secretary of the state board of health, all of such cases quarantined; provided, however, that said health officers shall immediately report by telegraph to said secretary of the state board of health every case discovered or known of plague, Asiatic cholera, yellow fever or typhus fever, and after investigation and within twenty-four hours shall report the cause, source and extent of contagion and infection, and all acts done and measures adopted in each case, and shall make such further reports as the secretary of the state board of health may require.

Rule 2. In addition to the list of quarantinable diseases given in rule 1 of this section the following is a partial list of contagious, infectious and communicable diseases, all of which, though not required to be quarantined by the state board of health, must be properly reported in writing to the state board of health, or its secretary, by the said local health boards or chief executive health officers, viz.: Manila, Cuban, Philippine, adobe, or kangaroo itch; chicken-pox, erysipelas, pneumonia, uncinariasis or hookworm, cerebro-spinal meningitis, trachoma, whooping-cough, mumps, dengue, dysentery, tuberculosis of the respiratory tract, typhoid fever, tetanus, and any disease which appears to have become epidemic. This list can be changed at any time by the state board of health or its secretary.

Rule 3. When any building, house, structure, or part thereof, or tent or other place, is quarantined because of a contagious, infectious or communicable disease, said local health boards or chief executive health officer shall cause to be firmly fastened, in the most conspicuous place upon such house, building, tent, or other place, a placard or flag, upon which is printed the name of the disease, in plain and legible letters of at least two and one-half inches in length. This placard or flag must not be removed by any person except the health officer or his deputy, and in no case until the premises have been thoroughly disinfected.

Rule 4. When persons quarantined in a house, building, structure, tent, or other place have recovered from the disease for which the quarantine is established, or when the quarantine is for exposure to a contagious, infectious or communicable disease, and the period of incubation designated has elapsed, the quarantine shall not be raised by order of the local board of health or local health officer until every exposed room, together with all bedding, clothing, and all other personal property contained therein, has been thoroughly disinfected, or if necessary, such personal property may be destroyed, by or under the direction of the health officer or his deputy; and until all persons quarantined shall have taken a thorough antiseptic bath and put on clothing free from contagion.

Rule 5. Whenever quarantine is established by any local board of health or health officer to prevent the spread of any contagious, infectious, or communicable disease, it shall be the duty of all persons to obey the rules, orders and regulations of such health board or health officer.

Rule 6. No milkman shall take away any milk bottles or other receptacles for milk from any building, house, structure, tent, or other place, in which a contagious, infectious or communicable disease exists or has existed, nor from any place within any quarantined district, nor at any time after such quarantine has been removed, unless with the written permission of the local health officer, and after such milk bottles or receptacles have been disinfected and cleaned to the satisfaction of such officer.

Whenever there exists in the house of any milkman, milk dealer or milk distributor, any case of cholera, typhus fever, plague, scarlet fever, diphtheria, membranous croup, leprosy, anthrax, glanders, cerebro-spinal meningitis, whooping-cough, typhoid fever, dysentery, trachoma or tetanus, then it shall be unlawful for such milkman, milk dealer, or milk distributor, to continue the sale or distribution of milk until the local board of health or chief executive health officer has appointed at the expense of the county where such milkman, dealer or distributor lives, a person to superintend his cows, dairy or other place where such milk is sold, or from which it is delivered or distributed, and all cows, bottles, vessels and milk utensils. Such person so appointed by the local board of health, or chief executive officer, shall strictly require that all persons attending to the cows, dairy, sheds, milk cans, bottles, vessels and milk utensils shall not have access to the infected house, nor any communication with the persons who reside in such infected house, except with the permission and under the inspection of the local health officer.

Rule 8. Every person subject to quarantine, residing or being in a quarantined building, house, structure or tent, shall not go beyond the lot upon which such building, house, structure or tent is situated, nor put himself in immediate communication with any person not subject to quarantine, other than the health officer and physician. The local board of health or local chief executive health officer maintaining a quarantine shall appoint, or cause to be appointed a suitable person to perform necessary outside services for the necessary wants of the persons quarantined. Such person so appointed shall never enter the building, house, structure, or tent nor come in personal contact with any of the persons quarantined, but shall receive orders and deliver answers verbally at a distance, and shall leave at the entrance of the building, house, structure or tent, or at such other place as may be designated by the health officer or deputy, all articles which he may have brought, and he shall strictly observe the orders of the local health officer.

Places of quarantine.

§ 14. Every county, city and county, city, and town board of health, or chief executive health officer thereof, whenever required by the state board of health, or its secretary, shall establish and maintain places of quarantine or isolation, which shall be subject to the special directions of said state board, or its secretary.

Quarantine against other towns or counties.

§ 15. No quarantine shall be established by one county, or city, city and county, or town, against another city, city and county, county, or town, without the written consent of the state board of health, or its secretary.

Persons ill of contagious diseases, report of fact.

§ 16. All physicians, nurses, clergymen, attendants, owners, proprietors, managers, employees, and persons living in or visiting any sick person in any hotel, lodging-house, house, building, office, structure, or other place where any person shall be ill of any infectious, contagious, or communicable disease, shall promptly report such fact to the county, city and county, city, or other local health board or health officer, together with the name of the person, if known, and place where such person is confined, and nature of the disease, if known.

Protection to schools.

§ 17. No instructor, teacher, pupil, or child affected with any contagious, infectious, or communicable disease which is or might be the subject of quarantine, or has been declared reportable, or who resides in any house, building, structure, tent, or other place where such disease exists or has recently existed, shall be permitted, by any superintendent, principal or teacher of any college, seminary, public or private school, to attend such college, seminary, or school, except by the written permission of the local health officer.

Embalming.

§ 18. No embalming fluid or methods of embalming not approved by the state board of health shall be employed by any person in the case of death from contagious, infectious or communicable diseases, or in cases where the remains are to be transported or carried upon trains or vessels or other public conveyances for interment or cremation within this state or for transportation without the state.

Same.

§ 19. No person shall embalm a body of any person who has died from an unknown cause, except with the written permission of the local health officer.

Rules for transportation of dead.

§ 20. The following rules and requirements in cases of the transportation of the dead shall be strictly observed, subject, however, to such changes and modifications as the state board of health or its secretary may otherwise require and direct:

Rule 1. The transportation within the boundaries of the state of California, from any other state, territory, district, or islands of the United States, or from any foreign country, of remains or bodies dead from plague, Asiatic cholera, yellow fever, typhus fever, anthrax, or glanders, or the transportation of the same from this state to any part of the United States, or any foreign country, is absolutely prohibited.

No remains or bodies of those dead from any of said diseases shall be transported within this state to any place beyond a distance of twenty-five miles except by permission and under the direction of the state board of health or its secretary, and subject also to the conditions provided in rules 2, 5 and 6 of this section hereinafter set forth.

Rule 2. The bodies of persons dead of Asiatic cholera, yellow fever, diphtheria, membranous croup, scarlet fever (scarlatina, scarlet-rash), erysipelas, glanders, anthrax, or leprosy, shall not be accepted for transportation unless prepared for shipment by (a) arterial and cavity injection with a disinfecting fluid approved by the state board of health; (b) disinfection and stopping of all orifices with absorbent cotton, and (c) washing the body with a disinfectant; (d) such body shall be enveloped in a layer of dry cotton not less than one inch thick, completely wrapped in a sheet securely fastened, and encased in an air-tight zinc, tin, copper, or lead-lined coffin or iron casket, all joints and seams hermetically sealed, and all inclosed in a strong, tight, wooden box; provided, that instead of such zinc, tin, copper or lead-lined coffin or iron casket, the body having been prepared for shipment by disinfecting and wrapping as above, may be placed in a strong coffin or casket, or tin-lined box, all joints and seams hermetically soldered.

In the shipment of bodies dead from any disease named in this rule, such body must not be accompanied by persons or articles which have been exposed to the infection of the disease, unless certified by the health officer to have been properly disinfected.

Rule 3. The bodies of those dead from typhoid fever, puerperal fever, tuberculosis, measles, or other contagious or infectious diseases not enumerated under rules 1 and 2 of this section, may be received for transportation when prepared for shipment by arterial and cavity injection with an approved disinfecting fluid, washing the exterior of the body with the same, and enveloping the entire body with a layer of cotton not less than one inch thick, and wrapped in a sheet securely fastened, and encased in an air-tight metallic coffin or casket or an air-tight metallic box; provided, that this shall apply only to bodies which can reach their destinations within thirty hours from the time of death.

Rule 4. The bodies of those dead from any cause not stated in rules 1, 2 and 3 of this section, may be received for transportation when encased in a sound coffin or casket and inclosed in a strong outside wooden box; provided, they can reach their destination within thirty hours from the time of death. If the body cannot reach its destination within thirty hours from the time of death, it must be prepared for shipment by arterial and cavity injection with an approved disinfecting fluid, washing the exterior of the body with the same, and enveloping the entire body with a layer of dry cotton not less than one inch thick, and wrapped in a sheet securely fastened, and encased in an air-tight metallic coffin or casket or an air-tight metal-lined box.

Rule 5. Every dead body must be accompanied by a transit permit showing physician's or coroner's certificate, and as far as obtainable, showing name of deceased, age, date, place and cause of death, and all other matters required by an act of the legislature of the state of California approved March 18, 1905, and entitled "An act for the registration of deaths, the issuance and registration of burial and disinterment permits, and the establishment of registration districts in counties, cities and counties, cities and incorporated towns, under the superintendence of the state bureau of vital statistics and prescribing the powers and duties of registrars, coroners, physicians, undertakers, sextons, and other persons in relation to such registration, and fixing penalties for the violation of this act."

Said transit permit shall indicate the place to which the body is to be transported and the name of the consignee or person to whom it is to be delivered, and shall include the registrar's or health officer's permit showing whether death resulted from a communicable or noncommunicable disease, and also the undertaker's certificate, showing the manner in which the body had been prepared for shipment.

The transit permit must be made in triplicate, and the signatures of physician or coroner, health officer, registrar, and undertaker must be upon the original and the duplicate and triplicate copies.

The physician's certificate and transit permit shall be delivered to the passenger or agent, if any, in charge of the body. The whole duplicate copy shall be sent to the officer in charge of the baggage department of the initial line and by him to be forwarded to the state board of health or other proper health authority of the state or territory, foreign country or place of destination, and the triplicate copy shall be transmitted to the secretary of the state board of health of California, at Sacramento.

Rule 6. When bodies are shipped by express, as described in rule 5 of this section, a transit permit must be made out in triplicate. The undertaker's certificate and paster of the original shall be detached from the transit permit and securely fastened in a conspicuous place on the coffin box. The physician's certificate and transit permit shall be attached to and accompany the express waybill covering the remains, and be delivered with the body at the point of destination to the person to whom it is consigned. The whole duplicate copy shall be sent by the forwarding express agent to the state board of health of the state from which said shipment was made, and the triplicate to the secretary of the state board of health of California, at Sacramento.

Rule 7. Disinterred bodies or remains of persons who have died from any disease or cause shall be treated as infectious or dangerous to the public health, and shall not be accepted for transportation in or removed from this state unless said removal has been approved by the state board of health or its secretary. If the disinterment be in this state the consent of the health board or chief executive health officer of the locality where the body is to be reinterred shall be first obtained. No dead body shall be brought into this state without the approval of the health authorities of the state, territory, District of Columbia or foreign country from which such body shall be removed and no such body shall be received, transported, or buried in this state unless satisfactory evidence of compliance with the rules of the state board of health respecting the same shall be submitted to the secretary of the state board of health and his written consent obtained to such transportation, receipt or burial; and no disinterred body shall be shipped or transported from one place to another in this state without the written permission of the secretary of the state board of health and full compliance with the rules of this board respecting disinterment of bodies. And all such disinterred remains or the coffin or casket containing the same, must be wrapped in a woolen blanket thoroughly saturated with a 1-1000 solution of corrosive sublimate and inclosed in a hermetically soldered zinc, tin or copper-lined box. Bodies deposited in or taken from vaults shall be treated and considered the same as buried bodies.

The permission of the state board of health, or its secretary, shall not be required in cases of disinterment nor shall this rule be applicable where the remains are to be reinterred within the same city or town, or where such remains are to be reinterred in an adjoining county, city and county, city or town where the distance between the place of disinterment and the place where the remains are to be reinterred does not exceed thirty miles; provided, however, that the consent of the local health authorities shall be first obtained and all local health regulations strictly observed.

Violation of act a misdemeanor.

§ 21. Any person violating any of the provisions of this act, whether acting for himself, or as the agent or servant of another person, or of a firm, company or corporation, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished as provided in section 19 of the Penal Code of the State of California.

Railroad cars to be inspected.

§ 1. Whenever there shall exist, in the opinion of the state board of health, imminent danger of the introduction of contagious or infectious diseases into the state of California, by means of railroad communication with other states, the said state board of health are authorized, and it is hereby made their duty, to make or cause to be made, by any accredited agent or inspector, an inspection of all railroad cars, coming into the state at such point, or between such points within the state limits as may be selected for the purpose.

Detention of train a minimum.

§ 2. Such inspection shall be made, where practicable, during the ordinary detention of a train at a station, or while in transit between stations, and in all cases shall be so conducted as to occasion the least possible detention or interruption of travel or inconvenience to the railroad companies, so far as consistent with the purposes of this act.

Infected cars to be sidetracked.

§ 3. Should the discovery be made of the existence among the passengers of any case or cases of dangerous, contagious, or infectious disease, the said board of health, or their agent, or inspector, under rules and conditions prescribed by them as being applicable to the nature of the disease, shall have power to cause the sidetracking or detention of any car or cars so infected, to isolate the sick or remove them to a suitable place for treatment, to establish a suitable refuge station, to cause the passengers and materials in such infected car to be subjected to disinfection and cleansing before proceeding further into the state, and, in the case of smallpox, to offer free vaccination to all persons exposed in any car or at any station.

Appropriation.

§ 4. The sum of five hundred dollars is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, to be expended solely for the purposes of this act, and all expenditures herein authorized shall be specified in an itemized account to be presented to the state board of examiners, and paid as other demands on the treasury are paid; provided, that in no case shall the sum expended exceed that herein specially appropriated for the purpose.

§ 5. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

[Approved March 15, 1883. Stats. 1883, p. 366.]

Plumbers required to register.

§ 1. Every master or journeyman plumber carrying on his trade shall, under such rules and regulations as the board of health of such county, or city and county, shall prescribe, register his name and address at the health office of such county, or city and county; and after the said date it shall not be lawful for any person to carry on the trade of plumbing in any county, or city and county, unless his name and address be registered as above provided.

Publication.

§ 2. A list of the registered plumbers shall be published in the yearly report of the health office.

Board of health to approve plans.

§ 3. The drainage and plumbing of all buildings, both public and private, hereafter erected in any county, or city and county, shall be executed in accordance with plans previously approved, in writing, by the board of health of said county, or city and county; suitable drawings and description of the said drainage and plumbing shall, in each case, be submitted and placed on file in the health office. The said board of health are also authorized to receive and place on file drawings and descriptions of the drainage and plumbing of buildings erected prior to the passage of this act.

Supervisors to apportion tax.

§ 4. The boards of supervisors, or other city or county officials, whose duty it is to make apportionments for the board of health of such county, or city and county, shall make the necessary apportionments, and shall insert the same in the yearly tax levy, to provide for carrying out the provisions of this act.

Court of record may enjoin.

§ 5. Any court of record in said county, or city and county, or any judge or justice thereof, shall have power at any time after the service of notice of the violation of any of the provisions of this act, and upon the affidavit of the health officer or a member of the board of health of such county, or city and county, to restrain by injunction order the further violation named in this act, or of any work upon or about the building or premises upon which the said violation exists, and no undertaking shall be required as a condition to the granting or issuing of such injunction or by reason thereof.

§ 6. Any person violating any of the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 7. This act shall take effect immediately.

ACT 2839.

An act to grant to boards of health or health officers, in cities, and cities and counties, the power to regulate the plumbing and drainage of buildings, and to provide for the registration of plumbers.

License from board of health.

§ 1. It shall not be lawful for any person to carry on business, or labor as a master or journeyman plumber, in any incorporated city, or in any city and county, in this state until he shall have obtained from the board of health of said city or city and county a license authorizing him to carry on business, or labor as such mechanic. A license so to do shall be issued only after a satisfactory examination by the board of each applicant upon his qualifications to conduct such business or to so labor. All applications for license, and all licenses issued, shall state the name in full, age, nativity, and place of residence of the applicant or person so licensed. It shall be the duty of the secretary of each board of health to keep a record of all such licenses issued, together with an alphabetical index to the same. [Amendment approved March 9, 1887. Stats. 1887, p. 58. In effect immediately.]

Publish list in yearly report.

§ 2. A list of all licensed plumbers shall be published in the yearly report of the health officer or board of health. [Amendment approved March 9, 1887. Stats. 1887, p. 58. In effect immediately.]

Plans of plumbing.

§ 3. The drainage and plumbing of all buildings, both public and private, hereafter erected in any city, or city and county, shall be executed in accordance with plans previously approved in writing by the board of health of said city, or city and county; and suitable drawings and description of the said drainage and plumbing shall, in each case, be submitted to the board of health, and placed on file in the health office. The said board of health is also authorized to receive and place on file drawings and descriptions of the drainage and plumbing of buildings erected prior to the passage of this act.

Tax levy.

§ 4. The board of supervisors, or other city, or city and county, officials whose duty it is to make appropriations and tax levies for general purposes of such city, or city and county, shall make the necessary appropriation and tax levies, and shall insert the same in the yearly tax levy, to provide for carrying out the provisions of this act. Such appropriations and levy shall be made at the same time and in the same manner as appropriations and tax levies are made for other city, or city and county, purposes.

Where no board of health.

§ 5. In any city, or city and county, where there is under existing laws, a health officer, but no board of health, such health officer shall perform all the duties required by this act of the board of health until a board of health shall be created, and in any city, or city and county, where there is no health officer nor board of health, the board of supervisors or city council, or other municipal legislative board or body, shall create a board of health, who shall perform all the duties, required by this act of the board of health or health officer.

Injunction.

§ 6. Any superior court, or judge thereof, shall have power to restrain by injunction the continuance of work to be done upon or about buildings or premises where the provisions of this act have not been complied with, and no undertaking shall be required as a condition to the granting or issuing of such injunction, or by reason thereof.

Penalty.

§ 7. Any person violating any of the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished accordingly.

§ 8. This act shall take effect immediately.

ACT 2840.

An act to encourage and provide for a general vaccination in the state of California.

Exclusion of children from schools unless vaccinated.

§ 1. The trustees of the several common-school districts in this state, and boards of common-school government in the several cities and towns, are directed to exclude from the benefits of the common schools therein any child or any person who has not been vaccinated, until such time when said child or person shall be successfully vaccinated; provided, that any practicing and licensed physician may certify that the child or person has used due diligence and cannot be vaccinated so as to produce a successful vaccination, whereupon such child or person shall be excepted from the operation of this act.

Notice by school trustees.

§ 2. The trustees or local boards, annually, or at such special times to be stated by the state board of health, must give at least ten days' notice, by posting a notice in two or more public or conspicuous places within their jurisdiction, that provision has been made for the vaccination of any child of suitable age who may desire to attend the common schools, and whose parents or guardians are pecuniarily or otherwise unable to procure vaccination for such child.

List of children not vaccinated.

§ 3. The said trustees or board must within sixty days after the passage of this act, and every year thereafter, ascertain the number of children or persons in their respective school districts or subdivision of the city school government being of an age suitable to attend common schools, who have not been already vaccinated, and make a list of the names of all such children or persons. It also shall be [the] duty of said trustees or board to provide, for the vaccination of all such children or persons in their respective school districts, a good and reliable vaccine virus wherewith to vaccinate such children or persons who have not been vaccinated. And when so vaccinated, to give a certificate of vaccination, which certificate shall be evidence thereof for the purpose of complying with section 1.

Expenses for, how paid.

§4. The necessary expenses incurred by the provisions of this act shall be paid out of the common school moneys apportioned to the district, city, or town. And if there be not sufficient money, the trustees must notify the board of supervisors of the amount of money necessary, and the board must, at the time of levying the county tax, levy a tax upon the taxable property in the district sufficient to raise the amount needed. The rate of taxation is ascertained by deducting fifteen per cent for delinquencies from the assessment, and the rate must be based upon the remainder. The tax so levied must be computed and entered upon the assessment roll by the county auditor, and collected at the same time and in the same manner as state and county taxes, and when collected shall be paid into the county treasury for the use of the district.

Annual report of trustees.

§5. The trustees of the several school districts of this state are hereby required to include in their annual report, and report to the secretary of the state board of health, the number in their several districts between the ages of five and seventeen years who are vaccinated, and the number unvaccinated.

§6. This act shall take effect immediately.

TITLE 401.PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS.*ACT 2845.

An act providing for the exchange of commodities between the public institutions owned or managed and controlled by the state, or the political divisions thereof.

[Approved March 18, 1905. Stats. 1905, p. 185.]

§ 1. It shall be the duty of the state board of examiners, within six months after the passage of this act, to arrange, so far as may be practical, for an exchange of surplus products, either manufactured or natural, between the several public institutions owned or managed and controlled by the state, or the political divisions thereof.

§ 2. It shall be the duty of the state board of examiners to so distribute and arrange, with the assistance of the boards of managers, directors or trustees of the several institutions referred to in section 1 of this act, the labor and industry of their inmates that it will prove conducive to their mutual assistance, with a view of advancing the economic management of all the institutions owned or managed and controlled by the state, or the political divisions thereof; and all such surplus products shall not be sold or disposed of to any individual, corporation or association not connected with the state, or any political division thereof, so long as there shall be any demand for any such products by any public institutions owned or managed and controlled by the state, or the political divisions thereof.

§ 3. In estimating the value of such articles for the purpose of such exchange or sale between public institutions, the cost of producing or raising such products, with ten per cent added, shall be the sale price thereof.

§ 4. Each institution shall notify the state board of examiners what surplus products they have to dispose of, as set forth in this act, and the state board of examiners shall notify all the other institutions owned or managed and controlled by the state, or the political divisions thereof, that such articles can be procured and where, and thereupon the provisions of section 2 of this act shall become effective, and the state board of examiners shall allow no claims for the purchase of any products from any individual, corporation or association so long as the same might have been procured from a state institution after it had been duly notified of that fact.

§ 5. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed.

Plans and specifications. Advertisement.

§ 1. When by any statute of this state power is given to any state or county officer or officers, or to any board of supervisors or corporation, or any board of trustees or commissioners, or other person or persons created or appointed by authority of any such statute, to erect, or cause to be erected or constructed, any state or county or other building or structure, it shall be the duty of said officer or officers, board of supervisors, corporation, or board of trustees, or commissioners, or other person or persons, to advertise for plans and specifications in detail for said building or other structure, and to state in said advertisement the amount authorized by law or otherwise to be expended for the erection of said building or structure; and also the premium to be awarded to the architect whose plans and specifications for the same may be adopted.

Architect's bond for contract.

§ 2. Whenever the plans and specifications of any architect shall be adopted, such officer or officers, board of supervisors, or corporation, or board of trustees or commissioners, or other person or persons so adopting the same, shall, before any premium shall be awarded for such plans and specifications, require such architect to execute and file with such officer or officers, board of supervisors, corporation, or board of trustees or commissioners, or other person or persons, a good and sufficient bond, with two sufficient sureties thereto, in the penal sum of five thousand dollars, to be approved by such officer or officers, board of supervisors, corporation, or board of trustees, or commissioners, or other person or persons, as the case may be, and conditioned that within sixty days from the date of said bond he will, on presentment to him, enter into a contract containing such provisions and conditions as may be required by such officer or officers, board of supervisors, corporation, or board of trustees, or commissioners, or other person or persons; and also conditioned that he will give such further bond to secure the faithful performance of such contract, with such sureties as may be required of him, in the event that such officer or officers, board of supervisors, corporation, or board of trustees or commissioners, or other person or persons, so acting under authority of law, should, within said sixty days, require said architect to enter into such contract to erect such building or structure, at the price named in said advertisement to be expended for such purpose. In case said architect whose plans and specifications are adopted should enter into such contract, it shall be the duty of such officer or officers, board of supervisors, corporation, or board of trustees or commissioners, or other person or persons, to employ a competent architect or superintendent to superintend the erection of such building or structure, and to see that such plans and specifications are faithfully carried out.

When contracts void.

§ 3. All contracts entered into by such officer or officers, board of supervisors, corporation, board of trustees, commissioners, or other person or persons, in violation of the provisions of this act, shall be null and void.

§ 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Construction of unfinished buildings.

§ 1. In the event that the board of supervisors of the several counties, cities, and cities and counties of the state of California shall deem it expedient to continue the construction of any unfinished county, or city and county, or town, or township building or buildings now in the process of construction, they are hereby authorized and empowered to express such judgment, by resolution or order, in such form as they may deem proper; and for the purpose of raising the money necessary to complete said building or buildings the board of supervisors of the several counties, cities, and cities and counties of the state of California are hereby authorized and empowered to levy and collect, annually, for the fiscal year commencing July first, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, and ending June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and eighty-eight, and each and every fiscal year thereafter during the eight fiscal years next ensuing, in the same manner and at the same times as other taxes in said counties, cities, and towns, and townships, and cities and counties are levied and collected, an ad valorem property tax on real and personal property within the said counties, or cities and counties, cities, towns, and townships, of ten cents on each one hundred dollars of value, as shown by the assessment rolls of said counties, cities, cities and counties, towns, and townships for the current fiscal year; provided, the moneys raised under the provisions of this act shall be expended only in the manner and for the purposes authorized by law or by the act or acts authorizing the construction of the building or buildings; and provided further, that no part of said moneys shall be used for the purchase of carpets, furniture, fixtures, or other office furnishings of the rooms or offices completed and in use at the time of the passage of this act, nor for any furniture or other office fixtures or furnishings for the rooms or offices yet to be completed, save and except such office fixtures as are usually affixed to and constitute a part of the permanent structure or arrangement of such offices or rooms; and it is further provided, that whenever, in the judgment of the board of supervisors of the several counties, cities, and cities and counties, of the state of California, or of any person or persons, board, or commission having charge of any building or buildings now in the process of construction, it shall be deemed necessary for the preservation of the building or buildings, or convenient occupation thereof, or the improvement or maintenance of sanitary conditions therein, or the protection of life, to make repairs on said building or buildings, or alterations thereof not inconsistent with the accepted plan of the building or buildings, the board of supervisors, person or persons, board, or commission having legal charge of the same, shall have the power to expend in any one year on such repairs or alterations, exclusive of the cost of repairs or alterations on the roof or roofs thereof, the sum of ten thousand dollars, and no more; which sum may be expended without regard to any of the requirements of any act or acts authorizing the construction of the building or buildings, if the amount expended at any one time does not exceed the sum of one thousand dollars; but whenever an expenditure in excess of the sum of one thousand dollars should be required, it shall be made according to the provisions of the act or acts authorizing the construction of the building or buildings. [Amendment approved March 26, 1895. Stats. 1895, p. 166. In effect immediately.]

Also amended in 1891, Stats. 1891, p. 88, and in 1898, Stats. 1893, p. 126.

§2. All laws now in force, except in so far as they relate to the levy and collection of taxes for the completion of any county, or city and county, or city, or towns, or townships building or buildings, are hereby continued in full force and effect.

ACT 2899.

An act concerning the completion of unfinished public buildings in any county, city, city and county, or town in this state, and permitting alterations of the original plans or designs for the construction thereof.

§1. Where there are any unfinished public building or buildings now in process of construction in any county, city, city and county, or town in this state, the board of supervisors or other governing body of any county, city, city and county, or town, or any commission created by an act of the legislature, having in charge the construction of such unfinished building, shall have the right in the construction thereof to omit from the original or adopted plan therefor such part or parts as in their judgment they shall deem necessary to be left out; provided, no contract has been let for the construction of such part or parts. If, in the judgment of such officers, the public good requires, they may let contracts according to law for the construction, in whole or in part, of the unfinished portions of such public building or buildings in accordance with such altered plan. When the same shall have been constructed in accordance with such altered plan, the building shall be deemed to have been completed.

§2. Whenever, during the construction of such public building or buildings, changes in the original plans or designs have heretofore been made, and contracts for the construction of the work, in whole or in part, in accordance with the altered plans or designs, have been entered into by the board of supervisors, or other governing body of any county, city, city and county, or town, or by the commission having the construction thereof in charge, the said alteration of the original plans or designs that have been made and contracts for same that have been entered into, are hereby ratified, approved, and confirmed.

§3. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

ACT 2900.

An act authorizing the incurring of indebtedness by cities, towns, and municipal corporations, incorporated under the laws of this state, for the construction of waterworks, sewers, and all necessary public improvements, or for any purpose whatever, and to repeal the act approved March 9, 1885, entitled "An act to authorize municipal corporations of the fifth class, containing more than three thousand and less than ten thousand inhabitants, to obtain waterworks," also to repeal an act approved March 15, 1887, entitled "An act authorizing the incurring of indebtedness by cities, towns, and municipal corporations, incorporated under the laws of this state."

Amended 1891, pp. 84, 94, 132; 1898, p. 91.

Of the last amendment, the code commissioners say: "This latter amendment attempted to be repealed by 1897, p. 97, but such repeal declared unconstitutional in City of Los Angeles v. Hance, 122 Cal. 78."

Municipal corporations may incur indebtedness.

§ 1. Any city, town or municipal corporation, incorporated under the laws of this state, may, as hereinafter provided, incur indebtedness to pay the cost of any municipal improvement, or for any purpose whatever requiring an expenditure greater than the amount allowed for such improvement by the annual tax levy.

Manner of procedure.

§ 2. Whenever the legislative branch of any city, town, or municipal corporation shall, by ordinance passed by a vote of two-thirds of all its members, and approved by the executive of said city, town, or municipal corporation, determine that the public interest or necessity demands the acquisition, construction, or completion of any municipal buildings, bridges, waterworks, water rights, sewers, or other municipal improvements, the cost of which will be too great to be paid out of the ordinary annual income and revenue of the municipality, they may, after the publication of such ordinance for at least two weeks in some newspaper published in such municipality, and at their next regular meeting after such publication, or at an adjourned meeting, by ordinance passed by a vote of two-thirds of all its members, and also approved by the said executive, call a special election and submit to the qualified voters of said city, town, or municipal corporation, the proposition for the purpose set forth in the ordinance, and no question other than the incurring of indebtedness for said purpose shall be submitted. The ordinance calling such special election shall recite the objects and purposes for which the indebtedness is proposed to be incurred, the estimated cost of the proposed public improvement, the necessity for such improvement, and that the bonds of the municipality shall issue for the payment of the cost of such improvement, as in such ordinance set forth, if the proposition be accepted by the qualified voters, as hereinafter provided, and shall fix the day on which such special election shall be held, the manner of holding such election, and the voting for or against incurring such indebtedness; such election shall be held as provided by law for holding such elections in such city, town, or municipal corporation; provided, however, that where by the terms or provisions of the charter of any city, town, or municipal corporation, the cost of making the proposed improvements is to be or must be paid from a special fund created by such charter for that purpose, the proposition of incurring such an indebtedness may be submitted to the qualified voters at any general election for officers of the state of California or of such city, town, or municipal corporation. [Amendment approved March 11, 1891. Stats. 1891, p. 94.]

Publication of intention to incur indebtedness.

§ 3. Such ordinance shall be published once a day for at least ten days, or once a week for two weeks, before the publication of the notice of the special election, in some newspaper published in such municipality. After said publication, said legislative body shall cause to be published, for not less than two weeks, in at least one of the newspapers published in such municipality, a notice of such special election, the purpose for which the indebtedness is to be incurred, the number and character of the bonds to be issued, the rate of interest to be paid, and the amount of tax levy to be made for the payment thereof. It shall require the votes of two-thirds of all the voters voting at such special election to authorize the issuance of the bonds herein provided.

Plans and estimates of improvements.

§ 4. It shall be the duty of the legislative branch of any municipality contemplating permanent public improvements, to first have plans and estimates of the cost of such improvements, made by a competent engineer or architect who has had successful experience in such work, before the question of incurring an indebtedness for such improvement is submitted to vote.

Limit of indebtedness.

§ 5. No city, town, or municipal corporation shall incur an indebtedness for public improvements which shall, in the aggregate, exceed fifteen per cent of the assessed value of all the taxable real estate and personal property of such city, town, or municipal corporation. [Amendment approved March 11, 1891. Stats. 1891, p. 84.]

Character of bonds.

§ 6. All municipal bonds for public improvements issued under the provisions of this act shall be of the character of bonds known as serials, and shall be payable in gold coin or lawful money of the United States, in the manner following: One fortieth part of the whole amount of indebtedness shall be paid each and every year, on a day and at a place to be fixed by the legislative branch of the municipality issuing the bonds, together with the interest on all sums unpaid at such date. The bonds shall be issued in such denominations as the legislative branch of the municipality may determine, except that no bonds shall be of a less denomination than one hundred dollars nor of a greater denomination than one thousand dollars each, payable on the day and at the place fixed in such bond, and with interest at the rate specified in the bond, which rate shall not be in excess of the legal rate of the state of California, and may be payable annually or semi-annually. Such bonds may be issued and sold by the legislative branch of the city, town, or municipal corporation, as they may determine, at not less than their face value, in gold coin of the United States, and the proceeds of such sale shall be placed in the municipal treasury to the credit of the proper improvement fund, and shall be applied exclusively to the purposes and objects mentioned in the ordinance, until such objects are fully accomplished, after which, if any surplus remains, such surplus shall be transferred to the general fund of such municipality. [Amendment approved March 1, 1893. Stats. 1893, p. 61. In effect immediately. Repealed all conflicting acts.]

This section was in turn repealed by the act of March 9, 1897, Stats. 1897, p. 75. This repeal was declared unconstitutional. See note at head of this act.

Rate of interest.

§ 7. The legislative branch of any city, town, or municipal corporation, issuing bonds under authority of this act, shall have the right to determine the rate of interest such bonds shall bear; provided, that in no case shall it exceed seven per cent per annum, and to name the date and place where such bonds and interest shall be paid; provided, that the place of payment shall be either at the office of the treasurer of the municipality, or at some designated bank in San Francisco, Chicago, New York, or Boston. The said bonds shall be signed by the executive of the municipality, and also by the treasurer thereof, and shall be countersigned by the clerk. The coupons of said bonds shall be numbered consecutively, and signed by the treasurer.

Tax levy.

§ 8. The legislative branch of said city, town, or municipal corporation shall, at the time of fixing the general tax levy, and in the manner for such general tax levy provided, levy and collect annually, each year, for the term of forty years, a tax sufficient to pay the annual interest on such bonds, and also one fortieth part of the aggregate amount of such indebtedness so incurred. The taxes herein required to be levied and collected shall be in addition to all other taxes levied for municipal purposes, and shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner as other municipal taxes are collected. [Amendment approved March 1, 1893. Stats. 1893, p. 61. In effect immediately. Repealed all conflicting acts.]

This section was in turn repealed by the act of March 9, 1897, Stats. 1897, p. 75. See note under § 6.

Duty of corporation.

§ 9. It shall be the duty of the legislative branch of every city, town, or municipal corporation wherein public improvements are being made under the provisions of this act, to make all needful rules and regulations for carrying out and maintaining such improvements; to appoint all needful agents, superintendents, and engineers to properly look after the construction and operation of such public works, and in all lawful ways to protect and preserve the rights and interest of the municipality; provided, however, that in cities, towns, or municipalities operating under a charter heretofore or hereafter framed under section 8 of article XI of the constitution, and having a board of public works, all the matters and things required in this section to be done and performed by the legislative branch of the municipality shall be done and performed by the board of public works of such city, town, or municipality. [Amendment approved March 19, 1891. Stats. 1891, p. 132.]

Letting of contracts.

§ 10. All contracts for the construction or completion of any public works or improvements, or for furnishing labor or materials therefor, as herein provided, shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder. The legislative branch of the municipality shall advertise for at least ten days, in one or more newspapers published in the municipality, inviting sealed proposals for furnishing the labor and materials for the proposed improvements, before any contract shall be made therefor. The said legislative branch shall have the right to require such bonds as they may deem best, from the successful bidder, to insure the faithful performance of the contract work. They shall also have the right to reject any or all bids; provided, however, that in cities, towns, or municipalities operating under a charter heretofore or hereafter framed under section 8 of article XI of the constitution, and having a board of public works, all the matters and things required in this section to be done and performed by the legislative branch of the municipality shall be done and performed by the board of public works of such city, town, or municipality. [Amendment approved March 19, 1891. Stats. 1891, p. 132.]

Additional bonds of treasurer.

§ 11. Whenever the legislative branch of any municipality shall, by resolution, deem it necessary, they may require the treasurer of such municipality to give additional bonds for the safe custody and care of the public funds.

Repealing acts 1885, 1887.

§ 12. The act approved March ninth, eighteen hundred and eighty-five, entitled An act to authorize municipal corporations of the fifth class, containing more than three thousand and less than ten thousand inhabitants, to obtain public waterworks, and the act approved March fifteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, entitled An act authorizing the incurring of indebtedness by cities, towns, and municipal corporations, incorporated under the laws of this state, and all general acts, or special acts, or parts of acts, conflicting with this act, are hereby repealed.

§ 13. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

The act of March 15, 1887, was also amended by act approved February 16, 1889, Stats. 1889, p. 14.

ACT 2901.

An act to regulate contracts on behalf of the state in relation to the erection, construction, alteration, repair or improvement of any state structure, building, road, or other state improvement of any kind and to repeal an act entitled "An act to regulate contracts on behalf of the state in relation to erections and buildings," approved March 28, 1876.

Control of construction of public buildings.

§ 1. Whenever provision is made by law for the erection, construction, alteration, repair or improvement of any state structure, building, road or other state improvement of any kind excepting improvements on the property of the state on the waterfront of the city and county of San Francisco under the jurisdiction of the board of state harbor commissioners, the total cost of which will exceed the sum of one thousand dollars, the same shall be under the sole charge and direct control of the department of engineering. Said department, before entering into any contract for the erection, construction, alteration, repair or improvement of any state structure, building, road or other state improvement of any kind shall prepare full, complete and accurate plans and specifications and estimates of cost, giving such directions for the same as will enable any competent mechanic or other builder to carry them out. The plans, specifications and estimates of cost must be approved by the advisory board of the department of engineering and the original draft thereof filed permanently in the office of the department of engineering before further action is taken.

Contracts. Registration of prospective bidders.

§ 2. Said department of engineering shall, after the approval and filing of plans, specifications and estimates of cost as in this act required, let such work by contract to the lowest responsible bidder or bidders upon public notice which shall be given as follows: Notice of such work must be published once a week for three consecutive weeks next preceding the day set for the receiving of bids in a paper having a general circulation in the county where the work is to be done. Provided, that in a record kept for that purpose the state engineer shall register anyone desiring to be so registered for the purpose of becoming a prospective bidder upon state work, which registration shall be renewed on or before the beginning of each fiscal year, and whenever any state work is to let by contract the state engineer shall cause a notice of the same to be mailed to each of the addresses so registered at least twenty-five days prior to the date set for the receiving of bids. In each case such notice must state the time and place for the receiving and opening of sealed bids and must also state that bids will be received for the entire work and also, where possible, for the performance of each of the following parts thereof, viz.: first, for the masonry work, including all brick, stone, terra cotta, and concrete work, and all necessary excavations, and filling; second, for the iron work; third, for the carpenter, electric and glazing work; fourth, for the plastering work; fifth, for the plumbing and gas-fitting work; sixth, for the heating work; seventh, for the tinning, galvanized iron, and slating work; eighth, for the painting and graining work.

Award of contracts. Work may be by day's labor.

§ 3. On the day named in said public notice the department of engineering shall proceed to publicly open said sealed bids and shall award such contract or contracts to the lowest responsible bidder or bidders. No bid shall be considered unless accompanied with a bond of said bidder equal to ten per cent of his bid with sufficient sureties, conditioned that if said bid shall be accepted the party bidding will duly enter into a proper contract and faithfully perform his or their contract or contracts, in accordance with said bid, and the plans and specifications, which shall be and are hereby made a part of such contract or contracts. Such contract or contracts shall not be binding on the state until they are submitted to the attorney general, and by him found to be in accordance with the provisions of this act, and his certificate thereon to that effect made. If in the opinion of such department of engineering the acceptance of the lowest responsible bid or bids shall not be for the best interests of the state, it may be lawful for them to reject all bids and advertise for others in the manner aforesaid. But after the approval of the plans, specifications and estimates of costs by the advisory board of the department of engineering, if, in the opinion of such department of engineering the acceptance of any bid or bids shall not be for the best interests of the state, or if in the opinion of such department of engineering the acceptance of any further bids after the rejection of all bids submitted shall not be for the best interests of the state, it may be legal for them to direct that the erection, construction, alteration, repair, or improvement of any state structure, building, road, or other state improvement of any kind shall be done by day's labor, under the direction and control of the department of engineering. All contracts shall provide that such department of engineering may, as hereinafter provided, and on the conditions stated, make any change in the plans and specifications. Certified copies of such contracts shall be filed with the controller and the board of examiners.

Change of plans.

§ 4. After the contract or contracts are let no change shall be made to increase or diminish the cost of any contract in excess of five hundred dollars, except upon the approval of the advisory board of the department of engineering, and then only upon additional plans and specifications and estimates of cost being filed and approved, and amended contracts entered into and filed with the original contract.

Estimates must not be exceeded.

§ 5. No contract or contracts shall be made exceeding in amount the estimates of costs approved by the advisory board of the department of engineering and no plans and specifications and estimates of cost including expense of advertising and inspection, shall be approved by said board requiring a greater expenditure of money than is appropriated for the specific purpose in the act authorizing the same.

Payments upon contracts.

§ 6. Payments upon contract shall be made as the department of engineering may prescribe upon estimates made and approved by the said department and audited by the board of examiners, but no payment shall be made in excess of ninety per cent of the percentage of actual work completed, to which has been added one-half of the value of material delivered on the ground and unused. The department of engineering shall withhold not less than ten per cent of the contract price until final completion and acceptance of the work. The controller shall draw his warrants upon estimates so made and approved by the department of engineering and audited by the board of examiners and the state treasurer shall pay the same.

Injury to state a felony.

§ 7. Any member of the advisory board or person employed under the department of engineering who shall knowingly perform any official act to the injury of the state, or any contractor or his agent or employee who shall knowingly permit the violation of the contract of such contractor to the injury of the state, or any agent or employee of any contractor who shall have knowledge of any work being done in violation of contract and does not immediately notify the department of engineering or the inspector upon said work in regard to the same is guilty of a felony and, upon conviction thereof, shall be confined in the state prison for not less than one year nor more than five years, and be liable to the state for double the amount the state may have lost, or be liable to lose by reason thereof.

Neglect of work under contract.

§ 8. Whenever, in the opinion of the department of engineering, the work under any contract made in pursuance of this act, is neglected by the contractor or contractors, or the same is not prosecuted with diligence and force specified or intended in and by the terms of the contract, it shall be lawful for such department of engineering to make a requisition upon such contractor or contractors for such additional specific force, or for such additional specific material, to be brought into the work under such contract, or to remove improper materials from the grounds; of which action of said department of engineering due notice in writing of not less than five days, shall be served upon such contractor, or his or their agent having charge of the work. If such contractor or contractors fail to comply with such requisition within fifteen days, it shall be lawful for said department of engineering to employ upon such work the additional force, or supply the materials so specifically required as aforesaid, or such part of either as they may deem proper, and to remove improper materials from the grounds; and it shall be the duty of such department of engineering to make separate estimates of all such additional force or materials so employed or supplied as aforesaid, and the amount so estimated shall be charged against said contractor or contractors, and deducted from his or their next, or any subsequent, estimate; or the same, or any part thereof, not paid as aforesaid, may be recovered by action from such contractor or contractors, and their sureties.

Time limits in contracts. Bonds.

§ 9. In all contracts made under the provisions of this act, there shall be a provision in regard to the time when the whole, or any specified portion, of the work contemplated in said contract shall be completed, and also providing that for each and every day the same shall be delayed beyond such time or times so named, the said contractor or contractors, shall forfeit and pay to the state a sum of money, to be fixed and determined in said contract, to be deducted from any payment or payments due, or to become due, to said contractor or contractors. Any such contract shall provide for the filing of a sufficient bond by the contractor to secure the payment of the claims of materialmen, mechanics, or laborers employed upon state work; a penalty of ten dollars per day to be forfeited to the state for each calendar day during which any laborer, workman or mechanic is employed or permitted to labor more than eight hours; a minimum compensation of not less than two dollars per day for labor; that no Chinese or Mongolian labor shall be employed and such other provisions as are now or may hereafter be provided by law.

Act of 1876 repealed.

§ 10. An act entitled "An act to regulate contracts on behalf of the state in relation to erections and buildings," approved March 23, 1876, and all acts amendatory thereto are hereby repealed, and all other acts or parts of acts in conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed. Such repeal shall not affect, however, the operation of any other act heretofore passed, whether such act shall refer to the act hereby repealed or not, so as to exempt any public work from the provisions of this act.

§ 11. All of the provisions of this act shall be so construed as to preserve and keep in full force and effect all causes of action and actions for penalties which have already accrued or may hereafter accrue under any contract, heretofore entered into, against any contractor or person under and by virtue of the provisions of said act entitled "An act to regulate contracts on behalf of the state in relation to erections and buildings," approved March 23, 1876, which is repealed by virtue of this act, and all such actions and causes of action may be prosecuted to final judgment and all such penalties may be imposed and collected under the provisions of said act so repealed to the same extent and in the same manner as though said act had not been repealed.

§ 12. This act shall take effect immediately.

ACT 2902.

An act authorizing any incorporated city, town or municipal corporation, to construct, equip, use, maintain and operate any works, road, railroad, tramway, power plant, telephone or telegraph line, or other necessary works or structures, for the preparation, manufacturing, handling or transporting of materials or supplies required in the construction or completion of any public work, improvement or utility, and to lease, acquire, by purchase, condemnation or otherwise, and hold and use lands and other necessary property for said purposes.

[Approved March 18, 1907. Stats. 1907, p. 597.]

§ 1. Any incorporated city, town or municipal corporation in this state is hereby authorized to construct, equip, use, maintain and operate any works, road, railroad, tramway, power plant, telephone or telegraph line, or other necessary works or structures, within or without such city, town or municipal corporation, or the county wherein such city town or municipal corporation is located, for the preparation, manufacture, handling or transporting of any materials or supplies required in the construction or completion by such city, town or municipal corporation of any public work, improvement or utility, and, for the purpose of constructing, equipping, using, maintaining or operating any such works, road, railroad, tramway, power plant, telephone or telegraph line, or other necessary works or structures, such city, town or municipal corporation is hereby authorized to lease or acquire, by purchase, condemnation or otherwise, and hold and use any land, rights of way, water, water rights, quarry, gravel-bed or other mineral deposits, or any other necessary property, within or without such city, town or municipal corporation, or the county wherein such city, town or municipal corporation is located.

§ 2. Nothing in this act contained shall be construed as extending or enlarging any limitation prescribed by law or municipal charter upon taxation, expenditure of public funds, or the incurring of indebtedness, by any city, town or municipal corporation.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

TITLE 406.PUTAH CREEK.*ACT 2905.

Solano and Yolo counties, protecting from overflow by Putah Creek [Stats. 1871-72, p. 941.]

Repealed 1873-74, p. 84.

This act provided for the formation of the Yolo and Solano canal district for the purpose of protecting certain lands from overflow from Putah Creek.

TITLE 407.
QUARANTINE.

ACT 2910.

An act to regulate quarantine, and the admission of horses, cattle, sheep, and swine into the state of California from infected districts.

[Approved March 19, 1889. Stats. 1889, p. 375.]

Quarantine against entry of domestic animals.

§ 1. The state board of health shall be empowered to declare quarantine against the entry of domestic animals from any state or territory, or any foreign port or country, in which contagious or infectious diseases are known to exist; said infected parts to be named in the proclamation.

Entry of, through state board of health.

§ 2. All domestic animals coming into the state from districts mentioned in section 1 must be required to enter the state at such points only as the state board of health may by proclamation determine, and designate where they must be unloaded for inspection.

Evidence of owners.

§ 3. All owners of domestic animals coming into this state from localities quarantined against will be required to furnish the following evidence that such animals are free from disease:

First—The affidavit of two disinterested parties, who have known such animals for a period of four months prior to the date of shipment, that they have been healthy, and exposed to no contagious disease, and that no contagious disease is known or believed to exist in the district or country from which they came.

Second—The certificate of the county clerk of the county that persons making such affidavit are responsible and reputable citizens of the county.

Third—The affidavit of the owner or person in charge, made at the point of entry, that such domestic animals are the identical animals described in the foregoing affidavits, and that shipment has been direct and without unloading, except for food and water, and in cleansed and disinfected cars.

Affidavit of owners.

§ 4. Owners or persons in charge of domestic animals from localities not named in such proclamation must certify, under oath, that such domestic animals have been kept in one place for a period of four months immediately preceding the date of shipment (giving the name of the town and county and state, territory, or country), and have not been exposed to any contagious disease for a period of three months prior to the date of shipment.

Evidence to be submitted.

§ 5. All the foregoing evidence to be submitted to the state veterinarian, or an authorized inspector of the state, when permits for shipments in this state shall be issued.

Quarantined calves.

§ 6. Dealers' calves gathered in quarantined states or territories will be quarantined at the points of entry.

Domestic animals.

§ 7. Domestic animals not receiving permits for shipment, and retained in quarantine, will be held at the owner's risk and expense.

Same.

§ 8. All domestic animals arriving at points of entry shall be inspected free of charge to the owner.

Railway company must have permit.

§ 9. No railway company doing business in this state shall receive for shipment into this state any domestic animals unless accompanied by a permit signed by an authorized inspector.

Cattle, when not to enter state.

§ 10. No cattle shall enter this state from Texas, New Mexico, or Mexico, for grazing purposes during the months of March, April, May, June, July, August, September, October and November in each year.

Shipment for slaughter.

§ 11. All cattle from those parts mentioned in section 10 entering this state during the months mentioned in section 10, and intended for butchering purposes, shall pass from the point of entry into the slaughter-house yard, which yard shall be specially constructed and isolated for the purpose of receiving such stock. The stock shall be unshipped in said yard direct from the cars running into the yards for that purpose.

Character of cars.

§ 12. Said cattle shall moreover be shipped in specially constructed cars, which will prevent the dropping of manure and urine on the tracks during transit, and in unshipping such cattle the cars shall be thoroughly disinfected with carbolyzed whitewash.

When may be unshipped.

§ 13. All cattle entering this state for the purposes mentioned in section 11 shall only be unshipped between the point of entry and destination at places set apart by the state board of health in its proclamation; and no native stock shall be allowed at any time to enter said places; said places shall be, moreover, thoroughly disinfected in such manner as the state board of health may direct.

Violation of act.

§ 14. Any person or persons, corporations, or firms, who shall violate any of the provisions of this act shall be liable for all damages sustained, and a fine of one thousand dollars, to be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction, on account of any contagious or infectious disease being communicated from any diseased animal to any other animal in the neighborhood, or along the line of such transportation of such diseased animals into or through this state, or from one part thereof to another; and the existence or presence of such contagious or infectious disease among the native cattle of this state on the same ranch with or in the vicinity of any such diseased animals, or along the line or route over which they were transported, shall be prima facie evidence that the same were affected with such disease at the time of being so removed or transported, and communicated it to such native domestic animals so affected therewith.

Definition.

§ 15. The words "domestic animals," whenever used in this act, shall be construed to mean and include horses, mules, asses, cattle, sheep, goats and swine.

Inspectors to be appointed.

§ 16. The state board of health are hereby authorized to appoint one inspector for each of the points of entry by railroad communication into this state, who shall reside at such point as may be designated by the state board of health, and shall receive such compensation for actual services as may be determined by said board, not to exceed one hundred dollars per month; such compensation to be paid out of any moneys in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, upon the warrants of the controller of state drawn upon the certificate of the state board of health allowing the same.

§ 17. This act shall take effect immediately.

ACT 1921.

An act providing for the organization of the railroad commission of the state of California, defining its powers and duties and the powers and duties of transportation companies, their officers and employees, and defining offenses by transportation companies, their officers, employees and other persons, and providing penalties therefor; and repealing an act entitled "An act to create the office of commissioner of transportation, and to define its powers and duties; to fix the maximum charges for transporting passengers and freight on certain railroads, and to prevent extortion and unjust discrimination therein," approved April 1, 1878, and also repealing an act entitled "An act to organize and define the powers of the board of railroad commissioners," approved April 15, 1880.

[Approved March 19, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 499.]

Railroad commission, of whom composed.

§ 1. The three persons elected railroad commissioners pursuant to the provisions of section 22 of article XII of the constitution of the state, constitute and shall be known and designated as the railroad commission of the state of California. They shall have power to elect one of their number president of said board, to appoint a secretary, to appoint an assistant secretary, and to employ a stenographer.

Salaries. Expenses.

§ 2. The salary of each commissioner shall be six thousand dollars per annum; the salary of the secretary shall be three thousand dollars per annum; the salary of the assistant secretary shall be eighteen hundred dollars per annum; the salary of the stenographer shall be nine hundred dollars per annum; such salaries to be paid by the state of California in the same manner as the salaries of state officers are paid. Said commissioners, and the persons in their official employment when traveling in the performance of their official duties, shall have their traveling expenses other than transportation paid, the amounts to be passed on by the state board of examiners, and paid by the state. Said board of railroad commissioners shall be allowed one hundred dollars per month for office rent, and fifty dollars per month for fuel, lights, postage, expressage, subscription to publications upon the subject of transportation, and other incidental expenses, to be paid by the state; provided, that all moneys remaining unexpended at the expiration of each fiscal year shall be returned to the state treasurer. The state shall furnish said board with all necessary stationery and printing, upon requisitions signed by the president of said board.

Passes.

§3. Said commissioners and the persons in their official employment shall, when in the performance of their official duties, have the right to pass free of charge on all railroads, steamers, ships, vessels and boats, and on all vehicles employed in or by any transportation company, subject to the provisions of this act, engaged in the transportation of freight and passengers within this state.

Duty of attorney general.

§4. It shall be the duty of the attorney general to institute and prosecute any and all such suits and proceedings as shall be requested of him by said board, and to appear therein, and in all suits and proceedings to which the board is a party, for said board, and said suits and proceedings shall have precedence over all other business except criminal business; provided, that said board shall have the power to employ additional counsel to assist the attorney general, or otherwise, whenever they may deem it expedient. The fees and expenses of said additional counsel shall be determined by the state board of examiners and paid by the state.

Office.

§5. The office of said board shall be in the city and county of San Francisco. Said office shall always be open (legal holidays and non-judicial days excepted). The board shall hold its sessions at least once a month in said city and county of San Francisco, and at such other times and such other places within this state as may be expedient. The sessions of said board shall be public.

Salaries how paid.

§6. The salaries of the commissioners, secretary, assistant secretary and other officers and attachés in any manner employed by the board of commissioners shall be paid out of any money in the general fund appropriated therefor.

Seal.

§7. The board shall have a seal, to be devised by its members, or a majority thereof. Such seal shall have the following inscription surrounding it: "Railroad Commission, State of California." The seal shall be affixed only to, first, writs; second, authentications of a copy of a record or other proceedings, or copy of a document on file in the office of said commission.

Process.

§ 8. The process issued by said board shall extend to all parts of the state. The board shall have power to issue writs of summons and of subpoena in a like manner as courts of record. The summons shall direct the defendant to appear and answer within fifteen days from the day of service. The necessary process issued by the board may be served in any county of this state by any person authorized to serve process of courts of record.

Duty of secretary.

§ 9. The secretary of said board shall issue all process and notices required to be issued, and do and perform such other duties as the board may prescribe.

Complaints.

§ 10. All complaints before said board shall be in writing and under oath. All decisions of said board shall be given in writing, and the grounds and the decisions shall be stated. A record of the proceedings of said board shall be kept, and the evidence of persons appearing before said board shall be preserved.

Certain terms defined.

§ 11. The term "transportation company," as used in this act, shall include railroads operated for commercial purposes, express companies, sleeping-car companies, and companies operating vessels engaged in carrying freight or passengers on the waters of this state. The term "railroad" and "railroad company," as used in this act, shall include all bridges and ferries used or operated in connection with any railroad, and all the road in use by any railroad company operating a railroad, whether owned or operated under a contract, agreement, or lease, and all switches, spurs, tracks and terminal facilities, used in the transportation of persons or property, and all freight depots, yards or grounds, used in the transportation or delivery of any of said property. The term "transportation" as used in this act, shall include cars and other vehicles and all instrumentalities and facilities of shipment or carriage used by transportation companies in the movement of persons or property, irrespective of ownership, or of any contract, express or implied, for the use thereof, and all services in connection with the receipt, delivery, transfer in transit, ventilation, refrigeration or icing, storage and handling of property transported. The term "company," as used in this act, shall include corporations, associations, partnerships, trustees, assignees, and individuals.

Whenever any transportation company by water uses or operates, as incidental to the operation of its ships or boats, any barge, canal-boat, steamer, tug, ferryboat, or lighter, the thing so incidentally used or operated shall be deemed to be part of its transportation.

Duty of commission.

§ 12. It is hereby made the duty of such railroad commission to see that the provisions of this act and all laws of this state concerning transportation companies are enforced and obeyed, and that violations thereof are promptly prosecuted, and penalties due the state therefor recovered and collected. And said commission shall report all such violations, with the facts in their possession, to the attorney general or other officer charged with the enforcement of the laws, and request him to institute the proper proceedings.

Examination of books of companies.

§ 13. The commissioners, or either of them, or such person as they may employ for that purpose, shall be authorized, at such times as they may deem necessary, to examine the books and papers of any transportation company, and to examine under oath any officer or employee of such company in respect to the business of the same. If any transportation company shall willfully refuse to permit such inspection of its books and papers, said company shall, for each offense, be subject to a penalty of five hundred dollars for each day it shall so refuse, payable to the state of California, and recoverable in an action in the name of said board of railroad commissioners by the attorney general at the request of said board, in the superior court of the county, or city and county, where said company has its principal operating office in the state of California. No person employed by said board to make such inspection shall be entitled to make the same until he shall first produce his authority therefor, in writing under the hand and seal of said commission.

Refusal to exhibit books, penalty for.

§ 14. Any officer, agent or employee of any transportation company who, upon proper demand, shall willfully fail or refuse to exhibit to the commissioners, or either of them, or any person authorized to investigate the same, any book, record, or paper of such transportation company, which is in the possession or under the control of such officer, agent or employee, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction in any court having jurisdiction thereof, shall be punished by a fine in a sum not less than five hundred dollars and not to exceed $2,000.

Witnesses, pay of.

§ 15. The said commission is authorized to investigate any breach of the provisions of this act, and to issue subpoenas for the attendance of the witnesses, and each of said witnesses so subpoenaed shall receive for his attendance before the commission $2 per day and three cents per mile for the distance, by the nearest practicable route, in going to and returning from the place of meeting of said commission, and said witness fees shall be ordered paid by the state controller, upon presentation of proper vouchers sworn to by the witness and approved by the chairman of the commission; provided, that the chairman of said commission shall not approve any such voucher in the case of a witness subpoenaed at the instance of parties other than the commission, unless it shall appear to said chairman that the testimony of such witness was material to the matter investigated. In case any witness shall fail or refuse to obey such subpoena, the commission may issue an attachment for said witness, directed to any sheriff or constable in the state of California, to compel such witness to attend before the commission and give his testimony in respect to the matter investigated. No person shall be excused from attending and testifying, or from producing books and papers in obedience to said subpoena on the ground that the testimony or evidence required of him may tend to incriminate him, but no person shall be prosecuted, punished or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter or thing concerning which he may testify or produce evidence, documentary or otherwise, before said commission in obedience to said subpoena, provided, however, that no person so testifying shall be exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury committed in so testifying. The sheriff or constable executing any process issued under the provisions of this act shall receive such compensation therefor as may be allowed by the commission, not to exceed the fees as the same shall now or hereafter be prescribed by law for similar services.

Rates of charges, establishment of.

§ 16. The said board of railroad commissioners shall have the power, and it shall be their duty, to establish rates of charges for transportation by transportation companies subject to the provisions of this act, and the order for the said rates so made shall take effect on the twentieth day after service of the same upon the transportation company affected thereby, and in case such company be a corporation such service shall be sufficient if made upon the president, vice-president, secretary or managing agent thereof, and in case such company be a partnership, upon any member of the firm; to examine the books, records and papers of all such transportation companies, and for this purpose they shall have power to issue subpoenas and all other necessary processes; to hear and determine complaints against said transportation companies; to send for persons and papers; to administer oaths, take testimony and punish for contempt of their orders and processes in the same manner and to the same extent as courts of record; and to enforce their decisions, and correct abuses through the medium of the courts.

Through routes and joint rates.

§ 17. The commission may, after hearing on a complaint and upon such reasonable notice as it may fix to the company or companies complained of, establish through routes and joint rates as the maximum to be charged, and prescribe the division of such rates as hereinafter provided, and the terms and conditions under which such through routes shall be operated when that may be necessary to give effect to any provision of this act and the company or companies complained of have refused or neglected to establish voluntarily such through routes and joint rates; provided, no reasonable or satisfactory through route exists, and this provision shall apply when one of the connecting companies is a water line. Should the companies fail to agree among themselves upon the apportionment or division of such joint rates, the commission may, after hearing, upon such reasonable notice to said companies as it may fix, make a supplemental order prescribing the just and reasonable proportion of such joint rate to be received by each company party thereto.

Schedules to be filed and posted. Changes in rates. Joint tariffs. Form of schedules.

§ 18. Every transportation company, subject to the provisions of this act, shall file with the commission, within a time fixed by the commission, and print and keep open to public inspection, schedules showing all the rates, fares and charges for transportation between different points on its own route and between points on its own route and points on the route of any other transportation company subject to the provisions of this act, when a through route and joint rate have been established. These schedules shall plainly state the places between which property and passenger will be carried, and shall also state separately all terminal charges, storage charges, icing charges, and all other charges which the commission may require, all privileges or facilities granted or allowed, and any rules or regulations which in anywise change, affect, or determine any part or the aggregate of such aforesaid rates, fares and charges, or the value of the service rendered to the passenger, shipper or consignee. Such schedules shall be plainly printed in large type, and copies for the use of the public shall be kept on file in every depot, station and office of such transportation companies where passengers or freight, respectively, are received for transportation, in such form that they shall be accessible to the public and can be conveniently inspected. The provisions of this section shall apply to all traffic, transportation and facilities defined in this act.

No change shall be made in the rates, fares and charges, or joint rates, fares and charges which have been made, filed and published by any transportation company subject to the provisions of this act, except after thirty days' notice to the commission, and to the public, published as aforesaid, which shall plainly state the changes proposed to be made in the schedule then in force and the time when the changed rates, fare or charges will go into effect; and the proposed changes shall be shown by printing new schedules, or shall be plainly indicated upon the schedules in force at the time, and kept open to public inspection; provided, that the commission may, in its discretion and for good cause shown, allow changes upon less than the notice herein specified, or modify the requirements of this section in respect to publishing, posting and filing of tariffs, either in particular instances or by a general order applicable to special or peculiar circumstances or conditions.

The names of the several transportation companies which are parties to any joint tariff shall be specified therein, and each of the parties thereto, other than the one filing the same, shall file with the commission such evidence of concurrence therein or acceptance thereof as may be required or approved by the commission, and where such evidence of concurrence or acceptance is filed, it shall not be necessary for the transportation companies filing the same to also file copies of the tariffs in which they are named as parties.

The commission may determine and prescribe the form in which the schedules required by this section to be kept open to public inspection shall be prepared and arranged, and may change the form from time to time as shall be found expedient.

No transportation company subject to the provisions of this act, unless otherwise provided by this act, shall engage or participate in the transportation of passengers or property, as defined by this act, unless the rates, fares and charges upon which the same are transported by said transportation company have been filed and published in accordance with the provisions of this act; nor shall any transportation company charge or demand or collect or receive a greater or less compensation for such transportation of passengers or property, or for any service in connection therewith, between the points named in such tariffs, than the rates, fares and charges which are specified in the tariffs filed and in effect at the time.

Change of rates, notice to company.

§ 19. The said commission, before establishing, changing, amending, or abolishing any rule, regulation, or rate of charge for transportation, shall give the transportation company to be affected thereby ten days' notice of the time and place for the taking of action by the commission in respect to the same, and said company shall be entitled to be heard at such time and place and to process for the attendance of its witnesses, to the end that such action may be taken by the commission as shall be reasonable and just in the premises.

Petition for investigation.

§ 20. Any person, firm, corporation, or association, or any mercantile, agricultural or manufacturing society, or any body politic, or municipal organization, complaining of anything done or omitted to be done by any transportation company subject to the provisions of this act, in contravention of the provisions thereof or of the constitution of this state may apply to said commission by petition, which shall set forth the facts; whereupon, if there shall appear to the commission to be any reasonable grounds for investigating such complaint, it shall cause a copy of the same to be served on the transportation company concerned, and call upon said company to answer the same at a time and place specified in said call by said commission. The commission shall investigate the matters complained of under such reasonable rules and modes of procedure as it shall deem proper. No complaint shall at any time be dismissed because of the absence of direct damage to the plaintiff.

Reports of investigations. Complaints. Award of damages to complainant.

§ 21. Whenever an investigation shall be made by said commission, it shall be its duty to make a report in writing in respect thereto, which shall state the conclusions of the commission, together with its decision, order or requirement in the premises; and in case damages are awarded, such report shall include the findings of fact in which the award is made. All reports of investigations made by the commission shall be entered of record, and a copy thereof shall be furnished to the party who may have complained, and to any transportation company that may have been complained of. The commission may provide for the publication of its reports and decisions in such form and manner as may be best adapted for public use and information, and such authorized publications shall be competent evidence of the reports and decisions of the commission therein contained in all courts of this state, without any further proof or authentication thereof. The expense of such publication shall be ordered paid by the controller on the certificate of the chairman of said commission that the same has been incurred, and shall be payable out of any moneys in the general fund not otherwise appropriated.

If, in any such investigation, the commission shall determine that any party complainant is entitled to an award of damages under the provisions of this act, for a violation thereof, the commission shall make an order directing the transportation company to pay to the complainant the sum to which he is entitled, on or before a day named. If such transportation company does not comply with an order for the payment of money within the time limited in such order, the complainant, or any person for whose benefit such order was made, may file, in the superior court of the state of California, for the county in which complainant resides, or in which is located the principal operating office of the transportation company in said state, a petition setting forth, briefly, the causes for which he claims damages, and the order of the commission in the premises. Such suit shall proceed in all respects like other civil suits for damages in said superior court, except that on the trial of said suit the findings and order of the commission shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated, and either party thereto shall have the right of appeal to the supreme court as in other cases applicable thereto.

All complaints for the recovery of damages shall be filed with the commission within one year from the time the cause of action accrues and not after, and a petition for the enforcement of an order of the commission for the payment of money shall be filed in the superior court within six months from the date of the order and not after.

In such suits all parties in whose favor the commission may have made an award for damages by a single order may be joined as plaintiffs, and all of the transportation companies, parties to such order, may be joined as defendants, and the venue of all such suits shall be in the county where any of such transportation companies shall have its principal operating office in the state of California.

In the case of such joint suit, the recovery, if any, may be by judgment in favor of any one of such plaintiffs, against the defendant found to be liable to such plaintiff.

Every order of the commission shall be forthwith served by mailing the same to any one of the principal officers, or agents, or members of the transportation company at its principal operating office in this state, and the registry mail receipt shall be prima facie evidence of the receipt of such order by the transportation company in due course of mail.

The commission shall be authorized to suspend or modify its orders upon such notice and in such manner as it shall deem proper.

Authority to prescribe just rates.

§ 22. The commission is authorized and it shall be its duty whenever, after full hearing upon a complaint made as provided in section 20 of this act, or upon complaint of any transportation company subject to the provisions of this act, it shall be of the opinion that any of the rates or charges demanded, charged or collected by any transportation company or companies subject to the provisions of this act, for transportation services, or that any regulations or practices of said companies affecting such rates or charges, whether in respect to the complainants mentioned in said section 20, or in respect to any such transportation company itself, are unjust or unreasonable, or unjustly discriminatory, or unduly preferential or prejudicial, or otherwise in violation of, or contrary to, any of the provisions of this act, to determine and prescribe what will be the just and reasonable rate or rates, charge or charges, to be thereafter observed in such case as the maximum to be charged; and what regulation or practice in respect to such transportation is just, fair and reasonable to be thereafter followed; and to make an order that the transportation company shall cease and desist from such violation of the act, to the extent to which the commission find the same to exist, and shall not thereafter publish, demand or collect any rate or charge for such transportation service in excess of the maximum rate or charge so prescribed, and shall conform to the regulation or practice so prescribed, and to make, in proper cases, an order in respect to such rate or charges, or such regulations or practices, where the transportation company is complainant, and shall prescribe the just and reasonable rate or rates, charge or charges, to be thereafter observed by such transportation company as the maximum to be charged, and what regulation or practice in respect to such transportation services is just, fair and reasonable to be thereafter followed by the said transportation company.

All orders of the commission, except orders for the payment of money, shall take effect on the twentieth day after service, as provided in section 16 hereof, and shall continue in force for such time not exceeding one year, as shall be prescribed in the order of the commission, unless the same shall be suspended or modified or set aside by the commission, or be suspended or set aside by a court of competent jurisdiction.

The superior court of the state of California shall be such court of competent jurisdiction, and the venue of suits brought in any superior court of said state against the commission, to enjoin, set aside, annul or suspend any order or requirement of the commission, shall be in the county where the transportation company against which such order or requirement may have been made has its principal operating office in the state of California, and may be brought at any time after such order is promulgated. If said order or requirement has been made against two or more transportation companies, such venue shall be in the county where any one of said transportation companies has its principal operating office in the state of California, and jurisdiction to hear and determine such suits is hereby vested in said superior court. An appeal to the supreme court of the state of California may be taken from any interlocutory order or decree granting or continuing an injunction in any suit, but such appeal must be taken within thirty days from the entry of such order or decree, and it shall take precedence in the appellate court over all other causes except causes of like character and criminal causes.

Failure to obey order of commission.

§ 23. If any transportation company fails or neglects to obey any order of the commission, other than for the payment of money, while the same is in effect, any party injured thereby, or the commission in its own name, may apply to the superior court of the state of California for the county where such transportation company has its principal operating office in the state of California for an enforcement of such order. Said application shall be by petition, which shall state the substance of the order and the respect in which the transportation company has failed of obedience, and shall be served upon the company in such manner as the court shall direct, and the court shall prosecute such inquiries and make such investigations through such means as it shall deem needful in the ascertainment of the facts at issue or which may arise upon the hearing of such petition. If, upon such hearing as the court may determine to be necessary, it appears that the order was regularly made and duly served, and that the transportation company is in disobedience of the same, the court shall enforce obedience to such order by a writ of injunction, or other proper process, mandatory or otherwise, to restrain such company, its officers, agent or representatives from further disobedience of such order, or to enjoin upon it, or them, obedience to the same; and in the enforcement of such process the court shall have those powers ordinarily exercised by it in compelling obedience to its writs of injunction and mandamus. From any action upon such petition an appeal shall lie by either party to the supreme court of the state of California, and in such court the cause shall have priority in hearing and determination over all other causes except criminal causes, but such appeal shall not vacate or suspend the order appealed from.

Application for rehearing. Proceedings on rehearing.

§ 24. After a decision, order or requirement has been made by the commission in any proceeding, any party thereto may at any time make application for rehearing of the same, or any matter determined therein, and the commission may, in its discretion, grant such a rehearing if sufficient reason therefor be made to appear. Applications for rehearing shall be governed by such reasonable rules as the commission may establish. No such application shall excuse any transportation company subject to the provisions of this act from complying with or from obeying any decision, order, or requirement of the commission, or operate in any manner to stay or postpone the enforcement thereof, without the special order of the commission.

In case a rehearing is granted, the proceedings thereon shall conform as nearly as may be to the proceedings in an original hearing, except as the commission may otherwise direct; and if, in its judgment, after such rehearing and the consideration of all facts including those arising since the former hearing, it shall appear that the original decision, order or requirement is in any respect unjust or unwarranted, the commission may reverse, change or modify the same accordingly. Any decision, order or requirement made after such rehearing, reversing, changing or modifying the original determination, shall be subject to the same provisions as an original order.

Commission may investigate on own motion.

§ 25. Whenever the commission shall believe that any rate or charge for transportation is unjust or unreasonable, or unjustly discriminatory or unduly preferential, or that any service in the matter of such transportation is inadequate or that anything has been done or omitted to be done by any common carrier subject to the provisions of this act in contravention to the provisions thereof or of the constitution and that investigation relating thereto should be made, it may, upon its own motion, investigate the same. Before making such investigation, it shall furnish the transportation company concerned a statement in writing setting forth the rate or charge or service to be investigated. Thereafter, on ten days' notice to such transportation company of the time and place of said investigation, the commission may proceed to investigate such rate or charge or service in the same manner and make like orders in respect thereto as if such investigation had been made on complaint.

Who may intervene.

§ 26. Any party authorized by this act to be complainant in any investigation before the commission, or subject to be defendant therein, may, in the discretion of the commission, be permitted to intervene in any such investigation where said party has an interest in the matter under investigation in the success of either complainant or defendant, or an interest against both. In any such investigation before the commission, any party thereto, or the commission, may in the investigation cause the deposition of witnesses residing within or without the state to be taken in the manner prescribed by law for like depositions in civil actions in the superior courts of this state.

Rules of procedure.

§ 27. The commission shall have the power to adopt rules to govern its proceedings, and to regulate the mode and manner of all investigations of transportation companies and other parties before it, in the establishment of rates, rules, regulations, or in the making of orders and in the doing of other acts required of it under this act.

Oaths, who may administer.

§ 28. The chairman and each of the commissioners, for the purposes of this act, shall have power to administer all oaths, certify to all official acts, and to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers, and testimony.

Burden of proof.

§ 29. In all investigations under this act the burden of proof shall be upon the complainant.

Evidence.

§ 30. All evidence taken before the commission in the investigation of any breach of this act, when reduced to writing, may be used by any party thereto as evidence upon the trial of any cause or proceeding growing out of the same transaction against such transportation company, involving the same subject matter, and between the same parties, to the same extent as a deposition in a civil case. The commissioners are authorized to employ a phonographic reporter for the purpose of taking and transcribing such testimony whenever such commission shall deem it necessary, or whenever they shall be requested to do so by any party to the proceedings, and a certified copy under the hand and seal of said commission shall be sufficient proof of such testimony in any cause or proceeding in which the same shall be admissible as herein provided.

Charges must be reasonable.

§ 31. All charges made for any service rendered or to be rendered in the transportation of passengers or property, or in connection therewith, by transportation companies subject to the provisions of this act, shall be just and reasonable, and every unjust and unreasonable charge for such service or any part thereof is prohibited and declared to be unlawful.

Accidents, investigation of.

§ 31a. The railroad commission shall investigate the cause of all accidents on any railroad within the state which result in loss of life or injury to persons or property, and which in its judgment shall require investigation. Every common carrier and railroad corporation is hereby required to give immediate notice to the commission of every accident happening upon any line of railroad owned, operated, controlled or

Application for rehearing. Proceedings on rehearing.

§ 24. After a decision, order or requirement has been made by the commission in any proceeding, any party thereto may at any time make application for rehearing of the same, or any matter determined therein, and the commission may, in its discretion, grant such a rehearing if sufficient reason therefor be made to appear. Applications for rehearing shall be governed by such reasonable rules as the commission may establish. No such application shall excuse any transportation company subject to the provisions of this act from complying with or from obeying any decision, order, or requirement of the commission, or operate in any manner to stay or postpone the enforcement thereof, without the special order of the commission.

In case a rehearing is granted, the proceedings thereon shall conform as nearly as may be to the proceedings in an original hearing, except as the commission may otherwise direct; and if, in its judgment, after such rehearing and the consideration of all facts including those arising since the former hearing, it shall appear that the original decision, order or requirement is in any respect unjust or unwarranted, the commission may reverse, change or modify the same accordingly. Any decision, order or requirement made after such rehearing, reversing, changing or modifying the original determination, shall be subject to the same provisions as an original order.

Commission may investigate on own motion.

§ 25. Whenever the commission shall believe that any rate or charge for transportation is unjust or unreasonable, or unjustly discriminatory or unduly preferential, or that any service in the matter of such transportation is inadequate or that anything has been done or omitted to be done by any common carrier subject to the provisions of this act in contravention to the provisions thereof or of the constitution and that investigation relating thereto should be made, it may, upon its own motion, investigate the same. Before making such investigation, it shall furnish the transportation company concerned a statement in writing setting forth the rate or charge or service to be investigated. Thereafter, on ten days' notice to such transportation company of the time and place of said investigation, the commission may proceed to investigate such rate or charge or service in the same manner and make like orders in respect thereto as if such investigation had been made on complaint.

Who may intervene.

§ 26. Any party authorized by this act to be complainant in any investigation before the commission, or subject to be defendant therein, may, in the discretion of the commission, be permitted to intervene in any such investigation where said party has an interest in the matter under investigation in the success of either complainant or defendant, or an interest against both. In any such investigation before the commission, any party thereto, or the commission, may in the investigation cause the deposition of witnesses residing within or without the state to be taken in the manner prescribed by law for like depositions in civil actions in the superior courts of this state.

Rules of procedure.

§ 27. The commission shall have the power to adopt rules to govern its proceedings, and to regulate the mode and manner of all investigations of transportation companies and other parties before it, in the establishment of rates, rules, regulations, or in the making of orders and in the doing of other acts required of it under this act.

Oaths, who may administer.

§ 28. The chairman and each of the commissioners, for the purposes of this act, shall have power to administer all oaths, certify to all official acts, and to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers, and testimony.

Burden of proof.

§ 29. In all investigations under this act the burden of proof shall be upon the complainant.

Evidence.

§ 30. All evidence taken before the commission in the investigation of any breach of this act, when reduced to writing, may be used by any party thereto as evidence upon the trial of any cause or proceeding growing out of the same transaction against such transportation company, involving the same subject matter, and between the same parties, to the same extent as a deposition in a civil case. The commissioners are authorized to employ a phonographic reporter for the purpose of taking and transcribing such testimony whenever such commission shall deem it necessary, or whenever they shall be requested to do so by any party to the proceedings, and a certified copy under the hand and seal of said commission shall be sufficient proof of such testimony in any cause or proceeding in which the same shall be admissible as herein provided.

Charges must be reasonable.

§ 31. All charges made for any service rendered or to be rendered in the transportation of passengers or property, or in connection therewith, by transportation companies subject to the provisions of this act, shall be just and reasonable, and every unjust and unreasonable charge for such service or any part thereof is prohibited and declared to be unlawful.

Accidents, investigation of.

leased by it in such manner as the commission may direct. Such notice shall not be admitted as evidence or used for any purpose against such common carrier or railroad corporation giving such notice in any suit or action for damages growing out of any matter mentioned in said notice.

Switch connections.

§ 31b. A railroad corporation, upon the application of any shipper tendering traffic for transportation, shall construct, maintain and operate upon reasonable terms a switch connection or connections with a lateral line of railroad or private sidetrack owned, operated or controlled by such shipper, and shall, upon the application of any shipper, provide upon its own property a sidetrack and switch connection with its line of railroad, whenever such sidetrack and switch connection is reasonably practicable, can be put in with safety, and the business therefor is sufficient to justify the same.

If any railroad corporation shall fail to install or operate any such switch connection with a lateral line of railroad or any such sidetrack and switch connection as aforesaid, after written application therefor has been made to it, any corporation or person interested may present the facts to the railroad commission by written petition, and the commission shall investigate the matter stated in such petition, and give such hearing thereon as it may deem necessary or proper. If the commission be of opinion that it is safe and practicable to have a connection, substantially as prayed for, established or maintained, and that the business to be done thereon justifies the construction and maintenance thereof, it shall make an order directing the construction and establishment thereof, specifying the reasonable compensation to be paid for the construction, establishment, and maintenance thereof, and may in like manner upon the application of the railroad corporation order the discontinuance of such switch connection.

Continuous carriage required.

§ 31c. No common carrier shall enter into or become a party to any combination, contract, agreement or understanding, written or oral, express or implied, to prevent by any arrangement or by change of arrangement of time schedule, by carriage in different cars or by any other means or device whatsoever the carriage of freight and property from being continuous from the place of shipment to the place of destination. No breakage of bulk, stoppage or interruption of carriage made by any common carrier shall prevent the carriage of freight and property from being treated as one continuous carriage from the place of shipment to the place of destination. Nor shall any such breakage of bulk, stoppage or interruption of carriage be made or permitted by any common carrier except it be done in good faith for a necessary purpose without intention to avoid or unnecessarily interrupt or delay the continuous carriage of such freight or property or to evade any of the provisions of law, of this act or of any order of the railroad commission.

Short haul charges.

§ 31d. No common carrier, subject to the provisions of this act, shall charge or receive any greater compensation in the aggregate for the transportation of passengers or of a like kind of property, under substantially similar circumstances and conditions, for a shorter than for a longer distance over the same line in the same direction, the shorter being included within the longer distance; but this shall not be construed as authorizing any such common carriers to charge and receive as great a compensation for a shorter as for a longer distance haul.

"Extortion" defined.

§ 32. If any transportation company, or any officer or agent of any transportation company subject to this act, shall hereafter willfully charge, collect, demand or receive from any person, firm or corporation a greater rate, charge or compensation than the rate, charge or compensation published as in this act provided, such transportation company or such officer or agent thereof, as the case may be, shall be deemed guilty of extortion, which is hereby declared a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be fined in a sum not less than five hundred dollars and not more than five thousand dollars.

Rebates.

§ 33. If any transportation company subject hereto shall, directly or indirectly, by any special rate, rebate, drawback, or other practice, method or device, charge, demand, collect or receive from any person, company, firm or corporation, a greater or less compensation for any service rendered, or to be rendered by it in the transportation of passengers or freight, than it charges, demands, collects or receives from any other person, company, firm or corporation for doing a like and contemporaneous service in the transportation of a like kind of traffic, under substantially similar circumstances and conditions, such transportation company shall be deemed guilty of unjust discrimination, which is hereby prohibited.

Undue preference.

§ 34. It shall also be unjust discrimination for any such transportation company to make or give any undue or unreasonable preference or advantage to any particular person, company, firm, corporation, or locality, or to any particular description of traffic, in any respect whatsoever, or to subject any particular description of traffic, in any respect whatsoever, or to subject any particular person, company, firm, corporation or locality, or any particular description of traffic to any undue or unreasonable prejudice or disadvantage in any respect whatsoever.

Penal clause.

§ 34 1/2. Any transportation company guilty of unjust discrimination, as defined in this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be fined in a sum not less than five hundred dollars, and not more than five thousand dollars. Every officer and agent of any such company who shall violate, or who procures, aids or abets any violation by such company of any of the provisions of sections 33 and 34 of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Interchange of traffic.

§ 35. All transportation companies subject to the provisions of this act shall, according to their respective powers, afford all reasonable, proper and equal facilities for the interchange of traffic between their respective lines, and for the receiving, forwarding, and delivery of passengers and property to and from their several lines and those connected therewith, and shall not discriminate in their rates and charges between such connecting lines; but this shall not be construed as requiring any such transportation company to give the use of its tracks or terminal facilities to another transportation company engaged in like business.

False billing.

§ 36. Any officer or agent of any transportation company subject to this act who by means of false billing, false classification, false weight, or by any other device, shall willfully suffer or permit any person or persons to obtain transportation for property at less than the published rates then in force, or who, by means of false billing, false classification, false weighing, or by any device whatever shall willfully charge any person, firm or corporation more for the transportation of property than the published rates, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be fined in a sum of not less than five hundred dollars and not more than five thousand dollars.

Company responsible for act of agent. Soliciting favors of company by shipper.

§ 37. The act, omission or failure of any officer, agent or other person acting for or employed by any transportation company subject to the provisions of this act, or shipper, acting within the scope of his employment, shall, in every case, be also deemed to be the act, omission or failure of such transportation company or shipper, as well as that of the person. The willful failure upon the part of any transportation company subject to the provisions of this act to file and publish the tariff or rates and charges as required by this act, shall be a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof the transportation company offending shall be subject to a fine of not less than five hundred dollars and not more than five thousand dollars.

It shall be unlawful for any person, persons or corporation willfully to offer, grant or give, or to solicit, accept or receive any advantage or discrimination in respect to the transportation of any property in the intra-state commerce of this state, whereby any such property shall, by any device whatever, be transported at a less rate than that named in the tariffs published and filed by such transportation company as required by this act, or whereby any other advantage is given or discrimination practiced. Every person or corporation who shall so offer, grant or give, or shall so solicit, accept or receive any such advantage or discrimination shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than five hundred dollars and not more than five thousand dollars; except that where the advantage given or discrimination practiced shall be in the transportation at a less rate, as aforesaid, than the published tariff rate, the penalty on conviction shall be a fine of not less than one thousand dollars and not more than five thousand dollars.

Every offense created by this act shall be prosecuted in a court having jurisdiction of offenses within the city, city and county, or county in which such offense was committed; and whenever the offense is begun in one jurisdiction and completed in another, it may be proceeded against in either.

Liability for damages.

§ 38. In case any transportation company subject to this act, or any person or corporation within the provisions hereof, shall do, cause to be done, or permit to be done, except unintentionally or innocently through a mistake of fact, any matter, act or thing in this act prohibited or declared to be unlawful, or shall similarly omit to do any act, matter or thing herein required by this act to be done, such transportation company, person, or corporation shall be liable to the penalties hereinbefore provided for, and shall, in addition, be liable to the person or persons, firm or corporation injured by such act or omission for the damages proximately resulting therefrom; and in addition to such damages, such transportation company, in all cases where the same shall be guilty of extortion or unjust discrimination as defined in this act, shall pay to such person, firm or corporation so injured a penalty of not less than five hundred dollars and not more than five thousand dollars.

Free passes.

§ 39. No railroad or other transportation company shall grant free passes, or passess, or tickets, at a discount, to any person holding any office of honor, trust, or profit in this state, and every transportation company issuing free passes or tickets at a discount in violation of the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and for each offense shall be punished by a fine of not less than five hundred dollars nor more than five thousand dollars.

Published rate to be deemed just.

§ 40. In all actions between private parties and transportation companies subject to the provisions of this act, in respect to any rate, charge, order, rule or regulation published as required by this act, the published rate, charge, order, rule or regulation shall be deemed to be just and reasonable, and shall not be open to controversy except in and by way of such proceedings for that purpose before the commission and the courts as are provided for in this act.

Investigations by interstate commerce commission.

§ 40a. The said commission is hereby authorized and directed when public interests require, to file petitions for investigations, or complaint or complaints, with the interstate commerce commission, and to file such suit or suits, in tribunals or courts of competent jurisdiction as are permitted under the terms of what is known as the interstate commerce act, complaining of anything done, or omitted to be done by common carriers subject to the provisions of the interstate commerce act. Said board is also hereby authorized and instructed to file petitions for investigations, or complaint, or complaints, and to commence such suit or suits, in tribunals, or courts of competent jurisdiction, complaining of the order, or orders, of any transcontinental railroad company, or other common carriers, either railroad or steamship, raising freight rates, or entering into contracts or combinations to raise, or maintain rates, or to take any action that will prevent competition, to and from, or to or from, California points to points in the United States outside of California. The attorney general is hereby directed to represent said board and the people of the state of California, in any proceeding commenced under the provisions of this section.

Co-operation with interstate commerce commission.

§ 40c. The said commission is hereby empowered and directed to co-operate with the interstate commerce commission in the investigation of discriminations in charges of facilities for transportation of passengers or freight made by any railroad or other transportation company, between places or persons, or in the facilities for the transportation of the same classes of passengers or freight within this state, or coming from or going to any other state, and to that end and for either of said purposes shall arrange for joint meetings with the interstate commerce commission or any section thereof in the various commercial and industrial centers of this state.

Sessions of state board, to be held where.

§ 40d. The state board of railroad commissioners shall meet and hold a session of such board for the purpose of investigating any discriminations, or any complaint of any citizen of this state, against any railroad or other transportation company at least once every six months, commencing May 1, 1909, at each of the following cities: San Francisco, Los Angeles, San Diego, Stockton, Sacramento, Oakland, Fresno, San Jose, Santa Barbara, Redding, Bakersfield, Marysville, San Bernardino and Eureka, and at such other cities or towns in counties other than those in which the cities hereinabove named are respectively situated, when a petition for a meeting of such board is filed with the secretary thereof by ten shippers. Notice of such meetings shall be given by said board by advertising same for a period of one week in one or more daily newspapers published in the city and county of San Francisco, and for a like period in a daily newspaper in the county where any meeting is to be held if there be one published therein, if not, then for a period of two weeks in a weekly newspaper published therein. Such notice shall contain a request for the public interested in transportation matters to appear and present any complaints or file petitions for better facilities or for reduction of rates. At such meetings testimony may be taken in support of such complaint or petition. If demanded by any railroad or other transportation company, affected by such complaint or petition, the board may hear such testimony as such company may present; whereupon such board shall take such proceedings on such complaint or petition as may be authorized by the constitution and laws of this state. The testimony taken at all hearings of such board authorized by the provisions of this act shall be reduced to writing, and a copy of the same shall be reported to the legislature at the beginning of each regular session thereof.

Construction of certain words.

§ 41. The words "commission," "commissioners" and "railroad commission," as used in this act, shall be construed as meaning the board of railroad commissioners of the state of California, and the word "commissioner" as used in this act shall be construed as meaning any one of the members of the board of railroad commissioners of the state of California.

To what carriers applies.

§ 42. This act shall be construed and held to apply only to the transportation of property and passengers within the state of California.

Repeal of certain acts.

§ 43. An act entitled "An act to create the office of commissioner of transportation, and to define its powers and duties; to fix the maximum charges for transporting passengers and freights on certain railroads, and to prevent extortion and unjust discrimination thereon," approved April 1, 1878, and also an act entitled "An act to organize and define the powers of the board of railroad commissioners," approved April 15, 1880, and all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.

§ 44. This act shall take effect immediately.

§ 1. It shall be lawful for the council, trustees, or other governing body of any city or town owning public parks situated outside of said city or town, to grant franchises for the building and operation of railroads from any point in, or at the exterior boundary of such city or town, to, in, or through such park, in the same manner and to the same extent as it now has power to grant the same for street railroads within the limits of such city or town; provided, that in addition to all other conditions, it shall be made a condition of such franchise that the fare of passengers on such road or roads shall never exceed five cents for a single trip.

§ 2. All railroads, except as otherwise provided in this act, authorized by this act to be so chartered shall be governed by the provisions of Part IV, Title IV, of the Civil Code of California, concerning street railroads and corporations, so far as the same shall be applicable thereto, and of all acts amendatory thereof. [Approved April 20, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 1007.]

Duty of railroads to supply cars to shippers. Time in which to furnish cars.

§ 1. When the owner, or manager or shipper of any freight of any kind shall make application in writing to any superintendent, agent or other person in charge of transportation of any railway company or person, corporation, receiver or trustee operating any line of railway, at the point where cars are desired upon which to ship any freight, it shall be the duty of such railway company, corporation, receiver, trustee or other person in charge thereof, to supply the number of cars so required at the point indicated in the application within the time hereinafter specified after receipt of such application, and such railway company, person, corporation, trustee or receiver shall supply such cars to the persons so applying therefor in the order in which such applications are made without giving any preference to any person; provided, if the application be for ten cars or less, the same shall be furnished in five days; provided, if the application be for ten cars and less than fifty cars the same shall be furnished in ten days; and provided further, that if the application be for fifty cars or more, such railway company, person, corporation, receiver or trustees shall have fifteen full days in which to supply the cars, if the application be for cars for the transportation of perishable freight the number of cars applied for shall be furnished within forty-eight hours; provided, that the point to which said freight is to be shipped is on the line of the railway company to which such application for cars is made or on the line of a railroad with which the railway company to which such application is made has connections and to which point it ordinarily receives freight for shipment; and provided further, that railway companies to which such application may be made shall not be obligated under the terms hereof to furnish cars of any class required for the transportation of the class of commodity to be shipped and for which application is made, unless it owns or usually operates such class of cars. All cars supplied in compliance with the provisions of this section shall be suitable for the purpose for which they are ordered. The time herein stated for the delivery of cars mentioned in any such application shall begin to run from the hour of 7 o'clock A. M. of the next day following the day of the receipt of any such application by the railway company, corporation, receiver, trustee or other person in charge to whom it is given.

Application shall state what.

§ 2. Said application for cars shall state the number of cars desired, the kind of freight to be shipped, the point of destination, the time and place at which they are desired; provided, that the place designated where the cars are to be furnished shall be at some station or switch on the railroad of the person, corporation, receiver or trustee to whom or to whose agent such application is made.

Penalty for failure to furnish.

§ 3. When cars are applied for under the provisions of this act, if they are not furnished as herein provided, the railway company, person, corporation, receiver or trustee so failing to furnish them shall be liable and immediately indebted to the party or parties so applying for said car or cars in the sum of five dollars per day for each car failed to be so furnished, to be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction, and in addition all actual damages that such applicant may sustain by the failure to furnish said car or cars.

Deposit of freight charges. Failure of applicant to load cars; penalty for.

§ 4. Such applicant shall, at the time of applying for such car or cars, deposit with the agent of such company or with such person, corporation, receiver or trustee one-fourth of the amount of the freight charge for the use of such car or cars, if such agent, or such person, corporation, receiver or trustee shall require such deposit; and such applicant shall within forty-eight hours after such car or cars have been delivered and placed as heretofore provided fully load the same; and upon failure to do so, he shall be liable and immediately indebted and pay to such company, person, corporation, receiver or trustee the sum of six dollars per day for each car not used; provided, that where applications are made on several days, all of which are filled upon the same day, the applicant shall have forty-eight hours to load the car or cars furnished on the first application, and the next forty-eight hours to load the car or cars furnished on the next application, and so on; and the penalty herein prescribed shall not accrue as to any car or lot of cars applied for on any one day, until the period within which they may be loaded has expired, and if the said applicant shall not use such cars so ordered by him, he shall forfeit and pay to the said railroad company in addition to the penalty herein prescribed, the actual damages that such company may sustain by the failure of the applicant to use said cars. Every such company, person, corporation, receiver or trustee shall have a lien upon any deposit made in accordance with this section for any damages or penalties accruing to it by failure to load any car or cars delivered and placed as in this act provided.

Cars must be moved when loaded. Time for unloading cars. Demurrage.

§ 5. The time within which said cars are to be loaded shall begin to run from the hour of 7 o'clock A. M. of the day next following the day the same are furnished at the place required and at the time specified in the application therefor. If the said applicant shall not use such cars so ordered by him, he shall so notify the railroad furnishing the same, and he shall be liable for the penalty above set forth to the railway company, corporation, receiver, trustee or other person in charge furnishing the same for the period of one day after said notification. When cars have been furnished and loaded it shall be the duty of the railway company, corporation, receiver, trustee or other person in charge to promptly remove the same from the point where loaded and deliver the same to the connecting railroad or to the person or persons to whom they are consigned, within a reasonable time. All persons to whom cars are consigned shall unload the same within forty-eight (48) hours after delivery thereof to the said consignee at the usual and appropriate point of unloading; and upon failure to unload said car or cars within the time herein specified, after the delivery thereof as herein stated, the consignee thereof shall be liable and shall be held to be immediately indebted to the railway company, corporation, receiver, trustee or other person in charge, delivering said cars, in the sum of six dollars per day, or fraction of a day, for each car so left unloaded. The time for unloading such cars shall be computed in the manner hereinbefore prescribed for loading cars. Nothing in this act contained shall be construed to prevent any railway company, person, corporation, receiver or trustee, operating any line of railway from making and enforcing any and all necessary rules for demurrage to insure the loading and unloading of cars within twenty-four hours after delivery thereof to consignors or consignees at the usual and appropriate point of loading or unloading; provided, the rate or charge for demurrage so made shall not exceed three dollars for the first day after said period of twenty-four hours for each car, and thereafter the rate or charge for demurrage shall be the sum of six dollars per day for each car as hereinabove in this section provided.

Claims for failure to furnish cars.

§ 6. Any claim which any person may have against any railway company, corporation, receiver, trustee or other person in charge, for failure to furnish cars or for damages sustained by reason thereof, shall be assignable in the same manner, and to the same extent, as any assignable claim or chose in action, and suit or action for the collection thereof may be brought against any railway company, corporation, receiver, trustee or other person in charge by any person having any such claim, or by the assignee thereof.

What evidence necessary in suits.

§ 7. It shall be necessary for the party or parties bringing suit against any railway company, person, corporation, receiver, or trustee under the provisions of this act, to show by evidence that he or they had on hand at the time any demand for cars was made the amount of oil, lumber, wheat or other grain, wool, hides, fruit or other freight, necessary to load the cars so ordered; provided no charge for failure of any railway company, corporation, receiver, trustee or other person in charge to furnish a car or cars as herein required shall be made or enforced, or damages therefor claimed, when such failure is caused by public calamity, strikes, washouts, acts of God, the public enemy, mobs, riots, wrecks, fires or accidents. The causes in this act enumerated, which afford an excuse on the part of a railroad for not furnishing the cars as required, shall likewise, and to the same extent, excuse the owner, manager or shipper or consignee of any freight from all liability hereunder for failure to load or unload cars as herein required.

Act applies to what shipments.

§ 8. This act shall apply only to shipments begun and terminating within the state of California.

Amended 1909, p. 988.

§ 1. Whenever in any reclamation district in this state, now formed or which may hereafter be formed, any assessment has been levied and assessed upon the lands of said district according to the provisions of the Political Code, for the purpose of paying the cost of the reclamation thereof according to the plans thereof; and where in the judgment and opinion of the board of trustees of said district it would be difficult or oppressive for the land owners of said district to pay the same or any unpaid portion thereof in the ordinary way in which such assessments are paid; or where such assessment or unpaid portion thereof could only conveniently and practically be paid by them in such small installments and at such length of interval as would seriously delay the work of reclamation and the completion thereof; the board of trustees of any such district shall so declare by order entered upon the records of said board, and shall thereupon order a special election to be held at some place in said district to be designated by said board of trustees, at which said special election shall be submitted to the owners of land in said district the question whether or not the bonds of said district shall be issued in an amount necessary to construct said works of reclamation, and equal to the amount of said hereinbefore mentioned assessment, which said amount shall be entered by said board of trustees in its records and stated by them in the order for such special election. [Amendment approved April 15, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 933.]

§ 2. Notice of such special election must be given by the board of trustees by posting notices thereof in at least three public places in the district, at least twenty days prior thereto, and also by publication for the same time in some newspaper published in each county in which any portion of said district may be situated, if there be a newspaper published in each of such counties, and if there is no newspaper so published, then by such publication in each county in which there is a newspaper published, and such notice must specify the time and place of holding such election, the amount of bonds proposed to be issued, and the names of three landholders of the district to act as a board of election.

§ 3. At such election each holder of lands in the district shall be entitled to vote in person or by proxy, and shall have the right to cast one vote for each dollar's worth of real estate owned by him in the district, the value thereof to be determined from the next preceding assessment-roll of the county where the same is situated; and the board of trustees of the district shall, prior to the election, procure from the assessor of each county where any portion of the district is situated, a list, certified by such assessor, containing a description of all the land of the district situated in such county, the name of the person to whom each tract is assessed, and the value thereof as appears from the assessment-roll of said county, which said list shall be furnished to and be used by the said board of election in determining the number of votes each voter is entitled to cast. No person shall vote by proxy at such election, unless authority to cast such vote shall be evidenced by an instrument in writing, duly acknowledged and certified as grants of real property, and filed with the board of election. The ballots cast at such election shall contain the words "Bonds—Yes," or the words "Bonds—No," and also the name of the person casting the ballot, with the number of votes cast by him; and a list of the ballots cast shall be made by the board of election, containing the name of the voter, and if the ballot be cast by proxy, the name of the person casting it, the number of votes cast, and whether the same be cast for or against the issuing of the bonds.

§ 4. If the persons, or any of them, appointed and specified in the notice of election as the board of election fail to attend at the time and place appointed for the election, the voters present at the time for opening the polls may appoint any landholder of the district then present to fill the place of any absent member thereof. Each member of such board of election must, before entering upon his duties as such, take an official oath as such member of the board of election, which said oath may be administered by any officer authorized to administer oaths, or by any landholder in the district. The polls shall be kept open for the reception of votes from 10 o'clock A. M. until 4 o'clock P. M. At the close of the polls the board of election shall at once proceed to canvass the votes, and declare the result and forward a certificate, showing the number of votes cast for and against the issuing of bonds, to the board of supervisors of the county where the district was formed, and deliver a duplicate thereof to the board of trustees of the district, and shall also deliver to the said board of trustees all ballots cast at such election, and all documents and papers used at such election.

§ 5. If a majority of the votes cast at such election are in favor of the issuance of bonds, the board of trustees of the district shall cause bonds in the amount stated in the order for election to be issued and placed in the custody of the treasurer of the county in which the district was formed. Said bonds shall be of the denomination of one hundred dollars each, shall be negotiable in form, signed by the president of the board of trustees of the district, and the chairman of the board of supervisors of said county, and attested by the clerk of said board of supervisors, and the seal of said board of supervisors, shall be numbered consecutively as issued, and bear date at the time of their issue, and shall express on their face that they were issued by authority of this act, stating its title and date of approval, and the date of the election at which their issuance was authorized. Said bonds shall bear interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum, payable semi-annually on the first day of January and the first day of July in each year, at the office of said county treasurer, upon the presentation of the proper coupons therefor. Coupons for each installment of interest shall be attached to said bonds, and shall be numbered, signed, and attested, in the same manner as the bond. The principal of said bonds shall be paid as follows, to wit: Ten per cent of the whole amount of bonds issued, according to their consecutive numbers, shall be paid in ten years from the date of their issue, at the office of said county treasurer, and ten per cent thereof each succeeding year thereafter, until all are paid. If any bond shall not be presented for payment when the same becomes due, it shall cease to draw interest; but if presented at such time, and not paid for want of funds, the said county treasurer shall so indorse it, and thereafter such bond shall draw interest until paid, at said rate of seven per cent per annum, payable semi-annually.

§ 6. The treasurer of said county shall place the bonds prepared pursuant to this act to the credit of said district, and may at any time sell any of said bonds for the best price obtainable therefor, but in no event for less than the face value of said bond, and the accrued interest thereon. Any money derived from the sale of said bonds by said county treasurer shall be placed in the treasury to the credit of said district, and a proper record of such transaction be placed upon the books of said treasurer.

§ 7. The board of trustees of said district may draw orders upon the said county treasurer, payable in bonds or money in the proportion and to the amount therein named, to pay for labor or services performed for, or materials or property furnished to, said district, for the purpose of constructing the reclamation works thereof, and the expenses necessarily incident to maintaining the same, and the contingent expenses of said district, which said orders shall be approved by the board of supervisors of the county where such district was formed, and thereafter be paid by said treasurer in the manner therein provided for if such bonds or money then remaining in said treasury to the credit of said district be sufficient to pay the same.

§ 8. The principal of said bonds and the interest thereon shall be paid by revenue derived as follows: Thirty days before any sum or sums is due or payable on account of the principal or interest or both, of said bonds, the board of trustees of the district shall determine the total amount thereof, and shall immediately by entry on its minutes direct that such an installment of the assessment theretofore declared on the lands of said district and for which the bonds were issued, as may be necessary to pay the same, together with such other indebtedness of the district then due and payable as the board may see fit to include, shall be collected and paid into the county treasury to the credit of said district, in the manner and form now provided by law for the payment of installments of reclamation assessments. Should any default be made in the payment of any such installment hereinbefore provided for, the same may be collected as now provided by law, and all remedies or proceedings now provided by law for the collection of reclamation assessments, or for installments thereof, are hereby made applicable to and available for the collection of the installments herein provided for.

When such installments of said assessment have been paid in and collected in pursuance of the order herein provided for, the whole of said sums so paid, or such portion thereof as may be necessary for the payment of all interest then due or to become due within the next ensuing six months, or for the payment of any installment of the principal of said bonds then due or to become due within the ensuing six months shall be set apart by the county treasurer from other funds to the credit of the district and shall be used and paid out by him only for the payment of interest on such bonds, or installments of the principal thereof, or any part or portion of either or both, then due or to become due as aforesaid. [Amendment approved April 15, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 934.]

provided for shall be paid as provided by the Political Code for the payment of other installments of reclamation assessments. All sums or taxes or installments thereof which shall be paid to the treasurer of any county other than the treasurer of the county wherein the district was formed, shall immediately be paid by said treasurer upon the order of the board of trustees of the district, to the treasurer of the county wherein the district was formed, who shall place the same to the credit of the district as hereinabove provided. Said board of trustees must issue said order to said treasurer of any county other than the county in which the district was formed, immediately upon the expiration of twenty days after the payment of said installment of taxes shall have been ordered. [Amendment approved April 15, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 934.]

§ 10. No assessor, tax collector, treasurer, or clerk shall receive any fee for any service required to be performed by them under the provisions of this act. All expenses necessarily incurred in carrying out the provisions of this act shall be paid out of any money to the credit of the district for which the services are performed in the treasury of the county where the district was formed, upon the order of the board of trustees of said district, approved by the board of supervisors of said county.

§ 11. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

In addition, the following acts may be referred to:

ACT 2976.

ACT 2977.

An act providing for appeals from orders of the board of supervisors forming or refusing to form reclamation or swamp land districts, setting off lands from such districts, or including lands in such districts, or consolidating swamp land or reclamation districts.

[Approved March 11, 1893. Stats. 1893, p. 174.]

§ 1. Any person having an interest affected by any order of the board of supervisors of any county, approving or refusing to approve any petition for the formation of a reclamation or swamp land reclamation district, or in any manner creating or consolidating such districts, or including in or excluding from such district any lands, may, within thirty days after said order is made, appeal therefrom to the superior court of the county.

§ 2. Such appeal shall be taken and prosecuted in the manner prescribed by law and the rules of said superior court relating to appeals from inferior courts, and the matter shall be tried anew in said superior court. The judgment rendered in the superior court in such matter shall be final. Each superior court held in any county of the state in which there are any reclamation or swamp land reclamation districts shall make rules regulating appeals in the cases hereinbefore mentioned; and the clerk of the board of supervisors shall, upon a notice of appeal and undertaking on appeal being filed with him, transmit the same, and all papers and documents used on the hearing before said board, to the clerk of the superior court in and for said county, who shall thereupon file the same without receiving any fee therefor.

§ 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

§ 4. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

An act to regulate the sales of perishable products on the wharves and other state property in the city and county of San Francisco by prohibiting such sales except by or in behalf of those holding permits from the board of state harbor commissioners and making such unlawful sales a misdemeanor, and prescribing the penalty therefor, and providing the conditions upon which such permits shall be issued.

[Approved March 2, 1903. Stats. 1903, p. 73.]

§ 1. It shall be unlawful for any person to sell, upon the public wharves or other property belonging to this state, in the city and county of San Francisco, and within the jurisdiction of the board of state harbor commissioners, any fruit, vegetables, poultry, eggs, honey, game, or other produce commonly known, and hereinafter referred to as perishable products, unless such person or the person, firm or corporation, which he may duly represent, shall hold the permit hereinafter described authorizing such sales to be made. Any violation of this act shall be deemed a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars or more than five hundred dollars.

§ 2. Perishable products consigned to persons, firms or corporations not holding the permit hereinafter described, and delivered by carrier upon any wharf on the San Francisco waterfront, must be removed from said wharf within twenty-four hours after their arrival, and the board of state harbor commissioners must levy and collect on such perishable products in addition to the regular state tolls, such additional wharfage as they may prescribe, but not less than the amount of the regular tolls, for each twenty-four hours or fraction thereof which such perishable products shall remain upon the wharf.

§ 3. Upon application of any person, firm or corporation receiving or expecting to receive perishable products to be delivered by carrier upon any wharf on the San Francisco waterfront, the board of state harbor commissioners shall issue free of charge to such applicant, a permit authorizing him to sell such products when delivered on the wharves or state property, during the time such perishables are permitted to remain there, under the general regulations prescribed by the commission; provided, nevertheless that said permit shall not be issued until the applicant shall have signed the application which shall read as follows:

"I (or we), — expecting to receive consignments of perishable products to be delivered by carrier on the wharves or other property of the state of California in the city and county of San Francisco, and desiring to dispose of the same before removal, hereby make application for a permit to be valid for one year from the date of issue, to sell perishable products on said wharves or other state property. In consideration of the receipt of such permit, I (or we) promise to faithfully observe all the regulations which are or may be prescribed by the board of the state harbor commissioners in regard to such sales, and in particular I (or we) agree that I (or we) will not, during the life of such permit, be a party to any conspiracy, agreement or understanding whereby I (or we) shall refuse to sell [to] any solvent purchaser or buy from any person whatever, and I (or we) agree that I (or we) will sell, impartially, and at the same prices, to all who desire to purchase for cash, without regard to their business or intended disposition of the products, and will exercise no discrimination whatever between buyers or sellers, by reason of their occupation, affiliations or nonaffiliations. I (or we) also agree that in case of violation of this agreement, the board of state harbor commissioners may revoke the permit hereby applied for, whereupon I (or we) agree to surrender the same, and I (or we) agree that the board of state harbor commissioners shall be the sole judges of the fact of such violation, I (or we) having had a hearing in the matter.

Date, —.

§ 4. The permit herein provided for shall be in such form as the board of state harbor commissioners may determine and shall be valid for one year from date of issue and no longer.

§ 5. In case of violation of his agreement by the holder of any permit the board of state harbor commissioners upon a hearing after giving due notice to all parties concerned, and finding the fact of such violation shall revoke and cancel the permit, and shall not issue a new permit to the offending party, except upon a new execution of the agreement hereinbefore set forth and the payment of a fee of fifty dollars, and the right to receive a new permit shall rest in the discretion of said board of state harbor commissioners.

§ 6. The board of state harbor commissioners and all its officials and employees are charged with the enforcement of this act, and shall eject from the wharves or other state property all persons found attempting to make sales in violation of this act. And the board of state harbor commissioners through such officials as it may from time to time designate, shall prosecute all violations of this act in the proper court.

§ 7. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

§ 8. This act shall take effect immediately.

TITLE 434.

SANITARY DISTRICTS.

ACT 3349.

An act to provide for the formation, government, operation, and dissolution of sanitary districts in any part of the state, for the construction of sewers, and other sanitary purposes; the acquisition of property thereby; the calling and conducting of elections in such districts; the assessment, levy, collection, custody, and disbursement of taxes therein; the issuance and disposal of the bonds thereof, and the determination of their validity, and making provision for the payment of such bonds, and the disposal of their proceeds.

Amended 1898, p. 88; 1895, p. 85; but this amendment declared unconstitutional (In re Werner, 129 Cal. 567); also amended 1901, p. 638; 1903, p. 121; 1905, p. 94; 1907, p. 83; 1909, pp. 233, 583.

§ 1. Whenever twenty-five persons in any county of the state shall desire the formation of a sanitary district within the county, they may present to the board of supervisors of such county a petition, in writing, signed by them, stating the name of the proposed district, and setting forth the boundaries thereof, and praying that an election be held as provided by this act. Each of the petitioners must be a resident and freeholder within the proposed district.

§ 2. When such petition is presented as above provided, the board of supervisors must, within thirty days thereafter, order that an election be held as provided by this act. The order must fix the day of such election, which must be within sixty days from the date of the order, and must show the boundaries of the proposed district, and must state that at such election persons to fill the offices provided by this act, viz.: a sanitary assessor, and five members of the sanitary board, will be voted for. This order shall be entered in the minutes of the board, and shall be conclusive evidence of the due presentation of a proper petition, and of the fact that each of the petitioners was, at the time of the signature and presentation of such petition, a resident and freeholder within the limits of the proposed district.

§ 3. A copy of such order shall be posted for four successive weeks prior to the election, in three public places within the proposed district, and shall be published for four successive weeks prior to the election in some newspaper published in the proposed district, if there be one, and if not, in some newspaper published in the county. It shall be sufficient if the order be published once a week.

§ 4. The board of supervisors, at any time prior to the election, shall select one polling place within the proposed district, and make all suitable arrangements for the holding of such election. The ticket shall contain the words "For a sanitary district," or "Against a sanitary district," as the case may be, and the name of a person for sanitary assessor, and the names of five persons for members of the sanitary board. Such election shall be conducted in accordance with the general election laws of the state, so far as the same shall be applicable, except as herein otherwise provided. Every qualified elector, resident within the proposed district for the period requisite to enable him to vote at a general election, shall be entitled to vote at the election above provided for. If a majority of the votes cast at such election shall be in favor of a sanitary district, the board of supervisors shall make and cause to be entered in the minutes an order that a sanitary district of the name and with the boundaries stated in the petition (setting forth such boundaries) has been duly established, and said order shall be conclusive evidence of the fact and regularity of all prior proceedings of every kind and nature provided for by this act or by law, and of the existence and validity of the district. If a majority of the votes cast shall be against a sanitary district, the board shall, by order, so declare; no other proceedings shall be taken in relation thereto until the expiration of one year from the presentation of the petition.

§ 5. Every sanitary district formed under the provisions of this act shall have power to have and use a common seal, alterable at the pleasure of the sanitary board; to sue and be sued by its name; to construct and maintain, and keep clean such sewers and drains as in the judgment of the sanitary board shall be necessary or proper, and for this purpose to acquire by purchase, gift, devise, condemnation proceedings, or otherwise, such real and personal property and rights of way, either within or without the limits of the district, as in the judgment of the sanitary board shall be necessary or proper, and to pay for and hold the same; to make and accept any and all contracts, deeds, releases, and documents of any kind which, in the judgment of the sanitary board, shall be necessary or proper to the exercise of any of the powers of the district, and to direct the payment of all lawful claims and demands against it; to issue bonds as hereinafter provided, and to assess, levy, and collect taxes to pay the principal and interest of the same, and the cost of laying and the expense of maintaining any sewer or sewers that may be constructed subsequent to the issuance of said bonds, or any lawful claims against said district, and the running expenses of the district; to employ all necessary agents and assistants, and pay the same; to lay its sewers and drains in any public street or road of the county, and for this purpose enter upon the same and make all necessary and proper excavations, restoring the same to proper condition; but in case such street or road shall be in an incorporated city or town, the consent of the lawful authorities thereof shall first be obtained; to make and enforce all necessary and proper regulations for the removal of garbage, and the cleanliness of the roads and streets of the district, and for the purpose of guarding against the spread of contagious and infectious diseases, and for the isolation of persons and houses affected with such diseases, and for the notification of the other inhabitants of the existence thereof, and all other sanitary regulations not in conflict with the constitution and laws of the state; to make and enforce all necessary and proper regulations for suppressing disorderly and disreputable resorts, and houses of ill-fame within the district, and to determine the qualification of persons authorized to sell liquors at retail, and from and after the passage of this act no license to keep a saloon, or sell liquors at retail, shall take effect or be operative within any sanitary district unless the same be approved by the sanitary board of the district; to impose fines, penalties, and forfeitures for any and all violations of its regulations or orders, and to fix the penalty thereof by fine or imprisonment, or both; but no such fine shall exceed the sum of one hundred dollars, and no such imprisonment shall exceed one month; to call, hold, and conduct all elections necessary or proper after the formation of the district; to prescribe, by order, the time, mode, and manner of assessing, levying, and collecting taxes for sanitary purposes, except as otherwise provided herein; to compel all residents and property owners within the district to connect their houses and habitations with the street sewers and drains; and generally to do and perform any and all acts necessary or proper to the complete exercise and effect of any of its powers, or the purpose for which it was formed. [Amendment approved March 26, 1895. Stats. 1895, p. 85. In effect immediately.]

See note at beginning of act.

§ 6. The officers of the district shall be a sanitary assessor and five members of the sanitary board.

§ 7. There shall be an election for sanitary assessor on every even-numbered year in which members of the sanitary board are elected, and at the same time, place, and manner; and the person then elected shall hold office for two years next thereafter, and until the election and qualification of his successor. The person elected assessor at the election at which the district was formed shall hold office until the election and qualification of his successor; provided, that if at any time a vacancy occur in the office of assessor, the sanitary board shall appoint a suitable person to fill such vacancy until the next election at which an assessor may be elected under the provisions of this act.

§ 8. It shall be the duty of the sanitary assessor to make out, before the first Monday in July of each year, a list of all the tangible real and personal property within the district. Such list shall contain a brief and general description of the property, an assessment of the value thereof, the name or names of the owner or owners, and such other matters as may be ordered by the sanitary board and such matters as shall be necessary to make such list conform to the provisions of the general laws of the state of California. The land shall be assessed separately from the improvements thereon. No mistake in the name of the owner of any of the real or personal property assessed, or any informality in the description, or in other parts of the assessment, shall invalidate the same. The sanitary assessor shall verify said list by his oath, before some officer authorized to administer oaths, and shall deposit the same with the sanitary board on the first Monday of July of each year, or as soon thereafter as is practicable. He shall have power to administer all oaths and affirmations necessary or proper in the performance of his duty as assessor, and shall receive such compensation as shall be fixed by the order of the board. He shall also perform such further duties and do such further acts as may be ordered or required by the sanitary board.

§ 9. There shall be an election for two members of the sanitary board in every even-numbered year, beginning with the second even-numbered year after the election at which the district was organized, and the two members then to be elected shall hold office until the election and qualification of their successors in the next even-numbered year; and there shall be an election for three members of the sanitary board in every odd-numbered year, beginning with the second odd-numbered year, after the election at which the district was organized, and the three members then to be elected shall hold office until the election and qualification of their successors in the next odd-numbered year. The five members elected at the election at which the district was organized shall, at their first meeting, or as soon thereafter as may be practicable, so classify themselves, by lot, that two of them shall go out of office in the second even-numbered year after the election at which the district was organized, and upon the election and qualification of their successors, as provided by this act, and three of them in the second odd-numbered year after the election at which the district was organized, and upon the election and qualification of their successors, as provided by this act. All elections for officers after the formation of the district shall be on the first Monday after the first Tuesday in the month of March. The members of the sanitary board shall receive no compensation whatever, either for general or special services.

§ 10. The sanitary board shall be the governing power of the district, and shall exercise all the powers thereof, except the making of an assessment list in the first instance, as herein provided. At its first meeting, or as soon thereafter as may be practicable, the board shall choose one of its members as president, and another of its members as secretary. And all contracts, deeds, warrants, releases, receipts, and documents of every kind shall be signed in the name of the district by its president, and shall be countersigned by its secretary. The board shall hold such meetings, either in the day or in the evening, as may be convenient. In case of the absence or inability to act of the president or secretary, the board shall, by order entered upon the minutes, choose a president pro tem., or secretary pro tem., or both, as the case may be.

§ 11. On the first Monday of July each year, at the hour of 7:30 P. M., the sanitary board shall meet at its usual place of meeting within said district, and proceed to organize itself into a board of equalization, and if the sanitary assessor has returned the assessment list for said year said board shall proceed to equalize the property so assessed and returned by said sanitary assessor. If said assessment list has not been returned by said sanitary assessor said board must adjourn from day to day until said assessment list has been returned, and for the purpose of adjournment one or more of the members of said board present may make said adjournment and announce the same. Upon the assessment list having been returned by the assessor, said board of equalization shall proceed to equalize the property listed on said assessment list, and said board shall continue in session as a board of equalization until the property upon the entire list returned by the assessor shall have been examined, rectified and equalized, with such reasonable intermissions during the day and from day to day as may be expedient. The board shall have power to hear complaints as to the proceedings of the assessor, and to adjudicate and determine the controversy thereon, and may of its own motion raise an assessment, after such reasonable notice to the party whose assessment is to be raised, as may be ordered by the board. After the examination and rectification of the assessor's list shall have been completed, the board shall, by resolution, fix the rate of taxation for sanitary purposes, designating the number of cents on each one hundred dollars to be levied for each fund, and shall designate the fund into which the same shall be paid; but no more than fifteen cents on each one hundred dollars shall be levied for all the sanitary purposes of any one year, besides what shall be required for the payment of the principal and interest of such year upon outstanding bonds. After the entry in the minutes of the resolution fixing the rate of taxation, the sanitary board shall cause the assessor to compute the amount of the tax upon each piece of real and personal property, and enter the same upon the assessment list in a suitable place. The list, when so completed, shall be verified by the assessor and signed by the president and secretary; and the amount of the tax shall thereupon become a lien upon the property upon which it is assessed, and shall have the effect of a judgment against the person of the owner thereof, and every such lien shall have the force and effect of an execution duly levied against all the property of the delinquent; and the judgment shall not be deemed satisfied or the lien extinguished until the taxes are paid or the property sold to satisfy the same, and no statute of limitations shall apply; but no more than seventy-five thousand dollars of bonds shall be voted for or issued at any one time, nor shall the bonded indebtedness of the district ever exceed the sum of seventy-five thousand dollars at any one period, whether it be made up of one issue of bonds or of several issues. [Amended 1905, p. 94.]

§ 12. As soon as practicable, but not later than the third Monday in July, after the taxes have been computed and extended on the assessment list, verified by the assessor and signed by the president and secretary of said board, the board shall transmit, or cause the assessor to transmit, a duplicate of the list so made, to the tax collector of the county, who shall collect the taxes shown by said list to be due, in the same manner as he collects the county taxes, and all the provisions of the laws of the state as to the collection of taxes and delinquent taxes, and the enforcement of the payment thereof, so far as applicable, shall apply to the collection of taxes for sanitary purposes; and said tax collector, and the sureties on his official bond, shall be responsible for the due performance of the duties imposed upon him by this act; provided, that the sanitary board may, in its discretion, direct the district attorney of the county to commence and prosecute suits for the collection of the whole, or any portion of the delinquent taxes; and it shall be the duty of the district attorney to carry out such directions of the sanitary board, and he, and the sureties upon his official bond, shall be responsible for the due performance of the duty imposed upon him by this act.

All money collected for sanitary purposes by the district attorney under this act shall be at once paid to the county treasurer; provided further, that the sanitary board may, at any time, by order entered in its minutes, provide a system for the collection of delinquent taxes, or make any change in the manner of their collection, which as to such taxes shall have the force of law. Whenever any property is sold for delinquent sanitary taxes, under the provisions of this act, the tax collector shall file with the county recorder, at the expense of the purchaser, a copy of the certificate of such sale; and when at any time redemption is made of any property which has been sold for delinquent sanitary taxes the redemption officer of the sanitary district shall immediately forward a copy of the redemption certificate to the county recorder and the county recorder shall inscribe or stamp upon the margin of the certificate of sale of said property then on file in his office, the word "Redeemed," together with the date, the amount paid, and the name of the party redeeming said property; and further provided, that whenever the tax collector issues a deed to the purchaser of any property sold for delinquent sanitary taxes, the said tax collector shall forward a copy of the deed to the county recorder, and the county recorder shall then inscribe or stamp upon the margin of the certificate of sale of said property then on file in his office, the words "Deeded to," together with the date, and the name of the party to whom said deed was issued. In the event that property upon which sanitary district taxes have become delinquent is, on account of such delinquency, sold by the tax collector, and a deed therefor is issued to any person other than the state of California, the party who was of record as the owner of such property at the time of such sale and of such issuance of such deed, is hereby granted the right to redeem said property from the tax title purchaser thereof, at any time within a period of five years from and after the issuance of such deed, by the payment to the said tax title purchaser of the amount for which the said property was to him sold by the tax collector and an additional premium which shall not be greater than one hundred per cent of the said purchase price. It is hereby declared to be unlawful for any person or persons who have purchased at a delinquent tax sale any property which is sold for delinquent sanitary taxes, to demand for its redemption any sum greater than the amount which is by this act specified; or to refuse to redeem any such property to the party who was the owner thereof at the time of such delinquent tax sale, when proper tender is made, within five years after date of such sale, of an amount which is not greater than the amount which is by this act prohibited. [Amendment approved March 20, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 583. In effect immediately.]

§ 13. The tax collector shall pay over to the county treasurer all moneys collected by him for sanitary purposes, as fast as the same shall be collected, and the said treasurer shall keep the same in the county treasury, as follows: In a fund called the bond fund of sanitary district (naming it) he shall place and keep the moneys levied by the sanitary board for such fund; and no part of the money in this fund shall be transferred to any other fund, or be used for any other purpose than the payment of the principal and interest of the bonds of the sanitary district, so long as any such bonds shall be unpaid; in a fund called the running expense of sanitary district (naming it) he shall place and keep the moneys levied by the sanitary board for such fund. The whole or any part of the money in the running expense fund may be transferred to the bond fund, or to the other fund hereinafter provided for, upon the order of the sanitary board, and it shall be the duty of the treasurer to comply with such order. The treasurer shall pay out moneys from either of said funds, or from the fund hereinafter mentioned, only upon the written order of the sanitary board, signed by the president and countersigned by the secretary, which order shall specify the name of the person to whom the money is to be paid and the fund from which it is to be paid, and shall state generally the purpose for which the payment is made, and such order shall be entered in the minutes of the sanitary board. The treasurer shall keep the order as his voucher, and shall keep a specific account of his receipts and disbursements of money for sanitary purposes. The treasurer and sureties upon his official bond shall be liable for the due performance of the duties imposed upon him by this act. The treasurer shall keep the money arising from the sale of bonds in the fund hereinafter mentioned.

§ 14. At any time after the district is organized, the sanitary board may, by order entered in the minutes, call an election for the purpose of determining whether bonds shall be issued for the construction of sewers. Such order shall fix the day of the election and shall specify the amount of money to be raised, and shall state in general terms the purpose for which it is to be raised. A copy of such order shall be posted for four successive weeks prior to the election in at least three public places within the district, and shall be published for four successive weeks prior to the election in some newspaper published within the district, if there be one, and if not, in some newspaper published in the county. It shall be sufficient if the order be published once a week.

§ 15. At any time prior to the day fixed for the election, the board shall select one, and may select two, polling-places within the district, appoint officers of election, and make all necessary and proper arrangements for holding the election. The tickets shall contain the words "For the issuance of bonds as proposed by the sanitary board," or "Against the issuance of bonds as proposed by the sanitary board." The election shall be conducted in accordance with the general election laws of the state, so far as the same shall be applicable, except as herein otherwise provided. Every qualified elector resident within the district for the length of time necessary to enable him to vote at a general election shall be entitled to vote at the election above provided for. After the votes shall have been announced, the ballots shall be sealed up and delivered to the secretary or president of the sanitary board, which shall, as soon as practicable, proceed to canvass the same, and shall enter the result upon its minutes. Such entry shall be conclusive evidence of the fact and regularity of all prior proceedings of every kind and nature provided by this act or by law, and of the facts stated in such entry. If, at such election, two-thirds of the votes cast be in favor of the issuance of bonds, as proposed by the sanitary board, the said board shall thenceforth have full power and authority to issue and dispose of bonds as proposed in the order calling the election. [Amendment approved March 9, 1893. Stats. 1893, p. 88. In effect immediately.]

§ 16. All bonds issued under the provisions of this act shall be of such denomination as the sanitary board may determine, except that no bonds shall be of a less denomination than one hundred dollars, nor of a greater denomination than one thousand dollars. Said bonds shall be payable in gold coin of the United States at the office of the county treasurer of the county wherein said district is situated, and shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding five (5) per centum per annum, which interest shall be payable semi-annually in like gold coin. Not less than one-twentieth part of the total issue of bonds shall be payable each year, on a day to be specified by the sanitary board, but no bonds shall be payable in installments, but each bond issued hereunder shall be payable in full on the date specified therein by said board. Each bond shall be signed by the president and countersigned by the secretary of the sanitary board, and said bonds shall be numbered consecutively, beginning with number one (1), and shall have coupons attached referring to the number of the bond to which they are attached, which coupons shall be signed by the president and countersigned by the secretary of said board. The bonds must be disposed of by the sanitary board in such manner and in such quantities as may be determined by said board in its discretion, but no bond must be disposed of for less than its face value. The proceeds of such sale shall be deposited with the county treasurer and shall be by him placed in the fund to be called the sewer construction fund of — sanitary district (naming it); the money in such fund shall be used for the purpose indicated in the order calling the election upon the question of the issuance of the bonds, and for no other purpose; provided, that if after such purposes are entirely fulfilled any balance remain in such fund, such balance may, upon the order of the sanitary board, be transferred to either of the other funds provided by this act. If the result of the election be against the issuance of bonds no other election upon the question shall be called or held for a period of one year. Whenever the entire amount of bonds issued by any one district under the provisions of the act of which this is amendatory shall be presented by the holder or holders thereof to the sanitary board of the sanitary district issuing the same, there shall be exchanged therefor and issued in lieu thereof to such holder or holders, by the sanitary board, bonds issued in accordance herewith for the various installments payable on the so surrendered bonds and said new bonds so issued in exchange for said old surrendered bonds shall be payable at the same times and place as the installments due under the old bonds; it being the intention hereof to permit the surrender of sanitary district bonds heretofore issued payable in installments by the holders thereof, and the exchange therefor of a like amount of bonds of such sanitary district having a denomination equal to the installments payable under one or more of the bonds heretofore issued by any one sanitary district; said new bonds to be payable at the same time as said installments and in equal amounts; the amount of said new bonds to be payable in any one year to equal the amount of the installments on said old bonds payable in such year. All expenses of the exchange shall be borne by the holder of the bonds presented for exchange, and interest on the new bonds shall be paid at the same time and rate as on the old bonds. Upon such exchange being effected the old bonds shall be canceled by punching holes in the signatures thereto attached, and shall be retained by the treasurer of said county as evidence of such cancellation. [Amendment approved March 23, 1901, Stats. 1901, p. 633. In effect immediately.]

§ 17. It is hereby made the duty of the sanitary board to levy, each year, upon the property within the district, a sufficient tax to pay off the interest accruing upon said bonds for the respective year, as it falls due, and also to pay one-twentieth of the principal of said bonds, so that the entire amount of principal and interest of said bonds shall be paid within twenty years from the date of the issuance of said bonds; and it is hereby made the duty of the tax collector, or such other person as may be charged with the duty of collecting the sanitary taxes, to collect the said taxes so to be levied, and the duty of the sanitary board to order the same to be paid, in manner and form as provided by this act, and the duty of the county treasurer to pay the same. If, for any reason, any portion of the tax for any year remains unpaid, and in consequence thereof any portion of the interest or principal due for any year remains unpaid, the same shall be added to the levy for the next year, and be collected and paid accordingly. The payment of the whole amount of the principal and interest of all of said bonds, within twenty years from their issuance, is hereby made the imperative duty of the district; and, if necessary for that purpose, a special tax shall be levied; and it is hereby made the duty of every officer and board to do his respective part towards the levy, collection, and payment of such tax; and mandamus shall issue from the superior court of the county in which the district is situated, or from any other competent court, upon application of any party interested, for the purpose of compelling the performance of the duty imposed by this act upon any and all officers or boards.

§ 18. If the result of any election upon the question of the issuance of bonds be in favor of such issuance, the sanitary board may, in their discretion, before such issuance, commence, in the superior court of the county, a special proceeding to determine their right to issue such bonds and the validity thereof, similar to the proceeding in relation to irrigation bonds, provided for by an act entitled "An act supplemental to an act entitled 'An act to provide for the organization and government of irrigation districts, and to provide for the acquisition of water and other property, and for the distribution of water thereby for irrigation purposes,' approved March seventh, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, and to provide for the examination, approval, and confirmation of preceedings for the issue and sale of bonds issued under the provisions of said act"; and all the provisions of said act shall apply to and govern the proceedings so to be commenced by the sanitary board, so far as the same are applicable; and said proceedings shall be in accordance with the provisions of said act, so far as the same are applicable, and the judgment in such proceedings shall have the same effect as a judgment in relation to irrigation bonds under the provisions of said act.

§ 19. Any general regulation of the sanitary board shall be by order entered in the minutes, but such order shall be published once a week for one week in some newspaper published within the district, if there be one, and if there be no such newspaper then such order shall be posted for one week in three public places within the district. A subsequent order of the board that such publication or posting has been duly made shall be conclusive evidence that such publication or posting has been properly made. Orders not establishing a general regulation need not be published or posted (unless otherwise provided by this act), but shall be entered in the minutes, and the entry shall be signed by the secretary of the board. A general regulation shall take effect immediately upon the expiration of the week of publication or posting thereof. An ordinary order shall take effect upon the entry in the minutes.

§ 20. The board may instruct the district attorney of the county to commence and prosecute any and all actions and proceedings necessary or proper to enforce any of its regulations or orders, and may call upon said district attorney for advice as to any sanitary subject; and it shall be the duty of the district attorney to obey such instructions and to give advice when called on by the board therefor. The board may at any time employ special counsel for any purpose. All fines for the violation of any regulation or order of the sanitary board shall, after the expenses of the prosecution are paid therefrom, be paid to the secretary of the board, who shall forthwith deposit the same with the county treasurer, who shall place the same in the running expense fund of the district.

§ 21. The district may at any time be dissolved upon the vote of two-thirds of the qualified electors thereof, upon an election called by the sanitary board upon the question of dissolution. Such election shall be called and conducted in the same manner as other elections of the district. Upon such dissolution, the property of the district shall vest in any incorporated city or town that may at said time be in occupation of a considerable portion of the territory of the district, and if there be no such incorporated city or town, then the property shall be vested in the board of supervisors of the county until the formation of such a city or town; provided, however, that if at the time of such election to dissolve such district there be any outstanding bonded indebtedness of such district, then, in such event, the vote to dissolve such district shall dissolve the same for all purposes excepting only the levy and collection of taxes for the payment of such indebtedness. And from the time such district is thus dissolved until such bonded indebtedness, with the interest thereon, is fully paid, satisfied, and discharged, the legislative authority of said incorporated city or town, or the board of supervisors, if there be no such incorporated city or town, is hereby constituted ex officio the sanitary board of such district. And it is hereby made obligatory upon such board to levy such taxes and perform such other acts as may be necessary in order to raise money for the payment of such indebtedness and the interest thereon, as herein provided.

§ 22. The sanitary board shall have power at any time after main sewers, or other sewers are laid, to order and contract for the construction of a sewer in any street or part of a street of the district where a sewer is not already constructed, and to provide by such order that the cost thereof shall be borne by the property fronting along the line of the sewer as ordered. Before ordering any work done, or improvement made, which is authorized by this section, the sanitary board shall pass a resolution of intention so to do and describing the work. The secretary of the board shall thereupon cause to be conspicuously posted along the line of said contemplated work or improvement, at not more than three hundred feet in distance apart, but not less than three in all, notices of the passage of said resolution. Said notices shall, in legible characters, state the fact of the passage of the resolution, its date and briefly the work or improvement proposed, and refer to the resolution for further particulars. He shall also cause a notice, similar in substance, to be published for a period of five consecutive days in a daily newspaper published and circulated in said district, and designated by said sanitary board, or by one insertion in a weekly newspaper so published, circulated and designated. If there be no newspaper published and circulated in said district, then and in that case said secretary shall post said notices in three public places in said district in addition to said posting along the line of said work or improvement. Any owner or property fronting upon said proposed work or improvement may make a written objection to the same within fifteen days from and after the first publication of said notice, or from and after the day of the posting of said notice if the same cannot be published as herein provided, which objection shall be delivered to the secretary of the sanitary board, who shall indorse thereon the date of its reception by him. The sanitary board shall, at its next meeting after the time for presentation of objections has expired, fix a time for hearing said objections, not less than one week thereafter. The secretary of the sanitary board shall thereupon notify the person or persons making such objection, by depositing a notice thereof in the United States post-office in said district, or if there be none in said district, then in the one nearest thereto, postage prepaid, addressed to each objector, or his agent, when such objector appears by agent. At the time specified said sanitary board shall hear the objections urged, and pass upon the same, and its decision shall be final and conclusive. Upon such decision or at the expiration of the said fifteen days, if no written objection to the work therein described has been made as aforesaid by any owner of the property fronting on said work or improvement, the sanitary board shall be deemed to have acquired jurisdiction to order any work to be done, or improvement to be made, authorized by said resolution and this section. After said sanitary board has acquired jurisdiction to do such work and make such improvement, it may order the work done and improvement made, and provide in such order a time for receiving bids, and likewise authorize the president and secretary of the sanitary board to enter into a contract for the performance of said work and making of said improvement. Such order shall be published for a period of five consecutive days in a daily newspaper published and circulated in said district, and designated by said sanitary board, or by its insertion in a weekly newspaper so published, circulated and designated, and in case there be no such newspaper published and circulated in said district, then and in that event such order shall be posted in at least three public places in said district; and at the opening of said bids the board must award the contract to the lowest responsible bidder, or may reject any and all bids and re-advertise for bids and upon the opening of such bids award the contract to the lowest responsible bidder, unless the board is satisfied there is collusion between bidders when it may again reject the bids and again advertise for bids until they are satisfied the bids are fair and not made under collusion or fraud when it must award the contract. And in case such order is made and such contract is let, then the cost of such work and improvement done under such contract shall become a lien upon and shall be assessed against such blocks, lots and lands fronting upon said work and improvement as would be assessable for said work and improvement under the provisions of that certain act entitled "An act to provide for work upon streets, lanes, alleys, courts, places, and sidewalks, and for the construction of sewers within municipalities," approved March eighteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-five, and acts amendatory and supplemental thereto, and the manner, method and mode of such assessment and collection of such assessment and foreclosure of such lien shall be made in accordance with the provisions of section 6 and subsequent of said act and acts supplemental and amendatory to such provisions; provided, however, that the words "city council" used in said act shall be understood to mean "sanitary board"; the words "superintendent of streets" and "city engineer" shall be understood to mean "the engineer of such sanitary district"; the words "city" and "municipality" shall be understood to mean "sanitary district"; the words "clerk" and "city clerk" shall be understood to mean "secretary of said sanitary board"; the term "treasurer" or "city treasurer" shall be understood to mean any person or officer who shall have charge of and make payment of the funds of such sanitary district; and further provided, that all the powers and duties conferred by the said provisions of said act and acts amendatory and supplemental thereof upon city councils, superintendent[s] of streets, clerks and city clerks, and treasurers and engineers and city engineers are hereby conferred and imposed upon the respective officers and board above specified. [Amendment approved March 10, 1903. Stats. 1903, p. 121. In effect immediately.]

§ 22 1/2. The boundaries of any sanitary district may be altered, and outlying contiguous territory in the same county as such sanitary district annexed thereto in the manner following:

A petition signed by the owner or owners representing more than one-half of the assessed valuation of such contiguous territory proposed to be annexed as shown by the last equalized assessment-book of the county in which said sanitary district is situated, designating specifically the boundaries of such contiguous territory proposed to be annexed, and the assessed valuation thereof as shown by said last equalized assessment-book, and stating that such territory is not within the limits of any other sanitary district, and asking that such territory be annexed to said sanitary district, shall be presented to the sanitary board thereof.

At their first regular meeting after the presentation of said petition said sanitary board shall take up and consider the same. If such petition is disapproved, such disapproval shall be entered upon the minutes of the board, and no further proceedings shall be taken in regard to such annexation until a new petition is filed. If said petition be approved by said board, such approval shall be entered upon the minutes of said board and indorsed upon said petition, and said petition shall thereupon be transmitted to and filed with the board of supervisors of the county in which such sanitary district is situated. Said board of supervisors, at its next regular meeting after the filing of said petition, shall by order alter the boundaries of said sanitary district and annex thereto the contiguous territory described in said petition. Such order shall be conclusive evidence of the validity of all prior proceedings leading to such annexation and recited in said order, and from and after the same such territory shall become and be a part of such sanitary district.

The property within such territory so annexed shall be taxed, together with the remainder of said district, to pay its proportion of the unpaid bonded or other indebtedness of such sanitary district existing at the time of such annexation incurred for the cost of construction, estimated as hereafter provided, of main sewers already constructed in said district, and also to pay the running expenses of said district. The engineer of such district shall, when required by the sanitary board thereof, estimate the unpaid cost of construction of all main sewers, already constructed in said district at the time of such annexation, and such estimate when approved by the sanitary board shall be final and conclusive and shall be the basis upon which said sanitary board shall tax said annexed territory.

At any time after the annexation of such contiguous territory the sanitary board may, by an order entered in the minutes, call an election within such annexed territory for the purpose of determining whether bonds shall be issued for the construction of sewers therein. Such order shall fix the day of the election and shall specify the amount of money to be raised, and shall state in general terms the purposes for which it is to be raised. A copy of such order shall be posted for four successive weeks prior to the election in at least three public places within such annexed territory in said district, and shall be published for four successive weeks prior to the election in some newspaper published within the district, if there be one, and if not, in some newspaper published in the county. It shall be sufficient if the order be published once a week.

At any time prior to the day fixed for the election the board shall select one polling-place within said annexed territory, appoint officers of election therein, and make all necessary and proper arrangements for holding the election. The tickets shall contain the words, "For the issuance of bonds as proposed by the sanitary board," or "Against the issuance of bonds as proposed by the sanitary board."

The election shall be conducted in accordance with the general election laws of the state so far as the same shall be practicable, except as herein otherwise provided.

Every qualified elector, resident within such annexed territory for the length of time necessary to enable him to vote at a general election, shall be entitled to vote at the election above provided for.

After the votes shall have been announced the ballots shall be sealed up and delivered to the secretary or president of the sanitary board, which shall, as soon as practicable, proceed to canvass the same, and shall enter the result on its minutes. Such entry shall be conclusive evidence of the fact and regularity of all the prior proceedings of every kind and nature provided by this act or by law, and of the facts stated in such entry, and if at such election two-thirds of the votes cast be in favor of the issuance of bonds as proposed by the sanitary board, the said board shall thenceforth have full power and authority to issue and dispose of bonds as proposed in the order calling the election.

All bonds so issued shall be of such denomination as the sanitary board may determine, except that no bonds shall be of a less denomination than one hundred dollars, nor of a greater denomination than one thousand dollars. Such bonds shall be payable in gold coin of the United States at the office of the county treasurer of the county wherein said district is situated and shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding five per centum per annum, which interest shall be payable semi-annually in like gold coin. Not less than one-twentieth part of the total issue of bonds shall be payable each year on a day to be specified by the sanitary board, but no bond shall be payable in installments, but each bond issued hereunder shall be payable in full on the date specified therefor by said board. Each bond shall be signed by the president and countersigned by the secretary of the sanitary board, and said bonds shall be numbered consecutively beginning with number one, and shall have coupons attached referring to the number of the bond to which they are attached, which coupons shall be signed by the president and countersigned by the secretary of said board.

The bonds must be disposed of by the sanitary board in such manner and in such quantities as may be determined by such board in its discretion, but no bond must be disposed of for less than its face value.

The proceeds of such sale shall be deposited with the county treasurer and shall be by him placed in the fund to be called "The sewer construction fund of annexed territory of — sanitary district" (naming it). The money in such fund shall be used for the purposes indicated in the order calling the election upon the question of the issuance of the bonds, and for no other purpose; provided, that if after such purposes are entirely fulfilled any balance remains in such fund, such balance may by the order of the sanitary board be transferred to the "bond, interest and redemption fund" for the redemption of bonds and the payment of interest thereon, issued under the provisions of this section.

If the result of the election be against the issuance of bonds no other election upon the question shall be called or held for a period of one year.

It is hereby made the duty of the sanitary board to levy each year upon the property within the said annexed territory a sufficient tax to pay off the interest accruing upon said bonds for the respective year as each falls due, and also to pay at least one-twentieth of the principal of said bonds so that the entire amount of the principal and interest of said bonds shall be paid within twenty years from the date of the issuance of said bonds; and it is hereby made the duty of the tax collector, or such other person as may be charged with the duty of collecting the sanitary district taxes, to collect the tax so to be levied, and the duty of the sanitary board to order the same paid in manner and form as provided by this act, and the duty of the county treasurer to pay the same. If, for any reason, any portion of the tax for any year remains unpaid, and in consequence thereof any portion of the interest or principal due for any year remains unpaid, the same shall be added to and levied for the next year, and be collected and paid accordingly.

The payment of the whole amount of the principal and interest of all of said bonds, within twenty years from their issuance, is hereby made the imperative duty of the annexed territory; and, if necessary for that purpose, a special tax shall be levied by the sanitary board on the property situate in said annexed territory; and it is hereby made the duty of every officer and board to do his respective part towards the levy, collection and payment of such tax; and mandamus shall issue from the superior court of the county in which the district is situated, or from any other competent court upon the application of any party interested for the purpose of compelling the performance of the duty imposed by this act upon any and all boards and officers.

If the result of any election upon the question of the issuance of bonds for such annexed territory be in favor of such issuance, the sanitary board may, in their discretion, before such issuance, commence in the superior court of the county a special proceeding to determine their right to issue such bonds and the validity thereof, similar to the proceedings in relation to irrigation bonds provided for by an act entitled, "An act supplemental to 'An act to provide for the organization and government of irrigation districts, and to provide for the acquisition of water and other property, and for the distribution of water thereby for irrigation purposes,' approved March seventh, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, and to provide for the examination, approval, and confirmation of proceedings for the issue and sale of bonds issued under the provisions of said act," and all the provisions of said act shall apply to and govern the proceedings so to be commenced by the sanitary board, so far as the same are applicable; and said proceedings shall be in accordance with the provisions of said act so far as the same are applicable, and the judgment in such proceedings shall have the same effect as a judgment in relation to irrigation bonds under the provisions of said act. [Amendment approved March 9, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 233. In effect immediately.]

§ 23. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act, or any portion thereof, are hereby repealed.

See post, Act 3562.

Defining additional books for compilation.

§ 1. In addition to the books directed to be compiled for use in the common schools of the state by section 1 of the act entitled An act to provide for compiling, illustrating, electrotyping, printing, binding, copyrighting, and distributing a state series of school text-books, and appropriating money therefor, approved February twenty-six, eighteen hundred and eighty-five, the state board of education shall compile, or cause to be compiled the following described text-books, viz.: One (1) elementary arithmetic; one (1) elementary grammar, or language lessons; one (1) elementary geography; one (1) physiology and hygiene, including a system of gymnastic exercises; and special instructions as to the nature of alcoholic drinks and narcotics, and their effects upon the human system; and the sum of fifteen thousand dollars, in addition to the unexpended balance of the sum appropriated by section 8 of said act aforesaid, is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the purpose of compiling, or causing to be compiled, the text-books hereinbefore enumerated, together with those enumerated in section 1 of said act aforesaid, and still remaining to be compiled. The appropriation provided for in this section shall be subject to the order of the state board of education; provided, that all demands against said appropriation shall first be approved by said state board of education, and presented to the state board of examiners, in itemized form, for their approval; and upon the approval of the state board of examiners, the controller is hereby authorized to draw his warrant upon the state treasurer for the payment of said demands, and the state treasurer is authorized to pay the same.

Remuneration for compiling books.

§ 2. The state board of education shall employ well-qualified persons to compile the books mentioned in section 1 of this act, and shall fix the remuneration for the services thus rendered; provided, that if competent authors shall compile any one or more works of the first order of excellence, and shall offer the same as a free gift to the people of the state, together with the copyright of the same, and the exclusive right to manufacture and sell such works within the state of California, it shall be the duty of the state board of education to accept such gift, and to expend no money for the purpose of compiling works relating to the subjects treated of in the books thus donated. The state board of education shall furnish to the superintendent of state printing designs for all cuts and engravings to be used in the said series of text-books.

Supervision of superintendent of state printing.

§ 3. The printing of all the text-books provided for in section 1 of this act, and all the mechanical work connected therewith, shall be done by and under the supervision of the superintendent of state printing, at the state printing office; provided, that the purchase of paper for the school books, and the cardboards, cloth, and leather for covers, shall be procured by advertising for proposals to furnish the same in the manner now provided for by section 532 of the Political Code, relating to paper supplies for the state printing office; and provided further, that all folding, stitching, binding, and ruling shall be done in the state bindery; but the accounts of the school book binding shall be kept separate from those of all other binding. The sum of one hundred and sixty-five thousand dollars, in addition to the unexpended balance of the sum appropriated by section 9 of said act aforesaid, approved February twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred and eighty-five, seven thousand five hundred dollars of which shall be available during the present fiscal year, is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, to purchase the necessary machinery, and to properly maintain the same, and to purchase such type and other materials as may be required in the manufacture of the text-books provided for in section 1 of this act, together with those enumerated in section 1 of said act aforesaid, approved February twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred and eighty-five, and remaining to be manufactured, as well as to pay the salaries or wages of the compositors, binders, and other persons to be employed in such manufacture; provided, that the state board of education shall first approve the style of printing, engravings, and illustrations, kind of paper, size, and binding of volumes; said sum to be drawn by the superintendent of state printing in the same manner as provided in subdivision 4 of section 526 of the Political Code.

Secure copyrights.

§ 4. The state board of education shall secure copyrights to all the books that shall be compiled under the provisions of this act, and shall protect said copyrights from all infringement.

Moneys received kept in state treasury.

§ 5. All moneys that have been received or may hereafter be received from the state series of school text-books shall be kept by the state treasurer as a separate and distinct fund, to be known as the "State School Book Fund," which said fund shall be subject to the following drafts, viz.: By the superintendent of state printing for all moneys needed for manufacturing any editions of any book of the state series, over and above the first fifty thousand copies manufactured of such book, the same to be drawn as provided in subdivision 4 of section 526 of the Political Code; provided, that all demands on the state school book fund shall be presented to the state board of examiners in itemized form, for their approval; and upon the approval of the state board of examiners, the controller is hereby authorized to draw his warrant upon the state treasurer for the payment of said demands, and the state treasurer is authorized to pay the same.

§ 6. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

ACT 3562.

An act to provide for compiling, illustrating, electrotyping, printing, binding, copyrighting, and distributing an elementary book on civil government, for the state series of school text-books.

[Approved March 19, 1889. Stats. 1889, p. 327.]

Compiling, etc., books on civil government of the United States.

§ 1. The state board of education shall compile, or cause to be compiled, the following described text-book for use in the common schools of the state, viz.: One (1) elementary book on the civil government of the United States, with a special analysis of the government of the state of California.

Printing of.

§ 2. The printing of said elementary book on civil government, provided for in section 1 of this act, shall be done by and under the supervision of the superintendent of state printing, subject to the provisions of section 3 of an act entitled An act to provide for compiling, illustrating, electrotyping, printing, binding, copyrighting, and distributing certain books of a state series of school text-books, and appropriating money therefor, approved March fifteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven.

§ 3. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

ACT 3563.

An act to provide for compiling, illustrating, electrotyping, printing, binding, copyrighting, and distributing a state series of school text-books, and appropriating money therefor.

[Approved February 26, 1885. Stats. 1885, p. 6.]

Amended 1887, p. 145; 1891, p. 452.

See ante, Act 3561.

Series of school books.

§ 1. The state board of education shall compile, or cause to be compiled, for use in the common schools of the state, a series of school text-books of the following description, viz.: Three (3) readers, one (1) speller, one (1) arithmetic, one (1) grammar, one (1) history of the United States, and one (1) geography. The matter contained in the readers shall consist of lessons commencing with the simplest expressions of the language, and, by a regular gradation, advancing to and including the highest styles of composition, both in prose and poetry.

Compilers of same.

the remuneration for the services thus rendered; provided, that if competent authors shall compile any one or more works of the first order of excellence, and shall offer the same as a free gift to the people of the state, together with the copyright of the same, and the exclusive right to manufacture and sell such works within the state of California, it shall be the duty of the state board of education to accept such gift, and to expend no money for the purpose of compiling works relating to the subjects treated of in the books thus donated. The state board of education shall furnish to the superintendent of state printing designs for all cuts and engravings to be used in the said series of text-books.

Printing and binding.

§ 3. The printing of all the text-books provided for in section 1 of this act, and all the mechanical work connected therewith, shall be done by and under the supervision of the superintendent of state printing at the state printing-office; provided, that the purchase of paper for the school books, and the cardboards, cloth, and leather for covers, shall be procured by advertising for proposals to furnish the same, in the manner now provided for by section 532 of the Political Code, relating to paper supplies for the state printing-office; and provided further, that when the state has its bindery in operation, all folding, stitching, binding, and ruling of the state shall be done in the state bindery; but the accounts of the school book binding shall be kept separate from those of all other binding.

Copyrights.

§ 4. The state board of education shall secure copyrights to all the books that shall be compiled under the provisions of this act, and shall protect said copyrights from all infringement.

Order of uniform use.

§ 5. Whenever any one or more of the state series of school text-books shall have been compiled and adopted, the state board of education shall issue an order requiring the uniform use of said book or books in the common schools of the state; but said order for the uniform use of said book or books shall not take effect till the expiration of at least one year from the time of the completion of the electrotype plates of said book or books, and thereafter such book or books shall be used in all the common schools of this state; and no school board or other school authority in this state shall have the power to authorize the use of, nor shall any common school in this state use any books as text-books for pupils other than those directed to be used by the order aforesaid of such state board, except books on such subjects as are not provided for by text-books published by the state. Nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent any county or school district from adopting any one or more of the state series of school text-books whenever said book or books shall have been published. The superintendent of public instruction must withhold from any city, city and county, county, or from any school district in this state using school books in violation of the provisions of this act and section all state school moneys to which it may be entitled, until it comply with the requirements of this section; and any moneys so withheld must be apportioned by the superintendent at the next annual apportionment in the same manner as other school moneys in the treasury. [Amendment approved March 31, 1891. Stats. 1891, p. 453.]

Text-books, how obtained.

§ 6. All orders for text-books shall be made on the superintendent of public instruction, and shall be accompanied by cash, in payment for the same, at the price fixed by the state board of education as the cost price at Sacramento; provided, that if the books are to be shipped by mail, the cost of postage shall also accompany the order. The following persons shall be entitled to order books:

1. County superintendents of schools, for the use of teachers, parents, and pupils in their counties only.

2. Principals of state normal schools, for their own and for the use of the pupils in their respective schools only.

3. The secretary or clerk of any school district in the state, whether incorporated or operating under the general law of the state, for the use of the pupils in such district only; but no books ordered by the county superintendents, or clerks of district boards of trustees, or principals of state normal schools, shall be sold at a price exceeding the cost price at Sacramento, with the actual cost of freight and cartage added.

4. Any retail dealer who shall first transmit to the state superintendent of public instruction an affidavit, duly subscribed by him, in substance as follows, to wit:

"In consideration of receiving for sale, upon the inclosed or upon any further order, the series of school text-books, or any part thereof, published by the state of California, I hereby agree that I will not sell the same to any person or persons for the purpose of being sold again, or to any person or persons beyond the limits of the state of California; and that I will not sell said series of text-books or any part or portion thereof, at a price exceeding the price to the pupil fixed by the state board of education."

Said affidavit shall be indorsed by the county superintendent in the following words, viz:

"I hereby certify that (A B) is a regular retail dealer in school books in — county. C D, county superintendent."

It shall be the duty of the state superintendent of public instruction to furnish, at once to each county superintendent, for the use of any dealer in his county who may apply for permission to sell the books of the state series, printed copies of the above affidavit, together with the list of prices of such books fixed as the cost price at Sacramento, and the price to the pupil; and any dealer who shall fail to comply with the conditions of such affidavit shall forfeit his right to any further purchase of said books from the state. And it shall be the duty of the superintendent of public instruction to report to the state controller, on or before the fifth day of every month, the number of books sold by him during the preceding month, and pay the moneys received for the same into the state treasury. It shall also be the duty of the superintendent of state printing, on or before the fifth day of every month, to report to the state controller the number and value of the books shipped by him on the order of the state superintendent of public instruction, and the number and value of the finished books on hand. [Amendment approved March 15, 1887. Stats. 1887, p. 145. In effect immediately.]

Duties of board of supervisors.

§ 7. It shall be the duty of the boards of supervisors of the counties or cities and counties in this state to provide a revolving fund, for the purpose of enabling the county school superintendents to purchase the state text-books; all moneys to be taken therefrom to be replaced by the moneys received from the sale of said books to the scholars of the public schools of his county, either by himself or by the teachers of the public schools, or the clerks of boards of district trustees. [Amendment approved March 15, 1887. Stats. 1887, p. 146. In effect immediately.]

Appropriation for compilations.

§ 8. The sum of twenty thousand dollars is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the purpose of compiling, or causing to be compiled, the series of text-books for the common schools, as set forth in section 1 of this act. The appropriation provided for in this section shall be subject to the order of the state board of education; provided, that all demands against said appropriation shall first be approved by said state board of education and presented to the state board of examiners in itemized form for their approval, and upon the approval of the state board of examiners, the controller is hereby authorized to draw his warrant upon the state treasurer for the payment of said demands, and the state treasurer is authorized to pay the same.

Appropriation for presses, type, etc.

§ 9. The sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, to purchase the necessary machinery, presses, types, bindery, electrotyping apparatus, and such other material as may be required in the manufacture of the text-books provided for in section 1 of this act, as well as to pay the salaries or wages of the compositors, binders, and other persons to be employed in such manufacture; provided, that the state board of education shall first approve the style of printing, engravings, and illustrations, kind of paper, size, and binding of volumes; said sum to be drawn by the superintendent of state printing in the same manner as provided in subdivision 4 of section 526 of the Political Code.

Furnished at cost of printing.

§ 10. All school books compiled by the state shall be furnished to the public school children of the state at the cost of printing, publishing, and distributing the same; said cost to be ascertained and fixed by the state board of education, on or before the fifteenth day of June of each school year; and it is further enacted, that the cost of distribution shall be taken to be the cost of postage required for mailing each book. [Amendment approved March 15, 1887. Stats. 1887, p. 146. In effect immediately.]

§ 11. All acts or parts of acts in conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

§ 12. This act shall take effect immediately.

Superintendent of public instruction to employ assistance.

§ 4. The superintendent of public instruction is hereby authorized to employ assistance necessary to the carrying out of the provisions of this act. And the controller is hereby directed and authorized to draw his warrants for a sum not exceeding two thousand dollars annually, on the general fund of the state, for the payment of such assistance. [Amendment approved March 15, 1887. Stats. 1887, p. 146. In effect immediately.]

The amendatory act added this new section at the end, but did not give it a new number. This number is the amendment section number.

ACT 3564.

An act to provide for the revision of certain books of the state series of school text-books, for the compilation of an additional book of said series, and for the continued publication of the same; and to authorize and direct the use, for these purposes, of the money accumulated in the state school book fund.

§ 1. The state board of education is hereby authorized and directed to revise the following books of the state series of school text-books, viz.: The first, second, and third readers, the English grammar, the United States history, and the advanced arithmetic, and to compile a primary history of the United States; and in such revision and compilation may employ well-qualified persons to assist them; provided, that in revising said readers the board may cause them to be issued in a series of five books or less, in their discretion; and the board shall furnish to the superintendent of state printing designs for all cuts and engravings to be used in the books revised and compiled under the provisions of this section.

§ 2. All indebtedness incurred by said board in carrying out the provisions of section 1 of this act shall be paid out of the money accumulated in the state school book fund from the sale of the state series of school text-books; provided, that all demands on account of such indebtedness shall first be approved by said state board of education, and presented to the state board of examiners, in itemized form, for their approval, and upon the approval thereof by the state board of examiners the controller is hereby authorized to draw his warrant upon the state treasurer for the payment of said demands, and the state treasurer is authorized to pay the same; provided further, that the indebtedness incurred by said board in carrying out the provisions of section 1 of this act shall not exceed the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), which sum is hereby appropriated from the state school book fund for the use of the said board in the premises.

§ 3. The state board of education shall secure copyrights to all the books that shall be revised or compiled, as the case may be, under the provisions of this act, and shall protect said copyrights from all infringement.

§ 4. Whenever any one or more of the state series of school text-books shall have been revised or compiled, the state board of education shall issue an order requiring the uniform use of said book or books in the common schools of the state; but said order for the uniform use of said book or books shall not take effect till the expiration of at least one year from the time of the completion of the electrotype plates of said book or books. Nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent any county, city, city and county, or school district from using any one or more of the state series of school text-books provided for in this act, whenever said book or books shall have been published.

§ 5. The printing and binding of all text-books, specified in section 1 of this act, and all the mechanical work connected therewith, shall be done by and under the supervision of the superintendent of state printing, at the state printing-office; provided, that the purchase of paper for the school books, and the binder's boards, cloths, and leather for covers, shall be procured by advertising for proposals to furnish the same, in the manner now provided for by section 532 of the Political Code, relating to paper supplies for the state printing office.

§ 6. Whenever the appropriations heretofore made from the general fund to the use of the superintendent of state printing for the manufacture of books of the state series of school text-books is exhausted, all indebtedness incurred for the further manufacture of said books shall be paid from the state school book fund, together with all indebtedness incurred for the purchase and proper maintenance of such necessary machinery as may be required in the manufacture of said books, and to purchase such type and other materials as may be required for the same; provided, that all demands on the state school book fund, for the purposes enumerated in this section, shall be presented to the state board of examiners, in itemized form, for their approval; and upon the approval of the state board of examiners, the controller is hereby authorized to draw his warrant upon the state treasurer for the payment of said demands, and the state treasurer is authorized to pay the same.

§ 7. This act shall take effect immediately.

ACT 3565.

An act to provide for the levy and collection of taxes by and for school districts, except in municipal corporations of the first class.

[Approved February 14, 1891. Stats. 1891, p. 4.]

§ 1. In all cases where the board of school trustees, board of school directors, board of education, or other governing board of any school district in this state, except in [a] municipal corporation of the first class, has or may hereafter have power to raise money by taxation without a vote of the people of the school district, in addition to the funds provided by state and county for school or educational purposes, such money shall be raised and such taxes shall be levied and collected in the manner following, to wit: The board of trustees, directors, or board of education shall, within the limits fixed by law, estimate the amount of money to be so raised by taxation, and required by their respective districts for school purposes during the year next ensuing, which year shall begin on the first Monday of January, at 12 o'clock, M. Said meeting for such purpose shall be held between the first and twentieth day of September in each year; said estimate, showing the amount and for what purpose the same is to be used, shall be entered upon the records of the board making the same, and signed by a majority of said board, and attested by the clerk or secretary of said board. Said clerk or secretary shall immediately furnish to the board of supervisors of the county in which such district is situated a copy of said record containing such estimate, which shall show the name of the district, the amount of money to be raised, and the purposes for which it is to be used.

§ 2. The board of supervisors, upon receipt of such estimate, must, at the time of levying the county taxes, levy a tax upon all the taxable property in the school district requiring such money sufficient to raise the amount; the rate of taxation shall be ascertained by deducting fifteen per cent for anticipated delinquencies from the aggregate assessed value of the property in the district as it appears on the assessment-roll of the county, and then divide the amount to be raised by the remainder of said aggregate assessed value. The taxes so levied shall be computed and entered on the assessment-roll by the county auditor, and collected at the same time and in the same manner as state and county taxes; and when collected, shall be paid into the county treasury for the use of the district for which said money was collected. The county treasurer shall, upon demand, pay out such moneys to the district entitled thereto, in the same manner as other school moneys are paid out by such treasurer.

§ 3. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

The code commissioners say of this act: "Modified, perhaps repealed, by Political Code, §§ 1880 and 1886, as amended 1892, p. 263."

ACT 3566.

To enable cities of the fifth class to issue bonds for the purchase of schoolhouse lots, for the building of schoolhouses and supplying the same. [Stats. 1891, p. 264.]

Repealed 1898, p. 295.

See Act 3567, post.

ACT 3567.

An act to enable school districts, in cities of the fifth class, and school districts which embrace territory a portion of which is within and a portion of which is without such cities of the fifth class, to issue bonds for the purpose of raising money to purchase school lots, and for building or purchasing one or more schoolhouses, and supplying the same with furniture, necessary apparatus, and improving the grounds, and for liquidating any indebtedness already incurred for such purposes, and to repeal an act approved March 31, 1891, entitled "An act to enable cities of the fifth class to issue bonds for the purpose of raising money to purchase school lots and for building or purchasing one or more schoolhouses, and supplying the same with furniture, necessary apparatus, and improving the grounds, and for liquidating any indebtedness already incurred for such purposes."

Amended 1897, p. 103.

§ 1. The board of education of any school district in a city of the fifth class, or of any school district which embraces territory, a portion of which is within and a portion of which is without such city of the fifth class, may, when in their judgment it is advisable, and must, when requested by the board of trustees of such city, call an election and submit to the electors of the district whether the bonds of such district shall be issued and sold for the purpose of raising money to purchase school lots, and for building or purchasing one or more schoolhouses, and supplying the same with furniture, necessary apparatus, and improving the grounds, and for liquidating any indebtedness already incurred for such purposes. [Amendment approved March 11, 1897. Stats. 1897, p. 103. In effect immediately.]

§ 2. Such election must be called by posting notices, signed by the board of education, in three of the most public places in the district, for not less than twenty days before the election, and by publishing such notices, in some newspaper published in such city, not less than once a week for three successive weeks.

§ 3. Such notices must contain:

1. The time and place of holding such election.
2. The names of one inspector and two judges in each voting precinct in said district, to conduct the same.

3. The hours during the day, not less than six hours, in which the polls will be open.

§ 4. Such election shall be held, in all respects as nearly as practicable, in conformity with the general election law; provided, that no particular form or ballot shall be required, excepting that the words to appear on the ballots, which shall be "Bonds—Yes," or "Bonds—No"; nor shall any informalities, not amounting to fraud, in conducting such election, invalidate the same.

§ 5. On the seventh day after said election, at 1 o'clock, P. M., the returns having been made to the board of education, the board must meet and canvass said returns, and if it appears that two-thirds of the votes cast at said election were in favor of issuing such bonds, then the board shall cause an entry of that fact to be made upon its minutes, and shall certify the board of supervisors of the county in which said district is located the proceedings had in the premises; and thereupon said board of supervisors shall be and they are hereby authorized and directed to issue the bonds of such district to the number and amount provided in such proceedings, payable out of the bond fund of such district (naming the same), and that the money shall be raised by taxation upon the taxable property in said district for the redemption of said bonds, and the payment of the interest thereon; provided, that the total amount of bonds so issued shall not exceed five per cent of the taxable property of the district as shown by the last equalized assessment of the property in such school district.

§ 6. The board of supervisors, by an order entered upon its minutes, shall prescribe the form of said bonds, and of the interest coupons attached thereto, and must fix the time when the whole or any part of the principal of said bonds shall be payable, which shall not be more than ten years from the date thereof.

§ 7. Said bonds must be payable in gold coin of the United States; must be signed by the president of the board of supervisors, and countersigned by the clerk of the county, who must affix the county seal thereto; must not bear a greater rate of interest than eight per cent, said interest to be payable semi-annually in like gold coin; and said bonds must be sold in the manner prescribed by the board of supervisors, but for not less than par, in gold coin of the United States, and the proceeds of the sale thereof must be deposited in the county treasury to the credit of the building fund of said school district, and be drawn out for the purpose aforesaid as other school moneys are drawn out.

§ 8. The board of supervisors, at the time of making the levy of taxes for county purposes, must levy a tax for that year upon the taxable property in such district for the interest and redemption of said bonds; and such tax must not be less than sufficient to pay the interest of said bonds for that year, and such portion of the principal as is to become due during such year, and in any event must be high enough to raise, annually, for the first half of the term said bonds have to run, a sufficient sum to pay the interest thereon, and during the balance of the term, high enough to pay such annual interest; and to pay, annually, a proportion of the principal of said bonds equal to a sum produced by taking the whole amount of said bonds outstanding and dividing it by the number of years said bonds then have to run; and all moneys so levied, when collected, shall be paid into the county treasury to the credit of the building fund of such district, and be used for the payment of principal and interest on said bonds, and for no other purpose. The principal and interest on said bonds shall be paid by the county treasurer, upon the warrant of the auditor, out of the fund provided therefor; and it shall be the duty of the auditor to cancel and file with the treasurer the bonds and coupons as rapidly as they are paid. This section shall also apply to all cases where bonds were issued under the provisions of the aforesaid act, approved March 31, eighteen hundred and ninety-one, and in such cases all moneys collected under the provisions of this section shall be paid by the county treasurer, upon the warrant of the auditor, to the city treasurer of the city where such bonds and the interest thereon are payable. Warrants for all such moneys shall be drawn by the auditor from time to time, upon the demand of such city treasurer. [Amendment approved March 11, 1897. Stats. 1897, p. 104. In effect immediately.]

§ 9. If the board of supervisors of any county in which any school district has issued bonds, under the provisions of this act or under the provisions of said act approved March thirty-first, eighteen hundred and ninety-one, shall fail to make the levy necessary to pay such bonds or interest coupons at maturity, and the same shall have been presented to the county treasurer, and the payment thereof refused, the owner may file the bonds, together with all unpaid coupons, with the state controller, taking his receipt therefor, and the same shall be registered in the state controller's office; and the state board of equalization shall, at their next session, and at each annual equalization thereafter, add to the state tax to be levied in said district a sufficient rate to raise the amount of principal and interest past due prior to the next levy, and the same shall be levied and collected as a part of the state tax, and paid into the state treasury, and passed to the special credit of such district bond tax, and shall be paid by warrants, as the payments mature, to the holder of such registered obligations, as shown by the register in the office of the state controller, until the same shall be fully satisfied and discharged; any balance then remaining shall be transmitted to the treasurer of the county in which is situated the district by which such bonds were issued, and shall be placed by the county treasurer to the credit of the general school fund of said district. [Amendment approved March 11, 1897. Stats. 1897, p. 104. In effect immediately.]

§ 10. The act approved March thirty-first, eighteen hundred and ninety-one, entitled "An act to enable cities of the fifth class to issue bonds for the purpose of raising money to purchase school lots, and for building or purchasing one or more schoolhouses, and supplying the same with furniture, necessary apparatus, and improving the grounds, and for liquidating any indebtedness already incurred for such purposes," is hereby repealed.

§ 11. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

ACT 3568.

An act to provide for the change of name of school districts and the manner of making such change.

[Approved March 16, 1903. Stats. 1903, p. 163.]

§ 1. Whenever a petition shall be presented to the board of supervisors, signed by at least fifteen qualified electors of said district, asking that the name of any school district be changed, the said board of supervisors shall designate a day upon which they will act upon such petition, which day must not be less than ten days nor more than forty days after the receipt thereof. The clerk of the said board of supervisors must give notice to all parties interested, by sending by registered mail to each of the trustees of such school district, a notice of the time set for the hearing of said petition, which notice must be mailed at least ten days before the day set for hearing, whereupon the board shall by resolution either grant or deny the petition, and if granted, the clerk shall notify the county superintendent of the change of the name of said district.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

ACT 3569.

An act to provide for the appointment and salary of a clerk in the office of the superintendent of public instruction, and to make an appropriation therefor. [Approved March 27, 1895. Stats. 1895, p. 238.]

ACT 3570.

An act to create and administer a public school teachers' annuity and retirement fund in the several counties, and cities and counties of the state.

[Approved March 26, 1895. Stats. 1895, p. 170.]

Amended 1897, p. 225; 1901, p. 676; 1903, p. 271; 1909, p. 296.

§ 1. The superintendent of public schools, or in consolidated cities and counties, the superintendent of common schools, the county treasurer, or in consolidated cities and counties, the city and county treasurer, and the chairman of the board of supervisors, or in consolidated cities and counties, the mayor, of each county, or consolidated city and county, and their successors in office, are hereby constituted a board of trustees of the public school teachers' annuity and retirement fund, to manage the same as hereinafter directed; said board shall be known as the public school teachers' retirement fund commissioners, and its members shall serve without extra compensation, and shall be liable on their official bonds for the performance of the duties imposed by this act. It shall be the duty of the district attorney of every county, or the city and county attorney of every consolidated city and county, to attend to all suits, matters, and things in which the said board of commissioners may be legally interested, and to give his advice or opinion in writing, whenever required by said board. [Amendment approved March 29, 1897. Stats. 1897, p. 225. In effect immediately.]

§ 2. The public school teachers' retirement fund commissioners shall organize as such board by choosing one of their number as chairman and one as secretary. The county treasurer, or in consolidated cities and counties, the city and county treasurer, shall be ex officio treasurer of said retirement fund. Said board shall hold quarterly meetings on the third Saturday in January, April, July, and October of each year, at the office of the county superintendent of public schools, or, in consolidated cities and counties, at the office of the superintendent of schools. It shall biennially, at its meeting in January, select from its members a chairman and a secretary. A majority of its members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. It shall report annually to the board of supervisors of the county, or consolidated city and county, the condition of said retirement fund, and the receipts and disbursements on account of the same, with a full and complete list of the beneficiaries of said fund, and the amounts paid to each of them. [Amendment approved March 29, 1897. Stats. 1897, p. 225. In effect immediately.]

§ 3. Said board of public teachers' retirement fund commissioners shall issue warrants, signed by its chairman and secretary, to the persons entitled thereto, for the amounts of money ordered paid to such persons from said fund by said board, stating therein for what purpose such payment is made, and the treasurer shall pay such warrants on presentation. Said board shall keep a record of all its proceedings, and said record shall be open to public inspection. It shall, at each quarterly meeting, make a list of all persons, if any, entitled to pay out of the funds provided by this act, and enter said list in a book to be kept by them for that purpose, to be known as the public school teachers' annuity and retirement fund book, which list shall be sworn to as correct by the chairman and the secretary of said board, and which shall be open to public inspection. [New section approved March 29, 1897. Stats. 1897, p. 226. In effect immediately.]

§ 4. In addition to the powers hereinbefore granted to said board, it shall have the power (1) to provide for the payment of its necessary expenses, such as printing, stationery, and postage stamps; and where the number of those subject to the burdens of this act is greater than one hundred, it may employ a clerk at a salary not to exceed fifty (50) dollars per annum; and (2) to make such needful rules and regulations for the transaction of its business, from time to time, as may be necessary; the said expenses and the said clerk's salary shall be paid from the annuity fund in such counties or consolidated cities and counties, wherein there shall be "annuity funds," but, wherever there shall be no "annuity fund," the said expenses shall be paid from the "distribution fund," and the said salary from the reserve fund. [Amendment approved March 20, 1903. Stats. 1903, p. 271. In effect immediately.]

Amended also in 1897, Stats., 1897, p. 232, and in 1901, Stats. 1901, p. 677.

§ 5. Those subject to the burdens of this act in each county, or in each consolidated city and county, at a meeting called for the purpose by the superintendent of public schools of such county or of such city and county, on the first Saturday in May following the creation of the fund hereinafter specified, shall elect by ballot five of their number, who shall constitute a committee on retirement; the members of said committee shall, immediately after their election, classify themselves by lot so that one shall serve for one year, two serve for two years, and two shall serve for three years; and, annually, at a meeting to be called in the same manner on the first Saturday in May of each year after the first meeting, the successor or successors of the member or members of said committee whose term of office is about to expire, shall be elected for a term of three years; provided, however, that said committee shall always consist of at least one class teacher from some primary school, one from some grammar school, and one from some high school in the county, or consolidated city and county, whenever such election is possible. In the event of a vacancy, the superintendent of schools shall appoint until the next annual election.

Within fifteen days after the taking effect of this amendatory act, the contributors to said fund in any county, or consolidated city and county, in this state, at a meeting called for that purpose, by the superintendent of public schools of such county, or consolidated city and county (or if he neglects or refuses to call such meeting, then such meeting may be called by ten of such contributors), may select and designate by resolution adopted by a majority vote of those present, which of the two alternatives presented in section 8 class two, in section 8 class six, in section 8 class seven, and in section 11, respectively, shall be followed in such county or consolidated city and county.

In the event that no such meeting is called or held for the purpose of making such selection and designation, the said contributors in such county, or consolidated city and county, wherein no such meeting shall be held, will be deemed to have selected the first (marked subdivision "A") of each of the above mentioned alternatives.

In counties and consolidated cities and counties where a public school teachers' annuity and retirement fund shall be hereafter created the said selection and designation shall be made at the said meeting to be held on the first Saturday in May following the creation of said fund. After any selection and designation shall have been made, pursuant to this section, no change shall ever be made thereafter in that connection. A certified copy of all resolutions adopted pursuant to this section shall be furnished by said meeting of said contributors to the board of public school teachers' retirement fund commissioners of such county or consolidated city and county. [Amendment approved March 20, 1903. Stats. 1903, p. 271. In effect immediately.]

Amended also in 1897, Stats. 1897, p. 227, and 1901, Stats. 1901, p. 677.

§ 6. The board of education of any incorporated city or town, and the board of trustees of any school districts outside of said city or town, shall refer all applications for retirement to said committee on retirement, or may, of its own motion, submit the name of any person or persons, whom it desires to have retired, to the said committee on retirement and it shall thereupon be the duty of said committee to investigate the case and report to said board of education or board of trustees, whether or not said teacher should be retired, and the annuity to which said teacher is entitled, if entitled to any. At least three members of the said committee must concur in the report, if it be in favor of granting said annuity. This report of said committee shall be final. Said board of education, or board of trustees, shall thereupon certify and send this report to the public school teachers' retirement fund commissioners, who shall be bound by its decision. [New section, approved March 29, 1897. Stats. 1897, p. 227. In effect immediately.]

§ 7. In addition to the powers heretofore granted to said committee on retirement, it shall have the power (1) to subpoena and compel witnesses to attend and testify before it on all matters relating to the operation of this act, and any member of said committee may administer an oath or affirmation to such witness in the form prescribed in courts of justice; (2) to make such rules and regulations for the transaction of its business as may from time to time be necessary. [New section approved March 29, 1897. Stats. 1897, p. 227. In effect immediately.]

§ 8. Any public school teacher or any occupant of one of the offices mentioned in subdivision 4 of section 12 of this act, who has been a contributor under the provisions of this act, and who has ceased teaching, for a time, or has ceased to occupy such office, may again become a contributor upon returning to teaching in the public schools of this state, or upon becoming an occupant of any one of the offices mentioned in said subdivision 4 of section 12, and shall thereupon be credited with his said previous service and contribution; provided, that no person shall be a contributor to a public school teachers' annuity and retirement fund under this act who does not hold a valid certificate or diploma to teach in the public schools of this state.

The annuitants under this act are classed as follows:

ANNUITANTS.

Class One. Any teacher who shall have served in the public schools of this state for thirty years as a teacher, and who shall have been subject to the burdens imposed by this act for thirty years, shall be entitled to retire under the provisions of this act.

Any teacher who has served in the public schools of this state, and who has served in one or more of the offices mentioned in said subdivision 4 of section 12, and the aggregate period of whose service in the said public schools and in said office or offices shall be thirty years, and who shall have been subject to the burdens imposed by this act during said thirty years, shall be entitled to retire under the provisions of this act; provided, however, such teacher shall have held a valid certificate or diploma to teach in the public schools of this state during all of said period. Annuity of class one shall be entitled to receive from the said public school teachers' annuity and retirement fund the sum of thirty (30) dollars per month in counties, and fifty (50) dollars per month in consolidated cities and counties, payable quarterly.

Class Two. Any teacher who shall have served in the public schools of this state for thirty years, and who was unable to contribute to said public school teachers' annuity and retirement fund for thirty years, by reason of the nonestablishment or nonexistence of said fund, and any teacher who shall have served in the public schools of this state, and who shall have served in one or more of the offices mentioned in said subdivision 4 of section 12, and the aggregate period of whose service in the said public schools, and in said office or offices, is thirty years, and who has held a valid certificate or diploma to teach in the public schools of this state during all of said period, and who was unable to contribute to said fund for thirty years by reason of the nonestablishment or nonexistence of said fund, shall be retired upon application to the said board under either subdivision A or subdivision B, hereof, as the contributors to said fund in such county, or consolidated city and county, shall have selected to follow, as provided in section 5 of this act.

A. Such applicant upon retirement shall receive from the public school teachers' annuity and retirement fund the sum of thirty (30) dollars per month in counties, and fifty (50) dollars per month in consolidated cities and counties, payable quarterly; provided, that such applicant for retirement is, at the date of the taking effect of this amendatory act, a contributor to the public school teachers' annuity and retirement fund in the county or consolidated city and county, where he is teaching or holding such office, or becomes a contributor thereto within ninety (90) days after he becomes such teacher or such office holder, and shall have paid into the said fund, at the time of such retirement, a sum aggregating what he would have paid into said fund in thirty (30) years, had he been a contributor thereto for that period; provided, further, that annuities under this class shall not begin until five (5) years after the retired teacher became a contributor.

B. Such applicant upon retirement shall receive from the public school teachers' annuity and retirement fund the sum of five (5) dollars per month, payable quarterly, for every two and one-half (2½) years (or fraction thereof equal to or greater than one-half of two and one-half years) such teacher or office holder shall have contributed to said fund, until the maximum annuity of thirty (30) dollars per month in counties and fifty (50) dollars per month in consolidated cities and counties shall have been reached; provided, that such applicant for retirement is, at the date of the taking effect of this amendatory act, a contributor to the public school teachers' annuity and retirement fund in the county, or consolidated city and county where he is teaching or holding such office, or becomes a contributor within ninety (90) days after the taking effect of this amendatory act, or becomes a contributor thereto within ninety (90) days after he becomes such teacher or such office holder.

No person shall be retired under this subdivision unless he shall have paid into said fund, at the time of such retirement, a sum aggregating what he would have paid into said fund in thirty (30) years had he been a contributor thereto for that period.

No teacher or office holder shall be retired until he has been a contributor to the fund for five (5) years.

Class Three. Any public school teacher who shall have served for thirty years, twenty-five of which shall have been in the public schools of this state, or partly in the public schools of this state and partly in one or more of the offices mentioned in said subdivision 4 of section 12, and who shall have been subject to the burdens imposed by this act for twenty-five years, shall receive upon retirement after thirty years of such service, the sum of thirty (30) dollars per month in counties, and fifty (50) dollars per month in consolidated cities and counties, payable quarterly; provided, he shall have paid into the said fund, at the time of such retirement, a sum aggregating what he would have paid into said fund in thirty (30) years, had he been a contributor thereto for that period.

Class Four. Any public school teacher or any officer mentioned in said subdivision 4 of section 12, subject to the burdens of this act, who shall remove to another county in this state, may continue to be a contributor to the public school teachers' annuity and retirement fund in the county, or in the consolidated city and county, from which he removed, so long as he continues to be a public school teacher or the occupant of one of said offices; and it is hereby made the duty of the county treasurer of the county, or consolidated city and county, wherein such teacher or officer agreed to become subject to the burdens of this act, to receive such contributions of such nonresidents, and to place such contributions to the credit of the public school teachers' annuity and retirement fund.

Class Five. Any teacher who ceases to serve in the public schools of any county, or of any consolidated city and county, or who ceases to serve in one of the offices mentioned in said subdivision 4 of section 12, in the county or consolidated city and county, where he has been subject to the burdens imposed by this act, and who shall have served in the public schools of this state for thirty (30) years, or who shall have served partly in the public schools of this state and partly in one or more of the offices mentioned in said subdivision 4 of section 12, for an aggregate period of thirty (30) years, shall be entitled to retire, and to receive from the public school teachers' annuity and retirement fund of the county, or consolidated city and county, to which he has contributed for at least five (5) years, an annuity equal to such proportion of the maximum annuity granted under this act as the time he has been subject to the burdens imposed by this act in such county, or consolidated city and county, bears to the period of thirty years.

Class six. Contributors to said public school teachers' annuity and retirement fund retiring under this class, shall be retired either under subdivision A, or subdivision B hereof, as the contributors to said fund in such county, or consolidated city and county, shall have selected to follow, as provided in section 5 of this act.

A. If any teacher, or any office holder mentioned in said subdivision 4 of section 12, after the expiration of fifteen (15) years, and before the expiration of thirty (30) years, of service in the public schools of this state, or of service partly in the said public schools and partly in one or more of the offices mentioned in said subdivision 4 of section 12, shall be compelled, by reason of incapacity, to retire from public school service, or from one of the offices mentioned in said subdivision 4 of section 12, while holding a valid certificate or diploma to teach in the public schools of this state, such retiring teacher, or office holder, if a contributor to the said fund at the time of retirement, shall be entitled to receive, from the public school teachers' annuity and retirement fund, as many thirtieths (30th) of the full annuity as he has had years of said service, by paying into the public school teachers' annuity and retirement fund the contributions to said fund corresponding to those years of service rendered at a time when, or in a place where, it was impossible to make such contributions by reason of the nonexistence of a public school teachers' annuity and retirement fund; provided, that he shall have contributed to the said fund for five years before he becomes an annuitant.

B. If any teacher or any office holder mentioned in said subdivision 4 of section 12, after the expiration of five years, and before the expiration of thirty years of service in the public schools of this state, or of service partly in the said public schools and partly in one or more of the offices mentioned in said subdivision 4 of section 12, shall be compelled by reason of incapacity, to retire from public school service, or from one of the offices mentioned in said subdivision 4 of section 12, while holding a valid certificate or diploma to teach in the public schools of this state, such retiring teacher or office holder, if a contributor to the said fund at the time of retirement, shall be entitled to receive from the public school teachers' annuity and retirement fund a sum in dollars equal to such proportion of the maximum annuity granted under this act as the time he shall have been subject to the burdens of this act bears to the period of thirty years; provided, however, that those who have served in the public schools of this state, or partly in the said public schools and partly in one or more of the offices mentioned in said subdivision 4 of section 12, at a time when, or in a place where, it was impossible to make contributions to said fund, by reason of the nonexistence of said fund, may receive in addition to the proportion of the maximum annuity last hereinabove specified, such an additional proportion of the full annuity as the number of years of said service, while not burdened with the provisions of this act, bears to thirty years; provided, further, that they shall have paid into the said fund, at the time of their retirement, an amount equal to what they would have paid into said fund had they been subject to the burdens imposed by this act for the full time of said service, not to exceed thirty years; and provided, further, that no person retired under this subdivision B shall ever receive a greater annuity than he would have received had he retired on account of years of service; and provided, further, that he shall have contributed to the said fund for five years before he becomes an annuitant.

Class Seven. Contributors to said public school teachers' annuity and retirement fund, retiring under this class, shall be retired under either subdivision A, or under subdivision B, hereof, as the said contributors to said fund in such county, or consolidated city and county, shall have selected to follow, as provided in section 5 of this act.

A. Any public school teacher who shall have been subject to the burdens imposed by this act, for a period of at least five years, and who shall have served in the public schools of this state for a period of fifteen (15) years, or partly in the said public schools and partly in one or more of the offices mentioned in said subdivision 4 of section 12, for a period of fifteen years, and who has held a valid certificate or diploma to teach in the schools of this state during all said period, and who shall have been declared incapacitated, by the committee on retirement, to perform the duties of a public school teacher, or the duties of the office which he may be occupying, if he should be occupying one of the offices mentioned in said subdivision 4 of section 12, shall be entitled to retire and to receive an annuity from the public school teachers' annuity and retirement fund, equal to such proportion of the maximum annuity granted under this act as the time he has been subject to the burdens imposed by this act bears to the period of thirty years.

B. Any public school teacher who shall have been subject to the burdens imposed by this act for a period of five years (5), and who shall have served in the public schools of this state for a period of five (5) years, or partly in the said public schools and partly in one or more of the offices mentioned in said subdivision 4 of section 12, for a period of five years, and who has held a valid certificate to teach in the schools of this state during said period, and who shall have been declared incapacitated by the committee on retirement, to perform the duties of a public school teacher, or the duties of the office which he may be occupying, if he should be occupying one of the offices mentioned in said subdivision 4 of section 12, shall be entitled to retire, if a contributor to the fund at the time of retirement, and to receive an annuity, from the public school teachers' annuity and retirement fund a sum in dollars equal to such proportion of the maximum annuity granted under this act, as the time he shall have been subject to the burdens imposed by this act bears to the period of thirty years.

Class Eight. Teachers of public evening schools receiving a salary of fifty (50) dollars or less per month, shall be subject to one-half of the burdens, and shall be entitled to one-half of the benefits, of this act; provided, that any public school teacher who is employed both in a day and an evening school shall be considered for the purposes of this act to be employed in a day school only; provided, further, that an evening public school teacher, who at any time before retirement under the provisions of this act shall become a day public school teacher, or an occupant of one of the offices mentioned in said subdivision 4 of section 12, shall upon retirement as a day public school teacher, or as one of said officers, be credited with half time for his said evening school service, under the class in which he may be retired.

HIGH SCHOOL AND OTHER PUBLIC SCHOOL TEACHERS.

High school and other public school teachers in counties, or in consolidated cities and counties, in which the act of which this act is amendatory has been in force, who were unable by reason of any imperfection in the terms of said act, to become contributors, shall be allowed, upon admission under the terms of this act, and upon the payment of the amounts they would have paid had they been contributors, to date the time of their admission from the time of the organization of the public school teachers' annuity and retirement fund in their county or consolidated city and county. City treasurers are hereby directed to pay into the public school teachers' annuity and retirement fund of their respective counties the contributions of teachers and officers, whose salaries are paid by, or through, city treasurers, in the same manner as provided in the act of which this act is amendatory, to be paid by the treasurer of a county, or consolidated city and county.

Compliance with these provisions shall render any public high school or other public school teacher eligible to the benefits provided in any one of the eight classes of annuitants in this act created to which such teacher may be qualified.

SUSPENSION OF ANNUITIES.

Any and all annuities shall be suspended if the recipient returns to the profession of teaching or becomes the occupant of one of the said offices mentioned in subdivision 4 of section 12. Any annuity less than two-thirds of the maximum annuity shall cease at the expiration of one year from the time at which the committee on retirement, constituted in section 5 of this act, shall decide that the recipient has been restored to the capacity of performing the duties of a public school teacher.

All teachers now employed in the public schools of this state who filed the notice specified in the act of which this act is amendatory, within ninety days after the passage of this amendatory act in counties or in consolidated cities and counties where the provisions of any act or acts to which this act is amendatory are now applicable, and all other public school teachers in other counties or consolidated city and county who become contributors within ninety days after the establishment of a public school teachers' annuity and retirement fund therein and who shall have paid at the time of retirement an amount equal to what they would have paid had they been subject to the burdens imposed by the provisions of this act for thirty (30) years, shall not suffer any reduction of annuities; provided, however, that the provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to counties or consolidated cities and counties in which the contributors to said fund shall select to be governed by the provisions of subdivision B of classes two, six and seven respectively of section 8, and subdivision B of section 11, as provided in section 5. [Amendment approved March 20, 1903. Stats. 1903, p. 272. In effect immediately.]

Also amended in 1897, Stats. 1897, p. 227, and in 1901, Stats. 1901, p. 677.

§ 9. If at the end of any quarter year there shall not be a sufficient amount of money in the "annuity fund," or in the "distribution fund," as the case may be, to pay all warrants and demands of annuitants in full, then the money in that fund shall be divided pro rata among them, and the sum received by each annuitant shall be in full discharge of all claims against said fund to that date. [Amendment approved March 20, 1903. Stats. 1903, p. 278. In effect immediately.]

Also amended in 1897, Stats. 1897, p. 227.

§ 10. The public school teachers' annuity and retirement fund herein provided for, shall consist of the following, with the income and interest thereof:

(I) Twelve (12) dollars per school year of the salaries paid to all those subject to the burdens imposed by this act, in each county, or consolidated city and county, shall be deducted from the warrants for salary, and paid by the treasurer of the county, or consolidated city and county, to the public school teachers' retirement fund commissioners of said county, or consolidated city and county; and it shall be the duty of the secretary of the board of education in every incorporated city or town, or consolidated city and county, and the clerk of the board of trustees of every public school district outside of such city or town, or consolidated city and county, to deduct from each salary demand, the said sum according to the class to which each teacher belongs, and to draw his warrant at the end of each month for the total amount in favor of the public school teachers' retirement fund commissioners.

(II) All moneys received from gifts, bequests and devises, or from any other source.

(III) All moneys, pay, compensation, or salary forfeited, deducted or withheld from the warrant or demand for salary of any teacher or teachers for and account of absence from duty from any cause, which the board of education of every incorporated city or town, or the board of trustees of every school district outside of such city or town, may appropriate and set apart for the aforesaid fund; and said board of education or board of trustees are hereby empowered to appropriate such moneys, or any part thereof, for such fund; provided, that in consolidated cities and counties, after the establishment of an annuity fund therein, it is hereby made the duty of the boards of education to appropriate monthly, at least one-half of such moneys for such fund. [Amendment approved March 11, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 296.]

Also amended in 1897, Stats. 1897, p. 228, and in 1908, Stats. 1908, p. 278.

§ 11. The said public school teachers' annuity and retirement fund shall be divided either as designated in subdivision A hereof, or as designated in subdivision B hereof, as the said contributors to said fund in such county, or consolidated city and county, shall have selected to follow pursuant to the provisions of section five (5) hereof.

A. The said public school teachers' annuity and retirement fund in each county or consolidated city and county, shall be divided into two distinct funds, or accounts, (1) the permanent fund, and (2) the annuity fund.

(1) The permanent fund.

(a) The permanent fund shall consist of: (I) Twenty-five per cent of all contributions from those affected by this act; (II) Twenty-five per cent of all gifts, bequests, or devises, unless otherwise ordered by the donor or the testator; (III) Twenty-five per cent of all moneys deducted from the salaries of teachers because of absence from duty.

(b) When the permanent fund shall amount to the sum of fifty thousand (50,000) dollars, then all moneys thereafter received shall go into the annuity fund, except such gifts, devises, or bequests as may be specially directed by its donor or testator to be placed in the permanent fund.

(c) It shall be the duty of the public school teachers' retirement fund commissioners to invest the aforesaid permanent fund in interest-bearing bonds issued by the federal, state, county, city and county, or municipal governments, and to apply the interest thereon as herein directed.

(2) The annuity fund.

(a) The annuity fund shall consist of: (I) The income derived from the permanent fund; (II) All other moneys belonging to the public school teachers' annuity and retirement fund, not hereinbefore directed to be placed in the permanent fund; (III) All moneys in the fund provided for in the act to which this act is amendatory.

(b) The annuity fund shall be the only one from which annuitants shall be paid.

(c) If at the end of any fiscal year there remain any surplus in the annuity fund, said surplus shall be deposited by the public school teachers' retirement fund commissioners in any savings bank, or savings banks, designated by them.

B. The said public school teachers' annuity and retirement fund, in each county, or consolidated city and county, shall be divided into two distinct funds or accounts, (1) the reserve fund and (2) the distribution fund.

(1) The reserve fund.

The reserve fund shall consist of:

(a) All moneys collected from the unclassified contributors for the first five years after the creation of said fund.

(b) Sixty (60) per cent of all moneys collected from the unclassified contributors for the second five years after the creation of the fund.

(c) Fifty (50) per cent of all moneys collected from unclassified contributors for the third five years after the creation of the fund.

(d) Thirty (30) per cent of all moneys collected from the unclassified contributors for the fourth five years after the creation of the fund.

(e) One hundred per cent of all collections from the classified contributors during the first period of their classification, as hereinafter classified.

(f) Ninety per cent of all collections from the classified contributors during the second period of their classification, as hereinafter classified.

(g) Eighty per cent of all collections from the classified contributors during the third period of their classification, as hereinafter classified.

(h) Seventy per cent of all collections from the classified contributors during the fourth period of their classification, as hereinafter classified.

(i) All collections from sources other than said collections from contributors; all donations, and all interest accrued on such reserve fund for a period of twenty years from the creation of said fund.

It shall be the duty of the public school teachers' retirement fund commissioners to place the reserve fund at interest, monthly, in a savings bank selected by the said commissioners. All original contributors to a public school teachers' annuity and retirement fund in any county or consolidated city and county, and all those who became contributors thereto within the first five years after the creation of said fund shall be known as unclassified contributors.

All who become contributors during the first decade after the fund shall have been in existence for five years shall be known as class A, and those who become contributors to said fund during each decade thereafter shall be known as classes B, C, D, respectively; each of said classes shall exist for four periods, the first three being for ten years each and the fourth for five years.

When the term for which any class has been formed shall have elapsed, all contributors to such classes who continue to contribute, shall be considered as unclassified.

(2) The distribution fund.

The distribution fund shall not be formed in any county or consolidated city and county, until the said public school teachers' annuity and retirement fund shall have been in existence for five years. It shall then consist of:

(a) The income not hereinbefore set aside and declared a part of the reserve fund.

(b) After the said fund shall have been in existence for twenty years, in addition to the income not heretofore set aside for the reserve fund, there shall be transferred quarterly, during the next five years, from the reserve fund to the distribution fund, sixty (60) dollars; provided, that the earnings of the reserve fund for that period shall be equal to, or shall exceed, two hundred and forty (240) dollars per annum. If the earnings of the reserve fund shall not equal two hundred and forty (240) dollars per annum, the amount transferred quarterly from the reserve fund to the distribution fund shall be equal to the quarterly interest of the reserve fund.

(c) After the said fund shall have been in existence for twenty-five (25) years, the distribution fund shall consist of the income not heretofore set aside for the reserve fund, and one hundred and sixty (160) dollars be transferred quarterly, during the next five years from the reserve fund to the distribution fund; provided, however, that this amount does not exceed the quarterly earnings of the reserve fund for that period. Should the one hundred and sixty (160) dollars exceed the said quarterly earnings, then an amount equal to the quarterly earnings of the reserve fund shall be so transferred.

(d) After the said fund shall have been in existence for thirty years the distribution fund shall consist of the income not heretofore set aside for the reserve fund and all of the interest of the reserve fund during the next five years. And should the aforesaid fail to give sufficient funds to pay half of the annuities due, then there shall be transferred quarterly from the reserve fund, over and above the earnings of the reserve fund, thirty (30) dollars per quarter.

(e) After the said fund shall have been in existence for thirty-five years, the distribution fund shall consist of the income not heretofore set aside for the reserve fund. Also the interest on the reserve fund, distributed quarterly during the next five years, and should this not be sufficient to pay half of the annuity due, then there shall be transferred from the reserve fund, in addition to the interest, sixty (60) dollars quarterly.

(f) After the said fund shall have been in existence for forty years, the distribution fund shall consist of the income not heretofore set aside for the reserve fund, the interest on the reserve fund distributed quarterly, and a sum taken from the reserve fund in addition thereto, equal to twelve times the increase in contributors to the said public school teachers' annuity and retirement fund for the preceding year; that is, if the said contributors increase by twenty during the year 1934, then during the year 1935 there shall be taken from the reserve fund in addition to the interest, two hundred and forty (240) dollars per annum.

All disbursements shall be from the distribution fund, except as otherwise provided in section 4. [Amendment approved March 20, 1903. Stats. 1903, p. 279. In effect immediately.]

Also amended in 1897, Stats. 1897, p. 279.

§ 12. This act shall be binding upon such public school teachers, and such officers mentioned in said subdivision 4 of section 12 as shall sign and deliver to the public school teachers' retirement fund commissioners, and to the secretary of the board of education of the incorporated city or town, or consolidated city and county, or to the clerk of the board of trustees of the school district in which they are employed, a notice in substantially the following form:

— — — 19 — —

To the Public School Teachers' Retirement Fund Commissioners, of — — — county (or city and county):

You are hereby notified that I agree to be bound by, and desire to avail myself of the provisions of the act of the legislature of the state of California, approved March 29th, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, entitled "An act to amend an act approved March twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred and ninety-five, entitled 'An act to create and administer a public school teachers' annuity and retirement fund in the several counties, and cities and counties in the state,'" as amended March 23, 1901, and —, 1903.

Signed —

provided, that at least thirty public school teachers within the county, or consolidated city and county, shall file the notice hereinbefore set forth; provided, further, that in all counties, or in consolidated cities and counties, where there is a less number of teachers than thirty, this act shall be binding on all those who so signify their intention of being bound thereby.

(2) In consolidated cities and counties it shall be binding upon all teachers elected or appointed to teach in the public schools of such consolidated cities and counties after the passage of this act.

(3) Annuities heretofore granted under the provisions of the act of which this act is amendatory shall be continued for the same amount as heretofore paid, subject, however, to the conditions imposed by sections nine (9) and eleven (11) of this act.

(4) Any county, consolidated city and county, or city superintendent of schools of this state, and any deputy superintendent of schools for any county, consolidated city and county, or city of the state, and any person engaged in any other educational work, required by law to have the qualifications of a teacher in the public schools of this state, may avail himself of the provisions of this act; and whenever the word "teacher" is used in this act it shall be deemed to include such officer or officers. [Amendment approved March 20, 1903. Stats. 1903, p. 282. In effect immediately.]

Also amended in 1897, Stats. 1897, p. 280.

§ 13. Every public officer who shall issue, or receive in his official capacity, any warrant, or who shall receive or pay out any money, in any manner connected with, pursuant to, or dependent upon, the provisions of this act, shall keep a full, accurate and public record of all his transactions appertaining to the same. [Amendment approved March 20, 1903. Stats. 1903, p. 283. In effect immediately.]

§ 14. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage. [Amendment approved March 29, 1897. Stats. 1897, p. 231. In effect immediately.]

ACT 3571.

An act authorizing any teacher or public officer who is now a contributor to a public school teachers' annuity and retirement fund in any county, or consolidated city and county, of this state, where there are no annuitants drawing annuities from the said fund of such county, or consolidated city and county, to cease to be a contributor to such fund within sixty days from the taking effect of this act, and to have returned to him the amount contributed by him thereto, or such part thereof as may be available for that purpose.

§ 1. Within sixty days after the taking effect of this act, any teacher or public officer who is now a contributor to a public school teachers' annuity and retirement fund in any county or consolidated city and county in this state, created under the provisions of an act approved March 29, 1897, entitled "An act to amend an act approved March 26, 1895, entitled 'An act to create and administer a public school teachers' annuity and retirement fund in the several counties, and cities and counties in the state,'" as amended, may withdraw from such organization by complying with the provisions of this act; provided, however, that the provisions of this act shall not apply to any county or consolidated city and county, where there are, at the time of the taking effect of this act, any annuitants drawing annuities from the said fund of such county, or consolidated city and county.

§ 2. And such teacher, or public officer, desiring to avail himself of the provisions of this act, shall within sixty (60) days after the taking effect of this act, sign and file with the board of public school teachers' retirement fund commissioners of the county, or consolidated city and county, where such teacher or public officer is then a contributor, a notice in writing to the effect that such teacher or public officer, thereby withdraws from the said organization, and shall at the same time sign and file with the clerk, secretary, officer, or board, whose duty it is to issue the salary warrants of such teacher or public officer, a notice similar in substance to the said notice filed with the said board of commissioners.

§ 3. The said board of commissioners, shall, at its next regular meeting after the expiration of said sixty (60) days, pass a resolution directing that all money contributed to said public school teachers' annuity and retirement fund by such teachers or public officers so withdrawing, shall be immediately returned to such teachers or public officers. If the amount in the fund of said organization, after the payment of all legal demands, shall be insufficient to pay each withdrawal the full amount contributed by him, then the said board shall compute the pro rata amount that shall be paid to each, the same to be in proportion to their respective contributions, and shall specify in said resolution the amount to be returned to each.

§ 4. The president and secretary of said board shall thereupon issue warrants to the persons entitled thereto, in such amounts as shall have been so computed and specified by said board, and the treasurer of said fund shall pay the same to the person named in each respective warrant, or to his heirs or assigns.

§ 5. From and after filing the notices, specified in section 2 hereof, each teacher or public officer giving such notices shall be relieved from all burdens and liabilities imposed by the said act designated in section 1 hereof.

§ 6. The clerk, secretary, officer, or board, whose duty it is to issue the salary warrants of such teachers or public officers, shall, from and after the filing of the said notice with him or it, cease to note on the salary warrant of such teacher or public officer any amount to be deducted therefrom by the treasurer on account of said fund.

§ 7. This act shall take effect immediately.

ACT 3572.

An act to provide for the disposal of moneys remaining in the building fund of any school district, after all bonds and indebtedness shall have been paid and liquidated, arising from the construction of school buildings.

[Approved March 13, 1883. Stats. 1883, p. 298.]

§ 1. All moneys that have been or shall be raised by special tax, for the purpose of erecting school buildings, that shall remain in the hands of the county treasurer, after all bonds that have been or may be issued on account of such buildings shall have been redeemed, and all other indebtedness arising on account of such building shall have been liquidated, shall be placed in the county school fund of the school district for which such moneys were raised, subject to the order of the trustees of said district.

ACT 3573.

To enforce the educational rights of children. [Approved March 28, 1874. Stats. 1873-74, p. 751.]

This act was repealed by § 18 of the following act:

ACT 3574.

An act to enforce the educational rights of children and providing penalties for violation of the act.

Amended 1905, p. 388; 1907, p. 95.

§ 1. Unless excused as hereinafter provided, each parent, guardian or other person, in the state of California, having control or charge of any child between the ages of eight and fourteen years, shall be required to send such child to a public school, during the time in which a public school shall be in session, in the city or city and county or school district in which said child resides; provided, that should it be shown to the satisfaction of the board of education of the city or city and county, or of the board of trustees of the school district in which such child resides, that the child's bodily or mental condition is such as to prevent or render inadvisable attendance at school, or application to study, a certificate from any reputable physician that the child is not able to attend school, or that its attendance is inadvisable, must be taken as satisfactory evidence by any such board, or that such child is being taught in a private school, or by a private tutor, or at home by any person capable of teaching, in such branches as are usually taught in the primary and grammar schools of this state; or that any such child between the age of twelve and fourteen years has been given a permit to work by the proper judicial officer in accordance with section 2 of "An act regulating the employment and hours of labor of children, prohibiting the employment of minors under certain ages, prohibiting the employment of certain illiterate minors, providing for the enforcement hereof by the commissioner of the bureau of labor statistics and providing penalties for the violation hereof," approved February 20, 1905; or that no public school is located within two miles, by the nearest traveled road, of the residence of the child; or that the child has completed the prescribed grammar school course; then it shall be the duty of such board of education or board of trustees, upon application of the parent, or guardian or other person having control or charge of any such child to excuse such child from attendance at school, during the continuance of such defect or condition upon which such excuse is granted; and provided further, that circumstances rendering attendance impracticable or dangerous to health, owing to unusual storm or other sufficient cause, shall work an exemption from the penalties of this act. If any parent or guardian or other person having control or charge of any such child presents proof to such board of education or board of trustees, by affidavit, that he is unable to compel such child to attend school, said parent, guardian, or other person shall be exempt from the penalties of this act as regards the subsequent nonattendance at school of such child, and said child may, in the discretion of such board, be deemed a truant and subject to assignment to the parental school. [Amendment approved March 20, 1905. Stats. 1905, p. 388.]

§ 2. Any parent, guardian, or other person having control or charge of any such child, who shall fail to comply with the provisions of this act, shall, unless excused or exempted therefrom as hereinbefore provided, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction, shall be liable for the first offense, to a fine of not more than ten dollars or to imprisonment for not more than five days, and for each subsequent offense he shall be liable to a fine of not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars, or to imprisonment for not less than five days nor more than twenty-five days, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 3. The board of education of any city or city and county, or the board of trustees of any school district, shall, on the complaint of any person, make full and impartial investigation of all charges against parents or guardians or other persons having control or charge of any such child, for violation of any of the provisions of this act. If it shall appear upon such investigation that any such parent or guardian or other person has violated any of the provisions of this act, it is hereby made the duty of the secretary of such board of education, except as hereinafter provided, or the clerk of such board of trustees, to make and file in the proper court a criminal complaint against such parent, guardian or other person, charging such violation, and to see that such charge is prosecuted by the proper authorities; provided, that in cities, and in cities and counties, and in school districts having an attendance officer or officers, such officer or officers shall, under the direction of the board of education, or the city superintendent of schools, or the board of trustees, make and file such complaint, and see that such charge is prosecuted by the proper authorities. [Amendment approved March 4, 1907. Stats. 1907, p. 95. In effect immediately.]

§ 4. The board of education of any city, or city and county, may appoint and remove at pleasure one or more attendance officers of such city, or city and county, or the board of trustees of any school district having at least six hundred census children, may appoint and remove at pleasure one attendance officer, and shall fix his or their compensation, not exceeding one thousand dollars per annum for any such officer, payable from the county or special school fund of such city, city and county, or school district, and shall prescribe their duties, not inconsistent with law, and make rules and regulations for the performance thereof; provided, that in any city, or city and county, containing less than twenty thousand school census children, not more than one attendance officer shall be appointed, and in any city, or city and county, containing more than twenty thousand school census children, not more than one attendance officer shall be appointed for each twenty thousand school census children, or fraction greater than one half thereof.] [Amendment approved March 4, 1907. Stats. 1907, p. 96. In effect immediately.]

§ 5. It shall be the duty of the attendance officer, or of any peace officer or any school officer, to arrest during school hours, without warrant, any child between eight and fourteen years of age, found away from his home, and who has been reported to him by the teacher, the superintendent of schools, or other person connected with the school department or schools as a truant from instruction upon which he is lawfully required to attend within the county, city, or city and county, or school district. Such arresting officer shall forthwith deliver the child so arrested either to the parent, guardian or other person having control or charge of such child, or to the teacher from whom said child is then a truant, or if such child shall have been declared an habitual truant, he shall bring such child before a magistrate for commitment by him to a parental school, as provided in this act. The attendance officer or other arresting officer shall report promptly such arrest, and the disposition made by him of such child to the school authorities of such city, or city and county, or school district. Any child may be reported as a truant in the meaning of this act, who shall have been absent from school without valid excuse more than three days or tardy on more than three days, any absence for part of a day being regarded as a tardiness. Any child who has once been reported as a truant and who is again absent from school, without valid excuse, one or more days, or tardy on one or more days, may again be reported as a truant. Any child may be deemed an habitual truant who shall have been reported as a truant three or more times. Any child who has once been declared an habitual truant and who, in a succeeding year, is reported as a truant from school one of more days or tardy on one or more days without valid excuse, may be again declared an habitual truant. [Amendment approved March 4, 1907. Stats. 1907, p. 96. In effect immediately.]

§ 6. The board of education of any city, or of any city and county, or the board of trustees of any school district having at least six hundred census children, may establish schools in a manner hereinafter prescribed, or set apart in public school buildings for children between eight and fourteen years of age, who are habitual truants from instruction upon which they are lawfully required to attend, or who are insubordinate or disorderly during their attendance upon such instruction, or irregular in such attendance. Such school or room shall be known as a parental school. A parental school, as herein designated and provided for, shall be one of the primary or grammar schools of the city, or city and county, or school district, and the teachers therein shall have the same qualifications and be employed and paid in the same manner as in other primary and grammar schools; but such parental school shall be established and maintained specially for the instruction therein of such pupils, between the ages of eight and fourteen years, as shall be committed thereto as provided in this act, and no pupil shall be committed to, or required to attend, such school, except as in this act provided. Said board of education or board of trustees may make such special rules and regulations for the government of a parental school as shall be consistent with the provisions and purposes of this act, and not contrary to law. Such board may provide for the detention, maintenance and instruction of such children in such schools; and the county superintendent of schools, or such board, or the city superintendent of schools in any city, or city and county, or board of trustees, may, after reasonable notice to any such child, and an opportunity for the child to be heard, and with the consent of the parent, guardian or other person having control or charge of such child, order such child to attend such school, or to be detained and maintained therein for such period and under such rules and regulations as such board may prescribe, not exceeding the remainder of the school year. If such parent, guardian, or person having control or charge of such child shall not consent to such order, such child may be proceeded against under this act. If any child in any city, or city and county or school district in which a parental school may be established, shall be an habitual truant, or be irregular in attendance at school, within the meaning of these terms, as defined in this act, or shall be insubordinate or disorderly during attendance at school, it shall be the duty of the attendance officer, or of the secretary of the board of education or clerk of the board of trustees if there be no attendance officer, to make and file a complaint against such child, in the proper court, charging the fact, and to see that such charge is prosecuted by the proper authority; and if the court, upon the hearing of such complaint, shall find that such charge is sustained, the court shall render judgment that such child be committed to, and be detained and maintained in, a parental school in such city, or city and county or school district for a term not to exceed the remainder of the current school year; provided that, if any child in any district of a county where there is not a parental school shall be an habitual truant, or be irregular in attendance at school, within the meaning of those terms as defined in this act, or shall be insubordinate or disorderly during attendance at school, it shall be the duty of the county superintendent of schools to make and file a complaint against such child, in the superior court of such county, charging the facts; and if the court, upon the hearing of said complaint, shall find that such charge is sustained by the evidence, the court shall render judgment that such child shall be detained and maintained in a parental school, if there be one in such county, during the remainder of the school term, and if there be no parental school in such county, the court shall render judgment that the parent, guardian or person having the control or charge of such child shall deliver such child at the beginning of each school day for the remainder of the school term, at the school from which such child is then a truant; provided, that if the parent, guardian, or other person having control or charge of such child shall, within three days after the rendition of such judgment, execute a good and sufficient bond to the board of education of the city, or city and county, or board of trustees of the district, with sufficient sureties, in the sum of two hundred dollars, conditioned that such child will, during the remainder of such current school year, regularly attend some public or private school in such city, or city and county, or school district and not be insubordinate or disorderly during such attendance, such bond to be approved by the judge of said court, and be filed with the secretary of the board of education or clerk of the board of trustees, then such court shall make an order suspending the execution of such judgment so long as the condition of such bond shall be complied with. If the condition of such bond be violated, such court, upon receiving satisfactory evidence of the fact in any action brought therefor shall make an order declaring such bond forfeited and directing such judgment to be thenceforth enforced. Such board of education or board of trustees may, at any time, within one year after any such bond shall be declared forfeited, have execution issued against any or all of the parties to such bond, to collect the amount thereof; and all moneys paid or collected on such bond shall be paid over to the parental school fund of such city, or city and county, or school district. No fees shall be charged or received by any court or officer in any proceeding under this section. The confinement of any child in a parental school shall be conducted with a view to the improvement of the child and to its restoration, as soon as practicable, to the school which he would, if not so confined, be required to attend. The city superintendent of schools, or, if there be no city superintendent, the board of education of any city, or city and county, or county superintendent of schools, shall have authority, in their discretion, to parole at any time any child committed to, or ordered to attend, a parental school, except when such commitment shall be by judgment or order of a court; and when such commitment of any child shall be by judgment or order of a court, such court may, on the recommendation of the city superintendent of schools, of the board of education or county superintendent of schools, make an order paroling such child, upon such terms and conditions as shall be specified in the order. The expense incurred by any city, or city and county, or school district in purchasing or renting a school site, erecting or renting a building and equipping the same, for the maintenance of a parental school, shall be paid out of funds other than those collected for the maintenance of schools. The salaries of teachers and the expense for all school supplies in a parental school shall be paid out of the same funds from which similar salaries and expense are paid for primary and grammar schools, but all other expense incurred in the maintenance of such parental schools shall be paid out of the parental school fund. [Amendment approved March 4, 1907. Stats. 1907, p. 97. In effect immediately.]

§ 7. Whenever any board of education shall determine that it is necessary or expedient for the city or city and county to establish and maintain a parental school, said board shall furnish to the city council, or other governing body of such city or city and county, all necessary and required information and statistics, and if, after consideration, such city council or other governing body grants its consent for the establishment of such parental school, then the board of education shall furnish to the authorities whose duty it is to levy taxes in such city, or city and county, thirty days before the time specified by law for fixing the annual tax rate, an estimate of the cost of purchasing or renting a suitable site, and also an estimate of the cost of renting or erecting a suitable building and equipping the same for occupancy as a parental school, and the cost to the city or city and county, other than for salaries of teachers and for school supplies, of conducting the school for the remainder of the current school year. When, pursuant to such consent by such governing body, such estimates shall have been so made and furnished by the board of education of any city, or city and county, it is hereby made the duty of the authorities whose duty it shall be to levy in such city, or city and county, at the time of levying taxes, to levy a special tax upon all taxable property of said city, or city and county, sufficient in its judgment to provide the facilities requested by the board of education, and for which such estimates shall have been so furnished. It shall be the duty of the board of education, yearly, thereafter, to present to the authorities of the city, or city and county, whose duty it is to levy taxes, on or before the first Monday in July, an estimate of the moneys required for conducting the parental school for the school year, other than for the salaries of teachers and for school supplies. When such estimate shall have been so presented, it shall be the duty of the said authorities to levy a special tax upon the taxable property of said city, or city and county, sufficient to maintain such school for the year, exclusive of salaries of teachers and expense of school supplies. All taxes in this act provided for shall be computed, entered upon the tax roll and collected, in the same manner as other taxes are computed, entered and collected, and when collected shall be placed in a separate fund, to be known as the "Parental School Fund," and shall be paid out on the order of the board of education for the purposes set forth in this act; provided, that all moneys so collected for the purchase of sites or buildings, or the erection or equipment of buildings for parental school purposes, shall be placed in a separate fund, to be known as the "Parental School Building Fund," and shall be used solely for the purpose or purposes for which collected, except that after such purpose or purposes shall have been fully accomplished, the residue of such fund, if any, may be transferred to said parental school fund.

§ 7 1/2. The board of trustees of any school district wherein a parental school may be established under the provisions of this act, and whenever such board deems it proper, may, for the purpose of raising money for the establishment and maintenance of a parental school for said district, proceed under the provisions of Article XIX, Chapter III, Title III, of Part III, of the Political Code of this state, to raise moneys for such purpose, and the moneys so raised shall be paid into the county treasury, and shall constitute a "parental school fund," for such district. The moneys of such fund shall be used for no other purpose than herein indicated. Money shall be drawn from said fund by the trustees of the district in the same manner as money is drawn from other school funds. [New section approved March 4, 1907. Stats. 1907, p. 99. In effect immediately.]

§ 8. Two or more school districts or cities may unite in the following manner, to form a joint district for the maintenance of a joint parental school. When any board of education or board of school trustees has secured, in the manner as set forth in section 7 of this act, the consent of the legislative body of the city or school district, in which said board of education or board of school trustees holds office, for the union of two or more districts to form a joint parental school district, said board of education or board of trustees shall transmit such information to the board of supervisors of the county of which said city or school district or districts forms a part, setting forth at the same time the cities or districts with which said city or district seeks to unite for the maintenance of a joint parental school. When such information has been received by the board of supervisors from all the cities or school districts seeking to be united, it is hereby made the duty of the board of supervisors, by resolution, to declare such cities or school districts united for the maintenance of a joint parental school, to be known as the joint parental school district of (give the names of the school districts uniting). When the districts have been so united, the boards of education or boards of trustees of the cities or school districts so uniting shall appoint a board of trustees for the joint parental school district, to consist of five members (unless the number of cities or school districts uniting exceeds five), who shall be appointed from the membership of the boards of the several districts or cities uniting, by the respective boards in approximate proportion to the census children between five and seventeen years of age, in the districts uniting; provided however, that each district shall be represented by at least one member on the board of trustees of the joint parental school district. The members so appointed, to serve for the remainder of the term of office for which they were elected on their respective boards of education or boards of trustees, and when vacancies occur on said board of trustees of joint parental school districts, they shall be filled by the board making the original appointment. The superintendent of schools of each of the cities or school districts uniting, shall be ex officio members of the board of trustees of the joint parental school district, without the right to vote. In the management of a parental school within a school district, city, or city and county, the right to transport pupils to and from school at public expense, when, in the judgment of the board of education, or board of school trustees, the interest of the pupil demands it, is hereby conferred upon such boards. All the powers and duties by any section of this act conferred or imposed upon the boards of school trustees or boards of education of any city, or city and county, in the management of, and the securing of, funds for a parental school within a city or school district, are hereby conferred upon and imposed upon the board of trustees of any joint parental school district in the management of and the securing of funds for the support of a joint parental school; provided, however, that in estimating the expense of maintenance of a joint parental school the amount of money needed for the payment of teachers' salaries and for the furnishing of school supplies, shall be included in the estimate of expenses; and provided further, that the estimates shall be transmitted to the board of supervisors of the county of which the joint parental school district forms a part. When such estimates shall have been so transmitted, it is hereby made the duty of the board of supervisors to levy a special tax upon the taxable property within the boundaries of the joint parental school district, sufficient to provide the facilities requested by the board of trustees of the joint parental school district, and for which such estimate shall have been furnished, and yearly thereafter when the estimates of the total expense of the maintenance of the joint parental school and increased facilities shall have been furnished the board of supervisors, it shall be the duty of said board to levy a special tax sufficient to maintain the school for the year. All taxes in this act provided shall be computed and entered upon the tax-roll and collected in the manner prescribed for the collection of taxes in section 7 of this act; provided, that all moneys so collected shall be collected by the county tax collector and apportioned to the credit of the joint parental school district, and placed in the fund for which they were specially collected. If for sites or buildings, to be placed in a fund known as the joint parental school building fund, to be used exclusively for the purposes for which they were collected, the same as set forth in section 7 of this act. The board of trustees of joint parental school districts shall organize, by the election of one of their number as chairman, and by the election of a secretary who shall be the city superintendent of schools, or the secretary of a board of education or the clerk of one of the boards of education or boards of trustees of the cities, or school districts united, and such secretary shall serve without additional salary. All moneys in a joint parental school fund shall be paid out on the order of the board of trustees of the joint parental school district for the purposes herein set forth, and in the same manner that funds are paid from the ordinary school funds of a school district.

§ 9. All fines paid as penalites for the violation of any of the provisions of this act shall, when collected or received, be paid over by the justice or officer receiving the same to the treasurer of the city, or city and county in which the offense was committed, to be placed to the credit of the parental school fund of such city, or city and county, if there be such a fund, otherwise to the credit of the general school fund of such city, or city and county, or to the county treasurer, to be placed to the credit of the school fund of the school district in which the offense was committed.

§ 10. Any parent or guardian of any deaf, dumb, or blind child, legally entitled to admission to said institution, shall send such child to said institution until such child shall have been therein for five years, or shall have reached the age of majority, unless such child shall be excused from such attendance by the board of education or board of trustees of the city, city and county, or school district in which such child resides, for the reason that the child's bodily or mental condition is such as to prevent or render inadvisable attendance at said institution, or for the reason that such child is receiving proper instruction at home or in some public or private school. Any parent or guardian failing to comply with the requirements of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punishable as provided in section 2 of this act.

§ 11. Any justice of the peace, or recorder of the city or city and county or any justice of the peace of the township in which the school district is located, or in which the offense is committed, shall have jurisdiction of all offenses committed under the provisions of this act.

§ 12. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after July first, nineteen hundred and three.

§ 13. An act entitled an act to enforce the educational rights of children, approved March twenty-eight, eighteen hundred and seventy-four, and all acts and parts of acts in conflict with any of the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

the Golden West, Native Daughters of the Golden West, Foresters of America or other kindred organizations not directly associated with the public schools of the state.

§ 2. Boards of school trustees, and boards of education shall have full power and authority to enforce the provisions of this act and to make and enforce all rules and regulations needful for the government and discipline of the schools under their charge. They are hereby required to enforce the provisions of this act by suspending, or, if necessary, expelling a pupil in any elementary or secondary school who refuses or neglects to obey any or all such rules or regulations.

ACT 3582.

An act to regulate the issue of bonds of school districts in cities of the fifth class, and school districts partly within and partly without such cities of the fifth class.

[Approved March 20, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 528.]

School bonds, in cities of fifth class.

§ 1. The board of education of any school district in a city of the fifth class, or of any school district which embraces territory, a portion of which is within and a portion of which is without such city of the fifth class, may, when in their judgment it is advisable, and must when requested by the board of trustees of such city, call an election and submit to the electors of the district whether the bonds of such district shall be issued and sold for the purpose of raising money to purchase school lots, and for building or purchasing or repairing one or more schoolhouses, and supplying the same with furniture, necessary apparatus, and improving the grounds, and for liquidating any indebtedness already incurred for such purposes.

Election, how called.

§ 2. Such election must be called by posting notices, signed by the board of education, in three of the most public places in the district, for not less than twenty days before the election, and by publishing such notices in some newspaper published in such city, not less than once a week for three successive weeks.

Notice to contain, what.

§ 3. Such notices must contain:

1. The time and place of holding such election.
2. The names of one inspector and two judges in each voting precinct in said district, to conduct the same.
3. The hours during the day, not less than six hours, in which the polls will be open.

The amount and denomination of the bonds, the rate of interest, and the number of years, not exceeding forty, the whole or any part of said bonds are to run.

General election law to govern.

§ 4. Such election shall be held, in all respects as nearly as practicable, in conformity with the general election law; provided, that no particular form of ballot shall be required, excepting that the words to appear on the ballots, which shall be "Bonds—Yes," or "Bonds—No"; nor shall any informalities, not amounting to fraud in conducting such election, invalidate the same.

Canvass of returns.

§ 5. On the seventh day after said election, at 1 o'clock P. M., the returns having been made to the board of education, the board must meet and canvass said returns, and if it appears that two-thirds of the votes cast at said election were in favor of issuing such bonds, then the board shall cause an entry of that fact to be made upon its minutes, and shall certify to the board of supervisors of the county in which said district is located, the proceedings had in the premises; and thereupon said board of supervisors shall be and they are hereby authorized and directed to issue the bonds of such district to the number and amount provided in such proceedings, payable out of the bond fund of such district (naming the same), and that the money shall be raised by taxation upon the taxable property in said district for the redemption of said bonds, and the payment of the interest thereon; provided, that the total amount of bonds so issued shall not exceed five per cent of the taxable property of the district, as shown by the last equalized assessment of the property in such school district.

Form of bonds.

§ 6. The board of supervisors, by an order entered upon its minutes, shall prescribe the form of said bonds, and of the interest coupons attached thereto, and must fix the time when the whole or any part of the principal of said bonds shall be payable, which shall not be more than forty years from the date thereof.

How sold; interest rate.

§ 7. Said bonds must be payable in gold coin of the United States, must be signed by the president of the board of supervisors, and countersigned by the clerk of the county, who must affix the county seal thereto; must not bear a greater rate of interest than eight per cent, said interest to be payable semi-annually in like gold coin; and said bonds must be sold in the manner prescribed by the board of supervisors, but for not less than par, in gold coin of the United States, and the proceeds of the sale thereof must be deposited in the county treasury to the credit of the building fund of said school district, and be drawn out for the purpose aforesaid, as other school moneys are drawn out.

Tax levy.

§ 8. The county board of supervisors shall annually, at the time of levying taxes for county purposes, levy a tax upon the taxable property within such district, sufficient to pay the annual interest on such bonds and to pay the principal in equal annual installments; but the order directing the issue of bonds may prescribe that the payment of the principal may be deferred for not more than five years. All moneys so collected shall be paid into the county treasury and used for the payment of interest and principal of such bonds, and for no other purpose. The county auditor shall issue his warrant for the payment of interest and installments, and cancel all coupons and bonds redeemed and file them with the county treasurer. The provisions of this section shall, so far as applicable, govern any bonds that may have been heretofore issued by such school districts.

Guarantee to bond-holder.

§ 9. If payment of any coupon or bond lawfully issued by any such school district should, after presentation and demand of payment at the office of the county treasurer, be refused, the owner may file such bond, together with all unpaid interest coupons, with the state controller, taking his receipt therefor, and the same shall be registered in the state controller's office; and the state board of equalization shall, at their next session, and at each annual equalization thereafter, add to the state tax to [be] levied in said district a sufficient rate to raise the amount of principal and interest past due prior to the next levy, and the same shall be levied and collected as a part of the state tax, and paid into the state treasury, and passed to the special credit of such district bond tax, and shall be paid by warrants, as the payments mature, to the holder [of] such registered obligations, as shown by the register in the office of the state controller, until the same shall be fully satisfied and discharged; any balance then remaining shall be transmitted to the treasurer of the county in which is situated the district by which such bonds were issued, and shall be placed by the county treasurer to the credit of the general school fund of said district.

§ 1. Boards of school trustees and city boards of education are hereby authorized to establish health and development supervision in the public schools of this state, and to employ an examining staff and other employees necessary to carry on said work and to fix the compensation for the same. Whenever practicable the examining staff for health and development supervision in the public schools of the state shall consist of both educators and physicians.

Purposes of supervision.

§ 2. The purposes of health and development supervision in the public schools of the state are hereby defined as follows:

1. To secure the correction of developmental and acquired defects of both pupils and teachers which interfere with health, growth and efficiency, by complete physical examination. Said examinations shall occur annually or as often as may be determined by the board of school trustees or city board of education.

2. To adjust school activities to health and growth needs and to development processes and to attend to all matters pertaining to school hygiene.

3. To bring about a special study of mental retardation and deviation of pupils in the public schools.

Examining staff, qualifications of.

§ 3. The requirements for certification of members of the examining staff for health and development supervision in the public schools of the state shall be as follows:

For educators: A life diploma of California of the high school or grammar school grade and a health and development certificate which shall authorize the holder of such certificate to conduct the work authorized by this act, in those grades specified by the life diploma held.

For physicians: A California certificate to practice medicine and surgery and a health and development certificate.

Certificates, granting of.

§ 4. County or city and county boards of education are hereby authorized to grant health and development certificates to holders of life diplomas of California of the high school or grammar school grade or to holders of California certificates to practice medicine and surgery who shall present with such life diplomas or with such certificates to practice medicine and surgery a recommendation from the state board of education certifying special fitness for the work specified in this act.

Election for bond issue.

§ 3. After a city or incorporated town has been divided into sewer districts, an election may be held, in the manner provided for the issue of city bonds, to determine whether bonds for the building or extension of a sewer system in any such district shall be issued. At such election, only electors residing within such district shall be entitled to vote. If a majority of the electors voting at such election shall vote in the affirmative, the proper municipal officers shall issue and sell such bonds, substantially in the manner provided for the issue of city bonds. But the interest and sinking fund for the payment of such bonds shall be derived exclusively from taxes levied upon property within such district. All provisions of law relating to the payment of interest and sinking fund for city bonds shall govern, so far as applicable, the issue of sewer district bonds.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

ACT 3622.

An act providing for the inspection of sheep, the appointment of a board of sheep commissioners and for the appointment of inspectors, prescribing their powers and duties, fixing their compensation, and providing for the raising of funds to pay the same, and providing penalties for the violation hereof.

[Approved March 23, 1907. Stats. 1907, p. 905.]

Board of sheep commissioners created.

§ 1. That a state board of sheep commissioners be and the same is hereby created.

Of whom board shall consist. Oath. Bond. Salaries. Qualifications. Meetings.

§ 2. The state board of sheep commissioners, hereinafter called the board, shall consist of six members, one of whom shall be the state veterinarian, acting as ex officio member, and five others to be appointed by the governor, all of whom shall be experienced wool-growers, no two of whom shall be from the same county, and to hold their office for four years or until their successors are duly appointed and qualified. Each of said commissioners, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall take and subscribe to the constitutional oath of office and enter into a bond with at least two sureties in the penal sum of twenty-five hundred dollars ($2500), payable to the state of California, and conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office, which bond shall be approved by the governor and filed in the office of the secretary of state. The members of the said board shall each receive for his services six hundred dollars ($600) per annum and actual expenses while in the discharge of his duties. Said salary and expense shall be paid from the state treasury. Each member of said board shall be a qualified elector from the county from which he is chosen and an experienced wool-grower within the state, and must reside during his term of office within the state. Said board must hold their meetings quarterly and oftener if so requested by any member of the board.

Organization. Reports. Powers of. Estimate for tax levy.

§3. The board shall elect one of its members president, and the board shall appoint a secretary, prescribe his duties and fix his salary, which shall not exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) per annum. The board shall maintain an office. The maintenance of such office and the secretary's salary shall be paid from the state treasury in the same manner as the salaries and expenses of state officers. The board shall audit all bills of salaries and expenses incurred in the enforcement of this act that may be payable from the sheep inspection fund, and if found correct, shall certify the same to the board of examiners. The board shall make an annual report to the governor on or before the 15th day of December in each year, giving a statement of the transactions of the board and facts relating to the condition of the sheep industry in this state. The board shall have power to order an inspection for quarantine of any sheep in the state, compel dipping at such times and as often as it deems necessary to insure the eradication of "scab," and divide the state into such districts as may be necessary for the enforcement of this act. The board shall have power to make, adopt and enforce such rules and regulations (not in conflict with the provisions of the state constitution or the laws of this state) as the board may deem necessary for the enforcement of the provisions of this act. It shall be the duty of the state board of sheep commissioners to furnish, on or before the first Monday in September of each year, to the board of supervisors of each county in this state an estimate of the amount of money in the sheep inspection fund, and the estimated value of the sheep in each county, and the estimated rate of tax on each one hundred dollars of such valuation necessary to raise sufficient funds for paying the expenses to be incurred under the provisions of this act during the next year.

Supervisors to levy tax.

§4. The board of supervisors of each county in this state, at the time of the annual levy of county taxes must levy a tax, not to exceed ten mills on the dollar of the assessed valuation of the sheep in their respective counties. Said tax shall be levied and collected in the same manner as state and county taxes, and the county treasurer of each county shall report the same to the state controller and pay the same into the state treasury in the same manner and at the same time as state taxes are reported and paid. The said taxes shall be kept in the state treasury as a separate fund to be known as "the sheep inspection fund."

Duty of county auditor and treasurer.

§5. The county auditor must, on or before the first Monday in August of each year, prepare from the assessment book of each year, as corrected by the board of supervisors of each county and the state board of equalization, a statement showing the total number of all sheep assessed and the valuation of the same. The county treasurer must notify the state board of sheep commissioners of all moneys forwarded to the state treasurer belonging to the state sheep inspection fund at the time said moneys are forwarded to the state treasury. Also, make final report to the said board at the time he makes settlement with the state controller.

Employment of inspectors. Per diem of. Records.

§6. The board shall have charge of the enforcement of the provisions of this act, and of all rules and regulations made and adopted by it. The board shall employ such inspectors as may be necessary, and said inspectors shall file a bond in the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000), payable to the state, and conditioned for the faithful performance of their duties, and said bond shall be approved by the board. Such inspectors shall receive five dollars ($5) per diem for each day's work actually performed, to be paid from the sheep inspection fund. The board must keep a book to be known as the inspection book in which they must enter their official acts. Such record must show every flock of sheep inspected, and the number contained therein, the time when and the place where the same was inspected.

Rights of inspectors. Quarantine.

§7. The inspectors and any member of the board shall have the right at all times to enter any premises, farm, field, pen, slaughter-house, building or car where any sheep are quartered for the purpose of examining them, in order to determine whether they are affected with the disease known as scabies. The board shall have the power to quarantine any corral, pen, slaughter-house, building or car where sheep may have been or are being handled, and compel the cleaning and disinfecting of the same when deemed necessary for the purposes of this act. When owners or persons in charge of such places shall, after forty-eight hours' written notice, refuse to clean or disinfect them, the inspector shall have the right to take charge of such places, cause the same to be cleaned and disinfected, and the expense of such cleaning and disinfection must be paid by the person in charge or the owner, and shall be a lien upon such premises, corrals, pens, slaughter-houses, buildings, cars, etc., until such expense is paid.

Reports of inspectors.

§ 8. Inspectors shall report to the board in writing and as often and at such times as may be requested by such board.

Duties of inspectors.

§ 9. Each inspector must inspect all the sheep within the district assigned to him, when so ordered by the board, and must make and issue a certificate or bill of health for all sheep whose owners have complied with the law and the orders, rules and regulations made and adopted by the board, describing the sheep, giving the number, together with the marks and brands thereon, which will entitle the owner or agent in charge to pass with such sheep from one district to another in this state. The inspector shall immediately file with the board in duplicate all certificates issued by him.

Scabies, when sheep are affected by.

§ 10. When sheep are found affected with scabies they must be quarantined where found, and the inspector must define the place, the limits within which such sheep may be grazed, herded or driven, and such sheep must be held in quarantine until pronounced cured from such disease by the state board of sheep commissioners. The expense of dipping, hand-dressing, spotting, feeding, and taking care of all sheep quarantined under the provisions of this act, must be paid for by the owner or agent in charge of such sheep; and such expense shall be a lien upon such sheep until paid.

Dipping of affected sheep.

§ 11. All sheep in the state affected with or exposed to "scabies" must be dipped at such time or times as may be ordered by the board; such dipping shall be done under the supervision of an inspector and the dip used in all such cases must be one approved by the state board of sheep commissioners; provided, however, that ewes due to lamb within thirty days shall not be subject to the provisions of this section.

Sheep in transit from other states.

§ 12. When any owner or person in charge of sheep shall bring such sheep into this state, upon entering from an adjoining state or territory for the purpose of grazing, he shall notify the board or any inspector in writing, of such fact immediately after entering the state, stating the time when, the place where such sheep did enter and the number of such sheep; provided, however, that the owner or person in charge of sheep in transit on the cars shall not be required to give notice unless they shall remain in the state or are unloading to feed or rest for a longer period than forty-eight hours.

Moving affected sheep.

§ 13. In no case shall any sheep affected with scabies be moved along the public highway or across the lands of another without a written permit from the board or an inspector.

Failure to observe rules of board.

§14. Any person owning or having charge of any public dipping vat, or vessel in which sheep are dipped, and every owner of sheep or agent in charge of them, who shall refuse or neglect after notice in writing to dip all sheep in the manner prescribed in the preceding sections or who shall willfully and intentionally fail to observe any and all rules and regulations made and adopted by the board in accordance with the provisions of this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty (50) dollars.

Claims, how paid.

§15. All claims for salaries of the members of the board shall be paid out of the sheep inspection fund at the same time and in the same manner as the salaries of state officers are paid. All other claims and expenses authorized by this act shall be executed, approved, audited, allowed and paid at the same times and in the same manner as other claims against the state.

Misdemeanor.

§16. Any person who violates any provision of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine not less than fifty dollars ($50).

ACT 3623.

An act restricting the powers of boards of supervisors in the matter of imposing licenses upon the business of raising, grazing, herding and pasturing sheep.

An act to create for the state of California a department of engineering, to provide for the appointment of the officers and employees thereof, defining its powers and prescribing the duties of said department, its officers and employees, to provide the compensation of such officers and employees, to make an appropriation for the salaries and other expenses for the remainder of the fifty-eighth fiscal year and making certain acts a felony and repealing an act

§ 1. The owners or holders of claims or demands against this state arising under the provisions of an act of the legislature entitled "An act fixing a bounty on coyote scalps," approved March thirty-first, eighteen hundred and ninety-one, may, within twelve months from the passage of this act, bring suit upon their said claims or demands in any superior court of this state, and prosecute the same to final judgment. The rules of practice in civil cases shall apply to such suits, except as herein otherwise provided, with the right of appeal to either party.

§ 2. Service of summons in such suits shall be made on the attorney general. It shall be the duty of the attorney general to defend all such suits; and upon his written demand, made at or before the time of answering, the place of trial of any such suit must be changed to the county of Sacramento.

§ 3. All costs in any suit brought hereunder shall be paid by the plaintiff in the action; and in case judgment therein be for the plaintiff, it shall be for the amount actually found due to the plaintiff, without interest thereon and without costs; and such judgment shall bear no interest after rendition.

§ 4. It shall be the duty of the attorney general to report to the legislature at its next ensuing session all final judgments recovered against the state hereunder, not theretofore reported.

§ 5. This act shall take effect immediately.

be known as a consulting board to the department of state engineering upon all matters that affect irrigation, drainage and river improvement.

Such board shall be appointed from citizens of either the Sacramento or San Joaquin valleys. Such board shall meet at such times as the work requires and shall meet at least once in two months. They may report to the advisory board upon all matters relating to irrigation, drainage and river improvement together with their conclusion thereon, and may render a report to the advisory board upon all plans for river improvements.

State engineer. Duties.

§ 2. Upon this act becoming effective the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate shall appoint a competent civil engineer as the head of the department of engineering, and such person shall be known as the state engineer. The state engineer shall devote his entire time to the services of the state and shall not actively engage in any other pursuit while serving as such state official. He shall have charge of all the engineering and structural work of the department and may receive by and through the approval of the advisory board such special assistance of a technical character beyond the employees hereinafter specified as they shall allow for the proper conduct of the business of the department.

Term of office.

§ 3. The state engineer shall hold office for the term of four years from and after the date of qualification, provided, however, when a vacancy occurs in the office of state engineer from whatever cause, the governor shall fill, by appointment, said term for the unexpired part thereof only. Immediately after qualifying, the advisory board shall meet and organize and shall adopt a seal for the authentication of its acts and records.

Bond of engineer.

§ 4. Within twenty days after receiving notice of appointment the person appointed as state engineer shall file a bond in the sum of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) with at least two sufficient sureties thereon or with a surety company of recognized standing for the faithful performance of his duties which bond must be approved by the governor and filed with the secretary of state and he shall qualify by taking the oath of office as prescribed for other state officers.

Office of department.

§ 5. The office of the department of engineering shall be in the state capitol; and the secretary of state shall assign to the department, for its use, such rooms as may be necessary for its accommodation. All of the regular meetings of the advisory board shall be held at such office. The said board may, however, hold such special meetings at such places as the duties of the department, or the best interests of the state may require. The state board of harbor commissioners for the port of San Francisco shall assign proper rooms in the Ferry Building at San Francisco for the use of one assistant state engineer and his necessary office help.

Assistants to state engineer. Salaries. Eligibility.

§ 6. The department of engineering by and through the state engineer shall have the power to appoint two assistant engineers, one state architect, one architectural designer, three architectural draughtsmen, two engineers draughtsmen, one testing engineer, one mechanical engineer, two filing clerks, one blue-print pressman, a secretary, two clerks and stenographers and one porter and messenger, and such additional technical assistance and help as the advisory board may in their judgment deem necessary, and to fix their salaries and compensation, who shall hold office at the pleasure of the appointive power, and who must be confirmed by the advisory board before proceeding with their duties. Such officers and employes shall not be eligible for appointment unless they possess special qualifications for and are competent to perform the duties devolving upon them, and they shall devote their entire time to the service of the department. [Amendment approved March 20, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 558. In effect immediately.]

Advisory board, meetings, and duties. Plans for public works. May provide for work by day labor.

§ 7. The advisory board shall meet at such times as the work of the department may require and shall meet at least once in two months. Said board shall advise with the state engineer and state architect as necessity requires and may advise with the boards of managers or trustees of the various state institutions requiring engineering or structural work and with any state commission regarding all works wherein such commission may be interested. The advisory board shall approve all plans and specifications for all public work and shall determine the kind, quality and extent of all public work of the state. All boards of managers, trustees and state commissions of state institutions shall apply to the department of engineering for plans and specifications for all public works coming under their charge and before accepting any work done under contract shall have a certificate from the state engineer who shall examine and certify to its completion. All public work coming under the full control of the department of engineering may upon the discretion of the advisory board be either contracted for or done by day's labor. The advisory board shall have the power, on the approval of plans and specifications by the state engineer, to direct whether any building or structure at any state institution shall be let by contract in part or in whole, or whether said building or structure shall be built by days labor in part or in whole, but after approval of the plans, specifications and estimates by the advisory board of the department of engineering, if, in the opinion of such department of engineering, the acceptance of any bid or bids shall not be for the best interests of the state, or if in the opinion of such department of engineering the acceptance of any further bids after the rejection of all bids submitted shall not be for the best interests of the state, it may be legal for them to direct that the work or improvement of any state building, road or any other improvement be done upon a day's labor basis. Whenever any public work to be done by the state except work on property of the state on the water front of the city and county of San Francisco under the jurisdiction of the board of state harbor commissioners is placed upon a day's labor basis, it is especially exempted from any law on or relating to contracts of the state. The full control of such day's labor work is placed under the department of engineering and said department shall do all things necessary to properly carry out the work. When such work is so placed upon a day's labor basis, any appropriation which is now available, or which is now or may be appropriated to become available, is by this act taken out of the control of any board of trustees, directors, commissioners, officers or other body to whom it has been appropriated, and placed exclusively under the control of the department of engineering, and the claims for said work shall be approved by the department of engineering, and audited by the board of examiners, upon whose audit the controller shall draw his warrant and the treasurer shall pay the same. The department of engineering shall have the power to receive informal bids upon any subdivision of the day's labor work and the state engineer may upon the approval of the advisory board enter into an agreement for any such subdivisional work of the day's labor work. [Amendment approved March 20, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 560. In effect immediately.]

Supersedes board of public works. River and harbor improvements.

§ 8. The full control of all public work being done or now completed by the board of public works shall be assumed by the department of engineering and all public work done by the state, except as otherwise provided for by law, shall be under the full control of the said department. It shall be the duty of the department of engineering whenever required by the advisory board to make examinations of lands subject to inundation and overflow by flood waters and of the waters causing such inundation or overflow and plans and estimates of the cost for works to regulate and control such flood waters. All matters of drainage, and improving and rectifying river channels and other work on any river or slough flowing into San Francisco Bay, San Pablo Bay and Suisun Bay, and also the tide waters flowing into said bays, shall be placed under the management and control of the department of engineering whenever the law provides therefor. The department of engineering shall have charge of all expenditures, unless otherwise provided by law for all public works relating to general river and harbor improvements, including reclamation and drainage of lands. It may purchase, construct and operate one or more dredges or any other needed appliances to promote or properly carry out the work of the department. The state engineer in the name of the state of California, may obtain or condemn any right of way necessary for any construction herein named and shall proceed if necessary, to condemn under the terms of the Code of Civil Procedure relating to such proceedings. The department shall have the power to employ such additional help for the performance of the work of this section as the advisory board shall order and all money now appropriated to the board of public works and remaining unexpended shall be used for the purposes intended by the law, by the department of engineering, and the state controller shall transfer said funds to the credit of the department of engineering. Wherever under any statutes of this state any duty or obligation the performance of which is imposed upon the commissioner of public works or the auditing board to the commissioner of public works, the same shall be assumed and the performance of the same shall devolve upon the department of engineering.

Control of state highways.

§ 9. The department of engineering shall take full possession and control of all roads which have been declared state highways enumerated as follows: The Lake Tahoe wagon road, the Sonora and Mono road, the Mono Lake Basin road and all other state highways which may hereafter be constructed and all public work being done or now completed by the department of highways. All expenditures by the state for highway purposes except as otherwise hereafter provided by law shall be under the full charge of the department of engineering, and all moneys appropriated for such purpose shall be made payable upon the proper order of said department and shall be audited by the state board of examiners. The department of engineering, through its state engineer, shall have the power to obtain or condemn necessary rights of way for the change of any existing state highway or for any road placed under the department's charge by law unless otherwise provided. It shall have power to alter or change the route of a road and shall do all things necessary, and obtain all tools and implements required to properly care for and manage the roads under the charge of the department. The department may, in its discretion, appoint superintendents of the state highways who shall hold office at the pleasure of the appointive power. They shall, however, be confirmed by the advisory board and shall be specially qualified in road work. All unexpended balances of money now existing by law for improvements or maintenance of whatever kind under the department of highways, and the Lake Tahoe wagon road commissioner shall be placed under the control of the department of engineering, and the state controller shall transfer said funds to the credit of the department of engineering. Wherever under any statutes of this state any duty or obligation the performance of which is imposed upon the department of highways, the same shall be assumed and the performance of the same shall devolve upon the department of engineering.

Examine highway conditions. Analyze road materials. Forms of books.

§ 10. The department of engineering shall make examination into existing highway conditions in the state of California, and shall, furthermore, make such investigations within the state as will put at the service of the state the most approved methods of highway improvement. It shall supply, on request, without charge, any information relative to highways required by any county or district official having care of and authority over highways within this state. It shall collect and collate data relating to the geological formation of the state in so far as it relates to material suitable for highway construction, and make analyses and tests of such material as it may deem suitable for highway uses, with the view of determining the value of the same for such purposes. All data so collected, together with such other matters of value or interest to the people of the state, shall be published in bulletins, or upon maps or diagrams, or in other proper form, or in the biennial report of the department, as it, in its discretion, shall determine. The department shall prepare and adopt styles and forms of books for use by officials, in which to keep account of the expenditure of highway money and all other records or proceedings relating to highways. It shall prepare such forms as may be necessary for use in connection with opening, abandoning, altering, locating, constructing, maintaining, obtaining title to, or otherwise relating to proposed state highways; and such books and forms, when so adopted, shall be the standard for use in the state. Copies of them shall be forwarded to the various officials who are charged with keeping or using the same, and such officials shall immediately prepare books and forms after the style shown by such standard, and shall thereafter use them exclusively for the purposes for which they are intended. It shall be the duty of the department to adopt such general forms for the surveying of state highways, mapping, and keeping of the notes thereof, and the permanent marking of the same on the ground, as it shall deem necessary, and shall issue instructions defining such general forms and markings to the person having charge of the making of such surveys; and it shall thereafter be the duty of such persons to follow the methods prescribed in such instructions. The department of engineering, in performance of its duties, shall have the power to call upon any state, county, or district official to furnish it with any information contained in his office which relates to or is in any way necessary to the proper performance of the work of said department; and it is hereby made the duty of such officials to furnish such information without cost.

Architectural work of state.

§ 11. All architectural work of the department shall be under the charge of the state architect, and it shall be the duty of said architect to make plans and specifications and estimates for all state building work. He shall, in company with the state engineer, visit and inspect all completed work and shall certify to the state engineer its proper or improper completion. The state architect shall have general charge under the state engineer, of the erection of all buildings and must have an inspector at each building during the whole time of its construction.

One assistant engineer to be assigned to San Francisco harbor. Register of work. Draughtsman to harbor board.

§ 12. One assistant state engineer shall be assigned to the state board of harbor commissioners at San Francisco, where he shall have an office.

He shall prepare such plans and specifications as the board may direct and if adopted and the work ordered by the board to be done, must superintend its construction. He must give constant attention to the condition of the seawall and thoroughfare, of the sheds, wharves, piers and landings, of the streets or parts thereof under the jurisdiction of the board and when repairs are needed, must forthwith report to the board in writing their nature and extent, and if ordered by the board, must have the same done at once. He must keep himself informed as to the depth of water in the various docks and slips and report to the board from time to time what dredging is required. He must keep a register properly indexed, showing the date, place and character of every piece of work done and dock dredged, when begun and finished, with proper descriptions and drawings. He shall do all engineering work required by the said board of harbor commissioners. Said assistant engineer shall be subject to the control, at all times, of the state engineer, and a copy of all work under his charge as assistant engineer shall be filed in the office of the department of engineering. A complete record of cost in detail, of all work done under the supervision of this assistant engineer shall be filed with the department of engineering upon the completion thereof. One engineer's draughtsman shall be assigned to the said harbor board by the state engineer, and the advisory board of the department of engineering shall employ such field and other assistants to the foregoing assistant state engineer as may be necessary and such field and other assistants shall be paid from the San Francisco harbor improvement fund.

Co-operative work with United States government. Transfer of funds.

§ 13. All co-operative engineering work now existing or to be engaged in by the state with the United States government shall be placed under the department of engineering. All plans, estimates and specifications shall be approved by the state engineer and the advisory board shall have full power to determine the kind, quality and extent of such work under co-operation with said government before entering into agreement with said government for such work. All unexpended moneys provided for by law on the aforesaid co-operative basis shall be expressly placed under the full control of the department of engineering, and the state controller shall transfer such funds to the credit of the said department. Hereafter plans, estimates and specifications for such work shall be filed in the office of the said department.

Impounding of debris from mines. State engineer to advise with debris commission.

§ 14. It shall be the duty of the state engineer to consult and advise with the members of the corps of engineers of the United States army comprising the California debris commission (created by act of Congress, approved March first, eighteen hundred and ninety-three), in relation to the construction of works for the restraining and impounding of debris resulting from mining operations, natural erosion, or other causes; and it shall be his duty to examine such works and to report the result of such examination to the advisory board. Said state engineer is further authorized and directed to consult and advise with said "California Debris Commission" in relation to any and all plans and specifications that may have been or may hereafter be prepared or adopted by said "California Debris Commission," for the construction of such restraining or impounding works, and said state engineer shall file a copy of all such plans and specifications in the office of the department. Whenever the advisory board approves said plans and specifications the state engineer shall notify the "California Debris Commission." Whenever said "California Debris Commission" or the government of the United States shall have entered into any contract for the construction of works for the purposes described in this act, in pursuance of plans and specifications that have been theretofore approved by the advisory board as in this act provided, it shall then be the duty of the state engineer to cause such work to be carefully inspected during the progress of their construction and to keep a record of the result of such inspection. Said state engineer shall also from time to time, during the progress of the construction of such works, when requested so to do by the said "California Debris Commission," present his claims to the state board of examiners in favor of such person or persons as may be designated by said "California Debris Commission" for such amounts as shall equal one-half of the cost of the construction of said works; and said state engineer shall in like manner, and when requested so to do by said "California Debris Commission," present his claims to the state board of examiners for an amount equal one-half the purchase price of any site or sites necessary for the construction of said works; provided, that the purchase of said site or sites shall have been first approved by the advisory board. All unexpended balances of money provided by law for the work under the debris commissioner shall be placed to the credit of the department of engineering by the state controller. Whenever under any statutes of the state any duty or obligation the performance of which is imposed upon the debris commissioner, the same shall be assumed and the performance of the same shall devolve upon the department of engineering.

Assistance on public works, employment of. How paid. Reports of inspectors.

§ 15. When in his judgment it is deemed necessary, the state engineer, subject to the approval of the advisory board, shall employ such assistance on the public work of the state or on public work at any state institution as may be necessary for the proper discharge of his duties, and shall under like restrictions, have the authority to purchase any supplies, instruments, tools and conveniences as may be necessary for the proper discharge of the duties of the department of engineering. All employees of the department of engineering, when employed upon public work at or for any state institution in this state shall be paid, unless otherwise provided, from the revolving fund hereinafter created, and the amount of such payment shall be a charge against the institution for which such work is performed, and when collected from said institution by the department of engineering, shall be paid into said revolving fund. In all other cases such employees shall be paid by the department of engineering. All inspectors employed by the state engineer on any public work shall render to the state engineer a full, true and correct report of the kind, manner and progress of all work upon which he is such inspector. Any inspector who shall render a false report knowing the same to be false shall be guilty of a felony. It shall be the duty of the state engineer to keep a full, true and correct detailed account of the cost of all work done under the control of the department of engineering, and with the consent of the advisory board, may employ a clerk for the proper compiling thereof. Such accounts shall be always open to the inspection of the public. [Amendment approved March 20, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 561. In effect immediately.]

Biennial report of engineer. Duty of state printer.

§ 16. The state engineer shall prepare biennial reports which shall be submitted to the governor at least thirty days before each session of the legislature. Said report shall embrace the work and investigations of the department under his charge for the previous two years, together with such recommendations for changes in the laws affecting the department as he may deem advisable, and shall suggest and recommend changes relating to the road systems or administration within the state. It shall be the duty of the state printer to print all reports, bulletins or other matter and furnish any other necessary illustrations or diagram therefor as the department may deem necessary, all of which shall however, be subject to the approval of the state board of examiners.

Salaries of engineers and assistants. How paid. Bonds. Oath of office. Traveling expenses.

§ 17. The state engineer shall receive the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000) per annum; each assistant state engineer shall receive three thousand dollars ($3,000) per annum; the state architect shall receive forty-eight hundred dollars ($4800) per annum; each of the five draughtsmen shall receive two thousand dollars ($2,000) per annum; the architectural designer shall receive twenty-four hundred dollars ($2400) per annum; the mechanical engineer shall receive twenty-seven hundred dollars ($2700) per annum; the testing engineer shall receive twenty-one hundred dollars ($2100) per annum; each of two filing clerks shall receive eighteen hundred dollars ($1800) per annum; the secretary shall receive twenty-four hundred dollars ($2400) per annum; the blue-print pressman shall receive fifteen hundred dollars ($1500) per annum; each clerk and stenographer shall receive fifteen hundred dollars ($1500) per annum, and the porter and messenger shall receive nine hundred dollars ($900) per annum. Such salaries shall be paid at the same time and in the same manner as are the salaries of other state officers. The two assistant state engineers and the state architect shall each furnish the state with a bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for the faithful performance of their duties. Said bonds must be approved by the governor of the state of California and filed in the office of the secretary of state. Each and every one of the above-mentioned officers shall take the oath of office as prescribed for other state officers. The members of the advisory board, the state engineer and the officers and employees of the department of engineering shall be allowed their necessary traveling expenses while engaged in the discharge of their duties within the state. [Amendment approved March 20, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 562. In effect immediately.]

Auditing of bills. Attorney general is legal adviser.

§ 18. The state board of examiners shall audit all bills or claims incurred by the department of engineering and the state engineer shall present claims to said board for all expenditures directly under his charge. The attorney general of the state shall be the legal adviser of the department of engineering and the said department shall call upon the attorney general of the state for all such legal advice and services as the discharge of its duties may require.

Appropriation for salaries.

§ 19. The sum of $10,000 is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated to provide and maintain a permanent revolving fund for the payment of the salaries and wages of employees in the department of engineering when employed upon public work at or for any state institution other than those employees whose salaries are fixed and determined by section 17 of this act. Such payment so made for salaries and wages shall be charged against the institution for which such work is performed and in favor of the department of engineering, and when collected by said department, shall be paid into the revolving fund hereby created. [Amendment approved March 20, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 562. In effect immediately.]

Certain commissions to transfer all their property.

§ 20. It shall be the duty of the auditing board to the commissioner of public works, the commissioner of public works, the state highway commissioner, the debris commissioner and the Lake Tahoe wagon road commissioner to transfer to the state controller all of the property, books, reports and papers and maps of every description which is state property, and the said controller shall transfer all of said things and property to the department of engineering.

Repeal of act creating commissioner of public works.

§ 21. An act entitled "An act creating a commissioner of public works, defining his duties and powers and fixing his compensation," approved February ninth, nineteen hundred, and all acts or parts of acts amendatory thereof are hereby expressly repealed.

Repeal of act creating department of highways.

§ 22. An act entitled "An act to create a department of highways for the state of California, to define its duties and powers, to provide for the appointment of officers and employees thereof, and to provide for the compensation of said officers and employees, and for the additional expenses of said department, and to make an appropriation therefor for the remainder of the forty-eighth fiscal year," approved April first, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, is hereby expressly repealed.

Repeal of act creating auditing board.

§ 23. An act entitled "An act providing for the appointment of an auditing board to the commissioner of public works, authorizing and directing him and them to perform certain duties relating to drainage, to purchase machinery, tools, dredges, and appliances therefor, to improve and rectify water channels, to erect works necessary and incident to said drainage, to condemn land and property for the purposes aforesaid, making certain acts a felony, and making an appropriation of money for the purposes of this act," approved March seventeen, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, and all acts or parts of acts amendatory thereof are hereby expressly repealed.

Repeal of act creating debris commissioner.

§ 24. An act entitled "An act to provide for the appointment, duties and compensation of a debris commissioner, and to make an appropriation to be expended under his directions in the discharge of his duties as such commissioner," approved March twenty-fourth, eighteen hundred and ninety-three, and all acts or parts of acts amendatory thereof are hereby expressly repealed.

ACT 3813.

An act providing for topographic surveys and investigations of the water resources of the state and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved April 22, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 1079.]

§ 1. The department of engineering is hereby empowered to carry on topographic surveys and investigations into matters pertaining to the water resources of the state along the lines of hydrography, hydro-economics and the use and distribution of water for agricultural purposes, and to that end, where possible and to the best interest of the state, shall enter into contracts for co-operation with the different departments of the federal government in such amounts as may be an equitable and necessary division of the work. The state engineer, with the consent of the governor, may maintain and continue such investigations where there is available money not covered by co-operation contract. For the permanent maintenance of said surveys and investigations there is hereby continuously appropriated out of the general fund of the state treasury for each and every fiscal year, commencing with the date upon which this act becomes effective, the sum of thirty thousand dollars.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

STATE LANDS.

ACT 3825.

An act forfeiting to the state of California all payments for state lands where a fraudulent title was sought to be obtained thereto.

[Approved March 20, 1905. Stats. 1905, p. 388.]

§ 1. Whenever it shall appear by final decree of any court of competent jurisdiction that title to any lands subject to sale by the state of California was obtained, or sought to be obtained, by fraudulent means, or in any manner contrary to the laws of this state relating to the acquisition of its public domain, all payments made in the interest of said fraudulent title shall revert to the state of California without suit, and it shall thereupon become the duty of the state surveyor general and ex officio register of the state land office to cancel all evidence of title to any land embraced in such fraudulent or invalid location, and to restore said land to public entry.

§ 2. This act shall take effect from and after the date of its passage.

ACT 3826.

An act providing for the presentation and cancellation of unlocated school land warrants of the state of California, issued under the act of the state of California, approved May 3, 1852, providing for the disposal of the five hundred thousand acres of land donated to the state of California by the government of the United States, and authorizing the controller of this state to draw his warrant on the state treasurer for the sum of two dollars per acre, in favor of any bona fide owner and holder of any such land warrant, for every acre represented by any such land warrant. [Approved March 23, 1893. Stats. 1893, p. 181.]

Purchase of sixteenth and thirty-sixth sections.

§ 1. Every application to purchase any portion of the sixteenth and thirty-sixth sections shall be accompanied by a deposit of twenty dollars, in addition to the fee for filing now required by law, for which the surveyor general shall give the applicant a receipt, which receipt shall be accepted by the county treasurer in part payment of the purchase price of said land. If the applicant shall abandon or forfeit his said application, or shall fail to make proper proof as to the character of the said land, or as to his residence thereon, within the time allowed by law, or if his application shall be rejected by reason of any false statement in the affidavit herein contained, the twenty dollars thus paid shall go to the state school fund. If it is found that the surveyor general erred in receiving the application, or that the state cannot make a good title to the land, then the applicant or his assigns may surrender to the surveyor general the said receipt, and receive in exchange therefor a certificate showing the amount so paid, and the reason why the application could not be approved or perfected, and the controller, upon the surrender to him of the said surveyor general's certificate, shall issue to the applicant, or his assigns, a warrant for the said amount.

Filings.

§ 2. Any number of filings on any section of land is hereby permitted and allowed under the provisions of this act. Should the first filing be abandoned by the applicant, the next filing on such section, in order, shall have the same right as if it had been the first filing.

Moneys to go to school land deposit fund.

§ 3. The moneys received by the surveyor general under the provisions of this act, except the moneys forfeited under section 1, shall be paid to the state treasurer at the close of each month, and must be placed in a fund, to be called "School Land Deposit Fund," to the credit of the county in which the lands applied for are situated. When any moneys are placed in the "School Deposit Fund" to the credit of a county, the controller, at the next settlement with the controller by the treasurer of such county, must draw his warrant upon the state treasurer for the amount in the fund to the credit of the county; provided, that the direction herein to the controller is exempted from the operations of section 672 of the Political Code.

ACT 3828.

An act respecting the payment in full by holders of certificates of purchase for lands sold by the state of California prior to March 27, 1872, and for which the said state has at any time heretofore issued certificates of purchase to subsequent purchasers.

[Approved March 20, 1889. Stats. 1889, p. 428.]

When holders of certificates of purchase of state lands deemed to have forfeited their rights therein.

§ 1. Whenever application has been made to purchase land from this state, and payment only in part has been made to the treasurer of the proper county for the same, and a certificate of purchase has been issued to the applicant prior to the twenty-seventh day of March, eighteen hundred and seventy-two, and whenever such applicant, his assignee or assignees, shall have failed for five years to pay to the state the arrears of principal or of interest due to the state for said land, and the state shall at any time heretofore have issued a certificate of purchase for the same land, or any part thereof, to a subsequent purchaser, then, unless the holder or holders of such prior certificate shall pay the entire residue of the interest remaining unpaid for such purchase within six months from and after the passage of this act, such holder or holders shall be deemed to have lost all right to the land described in said certificate, or to complete the purchase of such land, and all moneys heretofore paid to the state of California on such purchase shall be deemed and taken to be forfeited to the state. Nothing herein contained, however, shall be deemed or taken to give to or confer upon the holder or holders of such prior certificates, or any of them, as against the state of California, or any subsequent purchasers therefrom, or against the holders of subsequent certificates of purchase, any other or greater right to the lands herein referred to than is now held by the holder or holders of such prior certificates, or to confer upon such holder or holders any new right, or to affect or impair the rights of such subsequent purchasers or their assigns.

Previous part payment confers no special rights—Does not apply.

§ 2. The mere fact of previous part payment shall not of itself confer on such prior purchaser or his assigns any right to complete the purchase, if he or they be not otherwise entitled so to do, as against the state, and a subsequent purchaser or his assigns; provided, that this act shall not apply to any action now pending commenced within five years.

§ 3. This act shall take effect from and after the date of its passage.

To abolish all laws except those passed during the present session. [Stats. 1850, p. 342.]

to him or her, postage prepaid, notifying the objectors of the time and place of hearing. At the time specified, the council shall hear the objections urged, and pass upon the same, and its decision shall be final and conclusive, except that in the choice of trees to be planted, it shall be governed by the written request of the owners of a majority of the frontage on both sides of the street which it is proposed to plant. If the objections be sustained, no further proceedings shall be taken under the resolution of intention for six months after the date of its passage. If it be again proposed to plant the street, the council shall commence proceedings de novo as if no action had been previously taken.

§ 4. At the expiration of ten days after the expiration of the time of publication of said resolution of intention, if no written objections to the work therein described shall have been filed with the city clerk, as hereinbefore provided, otherwise, immediately upon the overruling of the objections by the council, the council shall be deemed to have acquired jurisdiction to order to be done the work which is authorized by this act, which order shall be published for two days in the same papers and manner as provided for the publication of the resolution of intention.

§ 5. Before passing any resolutions for the planting of any street, the city council shall cause notice, with specifications, to be posted conspicuously for five days near the door of the council chamber, and shall advertise the same for five days in the same manner and papers as heretofore provided for the publication of the resolution of intention, inviting sealed proposals for bids for furnishing the trees and doing the work ordered. All bids shall state the sum or price for which the bidder will undertake to furnish the trees, of the kind, age, and size required, and will suitably prepare the ground, set out the trees, warrant every one of them to grow, or replace all that fail to grow or receive damage from whatever cause with others of the same kind, and of suitable age and size to preserve uniformity, and will for three years care for, cultivate, protect, irrigate, and trim said trees. And no order for the planting of any street shade trees shall be made that does not likewise provide for the care and maintenance of the trees for three years by the contractor planting the trees. All proposals or bids shall be accompanied by a check payable to the order of the mayor or president of the city council, certified by a responsible bank, for an amount which shall not be less than ten per cent of the aggregate of the proposal. Said proposals or bids shall be delivered to the clerk of the city council, indorsed "Proposals to plant trees," and said council shall, in open session, examine and publicly declare the same; provided, that no proposal or bid shall be considered unless accompanied by said check. The council may reject all proposals, should it deem this for the public good, and shall reject the bid of any party who has been delinquent or unfaithful in any former contract with the municipality, and may award the contract to the lowest responsible bidder, at the prices named in his bid, which award shall be approved by the mayor or president of the council. Notice of such awards of contract shall be posted and advertised for after the completion of the planting; provided, all conditions shall have been complied with.

§ 9. Immediately upon the execution of any contract for the planting and care of street trees under the provisions of this act, it shall be the duty of the city assessor to make an assessment to cover the sum to become due for the work specified in such contract (including all incidental expenses) upon the lots and land fronting on the street, lane, alley, court, or place to which such contract relates, each lot or portion of a lot being separately assessed, in proportion to the frontage, at a rate per foot front sufficient to cover the total expenses of the work. Said assessment shall briefly refer to the contract, the work contracted for, and shall show the amount to be paid therefor, together with any incidental expenses, the rate per foot front assessed, the amount of each assessment, the name of the owner of each lot, if known to the assessor (if unknown, the word "Unknown" shall be written opposite the number or description of the lot, with the amount assessed thereon). And the assessor shall attach to said assessment a diagram, exhibiting the street, lane, alley, place, or court on which the work is contracted to be done, and showing the relative location and frontage of such lot, numbered to correspond with the numbers in the assessment. To said assessment shall be attached a warrant, which shall be signed by the superintendent of streets, and countersigned by the mayor or president of the council. The said assessments and warrants shall be separately issued for each payment that shall be due the contractor, as specified in section 8 of this act, and shall be substantially in the following form:

Form of the Warrant.

By virtue hereof, I (name of the superintendent of streets), of the city of —, county of —, and state of California, by virtue of the authority vested in me as said superintendent of streets, do authorize and empower (name of contractor), his agents or assigns, to demand and receive the several assessments upon the assessment and diagram hereto attached, and this shall be his warrant for the same.

Date —, —. (Name of superintendent of streets.)

Countersigned by (name of mayor or president of council.)

Recorded (date —, —). (Name of superintendent of streets.)

Said warrant, assessment, and diagram shall be recorded in the office of the superintendent of streets. When so recorded, the several amounts assessed shall be a lien upon the lands, lots, or portions of lots, assessed, respectively, for the period of two years from the date of said recording, unless sooner discharged. From and after the date of said record, all persons interested in any manner in any or all of the lots assessed shall be deemed to have notice of the contents of said record.

§ 10. After said warrant, assessment, and diagram shall have been recorded, the same shall be delivered to the contractor, his agents or assigns, on demand, who shall thereby be authorized to demand and receive the amounts of the several assessments. In default whereof, and as regards enforced collections, interest, cost, and penalties, and the Laying out, opening, closing, etc., streets, lanes, alleys, etc.

§ 1. Whenever the public interest or convenience may require, the city council of any municipality shall have full power and authority to order the opening, extending, widening, straightening, or closing up in whole or in part of any street, square, lane, alley, court, or place within the bounds of such city, and to condemn and acquire any and all land and property necessary or convenient for that purpose.

Resolution of council declaring intention to perform street work.

§ 2. Before ordering any work to be done or improvement made which is authorized by section one of this act, the city council shall pass a resolution declaring its intention to do so, describing the work or improvement, and the land deemed necessary to be taken therefor, and specifying the exterior boundaries of the district of lands to be affected or benefited by said work or improvement, and to be assessed to pay the damages, cost, and expenses thereof.

Street superintendent to post notice.

§ 3. The street superintendent shall then cause to be conspicuously posted along the line of said contemplated work or improvement, at not more than three hundred feet in distance apart, but not less than three in all, notices of the passage of said resolution. Said notice shall be headed "Notice of Public Work," in letters not less than one inch in length, shall be in legible characters, state the fact of passage of the resolution, its date, and, briefly, the work or improvement proposed, and refer to the resolution for further particulars. He shall also cause a notice, similar in substance, to be published for a period of ten days in one or more daily newspapers published and circulated in said city, and designated by said city council; or if there is no daily newspaper so published and circulated in said city, then by four successive insertions in a weekly or semi-weekly newspaper, so published, circulated, and designated.

Interested person may file objections.

§ 4. Any person interested objecting to said work or improvement, or to the extent of the district of lands to be affected or benefited by said work or improvement, and to be assessed to pay the cost and expenses thereof, may make written objections to the same within ten days after the expiration of the time of the publication of said notice, which objection shall be delivered to the clerk of the city council, who shall indorse thereon the date of its reception by him, and at the next meeting of the city council after the expiration of said ten days lay said objections before said city council, which shall fix a time for hearing said objections, not less than one week thereafter. The city clerk shall thereupon notify the persons making such objections, by depositing a notice thereof in the postoffice of said city, postage prepaid, addressed to such objector.

whether they are issued for land or improvements taken or damaged, or for charges and expenses, and that the demand is payable only out of the money in said fund, and in no event shall the city be liable for the failure to collect any assessment made by virtue hereof, nor shall said warrant be payable out of any other fund, nor [be] a claim against the city.

Assessment for damages.

§ 9. Said commissioners shall proceed to view the lands described in the resolution of intention, and may examine witnesses on oath to be administered by any one of them. Having viewed the land to be taken, and the improvements affected, and considered the testimony presented, they shall proceed, with all diligence, to determine the value of the land, and the damage to improvements and property affected, and also the amount of the expenses incident to said work or improvement, and having determined the same shall proceed to assess the same upon the district of lands declared benefited, the exterior boundaries of which were fixed by the resolution of intention provided for by section 2 hereof. Such assessment shall be made upon the lands within said district in proportion to the benefit to be derived from said work or improvement, so far as the said commissioners can reasonably estimate the same, including in such estimate the real property of any railroad company within said district, if such there be, and may also include in such estimate any or all public property within said district. [Amendment approved April 21, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 1034. In effect immediately.]

Report to council accompanied with a plat of the assessment district.

§ 10. Said commissioners having made their assessment of benefits and damage, shall, with all diligence, make a written report thereof to the city council, and shall accompany their report with a plat of the assessment district showing the land taken or to be taken for the work or improvement, and the lands assessed, showing the relative location of each district, block, lot, or portion of lot, and its dimensions, so far as the commissioners can reasonably ascertain the same. Each block and lot, or portion of lot, taken or assessed, shall be designated and described in said plat by an appropriate number, and in reference to it by such descriptive number shall be a sufficient description of it in any suit entered to condemn, and in all respects. When the report and plat are approved by the city council, a copy of said plat, appropriately designated, shall be filed by the clerk thereof in the office of the recorder of the county.

Report what must specify.

§ 11. Said report shall specify each lot, subdivision, or piece of property taken or injured by the widening or other improvement, or assessed therefor, together with the name of the owner or claimants thereof, or of persons interested therein as lessees, encumbrancers, or otherwise, so far as the same are known to such commissioners, and the particulars of their interest, so far as the same can be ascertained, and the amount of value or damage, or the amount assessed, as the case may be.

or dedicated, to public use, whose grade has been officially established, and which have been actually graded in conformity therewith, may be planted with shade trees, along the edges of the sidewalks thereof, by order of the city council, which shall have power, also, to provide for the maintenance and care of the same; and the city council shall have power to prescribe the height, thickness, and manner of trimming of all hedges set out, or that shall hereafter be set out, along the line of any street, lane, alley, place, or court dedicated to public use, whether graded or not, and to compel compliance with its ordinances in the premises by the owners or occupants of the lots fronting thereon. The powers hereby conferred upon city councils shall be exercised in the manner and under the proceedings hereinafter described.

§ 2. The city council of any municipality in the state may, at its discretion, pass a resolution of intention to plant, or cause to be planted, with shade trees, any graded street, lane, alley, place, or court within the limits of such municipality. Such resolution of intention may embrace the entire length of any street, lane, alley, place, or court, or any portion thereof, but must specify the kind of trees to be planted, their size, age, and their distance apart. The street superintendent shall thereupon cause to be conspicuously posted along both sides of the street mentioned in the resolution, at not more than three hundred feet in distance apart, notices of the passage of said resolution. Said notice shall be headed "Notice to plant shade trees," in letters not less than one inch in length, and shall, in legible characters, set forth the language of the resolution, and the date of its passage. The city clerk shall also cause a copy of the resolution to be published for six days in one or more daily newspapers published and circulated in said city, and designated by said city council. Should there be no daily newspaper published in said city then in such case publication may be made of such resolution, and of all other matters herein provided to be published, in a weekly newspaper, published and circulated in said city, and designated by said city council. [Amendment approved March 13, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 331. In effect immediately.]

§ 3. The owners of a majority of the frontage of the property on both sides of the street proposed to be planted as aforesaid may, within ten days after the expiration of the time of publication of said resolution, file their written statement of the objections to the proposed work with the city clerk, which must be signed by the objectors, each one writing after his or her name the number of feet frontage owned by him or her. Such objection must show wherein the parties making them will be injured or aggrieved by the proposed work, and if the objection be to the kind of trees proposed to be planted, they must name some other kind of tree to be substituted therefor. The city council shall, at its next meeting after the filing of said objections, fix a time for hearing the same, not less than one week thereafter. The city clerk shall thereupon notify each objector, or his agent, who has signed his or her name to the statement, by depositing, in the postoffice of said city a notice addressed tions in a weekly or semi-weekly newspaper so published and circulated, that he has received said assessment-roll, and that all sums levied and assessed in said assessment-roll are due and payable immediately, and that the payment of said sums is to be made to him within thirty days from the date of the first publication of said notice. Said notice shall also contain a statement that all assessments not paid before the expiration of said thirty days will be declared to be delinquent, and that thereafter the sum of five per cent upon the amount of each delinquent assessment, together with the cost of advertising each delinquent assessment, will be added thereto. When payment of any assessment is made to said superintendent of streets, he shall write the word "Paid," and the date of payment, opposite the respective assessment so paid, and the names of persons by or for whom said assessment is paid, and shall, if so required, give a receipt therefor. On the expiration of said thirty days, all assessments then unpaid shall be and become delinquent, and said superintendent of streets shall certify such fact at the foot of said assessment-roll, and shall add five per cent to the amount of each assessment so delinquent. The said superintendent of streets shall, within five days from the date of said delinquency, proceed to advertise and collect the various sums delinquent, and the whole thereof, including the cost of advertising, which last shall not exceed the sum of fifty cents for each lot, piece, or parcel of land separately assessed, by the sale of the assessed property in the same manner as is or may be provided for the collection of state and county taxes; and after the date of said delinquency, and before the time of such sale herein provided for, no assessment shall be received unless at the same time the five per cent added thereto, as aforesaid, together with the costs of advertising then already incurred, shall be paid therewith. Said list of delinquent assessments shall be published daily for five days in one or more daily newspapers published and circulated in such city, or by at least one insertion in a weekly newspaper so published and circulated, before the day of sale of such delinquent assessment. Said time of sale must not be less than seven days from the date of the first publication of said delinquent assessment-list, and the place must be in or in front of the office of said superintendent of streets. All property sold shall be subject to redemption in the same time and manner as in sales for delinquent state and county taxes; and the superintendent of streets may collect for each certificate fifty cents, and for each deed one dollar. All provisions of the law, in reference to the sale and redemption of property for delinquent state and county taxes in force at any given time, shall also then, so far as the same are not in conflict with the provisions of this act, be applicable to the sale and redemption of property for delinquent assessments hereunder, including the issuance of certificates and execution of deeds. The deed of the street superintendent made after such sale, in case of failure to redeem, shall be prima facie evidence of the regularity of the proceedings hereunder, and of title in the grantee. It shall be conclusive evidence of the necessity of taking or damaging the lands or damaged, and of the correctness of the compensation awarded. The superintendent of streets shall, from time to time, pay five days, in the manner hereinbefore provided, and it shall be the duty of the superintendent of streets to enter into a contract with the bidder to whom the work shall have been awarded by the council, and at the prices specified in his bid; whereupon the certified checks of all the other bidders shall be returned to them, respectively. But if such lowest bidder neglects, fails, or refuses, for fifteen days after the first posting and publication of the award, to enter into the contract, then the city council, without further proceedings, shall again advertise for proposals or bids, as in the first instance, and shall award the contract for said work to the then lowest bidder. If the contractor who shall have taken any contract shall not complete the planting, within the time limited in the contract, or within such further time as the council may give him, the superintendent of streets shall report such delinquency to the council, which may relet the unfinished portion of the planting and the future care of the trees, after pursuing the formalities hereinbefore prescribed for the letting of the whole in the first instance.

§ 6. All contractors shall, at the time of executing any contract for the planting and care of trees, execute a bond to the satisfaction of the mayor or president of the city council, with two or more sureties, and payable to the city in such sums as the mayor or president of the council shall deem adequate, conditioned for the faithful performance of the contract, and the sureties shall justify before the recorder or a justice of the peace, in double the amount mentioned in such bond, over and above all statutory exemption. Before being entitled to any contract, the bidder to whom the award shall have been made must pay into the city treasury the cost of the publication of notices, resolutions, and orders, and all other incidental expenses required under the proceedings prescribed by this act.

§ 7. All work done under the provisions of this statute shall be executed under the direction of the superintendent of streets, whose duty it shall be, under the general control of the council, to see that all the obligations assumed by contractors towards the city are faithfully complied with, and that all trees furnished are sound, healthy, free from infection by insects, and of the kind, size, and age called for by the contract. He shall certify to the completion of all work, or portion of work, which, by the terms of the contract, shall entitle the contractor to payment in whole or in part, and the presentation of his certificate by the contractor shall be a condition precedent to each payment that shall become due under the contract.

§ 8. All sums due to contractors under the provisions of this act shall be payable by installments, as follows, to wit: Not more than one-half the entire consideration in the contract shall be payable on the completion of the planting, and out of this amount the superintendent of streets shall see that the trees are paid for, to the party furnishing the same; one-half the balance at the end of eighteen months after the completion of the planting; provided, all conditions shall have been complied with; the remaining one-half to be paid at the end of three years in their discretion, order the balance thereof to be paid out of the general fund of the treasury or to be distributed by the commissioners over the property assessed by a supplementary assessment; but in the last-named case, in order to avoid delay, the city council may advance such balance out of any appropriate fund in the treasury, and reimburse the same from the collections of the assessment. Pending the collection and payment of the amount of the judgment and damages, the court may order such stay of proceedings as may be necessary.

Duty of treasurer on payment of warrants.

§ 19. The treasurer shall pay such warrants out of the appropriate fund, and not otherwise, in the order of their presentation; provided, that warrants for land or improvements taken or damaged shall have priority over warrants for charges and expenses, and the treasurer shall see that sufficient money is and remains in the fund to pay all warrants of the first class before paying any of the second.

Supplementary assessments, when may be ordered.

§ 20. If after the sale of the property for delinquent assessments there should be a deficiency, and there should be unreasonable delay in collecting the same, or if for the purpose of equalizing the assessments supplying a deficiency, or for any cause it appears desirable, the commissioners may so report to the city council, who may order them to make a supplementary assessment and report the same in manner and form as the original, and subject to the same procedure. If by reason of such supplementary assessment, or for any cause, there should be at any time a surplus, the city council may appropriate the same and declare a dividend pro rata to the parties paying the same, and they, upon demand, shall have the right to have the amount of such pro rata dividends refunded to them, or credited upon any subsequent assessment for taxes made against said parties in favor of said city.

Proceedings to settle defective title.

§ 21. If any title attempted to be acquired by virtue of this act shall be found to be defective from any cause, the city council may again institute proceedings to acquire the cause as in this act provided, or otherwise, or may authorize the commissioners to purchase the same and include the cost thereof in a supplementary assessment as provided in the last section.

Proceedings when boundaries of districts of lands affect the whole city.

§ 22. If the city council deem it proper that the boundaries of the districts of lands to be affected and assessed to pay the damages, cost and expenses of any work or improvement under this act, shall include the whole city, then the commissioners appointed shall proceed in a summary manner to purchase the lands to be taken or condemned from the owners and claimants thereof. If said commissioners and the owners and claimants cannot agree upon the price to be paid for said lands, they shall proceed to view and value the same, and shall thereupon make a summary report to the city council. Upon final confirmation of the correction of errors, the same proceedings are to be had as are specified in sections 9, 10, 11, 12, 16, and 17 of an act entitled "An act to provide for work upon streets, lanes, alleys, courts, places, and sidewalks, and for the construction of sewers within municipalities," approved March eighteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-five, amended March fourteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-nine.

§ 11. The city council of every municipality in this state has jurisdiction of the hedges and fences placed by property owners along street lines, and may, by ordinance, prohibit the planting of thorn-bearing hedges and the use of barbed-wire along street lines, and may regulate the height, width, and the mode of trimming hedges, and enforce ordinances enacted for such purposes against absentees, or other negligent or reculant owners or occupants of lots or lands on which hedges are maintained. They may also condemn as public nuisances, any or all weeds whose seeds are of a winged or downy nature, and are spread by the winds, and may compel the eradication of such weeds by the owners of the lots whereon they grow, or at their expense.

§ 12. The city council or trustees of every municipality shall provide for the replacement of missing trees, and for the trimming and care of all trees that have or shall have been planted for three or more years in the streets and highways, whether such planting shall have been done under this act or otherwise; the expense whereof must be defrayed out of the street fund, and the work be done by the superintendent of streets of such municipality.

§ 13. This act shall only apply to such municipalities as shall by vote of the electors residing therein determine to come within its provisions.

§ 14. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

Construction of terms "clerk" and "city clerk."

6. The terms "clerk" and "city clerk," as used in this act, is hereby declared to include any person or officer who shall be clerk of said city council.

Construction of terms "treasurer" and "city treasurer."

7. The term "treasurer" or "city treasurer," as used in this act, shall include any person or officer who shall have charge and make payment of the city funds.

8. No publications or notice other than that provided for in this act shall be necessary to give validity to any proceedings had thereunder.

Proceedings commenced before passage of this act to be continued by resolution of council.

§ 24. The proceedings and any work or improvement, such as is provided for in this act, already commenced, and now progressing under any other act now in force, or by virtue of any ordinance passed by any city council or board of supervisors of any city, county, or city and county, by virtue of any other act now in force, may, from any stage of such proceedings already commenced and now progressing, be continued under this act by resolution of the city council. The said work or improvement may then be conducted under the provisions of this act with full force and effect in all respects, from the stage of such proceedings under such other acts or ordinances at and from which such resolution shall declare an election or intention to have said work or improvement cease under such other act or ordinance, and continue under this act; and from such election so made, all proceedings theretofore had under such other act or ordinance are hereby ratified, confirmed, and made valid, and it shall be unnecessary to renew or conduct over again proceedings had under such other act or ordinance. This section shall not apply to any work or improvement, proceedings in which were commenced more than eighteen months prior to the passage of this act.

Act to be liberally construed.

§ 25. The provisions of this act shall be liberally construed to promote the objects thereof. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

ACT 3928.

An act to provide for the laying out, opening, extending, widening, or straightening, in whole or in part, of public streets, squares, lanes, alleys, courts, and places, within municipalities, for the condemnation of property necessary or convenient for such purposes, and for the establishment of assessment districts and the assessment of property therein to pay the expense of such improvement.

Decision of council to be final.

§ 5. At the time specified or to which the hearing may be adjourned, the said city council shall hear the objections urged, and pass upon the same, and its decision shall be final and conclusive. If such objections are sustained, all proceedings shall be stopped, but proceedings may be again commenced at any time by giving notice of intention to do said work or make said improvement. If such objection is overruled by the city council, the proceedings shall continue the same as if such objection had not been made. At the expiration of the time prescribed during which objections to said work or improvement may be made, if no objection shall have been made, or if an objection shall have been made, and said council, after hearing, shall have overruled the same, the city council shall be deemed to have acquired jurisdiction to order any of the work to be done, or improvements to be made, which is authorized by section 1 of this act.

Jurisdiction.

§ 6. Having acquired jurisdiction as provided in the preceding section, the city council shall order said work to be done, and unless the proposed work is for closing up, and it appears that no assessment is necessary, shall appoint three commissioners to assess benefits and damages, and have general supervision of the proposed work or improvement until the completion thereof in compliance with this statute. For their services, they shall receive such compensation as the city council may determine from time to time; provided, that such compensation shall not exceed two hundred dollars per month each, nor continue more than six months, unless extended by order of the city council. Such compensation shall be added to and be chargeable as a part of the expenses of the work or improvement. Each of said commissioners shall file with the clerk of the city council an affidavit, and a bond to the state of California, in the sum of five thousand dollars, to faithfully perform the duties of his office. The city council may at any time remove any or all of said commissioners for cause, upon reasonable notice and hearing, and may fill any vacancies occurring among them for any cause.

Commissioners to employ assistance.

§ 7. Said commissioners shall have power to employ such assistance, legal or otherwise, as they may deem necessary and proper; also to rent an office, and provide such maps, diagrams, plans, books, stationery, fuel, lights, postage, expressage and incur such incidental expenses as they may deem necessary.

Expenses to be a charge upon the particular work required.

§ 8. All such charges and expenses shall be deemed as expenses of said work or improvement, and be a charge only upon the funds devoted to the particular work or improvement, as provided hereinafter. All payments, as well for the land and improvements taken or damaged, as for the charges and expenses, shall be paid by the city treasurer, upon warrants drawn upon said fund from time to time, signed by said commissioners, or a majority of them. All such warrants shall state whether they are issued for land or improvements taken or damaged, or for charges and expenses, and that the demand is payable only out of the money in said fund, and in no event shall the city be liable for the failure to collect any assessment made by virtue hereof, nor shall said warrant be payable out of any other fund, nor [be] a claim against the city.

Assessment for damages.

§ 9. Said commissioners shall proceed to view the lands described in the resolution of intention, and may examine witnesses on oath to be administered by any one of them. Having viewed the land to be taken, and the improvements affected, and considered the testimony presented, they shall proceed, with all diligence, to determine the value of the land, and the damage to improvements and property affected, and also the amount of the expenses incident to said work or improvement, and having determined the same shall proceed to assess the same upon the district of lands declared benefited, the exterior boundaries of which were fixed by the resolution of intention provided for by section 2 hereof. Such assessment shall be made upon the lands within said district in proportion to the benefit to be derived from said work or improvement, so far as the said commissioners can reasonably estimate the same, including in such estimate the real property of any railroad company within said district, if such there be, and may also include in such estimate any or all public property within said district. [Amendment approved April 21, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 1034. In effect immediately.]

Report to council accompanied with a plat of the assessment district.

§ 10. Said commissioners having made their assessment of benefits and damage, shall, with all diligence, make a written report thereof to the city council, and shall accompany their report with a plat of the assessment district showing the land taken or to be taken for the work or improvement, and the lands assessed, showing the relative location of each district, block, lot, or portion of lot, and its dimensions, so far as the commissioners can reasonably ascertain the same. Each block and lot, or portion of lot, taken or assessed, shall be designated and described in said plat by an appropriate number, and in reference to it by such descriptive number shall be a sufficient description of it in any suit entered to condemn, and in all respects. When the report and plat are approved by the city council, a copy of said plat, appropriately designated, shall be filed by the clerk thereof in the office of the recorder of the county.

Report what must specify.

§ 11. Said report shall specify each lot, subdivision, or piece of property taken or injured by the widening or other improvement, or assessed therefor, together with the name of the owner or claimants thereof, or of persons interested therein as lessees, encumbrancers, or otherwise, so far as the same are known to such commissioners, and the particulars of their interest, so far as the same can be ascertained, and the amount of value or damage, or the amount assessed, as the case may be.

When set down to unknown owners.

§ 12. If in any case the commissioners find that conflicting claims of title exist, or shall be in ignorance or doubt as to the ownership of any lot of land, or of any improvements thereon, or of any interest therein, it shall be set down as belonging to unknown owners. Error in the designation of the owner or owners of any land or improvements, or of the particulars of their interest, shall not affect the validity of the assessment or of the condemnation of the property to be taken.

Filing of report and plat, and publication of.

§ 13. Said report and plat shall be filed in the clerk's office of the city council, and thereupon the clerk of said city council shall give notice of such filing by publication for at least ten days in one or more daily newspapers published and circulated in said city; or if there be no daily paper, by three successive insertions in a weekly or semi-weekly newspaper so published and circulated. Said notice shall also require all persons interested to show cause, if any, why such report should not be confirmed, before the city council on or before a day fixed by the clerk thereof, and stated in said notice, which day shall not be less than thirty days from the first publication thereof.

Objections must be in writing.

§ 14. All objections shall be in writing, and filed with the clerk of the city council, who shall, at the next meeting after the day fixed in the notice to show cause, lay the said objections, if any, before the city council, which shall fix a time for hearing the same, of which the clerk shall notify the objectors in the same manner as objectors to the original resolution of intention; at the time set, or at such other time as the hearing may be adjourned to, the city council shall hear such objections and pass upon the same; and at such time, or, if there be no objections, at the first meeting after the day set in such order to show cause, or such other time as may be fixed, shall proceed to pass upon such report, and may confirm, correct, or modify the same, or may order the commissioners to make a new assessment, report, and plat, which shall be filed, notice given, and hearing had, as in the case of an original report.

Duty of clerk of council.

§ 15. The clerk of said city council shall forward to the street superintendent of the city a certified copy of the report, assessment, and plat, as finally confirmed and adopted by the city council. Such certified copy shall thereupon be the assessment-roll. Immediately upon receipt thereof by the street superintendent, the assessment therein contained shall become due and payable, and shall be a lien upon all the property contained or described therein.

Duty of superintendent of streets on receiving certified copy of report as confirmed by council.

tions in a weekly or semi-weekly newspaper so published and circulated, that he has received said assessment-roll, and that all sums levied and assessed in said assessment-roll are due and payable immediately, and that the payment of said sums is to be made to him within thirty days from the date of the first publication of said notice. Said notice shall also contain a statement that all assessments not paid before the expiration of said thirty days will be declared to be delinquent, and that thereafter the sum of five per cent upon the amount of each delinquent assessment, together with the cost of advertising each delinquent assessment, will be added thereto. When payment of any assessment is made to said superintendent of streets, he shall write the word "Paid," and the date of payment, opposite the respective assessment so paid, and the names of persons by or for whom said assessment is paid, and shall, if so required, give a receipt therefor. On the expiration of said thirty days, all assessments then unpaid shall be and become delinquent, and said superintendent of streets shall certify such fact at the foot of said assessment-roll, and shall add five per cent to the amount of each assessment so delinquent. The said superintendent of streets shall, within five days from the date of said delinquency, proceed to advertise and collect the various sums delinquent, and the whole thereof, including the cost of advertising, which last shall not exceed the sum of fifty cents for each lot, piece, or parcel of land separately assessed, by the sale of the assessed property in the same manner as is or may be provided for the collection of state and county taxes; and after the date of said delinquency, and before the time of such sale herein provided for, no assessment shall be received unless at the same time the five per cent added thereto, as aforesaid, together with the costs of advertising then already incurred, shall be paid therewith. Said list of delinquent assessments shall be published daily for five days in one or more daily newspapers published and circulated in such city, or by at least one insertion in a weekly newspaper so published and circulated, before the day of sale of such delinquent assessment. Said time of sale must not be less than seven days from the date of the first publication of said delinquent assessment-list, and the place must be in or in front of the office of said superintendent of streets. All property sold shall be subject to redemption in the same time and manner as in sales for delinquent state and county taxes; and the superintendent of streets may collect for each certificate fifty cents, and for each deed one dollar. All provisions of the law, in reference to the sale and redemption of property for delinquent state and county taxes in force at any given time, shall also then, so far as the same are not in conflict with the provisions of this act, be applicable to the sale and redemption of property for delinquent assessments hereunder, including the issuance of certificates and execution of deeds. The deed of the street superintendent made after such sale, in case of failure to redeem, shall be prima facie evidence of the regularity of all proceedings hereunder, and of title in the grantee. It shall be conclusive evidence of the necessity of taking or damaging the lands taken or damaged, and of the correctness of the compensation awarded therefor. The superintendent of streets shall, from time to time, pay over to the city treasurer all moneys collected by him on account of any such assessments. The city treasurer shall, upon receipt thereof, place the same in a separate fund, designating such fund by the name of the street, square, lane, alley, court, or place for the widening, opening, or other improvement of which the assessment was made. Payments shall be made from said fund to the parties entitled thereto, upon warrants signed by the commissioners, or a majority of them.

Payments for land and improvements, when and how made.

§ 17. When sufficient money is in the hands of the city treasurer, in the fund devoted to the proposed work or improvement, to pay for the land and improvements taken or damaged, and when in the discretion of the commissioners, or a majority of them, the time shall have come to make payments, it shall be the duty of the commissioners to notify the owner, possessor, or occupant of any land or improvements thereon to whom damages shall have been awarded, that a warrant has been drawn for the payment of the same, and that he can receive such warrant at the office of such commissioners upon tendering a conveyance of any property to be taken; such notification, except in the case of unknown owners, to be made by depositing a notice, postage paid, in the postoffice, addressed to his last known place of abode or residence. If at the expiration of thirty days after the deposit of such notice, he should not have applied for such warrant, and tendered a conveyance of the land to be taken, the warrant so drawn shall be deposited with the county treasurer, and shall be delivered to such owner, possessor, or occupant, upon tendering a conveyance as aforesaid, unless judgment of condemnation shall be had, when the same shall be canceled.

Proceedings to condemn on refusal to accept payment.

§ 18. If any owner of land to be taken neglects or refuses to accept the warrant drawn in his favor, as aforesaid, or objects to the report as to the necessity of taking his land, the commissioners, with the approval of the city council, may cause proceedings to be taken for the condemnation thereof, as provided by law under the right of eminent domain. The complaint may aver that it is necessary for the city to take or damage and condemn the said lands, or an easement therein, as the case may be, without setting forth the proceedings herein provided for, and the resolution and ordinance ordering said work to be done shall be conclusive evidence of such necessity. Such proceedings shall be brought in the name of the municipality, and have precedence so far as the business of the court will permit; and any judgment for damages therein rendered shall be payable out of such portion of the special fund as may remain in the treasury, so far as the same can be applied. At any time after trial and judgment entered, or preceding an appeal, the court may order the city treasurer to set apart in the city treasury a sufficient sum from the fund appropriated to the particular improvement to answer the judgment and all damages, and thereupon may authorize and order the municipality to enter upon the land and proceed with the proposed work and improvement. In case of a deficiency in said fund to pay the whole of such judgment and damages, the city council may,

in their discretion, order the balance thereof to be paid out of the general fund of the treasury or to be distributed by the commissioners over the property assessed by a supplementary assessment; but in the last-named case, in order to avoid delay, the city council may advance such balance out of any appropriate fund in the treasury, and reimburse the same from the collections of the assessment. Pending the collection and payment of the amount of the judgment and damages, the court may order such stay of proceedings as may be necessary.

Duty of treasurer on payment of warrants.

§ 19. The treasurer shall pay such warrants out of the appropriate fund, and not otherwise, in the order of their presentation; provided, that warrants for land or improvements taken or damaged shall have priority over warrants for charges and expenses, and the treasurer shall see that sufficient money is and remains in the fund to pay all warrants of the first class before paying any of the second.

Supplementary assessments, when may be ordered.

§ 20. If after the sale of the property for delinquent assessments there should be a deficiency, and there should be unreasonable delay in collecting the same, or if for the purpose of equalizing the assessments supplying a deficiency, or for any cause it appears desirable, the commissioners may so report to the city council, who may order them to make a supplementary assessment and report the same in manner and form as the original, and subject to the same procedure. If by reason of such supplementary assessment, or for any cause, there should be at any time a surplus, the city council may appropriate the same and declare a dividend pro rata to the parties paying the same, and they, upon demand, shall have the right to have the amount of such pro rata dividends refunded to them, or credited upon any subsequent assessment for taxes made against said parties in favor of said city.

Proceedings to settle defective title.

§ 21. If any title attempted to be acquired by virtue of this act shall be found to be defective from any cause, the city council may again institute proceedings to acquire the cause as in this act provided, or otherwise, or may authorize the commissioners to purchase the same and include the cost thereof in a supplementary assessment as provided in the last section.

Proceedings when boundaries of districts of lands affect the whole city.

§ 22. If the city council deem it proper that the boundaries of the districts of lands to be affected and assessed to pay the damages, cost and expenses of any work or improvement under this act, shall include the whole city, then the commissioners appointed shall proceed in a summary manner to purchase the lands to be taken or condemned from the owners and claimants thereof. If said commissioners and the owners and claimants cannot agree upon the price to be paid for said lands, they shall proceed to view and value the same, and shall thereupon make a summary report to the city council. Upon final confirmation of the report, the city council, if there be not sufficient money available in the city treasury, shall cause the cost and expenses of the contemplated public improvement to be assessed upon the whole of the taxable property of said city, and to be included in and form part of the next general assessment-roll of said city, and with like effect in all respects as if the same formed a part of the city, state, and county taxes; and when the same shall have been collected the said city council shall cause the land required to be paid for or the value thereof tendered, and the said contemplated public improvement to be forthwith made and completed. All the provisions of the preceding sections not in conflict with this section shall be applicable thereto.

Use of words "work" and "improvement."

§ 23. 1. The words "work" and "improvement," as used in this act, shall include all work mentioned in section 1 of this act.

Notices to be posted when publication cannot be had.

2. In case there is no daily or weekly or semi-weekly newspapers printed and circulated in the city, then such notices as are herein required to be published in a newspaper shall be posted and kept posted for the length of time required herein for the publication of the same in a weekly newspaper, in three of the most public places in such city. Proof of the publication or posting of any notice provided for herein shall be made by affidavit of the owner, publisher or clerk of the newspaper or of the poster of the notice.

Construction of words "municipality" and "city."

3. The word "municipality" and the word "city" shall be understood and so construed as to include all corporations heretofore organized and now existing, or hereafter organized, for municipal purpose.

Construction of terms "street superintendent" and "superintendent of streets."

4. The terms "street superintendent" and "superintendent of streets," as used in this act, shall be understood and so construed as to include, and are hereby declared to include any person or officer whose duty it is, under the law, to have the care or charge of the streets, or the improvement thereof, in any city. In all those cities where there is no street superintendent or superintendent of streets, the city council thereof is hereby authorized and empowered to appoint a suitable person to discharge the duties herein laid down as those of street superintendent or superintendent of streets; and all the provisions hereof applicable to the street superintendent or superintendent of streets shall apply to such persons so appointed.

Construction of term "city council."

5. The term "city council" is hereby declared to include any body or board which, under the law, is the legislative department of the government of any city.

Construction of terms "clerk" and "city clerk."

6. The terms "clerk" and "city clerk," as used in this act, is hereby declared to include any person or officer who shall be clerk of said city council.

Construction of terms "treasurer" and "city treasurer."

7. The term "treasurer" or "city treasurer," as used in this act, shall include any person or officer who shall have charge and make payment of the city funds.

8. No publications or notice other than that provided for in this act shall be necessary to give validity to any proceedings had thereunder.

Proceedings commenced before passage of this act to be continued by resolution of council.

§ 24. The proceedings and any work or improvement, such as is provided for in this act, already commenced, and now progressing under any other act now in force, or by virtue of any ordinance passed by any city council or board of supervisors of any city, county, or city and county, by virtue of any other act now in force, may, from any stage of such proceedings already commenced and now progressing, be continued under this act by resolution of the city council. The said work or improvement may then be conducted under the provisions of this act with full force and effect in all respects, from the stage of such proceedings under such other acts or ordinances at and from which such resolution shall declare an election or intention to have said work or improvement cease under such other act or ordinance, and continue under this act; and from such election so made, all proceedings theretofore had under such other act or ordinance are hereby ratified, confirmed, and made valid, and it shall be unnecessary to renew or conduct over again proceedings had under such other act or ordinance. This section shall not apply to any work or improvement, proceedings in which were commenced more than eighteen months prior to the passage of this act.

Act to be liberally construed.

§ 25. The provisions of this act shall be liberally construed to promote the objects thereof. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

ACT 3928.

An act to provide for the laying out, opening, extending, widening, or straightening, in whole or in part, of public streets, squares, lanes, alleys, courts, and places, within municipalities, for the condemnation of property necessary or convenient for such purposes, and for the establishment of assessment districts and the assessment of property therein to pay the expense of such improvement.

Amended 1909, p. 1035.

Citations. Cal. 153/292. App. 7/526, 527; 8/608, 609, 610, 611.

§ 1. Whenever the public interest or convenience may require, the city council of any municipality shall have full power and authority to order the laying out, opening, extending, widening, or straightening, in whole or in part, of any public street, square, lane, alley, court, or place within such municipality, and to acquire, by condemnation, any and all property necessary or convenient for that purpose.

§ 2. Before ordering any improvement to be made, which is authorized by section 1 of this act, the city council shall pass an ordinance declaring its intention to do so, describing the improvement, and the land necessary or convenient to be taken therefor, and specifying the boundaries of the district to be benefited by said improvement, and to be assessed to pay the expense thereof, and to be known as the assessment district.

§ 3. The street superintendent shall thereupon cause to be conspicuously posted along all streets and parts of streets within the assessment district described in said ordinance, at not more than three hundred feet in distance apart, notices (not less than three in all) of the passage of said ordinance. Said notices shall be headed, "Notice of Public Work," in letters not less than one inch in length, shall be in legible characters, and shall state the fact and date of the passage of said ordinance, and briefly describe the improvement proposed, and refer to said ordinance for further particulars. He shall also cause a notice similar in substance to be published for a period of five days, in a daily newspaper published and circulated in said municipality, and designated by said city council for that purpose, or if there is no such daily newspaper, then by four successive insertions in a weekly newspaper so published, circulated, and designated.

§ 4. Any person interested, objecting to said improvement, or to the extent of the assessment district, described in said ordinance of intention, may file a written protest with the clerk of the city council, within thirty days after the first publication of the notice required by section 3 of this act. Every such protest must contain a description of the property in which each signer thereof is interested, sufficient to identify the same, and must set forth the nature of his interest therein, and must be accompanied by the affidavit of one of the signers thereof that each signature thereof is the genuine signature of the person whose name is thereto subscribed; and in case any signature is made by an agent, there must be attached to the protest the affidavit of the agent that he is duly authorized to sign such protest. Any protest not complying with the foregoing requirements, shall not be considered by the city council. In the case of property held by tenancy in common, if any cotenant sign such protest, only the proportionate share of the frontage thereof represented by his interest therein, shall be counted in determining the amount of frontage represented by such protest. The clerk shall endorse on every such protest the date of its reception by him, and, at the next regular meeting of the city council, after the expiration of the time for filing protests, he shall present to said city council all protests so filed with him. If such protests are against said improvement, and said city council finds that the same are signed by the owners of a majority of the frontage of the property fronting on streets or parts of streets within said assessment district, all further proceedings under said ordinance of intention, excepting in the cases hereinafter otherwise provided, shall be barred, and no new ordinance of intention for the same improvement shall be passed within six months after the presentation of such protest to the city council, unless the owners of a majority of the frontage of the property fronting on streets or parts of streets within said assessment district shall in the meantime petition therefor. If such protests are against the improvement, and the council finds that they are not signed by the owners of a majority of the frontage of the property fronting on streets or parts of streets within said assessment district, or if such protests are only against the extent of said assessment district, or if the proposed improvement is for the opening or extending of a street for a distance of not more than two blocks intervening between the terminations of two different streets, or two portions of the same street, existing at the time of the passage of the ordinance of intention for the proposed improvement, each of said different street or said portions of the same street being at least five blocks in length, and the opening or extending of the street described in the ordinance of intention through such intervening block or blocks will, together with such different streets or portions of the same street so existing, make one connecting or continuous street, as nearly as may be practicable, or if the proposed improvement is for the opening or extending of a street into a different street, for a distance of not more than one block intervening between the termination of such street so proposed to be opened or extended and such different street, when the street so proposed to be opened or extended through such intervening block exists, at the time of the passage of the ordinance of intention for a distance of at least five blocks, or if the proposed improvement is for the opening or extending of a public street, lane, alley, court or place through the remainder of a block when such public street, lane, alley, court or place exists, at the time of the passage of the ordinance of intention for the proposed improvement, for at least one-half of the distance through such block, the city council shall thereupon fix a time for hearing said protests, not less than ten days after the meeting of the council at which such time is so fixed, and shall cause notice of the time of such hearing to be published for at least five days in a daily newspaper published and circulated in said city, or if there be no such daily newspaper, by at least two insertions in a weekly newspaper so published and circulated. The city council shall hear said protests at the time appointed, or at any time to which the hearing thereof may be adjourned, and pass upon the same, and its decision thereon shall be final and conclusive. If any such protests are sustained, no further proceedings shall be had under said ordinance of intention, but a new ordinance of intention for the same improvement may be passed at any time. If the protests are denied, the proceedings shall continue as if such protests had not been made. At the expiration of the time within which protests may be filed, if none are filed, or if protests are filed, and after hearing are denied, as above provided, then upon such denial, the city council shall acquire jurisdiction to order the improvement described in the ordinance of intention. [Amendment approved April 21, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 1035.]

§ 5. Having acquired jurisdiction, the city council, shall, by ordinance, order said improvement to be made, and direct an action to be brought by the city attorney, in the proper superior court, in the name of the municipality, for the condemnation of the property necessary or convenient to be taken therefor. Such ordinance need not describe the property to be taken, nor the assessment district, but may refer to the ordinance of intention for all particulars.

§ 6. Said action must be brought within sixty days after the passage of the ordinance ordering the improvement, but the council may, by ordinance, extend the time for bringing such action for an additional period not exceeding ninety days. Said action shall in all respects be subject to and governed by such provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure now existing or that may be hereafter adopted, as may be applicable thereto, except in the particulars otherwise provided for in this act. [Amendment approved April 21, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 1037.]

§ 7. The complaint shall set forth, or state the effect of, the ordinance of intention, and the ordinance ordering the improvement, but need not set up any other proceedings had before the bringing of the action. Said ordinances shall be conclusive evidence, in such action, of the public necessity of the proposed improvement, and also that the same is located in the manner which will be most compatible with the greatest public good and the least private injury.

§ 8. When all parties defendant to the action have answered, or have been served with summons, and their default entered, the plaintiff or any party defendant to the action whose default has not been so entered, may, upon five days' notice to the parties, except defendants in default, move the court to set the action for trial. If, upon the hearing of such motion, a trial by jury or by the court without a jury is not demanded by the defendants, or any of them, or by the plaintiff, such trial shall be deemed to be waived, and the court must appoint three disinterested persons referees, to ascertain the compensation to be paid to such defendants so waiving a trial by a jury, or by the court without a jury. Such referees must be residents of the municipality where such improvement is to be made, and over the age of twenty-one years, and must take and file with the court an oath to discharge their duties faithfully and impartially. If any of such referees fails to qualify, or resigns, or is removed by order of court, or is or becomes unable to act, the vacancy so created shall be filled by the court. [Amendment approved April 21, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 1037.]

§ 9. The referees shall at once proceed to view the lands sought to be condemned, and ascertain the compensation proper to be paid to such of the parties interested in each parcel thereof as have waived a trial by a jury, or by the court. They shall have power to examine witnesses under oath, to be administered by any of them, and may have subpoenas issued by the clerk of the court, requiring the attendance of witnesses, or the production of evidence before them. They shall make and file with the court a written report of their findings, and of their necessary expenses, within thirty days after the date of their appointment; provided, however, that the time so allowed may be extended, upon good cause shown, by the court or judge thereof, but such extension shall not exceed ninety days; and provided further, that if any vacancy in the referees is created and filled as provided in section 8 of this act, or if new referees are appointed, or if a new report from the same referees is ordered, as provided in section 11 of this act, the time herein specified for the filing of such report shall be deemed to be thirty days from the date of the order filling such vacancy, or appointing new referees, or ordering a new report from the same referees, and the same may be extended accordingly, as above provided. Any two of such referees who agree thereto, may make such report. [Amendment approved April 21, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 1038.]

§ 10. For the purpose of assessing the compensation and damages, the right thereto shall be deemed to have accrued at the date of the order appointing referees or of the order setting the cause for trial, as the case may be, and its actual value at that date shall be the measure of compensation for all property to be actually taken, and the basis of damages to property not actually taken, but injuriously affected, in all cases where such damages are allowed by the provisions of this act. No improvements placed upon the property proposed to be taken, subsequent to the date of the publishing of the notice of the passage of the ordinance of intention, shall be included in the assessment of compensation or damages.

The referees, or court, or jury, as the case may be, shall find separately:

First. The value of each parcel of property sought to be condemned, and all improvements thereon pertaining to the realty, and of each separate estate or interest therein;

Second. If any parcel of property sought to be condemned is only a part of a larger parcel, the damages which will accrue to the portion not sought to be condemned, and to each separate estate or interest therein, by reason of its severance from the portion sought to be condemned, and the construction of the improvement in the manner proposed by the plaintiff. Such damages must be fixed irrespective of any benefit from such improvement. [Amendment approved April 21, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 1038.]

§ 11. Upon the filing of such report the court must, upon motion of any party, appoint a day for hearing the same, not less than twenty days thereafter. Notice of the time and place of said hearing must, at least ten days before the time so appointed, be served on all the other parties, except defendants whose default has been entered. The plaintiff, or any defendant who has answered, may file exceptions in writing to said report, specifying the grounds upon which such exceptions are based, at any time within not less than one day prior to the hearing; and any such party so filing exceptions to said report, may appear at the hearing of said report and contest the same. In addition to the notice hereinbefore provided, the clerk of the court must give notice of the filing of said report, and of the time and place appointed for the hearing of the same, to all persons owning or having an interest in any property included within the assessment district for said improvement described in the ordinance of intention, by causing said notice last mentioned to be published for five days in a daily newspaper published and circulated in the city; and, if there be no such daily newspaper, then by two insertions in a weekly newspaper so published and circulated. Any publication of such notice shall commence at least ten days before the time appointed for the hearing of the report. Said notice shall require all persons owning or having an interest in any property included within said assessment district for said improvement to intervene in said action, and file, in the office of the clerk of said court, his exceptions in writing to said report, if any he has, specifying the grounds upon which such exceptions are based. Said notice shall also contain a description of the said assessment district as set forth in the ordinance of intention. At any time within not less than one day prior to the hearing, any person not a party to the action, owning or having an interest in any property included within said assessment district, may intervene in the action, and file his exceptions in writing to said report, specifying the grounds upon which such exceptions are based; and any such person so intervening may appear and contest the said report, and introduce evidence in support of such exceptions. After hearing the report, and any exceptions thereto, the court may confirm the report, or may modify it and confirm it as modified, or may set it aside and order a new report from the same referees, or from new referees to be appointed. If new referees are appointed, the same proceedings shall be had as upon the first reference.

If there be a trial of the action by a jury, or by the court without a jury, the clerk of the court must give notice of the time and place of such trial to all persons owning or having an interest in any property within said assessment district for said improvement. Said notice shall be published in the same manner and for the same time as the notice hereinbefore in this section required to be given by said clerk, and shall require all persons owning or having an interest in any property included within said assessment district for said improvement, to intervene in said action, and to appear at the trial thereof and introduce evidence relative to the compensation and damages to be awarded to the defendants therein. At any time within not less than one day prior to the trial, any person not a party to the action, having an interest in any property included within said assessment district, may intervene in the action, and, upon the trial thereof, may appear and introduce evidence relative to the compensation and damages to be awarded to the defendants therein. The cost of the publication of the notices required by this section shall be paid by the plaintiff, and allowed as costs in the action.

When a time has been appointed for hearing the report of the referees, or for the trial of the action, and notice thereof has been given by the clerk by publication as in this section provided, if the hearing or trial be postponed or continued by the court to any subsequent date, no such notice need be given by the clerk of the hearing or trial upon any such postponement or continuance. [Amendment approved April 21, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 1039.]

§ 12. Upon the confirmation of the report of the referees, or receipt of the verdict of the jury, or the filing of the findings of the court, the court shall make and enter an interlocutory judgment in accordance with such report, verdict or findings, adjudging that upon payment to the respective parties, or into court for their benefit, of the several amounts found due them as compensation, and of the costs allowed to them, the property involved in the action shall be condemned to the use of the plaintiff, and dedicated to the use specified in the complaint. The court shall allow to the referees, as costs to be paid by the plaintiff, a reasonable compensation for their services, the amount of which compensation shall be fixed by the court upon the hearing of the report, and their necessary expenses. [Amendment approved April 21, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 1040.]

§ 13. An appeal may be taken from such interlocutory judgment within thirty days from the entry thereof, and from any order granting or denying a new trial within ten days after the entry thereof.

§ 14. The city council may, at any time prior to the entry of the interlocutory judgment, abandon the proceedings by ordinance, and cause the said action to be dismissed without prejudice. [Amendment approved April 21, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 1040.]

§ 15. Upon the entry of the interlocutory judgment, the city council shall order the city engineer, or if there be no city engineer, any civil engineer whom it may employ for that purpose, to make and deliver to the street superintendent, a diagram of the improvement and of the property within the assessment district described in the ordinance of intention. Said diagram shall show the land to be taken for the proposed improvement, and also each separate lot, piece or parcel of land within the assessment district, and the dimensions of each such lot, piece, or parcel of land, and the relative location of the same to the proposed improvement.

§ 16. The city engineer shall deliver said diagram to the street superintendent, and shall indorse thereon the date of such delivery. The street superintendent upon receiving the said diagram shall proceed to assess the total expenses of the proposed improvement upon and against the lands, including the property of any railroad or street railroad, within said assessment district, except the land to be taken for such improvement, in proportion to the benefits to be derived from said improvement. The street superintendent shall complete said assessment within sixty days after the receipt by him of said diagram; provided, however, that the city council may by order extend the time for completing said assessment for a period not exceeding ninety days additional. The total expense of the improvement so to be assessed shall include the amounts awarded to the defendants by the interlocutory judgment in the action for condemnation, together with their costs, the compensation and expenses of the referees, as allowed by the court, and all other costs of the plaintiff in such action, the expenses of making the assessment, and all expenses necessarily incurred by said city, in connection with the proposed improvement, for the publication of ordinances, posting and publication of notices, for maps, diagrams, plans, surveys, searches and certificates of title to the property to be taken, and all other matters incident thereto. [Amendment approved April 21, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 1040.]

§ 17. The street superintendent shall make the said assessment in writing. Such assessment shall describe each lot, piece, or parcel of land assessed for said improvement, and shall designate each such lot, piece, or parcel of land with an appropriate number. The street superintendent shall also designate each such lot, piece, or parcel of land on said diagram, with the number corresponding with the number thereof in said assessment, and said diagram shall thereupon be attached to and become and be deemed to be a part of said assessment. Such assessment shall show the total sum to be raised thereby, as hereinbefore provided, and also the items of such total sum, and opposite each lot, piece, or parcel of land assessed, the amount assessed thereon, and the name of the owner thereof, if known to the street superintendent; or if the owner's name is unknown, the word "Unknown" shall be written instead of such name. Any error or mistake in the designation of the owner of any lot, piece, or parcel of land, or in the particulars of his interest therein, shall not affect the validity of the assessment.

§ 18. As soon as said assessment is completed the street superintendent shall file the same, with the diagram attached thereto and made a part thereof as aforesaid, with the clerk of the council, who shall give notice of such filing by publication for, at least, ten days in a daily newspaper published and circulated in the city, or if there be no such daily newspaper, by three successive insertions in a weekly newspaper so published and circulated. Said notice shall require all persons interested to file with said clerk their objections, if any they have, to the confirmation of said assessment, within thirty days after the date of the first publication of such notice, which date shall be stated in said notice.

§ 19. All objections shall be in writing and shall be filed with said clerk within the time prescribed in the notice required by section 18 hereof. The clerk shall, at the next regular meeting of the city council after the expiration of the time for filing objections, lay said assessment and all objections so filed with him, before the council; and said council shall hear all such objections at said meeting, or at any other time to which the hearing thereof may be adjourned, and pass upon such assessment, and may confirm, modify, or correct said assessment, or may order a new assessment, upon which like proceedings shall be had, as in the case of an original assessment; or if there be no objections, the council shall, at any regular meeting after the expiration of the time for filing objections, confirm such assessment, and the action of the council upon such objections and assessment shall be final and conclusive in the premises.

§ 20. The clerk of the council shall thereupon deliver to the street superintendent the assessment as confirmed by the city council, with his certificate of such confirmation, and of the date thereof. The street superintendent shall thereupon record such assessment and diagram in his office, in a suitable book to be kept for that purpose, and append thereto his certificate of the date of such recording, and such record shall be the assessment-roll. From the date of such recording all persons shall be deemed to have notice of the contents of such assessment-roll. Immediately upon such recording, the several assessments contained in such assessment-roll shall become due and payable, and each of such assessments shall be a lien upon the property against which it is made.

§ 21. The owner of any property assessed, who is entitled to compensation under the award made by the interlocutory judgment, may, at any time after such assessment becomes payable, and before the sale of said property for nonpayment thereof, as hereinafter provided, demand of the street superintendent that such assessment, or any number of such assessments, be offset against the amount to which he is entitled under said judgment. Thereupon, if said amount is equal to or greater than such assessments, including any penalties and costs due thereon, the assessments shall be marked "Paid by offset"; and if the said amount is less than the assessments, and any penalties and costs due thereon, the person demanding such offset shall at the same time pay the difference to the street superintendent in money, and the assessments shall, on such payment, be marked paid, the entry showing what part thereof is paid by offset and what part in money. In either case, as a condition of the offset, such person must execute to the city and deliver to the street superintendent duplicate receipts for such part of the amount due him under said interlocutory judgment as is offset against such assessments, penalties, and costs. One of said duplicate receipts shall be filed by the street superintendent in his office, the other shall be filed with the clerk of the superior court, and on such filing, the city shall be entitled to a satisfaction pro tanto of said interlocutory judgment.

§ 22. The street superintendent shall, upon the recording of said assessment, give notice, by publication for ten days in a daily newspaper, published and circulated in such municipality, or by three successive insertions in a weekly newspaper, so published and so circulated, that said assessment has been recorded in his office, and that all sums assessed therein are due and payable immediately, and that the payment of the said sums is to be made to him within thirty days after the date of the first publication, which date shall be stated in the notice. Said notice shall also contain a statement that all assessments not paid before the expiration of said thirty days will become delinquent, and that thereupon five per cent upon the amount of each such assessment will be added thereto. When payment for any assessment is made, the street superintendent shall mark opposite such assessment, the word, "Paid," the date of payment, and the name of the person by or for whom the same is paid, and shall, if so requested, give receipt therefor. On the expiration of said period of thirty days, all assessments then unpaid shall become delinquent, and the street superintendent shall certify such fact at the foot of said assessment-roll, and mark each such assessment "Delinquent," and add five per cent to the amount of each assessment delinquent.

§ 23. The street superintendent shall, within ten days from the date of such delinquency, begin the publication of a list of the delinquent assessments, which list must contain a description of each parcel of property delinquent, and opposite or against each description, the name of the owner as stated in the assessment-roll, and the amount of the assessment, penalty, and costs due, including the cost of advertising, which last shall not exceed the sum of fifty cents for each lot, piece, or parcel of land, separately assessed. The street superintendent shall append to and publish with said delinquent list a notice that unless each assessment delinquent, together with the penalty and costs thereon, is paid, the property upon which such assessment is a lien, will be sold at public auction at a time and place to be specified in the notice. The publication must be made for a period of ten days, in some daily newspaper published and circulated in the municipality, or for three weeks in a weekly newspaper so published and circulated. The time of sale must not be less than five days, nor more than ten days, after the expiration of the period of publication of said list, and the place of sale must be in, or in front of, the office of the street superintendent.

§ 24. At any time after such delinquency, and prior to the sale of any piece of property assessed and delinquent, any person may pay the assessment on such piece of property, together with the penalty, and costs then due, including the cost of advertising, if such payment is made after the first publication of the list of delinquent assessments. The street superintendent shall thereupon mark such assessment "Paid," as hereinbefore provided.

§ 25. On the day fixed for the sale, the street superintendent must, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. commence the sale of the property advertised, commencing at the head of the list, and continuing in the numerical order of lots or parcels of land until all are sold; provided, that he may postpone or continue the sale from day to day until all the property is sold. Each lot, piece or parcel of land separately assessed must be offered for sale separately, and the person who will take the least quantity of land, and then and there pay the amount of the assessment, penalty, and costs due, including fifty cents to the street superintendent for a certificate of sale, shall become the purchaser. In case there is no purchaser, for any lot, piece or parcel of land so offered for sale, the same shall be struck off to the municipality, as purchaser, and the city council shall appropriate out of the general fund of the treasury, the amount required for such purchase, and shall order the city treasurer to place the same in the special fund for such improvement. No charge shall be made for the certificate of sale when the municipality is the purchaser.

§ 26. After making the sale, the street superintendent must execute, in duplicate, a certificate of sale setting forth a description of the property sold, the name of the owner thereof, as given on the assessment-roll, that said property was sold for a delinquent assessment, (specifying the improvement for which the same was made), the amount for which such property was sold, the date of sale, the name of the purchaser, and the time when the purchaser will be entitled to a deed. The street superintendent must file one copy of such certificate in his office, and deliver the other to the purchaser, or if the municipality is the purchaser, to the clerk of the council, who shall file the same in his office. On the filing of the copy of such certificate in the office of the street superintendent, the lien of the assessment shall vest in the purchaser, and is only divested by a redemption of the property, as in this act provided. The street superintendent shall also enter on the assessment-roll, opposite the description of each piece of property offered for sale, a description of the part thereof sold, the amount for which the same was sold, the date of the sale, and the name of the purchaser.

§ 27. A redemption of any parcel of property sold for delinquent assessment may be made by any party in interest, at any time prior to the execution and delivery of a deed therefor, by paying to the street superintendent the amount for which the property was sold, and in addition thereto, ten per cent thereon if paid within three months from the date of sale; twenty per cent if paid within six months; thirty per cent if paid within nine months; forty per cent if paid within twelve months, or fifty per cent if paid at any time after twelve months. When redemption is made, the street superintendent shall note that fact on the duplicate certificate of sale on file in his office, and deposit the amount paid with the city treasurer, who shall credit the purchaser named in the certificate of sale with the said amount, and pay the same to such purchaser, or his assignee, upon the surrender of the certificate of sale, and upon satisfactory proof of assignment thereof, if any. When the municipality is the purchaser, the treasurer shall notify the clerk of the council of the redemption, and such clerk shall thereupon cancel the certificate of sale on file in his office.

§ 28. At any time after the expiration of twelve months from the date of sale, the street superintendent must execute to the purchaser, or his assignee on his application, if such purchaser or assignee has complied with the provisions of this section, a deed of the property sold, in which shall be recited substantially the matters contained in the certificate, also any assignment thereof and the fact that no person has redeemed the property. The street superintendent shall receive from the applicant for a deed, one dollar for making such deed, unless the municipality is the purchaser, in which case no charge shall be made therefor. The purchaser or his assignee must, at least thirty days before he applies for a deed, serve upon the owner of the property, and upon the occupant of such property, if the same is occupied, a written notice, setting forth a description of the property, that said property has been sold for a delinquent assessment (specifying the improvement for which the same was made), the amount for which it was sold, the amount necessary to redeem at the time of giving notice, and the time when such purchaser or assignee will apply to the street superintendent for a deed. If the said owner cannot be found, after due diligence, said notice must be posted in a conspicuous place upon said property, at least thirty days before the time stated therein, at which the application for a deed will be made. The person applying for a deed must file with the street superintendent an affidavit or affidavits showing that notice of such application has been given, as herein required, and if the notice was not served on the owner of the property personally, that due diligence was used to find said owner; which affidavit or affidavits must be filed by the street superintendent in his office. If redemption of the property is made after such affidavits are filed, and more than eleven months from the date of sale, the person making such redemption must pay, in addition to the other amounts required, three dollars for the service of notice and the making of such affidavits, which amount shall be paid over to the purchaser or his assignee in the same manner as other sums paid for redemption. No deed for any property sold for delinquent assessment shall be made until the purchaser or his assignee has complied with all the provisions of this section, and filed the proper affidavits with the street superintendent.

§ 29. The deed of the street superintendent shall be prima facie evidence of the truth of all matters recited therein, and of the regularity of all proceedings prior to the execution thereof, and of title in the grantee.

§ 30. The street superintendent shall, from time to time, pay over to the city treasurer all moneys collected by him on account of any assessments made under the provisions of this act. The city treasurer shall on receipt thereof, place the same in a special fund, designating such fund by the name of the improvement for which the assessment was made.

§ 31. As soon as there is sufficient money in the hands of the city treasurer, in the special fund devoted to the proposed improvement, to pay the amounts awarded to the defendants by the interlocutory judgment in the action of condemnation, or such parts thereof as have not been paid by offset against assessments, as hereinbefore provided, the said amounts shall be paid to the parties entitled thereto, or into court for their benefit. On satisfactory proof being made to the court of payment of the amounts awarded by the interlocutory judgment to the respective parties entitled thereto, or into court for their benefit, it shall direct the interlocutory judgment to be satisfied, and shall make and enter a final judgment, condemning the lands described in the complaint to the use of the plaintiff for the purposes specified in such complaint.

§ 32. In case of a deficiency in the fund for such improvement, the city council, in its discretion, may provide for such deficiency by an appropriation out of the general fund of the treasury, or by ordering a supplementary assessment to be made by the street superintendent upon the property in said assessment district in the same manner and form, and subject to the same procedure as the original assessment, and in the last named case, in order to avoid delay, the city council may advance such deficiency out of the city treasury and reimburse the treasury from the collections under such supplementary assessment. In case of a surplus in the fund for such improvement, the city council may order such surplus refunded pro rata to the parties who paid the assessments.

§ 33. The following words and phrases shall, where used in this act, have the following meanings:

(1) The term "improvement" includes all of the improvements mentioned in section 1 of this act.

(2) The terms "municipality" and "city" include all incorporated cities, cities and counties, and other corporations organized for municipal purposes.

(3) The terms "city council" and "council" include any body or board in which by law is vested the legislative power of any municipality.

(4) The terms "clerk" and "city clerk" include any person or officer who acts as clerk of said city council.

(5) The terms "treasurer" and "city treasurer" include any person or officer who has charge and makes payment of the city funds.

(6) The term "street superintendent" includes any officer or board whose duty it is by law to have the care or charge of streets or the improvement thereof, in any city. In any city where there is no street superintendent, or no such board, the city council thereof is hereby authorized to appoint a suitable person to perform the duties imposed by this act on the street superintendent, and all the provisions hereof applicable to the street superintendent shall apply to the person so appointed.

(7) The terms "owner" and "any person interested" include the person owning the fee, or the person in whom, on the day any protest or petition is filed, the legal title to real property appears, by deeds duly recorded in the county recorder's office of the county in which said city is situated, or any person in possession of real property, as the executor, administrator, trustee under an express trust, guardian or other legal representative of the owner, or any person in possession of real property under a written contract of purchase thereof duly recorded, or any person in possession of real property, as lessee thereof under a lease duly recorded, which shall require such lessee to pay or discharge all assessments for street or other public improvements, that may be levied or assessed against such real property. [Amendment approved April 21, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 1041.]

§ 34. In case there is no daily or weekly newspaper published and circulated in the city, then such notices and delinquent lists as are herein required to be published in a newspaper shall be posted in three of the most public places in such city, for the length of time required herein for the publication of the same in a weekly newspaper. No publication or notice other than that provided in this act shall be necessary to give validity to any proceedings had thereunder.

§ 35. Proof of publication of any notice required by this act shall be made by affidavit, as provided in the Code of Civil Procedure, and proof of the posting of any such notice shall be made by the affidavit of the person posting the same, setting forth the facts regarding such posting. It shall be the duty of any officer who is required by this act to have any notice published or posted, to obtain and file in his office the affidavit or affidavits in proof thereof; provided that his failure so to do shall not affect the validity of any proceedings under this act. Any such affidavit so filed shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated regarding such publication or posting.

§ 36. This act shall in no wise affect an act entitled, "An act to provide for laying out, opening, extending, widening, straightening, or closing up, in whole or in part, any street, square, lane, alley, court, or place within municipalities, and to condemn and acquire any and all land and property necessary or convenient for that purpose," approved March 6, 1889, or amendments thereto, or any other acts on the same subject, or apply to proceedings had thereunder, but it is intended to and does provide an alternate system of proceedings for making the improvements provided for by this act; and it shall be within the discretion of the city council or any municipality to proceed in making such improvements, either under the provisions of this act, or under the provisions of such other acts; but when any proceedings are commenced under this act, the provisions of this act, and of such amendments thereof as may be hereafter adopted, and no other, shall apply to all such proceedings, and any provisions contained in said acts or any acts in conflict with the provisions hereof shall be void and of no effect as to the proceedings commenced under the provisions of this act. The election of the city council to proceed under the provisions of this act shall be expressed in its ordinance of intention to order the work done.

§ 37. The provisions of this act shall be liberally construed to promote the objects thereof. This act may be designated and referred to as the "Street Opening Act of 1903," and shall take effect and be in force upon its passage and approval.

The amendatory act of April 21, 1909, contained also the following: "§ 11. Any proceeding or action for any improvement, such as is provided for in this act, or in said act to which this act is amendatory, already commenced and pending at the time this act takes effect, under or by virtue of any ordinance of intention theretofore passed, shall, from the stage of any such proceeding or action already commenced and in progress at the time this act takes effect, be continued under the provisions of this act. Any such proceeding or action shall then be continued and conducted under the provisions of this act, with full force and effect in all respects from the stage of such proceeding or action at and from the taking effect of this act; and from the taking effect of this act all proceedings theretofore had for any such improvement, and all proceedings theretofore had or taken in any such action, are hereby ratified, confirmed, and made valid, and it shall not be necessary to renew or conduct over again any such proceedings or actions, commenced prior to the taking effect of this act."

ACT 3929.

An act to provide for local improvements upon streets, lanes, alleys, courts, places, and sidewalks, and for the construction of sewers within municipalities, such act to be known as "The Local Improvement Act of 1901."

[Became a law under constitutional provisions without governor's approval, February 26, 1901. Stats. 1901, p. 34.]

Citation. Cal. 142/700.

§ 1. All streets, lanes, alleys, places, or courts in the municipalities of this state, now open or dedicated, or which may hereafter be opened or dedicated to public use, shall be deemed and be held to be open public streets, lanes, alleys, places, or courts, for the purposes of this act, and the legislative body of each municipality is hereby empowered to establish and change the grades of said streets, lanes, alleys, places, or courts, and fix the width thereof, and is hereby invested with jurisdiction to order to be done thereon any of the work mentioned in section 2 of this act, under the proceedings hereinafter described.

§ 2. Whenever the public interest or convenience may require, the legislative body is hereby authorized and empowered to order the whole, or any portion, either in length or width, of the streets, avenues, lanes, alleys, courts, or places of any such municipality graded or regraded to the official grade, planked or replanked, paved or repaved, macadamized or remacadamized, graveled or regraveled, piled or repiled, capped or recapped, sewerred or resewered, supplied or resupplied with drains for storm-water or other purposes, and to order sidewalks, parkways, manholes, catch basins, culverts, cesspools, gutters, tunnels, curbing, and cross-walks to be constructed therein, or to order breakwaters, levees, or walls of rock, or other material, to protect the same from overflow or injury, and to order any other work to be done which shall be necessary to complete the whole or any portion of said streets, avenues, sidewalks, lanes, alleys, courts, or places, and it may order any of the said work to be improved, and also to order a sewer or sewers, with outlets, for drainage or sanitary purposes, in, over, or through any right of way granted or obtained for such purpose; and to provide for the maintenance of any such work.

§ 3. Before ordering any work done or improvement made, which is authorized by section 2 of this act, the legislative body shall pass a resolution referring the proposed work to the city engineer, if there be one, and, if not, to some civil engineer employed by them for the purpose and named in the resolution, and instructing him to make to the legislative body a report in writing, containing his recommendations as to the best method of doing said work or of making said improvement, to which report shall be attached the exhibits hereinafter referred to.

§ 4. Thereafter, the said engineer shall file with the clerk of the municipality the report called for by section 3 above, and annex thereto the following exhibits, to wit:

1. A description of the work to be done; said work may include one or more streets in the same proceeding;

2. A description of the exterior boundaries of the district which will be benefited by the proposed improvement and should be specially assessed to pay the cost thereof;

3. Plans, profiles, cross-sections and specifications of the work required in order to accomplish said improvement;

4. An estimate of the expense of said improvements, deducting therefrom the estimated cost of so much, if any, of said improvements as may be by law required to be done by railroads having tracks upon the streets affected;

5. A map showing the district above referred to, and also the subdivisions of the property within said district, as ascertained by said engineer, each of which subdivisions shall be given upon said map a separate number in red ink;

6. A list referring to the said subdivisions upon said map by the respective red ink numbers thereof, and showing the names of the owners, if known, otherwise designating them as unknown, and the valuations of said respective subdivisions, as the same appear upon the last assessment-roll of said municipality, if they so appear, otherwise as estimated by said engineer, also the dimensions, areas, and his estimates of the benefits which the respective parcels will receive from said improvement;

7. An estimate of all incidental expenses likely to be incurred in connection with the work, such as clerical, engineering, inspection, printing and advertising.

§ 5. After the report of the engineer provided for in the next preceding section has been filed with the clerk of the municipality, the legislative body of said municipality shall consider the same and have the power, by resolution, to adopt the same as filed by said engineer, or as modified by the legislative body, and levy the assessment accordingly, but the same shall not constitute a lien until all parties interested have had an opportunity to be heard as hereinafter provided; in the same resolution the legislative body shall set forth the following:

1st. The rate of interest to be charged upon deferred payments;

2d. The time to be allowed upon deferred payments;

3d. The rate of interest to be allowed upon bonds issued to cover deferred payments;

4th. The time for which bonds issued to cover deferred payments are to run;

5th. The day and hour when and where any and all persons may appear before the legislative body and show cause, if any they have, why said improvement provided for in said resolution should not be carried out in accordance therewith; said time to be not less than thirty nor more than sixty days from the date of passage of said resolution;

6th. A description of the exterior boundaries of the district declared by the legislative body to be benefited by the proposed improvement and assessed to pay the costs and expenses thereof.

The rate of interest above referred to shall not exceed seven per cent, and in the same resolution the legislative body shall provide, if they so determine, that the work covered by said resolution shall include maintenance thereof for a stated number of years to be fixed by said resolution.

§ 6. After the passage of the resolution mentioned in section 5 hereof there shall be conspicuously posted in three of the most public places within the municipality, and also along the street frontages of all the real property within the district, at not more than one hundred feet in distance apart, notices of the hearing provided for in section 5; said notices shall be headed, "Notice of Local Improvement," in letters of not less than one inch in length, and shall in legible characters state the fact of the passage of the resolution mentioned in section 5, and briefly describe the work of improvement proposed, and refer to said resolution for further particulars; said notice shall also state the date, hour and place for which the said hearing has been set, and shall notify all parties interested in any real estate within the limits of said district then and there to show cause, if any they have, why the said improvements proposed in said resolution should not be carried out in accordance therewith; said notice shall also contain a description of the district covered by the resolution by the exterior boundaries thereof, said description to be in bold-face type; said notices must be posted at least twenty days before the time set for the hearing, and must be published twice in some newspaper of general circulation, published within the municipal corporation in which the improvements are to be made, at least ten days before the date of hearing.

§ 7. At the time named in the notice hereinbefore provided for for said hearing there shall be filed with the legislative body an affidavit that the notice has been posted as hereinbefore provided for, and an affidavit of the printer or publisher of the newspaper in which said notice has been published that the same has been published as hereinbefore provided for, and the legislative body, before proceeding with said hearing, shall have entered upon the minutes of the meeting an order reciting that notice of said hearing has been posted and published according to law, and such recitals shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein recited, and the legislative body shall thereupon proceed with the hearing of any objections which shall have been made in writing and filed with the clerk of the municipality not later than the hour for hearing named in said notice, and no other objections shall be considered. Said hearing may be continued from time to time by the legislative body, and all parties interested shall be deemed to have notice of said continuances. All objections must be in writing, must contain a description of the property in which the objector is interested, and set forth the nature of his title thereto or interest therein, and must state the objector's grounds of opposition, and must be signed and verified by the objector himself, or his attorney in fact, and objections which do not comply with these requirements shall not be considered by the said legislative body.

§ 8. At the close of the hearing provided for in the preceding section, the legislative body shall pass a resolution setting aside, modifying, or confirming the resolution provided for in section 5 hereof, and where the same is confirmed or modified, the lien of the assessment provided for therein shall immediately become attached to the respective parcels of land in accordance with said confirmed or modified resolution.

§ 9. Any action to contest an assessment levied by the legislative body of any municipality under the terms of this act must be commenced within thirty days after the entry upon the minutes of such legislative body of the resolution provided for in the preceding section hereof; and any appeal from a final judgment in such an action must be perfected within thirty days after the entry of such judgment.

§ 10. After the expiration of thirty days from the passage of the resolution provided for in section 8 hereof, the clerk of the municipality shall transmit to the tax collector of the municipality the map and list provided for in subdivisions 5 and 6, respectively, of section 4 hereof, and any modification made by the legislative body therein; provided, however, if any actions have been brought within thirty days after the passage of the resolution referred to in section 8, such transmission shall be postponed until such actions have been finally determined.

§ 11. Upon the receipt of the map and list referred to in the last preceding section, the tax collector of the municipality shall record the same in a substantial book to be kept for that purpose in his office. Said book shall also be ruled with appropriate columns, in which the tax collector shall extend the amounts of all installments of principal and interest and deferred payments, and each of said columns shall be provided with a space in which he shall make record of the fact and date of all payments received by him; and there shall also be a column in which shall be entered a reference by volume and page to the respective agreements under which said deferred payments are made.

§ 12. The tax collector of the municipality shall thereupon fix a day, not less than thirty nor more than forty days from the date of the receipt by him of the map and list transmitted to him under the provisions of section 10 hereof, which day shall be the last day for cash payments; and also shall fix a day for the sale of the various parcels of land within said district, which said day shall be not less than forty nor more than sixty days from the receipt by him of the map and list transmitted to him under the provisions of section 10 hereof; notice thereof shall be given in conformity with the general laws of the state of California providing for notice of sale of real estate upon execution, and shall be posted and published in the same manner as such notices; provided, however, that the descriptions of the various parcels need not be set out at length, but only by the respective numbers of the same, as the same appear upon the assessment and diagram, which shall be properly referred to in said notice; which shall be in one writing, containing all of said descriptions.

§ 13. At the time and place fixed for the sale of said property by the terms of the notice referred to in the last section, the tax collector shall sell the respective parcels of land within said district, the assessments against which have not been paid or bonded against as hereinafter provided, or so much of each parcel as shall be necessary to realize the amount assessed against such parcel and its proportion of the expenses of sale, in the order of their numbers upon the map provided for in subdivision 5 of section 4 hereof, at which sale the municipality may be a purchaser; provided, however, if at or before the time fixed in the notice of sale the owner of any parcel shall file with the tax collector a written agreement, waiving all objections, of whatsoever kind or nature, against the assessment and all proceedings with reference to the same, and undertaking to pay the assessment on his parcel in yearly installments not to exceed ten in number, the first of which shall be paid at the time said agreement is filed, and the others annually thereafter, one each year, at the time when the first installment of municipal taxes within said municipality is payable, with interest on all deferred payments at the rate of — per cent per annum, being the same rate fixed by the resolution provided for in section 5 above for deferred payments, payable at the same time as the installments of principal, then, and in that event, the tax collector shall mark upon the record of the assessment, opposite the respective descriptions or numbers of such parcels, memoranda to the effect that time has been given; said waivers and undertakings shall be taken upon printed forms provided by the tax collector, bound in a substantial book and kept among the records of his office; said agreements shall contain a provision to the effect that in case of default in payment of any installment of principal provided for therein, or interest accrued on deferred payments, at the time called for by said agreements, then, in that event, the entire remaining unpaid installments shall become immediately due and payable, and the tax collector shall then forthwith, upon twelve days' written notice mailed to the last known address of the party, sell the property covered by the delinquent payment to realize the entire unpaid balance of said installments, with accrued interests and costs of sale; provided, the same have not been paid before the expiration of said twelve days. At such sale the municipality may be a bidder; said agreement shall provide that the entire unpaid balance may be paid at any time before maturity, together with interest on all deferred payments, until the date of maturity of the installment of principal next falling due.

§ 14. The tax collector shall issue for each sale an original and duplicate certificate of sale, referring to the proceedings, describing the parcels sold, and containing the name of the purchaser; the originals he shall deliver to the purchaser, and the duplicates he shall keep on file in his office in the form of stubs in a certificate-book.

§ 15. If the property sold as provided in the above proceedings be not redeemed within one year after the sale, the tax collector shall then issue to the party named in the original certificate, or his assignee, a deed of the property described in said certificate, which said deeds shall refer, in general terms, to the proceedings under which the same is issued, and shall contain a description of the property, following the description in the certificate; the grantee of such deed is, immediately upon receipt thereof, entitled to possession of the property described therein.

§ 16. At any time before the expiration of the year above provided for, in which redemption may be made, any property sold under the provisions of the preceding sections may be redeemed by the payment to the tax collector of the amount for which the property was sold, with an additional penalty of twenty-five per cent of the amount for which the same was sold; all redemption money shall be paid by the tax collector to the persons holding the respective original certificates of sale, upon their delivering up the same, and receipting for the amount received from the tax collector therefor.

§ 17. The said funds collected by the tax collector under the proceedings herein provided for, either upon voluntary payment or as the result of sales, shall be paid by said tax collector, as fast as collected, to the treasurer of said municipality, who shall enter the same in a special fund designated by reference to the number of the proceeding, and shall be paid out only for purposes provided for in this act.

§ 18. After all sales above provided for have been made, the tax collector shall report to the legislative body of the municipality, the amount of cash collections and the amount of installment agreements taken; at any time thereafter the legislative body may order bonds issued against the said special local improvement fund, in such denominations and on such terms, not to exceed ten years, and at such rate of interest, not to exceed seven per cent per annum, as they shall have designated in said proceedings, the aggregate of such bonds not to exceed the amount of the installment agreements taken, as above set forth; the form of such bonds shall be substantially as follows:

"LOCAL IMPROVEMENT BOND.

"District No. ———.

"$——.

No. ———.

"Under and by virtue of an act of the legislature of the state of California" (title of this act) "the" (insert the legal title of the municipality) "out of the fund hereinafter referred to, will pay to the bearer the sum of $—— United States gold coin of the same weight and fineness as that now issued from the mints of the United States of America with interest thereon, in like gold coin, at the rate of — per cent per annum, all as hereinafter specified, and at the office of the treasurer of said municipality.

"This bond is payable exclusively from street improvement fund number —" (here insert designation of special fund, as same is identified on the books of the treasurer of the municipality, as provided in section 19 of this act), "and neither the municipality nor any officer thereof shall be holden for payment otherwise of its principal or interest; and installments of principal and interest accruing hereon shall be payable out of any moneys in said fund at the date of their maturity, in order of presentation, and shall be secured by all agreements and liens provided for by this act and arising out of the improvement to which said fund relates. The term of this bond is — years from its date, and, at the expiration of said time, the whole sum then unpaid shall be due and payable; but on the second day of January of each year after its date, an even annual proportion of its whole amount is due and payable, upon the presentation of the coupon therefor, until the whole is paid, with all accrued interest, at the rate of — per cent per annum. The interest is payable semi-annually, to wit: On the second days of January and July in each year hereafter, upon the presentation of the coupons therefor, the first of which is for the interest from date to the next second day of —, and thereafter the interest coupons are for semi-annual interest, except the last, which is for interest from the semi-annual payment next preceding and to the date of the final maturity of this bond. Should default be made in the annual payment upon the principal, or in any payment of interest, the holder of this bond is entitled to declare the whole unpaid amount to be due and payable, and to have all liens and agreements, which are security for said fund and are then enforceable, immediately enforced in payment thereof. The principal hereof may be paid, at the option of said municipality, at any time before maturity. Notice of such redemption must be published by the treasurer of said municipality once in some newspaper of general circulation, published in said municipality, or at the county seat of the county in which the same is located, and, at the expiration of one month from said publication, interest on all principal sums covered by such notice shall cease.

"At said — of — the — day of — in the year one thousand — hundred and —,

Insert title of (presiding officer of the legislative body.)

"Treasurer of the" (name of municipality).

Said bonds shall be signed by the presiding officer of the legislative body of the municipality and countersigned by the treasurer of said municipality, and the seal of the municipality shall be affixed thereto. Said coupons shall be signed by the treasurer of the municipality, and his signature thereto may be by lithograph.

Said bonds shall then be sold at not less than par to the highest bidder, for cash in United States gold coin; the proceeds shall be paid into the said special local improvement fund in the treasurer's hands.

§ 19. At any time after the funds for the work, or any part of the work, are actually in the hands of the treasurer, the legislative body may let the contract, or contracts, for such work, or the respective parts thereof; all contracts shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder, after notice published in some newspaper of general circulation published within the municipality, for two insertions, a week apart; or if there be no such newspaper, then by such posting as the legislative body may provide.

Every bid shall be accompanied by the certified check amounting to ten per cent of the bid, payable to the order of the presiding officer of the legislative body of the municipality, and the same shall be forfeited to the municipality in case the bidder depositing the same do not, within ten days after written notice that the contract has been awarded to him, enter into a contract with the municipality for the work, the faithful performance of which shall be secured by an undertaking in such penal sum as the legislative body shall require, and with sureties satisfactory to said body; when such contract and bond have been entered into, said check shall be returned to the successful bidder; the unsuccessful bidders shall receive their checks upon notice of rejection of their bids; and the legislative body may require, and, if so, it must be stated in the original resolution and petition and in the notice for bids, that the contractor to whom the work is awarded shall furnish the municipality with a bond in such sum and with such responsible surety corporation (legally qualified to carry on business in the state of California), as guarantor, as shall be approved by said legislative body, conditioned that the said contractor shall maintain free from all defects, except such as may result from ordinary wear and tear, the work contracted for and performed for such period as may be designated by said legislative body.

The contract must provide that the work be done, and the work must be done, strictly in accordance with the plans and specifications provided for in section 4 of this act, as modified by the resolution provided for in section 5 of this act; the contract must contain provisions making it comply with the terms of all statutes of the state of California in force at the time of the making of the contract, with reference to employment, hours and wages of labor.

The work must be done under the supervision of the superintendent of streets of the municipality, or such deputy or deputies as the legislative body shall appoint for the purpose.

No work shall be paid for until it has been accepted by the legislative body. Whenever the contractor desires the work or part thereof to be accepted he must make written application to that effect to the legislative body of the municipality. Upon the filing of such application for acceptance, the clerk of the municipality shall give at least five days' notice by publication within the municipality or by posting upon the premises affected, as the legislative body shall determine, that at a certain time to be named in said notice the legislative body of the municipality will hear and consider any objections to the acceptance of the work or part of the work for the acceptance of which said contractor has made such application, and only after such hearing shall any work be accepted. If upon such hearing objections to the acceptance are made and held by the legislative body to be good, the legislative body must require the contractor to take such steps as will remove such objections, and in the event of his failure to do so within such time as the legislative body shall prescribe, the legislative body may relet such portion of the work and charge the contractor the cost thereof together with all expenses incident to said reletting, and retain the same out of any moneys due or to become due to him under the contract, and also hold him and his sureties responsible therefor upon his bond.

The work must be commenced and completed within such time as the legislative body shall prescribe. If the contractor abandon the work, or fail to proceed with the same as rapidly as required by his contract, the legislative body may relet the work and pay the cost of the same out of any funds due or to grow due the contractor, and also any expenses incidental to the reletting, and also hold him and his sureties responsible for the same upon his bond, and also for any damages resulting from such abandonment.

§ 20. In case the first assessment for any local improvement prove insufficient, a second may be made in the same manner as nearly as may be, except that no protest shall be entertained upon subject matter already decided in the first hearing, and so on until sufficient money shall have been realized to pay for such local improvement.

§ 21. If at any time an assessment for any local improvement shall realize a larger sum than is necessary for such improvement, the excess shall be refunded upon warrant on the treasurer, authorized by the legislative body, pro rata, to the parties by whom it was paid; and, in the case of installment assessments, shall be credited on the unpaid installments, beginning with the one due at the latest date.

§ 22. All special assessments levied under this act shall, from the date of confirmation as provided in section 8 hereof, be a lien upon the real estate upon which they are imposed, paramount to all other liens, except prior assessments and general taxes, and such lien shall continue until such special assessments are paid; and all parties shall have constructive notice of such lien from the date of entry of the resolution referred to in section 8 above.

§ 23. Whenever the majority of frontage between any two consecutive crossings upon any of the public ways mentioned in section 1 of this act, has been improved, the legislative body may compel the remainder of said frontage between said crossings to be similarly improved without other proceedings than those provided for in this section as follows, to wit: The legislative body shall pass a resolution ordering said work to be done, briefly describing the work and the property in front of which the work is to be done, and fixing a time when objections to the doing of said work will be heard by said legislative body, which said time shall be not less than two weeks nor more than thirty days from the date of the passage of the resolution; at least ten days before the time named in said resolution for said hearing the clerk of the municipality shall mail a copy of said resolution to the person or persons to whom the property in front of which the said work is to be done is assessed upon the last preceding assessment-roll of such municipality, at their addresses if known, otherwise addressed to the care of the United States postoffice in the municipality, shall personally serve upon the person or persons in possession of the premises, if the same be occupied, and shall post a copy of the same in a conspicuous place upon the said premises, and the certificate of said clerk to the effect that said mailing, posting and service has been done shall be filed with the legislative body and entered upon their minutes, and said entry shall constitute conclusive evidence of the facts stated in said certificate; at the time named in said resolution said legislative body shall meet and consider any objections which may be made to the doing of said work; if there are no objections or if the legislative body overrule the same, the legislative body shall then pass a resolution ordering said work to be done; if within ten days after the passage of the last named resolution satisfactory evidence be not produced to the legislative body that the said work is to be immediately done by private contract the legislative body may advertise for bids for such work by such publication or posting as they shall deem necessary and let the work to the lowest responsible bidder, and pay for the same out of the general fund or any other fund available for the purpose; the entire cost of such work together with the expenses incidental to the proceedings therefor shall be charged against the property in front of which the same has been done; the clerk of the municipality shall immediately upon the completion and acceptance of the work file an itemized statement of said charge with the recorder of the county in which the municipality is located, and thereupon the said charge shall become a lien upon the property affected, which said lien shall relate back to the date of the passage of the original resolution first above mentioned and shall be continued upon such property until the same is paid in full with interest at seven per cent from the date of the record of such statement; and the municipality shall have power to enforce said lien by foreclosure suit and sell said property for the satisfaction thereof.

§ 24. This act shall be known as "The Local Improvement Act of 1901" and shall take effect and be in force upon its passage and approval.

§ 25. This act shall in no wise affect an act entitled "An act to provide for work upon streets, lanes, alleys, courts, places and sidewalks, and for the construction of sewers within municipalities," approved March eighteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-five, or amendments thereto, or an act entitled "An act to provide a system of street improvement bonds to represent certain assessments for the cost of street work and improvement within municipalities, and also for the payment of said bonds," approved February twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and ninety-three; or any of said acts; but is intended to and does provide an alternate system of proceedings for public improvements, and it shall be within the discretionary power of the legislative body of any municipality to proceed in making such improvements, either under the provisions of this act, or under the provisions of the other said acts, but when any proceedings are commenced under this act the provisions of this act, and such amendments thereto as may hereafter be adopted, and no other, shall thereafter apply to all such proceedings; but any provision contained in said or any other acts in conflict with provisions hereof shall be void as to and of no effect upon proceedings commenced under the provisions of this act.

ACT 3930.

Part I.

§ 1. All streets, lanes, alleys, places, or courts, in the municipalities of this state now open or dedicated, or which may hereafter be opened or dedicated to public use, shall be deemed and held to be open public provided, has been entered into, either by said lowest bidder or by the owners of three-fourths part of the frontage, whereupon said certified check shall be returned to said bidder. But if said bidder fails, neglects or refuses to enter into the contract to perform said work or improvement, as hereinafter provided, then the certified check accompanying his bid and the amount therein mentioned, shall be declared to be forfeited to said city, and shall be collected by it and paid into its fund for repairs of streets; and any bond forfeited may be prosecuted, and the amount due thereon collected and paid into said fund. Notice of such awards of contracts shall be posted for five days, in the same manner as hereinbefore provided for the posting of proposals for said work. It shall be published for two days in a daily newspaper published and circulated in said city and designated by said city council, or in cities where there is no daily newspaper, by one insertion in a semi-weekly or weekly newspaper so published, circulated and designated; provided, however, that in case there is no newspaper printed or published in any such city, then such notice of award shall only be kept posted as hereinbefore provided. The owners of three-fourths of the frontage of lots and lands upon the street whereon said work is to be done, or their agents, and who shall make oath that they are such owners or agents, shall not be required to present sealed proposals or bids, but may, within ten days after the first posting and publication of said notice of said award, elect to take said work and enter into a written contract to do the whole work at the price at which the same has been awarded. Should the said owners fail to elect to take said work, and to enter into a written contract therefor within ten days, or to commence the work within fifteen days after the first posting and publication of said award, and to prosecute the same with diligence to completion, it shall be the duty of the superintendent of streets to enter into a contract with the original bidder to whom the contract was awarded, and at the prices specified in his bid. But if such original bidder neglects, fails or refuses, for fifteen days after the first posting and publication of the notice of award, to enter into the contract, then the city council, without further proceedings, shall again advertise for proposals or bids, as in the first instance, and award the contract for said work to the then lowest regular bidder. The bids of all persons and the election of all owners, as aforesaid, who have failed to enter into the contract as herein provided, shall be rejected in any bidding or election subsequent to the first for the same work. If the owner or contractor, who may have taken any contract, do not complete the same within the time limited in the contract, or within such further time as the city council may give them, the superintendent of streets shall report such delinquency to the city council which may relet the unfinished portion of said work, after pursuing the formalities prescribed hereinbefore for the letting of the whole in the first instance. All contractors, contracting owners included, shall, at the time of executing any contract for street work, execute a bond to the satisfaction and approval of the superintendent of streets of said city, with two or more sureties and payable to such city, in such sums as the mayor shall deem adequate, conditioned for the nated. In case there is no such paper published in said city, said notice shall be posted for six days on or near the chamber door of said council, and in two other conspicuous places in said city, as hereinafter provided. The owners of a majority of the frontage of the property fronting on said proposed work or improvement, where the same is for one block or more, may make a written objection to the same within ten days after the expiration of the time of the publication and posting of said notice, which objection shall be delivered to the clerk of the city council, who shall indorse thereon the date of its reception by him, and such objections so delivered and indorsed shall be a bar for six months to any further proceedings in relation to the doing of said work or making said improvements, unless the owners of the one-half or more of the frontage, as aforesaid, shall meanwhile petition for the same to be done. At any time before the issuance of the assessment-roll, all owners of lots or lands liable to assessment therein, who, after the first publication of said resolution of intention, may feel aggrieved, or who may have objections to any of the subsequent proceedings of said council in relation to the performance of the work mentioned in said notice of intention, shall file with the clerk a petition of remonstrance, wherein they shall state in what respect they feel aggrieved, or the proceedings to which they object; such petition or remonstrance shall be passed upon by the said city council, and its decision therein shall be final and conclusive. But when the work or improvement proposed to be done is the construction of sewers, manholes, culverts, or cesspools, cross-walks, or sidewalks, curbs and gutters, and the objection thereto is signed by the owners of a majority of the frontage liable to be assessed for the expense of said work, as aforesaid, the said city council shall, at its next meeting, fix a time for hearing said objections, not less than one week thereafter. The city clerk shall thereupon notify the persons making such objections, by depositing a notice thereof in the postoffice of said city, postage prepaid, addressed to each objector, or his agent, when he appears for such objector. At the time specified said city council shall hear the objections urged, and pass upon the same, and its decisions shall be final and conclusive, and the said bar for six months to any further proceedings shall not be applicable thereto. And when not more than two blocks, including street crossings, remain ungraded to the official grade, or otherwise unimproved, in whole or in part, and a block or more on each side upon said street has been so graded or otherwise improved, or when not more than two blocks at the end of a street remain so ungraded or otherwise unimproved, said city council may order any of the work mentioned in this act to be done upon said intervening ungraded or unimproved part of said street, or at the end of a street, and said work upon said intervening part, or at the end of a street, shall not be stayed or prevented by any written or other objection unless such council shall deem proper. And if one-half or more in width or in length, or as to grading, one-half or more of the grading work of any street lying and being between two successive main street crossings, or if a crossing has been already partially graded or improved as aforesaid, said council may order the remainder improved, graded or otherwise, notwithstanding

The assessment and apportionment of the expenses of all such work or improvement shall be made by the superintendent of streets in the mode herein provided.

§ 6½. Every contractor, person, company, or corporation, including contracting owners, to whom is awarded any contract for street work under this act, shall, before executing the said contract, file with the superintendent of streets a good and sufficient bond, approved by the mayor, in a sum not less than one-half of the total amount payable by the terms of said contract; such bond shall be executed by the principal and at least two sureties, who shall qualify for double the sum specified in said bond, and shall be made to inure to the benefit of any and all persons, companies, or corporations who perform labor on, or furnish materials to be used in the said work of improvement, and shall provide that if the contractor, person, company, or corporation to whom said contract was awarded fails to pay for any materials so furnished for the said work of improvement, or for any work or labor done thereon of any kind, that the sureties will pay the same, to an amount not exceeding the sum specified in said bond. Any materialman, person, company, or corporation, furnishing materials to be used in the performance of said work specified in said contract, or who performed work or labor upon the said improvement, whose claim has not been paid by the said contractor, company, or corporation, to whom the said contract was awarded, may, within thirty days from the time said improvement is completed, file with the superintendent of streets a verified statement of his or its claim, together with a statement that the same, or some part thereof, has not been paid. At any time within ninety days after the filing of such claim, the person, company, or corporation, filing the same or their assigns, may commence an action on said bond for the recovery of the amount due on said claim, together with the costs incurred in said action, and a reasonable attorney fee, to be fixed by the court, for the prosecution thereof. [New section approved February 21, 1899. Stats. 1899, p. 23.]

§ 7. Subdivision One—The expenses incurred for any work authorized by this act (which expense shall not include the cost of any work done in such portion of any street as is required by law to be kept in order or repair by any person or company having railroad tracks thereon, nor include work which shall have been declared in the resolution of intention to be assessed on a district benefited) shall be assessed upon the lots and lands fronting thereon, except as hereinafter specifically provided; each lot or portion of a lot being separately assessed, in proportion to the frontage, at a rate per front foot sufficient to cover the total expense of the work.

Subdivision Two—The expense of all improvements, except such as are done by contractors under the provisions of section 13 of this act, until the streets, avenues, street crossings, lanes, alleys, places, or courts are finally accepted, as provided in section 20 of this act, shall be assessed upon the lots and lands, as provided in this section, according objections had not been made. [Amendment approved March 6, 1905. Stats. 1905, p. 63. In effect in sixty days.]

§ 4. The owners of a majority in frontage of lots and lands fronting on any street, avenue, lane, alley, place, or court, or of lots or lands liable to be assessed for the expense of the work petitioned to be done, or their duly authorized agents, may petition the city council to order any of the work mentioned in this act to be done, and the city council may order the work mentioned in said petition to be done, after notice of its intention so to do has been posted and published as provided in section 3 of this act. [Amendment approved March 31, 1891. Stats. 1891, p. 199.]

§ 5. Before the awarding of any contract by the city council for doing any work authorized by this act, the city council shall cause notice, with specifications, to be posted conspicuously for five days on or near the council chamber door of said council, inviting sealed proposals or bids for doing the work ordered, and shall also cause notice of said work inviting said proposal, and referring to the specifications posted or on file, to be published for two days in a daily, semi-weekly, or weekly newspaper published and circulated in said city, designated by the council for that purpose, and in case there is no newspaper published in said city, then it shall only be posted as hereinbefore provided. All proposals or bids offered shall be accompanied by a check payable to the order of the mayor of the city, certified by a responsible bank, for an amount which shall not be less than ten per cent of the aggregate of the proposal, or by a bond for the said amount and so payable, signed by the bidder and by two sureties, who shall justify, before any officer competent to administer an oath, in double the said amount, and over and above all statutory exemptions. Said proposals or bids shall be delivered to the clerk of the said city council, and said council shall, in open session, examine and publicly declare the same; provided, however, that no proposal or bid shall be considered unless accompanied by said check or bond satisfactory to the council. The city council may reject any and all proposals or bids should it deem this for the public good, and also the bid of any party who has been delinquent and unfaithful in any former contract with the municipality, and shall reject all proposals or bids other than the lowest regular proposal or bid of any responsible bidder, and may award the contract for said work or improvement to the lowest responsible bidder at the prices named in his bid, which award shall be approved by the mayor or a three-fourths vote of the city council. If not approved by him, or a three-fourths vote of the city council, without further proceedings, the city council may re-advertise for proposals or bids for the performance of the work as in the first instance, and thereafter proceed in the manner in this section provided, and shall thereupon return to the proper parties the respective checks and bonds corresponding to the bid so rejected. But the checks accompanying such accepted proposals or bids shall be held by the city clerk of said city until the contract for doing said work, as hereinafter upon the lots and lands fronting nearest upon that side, and for intervening intersections only upon the two quarter blocks adjoining and cornering upon that side.

Subdivision Nine—Section 1 of chapter 325 of the laws of this state, entitled "An act amendatory of and supplementary to 'An act to provide revenue for the support of the government of this state,' approved April twenty-ninth, eighteen hundred and fifty-seven," approved April nineteenth, eighteen hundred and fifty-nine, shall not be applicable to the provisions of this section; but the property herein mentioned shall be subject to the provisions of this act, and be assessed for work done under the provisions of this section.

Subdivision Ten—It shall be lawful for the owner or owners of lots or lands fronting upon any street, the width and grade of which have been established by the city council, to perform, at his or their own expense (after obtaining permission from the council so to do, but before said council has passed its resolution of intention to order grading inclusive of this), any grading upon said street, to its full width, or to the center line thereof, and to its grade as then established, and thereupon to procure, at his or their own expense, a certificate from the city engineer, setting forth the number of cubic yards of cutting and filling made by him or them in said grading, and the proportions performed by each owner, and that the same is done to the established width and grade of said street, or to the center line thereof, and thereafter to file said certificate with the superintendent of streets, which certificate the superintendent shall record in a book kept for that purpose in his office, properly indexed. Whenever thereafter the city council orders the grading of said street, or any portion thereof, on which any grading certified as aforesaid has been done, the bids and the contract must express the price by the cubic yard for cutting and filling in grading; and the said owner or owners, and his or their successors in interest, shall be entitled to credit, on the assessment upon his or their lots and lands fronting on said streets for the grading thereof, to the amount of the cubic yards of cutting and filling set forth in his or their said certificate, at the prices named in the contract for said cutting and filling; or, if the grade meanwhile has been duly altered, only for so much of said certified work as would be required for grading to the altered grade; provided, however, that such owner or owners shall not be entitled to such credit as may be in excess of the assessments for grading upon the lots and lands owned by him or them, and proportionately assessed for the whole of said grading; and the superintendent of streets shall include in the assessment for the whole of said grading upon the same grade the number of cubic yards of cutting and filling set forth in any and all certificates so recorded in his office, or for the whole of said grading to the duly altered grade so much of said certified work as would be required for grading thereto, and shall enter corresponding credits, deducting the same as payments upon the amounts assessed against the lots and lands owned, respectively, by said certified owners and their successors in interest; provided, however, that he shall not so include any grading quantities or credit any sums in excess of the proportionate assessments faithful performance of the contract; and the sureties shall justify before any person competent to administer an oath, in double the amount mentioned in said bond, over and above all statutory exemptions. Before being entitled to a contract, the bidder to whom the award was made, or the owners who have elected to take the contract, must advance to the superintendent of streets, for payment by him, the cost of publication of the notices, resolutions, orders, or other incidental expenses and matters required under the proceedings prescribed in this act, and such other notices as may be deemed requisite by the city council. And in case the work is abandoned by the city before the letting of the contract, the incidental expenses incurred previous to such abandonment shall be paid out of the city treasury. [Amendment approved March 31, 1891. Stats. 1891, p. 199.]

§ 5½. At any time within ten days from the date of the first publication of the notice of award of contract, any owner of or other person having any interest in any lot or land liable to assessment, who claims that any of the previous acts or proceedings relating to said improvement are irregular, defective, erroneous or faulty, may file with the clerk of the city council a written notice specifying in what respect said acts and proceedings are irregular, defective, erroneous or faulty. Said notice shall state that it is made in pursuance of this section. All objections to any act or proceeding, prior to the date of the aforesaid notice of award, in relation to said improvement, not made in writing and in the manner and at the time aforesaid, shall be waived, excepting as to matters directly affecting the jurisdiction of the council to order the said work or improvement. [New section approved February 20, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 31. In effect immediately.]

§ 6. The superintendent of streets is hereby authorized, in his official capacity, to make all written contracts, and receive all bonds authorized by this act, and to do any other act, either express or implied, that pertains to the street department under this act; and he shall fix the time for the commencement, which shall not be more than fifteen days from the date of the contract, and for the completion of the work under all contracts entered into by him, which work shall be prosecuted with diligence from day to day thereafter to completion, and he may extend the time so fixed from time to time, under the direction of the city council. The work provided for in section 2 of this act must, in all cases, be done under the direction and to the satisfaction of the superintendent of streets, and the materials used shall comply with the specifications and be to the satisfaction of said superintendent of streets, and all contracts made therefor must contain a provision to that effect, and also express notice that, in no case, except where it is otherwise provided in this act, will the city, or any officer thereof, be liable for any portion of the expense, nor for any delinquency of persons or property assessed. The city council may, by ordinance, prescribe general rules directing the superintendent of streets and the contractor as to the materials to be used, and the mode of executing the work, under all contracts thereafter made.

subdivision. [Amendment approved March 31, 1891. Stats. 1891, p. 201.]

§ 8. After the contractor of any street work has fulfilled his contract to the satisfaction of the street superintendent of said city, or city council on appeal, the street superintendent shall make an assessment to cover the sum due for the work performed and specified in said contract (including any incidental expenses), in conformity with the provisions of the preceding section according to the character of the work done; or, if any direction and decision be given by said council on appeal, then in conformity with such direction and decision, which assessment shall briefly refer to the contract, the work contracted for and performed, and shall show the amount to be paid therefor, together with any incidental expenses, the rate per front foot assessed, if the assessment be made per front foot, the amount of each assessment, the name of the owner of each lot, or portion of a lot (if known to the street superintendent); if unknown the word "Unknown" shall be written opposite the number of the lot, and the amount assessed thereon, the number of each lot or portion or portions of a lot assessed, and shall have attached thereto a diagram exhibiting each street or street crossing, lane, alley, place, or court, on which any work has been done, and showing the relative location of each district, lot, or portion of lot to the work done, numbered to correspond with the numbers in the assessments, and showing the number of feet fronting, or number of lots assessed, for said work contracted for and performed. [Amendment approved March 14, 1889. Stats. 1889, p. 166.]

§ 9. To said assessment shall be attached a warrant, which shall be signed by the superintendent of streets, and countersigned by the mayor of said city. The said warrant shall be substantially in the following form:

Form of the Warrant.

By virtue hereof, I (name of the superintendent of streets), of the city of —, county of — (or city and county of —), and state of California, by virtue of the authority vested in me as said superintendent of streets, do authorize and empower (name of contractor), (his or their) agents or assigns, to demand and receive the several assessments upon the assessment and diagram hereto attached, and this shall be (his or their) warrant for the same.

(Date.)

— (name of superintendent of streets.)

Countersigned by (name of mayor.)

Said warrant, assessment, and diagram, together with the certificate of the city engineers, shall be recorded in the office of said superintendent of streets. When so recorded, the several amounts assessed shall be a lien upon the lands, lots, or portions of lots assessed, respectively, for the period of two years from the date of said recording, unless sooner discharged; and from and after the date of said recording of any warrant, assessment, diagram and certificate, all persons mentioned in section 11 to the nature and character of the work; and after such acceptance the expense of all the work thereafter done thereon shall be paid by said city out of the street department fund.

Subdivision Three—The expense of the work done on main street crossings shall be assessed at a uniform rate per front foot of the quarter blocks and irregular blocks adjoining and cornering upon the crossings, and separately upon the whole of each lot or portion of a lot having any frontage in the said blocks fronting on said main streets, half way to the next main street crossing, and all the way on said blocks to a boundary line of the city where no such crossing intervenes, but only according to its frontage in said quarter blocks and irregular blocks.

Subdivision Four—Where a main street terminates in another main street, the expenses of the work done on one-half of the width of the street opposite the termination shall be assessed upon the lots in each of the two quarter blocks adjoining and cornering on the same, according to the frontage of such lots on said main streets, and the expense of the other half of the width of said street upon the lot or lots fronting on the latter half of the street at such termination.

Subdivision Five—Where any alley or subdivision street crosses a main street, the expense of all work done on said crossing shall be assessed on all lots or portions of lots half way on said alley or subdivision street to the next crossing or intersection, or to the end of such alley or subdivision street, if it does not meet another.

Subdivision Six—The expense of work done on alley or subdivision street crossings shall be assessed upon the lots fronting upon such alley or subdivision streets on each side thereof, in all directions, half way to the next street, place or court, on either side, respectively, or to the end of such alley or subdivision street, if it does not meet another.

Subdivision Seven—Where a subdivision street, avenue, lane, alley, place, or court terminates in another street, avenue, lane, alley, place, or court, the expense of the work done on one-half of the width of the subdivision street, avenue, lane, alley, place, or court opposite the termination, shall be assessed upon the lot or lots fronting on such subdivision street, or avenue, lane, alley, place, or court so terminating, according to its frontage thereon, half way on each side, respectively, to the next street, avenue, lane, alley, court, or place, or to the end of such street, avenue, lane, alley, place, or court, if it does not meet another, and the other one-half of the width upon the lots fronting such termination.

Subdivision Eight—Where any work mentioned in this act (manholes, cesspools, culverts, cross-walks, piling, and capping excepted) is done on either or both sides of the center line of any street for one block or less, and further work opposite to the work of the same class already done is ordered to be done to complete the unimproved portion of said street, the assessment to cover the total expenses of said work so ordered shall be made upon the lots or portions of the lots only fronting the portions of the work so ordered. And when sewerage or resewering is ordered to be done under the sidewalk on only one side of a street for any length thereof, the assessment for its expenses shall be made only ized at any time to receive the amount due upon any assessment-list and warrant issued by him, and give a good and sufficient discharge therefor; provided, that no such payment so made after suit has been commenced, without the consent of the plaintiff in the action, shall operate as a complete discharge of the lien until the costs in the action shall be refunded to the plaintiff; and he may release any assessment upon the books of his office, on the payment to him of the amount of the assessment against any lot with interest, or on the production to him of the receipt of the party or his assigns to whom the assessment and warrant were issued; and if any contractor shall fail to return his warrant within the time and in the form provided in this section, he shall thenceforth have no lien upon the property assessed; provided, however, that in case any warrant is lost, upon proof of such loss a duplicate can be issued, upon which a return may be made, with the same effect as if the original had been so returned. After the return of the assessment and warrant as aforesaid, all amounts remaining due thereon shall draw interest at the rate of ten per cent per annum until paid.

§ 11. The owners, whether named in the assessment or not, the contractor, or his assigns, and all other persons directly interested in any work provided for in this act, or in the assessment, feeling aggrieved by any act or determination of the superintendent of streets in relation thereto, or who claim that the work has not been performed according to the contract in a good and substantial manner, or having or making any objection to the correctness or legality of the assessment or other act, determination, or proceedings of the superintendent of streets, shall, within thirty days after the date of the warrant, appeal to the city council, as provided in this section, by briefly stating their objections in writing, and filing the same with the clerk of said city council. Notice of the time and place of the hearing, briefly referring to the work contracted to be done, or other subject of appeal, and to the acts, determinations, or proceedings objected to or complained of, shall be published for five days. Upon such appeal, the said city council may remedy and correct any error or informality in the proceedings, and revise and correct any of the acts or determinations of the superintendent of streets relative to said work; may confirm, amend, set aside, alter, modify, or correct the assessment in such manner as to them shall seem just, and require the work to be completed according to the directions of the city council; and may instruct and direct the superintendent of streets to correct the warrant, assessment, or diagram in any particular, or to make and issue a new warrant, assessment, and diagram, to conform to the decisions of said city council in relation thereto, at their option. All the decisions and determinations of said city council, upon notice and hearing as aforesaid, shall be final and conclusive upon all persons entitled to appeal under the provisions of this section, as to all errors, informalities, and irregularities which said city council might have remedied and avoided; and no assessment shall be held invalid, except upon appeal to the city council, as provided in this section, for any for the whole of the grading which are made upon any lots and lands fronting upon said street and belonging to any such certified owners or their successors in interest. Whenever any owner or owners of any lots and lands fronting on any street shall have heretofore done, or shall hereafter do, any work (except grading) on such street, in front of any block, at his or their own expense, and the city council shall subsequently order any work to be done of the same class in front of the same block, said work so done at the expense of such owner or owners shall be excepted from the order ordering work to be done, as provided in subdivision eleven of this section of this act; provided, that the work so done at the expense of such owner or owners, shall be upon the official grade, and in condition satisfactory to the street superintendent at the time said order is passed.

Subdivision Eleven—The city council may include in one resolution of intention and order any of the different kinds of work mentioned in this act, and it may except therefrom any of said work already done upon the street to the official grade. The lots and portions of lots fronting upon said excepted work already done shall not be included in the frontage assessment for the class of work from which the exception is made; provided, that this shall not be construed so as to affect the special provisions as to grading contained in subdivision 10 of this section.

Subdivision Twelve—Whenever the resolution of intention declares that the costs and expenses of the work and improvement are to be assessed upon a district, the city council shall direct the city engineer to make a diagram of the property affected or benefited by the proposed work or improvement, as described in the resolution of intention, and to be assessed to pay the expenses thereof. Such diagram shall show each separate lot, piece or parcel of land, the area in square feet of each of such lots, pieces, or parcels of land, and the relative location of the same to the work proposed to be done, all within the limits of the assessment district; and when said diagram shall have been approved by the city council, the clerk shall, at the time of such approval, certify the fact and date thereof. Immediately thereafter the said diagram shall be delivered to the superintendent of streets of said city, who shall after the contractor of any street work has fulfilled his contract to the satisfaction of said superintendent of streets or city council, on appeal, proceed to estimate upon the lands, lots or portions of lots within said assessment district, as shown by said diagram, the benefits arising from such work, and to be received by each such lot, portion of such lot, piece, or subdivision of land, and shall thereupon assess upon and against said lands in said assessment district the total amount of the costs and expenses of such proposed work, and in so doing shall assess said total sum upon the several pieces, parcels, lots, or portions of lots, and subdivisions of land in said district benefited thereby, to wit: Upon each respectively, in proportion to the estimated benefits to be received by each of said several lots, portions of lots, or subdivisions of land. In other respects the assessment shall be as provided in the next section, and the provisions of subdivisions 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8 of this section shall not be applicable to the work or improvement provided for in this when not in conflict herewith, by the codes of this state. This act shall be liberally construed to effect the ends of justice. [Amendment approved March 14, 1889. Stats. 1889, p. 168.]

§ 12½. The city council, instead of waiting until the completion of the improvement, may, in its discretion, and not otherwise, upon the completion of two blocks or more of any improvement, order the street superintendent to make an assessment for the proportionate amount of the contract completed, and thereupon proceedings and rights of collection of such proportionate amount shall be had as in sections 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12 of the act of which this is amendatory is provided. [New section approved March 14, 1889. Stats. 1889, p. 169.]

§ 13. When any portion of any street, avenue, lane, alley, court, or place in said city improved, or any sidewalk constructed thereon shall be out of repair, or needing reconstruction, and in condition to endanger persons or property passing thereon, or in condition to interfere with the public convenience in the use thereof, it shall be the duty of said superintendent of streets to require, by notice in writing, to be delivered to them or their agents personally, or left on the premises, the owners or occupants of lots or portions of lots fronting on said portion of said street, avenue, alley, lane, court, or place, or of said portion of said sidewalks so out of repair or needing reconstruction as aforesaid, to repair or reconstruct, or to do both, forthwith, said portion of said street, avenue, lane, alley, court, or place, to the center line of said street in front of the property of which he is the owner, or tenant, or occupant; and said superintendent of streets shall particularly specify in said notice what work is required to be done, and how the same is to be done, and what material shall be used in said repairs, or reconstructions, or both. If said repairs, or reconstructions, or both, be not commenced within three days after notice given as aforesaid, and diligently and without interruption prosecuted to completion, the said superintendent of streets may, under authority from said city council, make such repairs, reconstruction, or both, or enter into a contract with any suitable person, at the expense of the owner, tenant, or occupant, after the specification for the doing of said work shall have been conspicuously posted by him in his office for two days, inviting bids for the doing of said work, which bids shall be delivered to him at his office on or before the second day of said posting, and opened by him on the next day following the expiration of said two days of posting, and the contract by him be awarded to the lowest bidder, if such lowest bid, in the judgment of said street superintendent, shall be reasonable. All of said bids shall be preserved in his office and open at all times after the letting of the contract to the inspection of all persons, and such owner, tenant, or occupant shall be liable to pay said contract price. Such work shall be commenced within twenty-four hours after the contract shall have been signed, and completed without delay to the satisfaction of said street superintendent. Upon the completion of said repairs, or reconstruction, or both, by said contractors as aforesaid, to the satisfaction of

of this act shall be deemed to have notice of the contents of the record thereof. After said warrant, assessment, diagram, and certificate are recorded, the same shall be delivered to the contractor, or his agent, or assigns, on demand, but not until after the payment to the said superintendent of streets of the incidental expenses not previously paid by the contractor, or his assigns; and by virtue of said warrant said contractor, or his agent or assigns, shall be authorized to demand and receive the amount of the several assessments made to cover the sum due for the work specified in such contracts and assessments. Whenever it shall appear by any final judgment of any court of this state that any suit brought to foreclose the lien of any sum of money assessed to cover the expense of said street work done under the provisions of this act has been defeated by reason of any defect, error, informality, omission, irregularity, or illegality in any assessment hereafter to be made and issued, or in the recording thereof, or in the return thereof made to or recorded by said superintendent of streets, any person interested therein may, at any time within three months after the entry of said final judgment, apply to said superintendent of streets who issued the same, or to any superintendent of streets in office at the time of said application, for another assessment to be issued in conformity to law; and said superintendent shall, within fifteen days after the date of said application, make and deliver to said applicant a new assessment, diagram, and warrant in accordance with law; and the acting mayor shall countersign the same as now provided by law, which assessment shall be a lien for the period of two years from the date of said assessment, and be enforced as provided in section 7 of this act. [Amendment approved March 31, 1891. Stats. 1891, p. 205.]

§ 10. The contractor, or his assigns, or some person in his or their behalf, shall call upon the persons assessed, or their agents, if they can conveniently be found, and demand payment of the amount assessed to each. If any payment be made the contractor, his assigns, or some person in his or their behalf, shall receipt the same upon the assessment in presence of the person making such payment, and shall also give a separate receipt if demanded. Whenever the person so assessed, or their agents, cannot conveniently be found, or whenever the name of the owner of the lot is stated as "Unknown" on the assessment, then the said contractor, or his assigns, or some person in his or their behalf, shall publicly demand payment on the premises assessed. The warrant shall be returned to the superintendent of streets within thirty days after its date, with a return indorsed thereon, signed by the contractor, or his assigns, or some person in his or their behalf, verified upon oath, stating the nature and character of the demand, and whether any of the assessments remain unpaid, in whole or in part, and the amount thereof. Thereupon the superintendent of streets shall record the return so made, in the margin of the record of the warrant and assessment, and also the original contract referred to therein, if it has not already been recorded at full length in a book to be kept for that purpose in his office, and shall sign the record. The said superintendent of streets is author-any sums so paid beyond the rents due from him, he shall have a lien upon and may retain possession of the said land and lots until the amount so paid and advanced be satisfied, with legal interest, from accruing rents, or by payment by the owner.

§ 18. The records kept by the superintendent of streets of said city, in conformity with the provisions of this act, and signed by him, shall have the same force and effect as other public records, and copies therefrom, duly certified, may be used in evidence with the same effect as the originals. The said records shall, during all office hours, be open to the inspection of any citizen wishing to examine them, free of charge.

§ 19. Notices in writing which are required to be given by the superintendent of streets, under the provisions of this act, may be served by any person, with the permission of the superintendent of streets, and the fact of such service shall be verified by the oath of the person making it, taken before the superintendent of streets, who for that purpose, and for all other purposes, and in all cases where a verification is required under the provisions of this act, is hereby authorized to administer oaths, or other person authorized to administer oaths, or such notices may be delivered to the superintendent of streets himself, who must also verify the service thereof, and who shall keep a record of the fact of giving such notices, when delivered by himself personally, and also of the notices and proof of service when delivered by any other person. [Amendment approved March 14, 1889. Stats. 1889, p. 170.]

§ 20. Whenever any street, or portion of a street, has been or shall hereafter be fully constructed to the satisfaction of the superintendent of streets and of the city council, and is in good condition throughout, and a sewer, gas-pipes, and water-pipes are laid therein, under such regulations as the city council shall adopt, the same shall be accepted by the city council, by ordinance, and thereafter shall be kept in repair and improved by the said municipality; the expense thereof, together with the assessment for street work done in front of city property, to be paid out of a fund to be provided by said council for that purpose; provided, that the city council shall not accept of any portion of the street less than the entire width of the roadway (including the curbing), and one block in length, or one entire crossing; and, provided further, that the city council may partially or conditionally accept any street, or portion of a street, without a sewer, or gas-pipes, or water-pipes therein, if the ordinance of acceptance expressly states that the council deems such sewer, or gas-pipes, or water-pipes, to be then unnecessary, but the lots of land previously, or at any time, assessable for the cost of constructing a sewer, shall remain and be assessable for such cost, and for the cost of repairs and restoration of the street damaged in the said construction, whenever said council shall deem a sewer to be necessary, and shall order it to be constructed, the same as if no partial or conditional acceptance had ever been made. The superintendent of streets shall keep in his office a register of all streets accepted by the city error, informality, or other defect in any of the proceedings prior to the assessment, or in the assessment itself, where notice of the intention of the city council to order the work to be done, for which the assessment is made, has been actually published in any designated newspaper of said city for the length of time prescribed by law, before the passage of the resolution ordering the work to be done.

§ 12. At any time after the period of thirty-five days from the day of the date of the warrants, as herein provided, or if an appeal is taken to the city council, as provided in section 11 of this act, at any time after five days from the decision of said council, or after the return of the warrant or assessment, after the same may have been corrected, altered or modified, as provided in said section 11 (but not less than thirty-five days from the date of the warrant), the contractor or his assignee may sue, in his own name, the owner of the land, lots, or portions of lots, assessed on the day of the date of the recording of the warrant, assessment, and diagram, or any day thereafter during the continuance of the lien of said assessment, and recover the amount of any assessment remaining unpaid, with interest thereon at the rate of ten per cent per annum until paid. And in all cases of recovery under the provisions of this act, the plaintiff shall recover the sum of fifteen dollars, in addition to the taxable cost as attorney's fees, but not any percentage upon said recovery. And when suit has been brought, after a personal demand has been made and a refusal to pay such assessment so demanded, the plaintiff shall also be entitled to have and recover said sum of fifteen dollars as attorney's fees, in addition to all taxable costs, notwithstanding that the suit may be settled or a tender may be made before a recovery in said action, and he may have judgment therefor. Suit may be brought in the superior court within whose jurisdiction the city is in which said work has been done, and in case any of the assessments are made against lots, portions of lots, or lands the owners thereof cannot, with due diligence, be found, the service in each of such actions may be had in such manner as is prescribed in the codes and laws of this state. The said warrant, assessment, certificate, and diagram, with the affidavit of demand and nonpayment, shall be held prima facie evidence of the regularity and correctness of the assessment and of the prior proceedings and acts of the superintendent of streets and city council upon which said warrant, assessment, and diagram are based, and like evidence of the right of the plaintiff to recover in the action. The court in which said suit shall be commenced shall have power to adjudge and decree a lien against the premises assessed, and to order such premises to be sold on execution, as in other cases of the sale of real estate by the process of said courts; and on appeal, the appellate courts shall be vested with the same power to adjudge and decree a lien and to order such premises to be sold on execution or decree as is conferred on the court from which an appeal is taken. Such premises, if sold, may be redeemed as in other cases. In all suits now pending, or hereafter brought to recover street assessments, the proceedings therein shall be governed and regulated by the provisions of this act, and also, stayed or prevented by any written or any other remonstrance or objection, unless such council deems proper. [Amendment approved March 11, 1893. Stats. 1893, p. 173.]

§ 25. The city council may, in its discretion, repair and water streets that shall have been graded, curbed, and planked, paved, or macadamized, and may build, repair, and clean sewers, and shall provide a street contingent fund at the same time and in the same manner as other funds are provided, out of which to pay the costs and expenses of making said repairs, and watering said streets, and building, repairing, and cleaning said sewers; but whenever any unaccepted street or part of a street requires regrading, recurbing, repiling, repaving, replanking, regravelling, or remacadamizing, or requires new culverts, or new crosswalks, or new sidewalks, or new sewers, the work shall be advertised and let out by contract, and the costs and expenses thereof shall be assessed upon the property affected or benefited thereby, the same as in the first instance.

§ 26. The city council may, in its discretion, order, by resolution, that the whole or any part of the cost and expenses of any of the work mentioned in this act be paid out of the treasury of the municipality from such fund as the council may designate. Whenever a part of such cost and expenses is so ordered to be paid, the superintendent of streets, in making up the assessment heretofore provided for such cost and expenses, shall first deduct from the whole cost and expenses such part thereof as has been so ordered to be paid out of the municipal treasury, and shall assess the remainder of said cost and expenses proportionately upon the lots, parts of lots, and lands fronting on the streets where said work was done, or liable to be assessed for such work, and in the manner heretofore provided. [Amendment approved March 31, 1891. Stats. 1891, p. 206.]

Part II.

§ 27. Whenever the city council deem it necessary to construct a sewer, then the said council may, in its discretion, determine to construct said sewer, and assess the cost and expenses thereof upon the property to be affected or benefited thereby, in such manner and within such assessment district as it shall prescribe, and the lien therefor upon said property shall be the same as is provided in section 9 of this act, or said council may determine to construct said sewer and pay therefor out of the street contingent fund.

§ 28. If, at any time, the city council shall deem it necessary to incur any indebtedness for the construction of sewers, in excess of the money in the street contingent fund applicable to the construction of such sewers, they shall give notice of a special election by the qualified electors of the city, to be held to determine whether such indebtedness shall be incurred. Such notice shall specify the amount of indebtedness proposed to be incurred, the route and general character of the sewer, or sewers to be constructed, and the amount of money necessary to be said superintendent of streets, said superintendent of streets shall make and deliver to said contractor a certificate to the effect that said repairs, or reconstruction, or both, have been properly made by said contractor to the grade, and that the charges for the same are reasonable and just, and that he, said superintendent, has accepted the same. [Amendment approved March 14, 1889. Stats. 1889, p. 169.]

§ 14. If the expenses of the work and material for such improvements after the completion thereof, and the delivery to said contractor of said certificate, be not paid to the contractor so employed, or his agent or assignee, on demand, the said contractor, or his assignee, shall have the right to sue such owner, tenant, or occupant for the amount contracted to be paid; and said certificate of the superintendent of streets shall be prima facie evidence of the amount claimed for said work and materials, and of the right of the contractor to recover for the same in such action. Said certificate shall be recorded by the said superintendent of streets in a book kept by him in his office for that purpose, properly indexed, and the sum contracted to be paid shall be a lien, the same as provided in section 9 of this act, and may be enforced in the same manner.

§ 15. In addition, and as cumulative to the remedies above given, the city council shall have power, by resolution or ordinance, to prescribe the penalties that shall be incurred by any owner or person liable, or neglecting, or refusing to make repairs when required, as provided in section (13) thirteen of this act, which fines and penalties shall be recovered for the use of the city by prosecution in the name of the people of the state of California, in the court having jurisdiction thereof, and may be applied, if deemed expedient by the said council, in the payment of the expenses of any such repairs not otherwise provided for.

§ 16. The person owning the fee, or the person in whom, on the day the action is commenced, appears the legal title to the lots and lands, by deeds duly recorded in the county recorder's office of each county, or the person in possession of lands, lots, or portions of lots or buildings under claim, or exercising acts of ownership over the same for himself, or as the executor, administrator, or guardian of the owner, shall be regarded, treated, and deemed to be the "owner" (for the purpose of this law), according to the intent and meaning of that word as used in this act. And in case of property leased, the possession of the tenant or lessee holding and occupying under such persons shall be deemed to be the possession of such owner.

§ 17. Any tenant or lessee of the lands or lots liable may pay the amount assessed against the property of which he is the tenant or lessee under the provisions of this act, or he may pay the price agreed on to be paid under the provision of section 13 of this act, either before or after suit brought, together with costs, to the contractor, or his assigns, or he may redeem the property, if sold on execution or decree for the benefit of the owner, within the time prescribed by law, and deduct the amount so paid from the rents due and to become due from him, and for the work has been done according to the contract; provided, that after the completion of the sewers, for the construction of which said bonds were issued, if there be any money of said fund left in the treasury, the same may be transferred to the general fund, for general purposes. [Amendment approved March 15, 1887. Stats. 1887, p. 148.]

§ 33. Whenever said council shall determine to construct any sewer, and pay therefor out of the street contingent fund, or by the issuance of bonds, as above provided, then said council shall cause to be prepared plans and specifications of said work in sections, and shall advertise for twenty days in at least one newspaper published in the city in which the sewer is to be constructed, and one in the city and county of San Francisco, for sealed proposals for constructing said sewer. The work may be let in sections, and must be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder, the council having the right to reject any and all bids. The work shall be done and the materials furnished under the supervision and to the satisfaction of the superintendent of streets and the city engineer.

Part III.

§ 34. First. The city engineer, or where there is no city engineer, the county, or city and county surveyor, shall be the proper officer to do the surveying and other engineering work necessary to be done under this act, and to survey and measure the work to be done under contracts for grading and macadamizing streets, and to estimate the costs and expenses thereof; and every certificate signed by him in his official character shall be prima facie evidence in all courts in this state of the truth of its contents. He shall also keep a record of all surveys made under the provisions of this act, as in other cases. In all those cities where there is no city engineer the city council thereof is hereby authorized and empowered to appoint a suitable person to discharge the duties herein laid down as those of city engineer, and all the provisions hereof applicable to the city engineer shall apply to such person so appointed. Said city council is hereby empowered to fix his compensation for such services.

Second. The words "work," "improve," "improved" and "improvement," as used in this act, shall include all work mentioned in this act, and also the construction, reconstruction and repairs of all or any portion of said work.

Third. The term "incidental expenses," as used in this act, shall include the compensation of the city engineer for work done by him; also the cost of printing and advertising, as provided in this act, and not otherwise; also the compensation of the person appointed by the superintendent of streets to take charge of and superintend any of the work mentioned in section 35 of this act; also the expenses of making the assessment for any work authorized by this act. All demands for incidental expenses mentioned in this subdivision shall be presented to the street superintendent by itemized bill, duly verified by oath of the demandant.

Fourth. The notices, resolutions, orders or other matter required to be published by the provisions of this act, and of the act of which this council under this section, which register shall be indexed for easy reference thereto.

§21. The superintendent of streets shall keep a public office in some convenient place within the municipality, and such records as may be required by the provisions of this act. He shall superintend and direct the cleaning of all sewers, and the expense of the same shall be paid out of the street or sewer fund of said city.

§22. It shall be the duty of the superintendent of streets to see that the laws, ordinances, orders, and regulations relating to the public streets and highways be fully carried into execution, and that the penalties thereof are rigidly enforced. He shall keep himself informed of the condition of all the public streets and highways, and also of all public buildings, parks, lots, and grounds of said city, as may be prescribed by the city council. He shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, give bonds to the municipality, with such sureties and for such sums as may be required by the city council; and should he fail to see the laws, ordinances, orders, and regulations relative to the public streets or highways carried into execution, after notice from any citizen of a violation thereof, he and his sureties shall be liable upon his official bond to any person injured in his person or property in consequence of said official neglect.

§23. If, in consequence of any graded street or public highway improved under the provisions of this act, being out of repair and in condition to endanger persons or property passing thereon, any person, while carefully using said street or public highway, and exercising ordinary care to avoid the danger, suffer damage to his person or property, through any such defect therein, no recourse for damages thus suffered shall be had against such city; but if such defect in the street or public highway shall have existed for the period of twenty-four hours or more after notice thereof to the said superintendent of streets, then the person or persons on whom the law may have imposed the obligations to repair such defect in the street or public highway, and also the officer or officers through whose official negligence such defect remains unrepaired, shall be jointly and severally liable to the party injured for the damage sustained; provided, that said superintendent has the authority to make said repairs, under the direction of the city council, at the expense of the city.

§24. The city council of such city shall have full power and authority to construct sewers, gutters, and man-holes, and provide for the cleaning of the same, and culverts or cesspools, or cross-walks, or sidewalks, or any portion of any sidewalk, upon or in any street, avenue, lane, alley, court, or place in such city; and also for drainage purposes, over or through any right of way obtained or granted for such purposes, with necessary and proper outlet or outlets to the same, of such materials, in such a manner, and upon such terms as it may be deemed proper. None of the work or improvements described in this section shall be

Eleventh. The term "clerk" and "city clerk," as used in this act, is hereby declared to include any person or officer who shall be clerk of the said city council.

Twelfth. The term "quarter block," as used in this act as to irregular blocks, shall be deemed to include all lots or portions of lots having any frontage on either intersecting street half way from such intersection to the next main street, or, when no main street intervenes, all the way to a boundary line of the city.

Thirteenth. The term "one year," as used in this act, shall be deemed to include the time beginning with January first and ending with the thirty-first day of December of the same year.

Fourteenth. References in certain sections, by number, to certain other sections of "this act" refer to the number of the sections of the original act, as heretofore amended, unless it appears from the context that the reference is to the section of this amendatory act, when it shall be construed according to the context. [Amendment approved March 23, 1907. Stats. 1907, p. 1000. In effect immediately.]

§ 35. The superintendent of streets in all cities having a population of fifty thousand or over shall, when in his judgment it is necessary, appoint a suitable person to take charge of and superintend the construction and improvement of each and every sewer constructed or improved under the provisions of this act, and of piling and capping, sidewalks, or of the paving of whatever character heretofore mentioned, in whole or in part, of one block or more, whose duty it shall be to see that the contract made for the doing of said work is strictly fulfilled in every respect, and in case of any departure therefrom to report the same to the superintendent of streets. Such person shall be allowed for his time actually employed in the discharge of his duties such compensation as shall be just, but not to exceed four dollars per day. The sum to which the party so employed shall be entitled shall be deemed to be incidental expenses, within the meaning of those words as defined by this act. [Amendment approved March 6, 1903. Stats. 1903, p. 88.]

§ 36. The act entitled "An act to provide for the improvement of streets, lanes, alleys, courts, places, and sidewalks, and the construction of sewers within municipalities," approved March sixth, eighteen hundred and eighty-three, is hereby repealed; provided, that any work or proceedings commenced thereunder prior to the passage of this act shall in nowise be affected hereby, but shall in all respects be finished and completed under said act of March sixth, eighteen hundred and eighty-three, and said repeal shall in nowise affect said work or proceedings.

§ 37. That said act shall take effect and be in force immediately upon its passage, and all acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed; and provided, however, that any work or proceeding of the city council commenced under the act of which this is amendatory shall in nowise be affected thereby, but shall in all respects be finished and completed thereunder. [Amendment approved March 11, 1893. Stats. 1893, p. 173.]

raised annually by taxation for an interest and sinking fund as herein-after provided. Such notice shall be published for at least three weeks in some newspaper published in such city, and no other question or matter shall be submitted to the electors at such election. If, upon a canvass of the votes cast at such election, it appear that not less than two-thirds of all the qualified electors voting at such election shall have voted in favor of incurring such indebtedness, it shall be the duty of the city council to pass an ordinance providing for the mode of creating such indebtedness, and of paying the same; and in such ordinance provision shall be made for the levy and collection of an annual tax upon all the real and personal property subject to taxation, within such city, sufficient to pay the interest on such indebtedness as it falls due, and also to constitute a sinking fund for the payment of the principal thereof, within a period of not more than twenty years from the time of contracting the same. It shall be the duty of the city council in each year thereafter, at the time when other taxes are levied, to levy a tax sufficient for such purpose, in addition to the taxes authorized to be levied for city purposes. Such tax, when collected, shall be kept in the treasury as a separate fund, to be inviolably appropriated to the payment of the principal and interest of such indebtedness.

§ 29. If bonds are issued under the provisions of the last section, said bonds shall be in sums of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, shall be signed by the mayor and treasurer of the city, and the seal of the city shall be affixed thereto. Coupons for the interest shall be attached to each bond, signed by the mayor and treasurer. Said bonds shall bear interest, to be fixed by the city council, at the rate of not to exceed five per cent per annum.

§ 30. Before the sale of said bonds, the council shall, at a regular meeting, by resolution, declare its intention to sell a specified amount of said bonds, and the day and hour of such sale, and shall cause such resolution to be entered in the minutes, and shall cause notice of such sale to be published for fifteen days in at least one newspaper published in the city in which the bonds are issued, and one published in the city and county of San Francisco, and in any other newspaper in the state, at their discretion. The notice shall state that sealed proposals will be received by the council for the purchase of the bonds on the day and hour named in the resolution. The council, at the time appointed, shall open the proposals and award the purchase of the bonds to the highest bidder, but may reject all bids.

§ 31. The council may sell said bonds, at not less than par value, without the notice provided for in the preceding section.

§ 32. The proceeds of the sale of the bonds shall be deposited in the city treasury, to the account of the sewer fund, but no payment therefrom shall be made, except to pay for the construction of the sewer or sewers, for the construction of which the bonds were issued, and upon the certificate of the superintendent of streets and the city engineer that acting as a board of commissioners, shall assess the benefits, damages, and costs of the proposed change of grade upon each separate lot of land situated within such assessment district, as said lot appears of record upon the last city, or city and county assessment-roll. [En. 1891, p. 116. Rep. 1893, p. 33; amended 1893, p. 90.]

§ 41. The commissioners shall be sworn to make the assessments of benefits and damages to the best of their judgment and ability, without fear or favor. [En. 1891, p. 116. Rep. 1893, p. 33; amended 1893, p. 90.]

§ 42. The commissioners shall have power to subpoena witnesses to appear before them to be examined under oath, which any one of said commissioners is authorized to administer. [En. 1891, p. 116. Rep. 1893, p. 33; amended 1893, p. 90.]

§ 43. The commissioners having determined the damage which would be sustained by each petitioner, in excess of all benefits, shall proceed to assess the total amount thereof, together with the costs, charges, and expenses of the proceedings, upon the several lots of land benefited within the district of assessment, so that each of the lots shall be assessed in accordance with its benefits caused by such work or improvement; and during the progress of their work shall make a report to such city council as often as it may be required. [En. 1891, p. 116. Rep. 1893, p. 33; amended 1893, p. 90.]

§ 44. The commissioners shall make their report, in writing, and shall subscribe to the same and file with the city council. In their said report they shall describe separately each piece of property which will sustain damage, stating the amount of damages each will sustain over and above all benefits. They shall also give a brief description of each lot benefited within said assessment district, the name of the owner, if known, and the amount of benefits in excess of damages assessed against the same. In case the three commissioners do not agree, the award agreed upon by any two of them shall be sufficient. In designating the lots to be assessed, reference may be had to a diagram of the property in the district affected; such diagram to be attached to and made a part of the report of the commissioners. [En. 1891, p. 116. Rep. 1893, p. 33; amended 1893, p. 90.]

§ 45. If in any case the commissioners find that conflicting claims of title exist, or shall be in ignorance or doubt of the ownership of any lot or land, or any improvement thereon, or any interest therein, it shall be set down as belonging to unknown owners. Error in the designation of the owner or owners of any land or improvements, or particulars of their interest, shall not affect the validity of the assessment. On the filing of said report, the clerk of said city council shall give notice of such filing by the publication of at least ten days in one or more daily newspapers published and circulated in said city; or if there be no daily newspaper, by three successive issues in a weekly or semi-weekly newspaper so published and circulated; and said notice shall require all is amendatory, shall be published in a daily newspaper, in cities where such there is, and where there is no daily newspaper, in a semi-weekly or weekly newspaper, to be designated by the council of such city, as often as the same is issued, and no other statute shall govern or be applicable to the publications herein provided for; provided, however, that only in case there is no daily, semi-weekly or weekly newspaper printed or circulated in any such city, then such notices, resolutions, orders or other matters as are herein required to be published in a newspaper, shall be posted and kept posted for the same length of time as required herein for the publication of the same in a daily, semi-weekly or weekly newspaper, in three of the most public places in such city. Proof of the publication or posting of any notice provided for herein shall be made by affidavit of the owner, publisher or clerk of the newspaper, or of the poster of the notice. No publication or notice, other than that provided for in this act, shall be necessary to give validity to any of the proceedings provided for therein.

Fifth. The word "municipality" and the word "city," as used in this act, shall be understood and so construed as to include, and is hereby declared to include, all corporations heretofore organized and now existing, and those hereafter organized, for municipal purposes.

Sixth. The words "paved" or "repaved," as used in this act, shall be held to mean and include pavement of stone, whether paving blocks or macadamizing, or of bituminous rock or asphalt, or of iron, wood or other material, whether patented or not, which the city council shall by ordinance adopt.

Seventh. The word "street," as used in this act, shall be deemed to, and is hereby declared to, include avenues, highways, lanes, alleys, crossings, or intersections, courts and places, and the term "main street" means such actually opened street or streets as bound a block; the word "blocks," whether regular or irregular, shall mean such blocks as are bounded by main streets, or partially by a boundary line of the city.

Eighth. The terms "street superintendent" and "superintendent of streets," as used in this act, shall be understood and so construed as to include, and are hereby declared to include, any person or officer whose duty it is, under the law, to have the care or charge of the streets, or the improvement thereof in any city. In all those cities where there is no street superintendent or superintendent of streets, the city council thereof is hereby authorized and empowered to appoint a suitable person to discharge the duties herein laid down as those of street superintendent or superintendent of streets; and all provisions hereof applicable to the street superintendent or superintendent of streets shall apply to such person so appointed.

Ninth. The term "city council" is hereby declared to include any body or board which, under the law, is the legislative department of the government of any city.

Tenth. In municipalities in which there is no mayor, then the duties imposed upon said officer by the provisions of this act shall be performed by the president of the board of trustees, or other chief executive officer of the municipality.

thereafter proceed in the manner in this section provided. All checks accompanying bids shall be held by the clerk until the bearer has entered into a contract, as herein provided; and in case he refuses so to do, then the amount of his certified check shall be declared forfeited to the city, and shall be collected and paid into its general fund, and all bonds so forfeited shall be prosecuted, and the amount thereon collected paid into such fund. Notice of the awards of the contracts shall be published and posted in the same manner as hereinbefore provided for the posting of proposals for said work. [Amendment approved March 9, 1893. Stats. 1893, p. 91.]

§ 47. After such contract has been awarded and entered into, the clerk of the city council shall certify to the city council that fact, together with the total amount of the cost of the same, whereupon the city council shall cause to be forwarded to the commissioners a copy of such certificate; whereupon such commissioners shall proceed to assess the cost of doing such work upon all the lots and land lying within the district to be assessed, distributing the same so that each lot will be assessed for its proportion of the same, according to the benefits it receives from the work, and in the same manner in which the damages caused by the change of grade were assessed upon the same. Such commissioners, in making such assessment, shall show the total amount for which each lot or tract is assessed, in excess of all benefits, for the total cost of changing and modifying the grade of the street, as well as the regrading, repaving, sewerage, sidewalking, and curbing of the same, and costs or damages connected therewith. The provisions of the act to which this is amendatory in regard to the mode or manner of the assessment of the cost of such work shall not apply to the work herein contemplated; neither shall the provisions of the same in regard to the issuing of bonds to represent the cost of the same, nor the provisions in regard to the right of protest against the work. [Amendment approved March 9, 1893. Stats. 1893, p. 92.]

§ 48. The clerk of said city council shall forward to the street superintendent of the city a certified copy of the report, assessment, and plat, as finally confirmed and adopted by the city council. Such certified copy shall thereupon be the assessment-roll, the cost of which shall be provided for by the commissioners, as a portion of the cost of the proceedings therein. Immediately upon receipt thereof by the street superintendent, the assessment therein contained shall become due and payable, and shall be a lien upon all the property contained or described therein. [Amendment approved March 9, 1893. Stats. 1893, p. 93.]

§ 49. The superintendent of streets shall thereupon give notice, by publication for ten days in one or more daily newspapers published and circulated in said city, or city and county, or two successive insertions in a weekly or semi-weekly newspaper so published and circulated, that he has received said assessment-roll, and that all sums levied and assessed in said assessment-roll are due and payable immediately, and that the payment of said sums is to be made to him within thirty days from the

§ 38. The city council is hereby empowered to change or modify the grade of any public street, lane, alley, place, or court, and to regrade or repave the same, so as to conform to such modified grade, in the manner as hereinafter provided. Before any change of grade is ordered the city council shall pass an ordinance or resolution of intention to make such change or modification of grade, and it shall have power at the same time and in the same ordinance or resolution to provide for the actual cost of performing the work of regrading, repaving, sewerage, sidewalk, or curbing of said street or portion of street, with the same or other material with which it was formerly graded, paved, sewerage, sidewalked, or curbed; and that the cost of the same shall also be assessed upon the same district which is declared to be benefited by such changed or modified grade. One or more streets or blocks of streets may be embraced in the same ordinance or resolution. Such ordinance or resolution shall be published in the newspaper in which the official notices of the city council are usually printed and published; and such newspaper is to be designated in such ordinance or resolution. Such publication shall be made in every regular issue of such paper for not less than ten days, and shall describe the proposed change or modification of grade or regrading, and shall designate and establish the district to be benefited by such change or modification of grade or regrading, and to be assessed for the cost of the same. Within five days after the first publication of the ordinance or resolution of intention, the superintendent of streets shall cause to be conspicuously posted within the district designated in the ordinance of resolution, notice of the passage of said resolution. Said notices shall be the same in all requirements of contents and posting as the "Notices of Street Work" provided for in section 3 of the original act to which this is amendatory. If no objection to said proposed change or changes, or modifications of grade, shall be filed with the clerk of the council within thirty days from the first publication of the ordinance or resolution of intention hereinbefore mentioned, the city council shall have power to declare such grades to be changed and established in conformity to said ordinance or resolution; provided, that no change of an established grade shall be ordered except on petition of the owners of a majority of the property affected by the proposed change of grade. [En. 1891, p. 116. Rep. 1893, p. 33; amended 1893, p. 89.]

§ 39. Within thirty days after the first publication of said notice, any person owning property fronting upon said portions of the street or streets where such change of grade is made, may file a petition with the clerk of the city council showing the fact of such ownership, the description and situation of the property claimed to be damaged, its market value, and the estimated amount of damages over and above all benefits which the property would sustain by the proposed change if completed. Such petition shall be verified by the oath of the petitioners or their agents. [En. 1891, p. 116. Rep. 1893, p. 33; amended 1893, p. 90.]

place for the change of grade for which the assessment was made. Payments shall be made from said fund to the parties entitled thereto, upon warrants signed by the commissioners or a majority of them. [Amendment approved March 9, 1893. Stats. 1893, p. 93.]

§ 50. When sufficient money is in the hands of the city treasurer, in the fund voted for the proposed work or improvement, to pay the total cost for damages, as well as for the cost of doing the work, and all other expenses connected therewith, it shall be the duty of the commissioners to notify the owner, possessor, or occupant of the premises damaged, and to whom damages have been awarded, that a warrant has been drawn for the payment of the same, which can be received at the office of such commissioners. Such notification may be made by depositing a notice, postage paid, in the postoffice, addressed to his last known place of residence. If, after the expiration of three days after the service or deposit of the notice in the postoffice, he shall not have applied for such warrant, the same shall be drawn and deposited with the city treasurer, to be delivered to him upon demand. [Amendment approved March 9, 1893. Stats. 1893, p. 94.]

§ 51. If the owner of any premises damaged neglects or refuses, for ten days after the warrant has been placed in the hands of the city treasurer, subject to his demand, to accept the same, the city council may cause proceedings to be commenced, in the name of the city, to condemn said premises, as provided by law under the right of eminent domain. The ordinance or resolution of intention shall be conclusive evidence of the necessity of the same. Such proceedings shall have precedence, so far as the business of the court will permit, and any judgment for damages therein rendered shall be payable out of the special fund in the treasury for that purpose. At any time after the trial and judgment entered, or pending appeal, the court may order the city treasurer to set apart in the city treasury a sufficient sum from said fund to answer the judgment, and thereupon may authorize or order the municipality to proceed with the proposed work or improvements. In case of a deficiency in said fund to pay the whole assessed judgment and damages, the city council may, in its discretion, order the balance thereof to be paid out of the general fund of the treasury, or to be distributed by the commissioners over the property assessed by a supplementary assessment; but in the last named case, in order to avoid delay, the city council may advance such balance out of any available fund in the treasury, and reimburse the same from the collection of assessments. The treasurer shall pay such warrants in the order of their presentation; provided, that warrants for damages and for costs of performing the work shall have priority over warrants for charges and expenses, and the treasurer shall see that sufficient money remains in the fund to pay all warrants of the first class before paying any of the second. The provisions of section 1251 of the Code of Civil Procedure, requiring the payment of damages within thirty days after the entry of judgment, shall not apply to damages rendered in proceedings under this act. [Amendment approved March 9, 1893. Stats. 1893, p. 95.]

date of the first publication of said notice. Said notice shall also contain a statement that all assessments not paid before the expiration of said thirty days will be declared to be delinquent, and that thereafter the sum of five per cent upon the amount of such delinquent assessment, together with the cost of advertising each delinquent assessment will be added thereto. When payment of any assessment is made to said superintendent of streets, he shall write the word "Paid" and the date of payment opposite the respective assessment so paid, and the name of the persons by or for whom said assessment is paid, and shall give a receipt therefor. On the expiration of said thirty days, all assessments then unpaid shall be and become delinquent, and said superintendent of streets shall certify such fact at the foot of said assessment-roll, and shall add five per cent to the amount of each assessment so delinquent. The said superintendent of streets shall, within five days from the date of such delinquency, proceed to advertise the various sums delinquent, and the whole thereof, including the cost of advertising, which last shall not exceed the sum of fifty cents for each lot, piece, or parcel of land separately assessed, by the sale of the assessed property in the same manner as is or may be provided for the collection of state and county taxes; and after the date of said delinquency, and before the time of such sale herein provided for, no assessment shall be received, unless at the same time the five per cent added to as aforesaid, together with the costs of advertising then already incurred, shall be paid therewith. Said list of delinquent assessments, with a notice of the time and place of sale of the property affected thereby, shall be published daily for five days, in one or more daily newspapers published and circulated in such city, or by at least two insertions in a weekly newspaper so published and circulated before the day of sale for such delinquent assessment. Said time of sale must not be less than seven days from the date of the first publication of said delinquent assessment-list, and the place must be in or in front of the office of said superintendent of streets. All property sold shall be subject to redemption for one year, and in the same manner as in sales for delinquent state and county taxes; and the superintendent of streets shall, if there is no redemption, make and deliver to the purchaser at such sale a deed conveying the property sold, and may collect for each certificate fifty cents, and for each deed one dollar. All provisions of the law in reference to the sale and redemption of property for delinquent state and county taxes, in force at any given time, shall also then, as far as the same are not in conflict with the provisions of this act, be applicable to the sale and redemption of property for delinquent assessments hereunder, including the issuance of certificates and execution of deeds. The deed of the street superintendent, made after such sale, in case of failure to redeem, shall be prima facie evidence of the regularity of all proceedings hereunder, and of title in the grantee. The superintendent of streets shall from time to time pay over to the city treasurer all moneys collected by him on account of any such assessments. The city treasurer shall, upon receipt thereof, place the same in a separate fund, designating each fund by the name of the street, square, lane, alley, court, or to say, undertakes to do the work. And all the rights, dues and remedies of the "contractor," under the provisions of this act, shall accrue to the city in its character of one undertaking to do the work, as provided in this section. [New section approved March 18, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 399. In effect immediately.]

ACT 3931.

An act to provide for laying out, opening, extending, widening, straightening, diverting, curving, contracting, or closing up, in whole or in part, any street, square, lane, alley, court, or place within municipalities or cities and counties of forty thousand inhabitants or over, and to condemn and acquire any and all land and property necessary or convenient for that purpose.

[Approved March 23, 1893. Stats. 1893, p. 220.]

The code commissioners say of this act: "Probably unconstitutional: Darcy v. Mayor of San Jose, 104 Cal. 642; Pasadena v. Stimson, 91 Cal. 258."

Citations. Cal. 140/860.

§ 1. Be it enacted: Whenever the public interest or convenience may require, the city council of any municipality or cities and counties, containing over forty thousand inhabitants, shall have full power to order, and upon the petition of the owners of a majority of the frontage to be taken for said purpose shall order, the opening, extending, widening, straightening, diverging, curving, contracting, or closing up, in whole or in part, of any street, square, lane, alley, court, or place within the bounds of such city, and shall condemn and acquire any and all lands necessary or convenient for that purpose.

§ 2. Before ordering any work to be done or improvement made, which is authorized by section 1 of this act, the city council shall then pass a resolution declaring the intention to do said work, describing the work or improvement, and the land deemed necessary to be taken therefor, and specifying the exterior boundaries of the district of land to be affected or benefited by said work or improvement, and be assessed to pay the damages, cost, and expense thereof.

§ 3. The street superintendent shall then cause to be conspicuously posted along the line of said contemplated work or improvement, and not more than three hundred feet in distance apart, but not less than three in all, notices of the passage of said resolution. Said notices shall be headed, "Notice of Public Work," in letters not less than one inch in length, shall be in legible characters, state the fact of the passage of the resolution, its date, and, briefly, the work of improvement proposed, and refer to the resolution for further particulars. He shall also cause a notice similar in substance to be published for a period of ten days in one or more daily newspapers published and circulated in said city, and designated by said city council; or if there is no daily newspaper so published and circulated in said city, then by four successive insertions in a weekly or semi-weekly newspaper so published, circulated, and designated.

§ 52. All other provisions contained in the act to which this is amendatory, and which provisions are not in conflict herewith, shall apply to all matters herein contained. All proceedings in any work or improvement, such as is provided for in this act, already commenced and now in progress under another act now in force, or by virtue of an ordinance or resolution of intention heretofore passed, may, from any stage of such proceedings already commenced and now in progress, be continued under this act by resolution of the city council. The said work or improvement may then be conducted under the provisions of this act, with full force and effect in all respects from the stage of such proceedings at and from which such resolution or ordinance shall declare the intention to have such work done or improvement cease under such other acts or ordinances and continued under this act; and from such election so made all proceedings theretofore had are hereby ratified, confirmed, and made valid, and it shall be unnecessary to renew or conduct over again any proceedings prior to the passage of this act. [Amendment approved March 9, 1893. Stats. 1893, p. 95.]

§ 53. The provisions of this act shall be liberally construed to permit the objects thereof. [Amendment approved March 9, 1893. Stats. 1893, p. 96.]

§§ 54, 55. No sections of these numbers.

§ 56. When the work prescribed by the resolution of intention is exclusively sidewalk or curbing work with or without such grading as is incidentally necessary to the doing of such sidewalk or curbing work, and no proposals or bids for doing the work are delivered to the clerk, as invited by the notice inviting the same, as provided for in section 5 of this act, the city council may, in its discretion, by a vote of three-fourths of its members in the affirmative, direct that a proposal or bid in the name and on the part of the city be filed, whereupon the contract for doing the work shall be awarded to the city, and the city shall thus be and become the "contractor" within the meaning of this act. And when the time has expired within which, as provided in said section 5 of this act the owners may elect to take the contract, shall have expired, and such owners have not so elected, the city shall be deemed to have undertaken to do and complete the work, at the price named, in such bid or proposal, within ninety days after the time when as aforesaid it is to be deemed to have undertaken the same, and to begin such work within fifteen days after said time. The city need not enter into a contract with the superintendent of streets, as provided in section 6 of this act, nor give any check or bond either upon bidding or to secure the performance of the work or payment for labor or materials. The warrant provided for in section 9 of this act shall be delivered to the clerk of the city council, and such clerk is hereby authorized to make on the part of the city the demand provided for in section 10 of this act. Except as in this section expressly provided otherwise, all and singular the provisions of this act shall apply in the case where the city, under the provisions of this section, becomes the contractor, that is the same. In all municipalities where there is a board of public works, such board shall constitute the board of commissioners in this section provided for, and shall perform the duties of such commissioners, and their salaries as members of the board of public works shall be in full compensation for such services. It shall be the official duty of the city attorney to render said commissioners all necessary legal services; provided, that the city surveyor shall, for any work or services which he may perform by the direction of the common council or other legislative department of the city government, receive, in addition to his salary allowed by law, all sums which he may lay out, pay out, or expend in the prosecution of said work, for materials or labor necessarily therein by him employed.

§ 7. Said commissioners shall have an office assigned to them by the city council, in the city hall, and shall have power to employ a secretary, at a salary not to exceed one hundred and fifty dollars per month, and such other clerical assistance as shall be provided them by the city council, the salaries and fees of whom shall be established and fixed by said city council.

§ 8. All such charges and expenses shall be deemed as expenses of said work of improvement, and be a charge only upon the funds devoted to the particular work or improvement as provided hereinafter. All payments, as well for the land and improvements taken or damaged, and for the charges and expenses, shall be paid by the city treasurer, upon warrants drawn upon said fund from time to time, signed by said commissioners, or a majority of them. All such warrants shall state whether they are issued for land or improvements taken or damaged, or for charges and expenses, and that the demand is only payable out of the money in said fund, and in no event shall the city be liable for the failure to collect any assessment made by virtue hereof, nor shall said warrant be payable out of any other fund, nor a claim against the city.

§ 9. Said commissioners shall proceed to view the lands described in the resolution of intention, and may examine witnesses on oath, to be administered by any of them. Having viewed the land to be taken, and the improvements affected, and considered the testimony presented, they shall proceed with all diligence to determine the value of the land, and the damage to improvement and property affected, and also the amount or the expenses incident to said work or improvement, and having determined the same, shall proceed to assess the same upon the lands described in said district herein provided. The lands fronting on said extension or widening shall only be assessed to the depth of one hundred and twenty feet, or the full depth of the lots, not exceeding one hundred and fifty feet; and said lands shall be assessed with reference to the amount of grading to be done, and their location on the grades of said street or improvement; and the expenses of grading said lots or lands, whether filling or cutting shall be necessary to place them on the grade of said street

§ 4. Any person through whose lands said proposed street extension runs, or who will be damaged or affected by said proposed work, may, within ten days after the first publication of said notice, file with the clerk of the city council his written objections thereto, stating in what manner and to what extent he will be damaged, which objection shall be delivered to the clerk of the city council, who shall indorse thereon the date of its reception by him, and at the next meeting of the city council, after the expiration of said ten days, lay said objections before said city council, which shall fix a time for hearing said objections, not less than one week thereafter. The city clerk shall thereupon notify the persons making such objections by depositing a notice thereof in the postoffice of said city, postage prepaid, addressed to such objector.

§ 5. At the time specified, or to which the hearing may be adjourned, the city council shall hear the objections filed, and if the owners of a majority of the frontage of all lands to be assessed for benefits, as said owners appear on the last preceding annual assessment-roll for state and county taxes, object, in writing, to said proposed opening, extending, and widening, straightening, diverging, curving, contracting, or closing up of said street, said city council shall sustain said objections, and all proceedings therefor shall be stopped for the period of twelve months. Proceedings may be again commenced by a new resolution of intention. If the owners of a majority of the frontage of all streets within the assessment district do not object, in writing, thereto, within the time specified in this act, the city council shall be deemed to have acquired jurisdiction to order any of the work to be done or improvements to be made which is authorized by section 1 of this act.

§ 6. Having acquired jurisdiction, as provided in the preceding section, the city council shall order said work to be done, and, unless the proposed work is for closing up, and it appears that no assessment is necessary, shall appoint three disinterested persons, who shall constitute a board of commissioners in that regard, who shall have full supervision of the proposed work or improvement until the completion thereof in compliance with this statute. For their services they shall each receive, as compensation, not to exceed five dollars for every day of actual service; provided, that said compensation shall not be paid for a longer term than six months for each district, unless extended by the council. Such extension shall not exceed two months at one time, nor shall the term of office of said commissioners, for any district, continue for longer than one year. Such compensation shall be added to and be chargeable as a part of the expenses of the work of improvement. Each of said commissioners shall file with the clerk of the city council an affidavit and a bond to the state of California, in the sum of five thousand dollars, to faithfully perform the duties of his office. The city council may at any time remove any or all of said commissioners for cause upon reasonable notice and hearing, and may fill any vacancies occurring among them for any cause. At the end of the terms of said commissioners, they shall hand over all unfinished business to the city council, who shall complete hearing may be adjourned to, the city council shall hear such objections and pass upon the same; and at such time, or if there be no objections at the first meeting after the day set in such order to show cause, or such other time as may be fixed, shall proceed to pass upon such report, and may confirm, correct or modify, or may sustain the objections thereto and order the commissioners to make a new report, assessment, and plat, which in either case shall be filed, and notice given and hearing had, as in the case of the original report; but no report, or plat, or assessment shall be filed by said commissioners after the expiration of ten months after their appointment.

§ 15. The clerk of said city council shall forward to the street superintendent of the city a certified copy of the report, assessment, and plat as finally confirmed and adopted by the city council. Such certified copy shall thereupon be the assessment-roll, and thirty days after such filing shall become a lien on the property assessed therein, for its proportion of the costs of said improvement as hereinbefore provided.

§ 16. The superintendent of streets shall thereupon give notice by publication for ten days in two daily newspapers published and circulated in said city and county, or by two successive insertions in a weekly or semi-weekly newspaper so published and circulated, that he has received said assessment-roll, and that all sums levied and assessed in said assessment-roll are due and payable immediately, and that the payment of said sums is to be made to him within thirty days from the date of the first publication of said notice. Said notice shall also contain a statement that all assessments not paid before the expiration of said thirty days will be declared to be delinquent, and that thereafter the sum of five per cent upon the amount of each delinquent assessment, together with the cost of advertising each delinquent assessment, will be added thereto. When payment of any assessment is made to said superintendent of streets, he shall write the word "Paid" and the date of payment opposite the respective assessments so paid, and the names of persons by or for whom said assessment is paid, and shall, if so required, give a receipt therefor. On the expiration of said thirty days, all assessments then unpaid shall be and become delinquent, and said superintendent of streets shall certify such fact at the foot of said assessment-roll, and shall add five per cent to the amount of each assessment so delinquent. The said superintendent of streets shall, within five days from the date of said delinquency, proceed to advertise and collect the various sums delinquent and the whole thereof, including the cost of advertising, which last shall not exceed the sum of fifty cents for each lot, piece, or parcel of land separately assessed, by the sale of the assessed property in the same manner as is or may be provided for the collection of state and county taxes; and after the date of said delinquency, and before the time of said sale herein provided for, no assessment shall be received unless at the same time the five per cent added thereto, as aforesaid, together with the cost of advertising then already incurred, shall be paid therewith. Said list of delinquent assessments shall be published or improvement, shall be estimated in determining the value of the land, and the damage to the improvement and property affected.

§ 10. Said commissioners, having made their assessment of benefits and damage, shall, with all diligence, make a written report thereof, to the city council, and shall accompany their report with a plat showing the land taken, or about to be taken, for the work or improvement, and the lands assessed, showing the relative location of each district, block, lot, or portion of lot, and its dimensions, so far as the commissioners can reasonably ascertain the same. Each block and lot, or portion of lot, taken or assessed, shall be designated and described in said plat by an appropriate number, and reference to it by such descriptive number shall be a sufficient description of it in any suit entered to condemn and in all respects. When the report and plat are approved by the city council, a copy of said plat, appropriately designated, shall be filed by the clerk thereof in the office of the recorder of the county.

§ 11. Said report shall specify each lot, subdivision, or piece of property taken or injured by the widening or other improvement, or assessed therefor, together with the name of the owner or claimant thereof, or of persons interested therein as lessees, encumbrancers, or otherwise, so far as the same are known to such commissioners, and the particulars of their interests, so far as the same can be ascertained, and the amount of value or damage, or the amount assessed, as the case may be.

§ 12. If in any case the commissioners find conflicting claims of title exist, or shall be in ignorance or doubt as to the ownership of any lot of land, or of any improvements thereon, or any interest therein, it shall be set down as belonging to unknown owners. Error in the designation of the owner or owners of any land or improvements, or of the particulars of their interest, shall not affect the validity of the assessment or the condemnation of the property to be taken.

§ 13. Said report and plat shall be filed in the clerk's office of the city council, and thereupon the clerk of said city council shall give notice of such filing by publication for at least ten days in one or more daily newspapers published and circulated in said city; or if there be no daily newspaper, by three successive insertions in a weekly or semi-weekly newspaper so published and circulated. Said notice shall also require all persons interested to show cause, if any, why such report should not be confirmed, before the city council, on or before a day fixed by the clerk thereof, and stated in said notice, which day shall be not less than thirty days from the first publication thereof.

§ 14. All objections shall be in writing, and filed with the clerk of the city council, who shall, at the next meeting after the day fixed in the notice to show cause, lay the said objections, if any, before the city council, which shall fix a time for hearing the same, of which the clerk shall notify the objectors in the same manner as objectors to the original resolution of intention. At the time set, or at such other time as the

to the necessity of taking his land, the commissioners, with the approval of the city council, may cause proceedings to be taken for the condemnation thereof, as provided by law under the right of eminent domain. The complaint may aver that it is necessary for the city to take or damage and condemn the said lands, or an easement therein, as the case may be, without setting forth the proceedings herein provided for, and the resolution and ordinance ordering said work to be done shall be conclusive evidence of such necessity. Such proceedings shall be brought in the name of the municipality, and have precedence, so far as the business of the court will permit; and any judgment for damages therein rendered shall be payable out of such portion of the special fund as may remain in the treasury, so far as the same can be applied. At any time after trial and judgment entered, or preceding an appeal, the court may order the city treasurer to set apart in the city treasury a sufficient sum from the fund appropriated to the particular improvement, to answer the judgment and all damages, and thereupon may authorize and order the municipality to enter upon the land and proceed with the proposed work and improvement. In case of a deficiency in said fund to pay the whole of said judgment and damages, the city council shall order the balance thereof to be paid out of the general fund of the treasury.

§ 19. The treasurer shall pay such warrants out of the appropriate fund, and not otherwise, in the order of their presentation; provided, that warrants for land or improvements taken or damaged shall have priority over warrants for charges and expenses, and the treasurer shall see that sufficient money is and remains in the fund to pay all warrants of the first class before paying any of the second.

§ 20. If any title attempted to be acquired by virtue of this act shall be found to be defective from any cause, the city council may again institute proceedings to acquire the land as in this act provided, or otherwise, or may authorize the commissioners to purchase the same, and include the cost thereof in a supplementary assessment as provided in the last section.

§ 21. 1. The words "work" and "improvement," as used in this act, shall include all work mentioned in section 1 of this act.

2. In case there is no daily or weekly or semi-weekly newspaper printed and circulated in the city, then such notices as are herein required to be published in a newspaper shall be posted and kept posted for the length of time required herein for the publication of the same in a weekly newspaper, in three of the most public places in such city. Proof of the publication of posting of any notice provided for herein shall be made by affidavit of the owner, publisher, or clerk of the newspaper, or of the poster of the notice.

3. The word "municipality" and the word "city" shall be understood and so construed as to include all corporations heretofore organized and now existing, or hereafter organized, for municipal purposes.

4. The terms "street superintendent" and "superintendent of streets," as used in this act, shall be understood and so construed as to include.

daily for five days in one or more daily newspapers published and circulated in such city, or by at least one insertion in a weekly newspaper so published and circulated, before the day of sale of such delinquent assessment. Said time of sale must not be less than seven days from the date of the first publication of said delinquent assessment-list, and the place must be in or in front of the office of said superintendent of streets. All property sold shall be subject to redemption in the same time and manner as in sales for delinquent state and county taxes; and the superintendent of streets may collect for each certificate fifty cents, and for each deed one dollar. All provisions of the law in reference to the sale and redemption of property for delinquent state and county taxes in force at any given time shall also then, so far as the same are not in conflict with the provisions of this act, be applicable to the sale and redemption of property for delinquent assessments hereunder, including the issuance of certificates and the execution of deeds. The deed of the street superintendent made after such sales, in case of failure to redeem, shall be prima facie evidence of the regularity of all proceedings hereunder and of title in the grantee. It shall be conclusive evidence of the necessity of taking or damaging the lands taken or damaged, and of the correctness of the compensation awarded therefor. The superintendent of streets shall, from time to time, pay over to the city treasurer all moneys collected by him on account of any such assessments. The city treasurer shall, upon receipt thereof, place the same in a separate fund, designating such fund by the name of the street, square, lane, alley, court, or place for the widening, opening, or other improvement of which the assessment was made. Payments shall be made from said fund to the parties entitled thereto, upon warrants signed by the commissioners, or a majority of them.

§ 17. When sufficient money is in the hands of the city treasurer, in the fund devoted to the proposed work or improvement, to pay for the land or improvements taken or damaged, and when, in the discretion of the commissioners, or a majority of them, the time shall have come to make payments, it shall be the duty of the commissioners to notify the owner, possessor, or occupant of any land or improvements thereon to whom damages shall have been awarded that a warrant has been drawn for the payment of the same, and that he can receive such warrant at the office of such commissioners, upon tendering a conveyance of any property to be taken; such a notification, except in the case of unknown owners, to be made by depositing a notice, postage paid, in the postoffice, addressed to his last known place of abode or residence. If, at the expiration of thirty days after the deposit of such notice, he should not have applied for such warrant and tendered a conveyance of the land to be taken, the warrant so drawn shall be deposited with the county treasurer, and shall be delivered to such owner, possessor, or occupant, upon tendering a conveyance as aforesaid, unless judgment of condemnation shall be had, when the same shall be canceled.

§ 18. If any owner of land to be taken neglects or refuses to accept the warrant drawn in his favor, as aforesaid, or objects to the report as thousand inhabitants or over shall have power, by a three-fourths vote of its members, to extend the life of any existing commission until its work shall have been completed as in said act provided; but in all other cases in cities or cities and counties of forty thousand inhabitants or over, the assessments, plats, and reports filed by said commissioners are declared to be null and void, and all moneys collected under the provisions of said act shall be refunded to the persons from whom the same were collected, in the same manner as taxes which have been twice collected, and the said commissioners are hereby removed from office; provided further, however, that in case of the lands necessary to widen or open any street, there shall have been actually purchased and conveyed to the municipality, under the provisions of said act of March sixth; eighteen hundred and eighty-nine, more than one-half of the land necessary, for said improvements, as shown by the report and plat on file, then said streets, and the improvement thereof, shall not be affected by this act, but the same shall be completed as commenced.

§ 24. This act shall be liberally construed, to promote the objects thereof.

This act shall take effect and be in force from the time of its passage.

ACT 3932.

An act to provide a system of street improvement bonds to represent certain assessments for the cost of street work and improvement within municipalities, and also for the payment of such bonds.

§ 1. Wherever in this act the phrase "street work act" is used, it means, and shall be taken to mean, the act entitled "An act to provide for work upon streets, lanes, alleys, courts, places, and sidewalks, and for construction of sewers within municipalities," approved March eighteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-five, and all acts amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto; and wherever in this act the name of any municipal body or officer is used, or any word or phrase is used which is not herein expressly defined, it means and shall be taken to mean such municipal body or officer, or word or phrase, as the same is expressly defined in said street work act, and in all acts amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto.

§ 2. Whenever the city council of any municipality in this state shall find, upon estimates of the city engineer, that the cost of any proposed work or improvement authorized by said street work act will be greater and are hereby declared to include, any person or officer whose duty it is, under the law, to have the care or charge of the streets, or the improvement thereof, in any city. In all those cities where there is no street superintendent or superintendent of streets, the city council thereof is hereby authorized and empowered to appoint a suitable person to discharge the duties herein laid down as those of street superintendent or superintendent of streets, and all the provisions hereof applicable to the street superintendent or superintendent of streets shall apply to such persons so appointed.

5. The term "city council" is hereby declared to include any body or board which, under the law, is the legislative department of the government of any city.

6. The term "clerk" and "city clerk," as used in this act, is hereby declared to include any person or officer who shall be clerk of said city council.

7. The term "treasurer" or "city treasurer," as used in this act, shall include any person or officer who shall have charge and make payment of the city funds.

§ 22. The mayor, tax collector, and city or city and county attorney, as the case may be, of all municipalities wherein there is existing at the passage of this act any commission appointed for the opening, extending, or widening of streets under the provision of said act of March sixth, eighteen hundred and eighty-nine, and which commission is not within the proviso of section 23 of this act, are hereby constituted a board of audit, whose duty it shall be, upon petition of said commission, to carefully examine all the accounts, bills, and expenditures, made or contracted for by said commission, including the salaries of the said commissioners; and said board of audit, or a majority of its members, is hereby authorized to audit and allow such amounts as it shall find to be just and reasonable, and report said amounts, with the items thereof and to whom payable, to the city council. Said report shall be final and conclusive as to said amounts. The city council is authorized to pass and allow and order paid to each of the persons entitled thereto, the amounts so found to be due, in the same manner as claims and demands against such municipality are passed, allowed, and ordered paid. The payment of said amounts shall be provided for in the tax levy thereafter made by said city council, and when said taxes are collected the said amounts shall be paid out of the general fund of said municipality in the same manner as other claims and demands are paid.

§ 23. The act approved March sixth, eighteen hundred and eighty-nine, entitled "An act for opening, widening, and extending streets," etc., after the passage of this act, shall not apply to any city or city and county having a population of forty thousand inhabitants or over; but as to any city or city and county having a population of forty thousand or over said act shall not apply; but said cities and cities and counties shall be subject only to the provisions of this act in all matters embraced within the purview of this act; provided, however, that the present city council or other governing body of any municipality of forty lot or parcel of land upon said list the total amount of the assessments against the same, as thereon shown. And if said lot or parcel of land is described upon said assessment and diagram by its number or block, or both, and is also designated by its number or block, or both, upon the official map of said municipality, or upon any map on file in the office of the county recorder of the county in which said municipality is situated, then it shall be in said bond a sufficient description of said lot or parcel of land to designate it by said number or block, or both, as it appears on said official or recorded map.

Said bond shall be substantially in the following form:

Street Improvement Bond.

Series (designating it), in the city (or other form of the municipality) of (naming it).

$ ———¹⁰⁰

No. ———.

Under and by virtue of an act of the legislature of the state of California (title of said act), I, out of the fund for the above designated street improvement bonds, series ———, will pay to ———, or order, the sum of ——— dollars ($——) with interest at the rate of ——— per cent per annum, all as is hereinafter specified, and at the office of the ——— treasurer of the ——— of ———, state of California. This bond is issued to represent the cost of certain street work upon ———, in the ——— of ———, as the same is more fully described in assessment number ———, issued by the street superintendent of said ———, after his acceptance of said work, and recorded in his office. Its amount is the amount assessed in said assessment against the lot or parcel of land numbered therein, and in the diagram attached thereto, as number ———, and which now remains unpaid, but until paid, with accrued interest, is a first lien upon the property affected thereby, as the same is described herein, and in said recorded assessment with its diagram, to wit: the lot or parcel of land in said ——— of ———, county of ———, state of California, ———.

This bond is payable exclusively from said fund, and neither the municipality nor any officer thereof is to be holden for payment otherwise of its principal or interest. The term of this bond is ——— years from its date, and at the expiration of said time the whole sum then unpaid shall be due and payable; but on the second day of January of each year after its date an even annual proportion of its whole amount is due and payable, upon presentation of the coupon therefor, until the whole is paid, with all accrued interest at the rate of ——— per centum per annum.

The interest is payable semi-annually, to wit: on the second days of January and of July in each year hereafter, upon presentation of the coupons therefor, the first of which is for the interest from date to the next second day of ———, and thereafter the interest coupons are for semi-annual interest, except the last, which is for interest from the semi-annual payment next preceding and to the date of the final maturity of this bond.

than fifty cents per front foot along each line of the street so proposed to be improved, including the cost of intersection work assessable upon said frontage, it shall have the power, in its discretion, to determine that serial bonds shall be issued to represent the cost of said work or improvement, in the manner and form hereinafter provided. Said serial bonds shall extend over a period not to exceed ten years from their date, and an even annual proportion of the principal sum thereof shall be payable, by coupon, on the second day of January every year after their date, until the whole is paid, and the interest shall be payable semi-annually, by coupon, on the second days of January and July, respectively, of each year, at the rate of not to exceed ten per cent per annum on all sums unpaid, until the whole of said principal and interest are paid. Said bonds and interest thereon shall be paid at the office of the city treasurer of said municipality, who shall keep a fund designated by the name of said bonds, into which he shall receive all sums paid him for the principal of said bonds and the interest thereon, and from which he shall disburse such sums, upon the presentation of said coupons; and under no circumstances shall said bonds or the interest thereon be paid out of any other fund. Said city treasurer shall keep a register in his office, which shall show the series, number, date, amount, rate of interest, payee and indorsees of each bond, and the number and amount of each coupon or principal or interest paid by him, and shall cancel and file each coupon so paid. [Amended March 2, 1899. Stats. 1899, p. 40.]

§ 3. When said city council shall determine that serial bonds shall be issued to represent the expenses of any proposed work or improvement under said street work act, it shall so declare in the resolution of intention to do said work, and shall specify the rate of interest which they shall bear. The like description of said bonds shall be inserted in the resolution ordering the work, in the resolution of award, and in all notices of said proceedings required by said street work act to be either posted or published; and also a notice that a bond will issue to represent each assessment of twenty-five dollars or more remaining unpaid for thirty days after the date of the warrant, or five days after the decision of said council upon an appeal, and describing the bonds, shall be included in the warrant provided for in section 9 of said street work act. [Amended March 2, 1899. Stats. 1899, p. 40.]

§ 4. After the full expiration of thirty days from the date of the warrant, or if an appeal be taken to the city council, as provided in section 11 of said street work act, then five days after the final decision of said council, and after the street superintendent shall have recorded the return, as provided in section 10 of the same act, the street superintendent shall make and certify to the city treasurer a complete list of all assessments unpaid, which amount to twenty-five dollars or over, upon any assessment or diagram number; and said treasurer shall thereupon make out, sign, and issue to the contractor, or his assigns, payee of the warrant and assessment, a separate bond, representing upon each of the certified list of all assessments unpaid to the amount of twenty-five dollars or over by the street superintendent, to the city treasurer, and of the validity of said lien, up to the date of said list. [Amended March 2, 1899. Stats. 1899, p. 41.]

§ 5. Whenever, through the default of the owner of any lot or parcel of land to represent the assessment upon which such bond has been, or may hereafter be, issued, any payment, either upon the principal, or of the interest, has not been, or shall not be made when the same has become, or shall become due, and the holder of the bond thereupon demands, in writing, that the said city treasurer proceed to advertise and sell said lot or parcel of land as herein provided, then the whole bond or its unpaid remainder, with its accrued interest, as expressed in said bond, shall become due and payable immediately, and on the day following shall become delinquent.

Subdivision a. Upon the application of the holder of any bond that is now or shall hereafter become delinquent as provided in this section, the said city treasurer shall publish for two weeks in a newspaper of general circulation, to be designated by him, published in the city where his office is situated, a notice which must contain the date, number, and series of the delinquent bond, a description of the property mentioned in said bond, and the name of the owner of such property (if known), and if unknown, the fact shall be so stated, the amount due thereon, and a statement that unless the amount of said bond and the interest due thereon, together with the cost of publication of such notice are paid, the real property described in said bond will be sold at public auction on a day to be therein fixed, which shall not be less than fifteen nor more than thirty days from the day of the first publication of said notice, and the place of such sale, which must be the office of the said city treasurer.

Subdivision b. The city treasurer, before the day of sale hereinafter provided for, must file with the city clerk a copy of the publication, with an affidavit of the publisher of such newspaper, or some one in his behalf, attached thereto, that it is a true copy of the same; that the publication was made in a newspaper, stating its name and place of publication and the date of each appearance in which such publication was made—which affidavit is primary evidence of all the facts stated therein.

Subdivision c. The city treasurer must collect, in addition to the amount due on such bond, the cost of the publication of such notice, and fifty cents for the certificate of sale, as hereinafter provided.

Subdivision d. At any time prior to the sale, the owner or person in possession of any real estate offered for sale under the provisions of this act may pay the whole amount of said bond then due, with costs, and such bond shall thereupon be canceled; but in case such payment is not made by such owner, or person in possession, or by some one in behalf of such owner, or person in possession, the property subject thereto shall be sold as herein provided.

Should default be made in the annual payment upon the principal, or in any payment of interest from the owner of said lot or parcel of land, or any one in his behalf, the holder of this bond is entitled to declare the whole unpaid amount to be due and payable, and to have said lot or parcel of land advertised and sold forthwith, in the manner provided by law.

At said — of — this — day of —, in the year one thousand — hundred and —.

City treasurer of the — of —.

Provided, that in case the amount of unpaid assessments upon any lot or parcel of land shall be less than twenty-five dollars, then the same shall be collected as is hereinbefore provided in part one of said street work act.

Provided, also, that if any person, or his authorized agent, shall at any time before the issuance of the bond for said assessment upon his lot or parcel of land present to the city treasurer his affidavit, made before a competent officer, that he is the owner of a lot or parcel of land in said list, accompanied by the certificate of a searcher of records that he is such owner of record, and with such affidavit and certificate such person notifies said treasurer in writing that he desires no bond to be issued for the assessments upon said lot or parcel of land, then no such bond shall be issued therefor, and the payee of the warrant, or his assigns, shall retain his right for enforcing collection as if said lot or parcel of land had not been so listed by the street superintendent.

The bonds so issued by said treasurer shall be payable to the party to whom they issue, or order, and shall be serial bonds, as is hereinbefore described, and shall bear interest at the rate specified in the resolution of intention to do said work. They shall have annual coupons attached thereto, payable in annual order, on the second day of January in each year after the date of the bond, until all are paid, and each coupon shall be for an even annual proportion of the principal of the bond. They shall have semi-annual interest coupons thereto attached, the first of which shall be payable upon the second day of January or July, as the case may be, next after its date, and shall be for the interest accrued at that time, and the last of which shall be for the amount of interest accruing from the second day of January or July, as the case may be, next preceding the maturity of said bonds to the maturity thereof. The city treasurer shall, in addition to his other duties in the premises, report all coupon payments of principal upon said bonds to the street superintendent, who shall forthwith indorse the same upon the margin of the record of the assessment to the credit of which the same is paid, and said assessment shall be a first lien upon the property affected thereby until the bond issued for the payment thereof, and the accrued interest thereon, shall be fully paid. Said bonds, by their issuance, shall be prima facie evidence of the regularity of all proceedings thereto under said street work act and this act, previous to the making a deed, and the owner of the property shall have the right of redemption indefinitely, until such notice shall have been given and said deed applied for, upon the payment of the fees, penalties, and costs in this act required. In case of unoccupied property, a similar notice must be posted in a conspicuous place upon the property at least thirty days before the expiration of the time for redemption, or thirty days before the purchaser applies for a deed; and no deed to the property sold, in accordance with the provisions of this act, shall be issued by the city treasurer to the purchaser of such property, until such purchaser shall have filed with such treasurer an affidavit showing that the notice herebefore required to be given has been given as herein required, which said affidavit shall be filed and preserved by the said treasurer as other records kept by him in his office. Such purchaser shall be entitled to receive the sum of fifty cents for his service of such notice and the making of said affidavit, which sum of fifty cents shall be paid by redemptioner at the time and in the same manner as the other sums, costs, and fees are paid.

Subdivision k. The deed, when duly acknowledged or proved, is primary evidence of the regularity of all proceedings theretofore had, and conveys to the grantee the absolute title to the lands described therein, as of the date of the expiration of the period for redemption free of all encumbrances, except the lien for state, county, and municipal taxes. [Amended March 2, 1899. Stats. 1899, p. 43.]

§ 6. Whenever any railroad track or tracks of any description exist upon any street or streets on which the city council has ordered work to be done or improvements made, excepting therefrom such portions as is [are] required by law to be kept in order or repair, by any person or company having railroad tracks thereon, the said council may, at any time thereafter, order such person or company to perform upon said excepted portion the work or improvements, similar in all respects to that already ordered to be performed under the same specifications and superintendence, with the same materials, within the same time, and to the like satisfaction and acceptance. Thereupon it shall be the duty of the clerk of said council to deliver immediately a copy of such order, certified by him, to such person or company, and to make and preserve in his office a certificate of such delivery, its date, and upon whom made. Should such person or company, for thirty days, or within such extension of time as the city council may grant, thereafter refuse or neglect to make or have made such work or improvement in the manner or time ordered, it shall be the duty of the city council to have such work or improvement performed, and such refusal or neglect punished in the manner provided by law. Within fifteen days after receiving the certified copy of said order, such person or company may file with the clerk of said council a written assumption of the performance of said work or improvement, according to the order, or a request to the council to have such work or improvement performed, for and at the expense of such person or company, in the manner herein provided. The failure to file such instrument within said time shall be taken and deemed to

Subdivision f. The city treasurer, before delivering any certificate, must, in a book kept in his office for that purpose, enter the date, number, and series of the bond, a description of the land sold corresponding with the description of the certificate, the date of sale, purchasers' name, the amount paid, regularly number the descriptions on the margin of the book, and put a corresponding number on each certificate. Such book must be open to public inspection during office hours when not in actual use, and he shall enter on the record of the bond the words "Canceled by sale of the property," giving the date of such sale.

Subdivision g. Immediately on the sale, the purchaser shall become vested with a lien on the property, so sold to him, to the extent of his bid, and is only divested of such lien by the payment to the city treasurer of the purchase money, including costs herein provided for, with interest thereon at the rate of one per cent per month from the date of sale.

Subdivision h. A redemption of the property sold may be made by the owner of the property, or any party in interest, within twelve months from the date of purchase, or at any time prior to the application for a deed, as hereinafter provided. Redemption must be made in lawful money of the United States, and when made to the city treasurer he must credit the amount paid to the person named in his certificate, and pay it on demand to him or his assignees.

Subdivision i. On receiving the certificate of sale, the recorder must file it, and make an entry in a book similar to that required of the city treasurer, the fee for which shall be fifty cents, and on presentation of the receipt of the city treasurer for the total amount of the redemption money, the recorder must, without charge, mark the word "Redeemed," the date, and by whom redeemed, on the margin of the book where the entry of the certificate is made.

Subdivision j. If the property is not redeemed within the time allowed by subdivision h hereof for its redemption, the city treasurer, or his successor in office, upon application of the purchaser or his assignee, must make to said purchaser, or his assignee, a deed to the property, reciting in the deed, substantially, the matter contained in the certificate, and that no person has redeemed the property during the time allowed for its redemption; the treasurer shall be entitled to receive from the purchaser two dollars for making said deed, which shall be deposited in the city treasury for the use of the city after payment has been made therefrom for the acknowledgment of said deed; provided, however, that the purchaser of the property, or his assignee must, thirty days prior to the expiration of the time of the redemption, or thirty days before his application for a deed, serve upon the owner or agent of the property purchased, if named in such certificate, and upon the party occupying the property, if the property is occupied, a written notice, stating that said property, or a portion thereof, has been sold to satisfy the bond lien, the date of sale, the date, number, and series of the bond, the amount then due, and the time when the right of redemption will expire, or when the purchaser will apply for the sale of property described therein, shall apply hereto, except that the work required to be performed by the treasurer by said sections shall be performed by the street superintendent, in so far as the bonds for the paving of railroads are concerned. None of the provisions of the "Street Work Act" in regard to a protest against the work shall apply to any work contemplated by this section. All provisions of the "Street Work Act" not inconsistent with the provisions hereof shall apply hereto.

§ 7. The term "city treasurer," as used in this act, shall be held to mean and include any person who, under whatever name or title, is the custodian of the funds of the municipality.

§ 8. The act entitled "An act to amend an act entitled 'An act to provide for work upon streets, lanes, alleys, courts, places, and sidewalks, and for construction of sewers within municipalities,' approved March eighteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-five, by adding thereto an additional part, numbered 4, consisting of sections 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, and 44, relative to a system of street improvement bonds," approved March seventeen, eighteen hundred and ninety-one, is hereby repealed, except as to any and all proceedings hitherto commenced thereunder, which proceedings may be completed and have full force as is therein provided.

§ 9. This act shall take effect and become of force from and after its passage.

ACT 3933.

An act fixing and regulating the manner of sale and redemption of real property for delinquent assessments to pay the damages, costs, and expense for or incident to laying out, opening, extending, widening, straightening, diverting, curving, contracting, or closing up, in whole or in part, any street, square, lane, alley, court, or place within municipalities in this state.

[Approved March 27, 1895. Stats. 1895, p. 204.]

§ 1. All sales, and redemptions after sale, of any real property upon which the assessment levied and assessed to pay the damages, costs, and expense for or incident to laying out, opening, extending, widening, straightening, diverging, curving, constructing, or closing up, in whole or in part, any street, square, lane, alley, court, or place within municipalities in this state, shall remain unpaid and become delinquent under the provisions of any act or law regulating such matters, shall be made and had in the same time and manner as such sales and redemption were required by law to be made and had on the first day of January, Anno Domini eighteen hundred and ninety-five.

§ 2. All acts or parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

be a refusal to comply with the order. Upon reception of said assumption of the direct performance of said work or improvement, the city council shall take no further proceedings in the matter, unless such person or company neglects or fails for thirty days, or such further time as the council may grant, to comply with the provisions of the order. But if such person or company files the said request that the said council have such work or improvement performed, or fails to perform said work within thirty days, or within such further time as the council may grant, then said city council may pass an ordinance of intention to perform said work, which ordinance shall specify the work to be performed, and a statement that unless within thirty days after the recording of the return of the warrant, or within five days after the final decision of the council on an appeal, the said person or company shall pay the cost of said work, or the street superintendent of said city shall issue bonds to represent the cost of said work, stating also that the cost of said work, in case bonds shall issue, shall be paid in ten yearly installments, and also the rate of interest (not to exceed ten per cent per annum) that the same shall bear. The subsequent procedure shall be as provided by the "Street Work Act." A similar statement shall also be incorporated in all notices required to be posted or published by the provisions of the "Street Work Act"; also in the ordinance or resolution ordering the work, advertisement for proposals, and in the contract. Whenever the person or company owning any such railroad shall not have, within thirty days after the recording of the return of the warrant, or within five days after the final decision of the council on an appeal, paid the cost of such work, the street superintendent shall issue to the contractor, or his assigns, bonds for the amount of such cost, which shall describe the franchise, tracks, and roadbed along or between which said work has been performed, and describing the same as upon the assessment and diagram, giving its assessment number. Such bonds shall also describe the work performed, giving the total amount of the cost of such work, the name of the owner of said railroad, the number of installments in which the cost of the work is to be paid, and the rate of interest which the deferred payments shall bear. Said bonds shall be in sums of not less than one hundred dollars or more than one thousand dollars, and shall recite that the total amount of the cost of such work, together with the interest thereon, as represented in said bonds, is, except state, county, and municipal taxes, a first lien upon all the track, roadbed, switches, and franchises of said railroad lying within the corporate limits of the city or town, on any part of which said work has been performed. Said street superintendent shall also keep a record of such bonds, as required by section 18 of the "Street Work Act." Whenever bonds have been issued, as herein provided, the same, together with the cost of such work and the interest thereon, shall be, except state, county, or municipal taxes, a first lien upon all the tracks, roadbed, switches, and franchises of said railroad within the corporate limits of the city or town, on any part of which said work has been performed. Sections 4 and 5 of this act, regarding the form, issuance, and foreclosure of street bonds, and work mentioned in section 1 hereof, and may exclude therefrom any of said work already done to the official grade.

Publication of resolution. Posting of notices. Publication of notice.

§ 3. Said ordinance or resolution of intention shall be conspicuously posted for two days on or near the chamber door of said legislative body, and published by two insertions in a daily or weekly newspaper published and circulated in said city, and designated by said legislative body for said purpose. If no such newspaper be so published and circulated in said city, such posting of said ordinance or resolution of intention shall be sufficient. The superintendent of streets shall thereupon cause to be conspicuously posted along all streets and parts of streets within the assessment district described in the ordinance or resolution of intention, not more than one hundred feet apart, notices (not less than three in all) of the passage of said ordinance or resolution. Said notices shall be headed "Notice of Street Work" in letters not less than one inch in length, shall be in legible characters, and shall state the fact and date of the passage of said ordinance or resolution of intention and the time and place fixed for the hearing of protests, and notify all persons interested to appear at said time and place with their objections to said improvement, if any they have, and briefly describe the proposed improvement, and refer to the ordinance or resolution of intention for further particulars. He shall also cause a notice of similar substance to be published for a period of five days in a daily newspaper published and circulated in said city, or if there is no such daily newspaper, then by two successive insertions in a weekly newspaper so published and circulated. If no such newspaper be so published and circulated in said city, such notice shall be also posted on or near the chamber door of the legislative body of said city, and in two other public places in said city. Such posting and publication must be completed at least fifteen days before the day set for the hearing of protests.

Protests, must contain what. Affidavits of posting. Findings of council. Hearing of protests.

§ 4. At or before the time fixed for the hearing, any person interested, objecting to the proposed improvement or to the extent of the assessment district described in the ordinance or resolution of intention, may file a written protest with the clerk of said legislative body. Every protest must contain a description of the property in which each signer thereof is interested and set forth the nature of his interest therein and must be accompanied by the affidavit of one of the signers thereof that each signature thereto is the genuine signature of the person whose name is thereto subscribed, and in case any signature is made by an agent, there must be attached to the protest the affidavit of the agent that he is duly authorized to sign such protest. Any protest not complying with the foregoing requirements shall not be considered by said legislative body. The clerk shall indorse on every such protest the date of its reception by him, and at the time fixed for the hearing, or § 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and approval.

ACT 3934.

An act to provide for the improvement of public streets, lanes, alleys, courts and places in municipalities, in cases where any damage to private property would result from such improvement, and for the assessment of the costs, damages and expenses thereof upon the property benefited thereby.

[Approved April 21, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 1042.]

Street improvements. Damage to private property.

§ 1. Whenever the public interest or convenience may require, the legislative body of any city, after having by ordinance or resolution established or changed or modified the grade of any public street, lane, alley, court or place in said city, or any portion thereof, is hereby empowered, in any case where in the opinion of said legislative body any damage to private property would result from the improvement thereof, to order the whole, or any part, either in length or width, of such public street, lane, alley, court or place, to be improved to conform to such official grade by grading or regrading, paving or repaving, planking or replanking, macadamizing or remacadamizing, piling or repiling, capping or recapping, graveling or regraveling, oiling or re-oiling, sewerage or resewering, sidewalking or residewalking, curbing or recurbing, or guttering or reguttering, or by the building of storm water ditches or channels or breakwaters, levees, walls of rock or of other material to protect the same from overflow or injury, or by constructing manholes, culverts, bridges, cesspools, tunnels or cross-walks, or by the doing of any other work which shall be necessary to complete the whole or any portion of said public street, lane, alley, court or place, under the proceedings hereinbefore provided, and in accordance with plans and specifications prepared by the city engineer of said city, and approved by the legislative body thereof.

Resolution of intention.

§ 2. Before ordering any improvement described in section 1 hereof, the said legislative body shall pass an ordinance or resolution declaring its intention so to do, and that in its opinion damage to private property would result from such improvement, describing the proposed improvement, fixing a time and place for the hearing of protests in relation thereto by said legislative body, which time shall be not less than twenty nor more than thirty days from the date of the passage of said ordinance or resolution of intention, and specifying the exterior boundaries of the district of land to be benefited by said improvement and to be specially assessed to pay the costs and expenses thereof, and the damages caused by said improvement, which shall be known as the assessment district. Said legislative body may include in one improvement the whole or any portion of one or more streets, lanes, alleys, courts or other public places, and any or all of the different kinds of said damages, and of all costs and expenses of the improvement, on the property benefited thereby. Said ordinance or resolution shall describe the improvement in the same manner as the ordinance or resolution of intention, and shall be published by two insertions in a daily or weekly newspaper published and circulated in said city, or if no such newspaper be so published and circulated, said ordinance or resolution shall be posted on or near the chamber door of the legislative body, and at two other public places in said city.

Commission to estimate damages.

§ 6. In any city having a board of public works created by its charter or by law, such board, and in other cities the mayor, city engineer or surveyor and superintendent of streets, or if all of such officers last mentioned do not exist in cities having no board of public works, any three competent and disinterested persons appointed by said legislative body, shall act as a commission to estimate the damages caused by said proposed improvement and to assess the same, and all costs and expenses of said proposed improvement upon the property benefited thereby. Such commissioners, if they are appointed by said legislative body as aforesaid, shall be sworn to make the assessment of benefits and damages faithfully, impartially and to the best of their ability. Said commission shall have power to subpoena witnesses to appear before it to be examined under oath, which any of said commissioners may administer.

Hearing petitions for damages.

§ 7. Upon the passage of the final ordinance or resolution referred to in section 5 hereof, said commission shall appoint a time and place for the hearing of petitions for damages caused by said improvement, and shall cause notice of such time and place to be published for at least five days in a daily newspaper, or three times in a weekly newspaper, published in said city, or if no such newspaper is so published and circulated, then by posting for two days in three public places in said city. The time set for hearing such petition shall be not less than thirty days from the first publication or posting of such notice. Before said hearing said commission shall view the location of the proposed improvement, and the property affected thereby. Said hearing may be continued from time to time by said commission.

Claims for damages.

§ 8. At or before the time set for hearing of petitions for damages any person owning property, and claiming that the same will be damaged by said proposed improvement, shall file with the city clerk, who shall transmit the same to the commission, a petition showing the fact of such ownership, the description of the property claimed to be damaged, its market value, and the amount of damages which it is claimed such property will sustain by the proposed improvement, and the postoffice address of such petitioner, or his agent. Every such petition shall be verified by the oath of the petitioner or his agent. After considering at any other time to which the hearing may be adjourned, he shall present to said legislative body all protests so filed with him. Before the hearing of any protests there shall be filed with such legislative body affidavits showing that the said notices have been posted and published as hereinbefore required, and the said legislative body shall thereupon cause to be entered in its minutes an order reciting that notice of said hearing has been posted and published as required by law, and such order shall be prima facie evidence of the truth of the facts therein recited.

If such protests are against the said improvement, and the legislative body finds that the same are signed by the owners of a majority of the frontage of the property fronting on streets or parts of streets within the assessment district, all further proceedings under said ordinance or resolution of intention shall be barred, except as hereinafter provided, for six months after the presentation of such protests to such legislative body, and no new ordinance or resolution of intention for the same improvement shall be passed within said six months, unless the owners of a majority of the frontage of the property fronting on the streets or parts of streets within said assessment district shall in the mean time petition that said improvement be made. If such protests are against the improvement, and the legislative body finds that they are not signed by the owners of a majority of the frontage of the property fronting on streets or parts of streets within the assessment district, or if such protests are only against the extent of the assessment district, or if the proposed improvement is the construction of sewers, manholes, culverts, cesspools, cross-walks, gutters, curbs or sidewalks, or extends for a distance of not more than one block of any street and at least one block of such street immediately adjacent thereto on both ends of the block proposed to be improved has already been improved, or extends for a distance of not more than one block at the end of a street and at least one block immediately adjacent thereto has already been improved, the legislative body shall hear said protests at said meeting, or at any time to which the hearing thereof may be continued, and pass upon the same, and its decision shall be final and conclusive. If such protests are sustained, no further proceedings shall be had under said ordinance or resolution of intention, but a new ordinance or resolution of intention for the same improvement may be passed at any time. If such protests are denied, the proceedings shall continue as if such protests had not been made.

Jurisdiction, when acquired.

§ 5. If no protests are filed at or before the time fixed for the hearing thereof by the ordinance or resolution of intention, or if protests are filed, and after hearing are denied, as above provided, the legislative body shall have jurisdiction to order the improvement described in the ordinance or resolution of intention. Having acquired such jurisdiction, it shall by ordinance or resolution order such improvement to be made, and refer the same to the commission hereinafter provided for, to estimate the damages caused thereby, and report an assessment of contractor desires the work or part thereof to be accepted he must make written application to that effect to the legislative body. Upon the filing of such application for acceptance, the clerk of the legislative body shall give not less than five days' notice by publication by two insertions in a daily or weekly newspaper published and circulated in the city, or by posting for two days in three public places in the city, in case no such newspaper is published and circulated therein, that at a certain time and place to be named in said notice the legislative body of the city will hear and consider any objections to the acceptance of the work, or part of the work, for the acceptance of which said contractor has made such application, and only after such hearing shall any work be accepted. If upon such hearing any objections to the acceptance are made and are sustained by the legislative body, the legislative body must require the contractor to take such steps as will remove such objections; and in the event of his failure to do so within such time as the legislative body shall prescribe, the legislative body may relet such portion of the work and charge the contractor the cost thereof together with all expenses incident to said reletting, and retain the same out of any moneys due or to become due to him under the contract, and also hold him and his sureties responsible therefor upon his bond.

The contract shall provide that the work must be commenced within twenty days after the contractor receives written notice from the superintendent of streets that there is sufficient money in the special fund devoted to the proposed improvement to pay the contract price, and completed within such time as the legislative body shall prescribe. If the contractor abandons the work, or fails to proceed with the same as rapidly as required by his contract, the legislative body may relet the contract, or any portion thereof, and pay the cost of the same and also any expenses incidental to the reletting, out of any funds due or to become due the contractor, and also hold him and his sureties responsible upon his bond for such cost and expenses, and also for any damages resulting from such abandonment.

Upon the signing of the contract for the doing of the work, the clerk of the legislative body, if there be no board of public works in said city, shall certify to such commission the amount of the contract price.

Assessment for benefits. What commission must report.

§ 10. The commission shall, as soon as practicable, after determining what damages will be caused by said improvement, and, after the signing of the contract for the work, assess the total amount of the damages so determined, the total amount of the contract price for the doing of such work, and the total amount of all the incidental expenses of such improvement, which shall include the necessary expenses and disbursements of the commission, the cost of making the assessment, and all expenses necessarily incurred by the city in connection with the proposed improvement for maps, diagrams, plans, surveys and other matters incident thereto, upon the respective lots or parcels of land in the assessment district described in the ordinance or resolution of in-the petitions filed as hereinbefore provided, and after hearing the petitioners who may appear, and after viewing the location of the proposed improvement and the property affected thereby, said commission shall proceed to determine the amount of damages, if any, which will be sustained by each such petitioner because of the proposed improvement. No damages or compensation whatsoever shall be allowed or awarded to the owner of any property affected by said improvement unless a petition therefor be filed as provided in this section, and any property owner who fails to file a petition for damages as hereinbefore provided, shall be deemed to have waived any and all claims for damages caused by said improvement.

Proposals for doing work. Bids. Award of contract. Supervision of work.

§ 9. Before the awarding of any contract by the legislative body for doing any work authorized by this act, said legislative body shall cause notice, with specifications, to be posted conspicuously for five days on or near the chamber door of said legislative body, inviting sealed proposals or bids for doing the work ordered, and shall also cause notice of said work inviting said proposal, and referring to the specifications posted or on file, to be published for two days in a daily, or weekly newspaper published and circulated in said city, designated by said legislative body for that purpose, and in case there is no newspaper published in said city, then it shall only be posted as hereinbefore provided. Every bid shall be delivered to the clerk of the legislative body and shall be accompanied by a check certified by a responsible bank, amounting to ten per cent of the amount of the bid, payable to the order of the said clerk, or by a bond for the said amount, and so payable, signed by the bidder and by two sureties who shall justify before any officer competent to administer an oath, in double the said amount, and over and above all statutory exemptions, and said amount shall be forfeited to the city in case the bidder depositing the same does not, within ten days after written notice that the contract has been awarded to him, enter into a contract with the city to do the work, with the bond hereinafter required, and any other bonds required by law. Said bids shall be opened by the legislative body in public session and publicly declared, and no bid shall be considered unless accompanied by said bond or said certified check. The legislative body must let the contract to the lowest responsible bidder who shall give bond for the faithful performance of the work in such sum as may be required by it, and such other bonds as may be required by law, with sureties satisfactory to said legislative body; provided, however, that the legislative body may reject any and all bids, should it deem this for the public good, and also the bid of any person who has been delinquent or unfaithful in the performance of any former contract with the city, or of any other contract let by or under the authority thereof.

The contract must provide that the work shall be done under the supervision of the city engineer or surveyor, and no work shall be paid for until it has been accepted by the legislative body. Whenever the tion 4 hereof for the form and substance of protests, and shall be filed with the clerk of the legislative body at or before the time fixed for the hearing. At the time fixed, or at any other time to which the hearing may be continued, the legislative body shall hear said report and any objections thereto, and any person interested may appear and be heard upon said report and objections.

After such hearing the legislative body shall pass upon the report and may confirm, modify or correct the same, or may confirm the report as modified or corrected, or order the commission to make and file a new report, which shall be heard in like manner as the first report, and after like notice of hearing. If no objections are filed, or if the objections filed are not sustained, the legislative body shall confirm the report. The action of the legislative body upon said report shall be declared by resolution entered upon its minutes, and shall be final and conclusive, except as to the damages to be caused by the proposed improvement; and when said report is confirmed, or is confirmed as modified or corrected, the clerk of the legislative body shall transmit the diagram and assessment provided for in section 10 hereof, as finally confirmed, to the city tax collector. The tax collector shall thereupon record such assessment and diagram in his office in a suitable book to be kept for that purpose, and append thereto his certificate of the date of such recording, and such record shall be the assessment-roll. From the date of such recording all persons shall be deemed to have notice of the contents of such assessment-roll. Immediately upon such recording the several assessments contained in such assessment-roll shall become due and payable, and each of such assessments shall be a lien upon the property against which it is made, paramount to all other liens, except taxes and prior assessments; and such lien shall only be discharged by payment of the assessment or by redemption of the land after sale for delinquency. The tax collector shall, upon the recording of said assessment, give notice by publication for five days in a daily newspaper published and circulated in said city, or by two insertions in a weekly newspaper so published and circulated; or in case no such daily or weekly newspaper is so published and circulated in said city, then by posting such notice for four days in three public places in said city, that said assessment has been recorded in his office and that all sums assessed therein are due and payable immediately, and that payment of the said sums must be made to him within thirty days after the date of the first publication or posting, which date shall be stated in the notice. Said notice shall also contain a statement that all assessments not paid before the expiration of the said thirty days shall become delinquent, and that thereupon five per cent upon the amount of each such assessment will be added thereto. When payment of any assessment is made the tax collector shall mark opposite such assessment the word "paid," the date of payment, and the name of the person by or for whom the same is paid, and shall give a receipt therefor. Upon the expiration of said period of thirty days, all assessments then unpaid shall become delinquent, and the tax collector shall mark each such assessment "delinquent" on said assessment-roll, and add five per cent to the amount thereof.

tention, in proportion to the benefits to be received by such lots or parcels of land, respectively, from the said improvement, and shall make and file with the clerk of the legislative body a report in writing containing the following:

1. A schedule describing the lots or parcels of land belonging to each petitioner for damages and which will be damaged by said proposed improvement, stating the amount of damages to each lot or parcel as determined by the commission, and the name of the owner of each such lot or parcel of land so damaged.

2. A diagram showing the assessment district, and also the boundaries and dimensions of the respective lots or parcels of land within said district, and each of such lots or parcels of land shall be given a separate number in red ink upon said diagram.

3. A proposed assessment of the total amount of damages that will be caused by said improvement, as determined by the commission, the total amount of the contract price for the work and the total amount of the incidental expenses thereof as above specified, upon the respective lots or parcels of land in said district in proportion to the benefits to be received by such lots or parcels of land, respectively, from said improvement. Said assessment shall refer to such lots or parcels of land upon said diagram by the red ink numbers thereof, and need contain no other description thereof, and shall show the names of the owners, if known, otherwise designating them as unknown; but no mistake in the name of the owner of any lot or parcel of land shall affect the validity of the assessment thereon.

In case the commissioners do not all agree, a majority of the whole number may make such report.

Hearing of report.

§ 11. Upon the filing of the report provided for in section 10 hereof, the clerk of the legislative body shall present such report to the legislative body, which shall fix a day for the hearing thereof by said legislative body, which day shall not be less than twenty days from the date of filing such report, and shall cause a notice of such hearing to be published by the clerk thereof, by three insertions in a daily newspaper published and circulated in said city, or if there be no daily newspaper in said city, then by two successive insertions in a weekly newspaper so published and circulated; or if no newspaper is so published and circulated, then by posting for two days in three public places in said city. Such publication shall be completed at least ten days before the date fixed for the hearing. Said notice shall state the fact that such report has been filed, and the date set for the hearing thereof, and require all persons interested to file with the clerk their objections, if any they have, to the confirmation of said report at or before the time fixed for the hearing.

Objections. Action of legislative body on report. Assessment-roll. Notice of assessment.

§ 12. Any objection to said report shall be in writing signed by the objector, or his agent, and shall comply with the requirements of sec-the other to the purchaser, or if the city is the purchaser, to the clerk of the legislative body, who shall file the same in his office. Upon the filing of the copy of such certificate in the office of the tax collector, the lien of the assessment shall vest in the purchaser and is only divested by a redemption of the property as in this act provided.

The tax collector shall also enter upon the assessment-roll opposite the description of each piece of property offered for sale, the description of the portion thereof sold, the amount for which the same was sold, the date of the sale and the name of the purchaser.

Redemption of property sold.

§ 16. At any time before the expiration of one year from the date of the sale, any lot or parcel of land sold for a delinquent assessment may be redeemed by any party in interest by the payment to the tax collector of the amount for which the property was sold, and in addition thereto, ten per cent thereon if paid within six months from the date of sale; and twenty-five per cent if paid within twelve months. When redemption is made the tax collector shall note that fact and the date thereof on the duplicate certificate of sale on file in his office, and deposit the amount paid with the city treasurer, who shall credit the purchaser named in the certificate of sale with the said amount and pay the same to such purchaser, or to his assigns, upon the surrender of the certificate of sale and upon satisfactory proof of assignment thereof, if any. When the city is the purchaser, the tax collector shall notify the clerk of the legislative body of the redemption and such clerk shall thereupon cancel the certificate of sale on file in his office.

Deeds to purchaser. Service of notice by purchaser. Penalty on redemption.

§ 17. At any time after the expiration of twelve months from the date of sale, the tax collector must execute to the purchaser, or to his assignee on his application, if such purchaser or assignee has complied with the provisions of this section, a deed of the property sold, in which shall be recited substantially the matters contained in the certificate, also any assignment thereof, and the fact that no person has redeemed the property. The tax collector shall receive from the applicant for a deed, one dollar for making such deed, unless the city is the purchaser, in which case no charge shall be made therefor. The purchaser or his assignee, must at least thirty days before he applies for a deed, serve upon the owner of the property, and upon the occupant of such property, if the same is occupied, a written notice, setting forth a description of the property, that said property has been sold for a delinquent assessment (specifying the improvement for which the same was made), the amount for which it was sold, the amount necessary to redeem at the time of giving notice, and the time when such purchaser or assignee will apply to the tax collector for a deed. If the said owner cannot be found, after due diligence, said notice must be posted in a conspicuous place upon said property, at least thirty days before the time stated therein, at which the application for a deed will be made. The person applying for a deed must file with the tax collector an affidavit or affidavits showing that notice of such application has been given, as herein required, and if the notice was not served on the owner of the property personally, that due diligence was used to find said owner; which affidavit or affidavits must be filed by the tax collector in his office. If redemption of the property is made after such affidavits are filed, and more than eleven months from the date of sale, the person making such redemption must pay, in addition to the other amounts required, three dollars for the service of notice and the making of such affidavits, which amount shall be paid over to the purchaser or his assignee in the same manner as other sums paid for redemption. No deed for any property sold for delinquent assessment shall be made until the purchaser or his assignee has complied with all the provisions of this section, and filed the proper affidavits with the tax collector.

Such deed shall be prima facie evidence of the truth of all matters recited therein and of the regularity of all proceedings prior to the execution thereof and of title in the grantees.

Disposition of funds collected.

§ 18. The funds collected by the tax collector under the proceedings herein provided for, either upon voluntary payment, or as the result of sales, shall be paid by said tax collector, as fast as collected, to the treasurer of said city, who shall place the same in a special fund designated by the number or name of the proceedings, and payments shall be made out of said special fund only for the purposes provided for in this act. To expedite the making of any such improvement, the legislative body may at any time transfer into said special fund, out of any money in the general fund, such sums as it may deem necessary, and the sums so transferred shall be deemed a loan to such special fund and shall be repaid out of the proceeds of the assessments provided for in this act. After all sales provided for in section 14 of this act have been made, the tax collector shall report to the legislative body of the city the amount collected.

Notice of payment of damages.

§ 19. When sufficient money is in the hands of the city treasurer, in the special fund devoted to the proposed improvement, to pay the total amount of estimated damages therefrom, all expenses of the proceeding and the cost of doing the work, it shall be the duty of the clerk of the legislative body to notify the contractor for the work of that fact, and to draw demands on said special fund for the respective amounts of damages awarded by the report, and to notify the owner of each parcel of land declared by the report to be damaged if the name of such owner is stated in the report, that the awards of damages are payable, and that he may receive the sum awarded to him on executing a release to said city of all liability for damages caused by said improvement. Such notification may be given by depositing a notice, postage prepaid, in the postoffice addressed to such person at his last known place of residence.

Refusal to accept award of damages.

§ 20. If any owner of property that will be damaged by the proposed improvement shall fail or refuse to accept the amount awarded to him by the report provided for in section 10 hereof, the legislative body may cause proceedings to be brought against him in the name of the city, in the proper superior court, to have the amount of damage to such property determined. Such proceedings shall conform, as nearly as may be, to the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure regarding eminent domain; provided, however, that the plaintiff shall not be required to pay the amount of damages awarded within thirty days after judgment. In such proceeding the ordinance ordering the improvement shall be conclusive evidence of the necessity of the same.

If no such proceeding is brought against him any owner of property that is damaged by the proposed improvement may decline to accept the amount awarded him, if any, and bring an action against the city to recover the amount to which he claims to be entitled. Any such action must be brought within thirty days after the final completion of the improvement. If in such action he fails to recover more than the amount awarded to him by the report aforesaid, he shall not recover costs.

Supplemental assessment may be ordered.

§ 21. If the first assessment for any improvement fails to raise a sufficient amount of money to pay all costs, damages and expenses of the improvement, including any judgments rendered in the actions and proceedings mentioned in section 20 and the costs and expenses of such actions or proceedings, the legislative body may pay the deficit out of the general fund, or may order a supplemental assessment to raise such deficit, which shall be made and collected in the same manner, as nearly as may be, as the first assessment, and so on until sufficient money shall have been raised to pay for such improvement.

Meanings of certain words.

§ 22. The following words and phrases shall, where used in this act, have the following meanings:

1. The term "improvement" includes all the improvements mentioned in section 1 of this act.

2. The term "city" includes every incorporated city, city and county, or other corporation organized for municipal purposes.

3. The term "city treasurer" includes any officer who has charge and makes payment of the city funds.

4. The term "superintendent of streets" includes any officer or board whose duty it is by law to have the care or charge of streets or the improvement thereof, in any city. In any city where there is no superintendent of streets, or such board, the legislative body is hereby authorized to designate some other officer to perform the duties imposed by this act on the superintendent of streets, and all the provisions hereof applicable to the superintendent of streets shall apply to the officer so designated.

5. The term "owner" or the term "any person interested" is deemed to be the person owning the fee, or the person in whom on the day any protest is filed, the legal title to real property appears by deeds duly recorded in the county recorder's office of the county in which said city is situate; or any person in possession of real property as the executor, administrator, trustee under an express trust, guardian or other legal representative of the owner, or any person in possession of real property under written contract of purchase, duly recorded.

6. The term "tax collector" includes any officer of the city whose duty it is to collect city taxes. In any city where there is no tax collector, the legislative body is hereby authorized to designate some other officer to perform the duties imposed by this act on the tax collector, and all the provisions hereof applicable to the tax collector shall apply to the officer so designated.

Certain acts not affected.

§ 23. This act shall in nowise affect an act entitled: "An act to provide for work upon streets, lanes, alleys, courts, places and sidewalks, and for the construction of sewers within municipalities," approved March 18, 1885; or an act entitled: "An act to provide a system of street improvement bonds to represent certain assessments for the cost of street work and improvements within municipalities, and also for payment of said bonds," approved February 27, 1893; or an act entitled: "An act to provide for local improvements upon streets, lanes, alleys, courts, places and sidewalks, and for the construction of sewers within municipalities, such act to be known as the 'Local Improvement Act of 1901,'" which became a law February 26, 1901, or amendments to any of said acts, or any other acts on the same subject, or apply to proceedings had thereunder, but is intended to and does provide an alternate system for making the improvements provided for by this act; and it shall be in the discretion of the legislative body of any city to proceed, in making said improvements, under the provisions either of this act or of such other acts; but when any proceedings are commenced under this act, the provisions of this act, and of such amendments thereof as may be hereafter adopted, and no other, shall apply to all such proceedings, and any provisions contained in said acts or any acts in conflict herewith shall be void and of no effect as to the proceedings commenced under this act.

Construction. Name of act.

§ 24. The provisions of this act shall be liberally construed to promote the objects thereof. This act may be designated and referred to as the "Street Improvement Act of 1909," and shall take effect and be in force upon its passage and approval.

ACT 3935.

An act to provide for work upon and the construction of sidewalks and curbing within municipalities.

[Approved March 6, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 167.]

Public streets defined.

§ 1. All streets, lanes, alleys, places and courts in the municipalities of this state now open or dedicated, or which may hereafter be opened or dedicated, to public use shall be deemed and held to be public streets, lanes, alleys, places and courts for the purposes of this act.

Sidewalks, order for. Notice of work, posting of. Objection by owners. Jurisdiction, when acquired.

§ 2. Whenever, in the opinion of the city council, public interest or public convenience may require the city council is hereby authorized and empowered to order sidewalks to be constructed in any street, lane, alley, place or court within such municipality. Before ordering any sidewalk to be constructed the city council shall pass a resolution of intention so to do and describing the work, which resolution shall be posted conspicuously for two days on or near the chamber door of said council and published by two insertions in a daily, semi-weekly or weekly newspaper, published and circulated in said city and designated by said city council for that purpose. The street superintendent shall thereupon cause to be conspicuously posted along the line where it is proposed said sidewalk shall be constructed and at not more than one hundred feet in distance apart, but not less than three in all, notices of the passage of said resolution. Said notice shall be headed "Notice of Sidewalk Work" in letters of not less than one inch in length and shall in legible characters state the fact of the passage of the resolution, its date and approval, the work or improvement proposed and refer to the resolution for further particulars. In case there is no newspaper published in said city, said resolution of intention shall be posted for six days on or near the chamber door of said council and copies thereof in two other conspicuous places in said city as hereinafter provided. The owners of a majority of the frontage of the property fronting on said proposed sidewalk and on the same side of the street, lane, alley, place or court where it is proposed said sidewalk shall be constructed may make a written objection to said proposed improvement within ten days after the expiration of the time of the publication and posting of said resolution of intention, which objection shall be delivered to the clerk of the city council, who shall indorse thereon the date of its reception by him. Thereupon the said city council shall at its next meeting fix a time for hearing such objections, not less than one week thereafter, and the city clerk shall thereupon notify the persons making such objections by depositing a notice thereof in the postoffice in said city, postage prepaid, addressed to each objector, or his agent when an agent appears for such objector. At the time specified said city council shall hear the objections urged and pass upon the same, and its decision thereon shall be final and conclusive. At the expiration of twenty days after the expiration of the time of said publication by said street superintendent and at the expiration of twenty-five days after the advertising and posting as aforesaid of any resolution of intention, if no written objection to the work therein described has been delivered as aforesaid by the owners of a majority of the frontage of the property fronting on said proposed work or improvement and on the same side of the street, lane, alley, place or court where it is proposed the said sidewalk shall be constructed, and at the expiration of fifteen days after the decision of the city council upon objections made, if objections have been made, the city council shall be deemed to have acquired jurisdiction to order the work to be done or improvement to be made, which is authorized by this act, which order, when made, shall be posted for two days, the same as provided for the posting of the resolution of intention. Before passing any resolution for the construction of sidewalks, plans and specifications and careful estimates of the costs and expenses thereof shall be furnished to the city council, if required by it, by the city engineer of the city.

Owners may petition for construction.

§ 3. The owners of a majority in frontage of lots and lands fronting on the same side of any street, avenue, lane, alley, place or court where it is proposed that a sidewalk shall be constructed and of lots and lands liable to be assessed for the expense of the work petitioned to be done, or their duly authorized agents, may petition the city council to order such sidewalk to be constructed, and the city council may order the sidewalk to be constructed after notice of its intention so to do has been posted and published as provided in section 2 of this act.

Proposals for doing work. Bids. Readvertising. Awards. Election by owners. Delinquent contractors.

§ 4. Before awarding any contract for the construction of a sidewalk, the city council shall cause notice with specifications to be posted conspicuously for five days on or near the council chamber door of said council inviting sealed proposals or bids for doing the work ordered and shall also cause notice of the said work inviting said proposals or bids and referring to the specifications posted or on file to be published for two days in a daily, semi-weekly or weekly newspaper, published and circulated in said city designated by the council for that purpose, and in case there is no newspaper published in said city then said notice shall only be posted as hereinbefore provided. All proposals or bids offered shall be accompanied by a check payable to the order of the mayor of the city, certified by a responsible bank for an amount, which shall not be less than ten per cent of the aggregate of the proposal, or by a bond for said amount and so payable, signed by the bidder and by two sureties, who shall justify before an officer competent to administer an oath in double the said amount and over and above all statutory exemptions. Said proposals or bids shall be delivered to the clerk of the said city council and said council shall in open session examine and publicly declare the same; provided, however, that no proposal or bid shall be considered unless accompanied by said check or bond satisfactory to the council. The city council may reject any or all proposals or bids should it deem this for the public good and shall also reject the bid of any party who has been delinquent or unfaithful in any former contract with the municipality, and shall reject all proposals or bids other than the lowest regular proposal or bid of any responsible bidder and may award the contract for said work to the lowest responsible bidder at the prices named in his bid, which award shall be approved by the mayor or a three-fourths vote of the city council. If not approved by him or a three-fourths vote of the city council, without further proceedings, the city council may readvertise for proposals or bids for the performance of the work as in the first instance and thereafter proceed in the manner in this section provided and shall thereupon return to the proper parties the respective checks and bonds corresponding to the bids so rejected, but the checks or bonds accompanying such accepted proposals or bids shall be held by the city clerk of said city until the contract for doing said work as hereinafter provided has been entered into, either by said lowest bidder or by the owners of three-fourths part of the frontage fronting on the same side of the street where said sidewalk is to be constructed, whereupon said certified check shall be returned to said bidder. But if said bidder fails, neglects or refuses to enter into the contract to perform said work as hereinafter provided then the certified check accompanying his bid and the amount mentioned therein shall be declared to be forfeited to said city and shall be collected by it and paid into its fund for repairs of streets; and any bond forfeited may be prosecuted and the amount due thereon collected and paid into said fund. Notice of such award of contract shall be posted for five days in the same manner as hereinbefore provided for the posting of the resolution of intention. The owners of three-fourths of the frontage of lots and lands upon the same side of the street where said sidewalk is to be constructed, or their agents, and who shall make oath that they are such owners or agents, shall not be required to present sealed proposals or bids, but may within ten days after the first posting of said notice of said award elect to take said work and enter into a written contract to construct said sidewalk at the price at which the same has been awarded. Should the said owners fail to elect to take such work and to enter into a written contract therefor within ten days or to commence work within fifteen days after the first posting of said award and to prosecute the work with diligence to completion, it shall be the duty of the superintendent of streets to enter into a contract with the original bidder, to whom the contract was awarded, and at the prices specified in his bid, but if such original bidder neglects, fails or refuses for fifteen days after the first posting of the notice of award to enter into the contract, then the said city council without further proceedings shall again advertise for proposals or bids as in the first instance and award the contract for the said work to the then lowest regular bidder. The bids of all persons and the election of all owners as aforesaid, who have failed to enter into the contract as herein provided, shall be rejected from any bidding or election subsequent to the first for the same work. If the owner or contractor, who may have taken any contract, does not complete the same within the time limited in the contract, or within such further time as the city council may give him, the superintendent of streets shall report such delinquency to the city council, which may relet the unfinished portion of said work after pursuing the formalities prescribed hereinbefore for the letting in the first instance. All contractors, contracting owners included, shall at the time of executing any contract for the construction of a sidewalk under the provisions in this act, execute a bond to the satisfaction and approval of the street superintendent of said city with two or more sureties and payable to said city in such sum as the mayor may deem adequate conditioned for the faithful performance of the contract, and the sureties shall justify before some person competent to administer an oath in double the amount mentioned in such bond over and above all statutory exemptions. Before being entitled to a contract the bidder to whom the award was made or the owners who have elected to take the contract must advance to the street superintendent for payment by him the costs of publication and posting of the notices, resolution, orders or other incidental expenses and matters required under the proceedings prescribed in this act and such other notices as may be deemed requisite by the city council including in such incidental expenses the necessary surveying and superintendence of said work. And in case the work is abandoned by the city before the letting of the contract, the incidental expense incurred previous to such abandonment shall be paid out of the city treasury.

Superintendent of streets, powers and duties of.

§ 5. The superintendent of streets is hereby authorized, in his official capacity, to make all written contracts and receive all bonds authorized by this act and to do any other act, express or implied, that pertains to the street department under this act; and he shall fix the time for the commencement, which shall not be more than fifteen days from the date of the contract and for the completion of the work under all contracts entered into by him, which work shall be prosecuted with diligence from day to day thereafter to completion, and he may extend the time so fixed for completion of the work from time to time under direction of the city council. The work provided to be done under this act must in all cases be done under the direction and to the satisfaction of the superintendent of streets, and the materials used shall comply with the specifications and be to the satisfaction of said superintendent of streets, and all contracts made therefor must contain a provision to that effect and also express notice that in no case, except where it is otherwise provided in this act, will the city, or any officer thereof, be liable for any portion of the expense nor for any delinquency of persons or property assessed. The city council may, by ordinance, prescribe general rules directing the superintendent of streets and the contractor as to the material to be used and the mode of executing the work under all contracts thereafter made. The assessment and apportionment of the expense of all such work shall be made by the superintendent of streets in the mode herein provided.

Assessments, what lands liable for.

§ 6. Subdivision One.—It is considered and established by this act that the construction of a sidewalk authorized by this act is and will be of peculiar and special benefit, gain and advantage to the lots and lands fronting on such sidewalk on the same side of the street on which the sidewalk is constructed and not of peculiar or special benefit, gain or advantage to any other property. The expense incurred for the construction of any sidewalk authorized by this act (which expense shall not include the cost of any work done in such portion of any street as is required by law to be kept in order and repair by any person or company having railroad tracks thereon) shall be assessed upon the lots and lands fronting thereon on the same side of the street where said sidewalks shall be constructed, each lot, or portion of lot, being separately assessed in proportion to the frontage at a rate per front foot sufficient to cover the total expense of the work, except the expense of so much thereof as shall be constructed upon any intersection or street crossing. The expense of that portion of the work constructed upon any intersection or street crossing shall be paid by the municipality out of the city treasury.

Owner may construct, when.

Subdivision Two.—It shall be lawful for the owner or owners of lots or lands fronting upon any street and on the same side of the street where a sidewalk is to be constructed, to perform at his or their own expense, after obtaining permission from the city council so to do, but before such council has passed its resolution of intention to order the sidewalk to be constructed, the work of constructing the sidewalk upon the same side of the street upon which his or their property so fronts, and thereupon to procure a certificate from the city engineer setting forth the fact of the construction of such sidewalk to the width and upon the grade and of the material as required by the city council.

Assessment to cover cost of work.

§ 7. After the contractor of any sidewalk work has fulfilled his contract to the satisfaction of the superintendent of streets of said city, or city council on appeal, the superintendent of streets shall make an assessment to cover the sum due for the work performed and specified in said contract (including any incidental expenses) in conformity with the provisions of the preceding section, or if any direction and decision be given by the city council on appeal then in conformity with such direction and decision, which assessment shall briefly refer to the contract, the work contracted for and performed and shall show the amount to be paid therefor together with any incidental expenses, the rate per front foot assessed, the amount of each assessment, the name of the owner of each lot or portion of lot (if known to the superintendent of streets); if unknown the word "unknown" shall be written opposite the number of the lot and the amount assessed thereon, the number of each lot, or portion or portions of the lot, assessed, and said assessment shall have attached thereto a diagram exhibiting each street or street crossing, lane, alley, place or court on which any work has been done and showing the relative location of each lot or portion of lot to the work done numbered to correspond with the numbers in the assessment and showing the number of feet fronting on said work contracted for and performed.

Warrant for assessment. Record of warrant. Lien. Defects in assessments.

§ 8. To said assessment shall be attached a warrant, which shall be signed by the superintendent of streets and countersigned by the mayor of said city. The said warrant shall be substantially in the following form:

Form of Warrant.

By virtue hereof, I (name of the superintendent of streets) of the city of —, county of — (or city and county of —) and state of California, by virtue of the authority vested in me as such superintendent of streets do authorize and empower (name of contractor) (his or their) agents or assigns, to demand and receive the several assessments upon the assessment and diagram hereto attached, and this shall be (his or their) warrant for the same.

(Date.)

(Name of superintendent of streets.)

Countersigned by

(Name of mayor.)

Said warrant, assessment and diagram together with the certificate of the city engineer to the effect that the work has been performed in accordance with the contract shall be recorded in the office of the said superintendent of streets. When so recorded the several amounts so assessed shall be a lien upon the lands, lots or portions of lots assessed respectively for the period of two years from the date of said recording unless sooner discharged; and from and after the date of said recording of any certificate, assessment, diagram and warrant all persons shall be deemed to have notice of the contents of the record thereof. After said warrant, assessment, diagram and certificate are recorded, the same shall be delivered to the contractor, or his agent or assigns, but not until after the payment to the superintendent of streets of the incidental expenses not previously paid; and by virtue of said warrant said contractor, or his agent or assigns, shall be authorized to demand and receive the amount of the several assessments made to cover the sum due for the work specified in the contract and assessment. Whenever it shall appear by any final judgment of any court in this state that any suit brought to foreclose the lien of any sum of money assessed to cover the expense of such sidewalk work done under the provisions of this act has been defeated by reason of any defect, error, informality, omission, irregularity or illegality in any assessment hereafter to be made and issued or in the recording thereof, or in the return thereof, made to or recorded by said superintendent of streets, any person interested therein may at any time within three months after the entry of said final judgment apply to said superintendent of streets, who issued the same, or to any superintendent of streets at the time of said application, for another assessment to be issued in conformity to law; and said superintendent of streets shall within fifteen days after the date of said application make and deliver to said applicant a new assessment, diagram and warrant in accordance with law, and the then mayor shall countersign the same as now provided by law, which assessment shall be a lien for the period of two years from the date of said assessment and be enforced as provided by this act.

Demands upon persons assessed. Unknown owners. Return of warrant.

Lost warrants.

§ 9. The contractor, or his assigns, or some person in his or their behalf, shall call upon the persons assessed, or their agents, if they can conveniently be found, and demand payment of the respective amounts assessed to each. If any payment be made, the contractor, his assigns or some person in his or their behalf, shall receipt for the same upon the assessment in presence of the person making such payment and shall also give a separate receipt, if demanded. Whenever the person so assessed, or his or their agents, cannot conveniently be found, or whenever the name of the owner of the lot is stated as "unknown" on the assessment, then the said contractor, or his assigns or some person in his or their behalf, shall publicly demand payment on the premises assessed. The warrant shall be returned to the superintendent of streets within thirty days after its date with a return indorsed thereon signed by the contractor, or his assigns or some person in his or their behalf, verified upon oath, stating the nature and character of the demand and whether any of the assessments remain unpaid in whole, or in part, and the amount thereof. Thereupon the superintendent of streets shall record the return so made in the margin of the record of the warrant and assessment and shall also record the original contract referred to therein if it has not already been recorded in full length in a book to be kept for that purpose in his office and shall sign the record. The superintendent of streets is authorized at any time to receive the amount due upon any assessment-list and warrant issued by him and give a good and sufficient discharge therefor, provided that no such payment made after suit has been commenced without the consent of the plaintiff in the action shall operate as a complete discharge of the lien until the costs in the action shall be refunded to the plaintiff; and said superintendent may release any assessment upon the books of his office on payment to him of the amount of the assessment against any lot with interest or on the production to him of the receipt of the party, or his assigns, to whom the assessment and warrant were issued; and if any contractor shall fail to return his warrant within the time and in the form provided in this section, he shall thenceforth have no lien upon the property assessed; provided, however, that in case any warrant is lost upon proof of such loss a duplicate may be issued, upon which a return may be made with the same effect as if the original has been so returned. After the return of the assessment and warrant as aforesaid all amounts remaining due thereon shall draw interest at the rate of ten per cent per annum until paid.

Objections to work or assessments. Decisions of council to be final.

§ 10. The owners, whether named in the assessment or not, the contractor, or his assigns, and all other persons directly interested in any work provided for in this act, or in the assessment, feeling aggrieved by any act or determination of the superintendent of streets in relation thereto, or who claim that the work has not been performed according to the contract in a good and substantial manner, or having or making any objection to the correctness or legality of the assessment or other act, determination, or proceedings of the superintendent of streets, shall, within thirty days after the date of the warrant, appeal to the city council, as provided in this section, by briefly stating their objections in writing, and filing the same with the clerk of said city council. Notice of the time and place of hearing, briefly referring to the work contracted to be done, or other subject of appeal, and to the acts, determinations, or proceedings objected to or complained of, shall be published for five days. Upon such appeal, the said city council may remedy and correct any error or informality in the proceedings, and revise and correct any of the acts or determinations of the superintendent of streets relative to said work; may confirm, amend, set aside, alter, modify, or correct the assessment in such manner as to them shall seem just, and require the work to be completed according to the directions of the city council; and may instruct and direct the superintendent of streets to correct the warrant, assessment, or diagram in any particular, or to make and issue a new warrant, assessment and diagram, to conform to the decisions of said city council in relation thereto, at their option. All the determinations and decisions of said city council, upon notice and hearing as aforesaid, shall be final and conclusive upon all persons entitled to appeal under the provisions of this section, as to all errors, informalities and irregularities which said city council might have remedied and avoided; and no assessment shall be held invalid, except upon appeal to the city council, as provided in this section, for any error, informality, or other defect in any of the proceedings prior to the assessment, or in the assessment itself, where the resolution of intention of the city council to order the work to be done, for which the assessment is made, has been actually published in any designated newspaper of said city for the length of time prescribed by law, before the passage of the resolution ordering the work to be done.

Unpaid assessments, suits for. Evidence. Power of court. Rule of practice.

§ 11. At any time after the period of thirty-five days from the day of the date of the warrant, as herein provided, or if an appeal is taken to the city council, as provided in section 10 of this act, at any time after five days from the decision of said council, or after the return of the warrant or assessment, after the same may have been corrected, altered or modified, as provided in said section 10 (but not less than thirty-five days from the date of the warrant), the contractor, or his assignee, may sue, in his own name, the owner of the land, lots or portions of lots, assessed on the day of the date of the recording of the warrant, assessment and diagram, or any day thereafter during the continuance of the lien of said assessment, and recover the amount of any assessment remaining unpaid, with interest thereon at the rate of ten per cent per annum until paid. Suit may be brought in the superior court within whose jurisdiction the city is in which said work has been done, and in case of any assessment made against lots, portions of lots, or lands, if the owners thereof cannot, with due diligence be found, the service in each of such actions may be had in such manner as is prescribed in the codes and laws of this state. The said warrant, assessment, certificate and diagram, with the affidavit of demand and nonpayment, shall be held prima facie evidence of the regularity and correctness of the assessment and of the prior proceedings and acts of the superintendent of streets and city council upon which said assessment, warrant and diagram are based, and like evidence of the right of the plaintiff to recover in the action. The court in which said suit shall be commenced shall have power to adjudge and decree a lien against the premises assessed, and to order such premises to be sold on execution, as in other cases of the sale of real estate by the process of said courts; and on appeal the appellate courts shall be vested with the same power to adjudge and decree a lien and to order such premises to be sold on execution or decree as is conferred on the court from which an appeal is taken. Such premises, if sold, may be redeemed as in other cases. In all suits brought to recover sidewalk assessments, the proceedings therein shall be governed and regulated by the provisions of this act, and also, when not in conflict herewith, by the codes of this state. This act shall be liberally construed to effect the ends of justice and to promote the objects of the act. No error, or irregularity, or departure, or difference, in procedure from those specified in this act, which does not cause a substantial loss or detriment to the property owner whose property is assessed, shall affect the legality of the proceedings, or the validity of the lien provided by this act.

Repairs to sidewalks. Failure to repair, a misdemeanor. Property liable for repairs.

§ 12. When any sidewalk constructed on any street, avenue, lane, alley, court or place shall be out of repair or needing reconstruction and in a condition to endanger persons or property passing thereon, or to interfere with the public convenience in the use thereof, it shall be the duty of the superintendent of streets, by notice in writing delivered to the owner of the adjoining premises, or to their agents, personally, or left on the premises, to require the owners or occupants of lots, or portions of lots, fronting on said sidewalk and on the same side of the street where said sidewalk is located, to repair or reconstruct said sidewalk, or to do both, forthwith, and said superintendent of streets shall particularly specify in said notice what work is required to be done and how the same is to be done and what kind of material shall be used in said repairs or reconstruction or both. If said repairs or reconstruction be not commenced within three days after notice given as aforesaid and diligently and without interruption prosecuted to completion, the owners or occupants of said lots having been given notice as aforesaid shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars or imprisonment in the city jail not exceeding one hundred days, or both such fine and imprisonment, and the said superintendent of streets may, if said repairs or reconstruction be not commenced within three days after notice given as aforesaid, under authority from the city council, make such repairs or reconstruction, or both, and enter into a contract with any suitable person for that purpose, at the expense of the owner or occupant, after the specifications for doing said work shall have been conspicuously posted by him in his office for two days inviting bids for the doing of said work, which bids shall be delivered to him at his office on or before the second day of said posting and opened by him on the next day following said two days of posting, and the contract shall by him be awarded to the lowest bidder if such lowest bid in the judgment of such street superintendent shall be reasonable. All of such bids shall be preserved in his office and open at all times after the letting of the contract to the inspection of all persons, and the owner or occupant of the lots fronting on said sidewalk and on the same side of the street shall be liable to pay such contract price. Said work of reconstruction or repair shall be commenced within twenty-four hours after the contract shall have been signed and completed without delay to the satisfaction of the said superintendent of streets. Upon the completion of said repairs or reconstruction to the satisfaction of the superintendent of streets, he shall make and deliver to the contractor a certificate to the effect that said repairs or reconstruction have been properly made by said contractor and that the charges for the same are reasonable and just and that he, the said superintendent of streets, has accepted the same. Said certificate shall describe the property liable for the payment for said repairs or reconstruction and said certificate shall be recorded in a book kept in the office of the superintendent of streets for that purpose and shall constitute a lien on the said property liable for the payment of said repairs or reconstruction. If the expense of such repair or reconstruction after the completion thereof and the delivery by the superintendent of streets to the contractor of said certificate be not paid to the contractor, or his agent or assignee, on demand, the said contractor, or his assignee, shall have the right to sue such owner or occupant of such lands for the amount contracted to be paid and to foreclose and enforce the lien therefor the same as provided herein for foreclosures and enforcements of the liens in other cases.

Cumulative powers of council.

§ 13. In addition to the other remedies herein given and as cumulative thereto the city council shall have power to prescribe the penalties that shall be incurred by any owner or person liable or neglecting or refusing to make repairs or reconstruction of sidewalks when required as provided by this act.

"Owner" defined.

§ 14. The person owning the fee or the person in whom on the day the action is commenced appears the legal title to the lots or lands by deeds duly recorded in the county recorder's office of the county. or the person in possession of lands, lots, or portions of lots, or buildings, under claim or exercising acts of ownership over the same for himself, or as executor, administrator, guardian or trustee of the owner, shall be regarded and treated and deemed to be the "owner" according to the intent and meaning of that word as used in this act, and in case of leased property the possession of the tenant or lessee holding and occupying under such persons shall be deemed to be the possession of such owner.

Lessees and tenants, rights of.

§ 15. Any tenant or lessee of the lands or lots liable for assessment under this act may pay the amount assessed against the property of which he is such tenant or lessee and may deduct the amount so paid from the rents due and to become due from him, and he shall have a lien upon and may retain possession of the lands and lots until the amount so paid by him shall be satisfied with legal interest from accruing rents, or by payment by the owner.

Records of superintendent, force of.

§ 16. The records kept by the superintendent of streets in conformity with the provisions of this act and signed by him shall have the same force and effect as other public records, and copies therefrom duly certified may be used in evidence with the same effect as the originals. Said records shall during all office hours be open to the inspection of any citizen wishing to examine them, free of charge.

Notices, service of. Engineering and surveying by whom done.

§ 17. Notices in writing, which are required to be given or posted by the superintendent of streets under the provisions of this act, may be served or posted by any person with the permission of the superintendent of streets, or such notices may be given, served or posted by the superintendent of streets personally. A record of the fact of the giving, service and posting of such notices shall be kept in the office of the superintendent of streets. The superintendent of streets shall keep a public office in some convenient place within the municipality and keep therein such records as may be required by the provisions of this act. The city engineer, or where there is no city engineer the county, or city and county, surveyor shall be the proper officer to do the surveying and other engineering work to be done under this act, and to survey and measure the work to be done under contracts let under this act, and to estimate the costs and expenses thereof and every certificate signed by him in his official character shall be prima facie evidence in all courts of this state of the truth of its contents. He shall keep a record of surveys made under the provisions of this act as in other cases. In any city where there is no city engineer, the city council is hereby authorized to appoint a suitable person to discharge the duties herein laid down as those of city engineer and all the provisions hereof applicable to the city engineer shall apply to such person so appointed. Said city council is hereby empowered to fix his compensation for such services.

Definitions of certain terms.

§ 18. One—The term "incidental expenses" as used in this act shall include the compensation of the city engineer for work done by him; also, the cost for posting, printing and advertising as provided in this act; also, the compensation of superintendents for the work. All demands for incidental expenses shall be presented to the superintendent of streets by itemized bill duly verified by oath of the demandant.

Two—The word "municipality" and the word "city" as used in this act shall be understood and construed to include all corporations heretofore organized and now existing and those which may hereafter be organized for municipal purposes.

Three—The word "street" as used in this act shall be deemed to include avenues, highways, lanes, alleys, courts and places.

Four—The terms "street superintendent" and "superintendent of streets" as used in this act shall be construed to include any person or officer whose duty it is under the law to have the care or charge of the streets or the improvement thereof in any city. In any city where there is no street superintendent or superintendent of streets, the city council is hereby authorized to appoint a suitable person to discharge the duties of the superintendent of streets or street superintendent as specified in this act and all provisions hereof applicable to the street superintendent or superintendent of streets shall apply to the person so appointed.

Five—The term "city council" as used in this act is hereby declared to include any body or board which, under the law, is the legislative department of the government of any city.

Six—In municipalities in which there is no mayor the duties imposed upon such officer by the provisions of this act shall be performed by the president of the board of trustees or other chief executive officer of the municipality.

Seven—The term "clerk" or "city clerk" as used in this act is hereby declared to include any person or officer who shall be clerk of the board which constitutes the legislative department of the government of the city.

Curbing may be included.

§ 19. Whenever in the opinion of the city council it shall be convenient or proper so to do, said city council may in its discretion include under any proceedings taken under this act the construction of curbing as well as the construction of sidewalks, or the city council may provide for the construction of curbing without the construction of sidewalks; and all the provisions of this act whenever the city council shall elect to proceed thereunder to provide for the construction of curbing shall apply as fully to all such proceedings and to the work done thereunder and to the assessments made for the expense of the work and to the lien therefor as fully as if this act specifically and particularly related in each instance to the construction of curbing. As to the construction of curbing within municipalities this act shall be construed as a new, distinct and independent method of procedure and assessment from any provided in any act or acts in force at the time this act shall take effect, which method of procedure and assessment so provided by this act may as to the construction of curbing be followed by the city council if it elects so to do. Nothing in this act, however, shall be construed as preventing the construction of curbing and the levy and collection of assessments for the expense thereof under the provisions of "An act to provide for work upon streets, lanes, alleys, places, courts, and sidewalks and for the construction of sewers within municipalities," approved March 18, 1885, and the several acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto.

Repeal of certain acts.

§ 20. This act shall be deemed as a repeal of "An act to provide for work upon streets, lanes, alleys, places, courts and sidewalks and for the construction of sewers within municipalities," approved March 18, 1885, and the several acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto so far as said act and the several acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto relate to sidewalks and the construction thereof, and to the assessments to be made and the enforcement of payments for the expense of the construction of such sidewalks, but as to all other street work and street improvement said act approved March 18, 1885, and the several acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto shall not be deemed as repealed, amended or affected by this act.

ACT 3938.

An act to provide for changing or modifying the grade of public streets, lanes, alleys, courts, or other places, within municipalities.

[Approved April 21, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 1018.]

Power of city council to change grade.

§ 1. The city council of any city is hereby empowered to change or modify the grade of public streets, lanes, alleys, courts, or other places therein, in the manner hereinafter provided.

Resolution of intention. Publication of notice. Posting of notice.

§ 2. Before any change or modification of grade is ordered, the city council shall pass an ordinance or resolution of intention to order such change or modification of grade. Said ordinance or resolution of intention shall state the name of, or otherwise designate the public street, lane, alley, court or other place the grade of which, or any portion thereof, is proposed to be changed or modified, and shall set forth the change or modification of grade proposed to be made. One or more public streets, alleys, lanes, courts, or other places, or portions thereof, may be included in the same ordinance or resolution of intention. Said ordinance or resolution of intention shall be posted conspicuously for two days on or near the chamber door of said city council, and published by two insertions in a daily or weekly newspaper published and circulated in said city, and designated by said council for that purpose. If no such newspaper is published and circulated in said city, such ordinance or resolution of intention shall be posted for two days on or near the council chamber door, and in two other public places in said city.

The street superintendent shall thereupon cause to be conspicuously posted along all public streets, lanes, alleys, courts, or other places, or portions thereof designated in the said ordinance or resolution of intention, where such change or modification of grade is proposed to be made, at not more than one hundred feet in distance apart, notices, but not less than three in all, of the passage of said ordinance or resolution of intention. Said notice shall be headed "Notice of Change of Grade," in letters of not less than one inch in length, and shall in legible characters state the fact of the passage of the said ordinance or resolution of intention, its date, the name or other designation of the public street, lane, alley, court, or other place, or portion thereof, the grade of which is proposed to be changed or modified, and shall refer to the ordinance or resolution of intention for further particulars. He shall also cause a notice similar in substance to be published for six days in a daily newspaper published and circulated in said city, and designated by said city council for that purpose, or in cities where there is no daily newspaper, by two insertions in a weekly newspaper so published, circulated and designated. In case there is no daily or weekly newspaper published in said city, said notice shall be posted for six days on or near the chamber door of said council, and in two other public places in said city.

Protest of owners. Findings of council. Intersecting streets; protests.

§ 3. Any person or persons owning any real property fronting upon any public street, lane, alley, court or other place, or portion thereof, where such change or modification of grade is proposed to be made, may, within thirty days after the first publication of the notice of the passage of the ordinance or resolution of intention, or within thirty days after the first posting thereof, where no publication thereof is made, as hereinbefore provided, file a written protest with the clerk of the city council against such proposed change or modification of grade. Every such protest must contain a description of the property owned by each signer thereof, sufficient to identify the same, and if signed by more than one person, must be accompanied by the affidavit of one of the signers that each signature thereto is the genuine signature of the person whose name purports to be thereto subscribed; and in case any signature is made by an agent, there must be attached to the protest the affidavit of the agent that he is duly authorized to sign such protest. Any protest not complying with the foregoing requirements shall not be considered by said city council. The clerk of the city council shall indorse on every such protest the date of its reception by him; and at the next regular meeting of the city council after the expiration of the time for filing protests, shall present to said city council all protests so filed with him. If the city council finds that such protests are signed by the owners of a majority of the frontage of the property fronting on the public street, lane, alley, court, or other place, or portion thereof where such change or modification of grade is proposed to be made, all further proceedings under said ordinance or resolution of intention shall be stayed and barred for six months from and after the filing of such majority protests, except as hereinafter provided, unless the owners of a majority of such frontage shall in the mean time petition the same change or modification of grade to be made; but a new ordinance or resolution of intention to make a different change or modification of grade of such public street, lane, alley, court, or portion thereof, may be passed at any time.

In the event that the ordinance or resolution of intention designates any public street, lane, alley, court or other place, or portion thereof, the grade of which is proposed to be changed or modified, and there be included in said ordinance or resolution of intention any other public street, lane, alley, court or other place, or portion thereof, intersecting therewith or terminating therein, the grade of which is also proposed to be changed or modified, the change or modification of grade of such public street, lane, alley, court or other place, and of such other public street, lane, alley, court or other place or portion thereof, so intersecting or terminating, shall not be stayed or barred by any protests, made and filed as hereinbefore provided, unless such protest be signed by the owners of a majority of the total frontage of the property fronting on all such public streets, lanes, alleys, courts or other places, or portions thereof, where such change or modification of grade is proposed to be made. If the city council finds that such protests are not signed by the owners of a majority of the property fronting on the public street, lane, alley, court or other place, or portion thereof, where such change or modification of grade is proposed to be made, or if the proposed change or modification of grade extends for a distance of not more than one block, and the grade of such public street, lane, alley, court, or other place, for at least one block thereof immediately adjacent to such block where such change or modification of grade is proposed to be made, on each side thereof, has already been established, or if the proposed change or modification of grade extends for a distance of not more than one block, at the end of a public street, lane, alley, court or place, and the grade thereof for at least one block thereof immediately adjacent to such block has already been established, the city council shall thereupon fix a time for hearing such protests not less than ten days after the meeting of the council at which such time is so fixed and shall cause notice of the time and place of such hearing to be published for two days in a daily newspaper published and circulated in said city, or by one insertion in a weekly newspaper so published and circulated; and if no daily or weekly newspaper be published and circulated in said city, then said notice shall be posted for two days on or near the council chamber door, and in two other public places in said city; and such publication or posting shall be completed at least five days before such hearing. The city council shall hear said protests at the time and place appointed, or at any time to which the hearing thereof may be continued, and pass upon the same, and its decision thereon shall be final and conclusive. If such protests are sustained, no further proceedings shall be had under said ordinance or resolution of intention, but a new ordinance or resolution of intention to make the same, or a different change or modification of grade may be passed at any time. If such protests are denied, the proceedings shall continue as if such protests had not been filed.

Jurisdiction, when acquired.

§ 4. If no protests are filed within the time hereinbefore provided, or if protests are filed, and after hearing are denied, as hereinbefore provided, the city council shall acquire jurisdiction to order the change or modification of grade described in the ordinance or resolution of intention to be made. Having acquired such jurisdiction, the city council shall by ordinance or resolution, order the change or modification of grade to be made as proposed by and described in the ordinance or resolution of intention. Said ordinance or resolution ordering the change or modification of grade shall be published by two insertions in a daily, or by one insertion in a weekly newspaper published and circulated in said city; or, if no such newspaper be published and circulated therein, the same shall be posted for two days on or near the council chamber door, and in two other public places in said city.

Who deemed to be owner.

§ 5. Except as otherwise hereinafter provided the person owning the fee, or the person in whom on the day any protest or petition is filed the legal title to real property appears, by deeds duly recorded in the county recorder's office of the county in which said city is situated, shall be deemed to be the owner thereof for the purposes of this act; provided, however, that any person in possession of real property as the executor, administrator, trustee, guardian, or other legal representative of the owner, or any person in possession of real property under written contract of purchase duly recorded, shall be deemed to be the owner thereof for the purposes of this act. In the case of property held by tenancy in common, if any cotenant sign a protest under this act, only the proportionate share of the frontage thereof represented by his interest therein shall be counted in determining the amount of frontage represented by such protest. In the event that the change or modification of grade proposed by the ordinance or resolution of intention is only on one side of any public street, lane, alley, court or other place, or portion thereof, only the owners of the real property fronting on the side of such public street, lane, alley, court or other place, or portion thereof where such change or modification of grade is proposed to be made, shall be entitled to make or file a protest under the provisions of this act. If the grade of any public street, lane, alley, court, or other place, or portion thereof, has been heretofore, or shall be hereafter changed or modified, nothing in this act contained shall be construed to prevent any subsequent change or changes, modification or modifications of grade of any such public street, lane, alley, court or other place, or portion thereof.

Meanings of certain words.

§ 6. The following words and phrases, where used in this act, shall have the following meanings:

1. The terms "municipality" and "city" include every incorporated city, city and county, or other corporation organized for municipal purposes.

2. The terms "city council" and "council" include any body or board in which by law is vested the legislative power of any city.

3. The terms "clerk" and "city clerk" shall include any person or officer who shall be clerk of the city council.

4. The term "superintendent of streets" includes any officer or board whose duty it is by law to have the care or charge of streets, or the improvement thereof, in any city. In any city where there is no superintendent of streets, or no such board, the legislative body is hereby authorized to designate some other officer to perform the duties imposed by this act on the superintendent of streets, and all the provisions hereof applicable to the superintendent of streets shall apply to the officer so designated.

Certain acts not affected. Intention of act. Name of act.

§ 7. This act shall in no wise affect an act entitled "an act to provide for work upon streets, lanes, alleys, courts, places and sidewalks, and for the construction of sewers within municipalities," approved March 18, 1885, or amendments thereto; or an act entitled "An act to amend an act 'An act to provide for work upon streets, lanes, alleys, courts, places, and sidewalks, and for the construction of sewers within municipalities,' approved March 18, 1885, by adding thereto certain new and additional sections, to provide the mode of carrying into effect certain provisions of said act relative to changing grades," approved March 31, 1891, or amendments thereto, or any other acts on the same subject; but is intended to and does provide an alternate system of proceedings for changing or modifying the grades of public streets, lanes, alleys, courts, or other places in municipalities; and it shall be within the discretion of the city council of any municipality to proceed in making any such change or modification of grade, either under the provisions of this act, or under the provisions of said acts hereinbefore mentioned, or amendments thereto; but when any proceedings are commenced under this act, the provisions of this act, and of such amendments thereto as may be hereafter adopted, and no other, shall apply to all such proceedings, and any provisions contained in said acts, or in any acts in conflict with the provisions hereof, shall be void and of no effect as to the proceedings commenced under the provisions of this act. The election of the city council to proceed under the provisions of this act shall be expressed in its ordinance of intention to order any change or modification of grade. The provisions of this act shall be liberally construed to promote the objects thereof. This act may be designated and referred to as the "Change of Grade Act of 1909."

§ 8. This act shall take effect immediately.

Requirements to receive license.

§ 1. Every person desiring to become a licensed land surveyor in this state must present to the state surveyor general of this state a certificate that he is a person of good moral character; also a certificate signed by three licensed surveyors, which certificate shall set forth that the person named therein is, in the opinion of the person signing the same, a fit and competent person to receive a license as a land surveyor, together with his oath that he will support the constitution of this state and of the United States, and that he will faithfully discharge the duties of a licensed land surveyor, as defined in this act.

Surveyor general to issue license.

§ 2. Upon receipt of such certificate and oath by the state surveyor general, it shall be his duty to forthwith issue to such applicant a license, which license shall set forth the fact that the applicant is a competent surveyor, or that he has had at least two years' experience in the field as a surveyor or assistant surveyor.

Contents.

§ 3. Such license shall contain the full name of the applicant; the technical institution from which he is a graduate (if he be a graduate), or if he is not a graduate, the fact must be stated in the license; his birthplace, age, and to whom issued; the names of the licensed surveyors upon whose certificate the license is issued, and the date of its issuance.

Lists to be sent to county recorders.

§ 4. All papers received by the state surveyor general on application for licenses shall be kept on file in his office, and a proper index and record thereof shall be kept by him, and a list of all licensed land surveyors shall be kept by him, and he shall monthly transmit to the county recorder of each county in this state a full and correct list of all persons so licensed; and it is hereby made the duty of such recorders to keep such lists in their offices in such way as they may be easily accessible to all persons.

Seal of office.

§ 5. Every licensed surveyor shall have a seal of office, the impression of which must contain the name of the surveyor, his principal place of business, and the words "licensed surveyor"; and all maps and papers signed by him, and to which said seal has been attached, shall be prima facie evidence in all the courts of this state.

Term of license.

§ 6. Surveyors' licenses issued in accordance with this act, shall remain in force until revoked for cause, as hereinafter provided.

May administer oaths.

§ 7. Every licensed surveyor is authorized to administer and certify oaths, when it becomes necessary to take testimony to identify or establish old or lost corners; or if a corner or monument be found in a perishable condition, and it appears desirable that evidence concerning such corner or monument be perpetuated; or whenever the importance of the makes it desirable, to administer an oath, for the faithful performance of duty, to his assistants. A record of such oaths shall be preserved as part of the field-notes of the survey.

Duty of surveyors.

§ 8. Every licensed surveyor is hereby authorized to make surveys relating to the sale or subdivision of lands, the retracing or establishing of property or boundary lines, public roads, streets, alleys, or trails; and it shall be the duty of each surveyor, whenever making any such surveys, except those relating to the retracing or subdivision of cemetery or town lots, whether the survey be made for private persons, corporations, cities, or counties, to set permanent and reliable monuments, and such monuments must be permanently marked with the initials of the surveyor setting them.

Record of surveys. What record must show.

§ 9. Within sixty days after a survey relating to the sale or subdivision of lands, the retracing or establishing of property and boundary lines, public roads or trails, original cemetery or townsites, and their subdivisions has been made by a licensed surveyor, he shall file with the recorder of the county in which such survey or any portion thereof lies, a record of survey. Such record shall be made in a good draughtsman-like manner, on one or more sheets of firm paper of the uniform size of twenty-one by thirty inches. This record of survey shall be either an original plat or a copy thereof, and must contain all the data necessary to enable any competent practical surveyor to retrace the survey. The record of survey must show: All permanent monuments set, describing their size, kind and location, with reference to the corners which they are intended to perpetuate; all bearing or witness trees marked in the field; complete outlines of the several tracts or parcels of land surveyed within courses, and lengths of boundary lines; the angles, as measured by Vernier readings, which the lines of blocks or lots, if the record relate to an original townsite survey, make with each other and with the center lines of adjacent streets, alleys, roads, or lanes; the variations of the magnetic needle with which old lines have been retraced; the scale of the map, the date of survey; a proper connection with one or more points of an original or larger tract of land, and the name of the same; the name of the grant or grants, or of the township and ranges, within which the survey is located; the signature and seal of the surveyor; provided, that nothing in this section shall require record to be made of surveys of a preliminary nature, where no monuments or corners are established.

County recorder to index records of surveys.

§ 10. The record of surveys thus filed with the county recorder of any county must be by him pasted into a stub book, provided for that purpose, and he must keep a proper index of such records, by name of owner, by name of surveyor, by name of grant, city, or town, and by United States subdivisions; and in all cases where such maps, plats, diagrams, or descriptions are filed by a state licensed land surveyor the county recorder shall make no charge for filing and indexing such records of surveys.

Revocation of license.

§ 11. It shall be the duty of the county surveyor of each county, immediately on ascertaining that any licensed surveyor has failed to comply with the requirements of this act, to furnish the surveyor general with satisfactory proofs of such fact. Upon receipt of such proofs, the state surveyor general must revoke his license, and no other license shall be issued to him within one year from such revocation. A violation of section 9 of this act shall be a misdemeanor, and any person convicted of such violation shall be punished by a fine not to exceed one hundred dollars, or imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding thirty days.

Fees of surveyor general.

§ 12. The surveyor general shall receive a fee of ten dollars for each license, and five dollars for each duplicate license, issued by him; the fees so received to be paid into the state treasury to the credit of the general fund as provided in section 3574 of the Political Code.

Repeal of prior acts.

§ 13. An act entitled "An act to define the duties of and to license land surveyors," approved March 31, 1891, and all other acts, and parts of acts, in conflict with this act, are hereby repealed.

§ 14. This act shall take effect immediately.

TITLE 509.

SURVEYS.

ACT 3993.

An act to further perpetuate the markings of the government survey.
[Approved March 18, 1905. Stats. 1905, p. 102.]

§ 1. When in the performance of his official duties any county surveyor shall find a government corner which has been marked by any government surveyor by placing charcoal in the ground, or by a wooden stake, earth mound, or other perishable monument, it shall be his duty, to remark said corner by placing therein a monument of heavily galvanized iron pipe or galvanized iron stake not less than two inches in diameter and not less than two feet long, or other monument not less in size and equally imperishable.

§ 2. All such monuments located in public highways shall be placed with the top not less than twelve inches below the surface of the ground, but when not located in public highways, they shall be placed with the top six inches above the surface of the ground. If the top of the monument is placed above the ground, it shall be not less than four feet long, if of metal.

§ 3. The surveyor shall note witness objects that are within a reasonable distance of any corner, and state distance and course from said corner, and record the same in a properly indexed record-book kept in the county surveyor's office, which shall be a public record.

§ 4. All boards of supervisors are required to furnish all necessary pipes or stakes for monuments for their respective counties without cost, on demand.

§ 1. All property which shall pass, by will or by the intestate laws of this state, from any person who may die seized or possessed of the same while a resident of this state, or if such decedent was not a resident of this state at the time of death, which property, or any part thereof, shall be within this state, or any interest therein, or income therefrom, which shall be transferred by deed, grant, sale, or gift, made in contemplation of the death of the grantor, vendor or bargainor, or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment after such death, to any person or persons, or to any body politic or corporate, in trust or otherwise, or by reason whereof any person or body politic or corporate shall become beneficially entitled, in possession or expectancy, to any property, or to the income thereof, shall be and is subject to a tax hereinafter provided for, to be paid to the treasurer of the proper county, as hereinafter directed, for the use of the state; and such tax shall be and remain a lien upon the property passed or transferred until paid and the person to whom the property passes or is transferred and all administrators, executors, and trustees of every estate so transferred or passed shall be liable for any and all such taxes until the same shall have been paid as hereinafter directed. The tax so imposed shall be upon the market value of such property at the rates hereinafter prescribed and only upon the excess over the exemptions hereinafter granted.

Whenever any person or corporation shall exercise a power of appointment derived from any disposition of property made either before or after the passage of this act, such appointment when made shall be deemed a transfer taxable under the provisions of this act in the same manner as though the property to which such appointment relates belonged absolutely to the donee of such power and had been bequeathed or devised by such donee by will; and whenever any person or corporation possessing such a power of appointment so derived shall omit or fail to exercise the same within the time provided therefor, in whole or in part, a transfer taxable under the provisions of this act shall be deemed to take place to the extent of such omissions or failure, in the same manner as though the persons or corporations thereby becoming entitled to the possession or enjoyment of the property to which such power related had succeeded thereto by a will of the donee of the power failing to exercise such power, taking effect at the time of such omission or failure.

§ 2. When the property or any beneficial interest therein so passed or transferred exceeds in value the exemption hereinafter specified and shall not exceed in value twenty-five thousand dollars the tax hereby imposed shall be:

(1.) Where the person or persons entitled to any beneficial interest in such property shall be the husband, wife, lineal issue, lineal ancestor of the decedent, or any child adopted as such in conformity with the laws of this state, or any child to whom such decedent for not less than ten years prior to such transfer stood in the mutually acknowledged relation of a parent, provided, however, such relationship began at or before the child's fifteenth birthday, and was continuous for said ten years thereafter, or any lineal issue of such adopted or mutually acknowledged child, at the rate of one per centum of the clear value of such interest in such property.

(2.) Where the person or persons entitled to any beneficial interest in such property shall be the brother or sister or a descendant of a brother or sister of the decedent, a wife or widow of a son, or the husband of a daughter of the decedent, at the rate of one and one-half per centum of the clear value of such interest in such property.

a descendant of a brother or sister of the father or mother of the decedent, at the rate of three per centum of the clear value of such interest in such property.

(4.) Where the person or persons entitled to any beneficial interests in such property shall be the brother or sister of the grandfather or grandmother or a descendant of the brother or sister of the grandfather or grandmother of the decedent, at the rate of four per centum of the clear value of such interest in such property.

(5.) Where the person or persons entitled to any beneficial interest in such property shall be in any other degree of collateral consanguinity than is heretofore stated, or shall be a stranger in blood to the decedent, or shall be a body politic or corporate, at the rate of five per centum of the clear value of such interest in such property.

§ 3. The foregoing rates in section 2 are for convenience termed the primary rates. When the market value of such property or interest exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars, the rates of tax upon such excess shall be as follows:

(1.) Upon all in excess of $25,000 and up to $50,000, one and one-half times the primary rates.

(2.) Upon all in excess of $50,000 and up to $100,000, two times the primary rates.

(3.) Upon all in excess of $100,000 and up to $500,000, two and one-half times the primary rates.

(4.) Upon all in excess of $500,000, three times the primary rates.

§ 4. The following exemptions from the tax are hereby allowed:

(1.) All property transferred to societies, corporations, and institutions now or hereafter exempted by law from taxation, or any public corporation, or to any society, corporation, institution, or association of persons engaged in or devoted to any charitable, benevolent, educational, public, or other like work (pecuniary profit not being its object or purpose), or to any person, society, corporation, institution, or association of persons in trust for or to be devoted to any charitable, benevolent, educational, or public purpose, by reason whereof any such person or corporation shall become beneficially entitled, in possession or expectancy, to any such property or to the income thereof shall be exempt.

(2.) Property of the clear value of ten thousand ($10,000) dollars transferred to the widow or to a minor child of the decedent, and of four thousand ($4,000) dollars transferred to each of the other persons described in the first subdivision of section 2 shall be exempt.

(3.) Property of the clear value of two thousand ($2,000) dollars transferred to each of the persons described in the second subdivision of section 2 shall be exempt.

(4.) Property of the clear value of one thousand five hundred ($1,500) dollars transferred to each of the persons described in the third subdivision of section 2 shall be exempt.

(5.) Property of the clear value of one thousand ($1,000) dollars transferred to each of the persons described in the fourth subdivision of section 2 shall be exempt.

(6.) Property of the clear value of five hundred ($500) dollars transferred to each of the persons and corporations described in the fifth subdivision of section 2 shall be exempt.

§ 5. When any grant, gift, legacy, or succession upon which a tax is imposed by section 1 of this act shall be an estate, income, or interest for a term of years, or for life, or determinable upon any future or contingent event, or shall be a remainder, reversion, or other expectancy, real or personal, the entire property or fund by which such estate, income, or interest is supported, or of which it is a part, shall be appraised immediately after the death of the decedent, and the market value thereof determined, in the manner provided in section 14 of this act, and the tax prescribed by this act shall be immediately due and payable to the treasurer of the proper county, and together with the interest thereon, shall be and remain a lien on said property until the same is paid; provided, that the person or persons, or body politic or corporate, beneficially interested in the property chargeable with said tax, may elect not to pay the same until they shall come into the actual possession or enjoyment of such property, and in that case such person or persons, or body politic or corporate, shall execute a bond to the people of the state of California, in a penalty of twice the amount of the tax arising upon personal estate, with such sureties as the said superior court may approve, conditioned for the payment of said tax, and interest thereon, at such time or period as they or their representatives may come into the actual possession or enjoyment of such property, which bond shall be filed in the office of the county clerk of the proper county; provided further, that such person shall make a full and verified return of such property to said court, and file the same in the office of the county clerk within one year from the death of the decedent, and within that period enter into such security, and renew the same every five years.

§ 6. Whenever a decedent appoints or names one or more executors or trustees, and makes a bequest or devise of property to them in lieu of commissions or allowances, which otherwise would be liable to said tax, or appoints them his residuary legatees, and said bequest, devises, or residuary legacies exceed what would be a reasonable compensation for their services, such excess over and above the exemptions herein provided for shall be liable to said tax; and the superior court in which the probate proceedings are pending shall fix the compensation.

§ 7. All taxes imposed by this act, unless otherwise herein provided for, shall be due and payable at the death of the decedent, and if the same are paid within eighteen months, no interest shall be charged and collected thereon, but if not so paid, interest at the rate of ten per centum per annum shall be charged and collected from the time said tax accrued; provided, that if said tax is paid within six months from the accruing thereof a discount of five per centum shall be allowed and deducted from said tax. And in all cases where the executors, administrators, or trustees do not pay such tax within eighteen months from the death of the decedent, they shall be required to give a bond in the form and to the effect prescribed in section 5 of this act for the payment of said tax, together with interest.

§ 8. The penalty of ten per cent per annum imposed by section 7 hereof, for the nonpayment of said tax, shall not be charged in cases where, in the judgment of the court, by reason of claims made upon the estate, necessary litigation, or other unavoidable cause of delay, the estate of any decedent, or a part thereof, cannot be settled at the end of eighteen months from the death of the decedent; and in such cases only seven per cent per annum shall be charged upon the said tax from the expiration of said eighteen months until the cause of such delay is removed, after which ten per cent interest per annum shall again be charged until the tax is paid; but litigation to defeat the payment of the tax shall not be considered necessary litigation.

§ 9. Any administrator, executor, or trustee having in charge or trust any legacy or property for distribution, subject to the said tax, shall deduct the tax therefrom, or if the legacy or property be not money he shall collect the tax thereon, upon the market value thereof, from the legatee or person entitled to such property, and he shall not deliver, or be compelled to deliver, any specific legacy or property subject to tax to any person until he shall have collected the tax thereon; and whenever any such legacy shall be charged upon or payable out of real estate, the executor, administrator, or trustee shall collect said tax from the distributee thereof, and the same shall remain a charge on such real estate until paid; if, however, such legacy be given in money to any person for a limited period, the executor, administrator, or trustee shall retain the tax upon the whole amount; but if it be not in money he shall make application to the superior court to make an apportionment, if the case require it, of the sum to be paid into his hands by such legatees, and for such further order relative thereto as the case may require.

§ 10. All executors, administrators, and trustees shall have full power to sell so much of the property of the decedent as will enable them to pay said tax, in the same manner as they may be enabled by law to do for the payment of debts of the estate, and the amount of said tax shall be paid as hereinafter directed.

§ 11. Every sum of money retained by an executor, administrator, or trustee, or paid into his hands, for any tax on property, shall be paid by him, within thirty days thereafter, to the treasurer of the county in which the probate proceedings are pending, and the said treasurer shall give, and every executor, or administrator, or trustee shall take duplicate receipts for such payment, one of which receipts said executor, administrator, or trustee shall immediately send to the controller of the state, whose duty it shall be to charge the treasurer so receiving the tax with the amount thereof, and said controller shall seal said receipt with the seal of his office, and countersign the same, and return it to the executor, administrator, or trustee, whereupon it shall be a proper voucher in the settlement of his accounts; and an executor, administrator, or trustee shall not be entitled to credits in his accounts, nor be discharged from liability for such tax, nor shall said estate be distributed, unless he shall produce a receipt so sealed and countersigned by the controller, or a copy thereof, certified by him, and file the same with the court.

§ 12. Whenever any debts shall be proven against the estate of a decedent after the payment of legacies or distribution of property from which the said tax has been deducted or upon which it has been paid, and a refund is made by the legatee, devisee, heir, or next of kin, a proportion of the tax so deducted or paid shall be repaid to him by the executor, administrator, or trustee, if the said tax has not been paid to the county treasurer or to the state controller, or by them, if it has been so paid.

§ 13. If a foreign executor, administrator or trustee shall assign or transfer any stock or obligations in this state standing in the name of a decedent, or in trust for a decedent, liable to any such tax, the tax shall be paid to the treasurer of the proper county on the transfer thereof. No safe deposit company, trust company, corporation, bank or other institution, person or persons having in possession or under control securities, deposits, or other assets of a decedent, including the shares of the capital stock of, or other interests in, the safe deposit company, trust company, corporation, bank or other institution making the delivery or transfer herein provided, shall deliver or transfer the same to the executors, administrators or legal representatives of said decedent, or upon their order or request, unless notice of the time and place of such intended delivery or transfer be served upon the county treasurer at least ten days prior to said delivery or transfer; nor shall any such safe deposit company, trust company, corporation, bank or other institution, person or persons deliver or transfer any securities, deposits or other assets of the estate of a nonresident decedent including the shares of the capital stock of or other interests in, the safe deposit company, trust company, corporation, bank or other institution, making the delivery or transfer, without retaining a sufficient portion or amount thereof to pay any tax and penalty which may thereafter be assessed on account of the delivery or transfer of such securities, deposits, or other assets including the shares of the capital stock of or other interests in, the safe deposit company, trust company, corporation, bank or other institution making the delivery or transfer, under the provisions of this act, unless the county treasurer consents thereto in writing. And it shall be lawful for the said county treasurer, personally, or by representative, to examine said securities, deposits or assets at the time of such delivery or transfer. Failure to serve such notice and to allow such examination, and to retain a sufficient portion or amount to pay such tax and penalty as herein provided, shall render said safe deposit company, trust company, corporation, bank or other institution, person or persons liable to the payment of two times the amount of the tax and penalty due or thereafter to become due upon said securities, deposits or other assets, including the shares of the capital stock of, or other interests in, the safe deposit company, trust company, corporation, bank or other institution, making the delivery or transfer; and the payment as herein provided shall be enforced in an action brought in accordance with the provisions of section 17 of this chapter.

§ 14. When the value of any inheritance, devise, bequest, or other interest subject to the payment of said tax is uncertain, the superior court in which the probate proceedings are pending, on the application of any interested party, or upon its own motion, shall appoint some competent person as appraiser, as often as and whenever occasion may require, whose duty it shall be forthwith to give such notice, by mail, to all persons known to have or claim an interest in such property, and to such persons as the court may by order direct, of the time and place at which he will appraise such property, and at such time and place to appraise the same and make a report thereof, in writing, to said court, together with such other facts in relation thereto as said court may by order require to be filed with the clerk of said court; and from this report the said court shall, by order, forthwith assess and fix the market value of all inheritances, devises, bequests, or other interests, and the tax to which the same is liable, and shall immediately cause notice thereof to be given, by mail, to all parties known to be interested therein; and the value of every future or contingent or limited estate, income, or interest shall, for the purposes of this act, be determined by the rule, method, and standards of mortality and of value that are set forth in the actuaries' combined experience tables of mortality for ascertaining the value of policies of life insurance and annuities, and for the determination of the liabilities of life insurance companies, save that the rate of interest to be assessed in computing the present value of all future interests and contingencies shall be five per centum per annum; and the insurance commissioner shall, on the application of said court, determine the value of such future or contingent or limited estate, income, or interest, upon the facts contained in such report, and certify the same to the court, and his certificate shall be conclusive evidence that the method of computation adopted therein is correct. The said appraiser shall be paid by the county treasurer out of any funds that he may have in his hands on account of said tax, on presentation of a sworn itemized account and on the certificate of the court at the rate of five dollars per day for every day actually and necessarily employed in said appraisement, together with his actual and necessary traveling expenses.

§ 15. Any appraiser appointed by virtue of this act who shall take any fee or reward from any executor, administrator, trustee, legatee, next of kin, or heir of any decedent, or from any other person liable to pay said tax, or any portion thereof, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than two hundred and fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or imprisoned in the county jail ninety days, or both, and in addition thereto the court shall dismiss him from such service.

§ 16. The superior court in the county in which is situate the real property of a decedent who was not a resident of the state, or if there be no real property, then in the county in which any of the personal property of such nonresident is situate, or in the county of which the decedent was a resident at the time of his death, shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine all questions in relation to the tax arising under the provisions of this act, and the court first acquiring jurisdiction hereunder shall retain the same, to the exclusion of every other.

§ 17. If it shall appear to the superior court, or judge thereof, that any tax accruing under this act has not been paid according to law, it shall issue a citation, citing the persons known to own any interest in or part of the property liable to the tax or any person or corporation liable under the law for the payment of said tax to appear before the court on a day certain, not more than ten weeks after the date of such citation, and show cause why said tax should not be paid. The service of such citation, and the time, manner, and proof thereof, and the hearing and determination thereon, and the enforcement of the determination or decree, shall conform to the provisions of Chapter XII, of Title XI, of Part III, of the Code of Civil Procedure; and the clerk of the court shall, upon the request of the district attorney or treasurer of the county, furnish, without fee, one or more transcripts of such decree, and the same shall be docketed and filed by the county clerk of any county in the state, without fee, in the same manner and with the same effect as provided by section 674 of said Code of Civil Procedure for filing a transcript of an original docket.

§ 18. Whenever the treasurer of any county shall have reason to believe that any tax is due and unpaid under this act, after the refusal or neglect of the persons interested in the property liable to said tax to pay the same, he shall notify the district attorney of the proper county, in writing, of such failure to pay such tax, and the district attorney so notified, if he have probable cause to believe a tax is due and unpaid, shall prosecute the proceeding in the superior court, as provided in section 17 of this act, for the enforcement and collection of such tax.

§ 19. The controller of state shall furnish to each county clerk a book, which shall be a public record, and in which he shall enter the name of every decedent upon whose estate an application has been made to the superior court for the issuance of letters of administration, or letters testamentary, or ancillary letters, the date and place of death of such decedent, the estimated value of his real and personal property, the names, places of residence, and relationship to him of his heirs at law, the name and places of residence of the legatees and devisees in any will of any such decedent, the amount of each legacy and the estimated value of any real property devised therein, and to whom devised. These entries shall be made from the data contained in the papers filed on any such application, or in any proceeding relating to the estate of the decedent. The county clerk shall also enter in such book the amount of personal property of any such decedent, as shown by the inventory thereof when made and filed in his office, and the returns made by any appraiser appointed by the court under this statute, and the value of annuities, life estates, terms of years, and other property of such decedent, or given by him in his will or otherwise, as fixed by the superior court, and the tax assessed thereon, and the amounts of any receipts for payment of any tax on the estate of such decedent under this statute filed with him. The county clerk shall, on the first day of January, April, July and October of each year make a report, in duplicate, upon forms to be furnished by the controller of the state, containing all the data and matters required to be entered in such book, and also of the property from which, or the party from which, he has reason to believe the tax under this act is due and unpaid, one of which shall be immediately delivered to the county treasurer and the other transmitted to the state controller.

§ 20. Whenever the superior court of any county shall certify that there was probable cause for issuing a citation and taking the proceedings specified in section 17 of this act, the state treasurer shall pay, or allow to the treasurer of any county, all expenses incurred for services of citation, and his other lawful disbursements that have not otherwise been paid.

§ 21. The treasurer of each county shall collect and pay the state treasurer all taxes that may be due and payable under this act, who shall give him a receipt therefor; of which collection and payment he shall make a report, under oath, to the controller, between the first and fifteenth days of May and December of each year, stating for what estate paid, and in such form and containing such particulars as the controller may prescribe; and for all such taxes collected by him and not paid to the state treasurer by the first day of June and January of each year he shall pay interest at the rate of ten per centum per annum.

§ 22. The treasurer of each county shall be allowed to retain, on all taxes paid and accounted for by him each year under this act, in addition to his salary or fees now allowed by law, three per centum on the first fifty thousand dollars so paid and accounted for by him, one and one-half per centum on the next fifty thousand dollars so paid and accounted for by him, and one-half of one per centum on all additional sums so paid and accounted for by him.

§ 23. The treasurer of each county, in his discretion, for the better furtherance of the purposes of this act, shall be allowed to employ such special attorney or attorneys, as he may deem necessary, who shall have all of the authority conferred upon the district attorney by sections 17 and 18 of this act, and such attorney shall be paid for his services out of the fees now allowed the treasurer as provided in section 22 of this act, and that in no case shall such compensation exceed the per centum allowed as such fees.

§ 24. Any person, or body politic or corporate, shall, upon payment of the sum of fifty cents, be entitled to a receipt from the county treasurer of any county, or a copy of the receipt, at his option, that may have been given by said treasurer for the payment of any tax under this act, to be sealed with the seal of his office, which receipt shall designate on what real property, if any, of which any decedent may have died seised, said tax has been paid, and by whom paid, and whether or not it is in full of said tax; and said receipt may be recorded in the clerk's office in the county in which said property is situate, in a book to be kept by said clerk for such purpose, which shall be labeled "inheritance tax."

§ 25. All taxes levied and collected under this act, up to the amount of $250,000 annually, shall be paid into the treasury of the state, for the uses of the state school fund, and all taxes levied and collected in excess of $250,000 annually shall be paid into the state treasury to the credit of the general fund thereof.

§ 26. Every officer who fails or refuses to perform, within a reasonable time, any and every duty required by the provisions of this act, or who fails or refuses to make and deliver within a reasonable time any statement or record required by this act, shall forfeit to the state of California the sum of one thousand dollars, to be recovered in an action brought by the attorney general in the name of the people of the state on the relation of the controller.

§ 27. An act entitled "An act to establish a tax on collateral inheritances, bequests and devises, to provide for its collection, and to direct the disposition of the proceeds," approved March 23, 1893, and all amendments thereto, and all acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby expressly repealed.

§ 28. The words "estate" and "property" as used in this act shall be taken to mean the real and personal property or interest therein of the testator, intestate, grantor, bargainor, vendor, or donor passing or transferred to individual legatees, devisees, heirs, next of kin, grantees, donees, vendees, or successors, and shall include all personal property within or without the state. The word "transfer" as used in this act shall be taken to include the passing of property or any interest therein, in possession or enjoyment, present or future, by inheritance, descent, devise, succession, bequest, grant, deed, bargain, sale, gift, or appointment in the manner herein described. The word "decedent" as used in this act shall include the testator, intestate, grantor, bargainor, vendor, or donor.

§ 29. In all cases where any tax has become or shall hereafter become a lien upon any property under or by virtue of any of the provisions of this act the district attorney of the county in which the estate of the decedent mentioned in this act is being administered, or has been administered in probate proceedings, may, whenever any property of said estate has been distributed without the payment to the state of all or any part of the taxes payable on account thereof under this act, bring and prosecute an action or actions in the name of the state as plaintiff, for the purpose of enforcing such lien or liens against all or any of the property subject thereto. In any such action the owner of any property or of any interest in property against which the lien of any such tax is sought to be enforced, and any predecessor in interest of any such owner whose title or interest was deraigned through any such decedent by will or succession or by decree of distribution of the estate of such decedent, and any lienor or encumbrancer subsequent to the lien of such tax may be made a party defendant. The enumeration in this section of the persons who may be made defendants shall not be deemed to be exclusive, but the joinder or nonjoinder of parties, except when otherwise herein provided, shall be governed by the rules in equity in similar cases.

(a) Actions may be brought against the state for the purpose of quieting the title to any property, against the lien or claim of lien of any tax or taxes under this act, or for the purpose of having it determined that any property is not subject to any lien for taxes under this act. In any such action, the plaintiffs may be any administrator or executor of the estate or will of any decedent, whether the said estate shall have been fully administered and estate settled and closed or not, and any heir, legatee or devisee of any such decedent, or trustee of the estate or of any part of the estate of such decedent, or distributee of the estate or of any part of the estate of any such decedent, and any assignee, grantee or successor in interest of any of such persons, and all or any other persons who might be made parties defendant in any action brought by the state under the provisions of this section, and notwithstanding that all or any of the persons enumerated in this section shall or may have assigned, granted, conveyed or otherwise parted with all or any interest in or title to the property, or any thereof, involved in any such claim or lien before the commencement of such action. All or any of the persons in this action enumerated may be joined or united as parties plaintiff. The enumeration in this section of the persons who may be made parties shall not be deemed to be exclusive, but the joinder or nonjoinder of parties, except when otherwise herein provided, shall be governed by the rules in equity in similar cases. In all cases any person who might properly be a party plaintiff in any such action who refuses to join as plaintiff may be made a defendant.

(b) All actions under this section shall be commenced in the superior court of the county in which is situated any part of any real property against which any lien is sought to be enforced, or to which title is sought to be quieted against any lien, or claim of lien; but if in said action no lien against real property is sought to be enforced, the action shall be brought in the superior court of the county which has or which had jurisdiction of the administration of the estate of the decedent mentioned herein.

(c) Service of summons in the actions brought against the state shall be made on the secretary of state and on the district attorney of the county in which the estate of the decedent mentioned herein is being administered, or has been administered in probate proceedings, and it shall be the duty of said district attorney to defend all such actions.

(d) The procedure and practice in all actions brought under this section, except as otherwise provided in this act, shall be governed by the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure in relation to civil actions, so far as the same shall or may be applicable, including all provisions relating to motions for new trials and appeals.

(e) The remedies provided in this section shall be in addition to and not exclusive of any remedies provided in the sections preceding this section.

§ 30. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after July 1, 1905.

ACT 4036.

An act authorizing the bringing of actions on behalf of the state for the purpose of enforcing the lien or liens of taxes under an act entitled "An act to establish a tax on collateral inheritances, bequests, and devises, to provide for its collection, and to direct the disposition of the proceeds," approved March 23, 1893, and the several acts amendatory thereof; and to authorize the bringing and prosecution of actions against the state, for the purpose of quieting title against claims of liens made by or upon behalf of the state under the said act and the acts amendatory thereof, and to regulate the procedure in such actions.

§ 1. In all cases where any tax has become or shall hereafter become a lien upon any property under or by virtue of any of the provisions of an act entitled "An act to establish a tax on collateral inheritances, bequests and devises, to provide for its collection and to direct the disposition of the proceeds," approved March 23, 1893, and the several acts amendatory thereof, the district attorney of the county in which the estate of the decedent mentioned in said act and the acts amendatory thereof is being administered or has been administered in probate proceedings, may, whenever any property of said estate has been distributed without the payment to the state of all or any part of the taxes payable on account thereof under said act and the acts amendatory thereof, bring and prosecute an action or actions in the name of the state as plaintiff, for the purpose of enforcing such lien or liens against all or any of the property subject thereto. In any such action the owner of any property or of any interest in property against which the lien of any such tax is sought to be enforced, and any predecessor in interest of any such owner whose title or interest was deraigned through any such decedent by will or succession or by decree of distribution of the estate of such decedent, and any lienor or encumbrancer subsequent to the lien of such tax may be made a party defendant. The enumeration in this section of the persons who may be made defendants shall not be deemed to be exclusive, but the joinder or nonjoinder of parties, except when otherwise herein provided, shall be governed by the rules in equity in similar cases.

§ 2. Actions may be brought against the state for the purpose of quieting the title to any property, against the lien or claim of any tax or taxes under said act of March 23, 1893, and the several acts amendatory thereof, or for the purpose of having it determined that any property is not subject to any lien for taxes under said act and the acts amendatory thereof. In any such action, the plaintiffs may be any administrator or executor of the estate or will of any decedent who has died since the said act of March 23, 1893, went into effect, or who may hereafter die, whether the said estate shall have been fully administered and the estate settled and closed or not, and any heir, legatee or devisee of any such decedent, or trustee of the estate or of any part of the estate of such decedent, or distributee of the estate or of any part of the estate of any such decedent, and any assignee, grantee or successor in interest of any of such persons, and all or any other persons who might be made parties defendant in any action brought under the provisions of section 1 of this act, and notwithstanding that all or any of the persons enumerated in this section shall or may have assigned, granted, conveyed or otherwise parted with all or any interest in or title to the property, or any thereof, involved in any such claim of lien before the commencement of such action. All or any of the persons in this action enumerated may be joined or united as parties plaintiff. The enumeration in this section of the persons who may be made parties shall not be deemed to be exclusive, but the joinder or nonjoinder of parties, except when otherwise herein provided, shall be governed by the rules in equity in similar cases. In all cases any person who might properly be a party plaintiff in any such action who refuses to join as plaintiff may be made a defendant.

§ 3. All actions under sections 1 and 2 of this act shall be commenced in the superior court of the county in which is situated any part of any real property against which any lien is sought to be enforced, or to which title is sought to be quieted against any lien, or claim of lien; but if in said action no lien against real property is sought to be enforced, the action shall be brought in the superior court of the county which has or which had jurisdiction of the administration of the estate of the decedent mentioned in said sections 1 and 2.

§ 4. Service of summons in the actions mentioned in section 2 hereof shall be made on the secretary of state and on the district attorney of the county in which the estate of the decedent mentioned in said section is being administered, or has been administered in probate proceedings, and it shall be the duty of said district attorney to defend all such actions.

§ 5. The procedure and practice in all actions brought under this act, except as otherwise provided in this act, shall be governed by the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure in relation to civil actions. so far as the same shall or may be applicable, including all provisions relating to motions for new trials and appeals.

§ 6. The remedies provided in this act shall be in addition to and not exclusive of any remedies provided in the said act of March 23, 1893, and the several acts amendatory thereof.

ACT 4041.

An act empowering boards of supervisors of any of the several counties of the state of California to levy a special tax for the purpose of displaying the products and industries of any county in the state at domestic or foreign expositions, for the purpose of encouraging immigration and increasing trade in the products of the state.

[Approved March 23, 1901. Stats. 1901, p. 589.]

§ 1. The boards of supervisors of the several counties within the state of California, or any of them, are hereby authorized and empowered to levy a special tax on the taxable property within their respective counties, for the purpose of creating a fund not exceeding ten thousand dollars in any one year in any one county, to be used for collecting, preparing, and maintaining an exhibition of the products and industries of the county at any domestic or foreign exposition, for the purpose of encouraging immigration and increasing trade in the products of the state of California; provided, the total tax levies for such purposes in any one year shall not exceed two cents on each one hundred dollars of taxable property in the county, according to the assessment-roll.

ACT 4042.

An act providing for the levy of a special tax for specific public improvements within municipalities.

[Became a law under constitutional provision without governor's approval, March 15, 1901. Stats. 1901, p. 296.]

§ 1. Whenever it shall be determined by the legislative body of any municipality within the state of California that the public interest of such municipality demands the acquisition, construction or completion of any municipal improvement, including bridges, waterworks, water rights, sewers, light or power works or plants, buildings for municipal uses, fire apparatus and street work, or other works, property or structures necessary or convenient to carry out the objects, purposes and powers of the municipality, the cost of which will be too great to be paid out of the revenues of the municipality to be received during the fiscal year, or years, in which such improvement is proposed to be made, a special tax, not to exceed the sum of fifty cents on each one hundred dollars, may be levied on the property assessed for purposes of taxation within said municipality, which said rate of taxation may be in addition to the annual rate of taxation allowed by law to be levied therein.

§2. Before said tax shall be levied by the legislative body of a municipality, the question of the levy of such tax shall be submitted to the voters of the municipality at any general or special municipal election, or at a special election to be held for that purpose, and if two-thirds of the votes cast upon the proposition of levying such tax shall be in favor of the levy thereof, then the levy shall be made; otherwise, the tax shall not be levied. Upon the ballots used at such election, the proposition to be voted for shall be stated in appropriate words and the same arranged so that the voter may indicate his choice upon the proposition. If a special election is held, the same shall be held and conducted as are other elections within the municipality.

§3. At least two weeks before such election is held the legislative body of the municipality shall adopt an ordinance calling and providing for the same, wherein it shall be stated:

1. The nature of the proposed improvement for the cost of which the special tax shall be levied;
2. The total amount of money to be raised for such improvement;
3. The annual rate of taxation to be levied.

§4. At the time fixed by law for the levying of taxes within the municipality, the legislative body thereof shall include the special tax herein provided for, which shall be the rate specified in the ordinance calling said election, nor shall it be levied for a longer period of years than shall be sufficient to raise the amount of money specified in said ordinance. The proceeds of said special tax shall be set apart in a special fund and shall only be expended for the purposes of making the improvement stated in said ordinance; provided, that any balance remaining after said improvement shall have been fully completed and paid for may be transferred to the general fund of the municipality.

§5. This act shall not be deemed to repeal, conflict with or modify any provision of any statute of this state concerning the incurring of a bonded indebtedness of municipalities for public improvements.

§6. This act shall take effect immediately.

ACT 4043.

An act to provide for the levy and collection of taxes by and for the use of municipal corporations and cities incorporated under the laws of the state of California, except municipal corporations of the first class, and to provide for the consolidation and abolition of certain municipal offices, and to provide that their duties may be performed by certain officers of the county, and fixing the compensation to be allowed for such county officers for the services so rendered to such municipal corporations.

Amended 1905, p. 429.

§ 1. The board of trustees, common council, or other legislative body of any municipal corporation or city in this state, except municipal corporations of the first class, shall have power, and it shall be their duty to fix by ordinance the amount of money necessary to be raised by taxation upon the taxable property therein, as a revenue to carry on the various departments of such municipal corporation or city for the current year, not to exceed the limit fixed by law, and to pay the bonded or other indebtedness of such municipal corporation or city. The board of trustees, common council, or other legislative body, shall meet for such purpose, and shall so ascertain and fix said amount, on the first Monday in August of each year; provided, however, that the provisions of this act shall not apply to or be in force in any city or municipal corporation until its board of trustees, common council, or other legislative body, shall have passed an ordinance, electing to avail itself of the provisions of this act, and filed a certified copy of the same with the auditor of the county in which such municipal corporation or city is situated, on or before the first Monday in February of each year; and thereafter all assessments shall be made and taxes collected by the assessor and tax collector of such county until such city or municipal corporation shall, by ordinance, elect not to avail itself of the provisions of this act for any longer time.

§ 2. The board of trustees, common council, or other legislative body of any municipal corporation or city in this state, except municipal corporations of the first class, shall have power to elect that the duties of the city treasurer of such city or municipal corporation shall be performed by the county treasurer of the county in which such city or municipal corporation is situated; and whenever such board of trustees, common council, or other legislative body shall, by ordinance, so determine, such duties shall be performed by the treasurer of the county in which such city or municipal corporation is situated. A certified copy of such ordinance shall be served on the tax collector and treasurer of such county, and such ordinance shall also prescribe the manner in which money shall be drawn out of the various funds belonging to such city or municipal corporation in the hands of the treasurer.

§ 3. The county auditor must, on or before the second Monday in August of each year, transmit to the board of trustees, common council, or other legislative body of such municipal corporation or city within such county, a statement in writing, showing the total value of all property within each municipal corporation or city, respectively, which value shall be ascertained from the assessment-books of such county for such year, as equalized and corrected by the board of supervisors of such county.

§ 4. Each board of trustees, common council, or other legislative body of such municipal corporation or city shall, on the first Monday in September, fix the rate of taxes, designated in the number of cents upon each hundred dollars, using as a basis the value of the property as assessed by the county assessor, and so returned to such board by the county auditor as required by section 2 of this act, which rate of taxation shall be sufficient to raise the amount so fixed by such board, as required in section 1 of this act, which acts by said board are declared to be a valid assessment of such property and a valid levy of such rates so fixed. Such municipal or city board must immediately thereafter transmit to the county auditor of the county in which such municipal corporation or city is situated a statement of such rate so fixed by such municipal board.

§ 5. The auditor must then compute and enter in a separate column in the assessment-book, to be headed "City Tax, City of—" (naming it), the respective sums in dollars and cents to be paid as a municipal or city tax on the property therein enumerated and assessed as being in any municipal corporation or city, using the rate of levy so fixed by such municipal board, and the assessed value as found in such assessment-book. Such taxes so levied shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner as state and county taxes; and when collected the net amount as ascertained by sections 6 and 7 of this act shall be paid to the treasurer of the municipal corporation or city to which it respectively belongs; under the general requirements and penalties provided by law for the settlement of other taxes; provided, however, that when such city has by ordinance, a certified copy of which has been served upon the tax collector of such county, elected to avail itself of the provisions of section 2 of this act, then such tax-collector shall pay the money belonging to such city or municipal corporation over to the treasurer of the county in which such city or municipal corporation is situated.

§ 6. The county auditor and county tax collector shall file with the board of supervisors itemized statements showing the additional expense to their offices of assessing and collecting these local taxes, and upon the filing of such statements the board of supervisors shall, by an order spread upon the minutes, deduct such expenses from the taxes of such municipal corporation or city, while in the hands of the county tax collector, and transfer the same into the county salary fund; provided, that not more than one per cent shall be charged for collecting the first twenty-five thousand dollars so collected, and one-fourth of one per cent for all sums over that amount. [Amended 1905, p. 429.]

§ 7. Whenever the board of trustees, common council, or other legislative body of any municipal corporation or city in this state has elected to avail itself of the provisions of section 2 of this act, the board of supervisors of such county shall also reserve as and for the expenses of the county treasurer, incurred by reason of the imposing of these duties upon him, the sum of one-fourth of one per cent, which sum shall be deducted from the money collected by the county tax collector, and covered in to the county treasurer into the county salary fund.

§ 8. Whenever the board of trustees, common council, or other legislative body of any municipal corporation or city in this state shall have availed itself of the provisions of this act, all duties, other than the assessing of the property of such city or municipal corporation, belonging to the office of the city assessor shall be transferred to and performed by the clerk of such city or municipal corporation; and all duties, other than the collection of taxes, belonging to the office of city tax collector shall be transferred to and be performed by the city marshal or chief of police of such city or municipal corporation, and thereafter the office of city assessor, and city tax collector, and city treasurer may be by ordinance abolished.

§ 9. Whenever any real property situate in any city or municipal corporation which has availed itself of the provisions of this act has been sold for taxes and has been redeemed, the money paid for such redemption shall be apportioned by the county treasurer to such city or municipal corporation in the proportion which the tax due to such city or municipal corporation bears to the total tax for which such real property was sold.

§ 10. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

§ 11. This act shall take effect immediately.

ACT 4044.

An act to provide for the levy and collection of taxes by and for the use of municipal corporations and cities incorporated under the laws of the state, excepting municipal corporations of the first, second, third, and fourth classes, and cities operating under a charter framed under section 8, Article XI, of the constitution.

[Approved March 2, 1891. Stats. 1891, p. 22.]

Citations. Cal. 108/664.

§ 1. The board of trustees, common council, or other legislative body of any municipal corporation, or city in this state, excepting municipal corporations of the first, second, third, and fourth classes, and cities operating under a charter framed under section 8, Article XI, of the constitution, shall have power, and it shall be their duty to fix, by ordinance, the amount of money necessary to be raised by taxation upon the taxable property therein, as a revenue to carry on the various departments of such corporation or city for the current year, not to exceed the limit fixed by law, and to pay the bonded or other indebtedness of such municipal corporation or city. The board of trustees, common council, or other legislative body shall meet for such purpose, and shall so ascertain and fix said amount, on the first Monday in August of each year; provided, however, that the provisions of this act shall not apply to or be in force in any city or municipal corporation until its board of trustees, common council, or other legislative body shall have passed an ordinance electing to avail itself of the provisions of this act, and filed a certified copy of the same with the auditor of the county in which such municipal corporation or city is situated, on or before the first Monday in March of each year.

§ 2. The county auditor must, on or before the third Monday in August of each year, transmit to the board of trustees, common council, or other legislative body of each municipal corporation or city within such county a statement, in writing, showing the total value of all property within each municipal corporation or city, respectively, which value shall be ascertained from the assessment-book of such county for such year, as equalized and corrected by the board of supervisors for such county.

§ 3. Each board of trustees, common council, or other legislative body of such municipal corporation or city shall, on the first Monday of October, fix the rate of taxes, designating the number of cents upon each hundred dollars, using as a basis the value of property as assessed by the county assessor and so returned to such board by the county auditor, as required in section 2 of this act, which rate of taxation shall be sufficient to raise the amount so fixed by such board, as required in section 1 of this act, which acts by said board are declared to be a valid assessment of such property and a valid levy of such rates so fixed. Such municipal or city board must immediately thereafter transmit to the county auditor of the county in which such municipal corporation or city is situated a statement of such rate so fixed by such municipal board.

§ 4. The auditor must then compute and enter in a separate column in the assessment-book, to be headed "City Tax, City of —" (naming it), the respective sums, in dollars and cents, to be paid as a municipal or city tax on the property therein enumerated and assessed as being in any municipal corporation or city, using the rate or levy so fixed by such municipal board and the assessed value as found in such assessment-book; such taxes so levied shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner as state and county taxes; and when collected the net amount as ascertained by section 5 shall be paid to the treasurer of the municipal corporation or city to which it respectively belongs, under the general requirements and penalties provided by law for the settlement of other taxes.

§ 5. The board of supervisors, on the filing of itemized statements by the county auditor and county tax collector showing the additional expense to their offices of assessing and collecting these local taxes, may, by an order spread upon its minutes, deduct such expenses from the taxes of each municipal corporation or city, while in the hands of the county tax collector, and cover the same into the county salary fund.

§ 6. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

ACT 4045.

An act in relation to reassessment of property, the equalization of the same, and the collection of taxes thereon, in cases where a former assessment made since eighteen hundred and seventy-nine is illegal or invalid, or where the proceedings for the collection of such taxes have been ineffectual by reason of error, irregularity, or invalidity, and such taxes have not been paid.

[Approved March 23, 1893. Stats. 1893, p. 290.]

Citations. Cal. 117/440; 124/500, 501; 125/498; 147/564; 150/640.

§ 1. Every assessment of property made after the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine which is invalid, or may hereafter be adjudged to be, by reason of any illegality, invalidity, or irregularity declared or existing, in the assessment of such property, or in the mode provided for the assessment thereof, shall be remade, and the property reassessed and equalized for each year for which such assessment is invalid as aforesaid, and for the year for which the assessment of such property was invalid as aforesaid, and such reassessment and equalization shall be made by the same officers and boards at the same time or times, as are now prescribed by law for the assessment and equalization of property, of the same classes or kinds as the property which hereby is required to be reassessed. The assessment and equalized assessment of such property shall be entered on the several assessment-rolls or books in the same manner that assessments of such property are or were required by law to be entered for the year or years during which such reassessments shall be made. And there is hereby levied for state purposes the same rates of taxation for each of such respective years as were heretofore levied upon such property for each of said years for said state purposes.

§ 2. All taxes for counties, cities and counties, and other taxing districts, shall be levied by the proper board or boards upon the property mentioned in the first section of this act, at the same rates for each respective year as were levied upon property for each of said years after the year eighteen hundred and seventy-nine.

§ 3. All property authorized to be reassessed by this act shall be reassessed and equalized by the proper officers and boards at the value to which and to the person or corporation to whom or to which such property ought, for each of such years, to have been assessed, under such rules of notice and at the times and in the modes as are prescribed for the assessment and equalization of like classes of property; and the assessment and equalization thereof, and the levy and collection of taxes thereunder, shall be made by the proper officers at the time, upon like notice and in the manner now or hereafter provided by law for making assessments and equalizing the same and for the levy and collection of taxes on like classes of property; and if the taxes so relieved shall become delinquent, there shall be added thereto and the amount thereof the same percentage as a penalty for such delinquency, as is added to other delinquent taxes on like classes of property, and such delinquent taxes and penalties added thereto shall be collected by the proper officers in the manner now or hereafter provided by law for the collection of delinquent taxes and penalties upon like classes of property; the collectors of such taxes to allow as credits thereon all payments heretofore made on the tax as first levied.

§ 4. There shall be no limitation or limitations as to the time in which actions for the collections of taxes levied under this act may be commenced, and all the provisions of law now or hereafter provided in respect to the assessments, equalization, levy, and collection of taxes shall, where applicable, apply to reassessments, equalization, and relieves and collections of taxes made under the provisions of this act.

§ 5. This act shall apply to taxes for revenue only, and not to assessments for local improvements or street purposes.

§ 6. This act shall take effect and be in force on and after its passage.

ACT 4046.

An act authorizing the payment of compensation or commission to persons employed by the state controller and attorney general or by boards of supervisors of the different counties, to collect delinquent state and county taxes, and legalizing all payments made for that purpose.

[Approved March 26, 1895. Stats. 1895, p. 94.]

§ 1. That all sums heretofore paid by the state to any person for compensation or commission to persons for collecting delinquent state and county taxes in pursuance of an agreement by such persons with the state controller and attorney general for such collections, and all sums heretofore paid by any board of supervisors out of the county treasury as compensation or commissions for collecting such delinquent taxes in pursuance of an agreement by such persons with such boards of supervisors, are hereby approved and legalized.

§ 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

ACT 4051.

An act to repeal an act of the legislature of the state of California entitled "An act in relation to the assessment and collection of taxes upon personal property in the city and county of San Francisco," approved March 18, 1874, and requiring all counties and cities and counties of this state to conform to the requirements of the provisions of the Political Code in relation to the assessment, equalization, levy, and collection of taxes for revenue purposes.

[Approved March 28, 1895. Stats. 1895, p. 308.]

§1. An act entitled "An act in relation to the assessment and collection of taxes upon personal property in the city and county of San Francisco," approved March eighteenth, eighteen hundred and seventy-four, is hereby repealed.

§2. All counties and cities and counties of this state are hereby required to conform to the provisions of the Political Code in relation to the assessment, equalization, levy and collection of taxes on real and personal property for revenue purposes, and all laws now in force in relation to revenue are hereby made applicable to all such counties and cities and counties.

§3. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

§4. This act shall take effect immediately.

The act of 1878-74, was declared unconstitutional in People v. Pittsburg R. R. Co., 67 Cal. 625.

ACT 4052.

An act concerning the assessment of animals.

[Approved March 30, 1872. Stats. 1871-72, p. 754.]

Assessment of animals temporarily pasturing in any county.

§ 1. Whenever any person residing in any county of the state, and owning any neat cattle, horses, mules, sheep, or goats therein, shall drive the same from the county where he resides into any other county, for the purpose of temporarily pasturing the same, all such animals shall be assessed in and for the county where such owner resides, although the said animals shall not be at the time of said assessment in said county in which he may so permanently reside; and such owner shall include such animals in his assessment list, and the assessor of the county where such stock are so temporarily grazed shall list the same, with a full description of each kind and the number of the same; and for the purpose of making such list, the assessor shall have power, and it is hereby made his duty, to examine on oath the person or persons owning or having charge of such cattle, horses, mules, sheep, or goats, touching their number, ownership, and to whom and in what county, if any, they have been assessed for taxation. The list made out as aforesaid by the assessor, together with a full statement of the same, shall be signed and sworn to by the person or persons owning or having in charge such stock.

Duties of assessors and treasurers.

§ 2. The assessor shall file a copy of said list of such stock with the county treasurer of his county, and another copy with the treasurer of the county in which the said stock was first listed and assessed for taxation. Upon filing the lists aforesaid, with the sworn statement therein that the stock specified in said lists has been pastured or used in the county mentioned therein during the grazing season, with the treasurer of the county in which it was assessed for taxation, said treasurer shall pay, on the order of the treasurer of the county in which the stock was so pastured or used, one-half of the amount of taxes paid in on the said stock, less the cost of collection.

§ 3. All acts or parts of acts in conflict with this act, so far as they are in conflict with this act, are hereby repealed.

§ 4. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

§ 1. That all certificates of tax sales and tax deeds made to this state by the county tax collector, which certificates and deeds are based upon the sale of property for nonpayment of taxes, and which certificates and deeds fail to recite the correct date, or any date, when the right of redemption will expire, or had expired, or which certificates recite an incorrect date when the state would be entitled to a deed, be and they are hereby confirmed, validated, and legalized, and the same shall be construed and operate at all times and upon all occasions in law in the same manner as if such matters and things required by law had been recited therein and performed in the first instance; provided, that in all cases five years shall have elapsed between the date of sale of the property to the state for nonpayment of taxes and the date of the execution of such deed.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

ACT 4060.

An act authorizing and providing for suits for the collection of delinquent taxes due upon personal property.

[Approved March 13, 1903. Stats. 1903, p. 130.]

§ 1. Each county and city and county may sue in its own name for the recovery of any and all moneys due or hereafter to become due as delinquent taxes upon any and all personal property, where no real property is assessed as security for the payment of such personal property taxes, or where, in the judgment of the board of supervisors, there is not sufficient real property assessed to secure the payment of such personal property taxes, whether the same be for county or city and county, and state purposes, or either of them, and for all penalties due upon said taxes for nonpayment thereof.

§ 2. On the trial of any such suit the assessment-roll of said county or city and county, or a copy of any entry therein duly certified, showing unpaid taxes against the defendant, or, in cases where the defendant is sued in a representative capacity, against any person or estate he represents, shall be prima facie evidence of the plaintiff's right to recover.

§ 3. All actions now pending for the collection of such taxes may be carried on and prosecuted under the provisions and in accordance with this act.

§ 4. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed, but the method of collecting such taxes herein provided shall not be deemed to be the exclusive method, nor shall the provisions of this act in any manner abrogate or modify the provisions of sections 3831 or 3899 of the Political Code of the state of California.

§ 5. This act shall take effect and be in force immediately from and after its passage.

ACT 4061.

An act prescribing the form of complaint in actions to recover delinquent taxes, and to authorize the bringing of suits therefor.

[Approved April 23, 1880. Stats. 1880, p. 136 (Ban. ed. 402).]

Repealed in part by Political Code, § 8670, as amended 1888, p. 65. (San Diego v. Southern Pacific R. Co., 108 Cal. 46.) On the point as to whether this act is still in force, see San Bernardino Co. v. Southern Pac. R. R. Co., 70 Pac. 782.

Form of complaint in action for delinquent taxes.

§ 1. In any action that may be hereafter commenced in any county, or city and county, in this state, for the collection of delinquent taxes for any fiscal year, the complaint may be in the following form, and shall be legally sufficient, and on the trial thereof the duplicate assessment-roll for any said fiscal year, of said county, or city or county, or a copy of any entry therein duly certified, showing unpaid taxes against the defendant, or in cases where the defendant is sued in a representative capacity against any person or estate he represents, shall be prima facie evidence of the plaintiff's right to recover:

(Title of court.) (Name of plaintiff) vs. (name of defendant.) Plaintiff avers that defendant is indebted to plaintiff in the sum of $—— (naming the amount for county, or city and county), taxes, with five per cent penalty added thereto for the nonpayment thereof, and interest thereon at the rate of two per cent per month from the (date), and fifty cents costs of advertising. Plaintiff further avers that defendant is indebted to plaintiff in the further sum of $—— (naming amount), for state taxes, with five per cent penalty added thereto for the nonpayment thereof, and interest thereon at the rate of two per cent per month from (date), and fifty cents costs of advertising, which said taxes were duly assessed and levied upon (the real or personal) property of said defendant, to wit: (describe property as assessed), for the fiscal year (naming the year). Wherefore, plaintiff prays judgment against said defendant, for said several sums, with interest and penalty as aforesaid, and costs of suit. (Signature of attorney.)

And in any case where the defendant is sued in a representative capacity, such other further or additional allegations as may be necessary to charge him in such capacity; and it is further provided, that any county, or city and county, where such taxes are delinquent, may sue in its own name for the recovery of delinquent taxes, whether the same be for county, or city and county, and state purposes, or taxes, or either of them.

§2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

TITLE 518.
TENEMENT HOUSES.

ACT 4097.

An act to regulate the building and occupancy of tenement houses in incorporated towns, incorporated cities and cities and counties, and to provide penalties for the violation thereof.

[Approved April 16, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 948.]

Tenement house act.

§ 1. This act shall be known as the tenement house act, and its provisions shall apply to all incorporated towns, incorporated cities, cities and counties in the state of California.

Definition of phrases.

§ 2. For the purpose of this act certain words and phrases are defined as follows:

A tenement house is any house or building, or portion thereof, which is rented, leased, let or hired out, to be occupied or is occupied as the home or residence of three families or more living independently of each other, and doing their cooking upon the premises, or by more than two families upon any floor so living and cooking, but having a common right in the halls, stairways, yards, water-closets or privies or some or any of them.

An apartment in a tenement house is a room or suite of rooms which is occupied, or is intended or designed to be occupied as a family domicile.

A yard is an open, unoccupied space on the same lot with a tenement house, between the extreme rear line of the house and the rear line of the lot.

A court is an open, unoccupied space, other than a yard, on the same lot with a tenement house. A court not extending to the street or yard is an inner court. A court extending to the street or yard is an outer court. If it extends to the street it is a street court. If it extends to the yard it is a yard court. If it extends from the street to the yard it is a street-to-yard court. A court bounded on one side and both ends by a tenement house and on the remaining side by a lot line is a "lot-line" court.

A shaft includes exterior and interior shafts, whether for air, light, elevator, dumbwaiter, or any other purpose. A vent shaft is one used solely to ventilate or light a water-closet compartment or bathroom.

A public hall is a hall, corridor or passageway not within an apartment.

A stair hall includes the stairs, stair landings and those portions of the public halls through which it is necessary to pass in going between the entrance hall and the roof.

A basement is a story partly below the level of the curb, the ceiling of which is not less than four feet six inches above the curb level.

A cellar is any story partly or wholly below the level of the curb, the ceiling of which is less than four feet six inches above the curb level.

A fireproof tenement house is one the walls of which are constructed of brick, stone, iron or other incombustible material, and in which there are no wood beams or lintels and in which the floors, roofs, stair halls and public halls are built entirely of brick, stone, iron, or other hard incombustible material, and in which no woodwork or other inflammable material is used in any of the partitions, furrings or ceilings. But this definition shall not be construed as prohibiting elsewhere than in the stair halls or entrance halls, the use of wooden flooring on top of the fireproof floors or the use of wooden sleepers, nor as prohibiting wooden hand rails, and hardwood treads.

The term curb level wherever used in this act means the level of the curb directly in front of the middle of the street line of the tenement house; where a tenement house is on a corner lot, or on a lot which runs through from one street to another street, and there is more than one grade or level, the lowest level shall be taken.

Buildings converted to tenement uses.

§ 3. A building not erected for use as a tenement house, if hereafter altered or converted to such use, shall thereupon become subject to all of the provisions of this act affecting tenement houses hereafter erected.

Unlawful structure defined.

§ 4. No tenement house shall at any time be altered so as to be in violation of any provision of this act. If any tenement house or any part thereof be occupied by more families than provided by this act, or is erected, altered or occupied contrary to law, such tenement house shall be deemed an unlawful structure, and the department charged with the enforcement of this act may cause such building to be vacated. And such building shall not again be occupied until it or its occupation, as the case may be, has been made to conform to the law.

Fireproof tenement.

§ 5. Every tenement house hereafter erected exceeding six stories or parts of stories in height (above the curb) shall be a fireproof tenement house, nor shall any such tenement house be altered so as to exceed such height without being made fireproof. A cellar is not a story within the meaning of this section, provided that no part of such cellar or basement is occupied or arranged to be occupied for living purposes.

Fire-escapes.

§ 6. Every tenement house that is occupied or is intended to be occupied shall be provided and equipped with stand-pipes and with metallic fire-escapes, combined with suitable metallic balconies, platforms and railings, as provided for, or which shall be provided for by the ordinances of the incorporated town, city, or county in which the tenement house is situated. No encumbrance of any kind shall at any time be placed before, upon or against any stairway, steps or landings or fire-escapes in or upon any tenement house. All fire-escapes upon tenement houses shall be kept in good order and repair, and every exposed part thereof shall at all times be protected against rust by durable paint.

Bulkhead in roof.

§ 7. Every tenement house hereafter erected shall have in the roof a fireproof bulkhead with a fireproof door to the same, and shall have fireproof stairs with a guide or hand rail leading to the roof, except that in tenement houses hereafter erected, which do not exceed four stories and a cellar in height, and which are not also occupied or arranged to be occupied by more than two families on any floor, such bulkheads may be of wood covered with metal on both sides. The stairs leading to such bulkheads shall be constructed as specified in sections 8 and 11 of this act.

Width of stairs.

§ 8. Every tenement house hereafter erected shall have at least one flight of stairs extending from the entrance floor to the roof, and the stairs and public halls therein shall be at least three feet wide in the clear.

Additional stairways in non-fireproof houses.

§ 9. Every non-fireproof tenement house hereafter erected containing over fifty (50) rooms, exclusive of bathrooms, above the entrance story, shall also have an additional flight of stairs for every additional eighty (80) rooms or fraction thereof; if said house contains not more than one hundred (100) rooms above the entrance story, in lieu of an additional stairway, the stairs, stair halls and entrance halls throughout the entire building shall be at least one half wider than is specified in sections 8 and 12 of this act.

Additional stairways in fireproof houses.

§ 10. Every fireproof tenement house hereafter constructed containing over one hundred and twenty (120) rooms above the entrance story, exclusive of bathrooms, shall have an additional flight of stairs for every additional one hundred and twenty (120) rooms or fraction thereof; but if said house contains not more than one hundred and eighty (180) rooms above the entrance story, exclusive of bathrooms, in lieu of an additional stairway, the stairs, stair halls and entrance halls throughout the entire building may each be at least one half wider than is specified in sections 8, 11 and 12 of this act. And if such house contains not more than three hundred (300) rooms above the entrance story, exclusive of bathrooms, in lieu of three stairways there may be but two stairways, provided that one of such stairways and the stair halls and entrance halls connected therewith are at least one half wider than is specified in sections 8, 11 and 12 of this act.

Construction of stairways.

§ 11. Each flight of stairs mentioned in the last three sections shall have an entrance on the entrance floor from the street or street court, or from an inner court which connects directly with the street. All stairs shall be constructed with a rise of not more than eight inches, and with treads not less than nine inches wide, exclusive of nosings. Where winders are used all treads at a point eighteen inches from the strings on the wall side shall be at least ten inches wide.

Width of entrance halls.

§ 12. Every entrance hall in a tenement house hereafter erected shall be at least three feet six inches in the clear from the entrance up to and including the stair inclosure, and beyond this point at least three feet wide in the clear. In every tenement house hereafter erected, access shall be had from the street to the yard, either in a direct line or through a court.

Closets under stairways.

§ 13. In non-fireproof tenement houses hereafter erected no closet of any kind shall be constructed under any stairway leading from the first story, exclusive of the cellar, to the upper stories, but such space shall be left entirely open and kept clear from encumbrance.

Entrance to cellar.

§ 14. In every tenement house hereafter erected there shall be an entrance to the cellar or other lowest story from the outside of said building.

Wooden buildings not permitted, where.

§ 15. Within the fire limits of any incorporated town, incorporated city or city and county, no wooden building not now used as a tenement house shall be hereafter erected for, altered or converted to such use. But outside of the fire limits tenement houses not exceeding four stories in height, exclusive of the cellar, may be erected of wood.

Increase of height.

§ 16. No wooden tenement house shall be increased in height so as to exceed four stories, exclusive of the cellar.

Keeping of combustibles.

§ 17. No tenement house nor any part thereof, nor of the lot upon which it is situated, shall be used as a place of storage, keeping or handling of any combustible article except under such conditions as may be prescribed by the department of any incorporated town, incorporated city or city and county to which this act applies, which are now charged with the enforcement of laws, ordinances and regulations, relating to the erection of buildings, the protection of public health, and police and fire protection. No tenement house nor any part thereof, nor of the lot upon which it is situated, shall be used as a place of storage, keeping or handling of any article dangerous or detrimental to life or health, nor for the storage, keeping or handling of feed, hay, straw, excelsior, cotton, paper stock, feathers or rags.

Boiling of fat.

§ 18. No bakery and no place of business in which fat is boiled shall be maintained in any tenement house which is not fireproof throughout, unless the ceilings and side walls of said bakery or place where fat boiling is done are made safe by fireproof materials around the same, and there shall be no openings either by door or window, dumb-waiter shafts or otherwise, between said bakery or said place where fat is boiled in any tenement house and the other parts of said building.

Paints and oils.

§ 19. All transoms and windows opening into halls from any portion of a tenement house where paint, oil, spirituous liquors or drugs are stored for the purpose of sale or otherwise, shall be glazed with wire glass or they shall be removed and closed up as solidly as the rest of the wall. And all doors leading into such hall from such portion shall be made fireproof.

Yard requirements.

§ 20. Behind every tenement house hereafter erected there shall be a yard extending across the entire width of the lot, and except as provided in section 23, at every point open from the ground to the sky unobstructed except that fire-escapes or uninclosed outside stairs may project not over four feet from the rear line of the house. The depth of said yard, measured from the extreme rear wall of the house to the rear line of the lot, shall be as set forth in the following sections:

Same.

§ 21. No tenement house shall hereafter be enlarged or its lot diminished, so that the yard shall be less in depth than the minimum depths prescribed by this act. The measurements in all cases to be taken from the extreme rear wall of the building to the rear line of the lot, and across the full width of the lot, and such yard shall be at every point open from the ground to the sky, except as provided for elsewhere in this act.

Depth of yard.

§ 22. Except upon a corner lot or upon a lot running through from street to street, as provided in sections 23 and 24, the depth of the yard behind every tenement house hereafter erected sixty feet in height shall not be less than twelve feet in every part. Said yard shall be increased in depth one foot for every additional twelve feet of height of the building, or fraction thereof; and may be decreased in depth one foot for every twelve feet of height of the building less than sixty feet; but it shall never be less than ten feet in depth in any part.

Yardway between streets.

§ 23. Whenever a tenement house is hereafter erected upon a lot which runs through from one street to another street, or alley of not less than sixteen (16) feet in width, and said lot is not less than eighty feet nor more than one hundred feet in depth, there shall be a yard space through the center of the lot midway between the two streets, which space shall extend across the full width of the lot and shall never be less than twelve feet in depth from wall to wall, and shall be increased in depth as prescribed in section 22 of this act. Such yard space may start at the level of the second tier of beams, but never at a point more than fourteen feet above the curb level. Where such lot is over one hundred feet in depth such yard space shall be left through the center of the lot midway between the two streets, and shall extend across the entire width of the lot, and shall not be less than twenty-four feet in depth from wall to wall and shall be increased in depth as prescribed in section 22 of this act. Where such lot is one hundred and fifty feet or more in depth such yard shall be at every point open from the ground to the sky unobstructed, except by fire-escapes and uninclosed outside stairs projecting not more than four feet from the building.

Depth of yard on corner lots.

§ 24. The depth of the yard behind every tenement house hereafter erected upon a corner lot shall be not less than ten feet in every part and at every point open and unobstructed from the ground to the sky, provided that where any such lot is less than one hundred feet in depth, the depth of the yard be not less than ten per centum of the greatest depth of such lot, but shall never be less than five feet in every part, nor less than the minimum width of an outer court on the lot line as prescribed by this act. Where a corner lot is more than fifty feet in width, the yard for that portion in excess of fifty feet shall conform to the provisions of section 22 of this act.

Court to be open to sky.

§ 25. No court of a tenement house hereafter erected shall be covered by a roof or skylight, but every such court shall be at every point open from the ground to the sky unobstructed, except that fire-escapes as required by law or by the ordinances or regulations of incorporated towns, incorporated cities or cities and counties to which this act applies, may project into a court, but no more than four feet from the wall of the house. All courts in tenement houses hereafter erected shall conform to the requirements of the following sections:

Outer courts, widths of.

§ 26. The outer courts of all tenement houses shall have not less than the following minimum widths:

Building.	Least Width.
2 stories	4 feet
3 stories	4 feet 6 inches
4 stories	5 feet
5 stories	6 feet
6 stories	8 feet
7 stories	10 feet
8 stories	12 feet

Inner courts, widths of. Lot line courts.

§ 27. The inner courts of all tenement houses shall have areas and minimum widths in all parts, not less than the widths and areas as follows:

Building.	Square Feet.	Least Width.
2 stories	100	6 feet
3 stories	120	7 feet
4 stories	160	8 feet
5 stories	250	12 feet
6 stories	400	16 feet
7 stories	625	20 feet
8 stories	840	24 feet

Lot line courts shall have areas and minimum widths in all parts not less than one-half of those specified in the above table of inner courts.

Inner court intakes.

§ 28. Every inner court including lot line courts shall be provided with one or more horizontal intakes at the bottom. Such intakes shall always communicate directly with the street or yard, and shall each consist of a passageway not less than three feet wide and six feet six inches high which shall be left open, or if not open there shall always be provided in said passageway open grilles or transoms of a size not less than ten square feet each, and such open grilles or transoms shall never be covered with glass or in any other way. There shall be at least two such grilles or transoms in each passageway, one at the inner court and the other at the street or yard, as the case may be.

Lot space that may be occupied.

§ 29. No tenement house hereafter erected shall occupy more than ninety per centum of a corner lot, or more than seventy per centum of any other lot, except as otherwise provided in this act; provided that the space occupied by fire-escapes erected and constructed according to law, shall not be deemed a part of the lot occupied, but that the space occupied by outside fireproof stairs, by vent shafts thirty-two square feet or less in area, and by recesses for fire-escapes as provided for shall be considered a part of the lot occupied. For the purposes of this section the measurements may be taken at the level of the second tier of beams, but never at a point more than fourteen feet above the curb level.

Corner lot defined.

§ 30. By a corner lot is meant a lot situated at the junction of two streets, or of a street and public alley not less than sixteen feet in width. Any portion of the width of such lot distant more than fifty feet from such junction shall not be regarded as part of a corner lot, but shall be subject to the provisions of this act respecting other than corner lots. Where, in any corner lot, the two frontages are of unequal length, the lesser street frontage shall be taken as the width of the lot. Street frontage alone and not alley frontage shall be considered in determining such lesser frontage.

Minimum distance between buildings.

§ 31. No existing tenement house shall (unless the rear of the lot upon which it stands abuts upon a public alley at least ten feet wide) hereafter be enlarged or its lot be diminished so that any building on such lot shall at any point approach nearer than ten feet to the rear line of the lot. Where a tenement house, now or hereafter erected, stands upon a lot, other, than a corner lot, no other building shall hereafter be placed upon the front or rear of that lot, unless the minimum distance between such buildings be at least ten feet, if neither building exceeds the height of one story; or fifteen feet if either building exceeds the height of one story, but not the height of two stories; and so on, five additional feet to be added to such minimum distance of ten feet for every story more than one in the height of the highest building on such lot. Every rear tenement hereafter erected, or every tenement that hereafter becomes a rear tenement by the erection of a building or buildings on the front of the same lot, shall have direct access to a street or to a public alley at least sixteen feet wide, by a passageway not less than five feet wide by seven feet high.

Measurements may be taken, where.

§ 32. No tenement house shall hereafter be enlarged or its lot diminished, so that a greater percentage of the lot shall be occupied by buildings or structures than provided for in section 29 of this act. For the purposes of this section the measurements may be taken at the level of the second tier of beams but never at a point more than fourteen feet above the curb level; provided that the space occupied by fire-escapes, and by chimneys or flues located in yards and attached to the house, which do not exceed five square feet in area and do not obstruct light or ventilation, shall not be deemed a part of the lot occupied.

Maximum height.

§ 33. The height of no tenement house hereafter erected shall by more than one-half exceed the width of the widest street upon which it stands.

Windows.

§ 34. In every tenement house hereafter erected, every room except water-closet compartments and bathrooms shall have at least one window opening directly upon the street, or upon a yard or court of the dimensions specified in sections 20 to 27 of this act, and such windows shall be so located as to properly light all portions of such rooms.

Window area.

§ 35. In every tenement house hereafter erected, the total window area in each room, except water-closet compartments and bathrooms, shall be at least one-eighth of the superficial area of the room, except in the cellar or basement, where it shall be one-sixth, and the upper half of all windows shall be made so as to open the full width. No such window shall be less than twelve square feet in area between the stop beads.

Rooms, minimum dimensions.

§ 36. In every tenement house hereafter erected, all rooms, except water-closet compartments and bathrooms, shall be of the following dimensions: In each apartment there shall be at least one room containing not less than one hundred and twenty square feet of floor area, and each other room shall contain at least eighty square feet of floor area. Each room shall be in every part not less than eight feet six inches from the finished floor to the finished ceiling; provided, that an attic room need be but eight feet six inches high in but one-half its area.

Alcove rooms.

§ 37. Alcove rooms must conform to all the requirements of other rooms.

Windows in public halls.

§ 38. In every tenement house which is hereafter erected, which is occupied or arranged to be occupied by more than two families on any floor, or which exceeds four stories and cellar in height, every public hall shall have at least one window opening directly upon the street or upon a yard or court, except as otherwise provided in this section. Any part of a hall which is shut off from any other part of said hall by a door or doors, shall be deemed a separate hall within the meaning of this section. In every tenement house hereafter erected where the public hall is not provided with a window opening directly to the outer air as above provided, there shall be a stair-well not less than twelve inches wide extending from the entrance floor to the roof, and all doors leading from such public halls shall be provided with translucent glass panels of an area not less than five square feet for each door, and also with fixed transoms of translucent glass over each door.

Size of windows in public halls.

§ 39. In every tenement house hereafter erected, one at least of the windows provided to light each public hall or part thereof shall be at least two feet six inches wide, measured between stop beads. In every such house there shall be in the roof, directly over each stair-well, a ventilating skylight provided with ridge ventilators having a minimum opening of forty square inches, or such skylight shall be provided with fixed or movable louvres; the glazed roof of such skylight shall be not less than twenty square feet in area. In tenement houses hereafter erected where the stairs and public halls are not provided with windows on each floor opening directly into the outer air, the skylights shall be provided with both such ridged ventilators, and also with fixed or movable louvres, or movable sashes.

Windows in stair halls.

§ 40. In every tenement house hereafter erected, the windows required by law on each floor to light or ventilate stair halls shall be at least fifteen square feet in area, measured between stop beads. There shall be provided at each story at least one of said windows, which shall be at least three feet wide and five feet high, measured between the stop beads.

Sash doors in entrance halls and public halls shall be deemed the equivalent of a window for lighting purposes, provided that such doors contain the amount of glazed surface prescribed for windows.

Access to rooms.

§ 41. In every apartment of three or more rooms in a tenement house hereafter erected, access to every living room and bedroom and to at least one water-closet compartment shall be had without passing through any bedroom.

Additional rooms.

§ 42. Any additional room or hall that is hereafter constructed or created in a tenement house shall comply in all respects with the provisions of Chapter III of this act, except that such rooms may be of the same height as the other rooms on the same story of the house.

Light shafts.

§ 43. Any shaft used or intended to be used to light or ventilate rooms intended to be used for living purposes, and which may hereafter be placed in tenement houses erected prior to May 10, 1909, shall not be less in area than twenty-five square feet, or less than four feet in width in any part, and such shaft shall under no circumstances be roofed or covered over at the top with a roof or skylight; every such shaft shall be provided at the bottom with a horizontal intake or duct, of a size not less than four feet square and communicating directly with the street or yard, and such duct shall be so arranged as to be readily cleaned out.

Vent shafts.

§ 44. Every vent shaft hereafter constructed in a tenement house shall be at least twenty square feet in area, and the least dimension of such vent shaft shall be not less than four feet; and if the building be above sixty feet in height such vent shaft shall, throughout its entire height, be increased in area three square feet for each additional twelve feet of height or fraction thereof; and for each twelve feet of height less than sixty feet such vent shaft may be decreased in area three square feet. A vent shaft may be enclosed on all four sides but shall not be roofed or covered over in any way. Every such vent shaft shall be provided with a horizontal intake or duct at the bottom, communicating with the street or yard or with a court; such duct or intake to be not less than four square feet in total area. Such duct shall be constructed of fireproof material in a manner approved by the department charged with the enforcement of this act, and shall enter the shaft at a point not less than six inches above the bottom thereof, and shall be provided with a wire screen of not less than one inch mesh at each end. Such duct shall be so arranged as to be easily cleaned out.

Cellars for living purposes.

§ 45. In no now existing or new tenement house shall any room in the cellar be constructed, altered, converted or occupied for living purposes; and no room in the basement of a tenement house shall be constructed, altered, converted or occupied for living purposes, unless all of the following conditions of this ordinance be complied with, and at least one-third of the basement shall be above grade for building; provided, in each case it shall be at least four feet six inches above the street grade.

Such rooms shall be at least eight feet six inches high in all now existing or new tenement houses in every part, from the floor to the ceiling.

There shall be appurtenant to such room or apartment a water-closet conforming to the regulations and ordinances relating to water-closets, of the incorporated town, incorporated city or city and county in which the tenement house is or is to be built.

Walls below ground to be damp-proof.

§ 46. Every tenement house hereafter erected, shall have all walls below the ground level and all cellar or lower floors damp-proof and water-proof. When necessary to make such floors and walls damp-proof and water-proof, the damp-proofing and water-proofing shall run through the walls as high as the ground level and continue throughout the floor. All cellars and basements in such tenement houses shall be properly lighted and ventilated to the satisfaction of the department charged with the enforcement of this act.

Drainage.

§ 47. In every tenement house hereafter erected the bottom of all shafts, courts, areas, and yards which extend to the basement for light or ventilation of living rooms, must be six inches below the floor level of the part occupied or intended to be occupied. In every tenement house all shafts, courts, areas and yards shall be properly graded and drained, and connected with the street sewer so that all water may pass freely through into it, and when required by the department charged with the enforcement of this act, shall be properly concreted.

Sinks.

§ 48. In every tenement house hereafter erected, there shall be in each apartment a proper sink with running water.

Water-closets and baths.

§ 49. In every tenement house hereafter erected, there shall be a separate water-closet in a separate compartment within each apartment and a shower bath or bath tub shall be provided on each floor. Every water-closet and bathroom hereafter placed in any tenement house shall be placed in a separate compartment from every other water-closet and bath; each compartment shall not be less than two feet four inches wide, and shall be enclosed with plastered partitions, which shall extend to the ceiling. Nothing in this section in regard to the separation of water-closet compartments from each other shall apply to a general toilet-room containing several water-closets hereafter placed in a tenement house, provided such water-closets are supplemental to the water-closet accommodations required by law for the use of the tenants of said house. Nothing in this section in regard to the ventilation of water-closet compartments shall apply to a water-closet hereafter placed in a tenement house, where it is provided to replace a defective fixture in the same position and location. No water-closet shall be maintained in the cellar of any tenement house without a special permit in writing from the department charged with the enforcement of this act, which shall have power to make rules and regulations governing the maintenance of such closets. Every water-closet compartment hereafter placed in any tenement house shall be provided with proper means of lighting at night. If fixtures for gas or electricity are not provided in said compartment, then the door of said compartment shall be provided with translucent glass panels not less in area than four square feet. The floor of every such water-closet compartment shall be made water-proof with asphalt, tile, stone, or some other water-proof material; and such water-proofing shall extend at least six inches above the floor so that said floor can be washed or flushed without leaking. No drip trays shall be permitted. No water-closet fixtures shall be encased in any woodwork.

Closets in existing houses.

§ 50. In all now existing tenement houses, the woodwork enclosing all water-closets shall be removed from the front of said closets and the space underneath the seat shall be left open. The floor and other surface beneath and around the closet shall be maintained in good order and repair and if of wood shall be kept well painted with light colored paint.

Sinks in existing houses.

§ 51. In all now existing tenement houses, the woodwork inclosing sinks located in public halls or stairs shall be removed, and the space underneath said sink shall be left open. The floors and wall surfaces beneath and around the sink shall be maintained in good order and repair, and if of wood, shall be well painted.

Cellar floors.

§ 52. The floor of the cellar or lowest floor of every tenement house shall be water-tight, and the cellar ceiling shall be plastered when so required by the department charged with the enforcement of this act, except where the first floor above the cellar is constructed of iron beams and fireproof filling.

Cellar walls.

§ 53. The cellar walls and ceilings of every tenement house shall be thoroughly whitewashed or painted a light color by the owner and shall be so maintained. Such whitewash or paint shall be renewed whenever necessary as may be required by the department charged with the enforcement of this act.

Houses must be kept in repair.

§ 54. Every tenement house and all parts thereof shall be kept in good order and the roof shall be kept so as not to leak, and all rainwater shall be so drained and conveyed therefrom as to prevent it dripping on the ground or causing dampness in the walls, ceilings, yards or areas.

Cleanliness.

§ 55. Every tenement house and every part thereof shall be kept clean and free from any accumulation of dirt, filth or garbage or other matter in or on the same, or in the yards, courts, passages, areas or alleys connected or belonging to same.

Same.

§ 56. In every tenement house there shall be at the bottom of every shaft and inner court, a door giving sufficient access to such shaft or court to enable it to be properly cleaned out.

Court walls.

§ 57. The walls of all yard courts, inner courts and shafts, unless built of a light color brick or stone, shall be thoroughly whitewashed by the owner, or shall be painted a light color by him and so maintained.

Wall-paper.

§ 58. No wall-paper shall be placed upon a wall or ceiling of any tenement house unless all wall-paper shall be first removed therefrom and said wall and ceiling thoroughly cleaned.

Receptacles for garbage.

§ 59. The owner of every tenement house shall provide for said building proper and suitable conveniences or receptacles for ashes, rubbish, garbage, refuse and other matter.

Keeping of livestock.

§ 60. No horse, cow, calf, swine, sheep or goat shall be kept in a tenement house, or within twenty feet thereof on the same lot, and no tenement house, or the lot or premises thereof, shall be used for a lodging-house or stable, or for the storage or handling of rags.

Janitor.

§ 61. Whenever there shall be more than eight families living in any tenement house, in which the owner does not reside, there shall be a janitor, housekeeper, or some responsible person who shall reside in said house and have charge of same, as the department charged with the enforcement of this act shall so require.

Overcrowding.

§ 62. No room in any tenement house shall be so overcrowded that there shall be afforded less than four hundred cubic feet of air to each adult, and two hundred cubic feet of air to each child under twelve years of age occupying such room.

Construction of building, specifications to be filed.

§ 63. Before the construction or alteration of a tenement house, or the alteration or conversion of a building for use as a tenement house is commenced, and before the construction or alteration of any building or structure on the same lot with a tenement house, the owner, or his agent, or architect, shall submit to the department charged with the enforcement of this act, a detailed statement in writing, verified by the affidavit of a person making the same, of the specifications for the construction and for the light and ventilation of such tenement house or building, upon a blank or form to be furnished by such department, and also a full and complete copy of the plans of such work. Such statement shall give in full the name and residence, by street and number, of the owner or owners of such tenement house or building. No person, however, shall be recognized as the agent of the owner, unless he shall file with the said department a written instrument signed by such owner designating him as agent. Any false swearing in a material point in such affidavit shall be deemed perjury. Such specifications, plans and statements shall be filed in said department and shall be deemed public records, and no such specifications, plans or statements shall be removed from said department.

Rent not recoverable, when.

§ 64. If any building hereafter constructed as or altered into a tenement house be occupied in whole or in part for human habitation in violation of the last section, during such unlawful occupancy no rent shall be recoverable by the owner or the lessee of such premises for said period, and no action or special proceeding shall be maintained therefor, or for the possession of said premises for the nonpayment of such rent.

Who shall enforce act.

§ 65. Except as herein otherwise provided, the provisions of this act shall be enforced by the departments of any incorporated town, incorporated city, or city and county to which this act applies, which are now charged with the enforcement of laws, ordinances and regulations relating to the erection of buildings, the protection of public health or police and fire protection.

Abrogation of powers not intended.

§ 66. Nothing in this act shall be construed to abrogate or impair the powers of the department of health, the department of public works or of the courts, to enforce any provisions of the charter or building ordinances and regulations of any incorporated town, incorporated city, or city and county, not inconsistent with this act, or to prevent or punish violations thereof.

Violation of act, penalty for.

§ 67. Every person who shall violate or assist in the violation of any provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment for ten days for each and every day that the violation shall continue, or by a fine of not less than ten dollars or more than one hundred dollars if the offense be not willful, or two hundred and fifty dollars if the offense be willful, and in every case of ten dollars for each day after the first that such violation shall continue, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court. The owner of the tenement house or part thereof, or of any building or structure upon the same lot with a tenement house, or of the said lot, where any violation of this act, or a nuisance exists, and any person who shall assist and violate any provisions of this act, or any notice or order of the department charged with the enforcement, shall also jointly and severally for each violation and each nuisance be subject to a civil penalty of fifty dollars.

Same.

§ 68. Any owner, agent, architect, builder, contractor, sub-contractor or foreman who shall, in the construction or alteration of any building intended to be used as a tenement house, knowingly violate any of the provisions of the building laws, contained in or based upon this act, ordinances or regulations, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Fines shall be a lien.

§ 69. Every fine imposed by judgment under sections 67 and 68 of this act upon a tenement house owner, shall be a lien upon the house in relation to which the fine is imposed from the time of the filing of a certified copy of said judgment in the office of the clerk of the county in which said tenement house is situated.

Owners and lessees to file statement.

§ 70. Every owner of a tenement house and every lessee of the whole house, or other person having control of a tenement house, shall file in the department charged with the enforcement of this act, a notice containing his name and address and also a description of the property, by street and number and otherwise, as the case may be, in such manner as will enable the department charged with the enforcement of this act to easily find the same; and also the number of apartments in each house, the number of rooms in each apartment, and the number of families occupying the apartments. In case of a transfer of any tenement house, it shall be the duty of the grantee of said tenement house to file in the department charged with the enforcement of this act, a notice of such transfer, stating the name of the new owner, within thirty days after such transfer. In case of the devolution of the said property by will, it shall be the duty of the executor and the devisee, if more than twenty-one years of age, and in case of devolution of such property by inheritance without a will, it shall be the duties of the heirs, or in case all of the heirs are under age it shall be the duty of the administrator of the deceased owner of said property to file in said department a notice, stating the death of said owner and the names of those who have succeeded to his interests, within thirty days after the death of the decedent, in case he died intestate, and within thirty days after the probate of his will, if he died testate.

Service of process.

§ 71. Every owner, agent or lessee of a tenement house shall file in the department charged with the enforcement of this act, a notice containing the name and address of such agent of such houses, for the purpose of receiving service of process, and also a description of the property, by street and number or otherwise, as the case may be, in such manner as will enable the department of health to easily find the same. The name of the owner or lessee may be filed as agent for this purpose.

Time of service.

§ 72. Every notice or order in relation to a tenement house shall be served five days before the time for doing the thing in relation to which it shall have been issued.

Summons, service of.

§ 73. In any action brought by any department charged with the enforcement of this act in relation to a tenement house for injunction, vacation of the premises, or other abatement of nuisance, or to establish a lien thereon, it shall be sufficient service of summons to serve the same as notices and orders are served under the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure.

Must not be used as assignation house.

§ 74. A tenement house shall be subject to a penalty of one thousand dollars, if it or any part of it shall be used for the purposes of a house of prostitution or assignation of any description, with the permission of the owner thereof, or his agent, and said penalty shall be a lien upon the house and the lot upon which the house is situated.

When to be deemed so used.

§ 75. A tenement house shall be deemed to have been used for the purposes specified in the last section with the permission of the owner or lessee thereof, if summary proceedings for the removal of the tenants of said tenement house, or so much thereof as is unlawfully used, shall not have been commenced within five days after notice of such unlawful use, served by the department charged with the enforcement of this act in the manner prescribed by law for the service of notices and orders in relation to tenement houses.

Evidence.

§ 76. In a prosecution against an owner or agent of a tenement house under section 647 of the Penal Code, or in an action to establish a lien under section 74 of this act, the general reputation of the premises in the neighborhood shall be competent evidence, but shall not be sufficient to support a judgment without corroborative evidence, and it shall be presumed that their use was with the permission of the owner or lessee; provided that such presumption may be rebutted by evidence.

Who styled as defendant.

§ 77. Said action shall be brought against the tenement house as defendant. Said house may be designated in the title of the action by its street and number or in any other method sufficiently precise to secure identification. The property shall be described in the complaint. The plaintiff, except as hereinafter provided, shall be any department charged with the enforcement of this act.

Where action shall be brought.

§ 78. Said action shall be brought in the superior court in the county or city and county in which the property is situated. At, or before the commencement of the action, the complaint shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county or city and county, together with a notice of the pendency of the action, containing the names of the parties, the object of the action, and a brief description of the property affected thereby.

Judgment.

§ 79. The judgment in such action, if in favor of the plaintiff, shall establish the penalty sued for as a lien upon said premises, subject only to taxes, assessments, and to such mortgage and mechanics' liens as may exist thereon prior to the filing of the notice of pendency of the action.

Statutes inconsistent repealed.

§ 80. All statutes of the state and ordinances of incorporated towns, incorporated cities and cities and counties so far as inconsistent with the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed; provided, that nothing in this act contained shall be construed as repealing or abrogating any present law or ordinance in any incorporated towns, incorporated city or city and county of the state, further restricting or prohibiting the occupation of cellars, or increasing the amount of air space to each individual occupying a room, or as prohibiting any further ordinance with respect thereto.

Ordinances shall not modify act.

§ 81. Except as herein otherwise provided, every tenement house shall be constructed and maintained in conformity with the existing law, but no ordinance, regulation or ruling of any municipal authority shall modify or dispense with any provisions of this act.

Permits for construction.

§ 82. Every person desiring to construct a tenement house shall obtain a permit from the department charged with the enforcement of this act, for which he shall pay into the general fund of said incorporated town, incorporated city or city and county the sum of ten (10) cents for each one thousand cubic feet or fractional part thereof contained therein. No permit to be issued for less than three dollars ($3). Every owner or lessee of a tenement house shall obtain at the beginning of each year a license from the department charged with the enforcement of this act, for which he shall pay the following sums: For a house accommodating not more than five families $1, for each additional five families $1 for each fiscal year. Such moneys shall be paid into the general fund of said incorporated town, incorporated city or city and county.

COUNTY RECORDERS EX OFFICIO REGISTRARS.Recorders to be registrars.

§ 1. Recorders and ex officio recorders in the several counties of this state shall be registrars of titles in their respective counties, and their deputies shall be deputy registrars. All laws relative to recorders and their deputies, including their compensation, clerk hire, and expenses, shall extend to registrars and their deputies, so far as the same may be applicable, except as in this act otherwise provided. Registrars of titles shall be county officers within the meaning of the laws of this state.

Bonds of recorders to cover their duties as registrars.

§ 2. The official bonds now required by law to be given by recorders and ex officio recorders before entering upon the discharge of their duties, shall also apply to and cover the faithful discharge of their duties as registrars, whether such additional condition be specifically provided for in such bonds or not.

Deputies may act.

§ 3. Deputies may perform any and all duties of the registrar, in the name of the registrar, and the acts of such deputies shall be held to be the acts of the registrar.

Registrar and deputy not to practice law.

§ 4. Registrars and deputy registrars are prohibited from practicing law, or acting as attorneys or counselors at law, or having as a partner a lawyer or any one who acts as such, or from acting as searchers of title under this act.

BRINGING LAND UNDER THE ACT.Application by verified petition; character of applicant; county of application.

§ 5. Land may be brought under the operation of this act by the filing with the county clerk of a verified petition to the superior court of the county within which such land is situated, by the owner of any estate or interest in such land, whether legal or equitable (other than an undivided share, or an easement). The clerk shall immediately indorse on such application the exact time of its presentation, and enter the same in a book kept for that purpose and known as the land register docket. Persons who collectively claim to hold the entire legal estate in fee simple may jointly file such petition. A corporation may apply by its authorized agent, an infant by his guardian; any other person under disability by his guardian or trustee. Land constituting a single parcel and lying partly in two or more counties may be included in one application, which may be made in either county in which the land lies, but the certificate issued therefor must be filed with the registrars of all the counties within which such land is situate. Two or more parcels of land may be included in one application if owned by the same person and in the same right.

Contents of application.

§ 6. The petition shall set forth substantially:

(a) The name, occupation, place of residence, and postoffice address of the applicant, and if the application is by one acting in behalf of another, the name, place of residence, postoffice address, and capacity of the person so acting, and the nature of the disability of the person for whom he is acting.

(b) Whether the applicant (except in case of a corporation) is married or not, and if married, the name and residence of the husband or wife.

(c) The description of the land.

(d) The applicant's estate or interest in the same, and whether the same is subject to an estate of homestead.

(e) Whether the land is occupied or unoccupied, and, if occupied, the name and postoffice address of each occupant, and what estate or interest he has or claims in the land.

(f) Whether the land is subject to any easement, lien, or encumbrance, and, if any, the name and postoffice address if known of each holder thereof, and the nature and amount of the same, and, if recorded, the book and page of the record.

(g) Whether any other person has any estate or claims any interest in the land, in law or equity, in possession, remainder, reversion, or expectancy, and, if any, the name and postoffice address if known of every such person, and the nature of his estate or claim.

(h) The names and postoffice addresses of all the owners of the adjoining lands, so far as he is able, upon diligent inquiry, to ascertain the same.

(i) If the applicant is a male, that he is of the full age of twenty-one years; if a female, that she is of the full age of eighteen years. If the application is made by a corporation, its name, when and where incorporated, its principal place of business, and the names and postoffice addresses of its president and secretary. If the application is by a husband or wife, and the property is community property, the petition must so state, and both spouses must join therein. A plat or plan of survey of the land made by the county or a licensed surveyor must accompany the application, and if said land is a part of a city, town, or subdivision, the application must refer to the book and page of the records of the county where the map of said city, town, or subdivision is recorded, if at all.

Each application must be accompanied by an abstract of the title, verified by the searcher making the same, as required in proceedings in partition, or, if made by a corporation engaged in the business of making and certifying abstracts of title, then in lieu of the affidavit a certificate by such corporation, under its seal, shall be sufficient. When the title to the land in question has been previously determined by a final decree of a court of competent jurisdiction, such abstracts need not antedate such decree unless required by the court in which such application is filed. No person or corporation shall be authorized to make or furnish such abstracts of title until after entering into an undertaking with two or more sufficient sureties to the people of the state of California in a sum not less than ten thousand dollars, which may be increased from time to time by order of the court. Such bonds shall be recorded in the record of official bonds in the recorder's office of the county, and then filed in the county clerk's office. Said bond shall be conditioned to pay all damages and costs which the state may sustain by reason of any error or insufficiency in said abstract. The sureties on such bond shall qualify as provided in section 1057 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and the sufficiency of the bond and of the sureties thereon shall be approved by a judge of the superior court of the county where such bond is to be filed. The sureties upon such bond may become severally liable in portions of not less than five hundred dollars each, making in the aggregate at least two sureties for the whole sum. Said bond shall be renewed as often, at least, as once in every period of three years.

Registration of fee simple must precede all else.

§ 7. No mortgage, lien, charge, or lesser estate than a fee simple shall be registered unless the fee simple to the same land is first registered.

Registration not to be raised because of encumbrance.

§ 8. It shall not be an objection to bringing land under this act, that the estate or interest of the applicant is subject to any outstanding lesser estate, mortgage, lien, or charge; but every such lesser estate, mortgage, lien, or charge shall be noted upon the certificate of title and the duplicate thereof, and the title or interest certified shall be subject only to such estates, mortgages, liens, and charges as are so noted, except as herein provided.

No registration based on tax title until after five years adverse possession.

§ 9. No title derived through sale for any tax or assessment shall be entitled to be first registered, unless it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court, upon the hearing of the application, that the applicant, or those through whom he claims title, have been in the open, actual, continuous, uninterrupted, undisputed, exclusive, and adverse possession of the land under such title at least five years, and have paid all taxes and assessments legally levied thereon for five successive years.

Amendment to application verified.

§ 10. The application may be amended only by petition verified as in the case of the original. Such amendment may be ordered by the court on its own motion, or upon the motion of any person interested in the proceeding.

Filing of application to be notice to subsequent purchasers.

§ 11. The filing of the application in the office of the county clerk shall be sufficient notice of the same to all subsequent purchasers or encumbrancers without the filing of a lis pendens in the office of the recorder.

Court to dismiss application, or set it for hearing.

§ 12. The court shall, in its discretion, examine the abstract itself, or refer the same, as provided in section 18 of this act. If it shall appear to the court, from an examination of the abstract, or from the report of the referee, that the title to the land described in the application is substantially as alleged by the applicant, the application shall be set for hearing, otherwise the court may order the application dismissed.

Notice of hearing to be given; anyone may appear and object; costs.

§ 13. When the time and place for hearing the application is fixed by the court, notice thereof shall be given to all parties interested, as shown by the petition and the abstract or referee's report, and to the husband or wife of the applicant, if married, and the owners of adjoining lands, in the same manner as the service of a summons in a civil action, and by publication for at least four weeks, in some newspaper of general circulation, to be designated by the court; provided, that no copy of abstract or map need be served with the petition. Any person interested may appear and object to the granting of the application, and if such objection is sustained, the costs of the same shall be paid by the applicant; if not, by the person so objecting. The time for appearance after service shall be the same as in the case of a civil action.

Upon the hearing the court to take evidence on the allegations of petition; and may adjourn hearing.

§ 14. Upon the day set for the hearing of the application, or at such time as the same may be continued to, the court shall cause examination to be made into the applicant's title to the land in question, and shall hear testimony as to the allegations of the petition, or of any objections thereto; and if any defects are found in the application, or in the applicant's title to the land, or if any of the allegations of the petition are found to be untrue, or any objections to said petition are sustained, the court may dismiss such application, or may give the applicant such further time as the court may deem reasonable, before finally passing upon his application.

Decree setting forth title to be made by court on granting application.

§ 15. If it shall be made to appear, to the satisfaction of the court, that the notice required by section thirteen has been duly given and served; that the facts stated in the application are true, and that the applicant is the owner of the land, or interested therein, as set forth in the petition, the court shall duly make, give and enter a decree to that effect, which said decree shall contain an accurate description of the property in question, with a diagram thereof, and also shall set forth all liens and encumbrances on said land, with the name of the holder thereof, and the nature, amount, and order of the same, and, if recorded, the book and page of the record. Any party aggrieved by such decree may appeal therefrom in the manner now or hereafter provided by law for appeals in civil actions.

Registrar to issue certificate of title upon filing of certified copy of decree.

§ 16. A certified copy of such decree shall be filed in the office of the registrar, who shall thereupon issue a certificate of title to the person entitled thereto as shown by said decree, and shall proceed to bring said land under the operation of this act, as herein provided. Said certificate shall contain the description of the property set forth in the decree, and shall also show the nature, amount, and order of the liens thereon.

Decree to be in rem, and conclusive.

§ 17. The decrees of the court ordering registration shall be in the nature of a decree in rem, and shall be final and conclusive as against the rights of every and all persons, known and unknown, to assert any estate, interest, claim, lien, or demand of any nature or kind whatever, against the land so ordered registered, except as provided in this act.

Court to appoint referee; compensation of searcher and of referee.

§ 18. Upon the filing of the petition the court may appoint a referee to examine and report upon the abstract accompanying the same. Such referee shall be an attorney in good standing, skilled in the examination of titles, of not less than three years' practice at the bar of the court so appointing him. The compensation of the searcher and of the referee shall be fixed by the court, or agreed upon between themselves and the applicant, and shall be paid by the applicant as a part of the costs of the proceeding.

Written opinion of referee to be filed before decree made.

§ 19. Whenever such abstract shall be made and such referee appointed, no decree shall be entered by the court until the written opinion of such referee shall be filed in the proceeding, showing the nature of the applicant's title to the land; and if the same is subject to any lesser estate, mortgage, lien, or charge, particularly specifying the same and the priority thereof. The estate of homestead shall be included in the term "lesser estate."

Applicant may withdraw application upon payment of fees at any time prior to issuance of certificate of title.

§ 20. Any applicant may, upon payment of all fees due, withdraw his application for registration at any time prior to the issuing of a certificate of title; and upon the written request of such applicant and the order of the court, the clerk shall return to the applicant all abstracts of title, deeds, and other instruments, except depositions or affidavits deposited by him for the purpose of supporting his application.

On transfer of interest or death of applicant, proceedings may be continued.

§ 21. In case of the death or any disability of the applicant, the court, on motion, may allow the proceeding to be continued by or against his representative or successor in interest. In case of any other transfer of interest the proceeding may be continued in the name of the original applicant, or the court may allow the person to whom the transfer is made to be substituted in the proceeding.

Registrar to keep record of particulars of issuance.

§ 22. The registrar shall immediately, upon the registration of any land, make an entry in a book kept by him for that purpose, showing the name of the person to whom the certificate was issued, its number, the day, hour, and minute of its issuance, the name of the person to whom the duplicate certificate was delivered, and the book and page where the original certificate is entered or recorded.

Certificate of title to be in duplicate; its contents; original to be retained by registrar.

§ 23. Every first and subsequent certificate of title shall be in duplicate and numbered consecutively and bear date the year, month, day, hour, and minute of its issue, and be under the hand and official seal of the registrar, one copy of which shall be retained by the registrar and be known as the original, and the other shall be delivered to the owner, or person acting for him, and be known as the duplicate. It shall state whether the owner, except in the case of a corporation, executor, administrator, assignee, or other trustee, is married or not married, and the name of the husband or wife. If the owner is a minor it shall state his age; if under any other disability, the nature of the disability. If issued to an executor or administrator, the certificate shall show the name of the deceased testator or intestate; if to an assignee in insolvency, the name of the insolvent. The registrar shall note at the end of the certificate, original and duplicate, in such manner as to show and preserve their priorities, the particulars of all estates, mortgages, liens, encumbrances, and charges to which the owner's title is subject.

Form of certificate.

§ 24. No particular form of certificate of title is required, but the same may be, subject to such changes as the case may require, substantially in the following form:

State of California, } ss.
County of ———, }

A. B. (state occupation and residence, giving street and number), state of California (if an administrator, give the name of the deceased; if a minor, give his age; if under other disability, state its nature), married to (name of husband or wife, or if not married so state), is the owner of an estate in fee simple (or as the case may be) in the following land (insert description contained in the decree). Subject, however, to the estates, easements, liens, encumbrances, and charges hereunder noted. (In case of trust, condition, or limitation, say "in trust," or "upon condition," or "with limitation," as the case may be.)

1. Mortgage to C. D. for the sum of $——, dated ———, payable ——— after date, with interest at ——— per cent per ———, interest payable ———.
2. Mechanic's lien in favor of X. Y. for $——, filed ———.

3. Assessment for improvement of — street. Amount $—, due

(Any other encumbrances or charges.)

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused my official seal to be affixed, this — day of —.

[Seal]

Registrar of Titles in and for the county of —, state of California.

Tenants in common may receive each a certificate.

§ 25. In all cases where two or more persons are entitled as tenants in common to an estate in registered land, such persons may receive one certificate for the entirety, or each may receive a separate certificate for his undivided share.

Registered owner may consolidate several or divide up one certificate.

§ 26. Upon the application of any registered owner of land held under separate certificates of title, or under one certificate, and delivering up of such certificate or certificates of title, the registrar may issue to such owner a single certificate of title for the whole of such land, or several certificates, each containing a portion of such land, in accordance with such application, and as far as the same may be done consistently with any regulations at the time being in force, respecting the certificates of land that may be included in one certificate of title; and upon issuing any such certificate of title said registrar shall indorse on the last previous certificate of title of such land so delivered up a memorial, setting forth the occasion of such cancellation and referring to the volume and folium of the new certificate or certificates of title so issued.

Certificate may be issued by order of court in lieu of lost duplicate; proceedings therefor.

§ 27. In the event of a duplicate certificate of title being lost, mislaid, or destroyed, the owner may apply to the court for an order upon the registrar to issue a certified copy of the original certificate of registration. Upon the hearing of such application, the court may order such notice to be given to such persons, and for such time as it may deem proper. If the court is satisfied that the applicant is the person named in the original certificate on file in the registrar's office, and that the duplicate certificate has been lost, mislaid, or destroyed, the court shall make an order directing the registrar to issue a certified copy of the original certificate to the applicant. A certified copy of such order shall be filed in the registrar's office, who shall thereupon issue to such applicant a certified copy of the original certificate, with the memorials and notations appearing upon the register, and shall note upon the register the fact, cause, and date of such issue, and shall also mark upon such certified copy: "Owner's certified copy, issued in place of lost (mislaid, or destroyed, as the case may be) certificate," and such certified copy shall stand in the place of, and have like effect, as the missing duplicate certificate. In case of a lost certificate, no transfer of the land shall be made until such certified copy is issued by the registrar. A certified copy of the certificate of title may be issued by the registrar for use as evidence, upon the receipt by him of an order therefor made by the court; provided, that such certified copy shall have written or stamped across the face thereof the words "For use as evidence only." The issuance of such certified copy and the purpose thereof shall also be noted upon the original certificate by the registrar.

Change of name or of description to be noted on order of court.

§ 28. If an owner's name or description is incorrectly registered, or becomes changed (e. g., by marriage, adoption, divorce, etc.), the court, upon the filing of an application and proof of facts in the manner set forth in section 27 of this act, and the production by the owner of the duplicate certificate, shall order the registrar to issue a new certificate, with such changes as the case may require.

THE REGISTER OF TITLES.

Original certificate to be entered in register; memorials to be on latest certificate.

§ 29. The registrar shall keep a book, to be known as the "Register of Titles," wherein he shall enter all original certificates of title, in the order of their numbers, with appropriate blanks for the entry of memorials and notations allowed by this act. Each certificate, with such blanks, shall constitute a separate folium of such book. All memorials and notations that may be entered upon the register under the terms of this act shall be entered upon the folium constituted by the last certificate of title of the land to which they relate. Each certificate of title shall be numbered the same as the folium of the register on which the registration of the title of which it is a duplicate is entered.

Receipt to be given for duplicate certificate on its issuance.

§ 30. Before the delivery of any duplicate certificate of title, a receipt for it shall be required to be signed by the owner. Where such receipt is signed in the presence of the registrar or a deputy, it shall be witnessed by such officer. If signed elsewhere, it shall be acknowledged before any officer authorized to take acknowledgments of deeds.

First registration deemed complete on notation of original entries upon certificates.

§ 31. In every case of first registration of land or an estate or interest therein, the same shall be deemed to be registered under this act, when the registrar shall have marked upon the certificate of title, in duplicate, the volume and folium of the register in which the original may be found.

Transfer complete on notation upon new certificate; other dealings complete on notation; registration to relate back to filing with registrar.

§ 32. Every transfer of registered land shall be deemed to be registered under this act, when the new certificate to the transferee shall have been marked, as in the case of the first registration; and all other dealings shall be considered as registered when the memorial or notation shall have been entered in the register upon the folium constituted by the existing certificate of title of the land. But, for the protection of the transferee or person claiming through any transfer or dealing, the registration shall relate back to the time of filing in the registrar's office the deed, instrument, or notice, pursuant to which the transfer memorial or notation is made.

Party aggrieved may bring action against registrar and others.

§ 33. Any person feeling himself aggrieved by the action of the registrar, or by his refusal to act in any matter pertaining to the first registration of land, or any subsequent transfer, or charge upon the same, or failing, or neglecting, or refusing to file any instrument, or to enter or cancel any memorial or notation, or to do any other thing required of him by this act, may file a complaint in the superior court making the registrar and other persons, whose interests may be affected, parties defendant, and the court may proceed therein as in other cases, and make such order or decree as shall be according to equity and the purport of this act. A certified copy of such order or decree shall be presented to the registrar, who shall file the same and make such entry thereof as by this act required.

EFFECT OF REGISTRATION.

In absence of fraud, title to be subject only to noted encumbrances; exceptions.

§ 34. The registered owner of any estate or interest in land brought under this act shall, except in case of fraud to which he is a party, or of the person through whom he claims without valuable consideration paid in good faith, hold the same subject only to such estates, mortgages, liens, charges, and interests as may be noted in the last certificate of title in the registrar's office, and free from all others, except:

1. Any subsisting lease or agreement for a lease for a period not exceeding one year, where there is actual occupation of the land under lease. The term "lease" shall include a verbal letting.

2. All public highways embraced in the description of the lands included in the certificate.

3. Any subsisting right of way or other easement, however created, upon, over, or in respect of the land.

4. Any tax or special assessment for which a sale of the land has not been had at the date of the certificate of title.

5. Such right of action or claim as is allowed by this act.

6. Liens, claims, or rights arising under the laws of the United States, which the statutes of California cannot require to appear of record upon the register.

No adverse possession after registration possible.

§ 35. After land has been registered no title thereto adverse or in derogation to the title of the registered owner shall be acquired by any length of possession.

Presumption of good faith in purchaser of registered land.

§ 36. Except in case of fraud, and except as herein otherwise provided, no person taking a transfer of registered land, or any estate or interest therein, or of any charge upon the same from the registered owner, shall be held to inquire into the circumstances under which, or the consideration for which, such owner or any previous registered owner was registered, or be affected with notice, actual or constructive, of any unregistered trust, lien, claim, demand, or interest; and the knowledge that any unregistered trust, lien, claim, demand, or interest is in existence shall not of itself be imputed as fraud.

Persons defrauded shall not lose rights.

§ 37. In case of fraud, any person defrauded shall have all rights and remedies that he would have had if the land were not under the provisions of this act; provided, that nothing contained in this section shall affect the title of a registered owner who has taken bona fide for a valuable consideration, or of any person bona fide claiming through or under him.

Registration of forged instrument void but title of bona fide owner not affected.

§ 38. If a deed or other instrument is registered, which is forged, or executed by a person under legal disability, such registration shall be void; provided, that the title of a registered owner, who has taken bona fide for a valuable consideration, shall not be affected by reason of his claiming title through some one, the registration of whose right or interest was void, as provided in this section.

No unregistered interest shall prevail against bona fide registered owner.

§ 39. No unregistered estate, interest, power, right, claim, contract, or trust shall prevail against the title of a registered owner taking bona fide for a valuable consideration, or of any person bona fide claiming through or under him.

In absence of fraud, certificate of title is conclusive evidence in suit for specific performance of contract to purchase.

§ 40. In any suit for specific performance brought by a registered owner of any land under the provisions of this act against a person who may have contracted to purchase such land, not having notice of any fraud or other circumstances which, according to the provisions of this act, would affect the right of the vendor, the certificate of title of such registered owner shall be held in every court to be conclusive evidence that such registered owner has a good and valid title to the land, and for the estate or interest therein mentioned or described.

In ejectment or partition suits, certificate is conclusive evidence.

§ 41. In any action or proceeding brought for ejectment, partition, or possession of land, the certificate of title of a registered owner shall be held in every court to be conclusive evidence, except as herein otherwise provided, that such registered owner has a good and valid title to the land, and for the estate or interest therein mentioned or described, and that such registered owner is entitled to the possession of said land.

The register to be received as evidence.

§ 42. The register of any land, and duly certified copies thereof, shall, except as herein otherwise provided, be received in law and in equity as evidence of the facts therein stated, and as conclusive evidence that the person named therein as owner is entitled to the land for the estate or interests therein specified.

Memorial to be noted until cancellation.

§ 43. Whenever a memorial has been entered, as permitted by this act, the registrar shall carry the same forward upon all certificates of title until the same is canceled in some manner authorized by this act.

Dealings subsequent to first registration subject to act.

§ 44. All dealings with land or any estate or interest therein, after the same has been brought under this act, and all liens, encumbrances, and charges upon the same subsequent to the first registration thereof, shall be deemed to be subject to the terms of this act, and to such amendments and alterations as may hereafter be made. The bringing of land under this act shall imply an agreement which shall run with the land, that the same shall be subject to the terms and provisions of the act and of amendments and alterations thereof.

Five years' limitation to bringing of action affecting registered land; incompetents to appear.

§ 45. No person shall commence any action at law or in equity for the recovery of land, or assert any interest, right in, or lien or demand upon the same, or make entry thereon adversely to the title or interest certified in the first certificate bringing the land under the operation of this act, unless within five years after the first registration. It shall not be an exception to this rule that the person entitled to bring the action or make the entry is an infant, lunatic, or is under any disability, but action may be brought by such person by his next friend or guardian. It shall be the duty of the guardian, if there is any, to bring action in the name of his ward whenever it is necessary to preserve or enforce the ward's rights in registered land; provided, however, before such action shall proceed, it must be made to appear to the court that the person bringing such action, or those under whom he claims, had no actual notice of the proceedings to register such lands in time to appear and file his objections or assert his claim.

Action not to affect bona fide purchasers.

§ 46. The action provided for in the last preceding section, shall in no way affect or disturb the rights of any person in said land, acquired subsequent to the registration thereof, bona fide and without knowledge, and for a valuable consideration.

Claim to arise after expiration of five years preserved by noting memorial; proceedings subsequent.

§ 47. Any person having any interest, right, title, lien, or demand, whether vested, contingent, or inchoate, in, to, or upon registered land which existed at the time the land was first registered, and upon or for which no cause of action shall have accrued at the date of the registration of the land, may, prior to the expiration of said five years after such registration, file in the registrar's office a notice, under oath, setting forth his interest, right, title, lien, or demand, and how and under whom derived, and the character and nature thereof; and if such claim is so filed, an action may be brought to assert or recover or enforce the same at any time within one year after the right of action shall have accrued thereon, or at any time within the period of five years after said first registration, and not afterwards. It shall be the duty of a life tenant or trustee to file such claim on behalf of any remainderman or reversioner, whether the remainder or reversion be at the time vested or contingent, and of a guardian to file such claim on behalf of his ward.

TRANSFERS.

Title passes on filing of deed and of duplicate.

§ 48. A registered owner of land desiring to transfer his whole estate or interest therein, or some distinct part or parcel thereof, or some undivided interest therein, or to grant out of his estate an estate for life or for a term of not less than ten years, may execute to the intended transferee a deed or instrument of conveyance in any form authorized by law for that purpose. And upon filing such deed or other instrument in the registrar's office and surrendering to the registrar the duplicate certificate of title, the transfer shall be complete and the title so transferred shall vest in the transferee; thereupon, the registrar shall issue in duplicate and register, as hereinbefore provided, a new certificate, certifying the title to the estate or interest in the land desired to be conveyed to be in the transferee, and shall note upon the original and duplicate certificate the date of the transfer, the name of the transferee, and the volume and folium in which the new certificate is registered, and shall stamp across the original and surrendered duplicate certificate the word "Canceled," in whole or part, as the case may be.

New certificate to issue for remainder, if but a parcel be transferred.

§ 49. When only a part of the land described in a certificate is transferred, or some estate or interest in the land is to remain in the transferrer, a new certificate shall be issued to him for the part, estate, or interest remaining in him.

Time of filing to be noted on instrument.

§ 50. The registrar shall mark as filed every deed, mortgage, lease, and other instrument which may be filed in his office, in the order of its receipt, and shall note thereon at the date of filing the minute, hour, day and year it is received. When the date of filing any instrument is required to be entered upon the register, it shall be the same as that indorsed upon such instrument.

Papers filed to be retained.

§ 51. All instruments, notices, and papers required or permitted by this act to be filed in the office of the registrar, shall be retained and kept in such office, and shall not be taken therefrom except by a subpoena duces tecum issued to, and served upon the registrar by a court of record. But the registrar, on demand, the proper fee being tendered therefor, shall deliver to any person a copy or copies of such an instrument, with all memoranda, memorials, and indorsements thereon, duly certified under his hand and seal of office. The registrar shall, however, upon all such copies, indorse thereon in writing across the face thereof, in red ink, "Copy, no rights conveyed hereby."

Such copies to be received in evidence.

§ 52. Every copy of original instruments so certified as provided for in the last preceding section, shall be received in all cases in place of the original, and as evidence have the same force and effect as the original instrument.

Existing forms of deeds may be used.

§ 53. Like forms of deeds, mortgages, leases, and other instruments as are now or may hereafter be sufficient in law for the purpose intended, may be used in dealing with registered land and any estate or interest therein. Such instrument shall give the number of the certificate of title of the land described therein. But an indorsement, duly acknowledged, upon the duplicate certificate of title, substantially in the following form, viz.: "I, —, grant to — the real property described in this certificate. Witness — hand — and seal — this — day of —, —," shall be sufficient to transfer the property in said certificate described.

Name and address to be indorsed on instrument, and notices to be sent there.

§ 54. On all instruments presented to the registrar for registration shall be indorsed the name and address of the person so presenting the same, and all notices relating to the land therein described may be served on such person at such address. The address may be changed from time to time by such person filing with the registrar a written notice of such change.

Instrument affecting registered land to be but a contract until registered.

§ 55. A deed, mortgage, lease, or other instrument purporting to convey, transfer, mortgage, lease, charge, or otherwise deal with registered land, or any estate or interest therein, or charge upon the same, other than a will or a lease not exceeding one year where the land is in the actual possession of the lessee or his assigns, shall take effect only by way of contract between the parties thereto, and as authority to the registrar to register the transfer, mortgage, lease, charge, or other dealing upon compliance with the terms of this act. On the filing of such instrument, the land, estate, interest, or charge shall become transferred, mortgaged, leased, charged, or dealt with according to the purport and terms of the deed, mortgage, lease, or other instrument. The registrar shall immediately, upon the filing of such instrument, stamp or write upon the original and duplicate certificates of title the word "Transferred," "Mortgaged," "Leased," or otherwise, as the case may require, with the date of filing such instrument.

Certificate before retransfer, etc., must show freedom from tax sale and homestead.

§ 56. No transfer of title to land, or any estate or interest therein, or mortgage, shall be registered, if the last original certificate shows that the land has been sold for any tax or assessment upon which a deed has been given, and that the title is outstanding, or upon which a deed may thereafter be given, or if said certificate shows that the estate of homestead, if any, has not been released or extinguished, unless the transfer or mortgage is intended to be subject to such tax sale or homestead estate, in which case it shall be so stated in the certificate of title.

Certificate to state marriage or representative capacity, if any.

§ 57. Every certificate of title to land shall state whether the transferee (except when the latter is a corporation, executor, administrator, or assignee), is married or not married, and if married, the name of the husband or wife. If the transferee be an executor or administrator, the certificate shall give the name of the deceased testator or intestate, and if the transferee be an assignee, the name of the insolvent. The transferee shall furnish the registrar the necessary information before he shall be entitled to have the land transferred to him on the register.

MORTGAGES, LEASES, AND OTHER CHARGES.

Encumbrance on registered land must be registered.

§ 58. Every mortgage, lease, contract to sell, or other instrument intended to create a lien, encumbrance, or charge upon registered land, or any interest therein, shall be deemed to be a charge thereon, and must be registered as hereinafter provided.

Encumbrance created on filing of charge.

§ 59. On the filing of the instrument intended to create the charge in the registrar's office, and the production of the duplicate certificate of title, and it appearing from the original certificate of title that the person intending to create the charge has the title and right to create such charge, and the person in whose favor the same is sought to be created being entitled by the terms of this act to have the same registered, the registrar shall enter upon the proper folium of the register, and also upon the duplicate certificate, a memorial of the purport thereof, and the date of filing the instrument with a reference thereto, by its file number, which memorial shall be signed by the registrar. The registrar shall also note upon the instrument on file the volume and folium of the register where the memorial is entered.

Trust deed to be treated as a mortgage.

§ 60. A trust deed in the nature of a mortgage shall be deemed to be a mortgage, and be subject to the same rules as a mortgage.

If instrument charging land be in duplicate or more parts, but one need be filed.

§ 61. When any mortgage, lease, or other instrument creating or dealing with a charge upon registered land or any estate or interest therein, is in duplicate, triplicate, or more parts, only one of the parts need be filed and kept in the registrar's office; but the registrar shall note upon the register whether the same is in duplicate, triplicate, or as the case may be, and shall also mark upon the others "Mortgagee's Duplicate," "Lessor's Duplicate," "Lessee's Duplicate," or as the case may be, and note upon the same the date of filing and the volume and folium of the register where the memorial is entered, and deliver them to the parties entitled thereto.

Certified copies identified as such may be issued.

§ 62. When an instrument is not executed in a sufficient number of parts for the convenience of the parties, the registrar may make and deliver to each of the parties entitled thereto certified copies of the instrument filed in his office, with the indorsements thereon, marking the same "Mortgagee's Certified Copy," "Lessor's Certified Copy," or as the case may be, and shall note upon the register the fact of issuing such copies. Such certified copies shall have the same force and effect and be treated as duplicates.

Assignment of charge by filing and noting of same by memorial.

§ 63. The holder of any charge upon registered land, desiring to transfer the same or any part thereof, may execute an assignment of the whole or any part thereof. The assignment of a part only must state whether the part transferred is to be given priority, to be deferred, or to rank equally, with the remaining part. Upon such assignment being filed in the office of the registrar and the production of the duplicate or certified copy of the instrument creating the charge held by the assignor, the registrar shall enter in the register opposite the charge, a memorial of such transfer, and how it ranks, with a reference to the assignment by its file number; he shall also note upon the instrument on file in his office intended to be transferred, and upon the duplicate or certified copy thereof produced, the volume and folium where the memorial is entered, with the date of the entry. The transferee shall be entitled to have a certified copy of the instrument of transfer, with the indorsement thereon, and in case of the transfer of the entire charge, the duplicate or certified copy of the instrument creating the charge.

Release of part or whole of charge to be noted as an assignment.

§ 64. A release, discharge, or surrender of a charge, or any part thereof, or of any part of the land charged, may be effected in the same way as above provided in the case of a transfer. In case only a part of the charge or of the land is intended to be released, discharged, or surrendered, the entry shall be made accordingly; but when the whole is released, discharged, or surrendered at the same or several times, the registrar shall stamp across the instrument on file, and the memorial thereof, and the duplicate or certified copy produced, the word "Canceled."

Charges to be enforced as at present, except as herein provided, and except that notice of lis pendens must be filed with registrar.

§ 65. All charges upon registered land, or any estate or interest in the same, may be enforced as now or hereafter allowed by law, and all laws with reference to the foreclosure and release or satisfaction of mortgages shall apply to mortgages upon registered land, or any estate or interest therein, except as herein otherwise provided, and except that until notice of the pendency of any suit to enforce or foreclose such charge is filed in the registrar's office, and a memorial thereof entered on the register, the pendency of such suit shall not be notice to the registrar, or any person dealing with the land or any charge thereon.

ATTORNEYS IN FACT.

Attorney in fact to deal with registered land must file his power.

§ 66. Before any person can convey, charge, or otherwise deal with registered land, or any estate or interest therein, as attorney in fact for another, the deed or instrument empowering him so to act shall be filed with the registrar, and a memorial thereof entered upon the original and duplicate certificates. If the attorney shall so desire, the registrar shall deliver to him a certified copy of the power of attorney, with the indorsements thereon. Revocation of a power may be registered in like manner.

TRUSTS, CONDITIONS, AND LIMITATIONS.

Trusts, etc., to be noted without any of the particulars.

§ 67. Whenever a deed or other instrument is filed in the registrar's office for the purpose of effecting a transfer of, or charge upon, registered lands, or any estate or interest therein, and it appears from such instrument that the transfer or charge is to be in trust, or upon any condition or limitation therein expressed, the registrar shall note in the certificate, and the duplicate thereof, or memorial, the words "in trust," or "upon condition," or "with limitations," as the case may be, but no entry shall be made of the particulars of any such trust, conditions, or limitations.

Every trustee with express authority, shall have power of sale.

§ 68. The trustee or transferee in any such instrument named, if the instrument contains the words "with power of sale," shall have power to deal with the land as the owner thereof; and a bona fide purchaser, mortgagee, or lessee is not bound to inquire into or determine whether or not the acts of such trustees are in accordance with the terms and conditions of the trust. When such power is conferred, the registrar shall note upon the certificate and duplicate thereof the words "with power of sale."

No trustee, with limitation, shall sell without order of court to sell.

§ 69. If, however, such instrument does not contain the words "with power of sale," such trustee shall have no power to sell or otherwise deal with the land without an order of court so to do, duly given and made, a certified copy of which said order shall be filed with the registrar, and a memorial thereof entered upon the certificate of title, which shall be conclusive evidence as against all persons that the authority of such trustee was duly executed in accordance with the true intent and meaning of the trust, condition, or limitation.

Trustee under which shall have power to sell unless it be withheld.

§ 70. A trustee under any will admitted to probate, unless such power shall have been expressly withheld by the terms of such will, shall have power to deal with any registered land held by him in trust as fully in every respect as if such lands belonged to him individually.

ESTATES IN PROBATE, IN INSOLVENCY, AND IN EQUITY PROCEEDINGS.

Existing statutes governing probate, insolvency, and equity proceedings, not affected.

§ 71. The distribution, transfer, leasing, mortgaging, or other change in the status of the title of registered land that is within the jurisdiction of any court by reason of the pendency of probate, insolvency, or equity proceedings, shall be made under the same conditions and limitations as now or hereafter provided by the law of this state.

Orders of sale, decrees of distribution, etc., to contain direction to registrar.

§ 72. The court in its order or decree making such distribution, transfer, leasing, mortgaging, or other change in the status of the title of registered land, shall direct the registrar to issue a certificate of title, or to note a memorial of the transaction, as the case may require, in accordance with such order or decree.

Certified copy of order, decree, deed, and confirmation to be filed with registrar.

§ 73. The executor, administrator, assignee, receiver, or other person acting under the direction of said court, shall file with the registrar a certified copy of such order or decree, also the deed, lease, mortgage, or other instrument executed in accordance with such order or decree, and also a certified copy of the order or decree confirming such sale, lease, mortgage, or other transaction, when such confirmation is required by law.

Order of court necessary for sale of land of insolvent and probate estates; confirmation and issuance of certificates thereof.

§ 74. Executors, administrators, and assignees in insolvency shall have no power of sale of lands registered in their names as such, without an order of court obtained for that purpose. Before any certificate can be issued to the purchaser, such sales shall be reported for confirmation to the court under whose authority such executor, administrator, or assignee is acting, and if confirmed, a duly certified copy of the order of confirmation shall be filed in the office of the registrar, and a memorial thereof entered upon the certificate of title. Upon the filing of the certified copy of such order of confirmation and the entry of such memorial, the registrar shall issue a certificate to the purchaser at such sale, which certificate, in addition to the usual contents thereof, shall refer to the said order of confirmation. Such order of confirmation shall be conclusive evidence that the sale was in all respects conducted in accordance with law, and the purchaser shall not be bound to inquire into the regularity of the proceeding, or power of the executor or administrator to make such sale.

Power of sale of executor to be noted.

§ 75. If a testator, by his will, has provided that the executor thereof shall have a power of sale of real estate, the court shall direct the registrar to register the words "with power of sale," in respect of the land of the deceased, and such executor shall have power to sell such land without an order of court so to do, but such sales must be confirmed by the court in the manner now or hereafter provided by the law of this state, and a duly certified copy of the order of such confirmation shall be filed with the registrar before any certificate of title can be issued to the purchaser of such land.

Registrar to issue certificate or note memorial; such to be conclusive.

§ 76. Thereupon the registrar shall issue the certificate of title, or note the memorial, as the case may require; and such certificate of title or memorial noted shall be conclusive evidence in favor of all persons thereafter dealing with said land.

TAX SALES.

Notice of purchase to be filed and mailed.

§ 77. A purchaser of registered land sold for any tax or assessment, shall, within one day after such purchase, file in the office of the registrar a written notice of such purchase. And thereupon the registrar shall enter a memorial thereof upon the certificate of title, and shall mail to each person named in the certificate, or in the memorials thereon, a copy of said notice, a sufficient number of said copies to be furnished to the registrar by said purchaser at the time of filing said notice. In case the state or a municipal corporation becomes the purchaser of land sold for any tax or assessment, the tax collector shall, within one day thereafter, file with the registrar a notice to that effect. And thereupon the registrar shall enter a memorial thereof upon the register, and shall mail notices to interested parties, as in the case of an individual purchaser. Unless such notice is given as herein provided, the land shall be forever released from the effect of such sale, and no deed shall be issued in pursuance thereof.

Tax deed already issued must be registered.

§ 78. A tax deed of registered land, or of any estate or interest therein, issued in pursuance of any sale for a tax or assessment made after the taking effect of this act, may be presented by the holder thereof to the registrar, who shall thereupon enter upon the register a memorial of such deed; but such deed, unless the same shall have been issued to the state, shall have only the effect of an agreement for the transfer of the title, and before any certificate of title shall be issued for the land described in such deed, the holder thereof must file with the clerk of the superior court an application for a decree showing the title to said land to be vested in him.

Interested persons must be made parties to said application.

§ 79. All persons appearing upon the register to be interested in said land, and also the person who appears, by the tax collector's books to have paid the tax or assessment last paid before the sale on which the deed is issued, shall be notified; and any person claiming an interest in the land, may, upon the hearing of such application, show, as cause why a certificate of title should not issue to the order of said deed, any fact that might be shown in law or in equity on his behalf to set aside such tax deed, and the applicant shall be required to show affirmatively that all the requirements of the statute to entitle him to a deed have been complied with.

Decree shall be given showing condition of title.

§ 80. Such application shall be heard by the court, which shall render a decree showing the condition of the title to such land, and who is the owner thereof, and upon presentation to him, of a duly certified copy of such decree, the registrar shall issue a certificate for said land in accordance with the terms and conditions of said decree.

Tax deed to state conclusive.

§ 81. In case a tax deed of registered land is issued to the state or any municipal corporation, in pursuance of any sale for a tax or assessment made after the taking effect of this act, the registrar shall, upon the filing of such deed in his office, cancel the certificate for the land in said deed described, and issue a new certificate to the state therefor.

Notice to be personal or by mail and publication.

§ 82. The notice required in section 80 shall be given upon all persons residing in the state by personal service, and upon all persons living out of the state by mail and by publication in the manner now or hereafter required by the laws of this state in an action to quiet title. If such personal service be made by a sheriff or constable, his certificate, and if by any other person, his affidavit, shall be sufficient proof thereof. In case the place of residence of any person is not known to the registrar or the holder of such deed, notice shall be given by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the land is situated, at least once a week for four consecutive weeks. Proof of such publication must be made in the manner now or hereafter required by the laws of this state.

On redemption, memorial to be canceled.

§ 83. Upon presentation to him of a certificate of redemption from any tax sale, the registrar shall cancel the memorial of said sale upon the certificate of title.

PARTITION AND JUDICIAL SALES.

All parties noted on register must be parties.

§ 84. In proceedings for partition of registered land, proof must be made that all persons, shown by the register of title to be interested in the land, have been made parties to such proceeding.

Decree must be filed before certificate issued.

§ 85. On confirmation of the report of the commissioners setting off registered lands in proceedings for partition, it shall be the duty of the parties to whom the lands are allotted, to cause a certified copy of the judgment or decree to be filed with the registrar. Thereupon the registrar shall transfer the same upon the register, and issue certificates of title to the persons entitled thereto, as shown by said decree.

When sale ordered, purchaser must file copy of decree.

§ 86. Whenever, in proceedings for partition of registered land, the court shall order a sale of such land, and the same is sold under such order, the purchaser shall file with the registrar a certified copy of the order confirming said sale, together with certificate of the officer holding the writ, that the terms of the sale have been complied with. Thereupon, the registrar shall transfer said land upon the register, and issue a certificate of title to the purchaser, therefor.

When mortgage on undivided share, lien attaches only to lands set off to mortgagor.

§ 87. When a tenant in common has given any mortgage, or granted any other lien or interest upon his undivided interest, and the same is set off in severalty in proceedings for partition, such mortgage, lien, or other interest shall attach only to the lands so set off, and the registrar shall note the same upon a new register of title, and a new certificate of title, and shall indorse a memorandum of the partition upon the instrument creating such lien, mortgage, or other interest, if the same be on file in his office, before a new certificate of title shall be issued therefor.

Purchaser at judicial sale must file certified copy of order confirming sale.

§ 88. Whenever registered land shall be sold to satisfy any judgment, decree, or order of court, the purchaser shall file with the registrar a duly certified copy of the order of sale, or of the order confirming such sale, when the same needs to be confirmed by the court, and also the certificate, if any, of the officer, that the terms of sale have been complied with, and thereupon the registrar shall transfer the land to him, and issue a new certificate of title therefor to said purchaser.

LIS PENDENS; NOTICE OF ACTION.

Notice to affect registered land must be filed with registrar.

§ 89. No suit, bill, or proceeding at law or in equity for any purpose whatever, affecting registered land, or any estate or interest therein, or any charge upon the same, shall be deemed to be lis pendens or notice to any person dealing with the same until notice of the pendency of such suit, bill, or proceeding shall be filed with the registrar and a memorial thereof entered by him upon the register of the last certificate of the title to be affected; provided, however, this section shall not apply to attachment proceedings when the officer making the levy shall file his certificate as hereinafter provided.

When suit, etc., dismissed, certificate of dismissal or release must be filed with registrar.

§ 90. When any suit, bill, or proceeding affecting registered lands has been dismissed or otherwise disposed of, or any judgment, decree, or order has been satisfied, released, reversed, or modified, or any levy of execution, attachment, or other process has been released, discharged, or otherwise disposed of, it shall be the duty of the sheriff, or the clerk of the court in which such proceedings were pending, or had, as the case may be, forthwith, under his hand, and, if the clerk, under the seal of the court, to certify to and file with the registrar, an instrument showing such discharge or release. Upon the same being filed, the registrar shall enter a memorial of such discharge on the register. The costs of such certificate and memorial shall be taxed as other costs in the case.

LIENS, EXECUTIONS, ATTACHMENTS, ETC.

Certified copy of judgment or decree must be filed.

§ 91. No judgment, or decree, or order of any court shall be a lien on or in anywise affect registered land, or any estate or interest therein, until a certified copy of such judgment, decree, or order, under the hand and official seal of the clerk of the court in which the same is of record, is filed in the office of the registrar, and a memorial of the same is entered upon the register of the last certificate of the title to be affected.

Certificate of levy of attachment, or execution, must be filed.

§ 92. Whenever registered land is levied upon by virtue of any writ of attachment, execution, or other process, it shall be the duty of the officer making such levy forthwith to file with the registrar a certificate of the fact of such levy, a memorial of which shall be entered upon the register; and no lien shall arise by reason of such levy until the filing of such certificate and the entry in the register of such memorial, any notice thereof, actual or constructive, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Notice of mechanics' liens must be filed.

§ 93. Notice of liens under the provisions of the mechanics' lien laws of this state shall be filed in the registrar's office, and a memorial thereof entered by him upon the register, as in the case of other charges, and such liens may be enforced as now or hereafter allowed by law. Until such notice is so filed and registered, no lien shall be deemed to have been created.

Notice of assessments for street improvements, sewers, etc., must be filed by clerk.

§ 94. When in a city, town, or county, an ordinance, resolution, or order is passed or made, to lay out, establish, alter, widen, grade, regrade, relocate, or construct or repair a street, sidewalk, drain or sewer, or to make any other public improvement, or to do any work, the whole or a portion of the expense for which assessments may be made upon real estate, if any registered land or any land included in an application for registration then pending is affected by the act or proceeding and liable to such assessment, the clerk of the board passing such ordinance, resolution, or order shall, within five days after the passage of such ordinance, resolution, or order, file in the registrar's office a notice of the passage thereof, and a memorial shall thereupon be noted on the register. In case of the repeal of such ordinance, resolution, or order, the clerk of said board, and in case of the satisfaction of any lien thereunder, the superintendent of streets or other officer required by law to collect and receive such assessments, shall, within five days thereafter, notify the registrar, who shall thereupon cancel such memorial.

No notice necessary in case of lien for labor performed for corporation not complying with law.

§ 95. No statutory or other lien shall be deemed to affect the title to registered land until after a memorial thereof is entered upon the register, as herein provided, except in cases of liens for labor performed for a corporation, as provided in the act of the legislature of the state of California, approved March thirty-first, eighteen hundred and ninety-one.

Clerk of court may file certificate of dismissal of suit or satisfaction of judgment.

§ 96. The certificate of the clerk of the court in which any suit, bill, or proceeding shall have been pending, or any judgment or decree is of record, that such suit, bill, or proceeding has been dismissed or otherwise disposed of, or the judgment, decree, or order has been satisfied, released, reversed, or overruled, or of any sheriff or other officer that the levy of any execution, attachment, or other process certified by him has been released, discharged, or otherwise disposed of, being filed in the registrar's office and noted upon the register, shall be sufficient to authorize the registrar to cancel or otherwise treat the memorial of such suit, bill, proceeding, judgment, decree, or levy, according to the purport of such certificate.

CORRECTIONS OF ERRORS IN CERTIFICATE.

No correction of register without order of court.

§ 97. After a title has been registered and a certificate issued therefor, or after a memorandum, notation, or memorial has been made on the register of title and has been attested, no correction, alteration, or erasure shall be made therein or thereof, except in the manner herein provided.

Registrar may apply to court for correction of errors or mistakes in certificate.

§ 98. Whenever it appears to the registrar that there is an error or omission in any certificate or memorial, or that any certificate or me-memorial has been made, entered, indorsed, issued, or canceled by him, he may apply to the court for an order summoning all persons registered as interested in the lands to which such certificate or memorial is to appear at an appointed time and place and produce their duplicate certificates and show cause why such omission or mistake should be corrected, and shall thereupon enter a memorial of such application in the register.

If all parties consent, court may order correction of errors or mistakes. § 99. If at the time and place appointed all such persons appear and consent, the court may order and direct the registrar to correct such error, omission, or mistake on the register and on any duplicate certificate, and may direct the cancellation of any certificate or memorial entered by mistake.

If all parties do not consent, court may hear testimony as to error or mistake.

§ 100. If such persons, or any of them, fail to appear, or do not appear, the court may proceed to hear testimony as to such alleged error, omission, or mistake, and if it appear to the satisfaction of the court that an error, omission, or mistake has been made, he shall order and direct the registrar to correct the same and to cancel or modify such certificates or memorials as may be necessary to correct such error or mistake. When such error or mistake has been caused by the negligence of the registrar, the costs of such proceedings shall be paid by the state; if by the fault of any person registered as interested in the land, by such person. A certified copy of the order of court, directing the correction of any error, omission, or mistake in respect to any certificate or memorial shall be filed in the registrar's office before the correction shall be entered or made.

EMINENT DOMAIN.

Right of eminent domain not affected.

§ 101. Nothing in this act shall be construed to in anywise affect or modify the exercise of the right of eminent domain. When any proceeding shall have been brought in the exercise of such right, for the taking of registered land, or any interest therein, or to test the validity of any such taking, or to ascertain and establish the amount of damage by reason of any such taking, it shall be the duty of both parties to the proceeding to see that a certified copy of the judgment or decree therein is duly filed and a memorial thereof entered upon the register, but in the case of the assessment of damages, no such memorial shall be entered by the registrar until such damages have been paid, in the event the register shall also show the payment of such damages. It is provided, however, that the deposit with the treasurer, as allowed by law of such damages, shall be deemed a payment thereof, and in such case the treasurer shall forthwith file with the registrar a certificate of deposit, and thereupon a memorial thereof shall be entered upon the register. Upon the filing of the certified copy of the order or of the court and the payment of damages, the registrar shall note on the register of title of the owners whose lands have been appropriated, a description of the land so appropriated, and shall register in the name of the person, corporation, or other body entitled thereto, the title of the land taken, and issue a certificate therefor.

INDICES.

Property indices to be kept.

§ 102. The registrar shall keep property indices, the pages of which shall be divided into columns, showing first, the section or subdivision; second, the range or block; third, the township or lot; fourth, any further description necessary to identify the land; fifth, the name of the registered owner; sixth, the volume; and seventh, the page of the register in which the lands are registered.

Name indices to be kept.

§ 103. He shall also keep name indices, the pages of which shall be divided into columns, showing in alphabetical order, first, the names of all registered owners and all other persons interested in or holding charges upon registered land; second, the nature of the interest; third, a brief description of the land; fourth, the volume; and fifth, the page of the register in which the lands are registered.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

Registered lands may be partitioned.

§ 104. An owner of an undivided interest in registered lands may bring an action for the partition thereof. A notice of such action shall, at the time of the commencement thereof, be filed with the registrar and a memorial entered by him upon the register. A certified copy of any judgment or decree rendered in pursuance of such action shall be filed with the registrar, who shall thereupon issue new certificates in accordance therewith.

Registration of adverse lien not conclusive of regularity of proceedings or instruments by which created.

§ 105. Whenever, under the provisions of this act, any interest in, or lien, encumbrance, or charge upon registered land, arises adversely to the registered owner without voluntary action by him, and not in pursuance of a judgment or decree of court, such registration shall not be conclusive of the regularity of any proceedings or instruments by means of which such interest, lien, encumbrance, or charge arose, or the validity of the same, and shall have no greater force and effect than would the recording, in case the land were not registered, of an instrument creating a similar interest, lien, encumbrance, or charge.

In case of fraud, rights and remedies the same as if land not under this act.

§ 106. In the case of fraud, any person defrauded shall have all rights and remedies that he would have had if the lands were not under the provisions of this act; provided, that nothing contained in this section shall affect the title of a registered owner who has taken bona fide for a valuable consideration, or of any person bona fide claiming through or under him.

Clerk of court shall notify registrar of appeal.

§ 107. In case of an appeal from any proceeding under this act, or from any judgment, order, or decree affecting registered lands, the clerk of the court in which the notice of appeal is filed shall forthwith notify the registrar thereof, and thereupon the registrar shall enter upon the register a memorial of such appeal.

All fees collected by registrar to be paid to county treasurer and applied to expenses of administration of this act.

§ 108. All fees collected by the registrar under the provisions of this act shall be accounted for, paid, disbursed, and disposed of by him in the same manner that fees collected by him as county recorder are now or may hereafter be by law accounted for, paid, disbursed and disposed of. Should there be a surplus in any year, such surplus shall be carried into the general fund, and be subject to appropriation for any purpose. In case such fees shall not amount to the sum required for the administration of this act, the deficiency shall be paid from any funds in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Board of supervisors shall furnish registrar all necessary books, etc.

§ 109. All books, blanks, papers, and all things necessary for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this act, shall be furnished by the board of supervisors, at the expense of the county.

The attorney general, state controller, and secretary of state to prepare forms.

§ 110. The attorney general, state controller, and secretary of state shall prepare a uniform system of books, blanks, and forms for the use of the public officers required to perform duties under this act, and such forms, and none other, shall be used by such officers.

PENALTIES.

Fraudulent procurement of certificate, a felony.

§ 111. Whoever fraudulently procures, assists in fraudulently procuring, or is privy to the fraudulent procurement of any certificate of title or other instrument, or of any entry in the register or other book kept in the registrar's office, or of any erasure or alteration in any entry in any said book, or in any instrument authorized by this act, or knowingly defrauds or is privy to defrauding any person by means of a false or fraudulent instrument, certificate, statement, or affidavit affecting registered land, shall be guilty of a felony, and fined not exceeding five thousand dollars, or be imprisoned not exceeding five years nor less than one year, or either, or both, in the discretion of the court.

Forgery of a seal, signature, or instrument in registrar's office, a felony.

§ 112. Whoever (1) forges, or procures to be forged, or assists in forging the seal of the registrar, or the name, signature, or handwriting of any officer of the registry office in cases where such officer is expressly or impliedly authorized to affix his signature; or (2) fraudulently stamps, or procures to be stamped, or assists in stamping any document with any forged seal of said registrar; or (3) forges, or procures to be forged, or assists in forging the name, signature, or handwriting of any person whomsoever to any instrument which is expressly or impliedly authorized to be signed by such person; or (4) uses any document upon which any impression, or part of the impression, of any seal of said registrar has been forged, knowing the same to have been forged, or any document, the signature to which has been forged, knowing the same to have been forged; or (5) swears falsely concerning any matter or procedure made and done in pursuance of this act, shall be guilty of a felony, and imprisoned not exceeding ten years, nor less than one year, or fined not exceeding five thousand dollars, or both fined and imprisoned, in the discretion of the court.

No proceeding or conviction under this act shall affect any remedy at law or in equity.

§ 113. No proceeding or conviction for any act hereby declared to be a misdemeanor or a felony shall affect any remedy which any person aggrieved or injured by such act may be entitled to at law or in equity against the person who has committed such act, or against his estate, or against the registrar, or upon his bond.

FEEES.

Fees same as in similar cases under present laws, except as provided herein.

§ 114. First—The fees, in respect of applications and proceedings under them prior to registration, shall be the same as in actions in the superior court.

An act to authorize the deposit of state moneys in banks in this state, and to repeal all acts or parts of acts in conflict with this act.
[Approved March 20, 1905. Stats. 1905, p. 323.]

Repealed 1907, p. 67. See Act 4134.

ACT 4134.

An act to authorize the deposit of state moneys in banks in this state, and to repeal all acts or parts of acts in conflict with this act.

[Approved February 28, 1907. Stats. 1907, p. 67.]

Deposit of state moneys in banks. Security. Interest. Amount. Expense of transporting moneys.

§1. All moneys in the state treasury belonging to the state not immediately required to meet current expenditures may be deposited by the state treasurer to the credit of the state in such state or national bank, or banks, in the state, as the treasurer, with the approval of the governor and state controller, shall select for the safekeeping of such deposits, and any sum so deposited shall be deemed to be in the state treasury; provided, that the bank or banks in which such money is deposited shall furnish security as hereinafter provided, and provided further, that such depositary bank or banks be selected from those agreeing to pay the highest rate of interest, not less than two per cent per annum, for such deposits, as may be determined by bids to be submitted at such times and in such manner, as the treasurer, with the approval of the governor and state controller, shall direct; provided, that not more than one-tenth of the aggregate amount of state moneys available for deposit and on deposit shall be deposited in any one bank, and provided further, that such deposit shall not exceed twenty-five per cent of the paid-up capital, exclusive of reserve and surplus, of any depositary bank. Any and all bids may be rejected by the treasurer, with the approval of the governor and state controller, and new bids asked for. The expense of transportation of moneys to and from the state treasury to such depositaries shall be borne by such depositaries. Said deposits, with interest thereon, shall be subject to withdrawal at any time upon the demand of the state treasurer, or upon presentation of a certificate of deposit properly indorsed.

Interest, when payable. School moneys.

§2. The interest to be paid by any such depositary bank shall be on the average daily balances of the state moneys kept on deposit therewith, and shall be paid and credited to the state monthly on the first day of each and every month, and such interest shall accrue to the general fund of the state treasury; provided that if any moneys belonging to the state school fund or the state school land fund shall at any time be deposited under the provisions of this act, the interest received thereon shall be paid into the state school fund.

Security of funds deposited.

§ 3. For the security of the funds deposited by the state treasurer under the provisions of this act, there shall be deposited with the treasurer bonds of the United States, or of this state, or of any county, municipality or school district of this state, which bonds shall be approved by the governor, controller and treasurer, to an amount in value at least ten per cent in excess of the amount of the deposit with such bank or banks; and if in any case, or at any time, such bonds are not deemed satisfactory security to the governor, controller and treasurer, they may require such additional security as may be satisfactory to them. Said bonds or any part thereof may be withdrawn on the written consent of the governor, controller and treasurer; provided, that a sufficient amount of said bonds to secure said deposits shall always be kept in the treasury; and in the event that said bank or banks of deposit shall fail to pay such deposits or any part thereof on the demand of the state treasurer, or upon any presentation of a certificate of deposit properly indorsed, then it shall be the duty of the state treasurer to forthwith convert said bonds into money and to disburse the same according to law; provided, however, that he shall sell no bonds for less than their face value except at public sale after ten days' printed notice in some newspaper of general circulation published in the county where the sale is to take place.

Provisions of contract. Treasurer's annual statement to banks.

§ 4. The treasurer shall take from such depository or depositories a written contract, in duplicate setting forth the conditions and terms upon which the funds of the state are deposited therewith, one of which shall be filed with the controller. One provision of said contract shall be that each depository shall at the end of each month render to the treasurer a statement in duplicate showing the daily balances or amount of money of the state held by it during the month and the amount of the accrued interest thereon separately, one of which shall be filed by the treasurer with the controller. The treasurer shall annually on the first day of July furnish each depository bank with a statement showing the amount and description of the bonds on deposit with him by such bank to secure state deposits.

Indemnity bonds.

§ 5. The treasurer, with the approval of the governor and controller, shall, if in his judgment it shall appear necessary for the security of the state, require said banks of deposit to give an indemnity bond, the sureties on which shall not be interested as stockholders in said bank or banks, to be approved by the governor, controller and treasurer, to secure the state against loss by any depreciation in value that may occur in such bonds held by him as security for the safekeeping and prompt payment of the state moneys in such depositaries.

Treasurer not responsible for deposits.

§ 6. The state treasurer shall not be responsible for any moneys deposited in a bank or in banks under the provisions of this act while the same remain there deposited with the consent of the governor and controller; but the treasurer shall be chargeable with the safekeeping, management and disbursement of the bonds and certificates of deposit deposited with him as security for deposits of state moneys, and with the interest thereon, and the proceeds of any sale under the provisions of this act.

Certificates of deposit. Warrants paid by certificates.

§ 7. At the time of depositing state moneys in any bank designated as a depositary the treasurer shall take a certificate or certificates of deposits made payable to the treasurer of state in such sum or sums as he shall deem advisable. Such certificate or certificates of deposit in the possession of the treasurer shall be deemed and counted as cash by the state board of examiners. Controller's warrants drawn upon the state treasury may be paid by such certificates of deposit when properly indorsed by the treasurer the same as in cash.

Act of 1905 repealed.

§ 8. The act of March 20, 1905, entitled "An act to authorize the deposit of state moneys in banks in this state, and to repeal all acts or parts of acts in conflict with this act," and all other acts or parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby expressly repealed.

ACT 4162.

An act to encourage and provide for the dissemination of a knowledge of the arts, sciences, and general literature, and the founding, maintaining, and perpetuating public libraries, museums, and galleries of art, and the receipt of donations and contributions thereto when established; for the conveyance, holding, and protection of real property within this state suitable for the purposes herein designated, and the erection thereon of buildings appropriate to such purposes, and for the creation of trusts necessary or proper for the better preservation of such institutions, and the control and management thereof.

[Approved March 5, 1887. Stats. 1887, p. 26.]

See post, Acts 4163, 4164, 4165.

Manner of conveying gifts for dissemination of knowledge of arts, etc.

§ 1. Any person intending in his lifetime or by will or trust deed, to operate after his death, to found, maintain, and perpetuate in this state a public library, museum, gallery of art, or any or all thereof, for the diffusion of mechanical, scientific, artistic, and general knowledge, may to that end and for such purpose, and for any purpose within the purview of the title of this act, convey in writing by words denoting a gift or grant to one or more trustees named in such gift or grant, and to their successors, any library or collection of books and works, for such public library, or any museum, or gallery of art in this state, and such gift or grant may also express and shall be construed to be a conveyance of the future additions and accretions thereof; and he may also in like manner, to that end, and for such purpose, convey by grant to such trustee or trustees any real property within this state belonging to him, which may be necessary or proper for the erection and maintenance of buildings suitable to such institution, and the buildings erected thereon, with grounds, conveniently adjacent thereto, and other lands, tenements, and hereditaments for the purpose of producing an income for the support and maintenance of such institutions, or any of them, and any collateral burdens which may be imposed by the terms of such foundation as part and parcel of the regulations for its conduct, and also personal property of all descriptions, which may subserve the purposes of the institution and maintenance of any such library, museum, or gallery of art.

Gifts by other than founder.

§ 2. Any contributions or gifts by any other person than the founder, of any property suitable to the general plan or support of any institution mentioned in the title of this act, shall immediately vest in the trustees, and become incorporated into and subject to the trust, and to all its terms and conditions, and be managed under the rules and regulations prescribed therefor.

§ 3. The person making such gift, grant, or conveyance, as founder, may therein designate,—

1. The name by which the institution so founded and maintained shall be known.

2. Its nature, object, and purposes.

3. The powers and duties of the trustees, which shall not be exclusive of other powers and duties that, in their judgment, may be necessary more effectually to carry out the purposes of such institution.

4. The mode and manner and by whom the successors to the trustees named in the gift or grant shall be appointed.

5. Such rules and regulations for the management of such institution, and the furtherance of its purposes, as the grantor may elect to prescribe; but such rules and regulations shall, unless the grant shall otherwise prescribe, be deemed advisory only, and shall not preclude such trustees or their successors from making such changes as new conditions may, from time to time, require.

6. The place or places where the necessary buildings shall be erected, and the general character thereof. The person making such grant may therein provide for all other things necessary or proper to carry out the purposes thereof, or otherwise, by his last will or testament.

§ 4. The trustees named in such gift or grant, and their successors, may, in the name of such institution designated in the gift or grant, sue and defend in relation to the trust property, and to all matters affecting the institution so founded and established.

Privileges granted to founder.

§ 5. By a provision in such gift or grant, the founder may elect, in respect to the personal and real property conveyed, and the additions and increase thereof, and in respect to the erection, maintenance, and management of any buildings auxiliary thereto, and in respect to any property connected with such institution, to reserve to himself a veto and right of annulment or modification of any act of such trustees, in case he shall, within thirty days after notice of the performance of such act, file in the office of said trustees, or deliver to their president or principal officer, a notice in writing, of such veto, annulment, or modification, and upon a like notice, in conformity with a provision in such gift or grant, he may elect to perform during his life all the powers which, by the terms thereof, are vested in or enjoined upon the trustees therein named, and their successors; provided, that upon the death or disability to act of the founder and grantor, such powers and duties shall be devolved upon, and be exercised by, the trustees named in the gift or grant, and their successors. Such person may also reserve the right to alter, amend, or modify, at any time during his life, or by his last will and testament, the terms and conditions thereof, and the trust therein created in respect to such institution, its buildings, and the property conveyed therefor.

Election of officers and compensation.

§ 6. The founder shall have power in said deed of trust to name and describe the character and personality of any one or more of the immediate or future trustees, the librarian, and other officers, and to name and impose any particular duty to be performed by any one or more trustees or other officers so described and characterized, and to declare and limit any compensation, and fix the character and method of such compensation he may choose to provide for any such trustee or other officer whom the terms of his foundation may characterize, and upon whom specific or general duties shall be imposed.

Gift, how recorded.

§ 7. Any such gift or grant may be executed, acknowledged, and recorded in the manner now or hereafter provided by law for the execution, acknowledgment, and recording of grants of real property.

Time of commencing suit.

§ 8. No suit, action, or proceeding shall be commenced or maintained by any person to set aside, annul, or affect said gift, grant or conveyance, or to affect the title to the property conveyed, or the right to the possession or to the rents, issues, and profits thereof, unless the same be commenced within two years after the date of the filing of such grant for record.

Founder may bequeath to state of California.

§ 9. Any person, being the founder, making a gift or grant for any of the purposes mentioned in this act, may, at any time thereafter, by last will or testament, devise or bequeath to the state of California all or any of the property, real, and personal, mentioned in such gift or grant, or in any such supplemental thereto, and such devise or bequest shall take effect in case, from any cause whatever, the gift or grant shall be annulled or set aside, or the trusts therein declared shall for any reason fail. Such devise or bequest is hereby suffered to be made by way of assurance that the intentions of the grantor shall be carried out, and in the faith that the state, in case it shall succeed to the property, or any part thereof, will, to the extent and value of such property carry out, in respect to the objects and purposes of any such grant, all the wishes and intentions of the grantor.

Liberal construction of provisions.

§ 10. The provisions of this act shall be liberally construed, with a view to effect its objects and purposes, and the singular number in the construction thereof shall be deemed to include the plural, and the plural number shall be deemed to include the singular.

Universities, colleges, schools, etc.

§ 11. Nothing in this act shall repeal, modify, change, or have any effect upon any of the provisions of an act of the legislature of the state of California entitled "An act to advance learning, the arts and sciences, and to promote the public welfare by providing for the conveyance, holding, and protection of property, and the creation of trusts for the founding, endowment, erection, and maintenance, within this state, of universities, colleges, schools, seminaries of learning, mechanical institutes, museums, and galleries of art," approved March ninth, eighteen hundred and eighty-five.

§ 12. This act shall take effect immediately.

ACT 4163.

An act to advance learning, the arts and sciences, and to promote the public welfare, by providing for the conveyance, holding, and protection of property, and the creation of trusts for the founding, endowment, erection, and maintenance within this state of universities, colleges, schools, seminaries of learning, mechanical institutes, museums, and galleries of art.

[Approved March 9, 1885. Stats. 1885, p. 49.]

Amended 1891, p. 454. Supplemented 1903, p. 140. See next act.
Citations. Cal. 118/184, 189.

Construction of act.

§ 1. The provisions of this act shall be liberally construed with a view to effect its objects and promote its purposes; and in the construction thereof the singular number shall be deemed to include the plural, and the plural shall be deemed to include the singular number, and the masculine gender shall be deemed to include the feminine.

Grant.

§ 2. Any person desiring in his lifetime to promote the public welfare by founding, endowing, and maintain[ing] within this state a university, college, school, seminary of learning, mechanical institute, museum, botanic garden, public park, or gallery of art, or any or all thereof, may, to the end and for such purpose, by grant in writing convey to a trustee, or any number of trustees, named in such grant (and to their successors), any property, real or personal, belonging to such person and situated or being within this state; provided, that if such person be married and the property be community property, then both husband and wife must join in such grant. [Amendment approved March 31, 1891. Stats. 1891, p. 454.]

Requisites.

§ 3. The person making such grant may therein designate:

1. The nature, object, and purposes of the institution or institutions to be founded, endowed, and maintained;
2. The name by which it or they shall be known;
3. The powers and duties of the trustees, and the manner in which they shall account, and to whom, if accounting be required; but such powers and duties shall not be held to be exclusive of other powers and duties which may be necessary to enable such trustees to fully carry out the objects of such grant;
4. The mode and manner, and by whom, the successors to the trustee or trustees named in the grant are to be appointed;
5. Such rules and regulations for the management of the property conveyed as the grantor may elect to prescribe; but such rules shall, unless the grantor otherwise prescribe, be deemed advisory only, and shall not preclude such trustees from making such changes as new conditions may from time to time require;
6. The place or places where and the time when the buildings necessary and proper for the institution or institutions shall be erected, and the character and extent thereof. The person making such grant may therein provide for all other things necessary and proper to carry out the purposes thereof, and especially may such person provide for the trades and professions which shall be taught in such institutions, and the terms upon which deserving scholars of the public and private schools of the various counties of this state may be admitted to all the privileges of such institutions, as a reward for meritorious conduct and good scholarship; and also for maintaining free scholarships for children of persons who have rendered service to or who have died in the service of this state; and also for maintaining free scholarships for children of mechanics, tradesmen, and laborers, who have died without leaving means sufficient to give such children a practical education, fitting them for the useful trades or arts; and also the terms and conditions upon which students in the public and private schools, and other deserving persons, may, without cost to themselves, attend the lectures of any university established; and also the terms and conditions upon which the museums, and art galleries, and conservatories of music, connected with any such institution, shall be open to all deserving persons without charge, and without their becoming students of the institution.

Actions by trustees.

§ 4. The trustee or trustees named in such grant, and their successors, may, in the name of the institution or institutions, as designated in such grant, sue and defend, in relation to the trust property, and in relation to all matters affecting the institution or institutions endowed and established by such grant.

Grantor as trustee.

§ 5. The person making such grant, by a provision therein, may elect, in relation to the property conveyed, and in relation to the erection, maintenance, and management of such institution or institutions, to perform, during his life, all the duties and exercise all the powers which, by the terms of the grant, are enjoined upon and vested in the trustee or trustees named. If the person making such grant, and making the election aforesaid, be a married person, such person may further provide that if the wife of such person survive him, then such wife, during her life, may, in relation to the property conveyed, and in relation to the erection, maintenance, and management of such institution or institutions, perform all the duties and exercise all the powers which, by the terms of the grant, are enjoined upon and vested in the trustee and trustees therein named, and in all such cases the powers and duties conferred and imposed by such grant upon the trustee or trustees therein named shall be exercised and performed by the person making such grant, or by his wife, during his or her life, as the case may be; provided, however, that upon the death of such person, or his surviving wife, as the case may be, such powers and duties shall devolve upon and shall be exercised by the trustees named in the grant, and their successors.

Amending grant.

§ 6. The person making such grant may therein reserve the right to alter, amend, or modify the terms and conditions thereof, and the trusts therein created, in respect to any of the matters mentioned or referred to in subdivisions 1 to 6, inclusive, of section 3 hereof; and may also therein reserve the right, during the life of such person or persons, of absolute dominion over the personal property conveyed, and also over the rents, issues, and profits of the real property conveyed, without liability to account therefor in any manner whatever, and without any liability over against the estate of such person; and if any such person be married, such person may, in said grant, further provide that if his wife survive him, then such wife, during her life, may have the same absolute dominion over such personal property, and such rents, issues, and profits, without liability to account therefor in any manner whatever, and without liability over against the estate of either of the spouses.

Custody of minors.

§ 7. The person making such grant may therein provide that the trustees named in the grant, and their successors, may, in the name of the institution or institutions, become the custodian of the person of minors, and when any such provision is made in a grant, the trustees and their successors may take such custody and control in the manner and for the time and in accordance with the provisions of sections 264 to 276, inclusive, of the Civil Code of the state of California.

Execution of grant.

§ 8. Any such grant may be executed, acknowledged, and recorded in the same manner as is now provided by law for the execution, acknowledgment, and recording of grants of real property.

Annulling suit.

§ 9. No suit, action, or proceeding shall be commenced or maintained by any person to set aside, annul, or affect said conveyance, or to affect the title to the property conveyed, or the right to the possession, or to the rents, issues, and profits thereof, unless the same be commenced within two years after the date of filing such grant for record; nor shall any defense be made to any suit, action, or proceedings commenced by the trustee or trustees named in said grant, or their successors, privies, or persons holding under them, which defense involves the legality of said grant, or affects the title to the property thereby conveyed, or the right to the possession, or the rents, issues, and profits thereof, unless such defense is made in a suit, action, or proceeding commenced within two years after such grant shall have been filed for record.

Exemption from execution.

§ 10. The property conveyed by such grant shall not, after a lapse of two years from the date of the filing for record of the grant, be subject to forced sale, under execution, or judicial proceedings of any kind, against the grantor or his privies, unless the action under which the execution shall be issued, or the proceedings under which the sale shall be ordered, shall have been commenced within two years after such grant shall have been filed for record. Nor shall such property be subject to execution or forced sale under any judgment obtained in any proceedings instituted within said two years, if there be other property of the grantor, subject to execution or forced sale sufficient to satisfy such judgment; provided, nothing in this section contained shall be construed to affect mechanics' or laborers' liens.

Bequest to state.

§ 11. Any person or persons making any such grant may, at any time thereafter, by last will or testament, devise and bequeath to the state of California all or any of the property, real and personal, mentioned in such grant, or in any supplemental grant, and such devise or bequest shall only take effect in case, from any cause whatever, the grant shall be annulled or set aside, or the trusts therein declared shall for any reason fail. Such devise and bequest is hereby permitted to be made by way of assurance that the wishes of the grantor or grantors shall be carried out, and in the faith that the state, in case it succeeds to the property, or any part thereof, will, to the extent and value of such property, carry out, in respect to the objects and purposes of any such grant, all the wishes and intentions of the grantor or grantors; provided, that no wish, direction, act, or condition expressed, made, or given by any grantor or grantors, under or by virtue of this act, as to religious instruction to be given in such school, college, seminary, mechanical institute, museum, or gallery of art, or in respect to the exercise of religious belief, on the part of any pupil or pupils of such school or institution of learning, shall be binding upon the state; nor shall the state enforce, or permit to be enforced or carried out, any such wish, direction, act, or condition.

§ 12. This act shall be in force from and after its passage.

ACT 4164.

An act supplemental to an act entitled "An act to advance learning, the arts and sciences, and to promote the public welfare, by providing for the conveyance, holding, and protection of property, and the creation of trusts for the founding, endowment, erection, and maintenance within this state of universities, colleges, schools, seminaries of learning, mechanical institutes, museums, and galleries of art," approved March 9, 1885, concerning the resignation, relinquishment or surrender of rights, powers, privileges and duties reserved to or vesting in the founder or founders, surviving founder, or wife or widow of any founder, of any institution created or founded under or pursuant to said act, and concerning the assumption and exercise of powers and duties by the trustee or trustees of such institution.

[Approved March 13, 1903. Stats. 1903, p. 140.]

§ 1. The founder or founders, surviving founder, or wife or widow of any founder, of a university, college, school, seminary of learning, mechanical institute, museum, gallery of art, library or any other institution, or any or all thereof, founded under or pursuant to an act entitled "An act to advance learning, the arts and sciences, and to promote the public welfare, by providing for the conveyance, holding, and protection of property, and the creation of trusts for the founding, endowment, erection, and maintenance within this state of universities, colleges, schools, seminaries of learning, mechanical institutes, museums, and galleries of art," approved March 9, 1885, may, by an instrument in writing, resign, relinquish and surrender all the rights, powers, privileges and duties reserved to or vesting in such founder or founders, surviving founder, or wife or widow of such founder, over, in, or concerning any of the property granted or given to such institution or institutions, or over or concerning any such institution or institutions so founded, and thereupon all estates, rights, powers, privileges, trusts and duties which would otherwise vest in or devolve upon the trustee or trustees of the trusts and estates created for the founding, endowment and maintenance of any such institution or institutions upon the death of the person or persons so resigning, relinquishing and surrendering, by the terms of the grant founding the institution or institutions, and amendments thereof, and by the terms of any grants, gifts, bequests, and devises supplementary thereto, or of any confirmatory grants, shall immediately vest in and devolve upon such trustee or trustees. Nothing herein contained shall prevent such person or persons so resigning, relinquishing and surrendering such rights, powers, privileges, or duties from thereafter becoming and serving as one of such trustees, or from becoming and serving as an officer of any board of such trustees.

§ 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

ACT 4165.

An act to provide for proceedings for the ascertainment of the existence and terms of, and for the determination of the validity and legal effect of grants or other instruments creating, changing or affecting trusts and estates for the founding, endowment and maintenance of a university, college, school, seminary of learning, mechanical institute, museum, gallery of art, or library, or any other institution, or any or all thereof, under or pursuant to an act entitled "An act to advance learning, the arts and sciences, and to promote the public welfare, by providing for the conveyance, holding, and protection of property, and the creation of trusts for the founding, endowment, erection, and maintenance within this state of universities, colleges, schools, seminaries of learning, mechanical institutes, museums, and galleries of art," approved March 9, 1885, or under or pursuant to an act entitled "An act to encourage and provide for the dissemination of a knowledge of the arts, sciences, and general literature, and the founding, maintaining, and perpetuating public libraries, museums, and galleries of art, and the receipt of donations and contributions thereto when established; for the conveyance, holding and protection of real property within this state suitable for the purposes herein designated, and the erection thereon of buildings appropriate to such purposes, and for the creation of trusts necessary or proper for the better preservation of such institutions, and the control and management thereof," approved March 5, 1887.

[Approved February 10, 1903. Stats. 1903, p. 9.]

§ 1. The trustee or trustees of any trust or trusts heretofore or hereafter created for the founding, endowment and maintenance of a university, college, school, seminary of learning, mechanical institute, museum, gallery of art, library or other institution, or any or all thereof, under or pursuant to an act entitled "An act to advance learning, the arts and sciences, and to promote the public welfare, by providing for the conveyance, holding, and protection of property, and the creation of trusts for the founding, endowment, erection, and maintenance within this state of universities, colleges, schools, seminaries of learning, mechanical institutes, museums, and galleries of art," approved March 9, 1885, or under or pursuant to an act entitled "An act to encourage and provide for the dissemination of a knowledge of the arts, sciences, and general literature, and the founding, maintaining, and perpetuating public libraries, museums, and galleries of art, and the receipt of donations and contributions thereto when established; for the conveyance, holding and protection of real property within this state suitable for the purposes herein designated, and the erection thereon of buildings appropriate to such purposes, and for the creation of trusts necessary or proper for the better preservation of such institutions, and the control and management thereof," approved March 5, 1887, may commence a special proceeding in and by which may be determined all questions of law and fact affecting the existence of, and the due and voluntary execution and delivery, and the terms, validity and legal effect of the grant or grants founding the same, and of all amendments or attempted amendments thereof, and of any supplemental grants or gifts, and of any confirmatory conveyances, of the founder or founders, or surviving founder, or wife or widow of any such founder; and in and by which may be determined all questions of law and fact affecting the due and voluntary execution and delivery, and the validity and legal effect, of any gift or grant made in general terms for the benefit of the institution or institutions, or of any department thereof, or of any gift or grant made in general terms for the benefit of the institution or institutions, or of any department thereof, upon the trusts provided for in the grant founding the institution or institutions, and amendments thereof and grants, bequests and devises supplementary thereto; and in and by which may be determined all questions bearing upon the passing to the trustee or trustees of the legal title to the properties, real and personal, conveyed or attempted to be conveyed, so far as such property or the proceeds thereof, or any property acquired in exchange therefor or with proceeds thereof, may be described in the petition herein provided for, and the interest or title of the trustee or trustees in or to any such property described in such petition; and in and by which may be determined all questions of law and fact affecting the due and voluntary execution and delivery, and the validity and legal effect, of any grant or surrender by any such founder or founders, surviving founder, or wife or widow of any founder, to, or in favor of, such trustee or trustees, of any rights, powers, privileges or duties reserved to or vesting in any such person or persons over or concerning any property described in the petition herein provided for, or over or concerning any such institution or institutions so founded, which would otherwise vest in or devolve upon such trustee or trustees upon the death of the person or persons so granting or surrendering the same, and of any relinquishment or release by the founder or founders, surviving founder, or wife or widow of any founder, of any other such rights, powers, privileges, or duties so reserved to or vesting in any such person or persons. To this end the trustee or trustees of any trust hereinbefore referred to, in the name of the institution or institutions so founded, or in the name of the trustee or trustees of such institution or institutions, or in the name of the board of trustees of such institution or institutions, may file, in the superior court of the county in which the lands described in the founding grant or grants, or some lands described in the founding grant or grants, or some portion thereof, are situated, or, if no real estate has been granted as herein provided to such trustees, then in the county where the main part of any such institution or institutions is situated, a petition in writing, signed by counsel for such trustee or trustees, or by counsel for a majority thereof, which petition shall contain copies of all such grants, amendments, attempted amendments, supplemental grants, instruments of gift, confirmatory conveyances, and grants and instruments of surrender, relinquishment or release, hereinbefore mentioned or referred to, so far as known to such trustee or trustees; and the petition shall allege in general terms the due and voluntary execution and delivery, and the validity, of any and all of such instruments, copies of which are set out in the petition, and shall describe all property, real and personal, the legal title to which is held or claimed to be held by said trustee or trustees under or by virtue of any or all of such instruments, whether or not the same be the original property conveyed, the proceeds thereof, or re-invested proceeds; and the petition shall allege in general terms the estate or interest which the trustee or trustees have or claim in or to the property described; and the petition shall pray, in effect, that the court examine and determine all questions of law and fact affecting the due and voluntary execution and delivery, and the terms, validity and legal effect of all such instruments, copies of which are so set out in the petition; and that the court examine and determine all questions bearing upon the passing to the trustee or trustees, of the legal title to all the properties, real and personal, so conveyed or attempted to be conveyed, so far as the same or the proceeds thereof, or any property acquired in exchange therefor or with the proceeds thereof, may be described in said petition; and that the court examine and determine the interest or title of the trustee or trustees in or to any such property; and that it be established and determined that the trustee or trustees are rightfully vested with the legal title thereto.

§ 2. The court or judge shall fix the time for the hearing of said petition, and shall order the clerk of the court to post in at least three public places in the county a notice of the filing of said petition, attached to a copy of said petition, and order a copy of such notice together with a copy of the petition to be personally served upon the founder or founders, if living, and upon the surviving wife or widow of any founder, and upon any living grantor or donor of any other grant or gift set out in the petition, and may order such other or further notice to be given as the judge or court may deem proper. Such notice shall be posted and served at least ten days before the hearing. If the court or judge finds upon the hearing that due and proper notice has not been given as herein provided, it shall reset the hearing and cause such due and proper notice to be given. The notice and petition shall be entitled substantially in the following form:

In the superior court of the ——— county of ———, state of Cal

In the matter of the petition of ——— (giving the name or name which the petition is brought) for the ascertainment of the exact and terms of, and for the determination of the validity and legal effect of grants or other instruments creating, changing or affecting trust estates for the founding, endowment and maintenance of ——— (naming the institution or institutions founded).

The notice shall state the time and place fixed for the hearing of the petition and shall be addressed to the founder or founders, living or to the surviving wife or widow of any founder, and the living grantor or donor of any other grant or gift set out in the petition, and in general terms to all other persons having or claiming any interest in, or rights, powers, or duties over or concerning the property described in the petition; and shall direct that they and each of such persons appear and answer said petition on or before the time set for said hearing; and shall state that unless said persons so appear and demur or answer, the petitioners will apply to the court to grant the prayer of the petition and that each person failing to so appear and answer, shall be deemed to admit as true all the material allegations of the petition.

Any of the persons so required to be served, or any other persons interested may waive notice by written waiver filed with the clerk of the court.

§ 3. Any person interested in the determination of any of the questions presented by the petition may demur to or answer said petition and may set up any new matter affecting the determination of any such question. Any allegation of the petition or answer may be made upon information and belief. The provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure respecting the demurrer and the answer to a verified complaint, shall be applicable to the demurrer or answer to said petition. The persons so demurring to or answering said petition shall be the defendants to said special proceeding and the petitioners shall be the plaintiffs. Every material statement in the petition not specifically controverted by the answer must, for the purposes of said special proceeding, be taken as true; and each person failing to answer the petition shall be deemed to admit as true all the material allegations of the petition. The rules of pleading and practice provided for by the Code of Civil Procedure, which are not inconsistent with the provisions of this act, are applicable to the special proceeding herein provided for.

§ 4. Upon the hearing of such special proceeding, the court shall have power and jurisdiction to examine into and determine all questions of law and fact within the scope of the proceeding herein provided for, whether presented by the petition or answer, or by the proofs upon the hearing.

The court shall find and determine whether the notice of the filing of said petition has been duly given for the time and in the manner in this act prescribed.

The costs of the special proceeding may be allowed and apportioned between all parties, in the discretion of the court.

§5. A certified copy of the judgment of the court in such special proceeding shall be recorded in the office of the recorder of the county in which the action is brought and in the office of the recorder of every county in which any of the real property affected is situated.

§6. The judgment of the court in such special proceeding shall be determinative of the terms and trusts upon which any property thereafter given for the benefit of such institution or institutions, or any department thereof, shall be held by such trustee or trustees, unless otherwise provided by the grantor or donor of such property.

§7. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

ACT 4166.

An act to define trust and to provide for criminal penalties and civil damages, and punishment of corporations, persons, firms, and associations, or persons connected with them, and to promote free competition in commerce and all classes of business in this state.

[Approved March 23, 1907. Stats. 1907, p. 984.]

Amended 1909, p. 593.

A trust defined. Exception.

§1. A trust is a combination of capital, skill or acts by two or more persons, firms, partnerships, corporations or associations of persons, or of any two or more of them for either, any or all of the following purposes:

1. To create or carry out restrictions in trade or commerce.
2. To limit or reduce the production, or increase the price of merchandise or of any commodity.
3. To prevent competition in manufacturing, making, transportation, sale or purchase of merchandise, produce or any commodity.
4. To fix at any standard or figure, whereby its price to the public or consumer shall be in any manner controlled or established, any article or commodity of merchandise, produce or commerce intended for sale, barter, use or consumption in this state.
5. To make or enter into or execute or carry out any contracts, obligations or agreements of any kind or description, by which they shall bind or have bound themselves not to sell, dispose of or transport any article or any commodity or any article of trade, use, merchandise, commerce or consumption below a common standard figure, or fixed value, or by which they shall agree in any manner to keep the price of such article, commodity or transportation at a fixed or graduated figure, or by which they shall in any manner establish or settle the price of any article, commodity or transportation between them or themselves and others, so as to directly or indirectly preclude a free and unrestricted competition among themselves, or any purchasers or consumers in the sale or transportation of any such article or commodity, or by which they shall agree to pool, combine or directly or indirectly unite any interests that they may have connected with the sale or transportation of any such article or commodity, that its price might in any manner be affected. Every such trust as is defined herein is declared to be unlawful, against public policy and void, provided that no agreement, combination or association shall be deemed to be unlawful or within the provisions of this act, the object and business of which are to conduct its operations at a reasonable profit or to market at a reasonable profit those products which cannot otherwise be so marketed, provided further, that it shall not be deemed to be unlawful, or within the provisions of this act, for persons, firms, or corporations, engaged in the business of selling or manufacturing commodities of a similar or like character, to employ, form, organize or own any interest in any association, firm or corporation, having as its object or purpose the transportation, marketing or delivery of such commodities. [Amendment approved March 20, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 593. In effect immediately.]

Violation of act.

§ 2. For a violation of any of the provisions of this act by any corporation or association mentioned herein, it shall be the duty of the attorney general or the district attorney of the proper county, to institute proper suits or quo warranto proceedings in any court of competent jurisdiction for the forfeiture of its charter rights, franchises or privileges and powers exercised by such corporation or association, and for the dissolution of the same under the general statutes of the state.

Agreements permitted.

§ 2½. It shall be lawful to enter into agreements or form associations or combinations, the purpose and effect of which shall be to promote, encourage or increase competition in any trade or industry, or which are in furtherance of trade. [New section approved March 20, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 594. In effect immediately.]

Foreign corporations amenable. Duty of secretary of state.

§ 3. Every foreign corporation, as well as every foreign association, exercising any of the powers, franchises or functions of a corporation in this state, violating any of the provisions of this act, is hereby denied the right and prohibited from doing any business in this state, and it shall be the duty of the attorney general to enforce this provision by bringing proper proceedings by injunction or otherwise. The secretary of state shall be authorized to revoke the license of any such corporation or association heretofore authorized by him to do business in this state.

Penalty for violation of act.

§ 4. Any violation of either or all of the provisions of this act shall be and is hereby declared a conspiracy against trade, and any person who may become engaged in any such conspiracy or take part therein, or aid or advise in its commission, or who shall as principal, manager, director, agent, servant or employee, or in any other capacity, knowingly carry out any of the stipulations, purposes, prices, rates, or furnish any information to assist in carrying out such purposes, or orders thereunder or in pursuance thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty ($50) dollars nor more than five thousand ($5,000) dollars, or be imprisoned not less than six months nor more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Each day's violation of this provision shall constitute a separate offense.

What indictment must set out.

§ 5. In any indictment, information or complaint for any offense named in this act, it is sufficient to state the purpose or effects of the trust or combination, and that the accused is a member of, acted with or in pursuance of it, or aided or assisted in carrying out its purposes, without giving its name or description, or how, when and where it was created.

Prosecutions, what to prove. Books and papers must be produced when ordered.

§ 6. In prosecutions under this act, it shall be sufficient to prove that a trust or combination, as defined herein, exists, and that the defendant belonged to it, or acted for or in connection with it, without proving all the members belonged to it, or proving or producing any article of agreement, or any written instrument on which it may have been based; or that it was evidenced by any written instrument at all. The character of the trust or combination alleged may be established by proof of its general reputation as such. In case any court of record, or in vacation any judge of said court in which is pending any civil, criminal or other action or proceeding brought or prosecuted by the attorney general or any district attorney for the violation of any of the provisions of this act or in any action or proceeding for the violation of the law of this state, against conspiracy or combination in restraint of trade so orders, no person so ordered shall be excused from attending, testifying or producing books, papers, schedules, contracts, agreements or any other document in obedience to the subpoena or under the order of such court or any commissioner or referee appointed by said court to take testimony or any notary public or other person or officer authorized by the laws of this state to take depositions when the order made by such court or judge thereof includes a witness whose deposition is being taken before such notary public or other officer on the ground or for the reason that the testimony or evidence required of him may tend to criminate him or subject him to any penalty; but no individual shall be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty for or on account of any transaction, matter or thing concerning which he may so testify or produce evidence, documentary or otherwise, before any such court, person or officer.

Penalty, after notice by attorney general.

§ 7. Each and every firm, person, partnership, corporation, or association of persons, who shall in any manner violate any of the provisions of this act, shall be for each and every day that such violations shall be committed or continued, after due notice given by the attorney general or any district attorney, forfeit and pay the sum of fifty ($50) dollars, which may be recovered in the name of the people of the state of California, in any county where the offense is committed, or where either of the offenders resides; and it shall be the duty of the attorney general, or the district attorney of any county on the order of the attorney general to prosecute for the recovery of the same. When the action is prosecuted by the attorney general against a corporation or association of persons, he may begin the action in the supreme court of the county in which defendant resides or does business.

Contracts in violation of act void.

§ 8. That any contract or agreement in violation of the provisions of this act, shall be absolutely void and shall not be enforceable either in law or equity.

Provisions cumulative.

§ 9. That the provisions hereof shall be held cumulative of each other and of all other laws in any way affecting them now in force in this state.

Trust certificates not lawful.

§ 10. It shall not be lawful for any person, partnership, association or corporation, or any agent thereof, to issue or to own trust certificates, or for any person, partnership, association or corporation, agent, officer, or employee, or the directors or stockholders of any corporation, to enter into any combination, contract or agreement with any person or persons, corporation, or corporations, or with any stockholder or director thereof, the purpose and effect of which combination, contract or agreement shall be to place the management or control of such combination or combinations, or the manufactured product thereof, in the hands of any trustee or trustees with the intent to limit or fix the price or lessen the production and sale of any article of commerce, use or consumption, or to prevent, restrict or diminish the manufacture or output of any such article, and any person, partnership, association or corporation that shall enter into any such combination, contract or agreement for the purpose aforesaid shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not less than fifty dollars, nor more than five thousand dollars.

Persons injured in business by trust may sue.

§ 11. In addition to the criminal and civil penalties herein provided, any person who shall be injured in his business or property by any other person or corporation or association or partnership, by reason of anything forbidden or declared to be unlawful by this act, may sue therefor in any court having jurisdiction thereof in the county where the defendant resides or is found, or any agent resides or is found, or where service may be obtained, without respect to the amount in controversy, and to recover twofold the damages by him sustained, and the costs of suit. Whenever it shall appear to the court before which any proceedings under this act may be pending, that the ends of justice require that other parties shall be brought before the court, the court may cause them to be made parties defendant and summoned, whether they reside in the county where such action is pending, or not.

"Person" defined.

§ 12. The word "person" or "persons" whenever used in this act, shall be deemed to include corporations, partnerships and associations existing under or authorized by the laws of this state or any other state, or any foreign country.

Labor not a commodity.

§ 13. Labor whether skilled or unskilled is not a commodity within the meaning of this act. [New section approved March 20, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 594. In effect immediately.]

University to control fund absolutely.

§4. The money paid into the said "state university fund" is hereby appropriated, without reference to fiscal years, for the use and support of the University of California, and is exempted from the provisions of Part III, Title I, Article XVIII, of an act entitled "An act to establish a Political Code," approved March twelfth, eighteen hundred and seventy-two, relating to the board of examiners. When there is any money in the said fund, the same may be drawn out upon the order of the board of regents of the University of California, or such officers of the board as may be duly authorized thereto. Upon the receipt of the order, the controller must draw his warrant upon the state treasurer, payable to the order of the treasurer of the University of California, out of the said "state university fund."

How moneys must be applied.

§5. The money derived from said fund must be applied only to the support and permanent improvement of the university; provided, however, that not less than one-fourth of the revenues raised hereunder, during each of the first ten fiscal years after this act takes effect, shall be placed in a fund to be known and designated as the permanent building fund and which said fund must be devoted solely to the purposes of building, furnishing and equipping permanent buildings and providing permanent improvements for the university. The board of regents must include in its biennial report to the governor the statement of the manner and for what purposes all of the moneys referred to and raised under this act were expended.

Certain acts repealed.

[Approved March 23, 1907. Stats. 1907, p. 919.]

Board of examiners in veterinary medicine. Term of office. Removals.

§ 1. That there be, and is hereby, created a board of examiners in veterinary medicine, to be appointed by the governor of the state of California, which shall consist of five reputable practitioners of veterinary medicine who shall have graduated from some college authorized by law to confer degrees, each of whom shall have been a bona fide resident of said state for three years last past before appointment, and each, during said period, shall have been actually engaged in the practice of his profession in said state. The appointments first made shall be one for one year, one for two years, one for three years, and two for four years, and thereafter appointments shall be made for a period of four years, except appointments to fill vacancies, in which case the appointments shall be made for the remainder of the unexpired terms; provided, that the governor may, in his judgment, remove any member of said board for neglect of duty or other sufficient cause, after due notice and hearing.

Organization of board. Official records. Bonds of officers.

§ 2. That the said board of examiners in veterinary medicine shall elect a president, vice-president, secretary, and such other officers as shall be necessary. The secretary of said board shall have power to administer oaths or affirmations upon such matters as pertain to the business of said board, and any person willfully making any false oath or affirmation shall be deemed guilty of perjury; and said board shall make, alter, or amend, subject to the approval of the governor, such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this act, and shall hold such meetings as shall be necessary for the transaction of business, and shall issue all licenses to practice veterinary medicine in the state of California. Said board shall keep an official record of its meetings, and also an official register of all applicants for licenses, which register shall show the name, age, place, and duration of residence of each applicant, the time spent in the study of veterinary medicine in and out of medical schools, and the names and locations of all medical schools which have granted said applicant any degree or certificate of attendance upon lectures, and it shall also show whether said applicant was rejected or licensed under this act, and said register shall be prima facie evidence of all matters contained therein. The board shall have the power to require any or all officers of said board to give a bond to the state of California in such form and penalty as it may deem proper. The said board shall in the month of July in each year submit to the governor a full report of its transactions during the twelve months immediately preceding.

Applications for license to practice. Application fee. Examinations.

§ 3. That from and after the passage of this act all persons desiring to practice veterinary medicine or any branch thereof in the state of California, or who shall desire to hold themselves out to the public as practicing veterinary medicine or any branch thereof in the state of California, shall make application to said board of examiners in veterinary medicine for a license so to do. Application for this purpose shall be upon a form furnished by said board, and shall be accompanied by satisfactory evidence of good moral character, and by a diploma from some veterinary college authorized by law to confer the same, which college shall require at least two sessions of study of veterinary medicine of not less than six months each prior to the issue of such diploma, and graduates of two-year colleges shall accompany their diplomas by satisfactory evidence that they have practiced veterinary medicine for five years last past subsequent to the issue of such diplomas. Every person applying to the board of examiners in veterinary medicine for a license to practice veterinary medicine shall pay to the board a fee of ten dollars, which fee in no case shall be refunded, and from the fund thus created the board shall pay such necessary expenses as it may incur. Such expenses shall not exceed in any one fiscal year the amount of fees collected during that period, but if any balance remain after paying all such expenses it shall be paid into the state school fund, except as hereinabove provided. Said board shall, by means of examinations, ascertain the professional qualifications of all applicants for license to practice veterinary medicine in said state, and shall issue such licenses to all who are found by such examinations to be, in the judgment of said board, competent to so practice; and no such license shall be issued to any person who has not so demonstrated his competence, except as hereinafter otherwise provided. Such examinations shall be held in January, April, July, and October of each year, and shall include all such subjects as are ordinarily included in the curricula of veterinary colleges in good standing, but examinations may be held at such other times and include such other subjects as said board shall authorize and direct. Said board shall number consecutively all applications received, note upon each the disposition made of it, and preserve the same for reference, and shall number consecutively all licenses issued.

Arrangements with boards of other states.

§ 4. That said board of examiners, so far as may be possible, shall make arrangements with analogous boards of the several states and terriories whereby due credit for state and territorial licenses will be allowed in the state of California to such licentiates of said boards as desire to secure licenses to practice veterinary medicine in this state, and whereby licentiates of the board of examiners in veterinary medicine in the state of California will secure due credit for licenses issued by said board whenever such licentiates desire to secure licenses to practice veterinary medicine in any state or territory; but no arrangements shall be made under the provisions of this section which will be liable to lower the standard of practice of veterinary medicine in the state of California, and no arrangement for the mutual recognition of licenses shall be valid until it has been approved by the governor of the state of California.

Appeal of applicant when license has been refused. Board of review.

§ 5. That any person having been examined by said board of examiners in veterinary medicine and having been refused a license as the result of such examination may, within thirty days after formal notification of such refusal, appeal from the decision of said board. Such appeal must be in writing, addressed to the governor of the state of California, setting forth the ground upon which it is based, and accompanied by a deposit of thirty dollars. If, after examination of said appeal, the governor deem it proper, he shall appoint a board of review, consisting of three practitioners of veterinary medicine having qualifications similar to those required of members of the regular board of examiners in veterinary medicine, which board shall review the examination of appellant, and if they deem necessary re-examine him and report their finding to the governor; and such finding shall be final and binding upon all parties concerned, and if favorable to the appellant the board of examiners in veterinary medicine shall issue to him a license to practice veterinary medicine in said state. Each member of said board of review shall be paid a fee of not more than ten dollars for each candidate examined, payment to be made from the deposit of the appellant if the finding is adverse to him, but otherwise from the funds of the board of examiners. If favorable, the amount deposited shall be returned to the appellant.

License must be displayed.

§ 6. That every person practicing veterinary medicine in the state of California, or representing himself or permitting himself to be represented as so practicing, shall display or cause to be displayed conspicuously in his usual place of business his license to practice in said state. Said place of business shall, during all reasonable hours, be open to inspection by any representative of the police department or of the board of examiners in veterinary medicine of said state, so far as may be necessary to examine such licenses, and it shall be unlawful for any person to interfere with any inspection made or intended to be made for this purpose.

Practicing veterinarian defined.

§ 7. That from and after the passage of this act any person shall be regarded as practicing veterinary medicine in the state of California who shall, in said state, append or cause to be appended to his name the letters V. S., D. V. M., V. M. D., M. D. V., M. D. C., D. V. S., or M. R. C. V. S., or the words "veterinary," "veterinarian," "veterinary surgeon," or "veterinary dentist," "veterinary farrier," "veterinary horse-shoer," "horse dentist," or "horse doctor," or who shall prescribe, advise, or apply any drug or medicine or other agency, or who shall perform any operation for the treatment, relief, or cure of any sick, diseased, or injured lower animal, or for commercial purposes, or who shall publicly profess to do any of these things, and shall charge or receive therefor money or other compensation, directly or indirectly; provided, nothing in this act shall be construed to prohibit members of the medical profession from prescribing for domestic animals in case of emergency, and collecting a fee therefor, nor to prohibit gratuitous services in an emergency, nor to prevent any person from practicing veterinary medicine on any animal belonging to himself or herself.

Present rights not affected.

§ 8. That this act shall not affect the rights under the laws of the state of California of veterinarians to practice veterinary medicine who have lawful rights to practice veterinary medicine at the time of the passage of this act; and provided further, that this act shall not apply to veterinary surgeons in the employ of the United States army, nor to regularly licensed veterinarians in actual consultation from other states, nor to regularly licensed veterinarians actually called from other states to attend cases in the state of California, but who do not open an office or appoint a place to do business within said state, nor to employees of licensed veterinarians legally qualified to practice as such under the provisions of this act.

License may be suspended or revoked, when.

§ 9. That the board of examiners in veterinary medicine hereby created may, by a vote of four members, revoke or suspend for a certain time the license of any person to practice veterinary medicine or any branch thereof in the state of California after notice and hearing, for any of the following causes, namely: The employment of fraud or deception in passing the examinations or in obtaining a license, chronic inebriety, or conviction of crime involving moral turpitude. The form of complaint, the form and length of notice, and the time and procedure of hearing charges against any licensee for any of the above causes shall be as near as possible according to the provisions of Title XI of the Code of Civil Procedure and the president of the board shall sign all papers, writs and process.

Violation of act a misdemeanor.

§ 10. That any person who shall violate or aid or abet in violating any of the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than two hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Quorum of board.

§11. That three members of the board of examiners in veterinary medicine in the state of California shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the board, except as provided in section 9 of this act.

§12. That this act shall take effect immediately, and all laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

in connection with and in addition to the work heretofore carried on by the agricultural experiment station, experimental and research work in the field of viticulture, including both cultural and industrial processes. They are directed to ascertain the adaptation of the various kinds of vines to the several climatic and soil conditions of the state, with the special reference to those stocks for propagating purposes, resistant to the phylloxera, and to further their adaptability and utility as grafting stocks for producing wine, raisin and table grapes. They are directed to ascertain the best methods of grafting and propagating said stocks and vines, together with the most important methods of vinification and the preparation, manufacture and application of yeasts in vinification and distillation. They are further directed to report upon the utilization of the by-products of the vineyard and winery, the study and treatment of the vine diseases and all matters appertaining to the viticultural industry, pertinent to the successful conduct of the business and that may be of general public interest, use and profit. They are further directed to publish the result of said experiments and investigations in form of bulletins from time to time, as may seem advisable, and not less than two bulletins showing the progress and result of the work, shall be issued in any fiscal year.

ACT 4319.

An act concerning warehouse receipts, and the issuing, sale and transfer thereof, and the sale of goods, wares and merchandise stored in public or private warehouses in other states.

[Approved March 20, 1905. Stats. 1905, p. 322.]

See Civil Code, §§ 1858-1858f. See, also, Act of 1909, p. 437, regulating warehouse receipts, post, Act 4820.

§1. That it shall be unlawful for any corporation, firm or person, their agents or employees, to issue, sell, pledge, assign or transfer in this state, any receipt, certificate or other written instrument purporting to be a warehouse receipt, or in the similitude of a warehouse receipt, or designed to be understood as a warehouse receipt, for goods, wares or merchandise stored or deposited, or claimed to be stored or deposited, in any warehouse, public or private, in any other state, unless such receipt, certificate or other written instrument, shall have been issued by the warehousemen operating such warehouse.

§2. It shall be unlawful for any corporation, firm or person, their agents or employees, to issue, sell, pledge, assign or transfer in this state, any receipt, certificate or other written instrument for goods, wares or merchandise claimed to be stored or deposited, in any warehouse, public or private, in any other state, knowing that there is no such warehouse located at the place named in such receipt, certificate or other written instrument, or if there be a warehouse at such place, knowing that there are no goods, wares or merchandise stored or deposited therein as specified in such report, certificate or other written instrument.

§3. It shall be unlawful for any corporation, firm or person, their agents or employees, to issue, sign, sell, pledge, assign or transfer, in this state, any receipt, certificate or other written instrument evidencing, or purporting to evidence, the sale, pledge, mortgage or bailment of any goods, wares or merchandise stored or deposited, or claimed to be stored or deposited, in any warehouse, public or private, in any other state, unless such receipt, certificate or other written instrument shall plainly designate the number and location of such warehouse, and shall also set forth therein a full, true and complete copy of the receipt issued by the warehouseman operating such warehouse wherein such goods, wares or merchandise are stored or deposited, or are claimed to be stored or deposited: Provided, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to the issue, signing, sale, pledge, assignment or transfer of bona fide warehouse receipts issued by the warehouseman operating public or bonded warehouses in other states, according to the laws of the state wherein such warehouses may be located.

§ 4. Every corporation, firm or person, or agent, or employee, who shall knowingly violate any of the provisions of this act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined in any sum not less than fifty nor more than one thousand dollars, to which may be added imprisonment in the county jail for any period not exceeding six months.

ACT 4320.

An act to make uniform the law of warehouse receipts.

[Approved March 19, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 437.]

Receipts, who may issue.

§ 1. Warehouse receipts may be issued by any warehouseman.

What receipt must embody. Liability for omission.

§ 2. Warehouse receipts need not be in any particular form, but every such receipt must embody within its written or printed terms—

- (a) The location of the warehouse where the goods are stored,
- (b) The date of issue of the receipt,
- (c) The consecutive number of the receipt,
- (d) A statement whether the goods received will be delivered to the bearer, or to a specified person, or to a specified person or his order,
- (e) The rate of storage charges,
- (f) A description of the goods or of the packages containing them.
- (g) The signature of the warehouseman, which may be made by his authorized agent,
- (h) If the receipt is issued for goods of which the warehouseman is owner, either solely or jointly or in common with others, the fact of such ownership, and
- (i) A statement of the amount of advances made and of liabilities incurred for which the warehouseman claims a lien. If the precise amount of such advances made or of such liabilities incurred is, at the time of the issue of the receipt, unknown to the warehouseman or to his agent who issues it, a statement of the fact that advances have been made or liabilities incurred and the purpose thereof is sufficient.

A warehouseman shall be liable to any person injured thereby, for all damage caused by the omission from a negotiable receipt of any of the terms herein required.

Insertion of other conditions.

§ 3. A warehouseman may insert in a receipt, issued by him, any other terms and conditions, provided that such terms and conditions shall not—

(a) Be contrary to the provisions of this act.

(b) In anywise impair his obligation to exercise that degree of care in the safekeeping of the goods intrusted to him which a reasonably careful man would exercise in regard to similar goods of his own.

Non-negotiable receipt.

§ 4. A receipt in which it is stated that the goods received will be delivered to the depositor, or to any other specified person, is a non-negotiable receipt.

Negotiable receipt.

§ 5. A receipt in which it is stated that the goods received will be delivered to the bearer, or to the order of any person named in such receipt is a negotiable receipt. No provision shall be inserted in a negotiable receipt that is non-negotiable. Such provision, if inserted, shall be void.

Duplicates shall be so marked.

§ 6. When more than one negotiable receipt is issued for the same goods, the word "duplicate" shall be plainly placed upon the face of every such receipt, except the one first issued. A warehouseman shall be liable for all damage caused by his failure so to do anyone who purchased the subsequent receipt for value supposing it to be an original, even though the purchase be after the delivery of the goods by the warehouseman to the holder of the original receipt.

Non-negotiable shall be marked.

§ 7. A non-negotiable receipt shall have plainly placed upon its face by the warehouseman issuing it, "non-negotiable," or "not negotiable." In case of the warehouseman's failure so to do, a holder of the receipt who purchased it for value supposing it to be negotiable, may, at his option, treat such receipt as imposing upon the warehouseman the same liabilities he would have incurred had the receipt been negotiable.

This section shall not apply, however, to letters, memoranda, or written acknowledgments of an informal character.

Rights of holder of receipt.

§ 8. A warehouseman, in the absence of some lawful excuse provided by this act, is bound to deliver the goods upon a demand made either by the holder of a receipt for the goods or by the depositor, if such demand is accompanied with—

(a) An offer to satisfy the warehouseman's lien,

(b) An offer to surrender the receipt if negotiable, with such indorsements as would be necessary for the negotiation of the receipt, and

(c) A readiness and willingness to sign, when the goods are delivered, an acknowledgment that they have been delivered, if such signature is requested by the warehouseman.

In case the warehouseman refuses or fails to deliver the goods in compliance with a demand by the holder or depositor so accompanied, the burden shall be upon the warehouseman to establish the existence of a lawful excuse for such refusal.

When warehouseman justified in delivering goods.

§ 9. A warehouseman is justified in delivering the goods subject to the provisions of the three following sections, to one who is—

(a) The person lawfully entitled to the possession of the goods, or his agent,

(b) A person who is either himself entitled to delivery by the terms of a non-negotiable receipt issued for the goods, or who has written authority from the person so entitled either indorsed upon the receipt or written upon another paper, or

(c) A person in possession of a negotiable receipt by the terms of which the goods are deliverable to him or order or to bearer, or which has been indorsed to him or in blank by the person to whom delivery was promised by the terms of the receipt or by his mediate or immediate indorsee.

When warehouseman liable.

§ 10. Where a warehouseman delivers the goods to one who is not in fact lawfully entitled to the possession of them, the warehouseman shall be liable as for conversion to all having a right of property or possession in the goods if he delivered the goods otherwise than as authorized by subdivisions (b) and (c) of the preceding section and though he delivered the goods as authorized by said subdivision he shall be so liable, if prior to such delivery he had either

(a) Been requested, by or on behalf of the person lawfully entitled to a right of property or possession in the goods, not to make such delivery, or

(b) Had information that the delivery about to be made was to one not lawfully entitled to the possession of the goods.

Same.

§ 11. Except as provided in section 36, where a warehouseman delivers goods for which he had issued a negotiable receipt, the negotiation of which would transfer the right to the possession of the goods, and fails to take up and cancel the receipt, he shall be liable to anyone who purchases for value in good faith such receipt, for failure to deliver the goods to him, whether such purchaser acquired title to the receipt before or after the delivery of the goods by the warehouseman.

Same.

§ 12. Except as provided in section 36, where a warehouseman delivers part of the goods for which he had issued a negotiable receipt and fails either to take up and cancel such receipt, or to place plainly upon a statement of what goods or packages have been delivered he shall be liable, to anyone who purchases for value in good faith such receipt, for failure to deliver all the goods specified in the receipt, whether the purchaser acquired title to the receipt before or after the delivery of any portion of the goods by the warehouseman.

Alteration of receipt, no excuse from liability. Fraudulent alteration

§ 13. The alteration of a receipt shall not excuse the warehouseman who issued it from any liability if such alteration was

- (a) Immaterial,
- (b) Authorized, or
- (c) Made without fraudulent intent.

If the alteration was authorized, the warehouseman shall be liable according to the terms of the receipt as altered. If the alteration was unauthorized, but made without fraudulent intent, the warehouseman shall be liable according to the terms of the receipt, as they were before alteration.

Material and fraudulent alteration of a receipt shall not excuse the warehouseman who issued it from liability to deliver, according to the terms of the receipt as originally issued, the goods for which it was issued, but shall excuse him from any other liability to the person who made the alteration and to any person who took with notice of the alteration. Any purchaser of the receipt for value without notice of the alteration shall acquire the same rights against the warehouseman which such purchaser would have acquired if the receipt had not been altered at the time of the purchase.

Delivery when receipt is lost, how.

§ 14. Where a negotiable receipt has been lost or destroyed, a court of competent jurisdiction may order the delivery of the goods upon satisfactory proof of such loss or destruction and upon the giving of a bond with sufficient sureties to be approved by the court to protect the warehouseman from any liability or expense, which he or any person by such delivery may incur by reason of the original receipt remaining outstanding. The court may also in its discretion order the payment of the warehouseman's reasonable costs and counsel fees.

The delivery of the goods under an order of the court as provided in this section, shall not relieve the warehouseman from liabilities to a person to whom the negotiable receipt has been or shall be negotiated for value without notice of the proceedings or of the delivery of the goods.

Word "duplicate" is warranty.

§ 15. A receipt upon the face of which the word "duplicate" is plainly placed is a representation and warranty by the warehouseman that such receipt is an accurate copy of an original receipt properly issued and uncanceled at the date of the issue of the duplicate, but shall impose upon him no other liability.

Title of warehouseman.

§ 16. No title or right to the possession of the goods, on the part of the warehouseman, unless such title or right is derived directly or indirectly from a transfer made by the depositor at the time of or subsequent to the deposit for storage, or from the warehouseman's lien, shall excuse the warehouseman from liability for refusing to deliver the goods according to the terms of the receipt.

Claimants may interplead.

§ 17. If more than one person claim the title or possession of the goods, the warehouseman may, either as a defense to an action brought against him for nondelivery of the goods, or as an original suit, whichever is appropriate, require all known claimants to interplead.

Refusal to deliver, excuse from liability.

§ 18. If some one other than the depositor or person claiming under him has a claim to the title or possession of the goods, and the warehouseman has information of such claim, the warehouseman shall be excused from liability for refusing to deliver the goods, either to the depositor or person claiming under him or to the adverse claimant, until the warehouseman has had a reasonable time to ascertain the validity of the adverse claim or to bring legal proceedings to compel all claimants to interplead. If such adverse claimant shall not bring suit and serve summons on the warehouseman within forty-eight hours after the service of notice of his adverse claim, such failure shall act as a complete abandonment of such adverse claim.

Rights of third persons.

§ 19. Except as provided in the two preceding sections and in sections 9 and 36, no right or title of a third person shall be a defense to an action brought by the depositor or person claiming under him against the warehouseman for failure to deliver the goods according to the terms of the receipt.

Goods must correspond with description.

§ 20. A warehouseman shall be liable to the holder of a receipt for damages caused by the nonexistence of the goods or by the failure of the goods to correspond with the description thereof in the receipt at the time of its issue. If, however, the goods are described in a receipt merely by a statement of marks or labels upon them, or upon packages containing them, or by a statement that the goods are said to be goods of a certain kind, or that packages containing the goods are said to contain goods of a certain kind, or by words of like purport, such statements, if true, shall not make liable the warehouseman issuing the receipt, although the goods are not of the kind which the marks or labels upon them indicate, or of the kind they were said to be by the depositor.

Injury to goods.

§ 21. A warehouseman shall be liable for any loss or injury to the goods caused by his failure to exercise such care in regard to them as provisions of this act; provided, that nothing contained in this section shall affect the title of a registered owner who has taken bona fide for a valuable consideration, or of any person bona fide claiming through or under him.

Clerk of court shall notify registrar of appeal.

§ 107. In case of an appeal from any proceeding under this act, or from any judgment, order, or decree affecting registered lands, the clerk of the court in which the notice of appeal is filed shall forthwith notify the registrar thereof, and thereupon the registrar shall enter upon the register a memorial of such appeal.

All fees collected by registrar to be paid to county treasurer and applied to expenses of administration of this act.

§ 108. All fees collected by the registrar under the provisions of this act shall be accounted for, paid, disbursed, and disposed of by him in the same manner that fees collected by him as county recorder are now or may hereafter be by law accounted for, paid, disbursed and disposed of. Should there be a surplus in any year, such surplus shall be carried into the general fund, and be subject to appropriation for any purpose. In case such fees shall not amount to the sum required for the administration of this act, the deficiency shall be paid from any funds in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Board of supervisors shall furnish registrar all necessary books, etc.

§ 109. All books, blanks, papers, and all things necessary for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this act, shall be furnished by the board of supervisors, at the expense of the county.

The attorney general, state controller, and secretary of state to prepare forms.

§ 110. The attorney general, state controller, and secretary of state shall prepare a uniform system of books, blanks, and forms for the use of the public officers required to perform duties under this act, and such forms, and none other, shall be used by such officers.

PENALTIES.

Fraudulent procurement of certificate, a felony.

§ 111. Whoever fraudulently procures, assists in fraudulently procuring, or is privy to the fraudulent procurement of any certificate of title or other instrument, or of any entry in the register or other book kept in the registrar's office, or of any erasure or alteration in any entry in any said book, or in any instrument authorized by this act, or knowingly defrauds or is privy to defrauding any person by means of a false or fraudulent instrument, certificate, statement, or affidavit affecting registered land, shall be guilty of a felony, and fined not exceeding five thousand dollars, or be imprisoned not exceeding five years nor less than one year, or either, or both, in the discretion of the court.

Forgery of a seal, signature, or instrument in registrar's office, a felony.

§ 112. Whoever (1) forges, or procures to be forged, or assists in forging the seal of the registrar, or the name, signature, or handwriting of any officer of the registry office in cases where such officer is expressly or impliedly authorized to affix his signature; or (2) fraudulently stamps, or procures to be stamped, or assists in stamping any document with any forged seal of said registrar; or (3) forges, or procures to be forged, or assists in forging the name, signature, or handwriting of any person whomsoever to any instrument which is expressly or impliedly authorized to be signed by such person; or (4) uses any document upon which any impression, or part of the impression, of any seal of said registrar has been forged, knowing the same to have been forged, or any document, the signature to which has been forged, knowing the same to have been forged; or (5) swears falsely concerning any matter or procedure made and done in pursuance of this act, shall be guilty of a felony, and imprisoned not exceeding ten years, nor less than one year, or fined not exceeding five thousand dollars, or both fined and imprisoned, in the discretion of the court.

No proceeding or conviction under this act shall affect any remedy at law or in equity.

§ 113. No proceeding or conviction for any act hereby declared to be a misdemeanor or a felony shall affect any remedy which any person aggrieved or injured by such act may be entitled to at law or in equity against the person who has committed such act, or against his estate, or against the registrar, or upon his bond.

FEEES.

Fees same as in similar cases under present laws, except as provided herein.

§ 114. First—The fees, in respect of applications and proceedings under them prior to registration, shall be the same as in actions in the superior court.

Second—There shall be paid to the registrar:

For issuing a certificate of title, including one duplicate thereof, one dollar and fifty cents.

For each additional duplicate, fifty cents.

For registering each transfer, including the issue and registration of the new certificate, one dollar and fifty cents.

For entry of each memorial on the register, including the indorsement upon the duplicate certificates, one dollar.

For the cancellation of each certificate, memorial, or charge, twenty-five cents.

For each certificate showing condition of register, one dollar and fifty cents.

For filing any instrument, or for a certified copy of the register, or of any instrument or writing on file in his office, the same fees allowed by law to recorders for like services.

CONSTRUCTION.

Act to be liberally construed. Construction of similar legislation elsewhere, not adopted.

§ 115. This act shall be construed liberally so far as may be necessary for the purpose of effecting its general intent, but does not adopt by implication the construction of any similar legislation of other jurisdictions which this act may to any extent have followed.

Act to take effect July 1, 1897.

ACT 4134.

An act to authorize the deposit of state moneys in banks in this state, and to repeal all acts or parts of acts in conflict with this act.

[Approved February 28, 1907. Stats. 1907, p. 67.]

Deposit of state moneys in banks. Security. Interest. Amount. Expense of transporting moneys.

§1. All moneys in the state treasury belonging to the state not immediately required to meet current expenditures may be deposited by the state treasurer to the credit of the state in such state or national bank, or banks, in the state, as the treasurer, with the approval of the governor and state controller, shall select for the safekeeping of such deposits, and any sum so deposited shall be deemed to be in the state treasury; provided, that the bank or banks in which such money is deposited shall furnish security as hereinafter provided, and provided further, that such depositary bank or banks be selected from those agreeing to pay the highest rate of interest, not less than two per cent per annum, for such deposits, as may be determined by bids to be submitted at such times and in such manner, as the treasurer, with the approval of the governor and state controller, shall direct; provided, that not more than one-tenth of the aggregate amount of state moneys available for deposit and on deposit shall be deposited in any one bank, and provided further, that such deposit shall not exceed twenty-five per cent of the paid-up capital, exclusive of reserve and surplus, of any depositary bank. Any and all bids may be rejected by the treasurer, with the approval of the governor and state controller, and new bids asked for. The expense of transportation of moneys to and from the state treasury to such depositaries shall be borne by such depositaries. Said deposits, with interest thereon, shall be subject to withdrawal at any time upon the demand of the state treasurer, or upon presentation of a certificate of deposit properly indorsed.

Interest, when payable. School moneys.

§2. The interest to be paid by any such depositary bank shall be on the average daily balances of the state moneys kept on deposit there-

Same.

§ 39. A receipt which is not in such form that it can be negotiated by delivery may be transferred by the holder by delivery to a purchaser or donee.

A non-negotiable receipt can not be negotiated, and the indorsement of such a receipt gives the transferee no additional right.

By whom may be negotiated.

§ 40. A negotiable receipt may be negotiated—

(a) By the owner thereof, or

(b) By any person to whom the possession or custody of the receipt has been intrusted by the owner, if, by the terms of the receipt, the warehouseman undertakes to deliver the goods to the order of the person to whom the possession or custody of the receipt has been intrusted, or if at the time of such intrusting the receipt is in such form that it may be negotiated by delivery.

What is acquired by negotiation.

§ 41. A person to whom a negotiable receipt has been duly negotiated acquires thereby—

(a) Such title to the goods as the person negotiating the receipt to him had or had ability to convey to a purchaser in good faith for value, and also such title to the goods as the depositor or person to whose order the goods were to be delivered by the terms of the receipt had or had ability to convey to a purchaser in good faith for value, and

(b) The direct obligation of the warehouseman to hold possession of the goods for him according to the terms of the receipt as fully as if the warehouseman had contracted directly with him.

What is acquired by transfer of receipt.

§ 42. A person to whom a receipt has been transferred but not negotiated, acquires thereby, as against the transferor, the title to the goods, subject to the terms of any agreement with the transferor.

If the receipt is non-negotiable such person also acquires the right to notify the warehouseman of the transfer to him of such receipt, and thereby to acquire the direct obligation of the warehouseman to hold possession of the goods for him according to the terms of the receipt.

Prior to the notification of the warehouseman by the transferor or transferee of a non-negotiable receipt, the title of the transferee to the goods and the right to acquire the obligation of the warehouseman may be defeated by the levy of an attachment or execution upon the goods by a creditor of the transferor, or by a notification to the warehouseman by the transferor or a subsequent purchaser from the transferor of a subsequent sale of the goods by the transferor.

Transferee acquires, what.

§ 43. Where a negotiable receipt is transferred for value by delivery, and the indorsement of the transferor is essential for negotiation, the transferee acquires a right against the transferor to compel him to in or banks, to be approved by the governor, controller and treasurer, to secure the state against loss by any depreciation in value that may occur in such bonds held by him as security for the safekeeping and prompt payment of the state moneys in such depositaries.

Treasurer not responsible for deposits.

§ 6. The state treasurer shall not be responsible for any moneys deposited in a bank or in banks under the provisions of this act while the same remain there deposited with the consent of the governor and controller; but the treasurer shall be chargeable with the safekeeping, management and disbursement of the bonds and certificates of deposit deposited with him as security for deposits of state moneys, and with the interest thereon, and the proceeds of any sale under the provisions of this act.

Certificates of deposit. Warrants paid by certificates.

§ 7. At the time of depositing state moneys in any bank designated as a depositary the treasurer shall take a certificate or certificates of deposits made payable to the treasurer of state in such sum or sums as he shall deem advisable. Such certificate or certificates of deposit in the possession of the treasurer shall be deemed and counted as cash by the state board of examiners. Controller's warrants drawn upon the state treasury may be paid by such certificates of deposit when properly indorsed by the treasurer the same as in cash.

Act of 1905 repealed.

§ 8. The act of March 20, 1905, entitled "An act to authorize the deposit of state moneys in banks in this state, and to repeal all acts or parts of acts in conflict with this act," and all other acts or parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby expressly repealed.

WATER COMMISSIONERS.

The Political Code, § 19, continued in force all acts creating or regulating boards of water commissioners and overseers in the several townships or counties of the state. For the act governing in any particular township or county, see the particular title. See, also, Acts 4364, 4365.

Privileges granted to founder.

§ 5. By a provision in such gift or grant, the founder may elect, in respect to the personal and real property conveyed, and the additions and increase thereof, and in respect to the erection, maintenance, and management of any buildings auxiliary thereto, and in respect to any property connected with such institution, to reserve to himself a veto and right of annulment or modification of any act of such trustees, in case he shall, within thirty days after notice of the performance of such act, file in the office of said trustees, or deliver to their president or principal officer, a notice in writing, of such veto, annulment, or modification, and upon a like notice, in conformity with a provision in such gift or grant, he may elect to perform during his life all the powers which, by the terms thereof, are vested in or enjoined upon the trustees therein named, and their successors; provided, that upon the death or disability to act of the founder and grantor, such powers and duties shall be devolved upon, and be exercised by, the trustees named in the gift or grant, and their successors. Such person may also reserve the right to alter, amend, or modify, at any time during his life, or by his last will and testament, the terms and conditions thereof, and the trust therein created in respect to such institution, its buildings, and the property conveyed therefor.

Election of officers and compensation.

§ 6. The founder shall have power in said deed of trust to name and describe the character and personality of any one or more of the immediate or future trustees, the librarian, and other officers, and to name and impose any particular duty to be performed by any one or more trustees or other officers so described and characterized, and to declare and limit any compensation, and fix the character and method of such compensation he may choose to provide for any such trustee or other officer whom the terms of his foundation may characterize, and upon whom specific or general duties shall be imposed.

Gift, how recorded.

§ 7. Any such gift or grant may be executed, acknowledged, and recorded in the manner now or hereafter provided by law for the execution, acknowledgment, and recording of grants of real property.

Time of commencing suit.

§ 8. No suit, action, or proceeding shall be commenced or maintained by any person to set aside, annul, or affect said gift, grant or conveyance, or to affect the title to the property conveyed, or the right to the possession or to the rents, issues, and profits thereof, unless the same be commenced within two years after the date of the filing of such grant for record.

Founder may bequeath to state of California.

§ 9. Any person, being the founder, making a gift or grant for any of the purposes mentioned in this act, may, at any time thereafter, by last will or testament, devise or bequeath to the state of California all or any of the property, real, and personal, mentioned in such gift or grant, or in any such supplemental thereto, and such devise or bequest shall take effect in case, from any cause whatever, the gift or grant shall be annulled or set aside, or the trusts therein declared shall for any reason fail. Such devise or bequest is hereby suffered to be made by way of assurance that the intentions of the grantor shall be carried out, and in the faith that the state, in case it shall succeed to the property, or any part thereof, will, to the extent and value of such property carry out, in respect to the objects and purposes of any such grant, all the wishes and intentions of the grantor.

Liberal construction of provisions.

§ 10. The provisions of this act shall be liberally construed, with a view to effect its objects and purposes, and the singular number in the construction thereof shall be deemed to include the plural, and the plural number shall be deemed to include the singular.

Universities, colleges, schools, etc.

§ 11. Nothing in this act shall repeal, modify, change, or have any effect upon any of the provisions of an act of the legislature of the state of California entitled "An act to advance learning, the arts and sciences, and to promote the public welfare by providing for the conveyance, holding, and protection of property, and the creation of trusts for the founding, endowment, erection, and maintenance, within this state, of universities, colleges, schools, seminaries of learning, mechanical institutes, museums, and galleries of art," approved March ninth, eighteen hundred and eighty-five.

§ 12. This act shall take effect immediately.

ACT 4163.

An act to advance learning, the arts and sciences, and to promote the public welfare, by providing for the conveyance, holding, and protection of property, and the creation of trusts for the founding, endowment, erection, and maintenance within this state of universities, colleges, schools, seminaries of learning, mechanical institutes, museums, and galleries of art.

Construction of act.

§ 1. The provisions of this act shall be liberally construed with a view to effect its objects and promote its purposes; and in the construction thereof the singular number shall be deemed to include the plural, and the plural shall be deemed to include the singular number, and the masculine gender shall be deemed to include the feminine.

Grant.

§2. Any person desiring in his lifetime to promote the public welfare by founding, endowing, and maintain[ing] within this state a university, college, school, seminary of learning, mechanical institute, museum, botanic garden, public park, or gallery of art, or any or all thereof, may, to the end and for such purpose, by grant in writing convey to a trustee, or any number of trustees, named in such grant (and to their successors), any property, real or personal, belonging to such person and situated or being within this state; provided, that if such person be married and the property be community property, then both husband and wife must join in such grant. [Amendment approved March 31, 1891. Stats. 1891, p. 454.]

Requisites.

§3. The person making such grant may therein designate:

1. The nature, object, and purposes of the institution or institutions to be founded, endowed, and maintained;

2. The name by which it or they shall be known;

3. The powers and duties of the trustees, and the manner in which they shall account, and to whom, if accounting be required; but such powers and duties shall not be held to be exclusive of other powers and duties which may be necessary to enable such trustees to fully carry out the objects of such grant;

4. The mode and manner, and by whom, the successors to the trustee or trustees named in the grant are to be appointed;

5. Such rules and regulations for the management of the property conveyed as the grantor may elect to prescribe; but such rules shall, unless the grantor otherwise prescribe, be deemed advisory only, and shall not preclude such trustees from making such changes as new conditions may from time to time require;

6. The place or places where and the time when the buildings necessary and proper for the institution or institutions shall be erected, and the character and extent thereof. The person making such grant may therein provide for all other things necessary and proper to carry out the purposes thereof, and especially may such person provide for the trades and professions which shall be taught in such institutions, and the terms upon which deserving scholars of the public and private schools of the various counties of this state may be admitted to all the privileges of such institutions, as a reward for meritorious conduct and good scholarship; and also for maintaining free scholarships for children of persons who have rendered service to or who have died in the service of this state; and also for maintaining free scholarships for children of mechanics, tradesmen, and laborers, who have died without leaving means sufficient to give such children a practical education, fitting them for the useful trades or arts; and also the terms and conditions upon which students in the public and private schools, and other deserving persons, may, without cost to themselves, attend the lectures of any university established; and also the terms and conditions upon which the museums, and art galleries, and conservatories of music, connected with any such institution, shall be open to all deserving persons without charge, and without their becoming students of the institution.

Actions by trustees.

§ 4. The trustee or trustees named in such grant, and their successors, may, in the name of the institution or institutions, as designated in such grant, sue and defend, in relation to the trust property, and in relation to all matters affecting the institution or institutions endowed and established by such grant.

Grantor as trustee.

§ 5. The person making such grant, by a provision therein, may elect, in relation to the property conveyed, and in relation to the erection, maintenance, and management of such institution or institutions, to perform, during his life, all the duties and exercise all the powers which, by the terms of the grant, are enjoined upon and vested in the trustee or trustees named. If the person making such grant, and making the election aforesaid, be a married person, such person may further provide that if the wife of such person survive him, then such wife, during her life, may, in relation to the property conveyed, and in relation to the erection, maintenance, and management of such institution or institutions, perform all the duties and exercise all the powers which, by the terms of the grant, are enjoined upon and vested in the trustee and trustees therein named, and in all such cases the powers and duties conferred and imposed by such grant upon the trustee or trustees therein named shall be exercised and performed by the person making such grant, or by his wife, during his or her life, as the case may be; provided, however, that upon the death of such person, or his surviving wife, as the case may be, such powers and duties shall devolve upon and shall be exercised by the trustees named in the grant, and their successors.

Amending grant.

§ 6. The person making such grant may therein reserve the right to alter, amend, or modify the terms and conditions thereof, and the trusts therein created, in respect to any of the matters mentioned or referred to in subdivisions 1 to 6, inclusive, of section 3 hereof; and may also therein reserve the right, during the life of such person or persons, of absolute dominion over the personal property conveyed, and also over the rents, issues, and profits of the real property conveyed, without liability to account therefor in any manner whatever, and without any liability over against the estate of such person; and if any such person be married, such person may, in said grant, further provide that if his wife survive him, then such wife, during her life, may have the same absolute dominion over such personal property, and such rents, issues, and profits, without liability to account therefor in any manner whatever, and without liability over against the estate of either of the spouses.

Custody of minors.

§ 7. The person making such grant may therein provide that the trustees named in the grant, and their successors, may, in the name of the institution or institutions, become the custodian of the person of minors, and when any such provision is made in a grant, the trustees and their successors may take such custody and control in the manner and for the time and in accordance with the provisions of sections 264 to 276, inclusive, of the Civil Code of the state of California.

Execution of grant.

§ 8. Any such grant may be executed, acknowledged, and recorded in the same manner as is now provided by law for the execution, acknowledgment, and recording of grants of real property.

Annulling suit.

§ 9. No suit, action, or proceeding shall be commenced or maintained by any person to set aside, annul, or affect said conveyance, or to affect the title to the property conveyed, or the right to the possession, or to the rents, issues, and profits thereof, unless the same be commenced within two years after the date of filing such grant for record; nor shall any defense be made to any suit, action, or proceedings commenced by the trustee or trustees named in said grant, or their successors, privies, or persons holding under them, which defense involves the legality of said grant, or affects the title to the property thereby conveyed, or the right to the possession, or the rents, issues, and profits thereof, unless such defense is made in a suit, action, or proceeding commenced within two years after such grant shall have been filed for record.

Exemption from execution.

§ 10. The property conveyed by such grant shall not, after a lapse of two years from the date of the filing for record of the grant, be subject to forced sale, under execution, or judicial proceedings of any kind, against the grantor or his privies, unless the action under which the execution shall be issued, or the proceedings under which the sale shall be ordered, shall have been commenced within two years after such grant shall have been filed for record. Nor shall such property be subject to execution or forced sale under any judgment obtained in any proceedings instituted within said two years, if there be other property of the grantor, subject to execution or forced sale sufficient to satisfy such judgment; provided, nothing in this section contained shall be construed to affect mechanics' or laborers' liens.

Bequest to state.

§ 11. Any person or persons making any such grant may, at any time thereafter, by last will or testament, devise and bequeath to the state of California all or any of the property, real and personal, mentioned in such grant, or in any supplemental grant, and such devise or bequest shall only take effect in case, from any cause whatever, the grant shall be annulled or set aside, or the trusts therein declared shall for any reason fail. Such devise and bequest is hereby permitted to be made by way of assurance that the wishes of the grantor or grantors shall be carried out, and in the faith that the state, in case it succeeds to the property, or any part thereof, will, to the extent and value of such property, carry out, in respect to the objects and purposes of any such grant, all the wishes and intentions of the grantor or grantors; provided, that no wish, direction, act, or condition expressed, made, or given by any grantor or grantors, under or by virtue of this act, as to religious instruction to be given in such school, college, seminary, mechanical institute, museum, or gallery of art, or in respect to the exercise of religious belief, on the part of any pupil or pupils of such school or institution of learning, shall be binding upon the state; nor shall the state enforce, or permit to be enforced or carried out, any such wish, direction, act, or condition.

§ 12. This act shall be in force from and after its passage.

ACT 4164.

An act supplemental to an act entitled "An act to advance learning, the arts and sciences, and to promote the public welfare, by providing for the conveyance, holding, and protection of property, and the creation of trusts for the founding, endowment, erection, and maintenance within this state of universities, colleges, schools, seminaries of learning, mechanical institutes, museums, and galleries of art," approved March 9, 1885, concerning the resignation, relinquishment or surrender of rights, powers, privileges and duties reserved to or vesting in the founder or founders, surviving founder, or wife or widow of any founder, of any institution created or founded under or pursuant to said act, and concerning the assumption and exercise of powers and duties by the trustee or trustees of such institution.

[Approved March 13, 1903. Stats. 1903, p. 140.]

§ 1. The founder or founders, surviving founder, or wife or widow of any founder, of a university, college, school, seminary of learning, mechanical institute, museum, gallery of art, library or any other institution, or any or all thereof, founded under or pursuant to an act entitled "An act to advance learning, the arts and sciences, and to promote the public welfare, by providing for the conveyance, holding, and protection of property, and the creation of trusts for the founding, endowment, erection, and maintenance within this state of universities, colleges, schools, seminaries of learning, mechanical institutes, museums, and galleries of art," approved March 9, 1885, may, by an instrument in writing, resign, relinquish and surrender all the rights, powers, privileges and duties reserved to or vesting in such founder or founders, surviving founder, or wife or widow of such founder, over, in, or concerning any of the property granted or given to such institution or institutions, or over or concerning any such institution or institutions so founded, and thereupon all estates, rights, powers, privileges, trusts and duties which would otherwise vest in or devolve upon the trustee or trustees of the trusts and estates created for the founding, endowment and maintenance of any such institution or institutions upon the death of the person or persons so resigning, relinquishing and surrendering, by the terms of the grant founding the institution or institutions, and amendments thereof, and by the terms of any grants, gifts, bequests, and devises supplementary thereto, or of any confirmatory grants, shall immediately vest in and devolve upon such trustee or trustees. Nothing herein contained shall prevent such person or persons so resigning, relinquishing and surrendering such rights, powers, privileges, or duties from thereafter becoming and serving as one of such trustees, or from becoming and serving as an officer of any board of such trustees.

§ 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

ACT 4165.

An act to provide for proceedings for the ascertainment of the existence and terms of, and for the determination of the validity and legal effect of grants or other instruments creating, changing or affecting trusts and estates for the founding, endowment and maintenance of a university, college, school, seminary of learning, mechanical institute, museum, gallery of art, or library, or any other institution, or any or all thereof, under or pursuant to an act entitled "An act to advance learning, the arts and sciences, and to promote the public welfare, by providing for the conveyance, holding, and protection of property, and the creation of trusts for the founding, endowment, erection, and maintenance within this state of universities, colleges, schools, seminaries of learning, mechanical institutes, museums, and galleries of art," approved March 9, 1885, or under or pursuant to an act entitled "An act to encourage and provide for the dissemination of a knowledge of the arts, sciences, and general literature, and the founding, maintaining, and perpetuating public libraries, museums, and galleries of art, and the receipt of donations and contributions thereto when established; for the conveyance, holding and protection of real property within this state suitable for the purposes herein designated, and the erection thereon of buildings appropriate to such purposes, and for the creation of trusts necessary or proper for the better preservation of such institutions, and the control and management thereof," approved March 5, 1887.

[Approved February 10, 1903. Stats. 1903, p. 9.]

§ 1. The trustee or trustees of any trust or trusts heretofore or hereafter created for the founding, endowment and maintenance of a university, college, school, seminary of learning, mechanical institute, museum, gallery of art, library or other institution, or any or all thereof, under or pursuant to an act entitled "An act to advance learning, the arts and sciences, and to promote the public welfare, by providing for the conveyance, holding, and protection of property, and the creation of trusts for the founding, endowment, erection, and maintenance within this state of universities, colleges, schools, seminaries of learning, mechanical institutes, museums, and galleries of art," approved March 9, 1885, or under or pursuant to an act entitled "An act to encourage and provide for the dissemination of a knowledge of the arts, sciences, and general literature, and the founding, maintaining, and perpetuating public libraries, museums, and galleries of art, and the receipt of donations and contributions thereto when established; for the conveyance, holding and protection of real property within this state suitable for the purposes herein designated, and the erection thereon of buildings appropriate to such purposes, and for the creation of trusts necessary or proper for the better preservation of such institutions, and the control and management thereof," approved March 5, 1887, may commence a special proceeding in and by which may be determined all questions of law and fact affecting the existence of, and the due and voluntary execution and delivery, and the terms, validity and legal effect of the grant or grants founding the same, and of all amendments or attempted amendments thereof, and of any supplemental grants or gifts, and of any confirmatory conveyances, of the founder or founders, or surviving founder, or wife or widow of any such founder; and in and by which may be determined all questions of law and fact affecting the due and voluntary execution and delivery, and the validity and legal effect, of any gift or grant made in general terms for the benefit of the institution or institutions, or of any department thereof, or of any gift or grant made in general terms for the benefit of the institution or institutions, or of any department thereof, upon the trusts provided for in the grant founding the institution or institutions, and amendments thereof and grants, bequests and devises supplementary thereto; and in and by which may be determined all questions bearing upon the passing to the trustee or trustees of the legal title to the properties, real and personal, conveyed or attempted to be conveyed, so far as such property or the proceeds thereof, or any property acquired in exchange therefor or with proceeds thereof, may be described in the petition herein provided for, and the interest or title of the trustee or trustees in or to any such property described in such petition; and in and by which may be determined all questions of law and fact affecting the due and voluntary execution and delivery, and the validity and legal effect, of any grant or surrender by any such founder or founders, surviving founder, or wife or widow of any founder, to, or in favor of, such trustee or trustees, of any rights, powers, privileges or duties reserved to or vesting in any such person or persons over or concerning any property described in the petition herein provided for, or over or concerning any such institution or institutions so founded, which would otherwise vest in or devolve upon such trustee or trustees upon the death of the person or persons so granting or surrendering the same, and of any relinquishment or release by the founder or founders, surviving founder, or wife or widow of any founder, of any other such rights, powers, privileges, or duties so reserved to or vesting in any such person or persons. To this end the trustee or trustees of any trust hereinbefore referred to, in the name of the institution or institutions so founded, or in the name of the trustee or trustees of such institution or institutions, or in the name of the board of trustees of such institution or institutions, may file, in the superior court of the county in which the lands described in the founding grant or grants, or some lands described in the founding grant or grants, or some portion thereof, are situated, or, if no real estate has been granted as herein provided to such trustees, then in the county where the main part of any such institution or institutions is situated, a petition in writing, signed by counsel for such trustee or trustees, or by counsel for a majority thereof, which petition shall contain copies of all such grants, amendments, attempted amendments, supplemental grants, instruments of gift, confirmatory conveyances, and grants and instruments of surrender, relinquishment or release, hereinbefore mentioned or referred to, so far as known to such trustee or trustees; and the petition shall allege in general terms the due and voluntary execution and delivery, and the validity, of any and all of such instruments, copies of which are set out in the petition, and shall describe all property, real and personal, the legal title to which is held or claimed to be held by said trustee or trustees under or by virtue of any or all of such instruments, whether or not the same be the original property conveyed, the proceeds thereof, or re-invested proceeds; and the petition shall allege in general terms the estate or interest which the trustee or trustees have or claim in or to the property described; and the petition shall pray, in effect, that the court examine and determine all questions of law and fact affecting the due and voluntary execution and delivery, and the terms, validity and legal effect of all such instruments, copies of which are so set out in the petition; and that the court examine and determine all questions bearing upon the passing to the trustee or trustees, of the legal title to all the properties, real and personal, so conveyed or attempted to be conveyed, so far as the same or the proceeds thereof, or any property acquired in exchange therefor or with the proceeds thereof, may be described in said petition; and that the court examine and determine the interest or title of the trustee or trustees in or to any such property; and that it be established and determined that the trustee or trustees are rightfully vested with the legal title thereto.

§ 2. The court or judge shall fix the time for the hearing of said petition, and shall order the clerk of the court to post in at least three public places in the county a notice of the filing of said petition, attached to a copy of said petition, and order a copy of such notice together with a copy of the petition to be personally served upon the founder or founders, if living, and upon the surviving wife or widow of any founder, and upon any living grantor or donor of any other grant or gift set out in the petition, and may order such other or further notice to be given as the judge or court may deem proper. Such notice shall be posted and served at least ten days before the hearing. If the court or judge finds upon the hearing that due and proper notice has not been given as herein provided, it shall reset the hearing and cause such due and proper notice to be given. The notice and petition shall be entitled substantially in the following form:

In the superior court of the — county of —, state of California.

In the matter of the petition of — (giving the name or names in which the petition is brought) for the ascertainment of the existence and terms of, and for the determination of the validity and legal effect of grants or other instruments creating, changing or affecting trusts and estates for the founding, endowment and maintenance of — (naming the institution or institutions founded).

The notice shall state the time and place fixed for the hearing of the petition and shall be addressed to the founder or founders, living, and to the surviving wife or widow of any founder, and the living grantor or donor of any other grant or gift set out in the petition, and in general terms to all other persons having or claiming any interest in, or rights, powers, or duties over or concerning the property described in the petition; and shall direct that they and each of such persons appear and answer said petition on or before the time set for said hearing; and shall state that unless said persons so appear and demur or answer, the petitioners will apply to the court to grant the prayer of the petition, and that each person failing to so appear and answer, shall be deemed to admit as true all the material allegations of the petition.

Any of the persons so required to be served, or any other persons so interested may waive notice by written waiver filed with the clerk of the court.

§ 3. Any person interested in the determination of any of the questions presented by the petition may demur to or answer said petition and may set up any new matter affecting the determination of any such questions. Any allegation of the petition or answer may be made upon information and belief. The provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure respecting the demurrer and the answer to a verified complaint, shall be applicable to a demurrer or answer to said petition. The persons so demurring to or answering said petition shall be the defendants to said special proceeding and the petitioners shall be the plaintiffs. Every material statement of the petition not specifically controverted by the answer must, for the purposes of said special proceeding, be taken as true; and each person failing to answer the petition shall be deemed to admit as true all the material allegations of the petition. The rules of pleading and practice provided for by the Code of Civil Procedure, which are not inconsistent with the provisions of this act, are applicable to the special proceeding herein provided for.

§ 4. Upon the hearing of such special proceeding, the court shall have power and jurisdiction to examine into and determine all questions of law and fact within the scope of the proceeding herein provided for, whether presented by the petition or answer, or by the proofs upon the hearing.

The court shall find and determine whether the notice of the filing of said petition has been duly given for the time and in the manner in this act prescribed.

The costs of the special proceeding may be allowed and apportioned between all parties, in the discretion of the court.

§ 5. A certified copy of the judgment of the court in such special proceeding shall be recorded in the office of the recorder of the county in which the action is brought and in the office of the recorder of every county in which any of the real property affected is situated.

§ 6. The judgment of the court in such special proceeding shall be determinative of the terms and trusts upon which any property thereafter given for the benefit of such institution or institutions, or any department thereof, shall be held by such trustee or trustees, unless otherwise provided by the grantor or donor of such property.

§ 7. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

ACT 4166.

An act to define trust and to provide for criminal penalties and civil damages, and punishment of corporations, persons, firms, and associations, or persons connected with them, and to promote free competition in commerce and all classes of business in this state.

[Approved March 23, 1907. Stats. 1907, p. 984.]

Amended 1909, p. 593.

A trust defined. Exception.

§ 1. A trust is a combination of capital, skill or acts by two or more persons, firms, partnerships, corporations or associations of persons, or of any two or more of them for either, any or all of the following purposes:

1. To create or carry out restrictions in trade or commerce.
2. To limit or reduce the production, or increase the price of merchandise or of any commodity.
3. To prevent competition in manufacturing, making, transportation, sale or purchase of merchandise, produce or any commodity.
4. To fix at any standard or figure, whereby its price to the public or consumer shall be in any manner controlled or established, any article or commodity of merchandise, produce or commerce intended for sale, barter, use or consumption in this state.

5. To make or enter into or execute or carry out any contracts, obligations or agreements of any kind or description, by which they shall bind or have bound themselves not to sell, dispose of or transport any article or any commodity or any article of trade, use, merchandise, commerce or consumption below a common standard figure, or fixed value, or by which they shall agree in any manner to keep the price of such article, commodity or transportation at a fixed or graduated figure, or by which they shall in any manner establish or settle the price of any article, commodity or transportation between them or themselves and others, so as to directly or indirectly preclude a free and unrestricted competition among themselves, or any purchasers or consumers in the sale or trans-titles to recover from the person owning or conducting such business as in the foregoing sections mentioned, in any court of competent jurisdiction, three times the amount of such shortage in weight of the grain or other commodity so delivered or taken out by him.

agent, servant or employee, or in any other capacity, knowingly carry out any of the stipulations, purposes, prices, rates, or furnish any information to assist in carrying out such purposes, or orders thereunder or in pursuance thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty ($50) dollars nor more than five thousand ($5,000) dollars, or be imprisoned not less than six months nor more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Each day's violation of this provision shall constitute a separate offense.

What indictment must set out.

§ 5. In any indictment, information or complaint for any offense named in this act, it is sufficient to state the purpose or effects of the trust or combination, and that the accused is a member of, acted with or in pursuance of it, or aided or assisted in carrying out its purposes, without giving its name or description, or how, when and where it was created.

Prosecutions, what to prove. Books and papers must be produced when ordered.

§ 6. In prosecutions under this act, it shall be sufficient to prove that a trust or combination, as defined herein, exists, and that the defendant belonged to it, or acted for or in connection with it, without proving all the members belonged to it, or proving or producing any article of agreement, or any written instrument on which it may have been based; or that it was evidenced by any written instrument at all. The character of the trust or combination alleged may be established by proof of its general reputation as such. In case any court of record, or in vacation any judge of said court in which is pending any civil, criminal or other action or proceeding brought or prosecuted by the attorney general or any district attorney for the violation of any of the provisions of this act or in any action or proceeding for the violation of the law of this state, against conspiracy or combination in restraint of trade so orders, no person so ordered shall be excused from attending, testifying or producing books, papers, schedules, contracts, agreements or any other document in obedience to the subpoena or under the order of such court or any commissioner or referee appointed by said court to take testimony or any notary public or other person or officer authorized by the laws of this state to take depositions when the order made by such court or judge thereof includes a witness whose deposition is being taken before such notary public or other officer on the ground or for the reason that the testimony or evidence required of him may tend to criminate him or subject him to any penalty; but no individual shall be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty for or on account of any transaction, matter or thing concerning which he may so testify or produce evidence, documentary or otherwise, before any such court, person or officer.

Penalty, after notice by attorney general.

§ 7. Each and every firm, person, partnership, corporation, or association of persons, who shall in any manner violate any of the provisions of this act, shall be for each and every day that such violations shall be committed or continued, after due notice given by the attorney general or any district attorney, forfeit and pay the sum of fifty ($50) dollars, which may be recovered in the name of the people of the state of California, in any county where the offense is committed, or where either of the offenders resides; and it shall be the duty of the attorney general, or the district attorney of any county on the order of the attorney general to prosecute for the recovery of the same. When the action is prosecuted by the attorney general against a corporation or association of persons, he may begin the action in the supreme court of the county in which defendant resides or does business.

Contracts in violation of act void.

§ 8. That any contract or agreement in violation of the provisions of this act, shall be absolutely void and shall not be enforceable either in law or equity.

Provisions cumulative.

§ 9. That the provisions hereof shall be held cumulative of each other and of all other laws in any way affecting them now in force in this state.

Trust certificates not lawful.

§ 10. It shall not be lawful for any person, partnership, association or corporation, or any agent thereof, to issue or to own trust certificates, or for any person, partnership, association or corporation, agent, officer, or employee, or the directors or stockholders of any corporation, to enter into any combination, contract or agreement with any person or persons, corporation, or corporations, or with any stockholder or director thereof, the purpose and effect of which combination, contract or agreement shall be to place the management or control of such combination or combinations, or the manufactured product thereof, in the hands of any trustee or trustees with the intent to limit or fix the price or lessen the production and sale of any article of commerce, use or consumption, or to prevent, restrict or diminish the manufacture or output of any such article, and any person, partnership, association or corporation that shall enter into any such combination, contract or agreement for the purpose aforesaid shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not less than fifty dollars, nor more than five thousand dollars.

Persons injured in business by trust may sue.

§ 11. In addition to the criminal and civil penalties herein provided, any person who shall be injured in his business or property by any other person or corporation or association or partnership, by reason of anything forbidden or declared to be unlawful by this act, may sue therefor in any court having jurisdiction thereof in the county where the defendant resides or is found, or any agent resides or is found, or where service may be obtained, without respect to the amount in controversy, and to recover twofold the damages by him sustained, and the costs of suit. Whenever it shall appear to the court before which any proceedings under this act may be pending, that the ends of justice require that other parties shall be brought before the court, the court may cause them to be made parties defendant and summoned, whether they reside in the county where such action is pending, or not.

"Person" defined.

§ 12. The word "person" or "persons" whenever used in this act, shall be deemed to include corporations, partnerships and associations existing under or authorized by the laws of this state or any other state, or any foreign country.

Labor not a commodity.

§ 13. Labor whether skilled or unskilled is not a commodity within the meaning of this act. [New section approved March 20, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 594. In effect immediately.]

[Approved March 20, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 543.]

Tax for support of state university.

§ 1. There is hereby levied annually, for each fiscal year, an "ad valorem" tax of three cents upon each one hundred dollars of value of the taxable property of the state, which tax shall be collected by the several officers charged with the collection of state taxes, in the same manner and at the same time as other state taxes are collected, upon all or any class of property, which tax is for the support of the University of California.

Levy of tax.

§ 2. The state board of equalization, at the time when it annually determines the rate of state taxes to be collected, must at the same time declare the levy of said rate of three cents, and notify the auditor and board of supervisors of each county thereof.

Disposition of money.

§ 3. The money collected from said rate, after deducting the proportionate share of expenses of collecting the same to which other state taxes are subject, must be paid into the state treasury, and must be by the state treasurer converted into a separate fund, hereby created, to be called the "state university fund."

University to control fund absolutely.

§ 4. The money paid into the said "state university fund" is hereby appropriated, without reference to fiscal years, for the use and support of the University of California, and is exempted from the provisions of Part III, Title I, Article XVIII, of an act entitled "An act to establish a Political Code," approved March twelfth, eighteen hundred and seventy-two, relating to the board of examiners. When there is any money in the said fund, the same may be drawn out upon the order of the board of regents of the University of California, or such officers of the board as may be duly authorized thereto. Upon the receipt of the order, the controller must draw his warrant upon the state treasurer, payable to the order of the treasurer of the University of California, out of the said "state university fund."

How moneys must be applied.

§ 5. The money derived from said fund must be applied only to the support and permanent improvement of the university; provided, however, that not less than one-fourth of the revenues raised hereunder, during each of the first ten fiscal years after this act takes effect, shall be placed in a fund to be known and designated as the permanent building fund and which said fund must be devoted solely to the purposes of building, furnishing and equipping permanent buildings and providing permanent improvements for the university. The board of regents must include in its biennial report to the governor the statement of the manner and for what purposes all of the moneys referred to and raised under this act were expended.

Certain acts repealed.

§ 6. An act approved February 14, 1887, entitled: "An act to provide for the permanent support and improvement of the University of California by the levy of a rate of taxation and the creation of a fund therefor," is hereby repealed.

Same.

§ 7. An act approved February 27, 1897, entitled "An act to provide additional support and maintenance, and for the acquisition of necessary property and improvements of the University of California, by the levy of a rate of taxation, and the creation of a fund therefor," is hereby repealed.

§ 8. This act shall take effect immediately.ACT 4245.

[Approved March 23, 1907. Stats. 1907, p. 919.]

Board of examiners in veterinary medicine. Term of office. Removals.

§ 1. That there be, and is hereby, created a board of examiners in veterinary medicine, to be appointed by the governor of the state of California, which shall consist of five reputable practitioners of veterinary medicine who shall have graduated from some college authorized by law to confer degrees, each of whom shall have been a bona fide resident of said state for three years last past before appointment, and each, during said period, shall have been actually engaged in the practice of his profession in said state. The appointments first made shall be one for one year, one for two years, one for three years, and two for four years, and thereafter appointments shall be made for a period of four years, except appointments to fill vacancies, in which case the appointments shall be made for the remainder of the unexpired terms; provided, that the governor may, in his judgment, remove any member of said board for neglect of duty or other sufficient cause, after due notice and hearing.

Organization of board. Official records. Bonds of officers.

§ 2. That the said board of examiners in veterinary medicine shall elect a president, vice-president, secretary, and such other officers as shall be necessary. The secretary of said board shall have power to administer oaths or affirmations upon such matters as pertain to the business of said board, and any person willfully making any false oath or affirmation shall be deemed guilty of perjury; and said board shall make, alter, or amend, subject to the approval of the governor, such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this act, and shall hold such meetings as shall be necessary for the transaction of business, and shall issue all licenses to practice veterinary medicine in the state of California. Said board shall keep an official record of its meetings, and also an official register of all applicants for licenses, which register shall show the name, age, place, and duration of residence of each applicant, the time spent in the study of veterinary medicine in and out of medical schools, and the names and locations of all medical schools which have granted said applicant any degree or certificate of attendance upon lectures, and it shall also show whether said applicant was rejected or licensed under this act, and said register shall be prima facie evidence of all matters contained therein. The board shall have the power to require any or all officers of said board to give a bond to the state of California in such form and penalty as it may deem proper. The said board shall in the month of July in each year submit to the governor a full report of its transactions during the twelve months immediately preceding.

Applications for license to practice. Application fee. Examinations.

§ 3. That from and after the passage of this act all persons desiring to practice veterinary medicine or any branch thereof in the state of California, or who shall desire to hold themselves out to the public as practicing veterinary medicine or any branch thereof in the state of California, shall make application to said board of examiners in veterinary medicine for a license so to do. Application for this purpose shall be upon a form furnished by said board, and shall be accompanied by satisfactory evidence of good moral character, and by a diploma from some veterinary college authorized by law to confer the same, which college shall require at least two sessions of study of veterinary medicine of not less than six months each prior to the issue of such diploma, and graduates of two-year colleges shall accompany their diplomas by satisfactory evidence that they have practiced veterinary medicine for five years last past subsequent to the issue of such diplomas. Every person applying to the board of examiners in veterinary medicine for a license to practice veterinary medicine shall pay to the board a fee of ten dollars, which fee in no case shall be refunded, and from the fund thus created the board shall pay such necessary expenses as it may incur. Such expenses shall not exceed in any one fiscal year the amount of fees collected during that period, but if any balance remain after paying all such expenses it shall be paid into the state school fund, except as hereinabove provided. Said board shall, by means of examinations, ascertain the professional qualifications of all applicants for license to practice veterinary medicine in said state, and shall issue such licenses to all who are found by such examinations to be, in the judgment of said board, competent to so practice; and no such license shall be issued to any person who has not so demonstrated his competence, except as hereinafter otherwise provided. Such examinations shall be held in January, April, July, and October of each year, and shall include all such subjects as are ordinarily included in the curricula of veterinary colleges in good standing, but examinations may be held at such other times and include such other subjects as said board shall authorize and direct. Said board shall number consecutively all applications received, note upon each the disposition made of it, and preserve the same for reference, and shall number consecutively all licenses issued.

Arrangements with boards of other states.

§ 4. That said board of examiners, so far as may be possible, shall make arrangements with analogous boards of the several states and territories whereby due credit for state and territorial licenses will be allowed in the state of California to such licentiates of said boards as desire to secure licenses to practice veterinary medicine in this state, and whereby licentiates of the board of examiners in veterinary medicine in the state of California will secure due credit for licenses issued by said board whenever such licentiates desire to secure licenses to practice veterinary medicine in any state or territory; but no arrangements shall be made under the provisions of this section which will be liable to lower the standard of practice of veterinary medicine in the state of California, and no arrangement for the mutual recognition of licenses shall be valid until it has been approved by the governor of the state of California.

Appeal of applicant when license has been refused. Board of review.

§5. That any person having been examined by said board of examiners in veterinary medicine and having been refused a license as the result of such examination may, within thirty days after formal notification of such refusal, appeal from the decision of said board. Such appeal must be in writing, addressed to the governor of the state of California, setting forth the ground upon which it is based, and accompanied by a deposit of thirty dollars. If, after examination of said appeal, the governor deem it proper, he shall appoint a board of review, consisting of three practitioners of veterinary medicine having qualifications similar to those required of members of the regular board of examiners in veterinary medicine, which board shall review the examination of appellant, and if they deem necessary re-examine him and report their finding to the governor; and such finding shall be final and binding upon all parties concerned, and if favorable to the appellant the board of examiners in veterinary medicine shall issue to him a license to practice veterinary medicine in said state. Each member of said board of review shall be paid a fee of not more than ten dollars for each candidate examined, payment to be made from the deposit of the appellant if the finding is adverse to him, but otherwise from the funds of the board of examiners. If favorable, the amount deposited shall be returned to the appellant.

License must be displayed.

§6. That every person practicing veterinary medicine in the state of California, or representing himself or permitting himself to be represented as so practicing, shall display or cause to be displayed conspicuously in his usual place of business his license to practice in said state. Said place of business shall, during all reasonable hours, be open to inspection by any representative of the police department or of the board of examiners in veterinary medicine of said state, so far as may be necessary to examine such licenses, and it shall be unlawful for any person to interfere with any inspection made or intended to be made for this purpose.

Practicing veterinarian defined.

§7. That from and after the passage of this act any person shall be regarded as practicing veterinary medicine in the state of California who shall, in said state, append or cause to be appended to his name the letters V. S., D. V. M., V. M. D., M. D. V., M. D. C., D. V. S., or M. R. C. V. S., or the words "veterinary," "veterinarian," "veterinary surgeon," or "veterinary dentist," "veterinary farrier," "veterinary horse-shoer," "horse dentist," or "horse doctor," or who shall prescribe, advise, or apply any drug or medicine or other agency, or who shall perform any operation for the treatment, relief, or cure of any sick, diseased, or injured lower animal, or for commercial purposes, or who shall publicly profess to do any of these things, and shall charge or receive therefor money or other compensation, directly or indirectly; provided, nothing in this act shall be construed to prohibit members of the medical profession from prescribing for domestic animals in case of emergency, and collecting a fee therefor, nor to prohibit gratuitous services in an emergency, nor to prevent any person from practicing veterinary medicine on any animal belonging to himself or herself.

Present rights not affected.

§ 8. That this act shall not affect the rights under the laws of the state of California of veterinarians to practice veterinary medicine who have lawful rights to practice veterinary medicine at the time of the passage of this act; and provided further, that this act shall not apply to veterinary surgeons in the employ of the United States army, nor to regularly licensed veterinarians in actual consultation from other states, nor to regularly licensed veterinarians actually called from other states to attend cases in the state of California, but who do not open an office or appoint a place to do business within said state, nor to employees of licensed veterinarians legally qualified to practice as such under the provisions of this act.

License may be suspended or revoked, when.

§ 9. That the board of examiners in veterinary medicine hereby created may, by a vote of four members, revoke or suspend for a certain time the license of any person to practice veterinary medicine or any branch thereof in the state of California after notice and hearing, for any of the following causes, namely: The employment of fraud or deception in passing the examinations or in obtaining a license, chronic inebriety, or conviction of crime involving moral turpitude. The form of complaint, the form and length of notice, and the time and procedure of hearing charges against any licensee for any of the above causes shall be as near as possible according to the provisions of Title XI of the Code of Civil Procedure and the president of the board shall sign all papers, writs and process.

Violation of act a misdemeanor.

§ 10. That any person who shall violate or aid or abet in violating any of the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than two hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Quorum of board.

§ 11. That three members of the board of examiners in veterinary medicine in the state of California shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the board, except as provided in section 9 of this act.

§ 12. That this act shall take effect immediately, and all laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

§ 1. The regents and the president of the University of California are hereby directed to cause to be prosecuted with all possible diligence, in connection with and in addition to the work heretofore carried on by the agricultural experiment station, experimental and research work in the field of viticulture, including both cultural and industrial processes. They are directed to ascertain the adaptation of the various kinds of vines to the several climatic and soil conditions of the state, with the special reference to those stocks for propagating purposes, resistant to the phylloxera, and to further their adaptability and utility as grafting stocks for producing wine, raisin and table grapes. They are directed to ascertain the best methods of grafting and propagating said stocks and vines, together with the most important methods of vinification and the preparation, manufacture and application of yeasts in vinification and distillation. They are further directed to report upon the utilization of the by-products of the vineyard and winery, the study and treatment of the vine diseases and all matters appertaining to the viticultural industry, pertinent to the successful conduct of the business and that may be of general public interest, use and profit. They are further directed to publish the result of said experiments and investigations in form of bulletins from time to time, as may seem advisable, and not less than two bulletins showing the progress and result of the work, shall be issued in any fiscal year.

§ 2. The sum of three thousand dollars ($3,000) is hereby appropriated out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this act; said money to be paid to the regents of the University of California, to be expended by them through the agricultural department of the university during the two years beginning July 1, 1903. The controller of the state is hereby directed to draw his warrant for such payments as requested by said regents of the state university of California, and the treasurer of the state is hereby directed to pay the same.

ACT 4319.

An act concerning warehouse receipts, and the issuing, sale and transfer thereof, and the sale of goods, wares and merchandise stored in public or private warehouses in other states.

[Approved March 20, 1905. Stats. 1905, p. 322.]

See Civil Code, §§ 1858-1858f. See, also, Act of 1909, p. 487, regulating warehouse receipts, post, Act 4820.

§ 1. That it shall be unlawful for any corporation, firm or person, their agents or employees, to issue, sell, pledge, assign or transfer in this state, any receipt, certificate or other written instrument purporting to be a warehouse receipt, or in the similitude of a warehouse receipt, or designed to be understood as a warehouse receipt, for goods, wares or merchandise stored or deposited, or claimed to be stored or deposited, in any warehouse, public or private, in any other state, unless such receipt, certificate or other written instrument, shall have been issued by the warehousemen operating such warehouse.

§ 2. It shall be unlawful for any corporation, firm or person, their agents or employees, to issue, sell, pledge, assign or transfer in this state, any receipt, certificate or other written instrument for goods, wares or merchandise claimed to be stored or deposited, in any warehouse, public or private, in any other state, knowing that there is no such warehouse located at the place named in such receipt, certificate or other written instrument, or if there be a warehouse at such place, knowing that there are no goods, wares or merchandise stored or deposited therein as specified in such report, certificate or other written instrument.

§ 3. It shall be unlawful for any corporation, firm or person, their agents or employees, to issue, sign, sell, pledge, assign or transfer, in this state, any receipt, certificate or other written instrument evidencing, or purporting to evidence, the sale, pledge, mortgage or bailment of any goods, wares or merchandise stored or deposited, or claimed to be stored or deposited, in any warehouse, public or private, in any other state, unless such receipt, certificate or other written instrument shall plainly designate the number and location of such warehouse, and shall also set forth therein a full, true and complete copy of the receipt issued by the warehouseman operating such warehouse wherein such goods, wares or merchandise are stored or deposited, or are claimed to be stored or deposited: Provided, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to the issue, signing, sale, pledge, assignment or transfer of bona fide warehouse receipts issued by the warehouseman operating public or bonded warehouses in other states, according to the laws of the state wherein such warehouses may be located.

§ 4. Every corporation, firm or person, or agent, or employee, who shall knowingly violate any of the provisions of this act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined in any sum not less than fifty nor more than one thousand dollars, to which may be added imprisonment in the county jail for any period not exceeding six months.

ACT 4820.

An act to make uniform the law of warehouse receipts.

[Approved March 19, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 437.]

Receipts, who may issue.

§ 1. Warehouse receipts may be issued by any warehouseman.

What receipt must embody. Liability for omission.

§ 2. Warehouse receipts need not be in any particular form, but every such receipt must embody within its written or printed terms—

- (a) The location of the warehouse where the goods are stored,
- (b) The date of issue of the receipt,
- (c) The consecutive number of the receipt,
- (d) A statement whether the goods received will be delivered to the bearer, or to a specified person, or to a specified person or his order,
- (e) The rate of storage charges,
- (f) A description of the goods or of the packages containing them.
- (g) The signature of the warehouseman, which may be made by his authorized agent,
- (h) If the receipt is issued for goods of which the warehouseman is owner, either solely or jointly or in common with others, the fact of such ownership, and
- (i) A statement of the amount of advances made and of liabilities incurred for which the warehouseman claims a lien. If the precise amount of such advances made or of such liabilities incurred is, at the time of the issue of the receipt, unknown to the warehouseman or to his agent who issues it, a statement of the fact that advances have been made or liabilities incurred and the purpose thereof is sufficient.

A warehouseman shall be liable to any person injured thereby, for all damage caused by the omission from a negotiable receipt of any of the terms herein required.

Insertion of other conditions.

§ 3. A warehouseman may insert in a receipt, issued by him, any other terms and conditions, provided that such terms and conditions shall not—

(a) Be contrary to the provisions of this act.

(b) In anywise impair his obligation to exercise that degree of care in the safekeeping of the goods intrusted to him which a reasonably careful man would exercise in regard to similar goods of his own.

Non-negotiable receipt.

§ 4. A receipt in which it is stated that the goods received will be delivered to the depositor, or to any other specified person, is a non-negotiable receipt.

Negotiable receipt.

§ 5. A receipt in which it is stated that the goods received will be delivered to the bearer, or to the order of any person named in such receipt is a negotiable receipt. No provision shall be inserted in a negotiable receipt that is non-negotiable. Such provision, if inserted, shall be void.

Duplicates shall be so marked.

§ 6. When more than one negotiable receipt is issued for the same goods, the word "duplicate" shall be plainly placed upon the face of every such receipt, except the one first issued. A warehouseman shall be liable for all damage caused by his failure so to do anyone who purchased the subsequent receipt for value supposing it to be an original, even though the purchase be after the delivery of the goods by the warehouseman to the holder of the original receipt.

Non-negotiable shall be marked.

§ 7. A non-negotiable receipt shall have plainly placed upon its face by the warehouseman issuing it, "non-negotiable," or "not negotiable." In case of the warehouseman's failure so to do, a holder of the receipt who purchased it for value supposing it to be negotiable, may, at his option, treat such receipt as imposing upon the warehouseman the same liabilities he would have incurred had the receipt been negotiable.

This section shall not apply, however, to letters, memoranda, or written acknowledgments of an informal character.

Rights of holder of receipt.

§ 8. A warehouseman, in the absence of some lawful excuse provided by this act, is bound to deliver the goods upon a demand made either by the holder of a receipt for the goods or by the depositor, if such demand is accompanied with—

(a) An offer to satisfy the warehouseman's lien,

(b) An offer to surrender the receipt if negotiable, with such indorsements as would be necessary for the negotiation of the receipt, and

(c) A readiness and willingness to sign, when the goods are delivered, an acknowledgment that they have been delivered, if such signature is requested by the warehouseman.

In case the warehouseman refuses or fails to deliver the goods in compliance with a demand by the holder or depositor so accompanied, the burden shall be upon the warehouseman to establish the existence of a lawful excuse for such refusal.

When warehouseman justified in delivering goods.

§ 9. A warehouseman is justified in delivering the goods subject to the provisions of the three following sections, to one who is—

(a) The person lawfully entitled to the possession of the goods, or his agent,

(b) A person who is either himself entitled to delivery by the terms of a non-negotiable receipt issued for the goods, or who has written authority from the person so entitled either indorsed upon the receipt or written upon another paper, or

(c) A person in possession of a negotiable receipt by the terms of which the goods are deliverable to him or order or to bearer, or which has been indorsed to him or in blank by the person to whom delivery was promised by the terms of the receipt or by his mediate or immediate indorsee.

When warehouseman liable.

§ 10. Where a warehouseman delivers the goods to one who is not in fact lawfully entitled to the possession of them, the warehouseman shall be liable as for conversion to all having a right of property or possession in the goods if he delivered the goods otherwise than as authorized by subdivisions (b) and (c) of the preceding section and though he delivered the goods as authorized by said subdivision he shall be so liable, if prior to such delivery he had either

(a) Been requested, by or on behalf of the person lawfully entitled to a right of property or possession in the goods, not to make such delivery, or

(b) Had information that the delivery about to be made was to one not lawfully entitled to the possession of the goods.

Same.

§ 11. Except as provided in section 36, where warehouseman delivers goods for which he had issued a negotiable receipt, the negotiation of which would transfer the right to the possession of the goods, and fails to take up and cancel the receipt, he shall be liable to anyone who purchases for value in good faith such receipt, for failure to deliver the goods to him, whether such purchaser acquired title to the receipt before or after the delivery of the goods by the warehouseman.

Same.

§ 12. Except as provided in section 36, where a warehouseman delivers part of the goods for which he had issued a negotiable receipt and fails either to take up and cancel such receipt, or to place plainly upon it a statement of what goods or packages have been delivered he shall be liable, to anyone who purchases for value in good faith such receipt, for failure to deliver all the goods specified in the receipt, whether such purchaser acquired title to the receipt before or after the delivery of any portion of the goods by the warehouseman.

Alteration of receipt, no excuse from liability. Fraudulent alteration.

§ 13. The alteration of a receipt shall not excuse the warehouseman who issued it from any liability if such alteration was

- (a) Immaterial,
- (b) Authorized, or
- (c) Made without fraudulent intent.

If the alteration was authorized, the warehouseman shall be liable according to the terms of the receipt as altered. If the alteration was unauthorized, but made without fraudulent intent, the warehouseman shall be liable according to the terms of the receipt, as they were before alteration.

Material and fraudulent alteration of a receipt shall not excuse the warehouseman who issued it from liability to deliver, according to the terms of the receipt as originally issued, the goods for which it was issued, but shall excuse him from any other liability to the person who made the alteration and to any person who took with notice of the alteration. Any purchaser of the receipt for value without notice of the alteration shall acquire the same rights against the warehouseman which such purchaser would have acquired if the receipt had not been altered at the time of the purchase.

Delivery when receipt is lost, how.

§ 14. Where a negotiable receipt has been lost or destroyed, a court of competent jurisdiction may order the delivery of the goods upon satisfactory proof of such loss or destruction and upon the giving of a bond with sufficient sureties to be approved by the court to protect the warehouseman from any liability or expense, which he or any person by such delivery may incur by reason of the original receipt remaining outstanding. The court may also in its discretion order the payment of the warehouseman's reasonable costs and counsel fees.

The delivery of the goods under an order of the court as provided in this section, shall not relieve the warehouseman from liabilities to a person to whom the negotiable receipt has been or shall be negotiated for value without notice of the proceedings or of the delivery of the goods.

Word "duplicate" is warranty.

§ 15. A receipt upon the face of which the word "duplicate" is plainly placed is a representation and warranty by the warehouseman that such receipt is an accurate copy of an original receipt properly issued and uncanceled at the date of the issue of the duplicate, but shall impose upon him no other liability.

Title of warehouseman.

§ 16. No title or right to the possession of the goods, on the part of the warehouseman, unless such title or right is derived directly or indirectly from a transfer made by the depositor at the time of or subsequent to the deposit for storage, or from the warehouseman's lien, shall excuse the warehouseman from liability for refusing to deliver the goods according to the terms of the receipt.

Claimants may interplead.

§ 17. If more than one person claim the title or possession of the goods, the warehouseman may, either as a defense to an action brought against him for nondelivery of the goods, or as an original suit, whichever is appropriate, require all known claimants to interplead.

Refusal to deliver, excuse from liability.

§ 18. If some one other than the depositor or person claiming under him has a claim to the title or possession of the goods, and the warehouseman has information of such claim, the warehouseman shall be excused from liability for refusing to deliver the goods, either to the depositor or person claiming under him or to the adverse claimant, until the warehouseman has had a reasonable time to ascertain the validity of the adverse claim or to bring legal proceedings to compel all claimants to interplead. If such adverse claimant shall not bring suit and serve summons on the warehouseman within forty-eight hours after the service of notice of his adverse claim, such failure shall act as a complete abandonment of such adverse claim.

Rights of third persons.

§ 19. Except as provided in the two preceding sections and in sections 9 and 36, no right or title of a third person shall be a defense to an action brought by the depositor or person claiming under him against the warehouseman for failure to deliver the goods according to the terms of the receipt.

Goods must correspond with description.

§ 20. A warehouseman shall be liable to the holder of a receipt for damages caused by the nonexistence of the goods or by the failure of the goods to correspond with the description thereof in the receipt at the time of its issue. If, however, the goods are described in a receipt merely by a statement of marks or labels upon them, or upon packages containing them, or by a statement that the goods are said to be goods of a certain kind, or that packages containing the goods are said to contain goods of a certain kind, or by words of like purport, such statements, if true, shall not make liable the warehouseman issuing the receipt, although the goods are not of the kind which the marks or labels upon them indicate, or of the kind they were said to be by the depositor.

Injury to goods.

§ 21. A warehouseman shall be liable for any loss or injury to the goods caused by his failure to exercise such care in regard to them as a reasonably careful owner of similar goods would exercise, but he shall not be liable, in the absence of an agreement to the contrary, for any loss or injury to the goods which could not have been avoided by the exercise of such care.

Goods must be kept separate.

§ 22. Except as provided in the following section, a warehouseman shall keep the goods so far separate from goods of other depositors, and from other goods of the same depositor for which a separate receipt has been issued, as to permit at all times the identification and redelivery of the goods deposited.

Certain may be mingled.

§ 23. If authorized by agreement or by custom, a warehouseman may mingle fungible goods with other goods of the same kind and grade. In such case the various depositors of the mingled goods shall own the entire mass in common, and each depositor shall be entitled to such portion thereof as the amount deposited by him bears to the whole.

Care of mingled goods.

§ 24. The warehouseman shall be severally liable to each depositor for the care and redelivery of his share of such mass to the same extent and under the same circumstances as if the goods had been kept separate.

Attachments, surrender of receipt.

§ 25. If goods are delivered to a warehouseman by the owner or by a person whose act in conveying the title to them to a purchaser in good faith for value would bind the owner, and a negotiable receipt is issued for them, they cannot thereafter, while in the possession of the warehouseman, be attached by garnishment or otherwise, or be levied upon under an execution, unless the receipt be first surrendered to the warehouseman, or its negotiation enjoined. The warehouseman shall in no case be compelled to deliver up the actual possession of the goods until the receipt is surrendered to him or impounded by the court.

Creditors' right to injunction.

§ 26. A creditor whose debtor is the owner of a negotiable receipt shall be entitled to such aid from courts of appropriate jurisdiction, by injunction or otherwise, in attaching such receipt or in satisfying the claim by means thereof as is allowed at law or in equity, in regard to property which can not readily be attached or levied upon by ordinary legal process.

Lien for lawful charges.

§ 27. Subject to the provisions of section 30, a warehouseman shall have a lien on goods deposited or on the proceeds thereof in his hands, for all lawful charges for storage and preservation of the goods; also for all lawful claims for money advanced, interest, insurance, transportation, labor, weighing, cooping and other charges and expenses in relation to such goods; also for all reasonable charges and expenses for notice, and advertisements of sale, and for sale of the goods where default has been made in satisfying the warehouseman's lien.

Lien may be enforced against what.

§ 28. Subject to the provisions of section 30, a warehouseman's lien may be enforced—

(a) Against all goods, whenever deposited, belonging to the person who is liable as debtor for the claims in regard to which the lien is assessed, and

(b) Against all goods belonging to others which have been deposited at any time by the person who is liable as debtor for the claims in regard to which the lien is asserted, if such person has been so intrusted with the possession of the goods that a pledge of the same by him at the time of the deposit to one who took the goods in good faith for value would have been valid.

Loss of lien, when.

§ 29. A warehouseman loses his lien upon goods—

(a) By surrendering possession thereof, or

(b) By refusing to deliver the goods when a demand is made with which he is bound to comply under the provisions of this act.

Charges for storage, lien for.

§ 30. If a negotiable receipt is issued for goods, the warehouseman shall have no lien thereon, except for charges for storage of those goods subsequent to the date of the receipt, unless the receipt expressly enumerates other charges for which a lien is claimed. In such case there shall be a lien for the charges enumerated so far as they are within the terms of section 27, although the amount of the charges so enumerated is not stated in the receipt.

Goods may be held.

§ 31. A warehouseman having a lien valid against the person demanding the goods may refuse to deliver the goods to him until the lien is satisfied.

Warehouseman entitled to remedy.

§ 32. Whether a warehouseman has or has not a lien upon the goods, he is entitled to all remedies allowed by law to a creditor against his debtor, for the collection from the depositor of all charges and advances which the depositor has expressly or impliedly contracted with the warehouseman to pay.

How lien may be satisfied. Sale of goods at auction.

§ 33. A warehouseman's lien for a claim which has become due may be satisfied as follows:

The warehouseman shall give a written notice to the person on whose account the goods are held, and to any other person known by the warehouseman to claim an interest in the goods. Such notice shall be given by delivery in person or by registered letter addressed to the last known

Same.

§ 39. A receipt which is not in such form that it can be negotiated by delivery may be transferred by the holder by delivery to a purchaser or donee.

A non-negotiable receipt can not be negotiated, and the indorsement of such a receipt gives the transferee no additional right.

By whom may be negotiated.

§ 40. A negotiable receipt may be negotiated—

(a) By the owner thereof, or

(b) By any person to whom the possession or custody of the receipt has been intrusted by the owner, if, by the terms of the receipt, the warehouseman undertakes to deliver the goods to the order of the person to whom the possession or custody of the receipt has been intrusted, or if at the time of such intrusting the receipt is in such form that it may be negotiated by delivery.

What is acquired by negotiation.

§ 41. A person to whom a negotiable receipt has been duly negotiated acquires thereby—

(a) Such title to the goods as the person negotiating the receipt to him had or had ability to convey to a purchaser in good faith for value, and also such title to the goods as the depositor or person to whose order the goods were to be delivered by the terms of the receipt had or had ability to convey to a purchaser in good faith for value, and

(b) The direct obligation of the warehouseman to hold possession of the goods for him according to the terms of the receipt as fully as if the warehouseman had contracted directly with him.

What is acquired by transfer of receipt.

§ 42. A person to whom a receipt has been transferred but not negotiated, acquires thereby, as against the transferor, the title to the goods, subject to the terms of any agreement with the transferor.

If the receipt is non-negotiable such person also acquires the right to notify the warehouseman of the transfer to him of such receipt, and thereby to acquire the direct obligation of the warehouseman to hold possession of the goods for him according to the terms of the receipt.

Prior to the notification of the warehouseman by the transferor or transferee of a non-negotiable receipt, the title of the transferee to the goods and the right to acquire the obligation of the warehouseman may be defeated by the levy of an attachment or execution upon the goods by a creditor of the transferor, or by a notification to the warehouseman by the transferor or a subsequent purchaser from the transferor of a subsequent sale of the goods by the transferor.

Transferee acquires, what.

§ 43. Where a negotiable receipt is transferred for value by delivery, and the indorsement of the transferor is essential for negotiation, the transferee acquires a right against the transferor to compel him to indorse the receipt, unless a contrary intention appears. The negotiation shall take effect as of the time when the indorsement is actually made.

Transferrer warrants, what.

§44. A person who for value negotiates or transfers a receipt by indorsement or delivery, including one who assigns for value a claim secured by a receipt, unless a contrary intention appears, warrants—

- (a) That the receipt is genuine,
- (b) That he has a legal right to negotiate or transfer it,
- (c) That he has knowledge of no fact which would impair the validity or worth of the receipt, and
- (d) That he has a right to transfer the title to the goods, and that the goods are merchantable or fit for a particular purpose whenever such warranties would have been implied, if the contract of the parties had been to transfer without a receipt the goods represented thereby.

Liability of indorser.

§45. The indorsement of a receipt shall not make the indorser liable for any failure on the part of the warehouseman or previous indorsers of the receipt to fulfill their respective obligations

Mortgagee's warrant.

§46. A mortgagee, pledgee or holder for security of a receipt who in good faith demands or receives payment of the debt for which such receipt is security, whether from a party to a draft drawn for such debt or from any other person, shall not by so doing be deemed to represent or to warrant the genuineness of such receipt or the quantity or quality of the goods therein described.

Validity of negotiation, when not impaired.

§47. The validity of the negotiation of a receipt is not impaired by the fact that such negotiation was a breach of duty on the part of the person making the negotiation, or by the fact that the owner of the receipt was induced by fraud, mistake, or duress to intrust the possession or custody of the receipt to such person, if the person to whom the receipt was negotiated, or a person to whom the receipt was subsequently negotiated, paid value therefor, without notice of the breach of duty, or fraud, mistake, or duress.

Subsequent negotiation.

§48. Where a person having sold, mortgaged, or pledged goods which are in a warehouse and for which a negotiable receipt has been issued, or having sold, mortgaged, or pledged the negotiable receipt representing such goods, continues in possession of the negotiable receipt, the subsequent negotiation thereof by that person under any sale, or other disposition thereof to any person receiving the same in good faith, for value and without notice of the previous sale, mortgage or pledge, shall have the same effect as if the first purchaser of the goods or receipt had expressly authorized the subsequent negotiation.

Seller's lien shall not defeat rights of purchasers.

§ 49. Where a negotiable receipt has been issued for goods, no seller's lien or right of stoppage in transitu shall defeat the rights of any purchaser for value in good faith to whom such receipt has been negotiated, whether such negotiation be prior or subsequent to the notification to the warehouseman who issued such receipt of the seller's claim to a lien or right of stoppage in transitu. Nor shall the warehouseman be obliged to deliver or justified in delivering the goods to an unpaid seller unless the receipt is first surrendered for cancellation.

Fraudulent issue of receipt, penalty for.

§ 50. A warehouseman, or any officer, agent, or servant of a warehouseman, who issues or aids in issuing a receipt knowing that the goods for which such receipt is issued have not been actually received by such warehouseman, or are not under his control at the time of issuing such receipt, shall be guilty of a crime, and upon conviction shall be punished for each offense by imprisonment not exceeding five years, or by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or by both.

False statements.

§ 51. A warehouseman, or any officer, agent, or servant of a warehouseman, who fraudulently issues or aids in fraudulently issuing a receipt for goods knowing that it contains any false statement, shall be guilty of a crime, and upon conviction shall be punished for each offense by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by both.

Fraudulent issue of duplicates, penalty for.

§ 52. A warehouseman, or any officer, agent, or servant of a warehouseman, who issues or aids in issuing a duplicate or additional negotiable receipt for goods knowing that a former negotiable receipt for the same goods or any part of them is outstanding and uncanceled, without plainly placing upon the face thereof the word "duplicate," except in the case of a lost or destroyed receipt after proceedings as provided for in section 14, shall be guilty of a crime, and upon conviction shall be punished for each offense by imprisonment not exceeding five years, or by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or by both.

When warehouseman is owner.

§ 53. Where there are deposited with or held by a warehouseman goods of which he is owner, either solely or jointly or in common with others, such warehouseman, or any of his officers, agents, or servants who, knowing this ownership, issues or aids in issuing a negotiable receipt for such goods which does not state such ownership, shall be guilty of a crime, and upon conviction, shall be punished for each offense by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by both.

Penal clause.

§ 54. A warehouseman, or any officer, agent, or servant of a warehouseman who delivers goods out of the possession of such warehouseman, knowing that a negotiable receipt the negotiation of which would transfer the right to the possession of such goods is outstanding and uncanceled, without obtaining the possession of such receipt at or before the time of such delivery, shall, except in the cases provided for in sections 14 and 36, be found guilty of a crime, and upon conviction shall be punished for each offense by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by both.

Same.

§ 55. Any person who deposits goods to which he has not title, or upon which there is a lien or mortgage, and who takes for such goods a negotiable receipt which he afterwards negotiates for value with intent to deceive and without disclosing his want of title or the existence of the lien or mortgage shall be guilty of a crime, and upon conviction shall be punished for each offense by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by both.

What rules of law, to govern.

§ 56. In any case not provided for in this act, the rules of law and equity, including the law-merchant, and in particular the rules relating to the law of principal and agent and to the effect of fraud, misrepresentation, duress or coercion, mistake, bankruptcy, or other invalidating cause, shall govern.

Interpretation of act.

§ 57. This act shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states which enact it.

Definition of certain terms.

§ 58. (1) In this act, unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires—“Action” includes counterclaim, setoff, and suit in equity.

“Delivery” means voluntary transfer of possession from one person to another.

“Fungible goods” means goods of which any unit is, from its nature or by mercantile custom, treated as the equivalent of any other unit.

“Goods” means chattels or merchandise in storage, or which has been or is about to be stored.

“Holder” of a receipt means a person who has both actual possession of such receipt and a right of property therein.

“Order” means an order by indorsement on the receipt.

“Owner” does not include mortgagee or pledgee.

“Person” includes a corporation or partnership or two or more persons having a joint or common interest.

To “purchase” includes to take as mortgagee or as pledgee.

“Purchaser” includes mortgagee and pledgee.

“Receipt” means a warehouse receipt.

“Value” is any consideration sufficient to support a simple contract.

An antecedent or pre-existing obligation, whether for money or not, constitutes value where a receipt is taken either in satisfaction thereof or as security therefor.

"Warehousman" means a person lawfully engaged in the business of storing goods for profit.

(2) A thing is done "in good faith" within the meaning of this act, when it is in fact done honestly, whether it be done negligently or not.

Prior acts.

§ 59. The provisions of this act do not apply to receipts made and delivered prior to the taking effect of this act.

Same.

§ 60. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed.

Municipal corporations to fix water rates.

§ 1. The board of supervisors, town council, board of aldermen, or other legislative body of any city and county, city, or town, are hereby authorized and empowered, and it is made their official duty, to annually fix the rates that shall be charged and collected by any person, company, association, or corporation, for water furnished to any such city and county, or city, or town, or the inhabitants thereof. Such rates shall be fixed at a regular or special session of such board or other legislative body, held during the month of February of each year, and shall take effect on the first day of July thereafter, and shall continue in full force and effect for the term of one year, and no longer.

Annual statements to be made by water companies, etc.

§ 2. The board of supervisors, town council, board of aldermen, or other legislative body of any city and county, city, or town, are hereby authorized, and it is hereby made their duty, at least thirty days prior to the fifteenth day of January of each year, to require, by ordinance or otherwise, any corporation, company, or person supplying water to such city and county, city, or town, or to the inhabitants thereof, to furnish to such board, or other governing body, in the month of January in each year, a detailed statement, verified by the oath of the president and secretary of such corporation or company, or of such person, as the case may be, showing the name of each water-rate payer, his or her place of residence, and the amount paid for water by each of such water-rate payers, during the year preceding the date of such statement, and also showing all revenue derived from all sources, and an itemized statement of expenditures made for supplying water during said time.

Additional statement.

§ 3. Accompanying the first statement made as prescribed in section 2 of this act, every such corporation, company, or person shall furnish a detailed statement, verified in like manner as the statement mentioned in section 2 hereof, showing the amount of money actually expended annually, since commencing business, in the purchase, construction, and maintenance, respectively, of the property necessary to the carrying on of its business, and also the gross cash receipts annually, for the same period, from all sources.

Refusal to make statement a misdemeanor.

§ 4. Every corporation, company, or person who shall refuse or neglect to furnish the statements mentioned in sections 2 and 3 of this act, or either of them, or who shall furnish any false statement in relation thereto, within thirty days after having been required or requested to furnish the same as prescribed in sections 1, 2, and 3 of this act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

Copy of statement to be filed.

§ 5. Upon receiving the statements provided for in sections 2 and 3 of this act, the board of supervisors, town council, board of aldermen, or other legislative body, shall cause a copy thereof to be made and filed in the office of the county recorder of such city and county, or of the county wherein such city or town is situated.

Rates to be equal.

§ 6. Rates for the furnishing of water shall be equal and uniform. There shall be no discriminations made between persons, or between persons and corporations, or as to the use of water for private and domestic, and public or municipal purposes; provided, that nothing herein shall be so construed as to allow any person, company, association, or corporation to charge any person, corporation, or association anything for water furnished them when, by any present law, such water is free.

Excess in charging rates forfeits franchise, etc.

§ 7. Any person, company, association, or corporation charging, or attempting to collect from the persons, corporations, or municipalities using water, any sum in excess of the rate fixed as hereinbefore designated, shall, upon the complaint of said board of supervisors, town council, board of aldermen, or other legislative body thereof, or of any water-rate payer, and upon conviction before any court of competent jurisdiction, shall forfeit the franchises and the waterworks of such person, company, association, or corporation to the city and county, city or town, wherein the said water is furnished and used.

Penalty to supervisors neglecting to enforce act.

§ 8. Any board of supervisors or other legislative body of any city and county, city or town which shall fail or refuse to perform any of the duties prescribed by this act, at the time and in the manner hereinbefore specified, shall be deemed guilty of malfeasance in office, and upon conviction thereof, at the suit of any interested party, in any court of competent jurisdiction shall be removed from office.

§ 9. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the date of its passage.

TITLE 557.WATERS.*ACT 4352.

Board of examiners to contract for topographic maps. Ascertaining methods of distributing water.

§ 1. The state board of examiners are hereby empowered to enter into contracts with the director of the United States Geological Survey for the purposes of making topographic maps, to the extent of thirty thousand dollars; also for the purpose of gauging streams, determining underground water supplies, surveying reservoir sites and canal locations, for the conservation and utilization of waters of the state, to the extent of twenty thousand dollars; also for the purpose of investigating the economic quality and purity of the water of the state, to the extent of three thousand dollars, provided, no work of the nature heretofore stated shall be done where the same will interfere with the water already appropriated or in reservoirs or now in use for irrigation purposes, or domestic purposes, under the laws of this state; also with the director of the Office of Experiment Stations of the Department of Agriculture for the purpose of ascertaining the best methods of distributing and using the water, to the extent of fifteen thousand dollars; provided, however, that these expenditures for such purposes shall not be in excess of the amounts to be expended by the various departments of the federal government in the collaboration with the specific work named above; and provided further, that in case any of the departments of the federal government above mentioned do not contribute these funds for said co-operation, that the state board of examiners shall have power to enter into such contracts as may seem best to them with the lawfully authorized representatives of any of the departments of the federal government for the expenditure of said remaining balance; and provided further, that said last mentioned expenditure for such purpose shall not be in excess of the amount to be expended by that department of the federal government in collaboration with the state.

Powers of persons employed.

§ 2. In order to carry out the purposes of this act, any person or persons employed hereunder are authorized to enter and cross all lands within this state; provided, in so doing no damage is done to private property; it shall be a misdemeanor, punishable as provided in such cases, for any person or persons to willfully and maliciously remove or destroy any permanent marks or monuments made or erected by any such persons.

Appropriation. When available.

§ 3. The sum of sixty-eight thousand dollars is hereby appropriated for the purposes specified in this act, and the controller of state is hereby authorized and directed to draw warrants upon such fund from time to time, upon the requisition of the state board of examiners and the state treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to pay such warrants; provided, one-half of the appropriation herein shall be available in the fifty-ninth fiscal year, and the remaining one-half of said appropriation shall be available in the sixtieth fiscal year, except that one-half the funds for making topographic maps shall be available during the twelve months immediately following the passage of this act, and the remaining one-half of this fund shall be available during the second twelve months following the passage of this act.

Duty of surveyor general and engineer of public works.

§ 4. It is hereby made the duty of the surveyor general and the engineer of the board of public works to render any assistance desired by the state board of examiners in furtherance of the aims of this act.

This act shall take effect and be in force on and after the passage of this act.

ACT 4363.

An act to provide for the location of towpaths along the banks of navigable streams.

[Approved April 1, 1872. Stats. 1871-2, p. 940.]

Authority given.

§ 1. The board of supervisors of each county in the state may, when public convenience for the purpose of commerce requires it, cause to be located and opened a towpath, not exceeding ten feet in width, along the bank or banks of any navigable stream within the county.

Viewers.

§ 2. In order to locate and open such towpath, the same proceedings in regard to petition, viewers, etc., shall be taken as are now by law required to be taken in the respective counties of this state for the purpose of locating and opening public roads and highways.

Water frontage.

§ 3. The owner or owners of any land over which a towpath shall be located and opened shall not be deprived of the water frontage nor of the free use and enjoyment of any land so located, subject only to the right of the public to use the same for the purposes of commerce.

Fences.

§ 4. It shall not be necessary to construct or maintain fences on either side of any towpath so located, but the board of supervisors may make all necessary rules and regulations for the government and management of towpaths, and may provide for the erection of gates thereon and for the full and complete protection of the property through which the same passes.

§ 5. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

ACT 4364.

An act to provide for the appointment of an examining commission on rivers and harbors, defining their duties and powers, and prescribing their compensation.

[Approved March 19, 1889. Stats. 1889, p. 420.]

Appointment of engineers.

§ 1. The governor of the state, within thirty days after the passage of this act, shall appoint three competent engineers in good standing in their profession, to be known and called the "Examining Commission on Rivers and Harbors." The persons so appointed shall hold office until the first day of January, eighteen hundred and ninety-one. In case any vacancy may arise in such commission from any cause, the governor shall immediately fill such vacancy by appointment.

Oath of office.

§ 2. Each of said commissioners shall, before entering upon the discharge of his duties, take and subscribe an oath of office. The said commission shall organize by electing a president and secretary.

Duty of commission.

§ 3. The said commission shall make a full and careful examination into the condition of the Sacramento and San Joaquin rivers, and such other rivers and streams as they may select for that purpose. They shall determine what steps are necessary for the rectification and improvement of such rivers and streams, and shall make, or cause to be made, all such necessary and proper surveys, examinations, maps, designs, drawings, estimates, specifications, and exhibits as will enable the Congress of the United States to clearly understand the condition of such rivers, and the cost and expense of properly rectifying and improving the same. The said commission shall, whenever requested by the governor, also make an examination for a similar purpose into such harbors as they may be so required to examine. Said commission shall have power to employ such persons at such compensation as they may deem proper, as surveyors or assistants in any of the work herein above specified.

Report of.

§ 4. The said commission shall make a full report on or before the first day of October, eighteen hundred and ninety, to the governor, on the matters herein specified, which said report shall be in such form and contain such calculations, specifications, and estimates as that it may be to Congress as the basis of an appropriation by Congress for the improvement of the Sacramento and San Joaquin rivers, and other navigable streams of the state, and of such bays and harbors as may have been examined by said commission as herein provided. The superintendent of state printing shall print and publish as many copies of said report and exhibits as may be ordered by the governor.

Salaries.

§ 5. Each member of the said commission shall receive a salary of two thousand four hundred dollars per annum, payable monthly, and his traveling expenses while engaged in the performance of official duties. Said salary and expenses to be paid out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated.

§ 6. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

ACT 4368.

An act to prohibit within certain limits the mooring and anchoring of house-boats in rivers and streams, and the maintaining of privies, vaults, cesspools, sewer-pipes, and conduits on the banks of rivers and streams, and providing for punishment for violation thereof, declaring such acts to be public nuisances, and providing for the abatement of such nuisances.

[Approved March 6, 1909. Stats. 1909, p. 140.]

House-boats, mooring of. Sewage, discharge of.

§ 1. It shall be unlawful for the owner, tenant, lessee or occupant of any houseboat or boat intended for or capable of being used as a residence, house, dwelling or habitation, or for the agent of such owner, tenant, lessee or occupant to moor or anchor the same or permit the same to be moored or anchored in or on any river or stream, the waters of which are used for drinking or domestic purposes by any city, town or village within a distance of two miles above the intake or place where such city, town or village water system takes water from such river or stream; provided, however, that in the transportation of any such house-boat on any such river or stream nothing herein contained shall prevent the owner, agent, tenant or occupant of such house-boat from mooring or anchoring the same when necessary within the limits herein fixed and established; provided, such house-boat shall not remain moored or anchored within such limits for a longer period than one day.

It shall be unlawful for any person to erect, construct, excavate or maintain on or near the banks of any river or stream and within two miles above the intake of any water supply used for domestic or drinking purposes in any city, town or village any privy, vault, cesspool, sewer-pipe or conduit which shall cause or suffer to be discharged into said stream or river any sewage, garbage, feculent matter, offal, filth, refuse, or any animal, mineral or vegetable matter, or substance offensive, injurious or dangerous to health.

Penal clause.

§2. Any person who violates any of the provisions of section 1 of this act is guilty of a misdemeanor. Each day's violation of any of the provisions of said section 1 shall constitute a separate and distinct offense.

Public nuisances. Abatement of.

§3. Any privy, vault, cesspool, sewer-pipe or conduit erected, constructed, excavated or maintained on or near the banks of any river or stream within two miles above the intake of any water supply used for drinking or domestic purposes in any city, town or village, which shall cause or suffer to be discharged therefrom sewage, garbage, feculent matter, offal, refuse, filth or any animal, mineral or vegetable matter or substance, offensive, injurious or dangerous to health into such river or stream, and any house-boat or boat intended for or capable of being used as a residence, house, dwelling or habitation, which shall for more than one day be moored or anchored in or upon any river or stream within two miles above the intake of any water supply used for domestic or drinking purposes in any city, town or village are hereby declared to be public nuisances; and it is hereby made the duty of any and all sheriffs, constables, policemen and health officers to immediately abate said nuisance.

§4. This act shall take effect immediately.

ACT 4383.

An act relating to weights and weighers for warehousemen and wharfingers, and matters connected therewith.

[Approved March 24, 1903. Stats. 1903, p. 387.]

§ 1. All persons now engaged in or who may hereafter engage in a general warehouse, wharfinger or storage business for the storage of grain or other commodities, which in the course of such business are weighed, shall, before they engage in such business, or within sixty days after the appointment of an inspector of weights as provided in section 4 of this act, designate in writing a person or persons as weigher or weighers for such business at the place thereof, and the person or persons so designated shall thereupon, and before they shall do any weighing for such business subscribe, before an officer authorized to administer oaths, the following oath, to wit:

"(I or we) designated as (weigher or weighers) will correctly weigh all grain or other commodities brought to (here designating the business and place of business) for storage or weighing, or which may be taken out from the same, and in all cases render to the person bringing or receiving the same, as the case may be, upon demand, a full, true and correct account of the weight thereof."

§ 2. All persons engaged in the business in the foregoing section mentioned shall keep for and use in such business no other than true and correct scales and weights.

Said designation and said oath shall thereupon and within the time aforesaid, be recorded in the office of the recorder of the county in which such business is to be or is being carried on.

No person, excepting the person or persons thus designated and subscribing and recording such oath shall do any of the weighing of such business.

§ 3. Every person engaged in the business in said section 1 mentioned, shall keep and use therein none but true weights, and scales; said weights must conform to the United States standard of weights.

§ 4. The board of supervisors of the respective counties of the state of California, hereby are authorized to appoint for their respective counties an inspector of weights and measures, who shall hold office at the pleasure of said board and receive such compensation as each board may allow, and whose duty it shall be from time to time to test and examine all scales and weights kept or used in the business in the foregoing sections mentioned, and report all violations of this act to the district attorney of such county, whose duty it shall be to prosecute all violations hereof.

§ 5. Every violation of this act shall be and is punishable as a misdemeanor.

§ 6. Besides the prosecution of the criminal actions herein provided for, every person defrauded by false or incorrect weighing shall be entitles to recover from the person owning or conducting such business as in the foregoing sections mentioned, in any court of competent jurisdiction, three times the amount of such shortage in weight of the grain or other commodity so delivered or taken out by him.
